Beauty and the Beast

www.notmocked.com
All my work is dedicated to Jesus, and it goes out to His sheep.

Love is patient, love is kind. It does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud.
1 Corinthians 13:4

Father, fill the born again with genuine love like Jesus expressed.

What God is doing in the world parallels the movie Beauty and the Beast (1991). In reality, all we need is one person to see God’s hand in the ministry He has given me (Hab. 2:2-3 below) for genuine Christianity to transform. Similarly, in the movie, all that was needed was one woman to love the beast, just one, in order for the whole kingdom to experience a total makeover.

Habakkuk 2:2-3, KJV The LORD answered me, and said, Write the vision, and make it plain upon tables, that he may run that readeth it. For the vision is yet for an appointed time, but at the end it shall speak, and not lie: though it tarry, wait for it; because it will surely come, it will not tarry.

While Jesus is the Prince of Peace (Isa. 9:6, KJV) He’s represented by the beast in the movie since this is what He says about Himself, about who He is, “I make peace, and create evil: I the LORD do all these things” (Isa. 45:7, KJV). He’s the One in control of all, including evil and, therefore, Satan, since “all things were created by him, and for him” (Col. 1:16, KJV). In other words, there’s not one bad thing that happens in the world without God’s permission. He made that clear in the first chapter of the book of Job (below) and with the pigs in the New Testament (Matt. 8:31-32 below).

Job 1:9-12, KJV Satan answered the LORD, and said, Doth Job fear God for nought?... And the LORD said unto Satan, Behold, all that he hath is in thy power; only upon himself put not forth thine hand. So Satan went forth from the presence of the LORD.

Matthew 8:31-32, KJV The devils besought him, saying, If thou cast us out, suffer us to go away into the herd of swine. And he said unto them, Go.

However, Gaston represents the beast of the Bible (Rev. 11:7 below), who represents Satan.

Revelation 11:7, NIV When they [born again Christians] have finished their testimony, the beast that comes up from the Abyss will attack them, and overpower and kill them.
There are Five Groups

There are five groups represented in the movie: commoners, Belle, those who aren’t what they seem to be, a beast, and a brute.

The Commoners. The people from the “little town” are satisfied with their routine mundane lives because God has created two types of people, vessels of wrath and of mercy (Rom. 9:22-23, KJV) which I’ve summed up on this graphic. The commoners represent the “vessels of wrath fitted to destruction” (Rom. 9:22, KJV). They were programmed by God to be satisfied with a surface level existence—worse, to chase after evil. Therefore, they look down on Belle because she’s “not part of the crowd” and has her head “in some cloud” so goes the song Little Town.
Belle. Belle is part of an “odd” family which doesn’t fit in, not because they’re all that weird but because they’re not as simple-minded as the crowd whose leader is a rude, crude, macho brute (2 Cor. 4:4 below), over whom the town dimwits drool (Rev. 13:3 below). Belle/Beauty represents genuine Christianity who the common people think is “peculiar.” And that’s how it is (1 Pet. 2:9 below).

2 Corinthians 4:4, KJV The god of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine unto them.

Revelation 13:3, KJV All the world wondered after the beast.

1 Peter 2:9, KJV Ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, an holy nation, a peculiar people; that ye should shew forth the praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvellous light.

Those who Aren’t what they Seem. There’s a group in the movie who represent carnal Christianity (Gal. 5:16 below). In other words, Christianity as you know it. They’re a weird group, weird represented in the movie by the fact that they’re not actually human. And yet somewhat human. The reason for it being that they had a curse placed on them (Gen. 3:15, KJV).

Galatians 5:16, KJV Walk in the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfil the lust of the flesh.

Genesis 3:17-19, NIV To Adam [God] said, “Because you listened to your wife and ate fruit from the tree about which I commanded you, ‘You must not eat from it,’ “Cursed is the ground because of you; through painful toil you will eat food from it all the days of your life. It will produce thorns and thistles for you, and you will eat the plants of the field. By the sweat of your brow you will eat your food until you return to the ground, since from it you were taken; for dust you are and to dust you will return.”

The Beast. The beast is actually a gentleman (Matthew 11:29 below) even though he’s ghastly looking (Isa. 53:2-3 below).

Matthew 11:29, KJV Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart.

Isaiah 53:2-3, NIV He had no beauty or majesty to attract us to him, nothing in his appearance that we should desire him. He was despised and rejected by mankind, a man of suffering, and familiar with pain. Like one from whom people hide their faces he was despised, and we held him in low esteem.

