Avatar (2009) is a picture of what’s going on in the world, what’s going on with God’s church/Christianity, and what He’s doing about it.

The World. In the movie humans have destroyed their world so they’re trying to take over the Home (Tree) of the Na’vi because of the material wealth that lies underneath. They’ll take what they want by whatever means necessary. Likewise, in our world, humans have historically taken whatever they’ve wanted however they’ve pleased—and that seems to be especially true of Americans. God says:

Woe to you who add house to house and join field to field...The LORD Almighty has declared in my hearing: “Surely the great houses will become desolate, the fine mansions left without occupants (Isa. 5:8-9, NIV).

The Church. In the movie the Na’vi are a people with a profound spiritual connection to their goddess, Eywa, but they’re separated by tribes and reveal a great lack of faith as the story plays out—just as it is in Christianity. Professing Christians are divided by tens of thousands of denominations (tribes) and reveal a great lack of faith as can be clearly seen through my life testimony and my dartboard. While “They profess that they know God...in works they deny him” (Titus 1:16, KJV).
What God is Doing About It. In the movie, Providence produces a series of events so that a human, a total outsider, is used to unite the Na’vi people and help deliver them from their Time of Sorrow. Similarly, in control of all things being that “all things were created by him, and for him” (Col. 1:16, KJV), “work[ing] all things after the counsel of his own will” (Eph. 1:11, KJV), “declaring the end from the beginning, and from ancient times the things that are not yet done” (Isa. 46:10, KJV), God/Providence has coordinated events to use me to help unite His people who severely lack faith in Him, like the Na’vi do Eywa, during a time of great sorrow as we arrive at the end of “this present evil age” (Gal. 1:4, KJV) and enter the worst period of all human history when there “shall be great tribulation, such as was not since the beginning of the world to this time, no, nor ever shall be” (Matt. 24:21, KJV).

The Main Character, Jake
The name Jake is short for Jacob. It means supplanter. That’s what Jacob of the Old Testament did and what Jake does in the movie. He takes over a role that wasn’t rightly his.

However, God changed Jacob’s name saying to him “Thy name shall be called no more Jacob, but Israel: for as a prince hast thou power with God and with men, and hast prevailed” (Gen. 32:28, KJV)—and it’s what happens in the movie. So Jacob, Jake, refers to God’s people “the Israel of God” (Gal. 6:16, KJV), some of whom were originally Jews and some of whom were Gentiles, like human and Na’vi. That’s how important a player Jacob is in God’s Family—God has made both his life and his name synonymous with His people.

Therefore, using this movie, since He is in control of all, Jake comes from our sinful, crude, wicked, self-absorbed, dying world. And when the movie begins, Jake is broken physically and emotionally, of which he’s aware. But he’s also broken spiritually even though he doesn’t realize it. As the Na’vi say, Sky People/humans don’t see. And since it’s the same for sinners, God says “I counsel you to buy from me...salve to put on your eyes, so you can see” (Rev. 3:18, KJV). Therefore, Jake goes through a process by which he becomes ‘born again’ and is completely transformed. And Jesus says “Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God” (John 3:3, KJV). So the whole movie is about how God is transforming His people, the Israel of God, aka Jake.

Election: According to Scripture, God created two types of people, elect and non-elect.

God’s Kingdom Within
Arriving in Pandora, representing God’s turf, Jake was already a Na’vi/elect since he had the ability to access the kingdom through his braid even though he didn’t know it until someone informed him. And it’s the same for God’s elect, whom God “predestinated...unto...adoption...by Jesus Christ to himself” (Eph. 1:5, KJV). Needing to be informed, God says “How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the gospel of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things!” (Rom. 10:15, KJV, KJV). As the Bible makes clear, if you turn to God in your heart, humbling yourself before Him so that you obey Him, you’ll be given eyes to see the kingdom of God and “receive power when the Holy Spirit comes on you” (Acts 1:8, NIV) “whom God hath given to them that obey him” (Acts 5:32, KJV).

But like most lost souls, not only did Jake not know how to tap into the Source, he didn’t even believe in Eywa/God—hadn’t even heard of her! An that’s how it is for many lost elect souls today. They’ve either never heard of Jesus, don’t know much about Him, or don’t believe in Him. You can see that with testimonies of Messianic Jews who had either never heard of Jesus or thought He represents the Catholic god, unaware that Jesus was Jewish and that Catholicism isn’t New Testament Christianity. The Catholic church rejects the authority of the Bible which sends that “Christ is the head of the church” (Eph. 5:23, KJV) and makes the popes the head of the church. And the leaders of the Catholic church actually worship Lucifer. This pope is making an occult hand sign professing allegiance to Lucifer just like Anton LaVey, author of the Satanic Bible.

So it wasn’t until someone informed him, that Jake learned that his braid enabled him to connect to the Source, to Eywa/God. Similarly, the lost elect need to be informed that we can connect to God by faith through His Word, the Bible, and His Spirit. Jake was the classic example of what it means to be lost. Spiritually clueless. So you can see through my testimony booklets how royally clueless I was and how God enlightened me, the process by which He enlightened me. It’s a lifelong process.

Obedience is Required

Before getting his avatar, Jake, along with the rest of the grunts, was warned by his commander who said “Every living thing wants to kill you and eat you...if you want to survive you’ve got to obey the rules.” Likewise, Christians have been warned by the “captain of [ou]r salvation”
(Heb. 2:10, KJV) that our “adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour” (1 Pet. 5:8, KJV). Therefore, He says “Obey...the Lord...that it may go well with you” (Eph. 6:1-3, NIV). But, like Jake, Christians, haven’t taken our Commander seriously, historically, as summed up with the timeline.

So Jake wanders off, and mesmerized by the flowers, playing with them, causes a chain of events so that several animals die. And he’s so self-absorbed at this point that he doesn’t even realize it’s his fault that these creatures die. He even defends himself when Neytiri, who represents a mature Christian, says to him “All this is your fault. They did not need to die.” And so it is with us in the real world. Adam disobeyed God so that “sin entered into the world, and death by sin” (Rom. 12:5, KJV). Yet born again Christians who are supposedly enlightened have historically disobeyed God so that there’s been nothing but wars for the last 2000 years it could have been quite different having been told “Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you” (James 4:7, KJV). While Christianity is obviously TOTALLY unbiblical, Christians don’t realize the state of the world—all the wars and death—are our fault. They even defend themselves when held accountable. They laugh at Christian hypocrisy and call the one God has sent to enlighten them a false prophet, as described throughout the Bible, especially in the Old Testament and someone summed up in the cartoon.
Not having taken the commander’s orders seriously, Jake is oblivious (Luke 21:34 below)—as are most of today’s Christians, including the born again! While Satan is right on top of us, Christians are taking vacation cruises to Alaska and Israel and playing at church, playing at being Christian.

Luke 21:34, NIV Be careful, or your hearts will be weighed down with carousing, drunkenness and the anxieties of life, and that day will close on you suddenly like a trap.

So Neytiri says ‘You’re like a baby making noise, don’t know what to do.’ In God’s world and words, he is “an infant” (Heb. 5:13 below). After 2000 years Christianity is still a baby so that God says “Though by this time you ought to be teachers, you need someone to teach you the elementary truths of God’s word all over again. You need milk, not solid food!” (Heb. 5:12, NIV).

Hebrews 5:13, KJV Anyone who lives on milk, being still an infant, is not acquainted with the teaching about righteousness.

God is the One in Control. While Neytiri had been about to kill Jake, a seed from the Sacred Tree, the “most pure spirit,” stops her by landing on her arrow. Similarly, there are many testimonies of God’s Spirit stopping those who were going to kill His people. So here’s a good example of a Muslim who was stopped by the Spirit of God. And not only does God stop him from killing others but from killing himself. Jesus Christ Saves Muslim Jihadist Right Before Ending His Life.
Anointed by God

Even though Jake was completely ignorant at this point, the Sacred Tree/God’s Spirit anointed him. And he had no clue as to what it meant. It’s what God did to me right after I begged Him to take over my life. Having repeatedly begged Him to take over my life, while I was taking a bath I had a spiritual thing happen, a vision (apparently a water baptism) and, like Jake, I had no clue what it meant. I had never even heard the term baptism. Well I must have, since I was 24, but I never paid attention, apparently.

In any case, like Jake (and Jacob), all elect were chosen by God and ordained for our specific calling before we became born again. God’s elect are “vessels of mercy, which he had afore prepared unto glory” (Rom. 9:23, KJV). God chose us and ordained us for work He’s had in mind “before the foundation of the world” (Eph. 1:4, KJV). Jesus says “Ye have not chosen me, but I have chosen you, and ordained you, that ye should go and bring forth fruit” (John 15:16, KJV). “We are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which God hath before ordained that we should walk in them” (Eph. 2:10, KJV). Like Eywa in the movie, God has “declar[ed] the end from the beginning, and from ancient times the things that are not yet done, saying, My counsel shall stand, and I will do all my pleasure” (Isa. 46:10, KJV).