The Brute. All the commoners, the Dimwits, admire Gaston since he’s so muscular and attractive. But he represents Satan, the leading antichrist. And this is how it’s played out in real life “for man looketh on the outward appearance, but the LORD looketh on the heart” (1 Sam. 16:7, KJV). In fact, God has prophesied that the majority of the world will follow after the beast/Satan in the very last days of life on earth as we know it. They’ll do that since “no one [will] be able to buy, or to sell, except he who is having the mark, or the name of the beast, or the number of his name” (Rev. 13:17, YLT). The only way you’ll be able to survive without his mark—without making an alliance with Satan—is by being a faithful follower of Christ so that He provides for you in the same way that He provided for Old Testament prophets, like Elijah (1 Kings 17:4 below) and for His followers in the New Testament (Matt. 14:20 below).

1 Kings 17:4, KJV And it shall be, that thou shalt drink of the brook; and I have commanded the ravens to feed thee there.

Matthew 14:20, KJV And they did all eat, and were filled: and they took up of the fragments that remained twelve baskets full.
God has said the following about “the woman” during the last days, and she represents genuine Christianity:

The woman fled into the wilderness, where she hath a place prepared of God, that they should feed her there a thousand two hundred and threescore days [3½ years] (Rev. 12:6, KJV).

And to the woman were given two wings of a great eagle, that she might fly into the wilderness, into her place, where she is nourished for a time, and times, and half a time [3½ years], from the face of the serpent (Rev. 12:14, KJV).

And “the serpent” has several aliases. Scripture says “the great dragon was cast out, that old serpent, called the Devil, and Satan, which deceiveth the whole world: he was cast out into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him” (Rev. 12:9, KJV).

Belle—The Peculiar Girl

Belle, representing genuine Christianity, is beautiful inside and out because that’s what God has purposed to do, and will do in these last days. We’re told the following:

Christ did love the assembly [commonly called the church], and did give himself for it, that he might sanctify it, having cleansed [it] with the bathing of the water in the saying [other translations says “with the word” referring to the Bible and the Lord Jesus Christ since “his name is called The Word of God” (Rev. 19:13, KJV)], that he might present it to himself the assembly in glory, not having spot or wrinkle, or any of such things, but that it may be holy and unblemished (Eph. 5:25-27, YLT).

God will fulfill His purposes and make genuine Christianity beautiful and “unblemished” which is NOT what she is right now, nor has been for most of Christian history as summed up in the timeline.
So while we’ve been “in these last days” (Heb. 1:2, KJV) for the past 2000 years, summed up with this graphic, we are now in the last of last days.

She Has Big Dreams. Belle “has her head in some cloud” because genuine Christians believe the promises of God. He says “Seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you” (Matt. 6:33, KJV). “All these things” include a life better than the best we can imagine because God “is able to do immeasurably more than all we ask or imagine, according to his power that is at work within us” (Eph. 3:20, NIV), “us” referring to those who have “the Holy Spirit, whom God has given to those who obey him” (Acts 5:32, NIV). God has promised His followers an amazing life for the rest of eternity, beginning with His millennial reign, summed up in this graphic which I go over in The Good News! booklet and playlist.
She Loves Books. Belle has a love for books and one book in particular, “her favorite,” which represents the Bible—a book she reads over and over and over again. And that’s how it is for the genuine Christian since by reading it over and over again we get to know the Lord/God better and better (Phil 3:10-11 below). Also because we know that when we “hid[e the Word] in [our] heart...[we’re less likely to] sin against [God]” (Ps. 119:11, KJV). And that’s important since “very one of us shall give account of himself to God” (Rom. 14:12, KJV) which I’ve summed up in the graphic.

Philippians 3:10-11, NIV I want to know Christ—yes, to know the power of his resurrection and participation in his sufferings, becoming like him in his death, and so, somehow, attaining to the resurrection from the dead.
She Explains the Book to Sheep. Belle/Beauty/the Bride of Christ/the church/genuine Christianity explains the book to sheep—which is what God has me doing. The book is the Bible and the sheep are born again Christians since “we are the sheep of his pasture” (Ps. 100: 3, KJV), Jesus being “the good shepherd” (John 10:10, KJV). And I represent Belle since genuine Christianity is the body of Christ which is made up of many born again Christians “just as each of us has one body with many members, and these members do not all have the same function” (Rom. 12:4, NIV). According to God born again Christians represent His Bride both as individuals and as a group so that He says “Thy Maker is thine husband; the LORD of hosts is his name; and thy Redeemer the Holy One of Israel; The God of the whole earth shall he be called” (Isa. 54:5, KJV).
And every born again soul has been called to be “Christ’s ambassadors, as though God were making his appeal through us. [Therefore] We implore you on Christ’s behalf: Be reconciled to God” (2 Cor. 5:20, NIV). Rather than living for the world, as most professing Christians are currently doing (including the born again), the born again are supposed to be fulfilling the Great Commission (Matt. 28:19-20 in the graphic). So that’s what He has me doing through this ministry.

The God of the Town
Because God’s ways are the opposite of our ways (Isa. 55:8-9 below), the beast in the movie represents Jesus and Gaston represents “the beast” also known as Satan “the god of this world” (2 Cor. 4:4, KJV). Technically, he represents an antichrist, and antichrists represent Satan (1 John 2:18 below). Scripture says:

The dragon [Satan] gave the beast [antichrist] his power and his throne and great authority...[and] The whole world was filled with wonder and followed the beast (Rev. 13:1-3, NIV).

Isaiah 55:8-9, KJV For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, saith the LORD. For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways, and my thoughts than your thoughts.

1 John 2:18, NIV You have heard that the antichrist is coming, even now many antichrists have come.
And, again, “the whole world,” including born again Christians, has historically “followed the beast” as summed up with the apostasy timeline, doing it for loving our will more than Gods.

He Loves Himself. Gaston loves himself more than anything or anyone which is exactly true of Satan. We’re told for example:

For thou hast said in thine heart, I will ascend into heaven, I will exalt my throne above the stars of God: I will sit also upon the mount of the congregation, in the sides of the north: I will ascend above the heights of the clouds; I will be like the most High (Isa. 14:13-14, KJV).

To him, it’s all about him! He’s the only one that actually concerns him since God created Satan (Ezek. 28:13-15 below) to fulfill His purposes.

Ezekiel 28:13-15, KJV Thou hast been in Eden the garden of God...Thou art the anointed cherub...Thou wast perfect in thy ways from the day that thou wast created, till iniquity was found in thee.

Basically, God is using Satan to reveal to the born again what we’re actually like, which is “desperately wicked” (Jer. 17:9, KJV) and the reason we don’t just need Jesus but need to “take captive every thought to make it obedient to Christ” (2 Cor. 10:5, NIV). If born again Christians had historically done that we would not have landed the church/Christianity in the apostate state that she’s in, divided by the tens of thousands when called to be united as one, we also wouldn’t have landed the world in the New World Order/Agenda 21.

God has also set out to reveal to the fallen angels (Satan and the demons) that He’s the One in control. We’re told that God’s “intent was that now, through the church [through biblical Christianity], the manifold wisdom of God should be made known to the rulers and authorities in the heavenly realms, according to his eternal purpose that he accomplished in Christ Jesus our Lord” (Eph. 3:10-11, NIV). The “rulers and authorities in the heavenly realms” are Satan and the demons since “we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against...spiritual wickedness in high places” (Eph. 6:12 below).
He’s a Brute. All antichrists are brutes because they represent Satan, aka “the devil...[who] was a murderer from the beginning, and abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him...for he is a liar, and the father of it” (John 8:44, KJV). And Jesus made it clear that if you’re not with Him—following Him—you’re serving Satan. He says “He that is not with me is against me; and he that gathereth not with me scattereth abroad” (Matt. 12:30, KJV). Therefore, the world has historically, and is currently, full of brutes, which is so easy to see in our day.

While Christians profess to know that it’s not about religion but about having a relationship with God, which we can only do through Jesus (Acts 4:12 below), we’ve still historically focused on religion! Even though God enlightened Christians during the Middle Ages with the Great Reformation, since those Christians didn’t take all their “thought[s] captive to Christ” (2 Cor. 10:5, NIV)—and haven’t since—they kept many of the pagan practices of the Catholic church, a move that has snowballed with time so that Christianity today is totally unbiblical and God is saying “Come out of her, my people [come out of fake Christianity/fake religion], that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues” (Rev. 18:4, KJV). “Religion that God our Father accepts as pure and faultless is this: to look after orphans and widows in their distress and to keep oneself from being polluted by the world” (James 1:27, KJV).

Acts 4:12, KJV Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved.
He Wants Belle. Gaston wants Belle not because he cares about her, but because he wants her like a possession, a prize. Also, because she loves the beast/Jesus, his rival. And that’s how it is in reality. Satan/Lucifer/the Devil wants the church/genuine Christianity because she belongs to the Lord since “Christ...loved the church, and gave himself for it” (Eph. 5:27, KJV). So we’re informed that Satan said in his heart “I will sit also upon the mount of the congregation...I will be like the most High” (Isa. 14:13-14, KJV). He’s doing that through the “hireling[s]” who Jesus warned us “care...not for the sheep” (John 10:13, KJV). But since we didn’t listen to Him Satan’s “ministers” (2 Cor. 11:14-15 below) have been able to deceive the born again for centuries as they set out to do with the counter reformation of the Middle Ages summed up in the Jesuit Oath.