And because revelation is progressive, we are still quite blind for quite a time while being born again. It’s like when my neighbor yelled at me “You don’t know WHO YOU ARE!” Even though I’d been born again for years, what she said was true about me at the time, and it’s true about all elect. None of the elect know who we are in Christ—in God’s kingdom—until God informs us, which he does when we become fully devoted followers of Christ, no longer willing to turn a blind eye to our own sins or to the sins of others. Therefore, He now has me saying to the majority of today’s born again, “You don’t know WHO YOU ARE!”

Unlike typical Christians have historically done, we have to spend a decent amount of quality time seeking God “outside the camp” (Heb. 13:12-13 below)—depending on Him rather than on our own opinions (Prov. 3:5-6 below), other Christians (Acts below), or the traditions of men since we “nullify the word of God by...our tradition” (Mark 7:13, NIV, my emphasis).

Hebrews 13:12-13, NIV Jesus...suffered outside the city gate to make the people holy through his own blood. Let us, then, go to him outside the camp, bearing the disgrace he bore.

Proverbs 3:5-6, NIV Trust in the LORD with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding; in all your ways submit to him, and he will make your paths straight.

And the sooner and better you work with the Lord, obeying Him, the sooner and more fully and clearly He enlightens you. Jesus says “Whoever has my commands and keeps them is the one who loves me...and I too will love them and show myself to them” (John 14:21, NIV, my emphasis).

And in the movie Jake is “outside the camp” since he’s been separated from his people—like Jacob was separated from his family (Gen 28:5 below); Joseph was separated from his family (Gen. 37:28 below); Moses was separated from his family (Ex. 2:10 below), and Saul was separated from everyone (Gal. 1:15-16 below). That’s how God raises up more faithful followers. So I reveal how God did that in my life in the testimony booklets.

Genesis 28:5, KJV Isaac sent away Jacob: and he went to Padanaram unto Laban.

Genesis 37:28, NIV His brothers pulled Joseph up out of the cistern and sold him for twenty shekels of silver to the Ishmaelites, who took him to Egypt.

Exodus 2:10, KJV The child grew, and [his mother] brought him unto Pharaoh's daughter, and he became her son. And she called his name Moses: and she said, Because I drew him out of the water.

Galatians 1:15-16, KJV When it pleased God, who separated me from my mother's womb, and called me by his grace, To reveal his Son in me, that I might preach him among the heathen; immediately I conferred not with flesh and blood...after three years I went up to Jerusalem.

And Neytiri understood that the Sacred Tree/God’s Spirit had chosen Jake for special work among them. Likewise, mature followers of Christ can discern when God has chosen someone for greater service. In the New Testament we’re told, for instance, that “as they ministered to the Lord, and fasted, the Holy Ghost said, Separate me Barnabas and Saul for the work whereunto I have called them” (Acts 13:2 below). Except today’s Christians haven’t had such discernment, as my 20 year testimony reveals, proving that we’re at the peak of the “falling away” (2 Thess. 2:3)—considering everything He has had me saying and doing which makes it so obvious that I’ve been serving the Lord all this time. The problem is that hypocrisy blinds you as if with beams. And because of the historically hypocritical/apostate state of Christianity historically, all born again have easily—automatically—placed beams in their eyes. That’s why it’s taken a lifetime for the Lord to enlighten me to this level.
Distractions. Initially, Jake was easily distracted by everything around him. He was all over the place! However, the more he was challenged, the more focused he got, the more mature he became. And that’s how it is with God’s elect. The New Testament says “suffering produces perseverance; perseverance, character; and character, hope. And hope does not put us to shame, because God’s love has been poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit, who has been given to us” (Rom. 5:3-5, NIV). That’s why God’s people need the trials that come with the latter rain outpouring, trials symbolized by the bolt of lightning since lightning represents Satan (Luke 10:18 below). They’re to enable God’s people to focus and mature in Christ—to stop focusing on self.

Luke 10:18, KJV [Jesus said] I beheld Satan as lightning fall from heaven.

The Family of Eywa/God
The Na’vi/Christians call each other brother and sister since that’s what they are as Eywa’s Family members. Likewise, Jesus says “Whosoever shall do the will of God, the same is my brother, and my sister, and mother” (Mark 3:34-35, KJV). “All ye are brethren (Matt. 23:8, KJV).
Our Brother’s Keeper. Elect who have become born again have been commissioned by the Lord to enlighten others. Jesus says “Go ye therefore, and teach all nations...Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you” (Matt. 28:19-20, KJV). In turn, Paul said “I endure all things for the elect's sakes, that they may also obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory” (1 Tim. 2:10, KJV). So that’s what Jake does in the movie and what I’m doing in real life, and what all born gain souls will do as we come into the very last days of life on earth as we know it.

Being Full of Yourself. Unlike today’s typical Christians, when reprimanded about the difficulty of filling a cup that’s already full of itself, Jake acknowledged that he was actually empty. And that’s how it works in God’s kingdom as well. The more we empty ourselves of our own hot air, the more God fills us with His Spirit, summed up in the hymn I Surrender All.
To help get His point across, that most born again are full of themselves, the Lord has had me envision the spectrum of elect with a propane tank. According to Scripture we have to empty ourselves of our own hot air to make as much room as possible for God’s powerful Gas, the Holy Spirit.

Born Again

The Na’vi/Christians say that every person is born twice and that the second time you earn your place among the people forever. And that’s what it means to be born again and fully enlightened (John 3:3; Matt. 20:23 below).

John 3:3, KJV Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God.

Matthew 20:23, KJV To sit on my right hand, and on my left, is not mine to give, but it shall be given to them for whom it is prepared of my Father.
Jesus has a kingdom which He will rule on earth beginning with the very end of this “present evil age” (Gal. 1:4, KJV) into the millennial reign (Rev. 20:4 below). Therefore, all who become born again and follow Him closely earn the highest seat in the kingdom God set apart for them, the highest ‘rank’ they could earn. But if we don’t listen to Him and do the “good works, which God hath before ordained that we should walk in” (Eph. 2:10, KJV), we forfeit that ‘seat’ for a lesser one, or none at all. Jesus says “He that overcometh...I will not blot out his name out of the book of life” (Rev. 3:5, KJV).

Revelation 20:4, KJV I saw the souls of them that were beheaded for the witness of Jesus, and for the word of God, and which had not worshipped the beast, neither his image, neither had received his mark upon their foreheads, or in their hands; and they lived and reigned with Christ a thousand years.

Jesus also says “To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the hidden manna” (Rev. 2:17, KJV). And these biblical interpretations—being able to see and hear Jesus hidden in plain sight—is clearly “hidden manna” since Jesus says “My flesh is real food” (John 6:55, KJV). Being an overcomer is about standing against the grain alone with the Lord by faith. It means overcoming your pride and will as well as peer pressure, willing to stand alone with the Lord as long as called for by God doing whatever it takes for the good of the whole, which Jake models for us in the movie. It’s the reason Paul did what he did and said “I endure all things for the elect’s sakes, that they may also obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus” (2 Tim. 2:10, KJV). If elect didn’t become elect until after they made a choice for Christ, which is essentially how Christians have been viewing it, this sentence would make absolutely no sense! Election comes first, salvation/being born again comes second. We were elected by God for salvation—those wo were. Therefore we read the following:

The nations hearing were glad, and were glorifying the word of the Lord, and did believe—as many as were appointed to life age-during (Acts 13:48, YLT).

“As many as were appointed to life age-during” believed. In other words, not all have been appointed for it.

Idolatry. Contrary to what we’re supposed to do, love God first and foremost with all we’ve got and people second, as the two greatest commandments clearly reveal, most so-called Christians have focused on themselves instead of God while—at the same time—preaching that you can’t even be right with God apart from the group. In other words, they’ve made idols both of themselves and of the group, when God rejects idolaters! The New Testament says:

>Know ye not that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God? Be not deceived: neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor abusers of themselves with mankind, Nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners, shall inherit the kingdom of God (1 Cor. 6:9-10, KJV).

They’ve made the same mistake Peter made for which Jesus harshly rebuked him calling him “Satan [no less, saying] thou art an offence unto me: for thou savourest not the things that be of God, but those that be of men” (Matt. 16:23, KJV).
You Must Prove You Can See

While they allowed Jake to live with them, they told him that it was on a trial basis. Jake had to do what all elect have to do, learn the ways of the kingdom—how to walk, talk, think, and fight, to be a Na’vi/a Christian. Even Jesus had to learn how to live life in this world as God’s chosen vessel. “Though he were a Son, yet learned he obedience by the things which he suffered” (Heb. 5:8, KJV). And if Jesus, “Son of God” (Luke 1:35, KJV) had to learn obedience through suffering, it’s all the more true for the rest of us! It’s the example revealed throughout the new covenant.