2 Corinthians 11:14-15, KJV Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light. Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness; whose end shall be according to their works.

Excerpt from the Jesuit Oath
I further promise and declare that I will, when opportunity present, make and wage relentless war, secretly or openly, against all heretics, Protestants and Liberals, as I am directed to do, to extirpate and exterminate them from the face of the whole earth...I will hang, waste, boil, flay, strangle and bury alive these infamous heretics, rip up the stomachs and wombs of their women and crush their infants’ heads against the walls, in order to annihilate forever their execrable race. That w'en the same cannot be done openly, I will secretly use the poisoned cup, the strangulating cord, the steel of the poniard or the leaden bullet, regardless of the honor, rank, dignity, or authority of the person or persons, whatever may be their condition in life, either public or private, as I at any time may be directed so to do by any agent of the Pope or Superior of the Brotherhood of the Holy Faith, of the Society of Jesus.
He Takes the Book from Her. Satan has essentially taken the Book from Christianity by changing the translations of the Bible and giving everyone an image of Christianity that is pagan in origin—not what is actually described in the New Testament. Satan did it over the course of the past 2000 years. So even though God revived Christianity 500 years ago, with what’s known as the Protestant Reformation—because the human heart is “desperately wicked” (Jer. 17:9, KJV), Satan was able to fool us into adopting a pagan system and calling it Christianity.

So even though God has been enlightening His people over the past several decades, and had Frank Viola and George Barna publish Pagan Christianity: Exploring the Roots of Our Church Practices in 2008, even born again Christians have ignored the truth having been brainwashed by Satan’s lies and their own wicked hearts (Jer. 17:9 below). Because, as I’ve summed up on the table, and in many other ways, as with the dartboard, anyone who knows the New Testament of the Bible KNOWS that Christianity as most people view it TOTALLY DOESN’T LINE UP WITH THE TRUTH!

Jeremiah 17:9, KJV The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked.
He Attacks the Castle. Towards the end of the movie, representing the end of “the present evil age” (Gal. 1:4, NIV), Gaston/Satan attacks the castle/Christianity “having great wrath, because he knoweth that he hath but a short time” (Rev. 12:12, KJV). And there are MANY ways God is revealing to us that we are nearly at the very end of this evil age, which I cover throughout the booklets the Lord has had me write, summed up in The Good News! And loads of people are aware of it. They’re just not doing what needs to be done which is to “repent...therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out, [and] times of refreshing shall come from the presence of the Lord” (Acts 3:19, KJV). God has prophesied of a latter day outpouring greater than the one He did 2000 years ago (Joel 2:23; Rev. 11:3-6 below) which is commonly called Pentecost and is written about mostly in the book of Acts. But He says “The showers have been withholden, and there hath been no latter rain; [because] thou hadst a whore's forehead, thou refusedst to be ashamed” (Jer. 3:3, KJV)—and that’s my 20-year testimony.

Joel 2:23, KJV Be glad then, ye children of Zion, and rejoice in the LORD your God: for he hath given you the former rain moderately, and he will cause to come down for you the rain, the former rain, and the latter rain in the first month.

Revelation 11:3-6, KJV I will give power unto my two witnesses [born again Jews and Gentiles], and they shall prophesy a thousand two hundred and threescore days, clothed in sackcloth...These have power to shut heaven, that it rain not in the days of their prophecy: and have power over waters to turn them to blood, and to smite the earth with all plagues, as often as they will.
A Cursed Kingdom

The kingdom is cursed because the prince—representing humanity in this scene—was a spoiled brat. Again, that’s how it is because “there is none righteous, no, not one” (Rom. 3:10, KJV. And there isn’t because the first human disobeyed God so that through him all rebels, human and angelic, were cursed as we’re told in these passages:

Sin entered the world through one man [Adam], and death through sin (Rom. 5:12, KJV).

The LORD God said unto the serpent, Because thou hast done this, thou art cursed above all...Unto the woman he said, I will greatly multiply thy sorrow and thy conception; in sorrow thou shalt bring forth children; and thy desire shall be to thy husband, and he shall rule over thee. And unto Adam he said, Because thou hast hearkened unto the voice of thy wife, and hast eaten of the tree, of which I commanded thee, saying, Thou shalt not eat of it: cursed is the ground for thy sake (Gen. 3:14-17, KJV).

However, the prince really represents “the vessels of mercy” (Rom. 9:23, KJV), God’s elect, those who have the ability to change during this life. So just like in reality, in the movie he has to learn to love, he has to become a genuinely loving person—within a given timeframe—in order to be transformed from the beast that he currently is referred to by God as “desperately wicked” (Jer. 17:9, KJV). And, in reality, even though Jesus is God “though he were a Son [the Son of God], yet learned he obedience by the things which he suffered” (Heb. 5:8, KJV).