Therefore, in the same way that the Na’vi allowed Jake to live with them on a trial basis, God has allowed professing Christians to ‘live with Him and His people’ on a trial basis for two thousand years. But only those who have proven to genuinely love Him and His people have been accepted by Him as genuine members of the Family, as Jesus says:

Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works? And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity (Matt. 7:22-23, KJV).

You Must Earn Your Wings.

This ‘Christian’ was being prepped so that he could receive the power and ability to fly, and so it is with us. “They that wait upon the LORD shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles” (Isa. 40:31, KJV). To “wait upon the Lord” refers to waiting on Him as well as serving Him.

And they had to climb up very high in the Hallelujah Mountains to get their Ikran, their bird on whom they could fly. Similarly, God says “Come up hither” (Rev. 4:1, KJV), “press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus” (Phil. 3:14, KJV).
Then, having arrived at the Eagles’ nest, so to speak, Neytiri tells Jake several things about earning his wings.

He has to Choose You: She tells Jake that he and the Ikran have to choose each other. It’s the same in the real world. We have to choose Christ but we won’t choose Him if God hasn’t chosen us! Jesus says “No man can come to me, except the Father which hath sent me draw him” (John 6:44, KJV), and “Ye have not chosen me, but I have chosen you” (John 15:16, KJV). Therefore, in the movie, Jake knew he had been chosen when the bird stayed and faced him head on.

And it’s clear to me that only the people who are reading this and doing so with a genuine interest in God, not scoffing, are the ones He has chosen. Because through this series Jesus is facing His chosen ones head on.

It’s a Dance of Death: When an Ikran has chosen you he’ll try to kill you. And that’s how it is with God! We know we have been chosen because He repeatedly “send[s us] forth as lambs among wolves” (Luke 10:3, KJV). God “give[s us] over to death for Jesus’ sake, so that his life may...be revealed in our mortal body” (2 Cor. 4:11, NIV, my emphasis). However, the death we experience—those who are genuine—is mostly death to self, death to our own will and desires. That’s how we keep our tank empty of our own hot air and filled with His Spirit, His Gas. “They that are Christ’s have crucified the flesh with the affections and lusts” (Gal. 5:24, KJV).

And since this is not a one time thing that we do, it is a dance of death, a fight of wills—and it’s His will in us that must gain the victory as Jesus modeled for us in Gethsemane.
You Have to Wrestle Him Down: The beast the elect have to wrestle is God. He’s a ‘beast’ because He’s the One who not only “make[s] peace [but] create[s] evil: [He says] I the Lord do all these things” (Isa. 45:7, KJV). That’s not something so-called Christians like to admit, having rejected the doctrine of election, along with so many of His other teachings.

In the same way that Jake wrestled down the Ikran and learned to ride him, Jesus is the beast we have to wrestle down and learn to ‘ride.’ We lasso Him down and wrestle with Him physically as we learn to walk through the trials He gives us while depending on Him, hanging on tight to Him just like Jacob did, crying out “Bless me! I won’t let go until you bless me!” (Gen. 32:25-26, KJV). And we wrestle with Him mentally by standing firm on His Word like the Gentile woman (Matt. 15:25-28 below). In other words, “we demolish arguments and every pretension that sets itself up against the knowledge of God, and we take captive every thought to make it obedient to Christ” (2 Cor. 10:5, NIV).

Matthew 15:25-28, KJV
She...worshipped him, saying, Lord, help me. But he answered and said, It is not meet to take the children's bread, and to cast it to dogs. And she said, Truth, Lord: yet the dogs eat of the crumbs which fall from their masters' table. Then Jesus answered and said unto her, O woman, great is thy faith: be it unto thee even as thou wilt.
You Have to Seal the Bond: Telling him “The first flight seals the bond. You cannot wait,” Neytiri then pushes them off the cliff. So while awkward at first, applying himself, he quickly became ‘one’ with his beast/God to whom he’s connected (John 14:17 & Acts 5:32 below) for life (John 10:27-28 & Rom. 8:39 below). Pretty soon they knew each other’s thoughts (John 17:21 below) like best friends (John 15:15 below).

John 14:17, KJV Even the Spirit of truth; whom the world cannot receive, because it seeth him not, neither knoweth him: but...shall be in you.

Acts 5:32, NIV The Holy Spirit...God has given to those who obey him.

John 10:27-28, YLT My sheep my voice do hear, and I know them, and they follow me, and life age-during I give to them, and they shall not perish.

Romans 8:39, KJV Neither height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

John 17:21, KJV As thou, Father, art in me.

1 Corinthians 2:16, KJV We have the mind of Christ.

John 15:15, KJV I have called you friends.
Getting pushed off the cliff is the same thing I saw once on a nature program where the eagle pushed her reluctant babies off a cliff to teach them to fly. And the Bible makes it clear that elect are to Him like eagles and that He is like our Father eagle, so that we see verses like this that say “in the shadow of thy wings will I make my refuge” (Ps. 57:1, KJV). It’s also the reason Eagle church was named Eagle. And because God is using me like Jake, He had Eagle be my only so-called home church. And my experience, my testimony, is like that of an eagle born prematurely—the runt of the family (Judges 6:14-16 & 1 Cor. 1:27 below)—who learned to fly solo as He had me follow Him through many so-called churches and Christian groups. Because, eagles fly solo not in formation like a pack of geese!

Judges 6:14-16, KJV The LORD looked upon [Gideon and me], and said, Go in this thy might, and thou shalt save Israel...And he [and I] said unto him, Oh my Lord, wherewith shall I save Israel? behold, my family is...and I am the least in my father's house [in my case, my Father’s house]. And the LORD said unto him, Surely I will be with thee.

1 Corinthians 1:27, KJV God hath chosen the weak things of the world to confound the things which are mighty.

Smooth Sailing. What finally made their flight smooth—which is not at all what it had been up to this point—was when Jake got confident and said “Shut up and flight straight!”

In the real world, our flight with the Lord goes smoother—our relationship goes smoothly—when we confidently live by faith and stop doubting Him. “Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need” (Heb. 4:16, KJV). So you can see this in Christian testimonies on YouTube. “Christians” are all over the place—sinning like crazy—until they finally learn to actually trust the Lord. And when we learn to put ALL of our trust/faith in Him, as Jake learns to do in the movie, we echo Paul when he said “The life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me” (Gal. 2:20, KJV). How exactly do we do that? “We demolish arguments and every pretension that sets itself up against the knowledge of God, and we take captive every thought to make it obedient to Christ” (2 Cor. 10:5, NIV, my emphasis). Yet this is obviously something Christians have not done—as a group—for hundreds of years as should be clear with the videos, for example.

And if we let newbies meander, as we do in the harlot daughters of the Vatican, the institutional Protestant so-called churches, it’s downhill from there, pretty much the way Jake took off in the movie—totally out of control! Having watered life in Christ down for them, that’s what they’ll do as well and the bond will not be sealed. Only death follows. Jesus says “Ye make him twofold more the child of hell than yourselves” (Matt. 23:15, KJV). It’s what George Barna’s and other studies reveal for those who can’t see with their own eyes (www.barna.org).

And since hell is a pagan concept which was incorporated into the Bible translations by the translators, God is referring to ‘hell’ on earth, “gehenna” says the literal translation (Matt. 23:15, YLT).
For instance, how many born again souls have died brutal and/or early deaths like Ananias and Sapphira (of Acts) for not having taken God as seriously as they should have? God knows. But living your life going to a “dead” church (Rev. 3:1 below) drains that first love passion and vision out of God’s elect. And all the institutional churches are as good as dead summed up in the book Pagan Christianity: Exploring the Roots of Our Church Practices (2008) and on the table, which can download with the supporting Scriptures at this link: http://notmocked.com/wp-content/uploads/2018/07/Fake-vs-Real-Church.pdf

Revelation 3:1-2, KJV [Jesus says] I know thy works, that thou hast a name that thou livest, and art dead. Be watchful, and strengthen the things which remain, that are ready to die: for I have not found thy works perfect before God.

Every remotely honest Christian knows that the church is dead. While new believers are very passionate about Christ, after spending a few months in the harlot system they either join the crowd of harlot-minded Christians or get discouraged because no one is interested in biblical truth when you hold it up to them. In fact, those so-called Christians turn on you. So that’s what happens in the movie.
Growing to Maturity

There was a learning curve in the movie, three months, which is how it should take in Christian life. In contrast, today’s Christians have the mindset that it must take a lifetime to mature in Christ and then, it’s really only for those who’ve gone to seminary. FAITHLESS UNBIBLICAL GARBAGE! Jesus says “Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me” (Matt. 11:29, KJV). You get out what you put into it—just as it is with everything. As we’re told “He which soweth sparingly shall reap also sparingly; and he which soweth bountifully shall reap also bountifully” (2 Cor. 9:6, KJV). Don’t put much into it and you won’t get terribly enlightened.