And the given timeframe is the course of our lives, for us as individuals, and the allotted time God has determined for us as a group. He says, for example, “they [the majority of the Jews] shall fall by the edge of the sword, and shall be led away captive into all nations: and Jerusalem shall be trodden down of the Gentiles, until the times of the Gentiles be fulfilled” (Luke 21:24, KJV).

God has also informed us that not all elect will change. He says “He that overcometh, the same shall be clothed in white raiment; and I will not blot out his name out of the book of life” (Rev. 3:5, KJV).
Basically, God created two types of people, elect and non elect. Elect have the ability to acknowledge the truth, that Jesus is God whereas non-elect don’t. And the elect were born with their names written in the book of life since “he [God] hath chosen us in him [in Christ] before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and without blame before him in love” (Eph. 1:4, KJV).

But if we don’t respond properly when He knocks on the door of our heart—summed up with the graphic—which He does our whole lives, He will “blot out [our] name out of the book of life” (Rev. 3:5, KJV).

However, as I walk through in The Good News! booklet and playlist, it is not forever. God will blot out that elect person’s name from the book of life for the eons, the ages that come after this one is over. Even so, the consequences for not taking God seriously are huge. He says “After thy hardness and impenitent heart treasurest up unto thyself wrath against the day of wrath and revelation of the righteous judgment of God” (Rom. 2:5, KJV).
And for those who think ‘That’s not fair’ to the vessels of wrath, according to Scripture no one will suffer God’s wrath for no reason. Rather, every non-elect soul will receive the punishment they earned by the sins they committed. And Christian rebellion is actually worse than not having been enlightened, as we’re informed in the following passage, for example:

For since the message spoken through angels was binding, and every violation and disobedience received its just punishment, how shall we escape if we ignore so great a salvation? (Heb. 2:2-3, NIV). [The answer is we won’t.]

That servant, which knew his lord's will, and prepared not himself, neither did according to his will, shall be beaten with many stripes. But he that knew not, and did commit things worthy of stripes, shall be beaten with few stripes (Luke 12:47-48, KJV).

The difference between elect and non-elect is that the elect who acknowledge the truth about who Jesus is, God, revealing they actually believe it since “the Spirit...God has given to those who obey him” (Acts 5:32, NIV, my emphasis), are spared God’s wrath. But in exchange, they get to suffer Satan’s wrath. Scripture says the following:

I saw the souls of them that were beheaded for the witness of Jesus, and for the word of God, and which had not worshipped the beast, neither his image, neither had received his mark upon their foreheads, or in their hands; and they lived and reigned with Christ a thousand years (Rev. 20:4 below).

Christians have focused on this verse applying ONLY to end time Christians when it clearly applies to all since all who honored God will reign with Jesus a thousand years.
Besides, born again Christians will not receive any rewards for the work they did that was done apart from Jesus’ leading, as we’re informed in 1 Corinthians 3:11-15, again, for which I made this graphic.

So while most people are angry with God because of all the evil in the world, they ignore the fact that it is our hearts/their heart that are “desperately wicked” (Jer. 17:9, KJV). The majority also ignore what God has done for us through Jesus!

In turn, they are also unaware of what God has done for ALL through Jesus, which is to have given everyone eternal life—when it’s all been said and done, not only after the millennial reign of Christ but after the eons/the ages, again, which I summed up with this graphic and go over in The Good News! booklet and playlist.
And from everything God has revealed to me, I discern that He actually created very few non elect souls compared to the number of elect. I discern He created just enough non-elect to make His Plan work. The problem is that since our hearts are “desperately wicked” (Jer. 17:9, KJV), most elect have not honored Christ during their lives and have behaved as non elect, and will suffer the consequences for it. Moreover, the world has suffered the consequences for it historically, consequences that have essentially piled up over the years so that today the world is out of control so that kids, rather than help a dying friend, video taped his death.

Time is Running Out. When Belle comes into the beast’s life, it’s made clear that this is his last chance to learn to love, which will be proven when he is loved in return. So even though he knows he’s running out of time, it still takes him a while to change. And that’s how it’s been. For the past several decades—my study reveals the last 50 years or so—God has been further enlightening the born again about the lies we’ve believed concerning both the world and Christianity. Yet we’re still—as a group—not repenting, proving what God says about us, that our hearts ARE “desperately wicked” (Jer. 17:9, KJV). Humans are desperately wicked even while born again when we don’t “take captive every thought to make it obedient to Christ” (2 Cor. 10:5, NIV). No matter how bad things have gotten—and they’ve gotten pretty bad worldwide—born again Christians have STILL refused to repent and get right with God!
Wolves Attack. There’s a pack of wolves that attack Belle’s father, Belle, and the beast, again, representing reality (Matt. 7:15; Eph. 6:12; 1 Pet. 5:8; Matt. 27:22-23 below).