And since this chosen child is self-centered, ignorant, and irresponsible, representing Christianity, the BRAT (Beauty Run Amuck Today), especially Her so-called leaders, Jake must be “cured of his insanity” as the girl’s mother, the spiritual leader, tells him. God says:

Because thou sayest, I am rich, and increased with goods, and have need of nothing; and knowest not that thou art wretched, and miserable, and poor, and blind, and naked: I counsel thee to buy of me gold tried in the fire, that thou mayest be rich; and white raiment, that thou mayest be clothed, and that the shame of thy nakedness do not appear; and anoint thine eyes with eyesalve, that thou mayest see. As many as I love, I rebuke and chasten: be zealous therefore, and repent (Rev. 3:17-19, KJV).
Nearly everyone I look up who I thought was a Christian 20 years ago, is now very well established in the world with their own restaurants, law practices, medical practices, corporations, involved in harlot institutional church leadership, etc. Yet I see nothing pointing to Christ on their websites or in their response when God has had me reach out to them. It’s like He’s not even a part of their lives! They’ve TOTALLY focused on building their kingdom here on earth when Jesus says “Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal” (Matt. 6:19, KJV). So it’s as the woman says, they must be cured of their insanity. Serving self is insane because it’s actually serving Satan who’s out to destroy your life on earth and ruin your life for the eons by distracting you so that you lose your rewards. (And that’s if you’re actually born again.) The worst case scenario is that Jesus will “blot out [your] name out of the book of life” (Rev. 3:5, KJV).

Called to be Warriors
Like Jake and the Na’vi in the movie, Christians have been called to “endure hardness, as...good soldier[s] of Jesus Christ” (2 Tim. 2:3, KJV) on the frontline because “we wrestle...against spiritual wickedness in high places” (Eph. 6:12, KJV). Born again Christians have been called to the frontline of battle because it’s not as if the lost even know that we’re at war! And if they do, they still don’t know it’s a spiritual war or how to fight it. And, like the Na’vi, we are facing a brutal enemy who holds nothing back (1 Pet. 5:8 & John 8:44 below). Therefore, we really need to prepare God’s people in every way possible if we want them to come back, not only alive but minimally wounded and having pushed the boundaries of the Fatherland. Otherwise, what’s the point?

1 Peter 5:8, KJV Your adversary the devil...seek[s] whom he may devour.

John 8:44, KJV A murderer...[and] a liar.

But there’s no way an institution—especially one that’s led by Satan! (Isa. 14:13-14; John 13:13 & 1 Cor. 11:14-15 below)—could prepare God’s people as needed. The only way it can happen is in small intimate groups like Jesus modeled for us with the twelve disciples. And because we’re coming up on the worst battle of all of history, just like in the movie, we really need to get it together fast! It’s as Jesus says:

What king, going to make war against another king, sitteth not down first, and consulteth whether he be able with ten thousand to meet him that cometh against him with twenty thousand?...likewise, whosoever he be of you that forsaketh not all that he hath, he cannot be my disciple. Salt is good: but if the salt have lost his savour, wherewith shall it be seasoned? It is neither fit for the land, nor yet for the dunghill; but men cast it out. He that hath ears to hear, let him hear (Luke 14:31-35, KJV).

In other words, choose a side (like Jake does in the movie) and fight for it (for the right side) with all you’ve got! Again, as he does in the movie.

Isaiah 14:13-14, KJV [Lucifer/Satan] hast said in [his] heart, I will ascend into heaven, I will exalt my throne above the stars of God: I will sit also upon the mount of the congregation...I will be like the most High.

John 10:13, KJV The hireling...careth not for the sheep.

2 Corinthians 11:14-15, KJV Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light. Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness; whose end shall be according to their works.
And “the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God to the pulling down of strong holds” (2 Cor. 10:4, KJV). Our weapons are not weapons of the flesh, as in guns, or false doctrine, but “the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God” (Eph. 6:17, KJV). Filled with God’s Spirit, taking thoughts captive to Christ (2 Cor. 10:5 below), we win. This series is called WORD, because it’s all about this One weapon of mass destruction, Jesus, Who is “called The Word of God” (Rev. 19:13, KJV). If we don’t learn to use it/use Him, God will use it/Him on us! He says “Whosoever shall fall on this stone shall be broken [given a broken and contrite heart (Ps. 51:17 below)]: but on whomsoever it shall fall, it will grind him to powder” (Matt. 21:44, KJV). That stone is the “Rock...Christ” (1 Cor. 10:4, KJV). While Jesus already won the war and said “It is finished” (John 19:30, KJV), we still have to walk through it and ensure that we win the battles we have been called to fight.

2 Corinthians 10:5, KJV  We demolish arguments and every pretension that sets itself up against the knowledge of God, and we take captive every thought to make it obedient to Christ.

Psalm 51:17, KJV  The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit: a broken and a contrite heart, O God, thou wilt not despise.

Fired Up for the Kingdom

While Jake was pushed to learn, Christianity tells newborns to tone it down—doing Satan’s job for him! For example, when my husband and I met with the so-called Pastor Charles Ware in Indianapolis, having been released from Eagle, my husband asked him “What do we do with someone like her?” He meant someone who’s so fired up about Jesus, as if it’s a disease that needs to be cured! And Ware’s response was to make me feel like I was nuts! He did what they all do. He lied to us and to his so-called elders. It’s the standard response not only from the “hireling[s who] care...not for the sheep” (John 10:13, KJV) but even from born again Christians—from every born again Christian on my path so far whom God has had me reach out to! That’s my 20-year testimony. And it’s the testimony of a few others, as found on the web. In other words, the harlot church system breeds hypocritical apathetic Christians—since it’s led by Satan.
In contrast, because Jake was being challenged, he fell in love with the kingdom. Like the main character in Dances with Wolves, he found real meaning in what he was doing and understood that it was either “learn fast or die.” Bright person that he was (having been granted three pounds of brain like the rest of us), admonished to apply himself, he did, gaining increasingly more strength and power from the Source. Likewise, God says “Fan into flame the gift of God, which is in you” (2 Tim. 1:6, NIV). We do that by “study[ing] to shew [our]self approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth” (2 Tim. 2:15, KJV). We “let the word of Christ dwell in [us] richly in all wisdom; teaching and admonishing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing with grace in...our hearts to the Lord” (Col. 3:16, KJV).

Again, you can’t do that in an institutional setting where everyone just sits there and “listens” to Pastor Bob without interacting. God says:

Be ye doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves. For if any be a hearer of the word, and not a doer, he is like unto a man beholding his natural face in a glass: For he beholdeth himself, and goeth his way, and straightway forgetteth what manner of man he was. But whoso looketh into the perfect law of liberty, and continueth therein, he being not a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work, this man shall be blessed in his deed (James 1:22-25, KJV).

If there were actually listening, they would soon enough hear the Lord saying “Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues” (Rev. 18:4, KJV).
Like Jake in the movie, God has called us to hands on training. Mano a mano. And there’s a double meaning there. It’s hand to hand combat with the enemy. “For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places” (Eph. 6:12, KJV). And it’s brother to brother interaction. Mano means both hand and is also short for hermano which means brother. It’s like bro is for brother.

Laying Hands on their Brother: Accepting him as one of them since he had proven himself (1 Tim. 5:22 below), they lay hands on Jake (1 Tim. 4:14 below).

1 Timothy 5:22, KJV Lay hands suddenly on no man.

1 Timothy 4:14, YLT Laying on of the hands of the eldership.
Someone wrote in my baptism guestbook what many had said, because I was fired up like Jake. “You remind me of the time 11 years ago when I was reborn. Thanks!” He had had that same passion, but lost it. Yet 11 years later, a Christian should be more on fire for God than at first—not less! In fact, much more! God says “Fan into flame the gift of God, which is in you through the laying on of my hands” (2 Tim. 1:6, NIV). If you want to keep a fire going, and want it to burn brighter—which is the goal of genuine Christianity—you have to stoke it, otherwise it’ll die out.

Unlike the Na’vi, the harlot hireling system creates lobotomized zombies out of born again Christians who only “have a reputation of being alive, but...are dead” (Rev. 3:1, NIV).

And this man at Eagle was better than the typical Christian since he had been fired up. Unlike him, most of today’s so-called Christians have never been fired up about Jesus. But if you actually understood who God is and what He’s done for us, there’s no way you could not be fired up! And you’d be fired up enough consistently since you’d be following Him and getting to know Him better every day. So God confirmed what I’d written by giving me the following song to interpret, King of the World, by Jason Robert Brown, part of the lyrics in the WORD behind bars.

Rejecting God’s Anointed

Lacking faith, Neytiri and the rest of the Na’vi turned against Jake forgetting that the Sacred Tree had anointed him for special service, which Neytiri herself had professed to know this, and her parents, the elders, had supposedly also understood it. It’s the same thing that happened to me beginning with Eagle, while they praised God because I was on fire for Him, when held accountable to the Truth, they all turned on me. Even though a close friend had been the first to say “Maya! You’re a prophet and you don’t even know it!” She also turned her back on me. More importantly, on God. And it’s exactly what they did to Jesus. One day they’re praising God saying “Hosanna to the Son of David!” “Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord!” “Hosanna in the highest heaven!” (Matt. 21:9, NIV), merely days later they’re yelling “Crucify him!” (Matt. 27:22, NIV).

And it happened, both in the movie and in reality, because before others would see him as the specially anointed vessel that he was, as in reality, those God has anointed for ‘special’ service (prophets), don’t get fully accepted and received as God’s special messengers until they go above and beyond the norm to prove themselves. For example, Jesus wasn’t fully acknowledge as God until AFTER His crucifixion. And we see the same type of thing happen with Moses, for example, and Paul. Moses had to prove himself through miracles over and over and over again (read Exodus). And Paul suffered much for God’s Name and has been greatly used by God to provide us with the New Testament, yet many professing Christians today still reject him!
Many Called, Few Chosen. Since Jake had been chosen for a special assignment by Eywa/God, anointed for it in the very beginning, he had to do more than the rest—like Paul, about whom God said “I will shew him how great things he must suffer for my name's sake” (Acts 9:16, KJV). And Jesus says “many be called, but few chosen” (Matt. 20:16, KJV). So while many have been called throughout history, only a few have been chosen for greater service, given a much higher calling, revealed in the Bible primarily through the prophets. And while on the surface it might look like the reason is because they honored God better, that can’t be the case since “there is none righteous, no, not one” (Rom. 3:10). The only reason anyone has served God better (apart from Jesus, God Himself) is because of God doing that work in that person. As He says about Jeremiah, for instance, “Before I formed thee in the belly I knew thee; and before thou camest forth out of the womb I sanctified thee, and I ordained thee a prophet unto the nations” (Jer. 1:5, KJV). It wasn’t about Jeremiah. It was about what God was doing in the world. And it’s the same thing He says in the New Testament about all of His elect. “We are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which God hath before ordained that we should walk in them” (Eph. 2:10, KJV). While “should” is conditional and God has obviously given us a measure of free will, when we “decide” to honor Him we can’t take the credit because “it is God who works in [us] to will and to act in order to fulfill his good purpose” (Phil 2:13, NIV). How exactly that works I’m not sure. But it’s what the Bible teaches. The bottom line is that God is the One in ultimate control of all who “worketh all things after the counsel of his own will” (Eph. 1:11, KJV).

In any case, not being in the habit of taking “captive every thought to make it obedient to Christ” (2 Cor. 10:4, NIV), Protestants have made the same mistake Catholics have made about Mary. Catholics idolize Mary seeing her as being better than others when she was a sinner in need of a Savior just like the rest of us. Likewise, Protestants have idolized the hirelings who Jesus warned us “care...not for the sheep” (John 10:10, KJV), and—at the same time—rejected those God has chosen.

Everyone God has used in greater measure has had to go against the grain of not only the lost, the unbelievers, but of those who profess to know Him, professing Jews initially, and now professing Christians. That’s what happened in the Old Testament and in the New Testament. So it’s safe to assume that that’s what’s happened throughout New Testament church history. And it’s clearly what’s been happening over the last few decades among Christians which is why there are videos on the web like the Church Refugee Sanity Guide https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=xWdWIsgkR8&t=26s

Lacking Faith

The Na’vi/Christians ignored Jake’s special anointing and worked against the one chosen by Eywa/God—which is my testimony. In fact, everyone hated this guy:

- The Marines, representing the non-elect, wanted to use him and hated him when they discovered they couldn’t.
- The scientists, representing the elect, thought he was an idiot.
- The Na’vi, representing Christians, thought he was a moron and a traitor.

And all that hatred inspired him to rise higher. However, love could have done the same thing faster and better. However, in the real world, the only ones who could have demonstrated genuine love were Christians since “God is love” (1 John 4:8, KJV) and Jesus is God having said and proven “I and my Father are one” (John 10:30, KJV).

Lacking faith, even when hard times are right on top of them, as they are on us today, the Na’vi/Christians bind Eywa’s anointed, refusing to listen to him as he tries desperately to help them. And it’s what the hirelungs and other Christians have done to me for the past two decades. I’ve basically been bound and gagged because Christians, who should have the faith to believe and obey God’s Word, don’t.
And by being so unfaithful and unloving, we’ve kept Jesus locked up! Like those in the movie, Christians on my path have completely lobotomized themselves.

And, in the movie, it wasn’t until they realize they are whipped—many having died and their Home Tree totally destroyed—that the mother/an elder, cuts him loose and half-heartedly asks for his help, as with this account. The man said to Jesus “If you can do anything, take pity on us and help us.” ‘If you can’?” said Jesus. Everything is possible for one who believes” (Mark 9:22-23, NIV, my emphasis).

And this is what God told Isaiah because of their rebellion, their lack of faith in Him:

Make the heart of this people fat, and make their ears heavy, and shut their eyes...Then said I, Lord, how long? And he answered, Until the cities be wasted (Isa. 6:10-11, KJV).

You’d have to be pretty blind not to see that this nation has been wasted, that the whole world has been wasted!

In any case, it was at this point, when he was an outcast, as he says—“In the place where the eye does not see”—that Jake finally matured and became a man (1 Cor. 13:11 below). It was at this point that he stopped lying to others and to himself. Instead, he looked reality square on and did what needed to be done. And all of God’s people need to follow Jakes example. You need to stop lying to yourselves and to others! The state of the church, summed up with the dartboard, clearly reveals that Christians lie to themselves, and to others, since New Testament Christianity in NO WAY lines up with the new covenant in Christ.

1 Corinthians 13:11, KJV When I was a child, I spake as a child, I understood as a child, I thought as a child: but when I became a man, I put away childish things.
They Made Prayer their LAST Resort

While the Na’vi say Eywa will provide, as Christians do since that’s what the Bible says, “God will provide” (Gen. 22:8, KJV), they go to Her/to God as a last resort! The Na’vi are finally seen praying together when at the bottom of their pit. And their prayers are answered in a way they would never have imagined and beyond their wildest expectations. And that’s exactly how most Christians live: like the lost, prayer is a last ditch effort! While biblical prayer is our first line of defence, Christians have made it a last resort (Eph. 3:20-21, KJV).

Ephesians 3:20-21, KJV Now unto him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that worketh in us, Unto him be glory in the church by Christ Jesus throughout all ages, world without end. Amen.

And while the first Christians prayed without ceasing, they also didn’t really believe God would answer their prayers. Not initially as we see with this example:

Herod the king stretched forth his hands to vex certain of the church. And he killed James the brother of John with the sword. And because he saw it pleased the Jews, he proceeded further to take Peter also...And when he had apprehended him, he put him in prison...but prayer was made without ceasing of the church unto God for him. And when Herod would have brought him forth, the same night Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains: and the keepers before the door kept the prison. And, behold, the angel of the Lord came upon him, and a light shined in the prison: and he smote Peter on the side, and raised him up, saying, Arise up quickly. And his chains fell off...forthwith the angel departed from him. And when Peter was come to himself, he said, Now I know of a surety, that the LORD hath sent his angel, and hath delivered me out of the hand of Herod, and from all the expectation of the people of the Jews. And when he had considered the thing, he came to the house of Mary the mother of John...where many were gathered together praying. And as Peter knocked at the door of the gate, a damsel came to hearken, named Rhoda. And when she knew Peter's voice, she opened not the gate for gladness, but ran in, and told how Peter stood before the gate. And they said unto her,
Thou art mad. But she constantly affirmed that it was even so. Then said they, It is his angel. But Peter continued knocking: and when they had opened the door, and saw him, they were astonished (Acts 12:1-16, KJV).

And today’s Christians—for the most part—don’t even pray, much less believe God is at work. Go to a prayer meeting of a Protestant church or school of hundreds of so-called Christian families and maybe a handful will show up to pray! And most of those prayers are for their will not God’s to be done. Even when they pray God’s will, most are not focused on the Big Picture, God’s church international but on God’s church in this nation when the Christian ‘nation’ is God’s heavenly kingdom, the body of Christ international. The New Testament says “They desire a better country, that is, an heavenly: wherefore God is not ashamed to be called their God: for he hath prepared for them a city” (Heb. 11:16, KJV).

And, later, when Jake and Neytiri’s relationship is restored, the Na’vi/Christian (the girl/the Bride of Christ/the church/Christianity) tells Jake that Eywa/God won’t help him, help them (Matt. 19:26 & 6:30 below)—totally lobotomized! In the movie, she didn’t understand that Eywa/God stands on the side of righteousness being that She/He is pure and holy. And that’s how it is with humanity! Religious people don’t understand that God “love[s] righteousness and hate[s] wickedness” (Ps. 45:7, NIV) so that Christians fight wars thinking God is on their nation’s side—lobotomized. Because, “religion that God our Father accepts as pure and faultless is this: to look after orphans and widows in their distress and to keep oneself from being polluted by the world” (James 1:27, NIV).

Matthew 19:26, KJV With God all things are possible.