Matthew 7:15, KJV Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves.

Ephesians 6:12, KJV For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places.

1 Peter 5:8, KJV Your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour.

Mathew 27:22-23, NIV What shall I do, then, with Jesus who is called the Messiah? Pilate asked. They all answered, Crucify him! Why? What crime has he committed? asked Pilate. But they shouted all the louder, Crucify him!

A Choice Must Be Made
The beast/God gives Belle/the elect a choice. She can let her father rot in jail or take his place. And that’s essentially how it is. Belle’s father represents the elect since Jesus “stretched forth his hand toward his disciples, and said, Behold my mother and my brethren!” In other words, my Family members. And “because he laid down his life for us...we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren” (1 John 3:16, KJV). And that’s what Belle did. She gave her life in exchange for her father’s just as Jesus gave His life in exchange for the world because “God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life” (John 3:16, KJV). Therefore, Jesus “is the Saviour of all men, specially of those that believe” (1 Tim. 4:10, KJV).

In contrast, most born again Christians have historically been too busy loving the world to genuinely love God or man. Again, as 1 Corinthians 3:11-15 (below) makes clear, you can be born again, have the “foundation” of Christ and yet build on that foundation in a way that you enter eternity “as by fire.” So while everyone including most born again have loved the world, God says “Whosoever therefore will be a friend of the world is the enemy of God” (James 4:4, KJV, my emphasis). “Repent therefore! Otherwise [He says], I will soon come to you and will fight against them [against you]” (Rev. 2:16, NIV).

1 Corinthians 3:11-15, KJV
For other foundation can no man lay than that is laid, which is Jesus Christ. Now if any man build upon this foundation gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, stubble; Every man's work shall be made manifest: for the day shall declare it, because it shall be revealed by fire; and the fire shall try every man's work of what sort it is. If any man's work abide which he hath built thereupon, he shall receive a reward. If any man's work shall be burned, he shall suffer loss: but he himself shall be saved; yet so as by fire.

How the Girl Falls in Love
Belle/the Girl, representing born again Christians, falls in love with this ghastly beast, who represents God, more specifically Jesus, by spending time with him. The more time she spent with him, the more she liked and then loved him. And that’s how it is. The more time we spend in God’s Word, the Bible, obeying the new covenant in Christ, the better we get to know the Lord who calls us “friends” (John 15:15, KJV). So He’s revealing through the booklets He’s had me write, first of all, how He got me to spend time with Him, mostly shared through the booklets on my testimony, and then how good a Friend He’s been to me, shared mostly through the biblical interpretations.
While many of us ‘fall’ for the Lord with the initial first understanding of who He is and what He’s done, that so-called love doesn’t run very deep, like modern marriages which end in divorce. It’s not until we get ‘locked up’ with him, like Belle was and like I’ve been (information shared in the testimony booklets, Eph. 4:1; 2 Tim. 1:8 below), that we really get to know Him and love Him in a way that actually makes a difference.

Ephesians 4:1, NIV  As a prisoner for the Lord, then, I urge you to live a life worthy of the calling you have received.

2 Timothy 1:8, NIV  Do not be ashamed of the testimony about our Lord or of me his prisoner. Rather, join with me in suffering for the gospel, by the power of God.

Dimwits form Mobs

Being dimwits the people help this brute as he sets out to kill the beast who’s actually a gentleman and a prince “for all seek their own, not the things which are Jesus Christ's” (Phil. 2:21, KJV). This is clearly what’s happened as I walk through in the booklets on my testimony. It’s also what God has prophesied will happen in the last days.

Their bodies [the bodies of dead Christians] will lie in the public square of the great city—which is figuratively called Sodom and Egypt—where also their Lord was crucified. For three and a half days [which actually refers to 3½ years] some from every people, tribe, language and nation will gaze on their bodies and refuse them burial. The inhabitants of the earth will gloat over them and will celebrate by sending each other gifts, because these two prophets [referring to the group of born again Jews and Gentiles] had tormented those who live on the earth (Rev. 11:8-10, KJV).
Refusing to take God seriously the majority of the world’s population will follow after the beast, the antichrist, Satan, and come against the born again, who will be empowered by God as His close followers were empowered in both the Old and New Testament. God will use those miracles which will “torment” the rebellious to draw in more earnest seekers of truth—as He’s always done. For example, when Moses led the Israelites out of Egypt, having performed many miracles against the Egyptians “a mixed multitude [of Egyptians and other nationalities] went up also with them” (Ex. 12:38, KJV) since they could see by the miracles that these people represented the One true God.