Matthew 6:30, KJV Wherefore, if God so clothe the grass of the field, which to day is, and to morrow is cast into the oven, shall he not much more clothe you, O ye of little faith?
Taking a Leap of Faith

Jake united the Na’vi who had rejected him by taking an insane leap of faith, jumping onto and harnessing the biggest and wildest beast that could have easily killed him (Rev. 12:17 & 1 John 4:4 below).

Revelation 12:17, KJV The dragon was wroth. (The dragon represents Satan. And because God controls Satan, he also represents God.)

1 John 4:4, KJV Greater is he that is in you, than he that is in the world [Satan].

In real time, by harnessing God we harness Satan. God says:

Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you. Draw nigh to God, and he will draw nigh to you. Cleanse your hands, ye sinners; and purify your hearts, ye double minded (James 4:7-8, KJV).

Having harnessed Him—the biggest beast around—Jake/Israel was able to fly faster, stronger, and higher than anyone had imagined possible. And it’s what God says, “My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness” (2 Cor. 12:9, KJV). And through this ministry God is revealing—will be revealing in His appointed time (Hab. 2:2-3 below)—that I have harnessed Him.

Habakkuk 2:2-3, KJV The LORD answered me, and said, Write the vision, and make it plain upon tables, that he may run that readeth it. For the vision is yet for an appointed time, but at the end it shall speak, and not lie: though it tarry, wait for it; because it will surely come, it will not tarry.
Letting Fear Control. The girl, representing the BRAT/Christianity, confesses having been afraid for her people. And the ultimate reason she was afraid was because she lacked faith in Eywa/God (1 John 4:18; 2 Tim. 1:7 below).

1 John 4:18, KJV There is no fear in love; but perfect love casteth out fear: because fear hath torment. He that feareth is not made perfect in love.

2 Timothy 1:7, KJV God hath not given us the spirit of fear; but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind.

The Priest and Prophet
This leader—a perfect frontline soldier—had another speak for him to the people, just as Moses had Aaron:

[God said to Moses] Is not Aaron the Levite thy brother? I know that he can speak well. And also, behold, he cometh forth to meet thee: and when he seeth thee, he will be glad in his heart. And thou shalt speak unto him, and put words in his mouth: and I will be with thy mouth, and with his mouth, and will teach you what ye shall do. And he shall be thy spokesman unto the people (Ex. 4:14-16, KJV).

The Bible says Moses “was mighty in words” (Acts 7:22, KJV). He was mighty in the written word (Ex. 4:10 below), credited by Jesus with writing the first five books of the Bible (John 5:46 below). However, he wasn’t an eloquent public speaker, like Aaron (Ex. 4:14-15 below).

Exodus 4:10, KJV Moses said...I am not eloquent...but I am slow of speech, and of a slow tongue.

John 5:46, KJV Had ye believed Moses, ye would have believed me; for he wrote of me.

Exodus 4:14-15, KJV Aaron the Levite...can speak well...thou shalt speak unto him, and put words in his mouth: and I will be with thy mouth, and with his mouth.
Moses was also not really one of them, like Jake wasn’t really a Na’vi. While Moses was an Israelite, he had been raised as a prince of Egypt (not with them) and became a shepherd in the wilderness outside the camp.

I see the same playing out with myself and someone God has in mind, who I had initially thought would be Bill Bean from Eagle church in Indianapolis (later I thought it was different women). I discern one day Mr. Bean and those women will wake up to themselves and still have enough time to make a difference in the world. But now I discern God will be using someone who won’t be rebellious. (That’s kind of a no-brainer!) And because of what some things He’s walked me through I’m pretty sure I know who it is now. We’ll see. So while Jesus our “high priest” (Heb. 4:14, KJV), I think he’ll raise up a man, a Christian, to come along side and speak to the people on my/His behalf like Aaron did for Moses and Tsu’Tey did for Jake in the movie.

It’s also what Barnabas did for Paul in the following passage:

When Saul was come to Jerusalem, he assayed to join himself to the disciples: but they were all afraid of him, and believed not that he was a disciple. But Barnabas took him, and brought him to the apostles, and declared unto them how he had seen the Lord in the way, and that he had spoken to him, and how he had preached boldly at Damascus in the name of Jesus (Acts 9:26-27, KJV).

I think this person will be a man and the first to stand up for me (and for Christ). He’ll validate what God has me saying, unlocking this ministry, “the vision” for the born again who will “run” with it referring again to this passage:

The LORD answered me, and said, Write the vision, and make it plain upon tables, that he may run that readeth it. For the vision is yet for an appointed time, but at the end it shall speak, and not lie: though it tarry, wait for it; because it will surely come, it will not tarry (Hab. 2:2-3, KJV).
And notice that Tsu'Tey, Jake’s brother, had viewed him as a moron. But upon seeing that Jake had harnessed the largest beast/God, his heart and mind changed so that he suddenly respected him. It’s like Alex Haley’s dad had suddenly and finally respected Alex on seeing his manuscript for Malcolm X—and that ties in (in several ways) to what I see God doing.

In any case, like Jake and Moses, except for a few years in the late 90s, I haven’t been part of so-called Christianity while also shun by them, what Jesus said having taken place. “The world cannot hate you; but me it hateth, because I testify of it, that the works thereof are evil” (John 7:7, KJV). While a member of the body, God has had me outside the camp like Moses, John the Baptist, Joseph, and Jake. And Joseph became a liaison officer between God, the Israelites, and Egypt—like Jake—for the purpose of “saving much people alive” (Gen. 50:20, KJV). And God began prophesying to me in 2001 that I would be having a Joseph Experience—as I’ve been having.

And while it’s a higher calling for those on the Special Forces, like Navy Seals, the calling is essentially the same for all born again, as it is for everyone in the Navy, to protect and defend their team. That is the very clear message of the New Testament—and our ‘team’ is “the church of the living God, the pillar and ground of the truth” (1 Tim. 3:15, KJV). And, according to Scripture, the church includes the lost elect, the lost sheep. For instance, Jesus says “Other sheep I have, which are not of this fold [which was at that point made up of Jews]: them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice; and there shall be one fold, and one shepherd” (John 10:16, KJV)—NOT tens of thousands of them, as is currently the case.
Good Leaders are People of Prayer
While Jake, like Moses, had his ‘brother’ for a spokesman, companion, and fellow warrior, he bowed the knee pleading for help from the One who had chosen him and could help him most of all—Eywa/God—because he knew (had no doubt whatsoever) that he couldn’t fulfill his calling alone. And his prayers were answered. Likewise, “Moses...intreated the LORD” (Ex. 8:30, KJV) “for vain is the help of man” (Ps. 60:11, KJV).

In fact, by the end, Jake fully understood that he was completely dependent upon the Source, that in and of himself, he was nothing and could do nothing—nothing worth anything, not even worth doing. And that’s what Jesus says “Without me ye can do nothing” (John 15:5, KJV). I’ve grasped that as well, and discern it’s partly what gets prayers answered. Christians say they believe this, but then spend their entire lives—with the exception of a few dire moments—doing their thing and relying on themselves. Yet “The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit: a broken and a contrite heart...God...wil[l] not despise” (Ps. 51:17, KJV). There’s that, and the fact that there’s nothing the broken and contrite want from this world. It’s how Jake knew the best they had to offer the Na’vi was a case of beer. Whoopee. Like Jake, I’ve seen something real and a trillion times better that what my deadbeat cronies are offering both in and out of Christianity (Phil. 3:7-11 below). This world has absolutely nothing to offer me. And it’s only when you get to that point that you’re really useful to God. Therefore, He made me aware very early on as relayed in the booklets about my testimony.

Philippians 3:7-11, KJV What things were gain to me, those I counted loss for Christ. Yea doubtless, and I count all things but loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord: for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and do count them but dung, that I may win Christ, And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith:That I may know him, and the power of his resurrection, and the fellowship of his sufferings, being made conformable unto his death; If by any means I might attain unto the resurrection of the dead.

And by having me pray His Word for His people and for Christianity for decades with a craft—the smaller ones used also for evangelism—God is proving that I am not only a woman of prayer but of biblical prayer. For 20 years God has had me praying His Word for His people in a way that’s made it easier for me to obey Him—doing it with a craft (different types of crafts)—and so that His proud and rebellious people could see that I’m not just doing what the typical Christian does and just saying “I’m praying for you.” He’s had me give many the smaller craft and has had me working on the larger piece for the whole body of Christ for a few years now. But my time is spent mostly on the smaller ones.

The Corridor

The Tree/the Holy Spirit allows the people to hear the voices of their ancestors down the corridor of time. Likewise, “the Holy Spirit...remind[s us] of everything [He has] said” (John 14:26, NIV). The corridor is a term God uses in Hotel California, a song He’s had me interpret. It’s what He speaks about in this passage:

> You have come to God, the Judge of all, to the spirits of the righteous made perfect, to Jesus the mediator of a new covenant, and to the sprinkled blood that speaks a better word than the blood of Abel. See to it that you do not refuse him who speaks (Heb. 12:23-25, KJV).