Looks are Deceptive

Belle is confused because of the beast’s appearance. Representing the born again, even though she’s fallen in love with the beast/Jesus, she struggles for a bit because he’s a beast (Isa. 45:7 below). And that’s how it is. Christians, including the born again, have struggled with God for the past 2000 years because His rules appear beastly. However, because they haven’t really gotten to know Him, they’ve misunderstood what God has actually done, again covered in The Good News!

Isaiah 45:7, KJV I form the light, and create darkness: I make peace, and create evil: I the LORD do all these things.

In any case, having given it some earnest thought Belle makes the choice to NOT CARE what other people will think. And, again, that’s what’s needed. You have love God, Jesus, more than anything or anyone, no matter what anyone else thinks or says about you, or even does to you. God made that pretty clear, as He says in the following passages:

No man can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other (Matt. 6:24, KJV).

If any one doth come unto me, and doth not hate his own father, and mother, and wife, and children, and brothers, and sisters, and yet even his own life, he is not able to be my disciple (Luke 14:26, YLT).
By using the word “hate” God is merely stressing the point of just how much more important to us He has to be than anything or anyone else.

The Fight. There’s a fight between people, those who dishonor God who come against genuine Christians represented by the mob coming against the castle. And there’s also a fight between Jesus coming against the ungodly, which I’ve summed up in this graphic timeline of the very last days, and is represented in the movie between the beast/Jesus and Gaston/the antichrist/Satan.

And in the movie as the beast/Jesus has gained control over the beastly human/Gaston/the antichrist, he lets him go out of compassion since “God...is rich in mercy” (Eph. 2:4, KJV). It’s basically what He’s done for all of human history, with a few exceptions. Out of compassion God has ‘let us go’ repeatedly over the course of human history. But the human is so beastly that upon recovering himself, he (unlike the Beast—who is actually the Prince, as in Jesus our God), does not show compassion but continues on his course to be Number One since he represents Satan. And all who are not born again represent him, and will, therefore, suffer the brutal consequences. God says “Because of your stubbornness and your unrepentant heart, you are storing up wrath against yourself for the day of God’s wrath, when his righteous judgment will be revealed” (Rom. 2:5, NIV).
A Cursed People are Transformed

The people of the kingdom (the castle) not of the town get transformed in the end, and that’s how it will be at the end of “this present evil age” (Gal. 4:1, KJV), according to Scripture (Rom. 9:22-23; 1 Cor. 15:51-53)

Romans 9:22-23, KJV God, willing to shew his wrath, and to make his power known, endured with much longsuffering the vessels of wrath fitted to destruction...that he might make known the riches of his glory on the vessels of mercy, which he had afore prepared unto glory.

1 Corinthians 15:51-53, KJV Behold, I shew you a mystery; We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed, In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed. For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality.

Genuine Love is Powerful. If the born again had genuinely loved the Lord we would not have landed the church/Christianity in great apostasy. While Christians, including the born again, “claim to know God...by their actions they deny him” (Titus 1:16, NIV). While the born again have the “Spirit, whom God has given to those who obey him” (Acts 5:32, NIV), they only obeyed Him initially so that He gave them His Spirit. But it’s clear that we have historically NOT continued to obey Him.

Therefore, as revealed in the booklets covering my testimony, God, “who worketh all things after the counsel of his own will” (Eph. 1:11, KJV), raised me up in a way that I would genuinely love Him and be willing to stand alone against the grain for years, as He brings His Plan for Christianity and the world to fruition, doing it by giving me a genuine fear of God since “the fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom” (Prov. 9:10, KJV, my emphasis). In turn, I’m represented by Belle, who learned to genuinely love the beast.
So in the same way that Jesus’ genuine love for the Father transformed the world 2000 years ago, genuine love for God will again transform the world, the Christian world, the church, the castle, the kingdom of God. In the movie, everything and everyone in the castle gets transformed by their love. And that’s how it will be, just as it was before:

They that gladly received his word were baptized: and the same day there were added unto them about three thousand souls. And they continued stedfastly in the apostles’ doctrine and fellowship, and in breaking of bread, and in prayers (Acts 2:41-47, KJV).