The “sprinkled blood” and “the blood of Abel” speak to us today through the Holy Spirit of God, the Corridor in Hotel California and Sacred Tree in Avatar (2009).

While we can’t see those who’ve gone before us, they still speak to us through their books, for example, because they all live within Eywa/God (John 14:18-19; Col. 3:3 below). And God speaks to us through them. You know it’s God’s voice if it lines up with His Word in relation to the new covenant.

John 14:18-19, KJV Because I live, ye shall live also.

Colossians 3:3, KJV Your life is hid with Christ in God [if you’re born again].

However, those who died apart from Christ also speak to us, as with Charles Darwin, so that David Breese wrote 7 Men Who Rule from the Grave. The difference is that they speak to us by the power of Satan, one who is ruled (and empowered) by God. Their impact is negative whereas the impact of those speaking through Christ is positive.

The Second Death. Those who’ve died apart from Christ are waiting for the second death. God says “death and the hades were cast to the lake of the fire—this [is] the second death” (Rev. 20:14, YLT). “He that overcometh shall not be hurt of the second death” (Rev. 2:11, KJV). “Blessed and holy is he that hath part in the first resurrection: on such the second death hath no power, but they shall be priests of God and of Christ, and shall reign with him a thousand years” (Rev. 20:6, KJV).

As I walk through in the booklet and playlist The Good News!, where I go over what God appears to have actually done, summed up in this graphic, there are two deaths and two resurrections. Those who obey the Lord die the second death during this life as they die to self which is why they won’t be hurt in the second death. In any case, according to Scripture—unlike what most Christians have been teaching for most of Christian history—everyone will enjoy eternal life in an amazing kingdom, after it’s all been said and done. Everything and everyone will have been not only resurrected but reconciled to God because of the work Jesus did on the Cross. “For even as in Adam all die, so also in the Christ all shall be made alive” (1 Cor. 15:22, YLT). “For God hath concluded them all in unbelief, that he might have mercy upon all” (Rom. 11:32, KJV).

But this movie, and this ministry, focuses on the next stage of God’s Plan, the end of “this present evil age” (Gal. 1:4, NIV).

United as One
The Na’vi had been separated by different tribes-denominations, but became one as Christians should be “in the unity of the faith...a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fulness of Christ” (Eph. 4:13, KJV). And they did it as the least of them (Jake) became the greatest of them, which he did because Eywa/God chose, anointed, and empowered him—and that’s how it is in the real world (Luke 9:48; John 15:16 & Acts 1:8 below).

Luke 9:48, KJV He that is least among you all, the same shall be great.

John 15:16, KJV I have chosen you, and ordained you, that ye should go and bring forth fruit.

Acts 1:8, NIV You will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes on you; and you will be my witnesses.
Having come to the understanding that he was not only physically and emotionally broken, but also spiritually broken, he stepped into his calling and united the people in order to fight their greatest battle to date against the forces of evil (Eph. 6:12, KJV) so that they were able to take back their land which had been overpowered by the enemy (Rev. 13:3 below). It’s what the Illuminati (Satan’s ministers) have done and what God is doing about it today.

Ephesians 6:12, KJV We wrestle...against spiritual wickedness in high places.

Revelation 13:3, KJV All the world wondered after the beast.

And my testimony reveals I’m “the least” since NO ONE has been willing to listen to what I’m saying for more than two decades, not even in my own home, and my husband is a professing Christian—as were my children. This calling has cost me everything: spouse, family, friends, clan, job, salary...as Jesus said it WOULD. “In the same way, those of you who do not give up everything you have cannot be my disciples” (Luke 14:33, KJV). And since we’re at this stage in the Game, nearing the very end of this “present evil age” (Gal. 1:4, KJV), I walk alone, with the Lord. I walk in No Man’s Land, just like Jake does in the movie for a bit.

So, nearing the end (of the movie and of the world)—by grace (and Grace was the brainiest one’s name)—we see that Jake has united the whole kingdom as one. And this kingdom is made up of a warrior tribe—since our “captain” (Heb. 2:10, KJV) is “a man of war” (Ex. 15:3, KJV)—warriors who had come from many different tribes (denominations and religions)—some of whom had been on opposing teams before (like Muslims and Jews). They were (in the real world will become) people who genuinely loved the Source/Eywa/God (John 14:23 below), loved one another (John 13:34 below), and worked together (Eph. 5:21 below) finding their strength from the Source (John 14:12), in order to win the war (John 15:5 & Eph. 6:12 below). And Christians have been called to be warriors. The New Testament says that we’re to “endure hardness, as a good soldier of Jesus Christ” (2 Tim. 2:3, KJV).

John 14:23, KJV If a man love me, he will keep my words.

John 13:34, KJV As I have loved you... ye also love one another. [And the way Jesus loved us was by being willing to give up EVERYTHING including His life for us.]

Ephesians 5:21, KJV Submitting yourselves one to another in the fear of God.

John 14:12, KJV He that believeth on me, the works that I do shall he do also; and greater works than these shall he do.

John 15:5, KJV Without me ye can do nothing.

Ephesians 6:12, KJV For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against...spiritual wickedness in high places.

As declared in God’s Word and portrayed with the graphic I’d made a few years before God opened up this movie to me—gave me this biblical interpretation of it—the movie reveals that all fought in the battle as one. They understood that this was the only way they could win, and that everything was on the line, and that “if a house be divided against itself, that house cannot stand” (Mark 3:25, KJV). But Christians haven’t yet figured that out! And, like the Jews and the rest of the lost, they “stone...them that are sent unto the[m]” (Luke 13:34 below).
What God’s elect are currently doing—and have been doing for 2000 years, for the most part—is pictured for us with the scene where the Na’vi fought against MASSIVE tanks with mere bows and arrows. Not real effective! That is exactly what people are doing by ignoring God and His ways since we are in a brutal spiritual war (Eph. 6:12 below) and He says that we “must worship [Him] in spirit and in truth” (John 4:24, KJV).

Luke 13:34, KJV [Thou] stonest them that are sent unto thee.

Ephesians 6:12, KJV We wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against...spiritual wickedness in high places.

“Mother Earth” is Actually Father’s Earth
Since it’s a secular movie God is equated with Mother Earth. Yet as one who understands that God controls all things, and uses them all for His purposes (Col. 1:16 & Eph. 1:11 below) and that “all things work together for good to them...predestinate[d] to be conformed to the image of his Son” (Rom. 8:28-29, KJV), who also actually believes God’s Word, I know that God is our Father who created earth and who we can humbly tap into by way of His Spirit within us and through His Word because of the work done by His Son.

Colossians 1:16, KJV All things were created by him, and for him.

Ephesians 1:11, KJV [God] worketh all things after the counsel of his own will.
In other words, the holistic view presented in the movie is actually that of the body of Christ being spiritually connected and being one in Christ (1 Cor. 12:14 below)—not one of wishful thinking as our society lives by. The movie gives us a beautiful picture of what God is saying to His elect, how Christ in us works—will work—once we as a body submit to the Head, the Source (Eph. 4:15 below), Jesus “Christ [who] is the head” (Eph. 5:23, KJV).

1 Corinthians 12:14, KJV For the body is not one member, but many.

Ephesians 4:15, KJV Speaking the truth in love, [we will] grow up into him in all things, which is the head.
Animal Idolatry. The people loved animals and respected rather than idolized them (1 Cor. 6:9-10 below). They knew animals were a blessing from Eywa/God. Therefore, they thanked Eywa/God and them for their love and faithfulness, then ‘euthanized’ them—Tour of Duty over—because dog is not God. While dogs are wonderful creatures and fabulous companions, they are not at the same level as humans and most definitely not God! Yet Americans spend nearly 60 billion dollars a year on their pets while children go hungry, homeless, and uncared for or are not well cared for www.FeedingAmerica.org—woe to us (Rom. 14:12 below).

1 Corinthians 6:9-10 Know ye not that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God? Be not deceived: neither fornicators, nor idolaters...shall inherit the kingdom of God.

Romans 14:12, KJV Every one of us shall give account of himself to God.
Seeing Each Other through God’s Eyes

The most important thing about the Na’vi is that they all loved and were connected to and committed to the Source (Mark 12:30 below). Eyes fully opened, taking their proper roles (Eph. 2:10 below), connected through (biblical) prayer, they could finally honestly say I see you, which meant they saw each other as Eywa/God saw them. Interesting (biblical) lyrics to this song too, I see. YouTube I See You Leona Lewis. https://youtu.be/GBBHmUuJYlQ.

Mark 12:30, KJV Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind, and with all thy strength: this is the first commandment.

Ephesians 2:10, KJV For we [the elect] are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which God hath before ordained that we should walk in them.

When seeing from our perspective, we cry Crucify! and then go through with it. In contrast, when seeing from God’s perspective, we understand what others are saying and doing.
Instead, today’s Christians behave just like the lost, just like the Na’vi in the movie, helping the enemy by not letting God’s anointed do what he was called to do. However, they changed.