Those first Christians were so totally transformed by God’s love, Word, Spirit, and power that they were willing to suffer the loss of all, including their lives—in brutal deaths—as described in Foxe’s Book of Martyrs, http://kotisatama.net/files/kotisatama/Tekstit_ja_kirjat/foxe.pdf

And since “Jesus Christ the same yesterday, and to day, and for ever” (Heb. 13:8, KJV), it’s also what earnest lovers of God were willing to suffer throughout Old Testament history as described in Hebrews 11:

By faith the people passed through the Red Sea as on dry land...By faith the walls of Jericho fell...And what more shall I say? I do not have time to tell about Gideon, Barak, Samson and Jephthah, about David and Samuel and the prophets, who through faith conquered kingdoms, administered justice, and gained what was promised; who shut the mouths of lions, quenched the fury of the flames, and escaped the edge of the sword; whose weakness was turned to strength; and who became powerful in battle and routed foreign armies. Women received back their dead, raised to life again. There were others who were tortured, refusing to be released so that they might gain an even better resurrection. Some faced jeers and flogging, and even chains and imprisonment. They were put to death by stoning; they were sawed in two; they were killed by the sword. They went about in sheepskins and goatskins, destitute, persecuted and mistreated—the world was not worthy of them. They wandered in deserts and mountains, living in caves and in holes in the ground. These were all commended for their faith, yet none of them received what had been promised, since God had planned something better for us so that only together with us would they be made perfect (Heb. 11:29-40, NIV).
She Doesn’t Recognize the Man. When the beast has transformed Belle doesn’t recognize the man, at first. It was the same 2000 years ago when the Lord resurrected (ref below). And it’s been the same throughout Christian history. Born again Christians have struggled recognizing God’s presence. And it’s because they haven’t gotten to know Him as well as they should have. And they haven’t because they haven’t really believed everything He has said, just as it was in the beginning:

That same day two of them were going to a village called Emmaus, about seven miles from Jerusalem. They were talking with each other about everything that had happened [Jesus’ life and the crucifixion]. As they talked and discussed these things with each other, Jesus himself came up and walked along with them; but they were kept from recognizing him. He asked them, “What are you discussing together as you walk along?” They stood still, their faces downcast...[And having ‘brought Him up to speed’] He said to them, “How foolish you are, and how slow to believe all that the prophets have spoken! (Luke 24:13-26, NIV).

Some Never Get It. Because not all are elect, and not all elect take God seriously, those people don’t get it, won’t get it. This is represented in the movie through the transformation of the castle and it’s inhabitants whereas the towns people weren’t transformed. Scripture says “Many shall be purified, and made white, and tried; but the wicked shall do wickedly: and none of the wicked shall understand; but the wise shall understand” (Dan. 12:10, KJV).

There’s a Wedding

This is what Christians are looking forward to, “the marriage supper of the Lamb” (Rev. 19:9, KJV). However, God requires that we have wedding attire for the occasion which we can only get from Him. He says:

When the king came in to see the guests, he saw there a man which had not on a wedding garment: And he saith unto him, Friend, how camest thou in hither not having a wedding garment? And he was speechless. Then said the king to the servants, Bind him hand and foot, and take him away, and cast him into outer darkness, there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth (Matt. 22:11-14, KJV).
I counsel thee to buy of me gold tried in the fire, that thou mayest be rich; and white raiment, that thou mayest be clothed, and that the shame of thy nakedness do not appear; and anoint thine eyes with eyesalve, that thou mayest see. As many as I love, I rebuke and chasten: be zealous therefore, and repent (Rev. 3:18-19, KJV).

And that is what He’s saying. If you want to be part of, not only the wedding but the millennial reign of Christ and not suffer the second death (Rev. 2:11, 20:6 & 21:8 below). You MUST repent and get right with God and stay right with God.

Revelation 2:11, KJV He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; He that overcometh shall not be hurt of the second death.

Revelation 20:6, NIV Blessed and holy are those who share in the first resurrection. The second death has no power over them, but they will be priests of God and of Christ and will reign with him for a thousand years.

Revelation 21:8, NIV But the cowardly, the unbelieving, the vile, the murderers, the sexually immoral, those who practice magic arts, the idolaters and all liars—they will be consigned to the fiery lake of burning sulfur. This is the second death.

However, the “lake of burning sulfur” is not Hell since that’s a pagan concept. Again, I walk through it in The Good News! and give you links to others who walk through it more thoroughly. And while Hell is not real, the consequences for not honoring Jesus are huge and long lasting, referred to by God as “torment” as we read in the following passage:

If any one the beast doth bow before, and his image, and doth receive a mark upon his forehead, or upon his hand, he also shall drink of the wine of the wrath of God, that hath been mingled unmixed in the cup of His anger, and he shall be tormented in fire and brimstone before the holy messengers, and before the Lamb, and the smoke of their torment doth go up to ages of ages (Rev. 14:9-11, YLT).

Therefore, may you become like Belle.