In fact, it was when Jake had harnessed the massive beast that the girl earnestly says “I see you.” She meant I see who you are. I see why the Sacred Tree anointed you. “I’m not afraid any more.” And that’s what needs to happen between the Girl/Christianity/the Bride of Christ and me. No matter what I say or do, just being thoughtful not even mentioning ANYTHING about God, people run from me like the plague!

And I discern it’s because our society has gotten so bad that people think being genuinely nice/caring/thoughtful/decent as opposed to loud and worldly is weird. The Lord prepared me for it by having me see it happen with my children when they younger, before they corrupted themselves with the world. They were super sweet and respectful so that one of the instructors in a homeschool class that I was a part of thought it was weird. She felt more comfortable with unruly, rude, obnoxious kids than with those who were decent. And it’s what God says “Woe to those who call evil good and good evil, who put darkness for light and light for darkness, who put bitter for sweet and sweet for bitter” (Isa. 5:20, KJV). By not loving the Truth, society just keeps getting worse and worse and picking up speed. And while it’s our own fault, the majority blame God. ‘If God cared things wouldn’t be like this!’ No people, He proved just how much He cares by going to the Cross for us.
Elect Who Blew It

The majority of the Sky People/humans were super proud and considered themselves superior to the Na’vi/Christians and scoffed that the Na’vi believed they would be protected by their deity, just as “the nations conspire, and the people plot...The kings of the earth rise up and the rulers band together against the LORD and against his anointed” (Ps. 2:1-2, NIV). But the joke was on them because the people do so in “vain” (Ps. 2:1, NIV). They are the ultimate losers who get recycled to their dying world empty handed.

Likewise, “many shall come from the east and west, and shall sit down with Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, in the kingdom of heaven. But the children of the kingdom shall be cast out into outer darkness: [where] there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth” (Matt. 8:11-12, KJV). Because, as Jesus says, “Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven” (Matt. 7:21, KJV). And “He that overcometh, the same shall be clothed in white raiment; and I will not blot out his name out of the book of life” (Rev. 3:5, KJV).
While God created two types of people, vessels of wrath more commonly called non-elect, and vessels of mercy more commonly called elect (Rom. 9:22-23 in the graphic), all humans, non-elect and elect, were all born as sinners because “by one man sin entered into the world” (Rom. 5:12, KJV). And just like in the movie, we behave like vessels of wrath to one degree or another until God—through the trials of life (Acts 17:26-28 below)—changes our hearts. At least that’s true for those who take Him seriously.

Acts 17:26-28, NIV From one man he made all the nations, that they should inhabit the whole earth; and he marked out their appointed times in history and the boundaries of their lands. God did this so that they would seek him and perhaps reach out for him and find him, though he is not far from any one of us. ‘For in him we live and move and have our being.’
Devils. Worldly humans in the movie are called demons, devils (John 8:42-44 below) and Dream Walkers (Rom. 13:11 below). In the past, as revealed in the book Twelve Years a Slave by Solomon Northup, for example, ungodly people were referred to as devils.

John 8:42-44, KJV If God were your Father, ye would love me: for I proceeded forth and came from God; neither came I of myself, but he sent me. Why do ye not understand my speech? [because]...Ye are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do. He was a murderer.

Romans 13:11, KJV It is high time to awake out of sleep.

Angelic Deliverance

The giant vulture who was instrumental in bringing about their deliverance represents God’s powerful angel. God said to Moses, His prophet, “Go, lead the people unto the place of which I have spoken unto thee: behold, mine Angel shall go before thee: nevertheless in the day when I visit I will visit their sin upon them” (Ex. 32:34, KJV). Because we (God’s elect) have sinned so greatly against the Lord, we have to suffer the consequences. But God is still helping us, having sent His angel to go before us having prophesied of the latter rain (Joel 2:23 below) and of sending angels (Heb. 1:13-14 below). And when it’s all over and the angel is no longer needed, he flies off into the sunset.

Joel 2:23, KJV Be glad then, ye children of Zion, and rejoice in the LORD your God: for he hath given you the former rain moderately, and he will cause to come down for you the rain, the former rain, and the latter rain.

Hebrews 1:13-14, KJV Angels...Are...ministering spirits, sent forth to minister for them who shall be heirs of salvation.
A New Heaven and a New Earth

What God reveals through this movie is all the same as the Greatest Story Ever Told. Our planet will also end up looking a wreck and souls will be hurt since Jesus causes division between loved ones. He says:

Suppose ye that I am come to give peace on earth? I tell you, Nay; but rather division: For from henceforth there shall be five in one house divided, three against two, and two against three. The father shall be divided against the son, and the son against the father; the mother against the daughter, and the daughter against the mother; the mother in law against her daughter in law, and the daughter in law against her mother in law (Luke 12:51-53, KJV).

For thy sake I have borne reproach; shame hath covered my face. I am become a stranger unto my brethren, and an alien unto my mother's children. For the zeal of thine house hath eaten me up; and the reproaches of them that reproached thee are fallen upon me (Ps. 69:7-9, KJV).

It’s like the American Civil War when families fought against each other.

But God will fix it all for His elect who take Him seriously, also employing a tree:

He shewed me a pure river of water of life, clear as crystal, proceeding out of the throne of God and of the Lamb. In the midst of the street of it, and on either side of the river, was there the tree of life, which bare twelve manner of fruits, and yielded her fruit every month: and the leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations. And there shall be no more curse: but the throne of God and of the Lamb shall be in it; and his servants shall serve him (Rev. 22:1-3, KJV).
So while Pandora is a beautiful and amazing paradise, the Paradise I long for and have been promised (Heb. 11:16 below) will be a billion times better! (Eph. 3:20-21 below). I would have said that we’ve been longing for except that’s the problem, we haven’t been longing for it, too mesmerized by this world (James 4:4 below) and, therefore, by her leader (Rev. 13:3 below). In short, “all seek their own, not the things which are Jesus Christ’s” (Phil. 2:21, KJV).

Hebrews 11:6, KJV He is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him.

Ephesians 3:20-21, KJV Now unto him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that worketh in us.

James 4:4, KJV Ye adulterers and adulteresses, know ye not that the friendship of the world is enmity with God? whosoever therefore will be a friend of the world is the enemy of God.

Revelation 13:3, KJV All the world wondered after the beast.

Pandora’s Box. This refers to a process set in motion because of unwise interference which produces many complicated problems. And that’s pretty much what Christianity has historically done, opened up Pandora’s box by making the unwise decision to rebel against God, thereby producing a string of very complicated problems for ourselves, climaxing with the satanic Illuminati the New World Order packaged as the United Nation’s Agenda 21/2030.
Granted New Bodies. At the end of the war we’re told that the Na’vi’s time of sorrow was ending—which is what God is telling us, for those with ears that hear and eyes that see. And Jake’s ‘old man’ literally dies (his human body), a process that began with him making the conscious choice to die to self, to think and behave in a way that honors Eywa/Jesus Christ (Rom. 6:6 below). Having done so and having put up a good fight (1 Tim. 6:12 below), when he’s physically dying, he’s granted the gift of a new and better body (2 Tim. 4:6-8 & Phil. 3:20-21 below).

Romans 6:6, KJV Our old man is crucified with him, that the body of sin might be destroyed, that henceforth we should not serve sin.

1 Timothy 6:12, YLT Be striving the good strife of the faith, be laying hold on the life age-during, to which also thou wast called, and didst profess the right profession before many witnesses.

2 Timothy 4:6-8, KJV The time of my departure is at hand. I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith: Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing.

Philippians :20-21, NIV Our citizenship is in heaven. And we eagerly await a Savior from there, the Lord Jesus Christ, who, by the power that enables him to bring everything under his control, will transform our lowly bodies so that they will be like his glorious body.
The Sin of Coveting

The whole thing—the war—arose from greedy people wanting Unobtainium, what cannot be obtained. It’s just like the BRAT/Christianity chases after a worldly lifestyle while lying to Herself that She loves God (Matt. 6:24; 1 John 2:15 below). That life Christians have been chasing after is unobtainable. You cannot have it both ways because “whosoever...will be a friend of the world is the enemy of God” (James 4:4).

Matthew 6:24, NIV No one can serve two masters. Either you will hate the one and love the other, or you will be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve both God and money.

1 John 2:15, KJV Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him.

The fact is that if you’re born again, you’ve been granted a very special commission! It’s like Queen Esther of the Old Testament, “If you remain silent at this time, relief and deliverance for [God’s people] will arise from another place [from someone else], but you...will perish [in other words, you’ll get Home as “as one escaping through the flames [assuming you’re actually born again]” (1 Cor. 3:15, NIV)]->[It is obvious that] you have come to your royal position [as a born again child of the “King of kings” (Rev. 17:14)] for such a time as this” (Est. 4:14, NIV). Therefore, “put on the full armor of God, so that you can take your stand against the devil’s schemes” (Eph. 6:11, KJV) and “fight the good fight of faith” (1 Tim. 6:12, KJV) for the glory of God. Amen.
