All my work is dedicated to Jesus, and it goes out to His sheep.

There is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit. Romans 8:1

Father, teach Your children to walk in the Spirit.

Summary of the Movie

Most characters in the movie, in all the movies the Lord has me interpret like this, represent more than just one character.

And the whole movie centers around a cookbook. As noted in Maya Makes a Mess, a children’s book the Lord has had me interpret, what God is doing is all about Christians and cooking, working in the kitchen since Jesus left us to “feed [His] sheep” (Acts 21:17, KJV).

However, like the characters in the movie who don’t really believe their motto, Christians don’t really believe what God has said in the Bible, in His cookbook. For example, they don’t think anyone can cook—only those who’ve gone to seminary or serve in a so-called church. In the movie they don’t really believe that anyone can cook and come to find out, Oh yeah, it’s true. Anyone can cook, even a lowly rat because he’s helped by Gusteau, who represent the Holy Spirit.

And the rat represents a born again soul as well as the Holy Spirit depending on the scene. And all the rats represent the born again because we are rats being that our hearts are “desperately wicked” (Jer. 17:9) UNLESS “we take captive every thought to make it obedient to Christ” (2 Cor. 10:5, NIV), which the born again have historically NOT done as made clear with my apostasy timeline.

And God’s Holy Spirit is represented by a rat because He is a rat! He says “I make peace and create evil: I the Lord do all these things” (Isa. 45:7). God creates evil. He’s a rat! But, like Remy, He’s also good. Very good. Especially to the rats, His elect, since He created us for glory.

How the Mighty Have Fallen
In the beginning of the movie it’s just like Anton Ego, the food critic says, “No. I don’t think anyone can cook.” Anton Ego represents institutional church leaders, pastors, the one’s that are actually elect. Though they’re mostly not born again. Like them, Ego sees himself as being greater than Gusteau, than God. Pastors see themselves as being greater than God since they don’t obey Him—and refuse to be held accountable as my testimony reveals, shared in the booklets and videos. Hence the name, Ego. They’re just a little bit delusional for not actually loving the truth. God says “Because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved...for this cause God shall send them [a] strong delusion, that they should believe a lie” (2 Thess. 2:10-11, KJV). However, some of them are saved, are born again, but because of their intense hypocrisy, they’ve blinded themselves with beams.

Chef Gusteau was the best chef around. But His restaurant has fallen into disrepute because of the cooks. Likewise, Christianity has fallen into disrepute because of professing Christians. God says “the name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles through you, as it is written” (Rom. 2:24, KJV). At first it was through the faithless Jews and now it’s through faithless Jews and Christians.

And Gusteau in Spanish means taste, as in “taste and see that the Lord is good: blessed is the man that trusteth in him” (Ps. 34:8, KJV)—which the rats don’t do, except for Remy.

The Problem with Being Human

In the very beginning of the movie Remy’s in trouble. That’s the problem with being a rat. And he and the rest of the rats represent God’s elect. And the elect the born again are in trouble we live in a fallen world ruled by Satan (John 12:31 & 2 Cor. 4:4 below) who’s ruled by God. That’s the problem with being human.

John 12:31, YLT Now shall the ruler of this world be cast forth.

2 Corinthians 4:4, KJV The god of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine unto them.

Remy says “It pretty evident that I need to rethink my life!” And that’s exactly how it is for all the born again since “judgment...begin[s] at the house of God” (1 Pet. 4:17, KJV). It begins with those who profess to be Christian.
The world, humanity, is in desperate trouble. And things will only get better for God’s elect when the born again learn to live God’s way, in other words, when we learn to cook since God tells us to “Feed [His] sheep” (John 21:17, KJV). And that’s what this movie is about, rats learning to cook.

God says “Come now, and let us reason together...though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool” (Isa. 1:18, KJV). There’s a better way to live than like a rat.

The Gifts of God

Remy’s life is hard not only because he’s a rat but because he has a highly developed sense of smell. And because of it his brother tells him “You have a gift!” And he’s right. All born again have “different gifts, according to the grace given to each of us [by God]” (Rom. 12:6, KJV).

Remy and Emile belong to a colony of rats in the same way that all born again belong to the Family of God. “We, being many, are one body in Christ, and everyone members one of another. Having then gifts different according to the grace that is given to us” (Rom. 12:5-6, KJV). We all have different gifts. Remy’s is that he can tell the difference between foods and, therefore, becomes a very good cook.

And one of my gifts is that I have discernment. I can tell the difference between what’s biblical and what isn’t. And, therefore, am a decent cook—spiritually speaking.

Remy’s dad, however, is not impressed. He says “So you can smell ingredients. So what?!” He represents pastors who think it’s no big deal to have this level of discernment. Who cares! They are “foolish...ignorant...beast[s] before [God]” (Ps. 73:22, KJV).

While God told us that “all things were created by him, and for him” (Col. 1:16, KJV) no one is interpreting secular resources like He has me doing when this is something all mature born again followers of Christ should be able to do! And since pastors consider themselves to be the leaders of God’s people they should be doing this all the more! If anyone should have this level of discernment, it should definitely be the leaders.

However, Remy’s Dad has a change of heart about his gift, at least somewhat, because Remy saved his life by having discerned/smelled out poison in the food he was about to eat. So he gives him the job of being Poison Checker for the colony.

In real life, Dad is my Father/God. And He gave me this level of discernment so that I could be a Poison Checker/a Watchman for the Family of God, the colony of rats.

Therefore, those who humbly read the booklets the Lord has had me write, and/or watch these videos will see that I’m not full of myself, as I get accused. I’m walking in the calling God has given me—a very high calling. What I’m doing is “walk[ing] in the Spirit” (Gal. 5:16, KJV). I’m not honoring myself. Rather, God has honored me. Scripture says “No one takes this honor on himself, but he receives it when called by God” (Heb. 5:4, NIV). And through the ministry He’s given me, God reveals in many ways that He’s given me a very high calling. He’s made it obvious.

God’s Standard

The fact is that Remy lives by a much higher standard than the rest of the rats. In the same way, I live by a higher standard than most Christians. Remy’s Dad doesn’t care what he eats, which is true for the rest of the rats and most Christians so that they swallow Satan’s lies whole. Like the rats, most Christians are ‘eating’ garbage. Therefore, God says “Woe unto them that call evil good, and good evil; that put darkness for light, and light for darkness; that put bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter! (Isa. 5:20, KJV).
In contrast, Remy is very picky about what he eats. And that’s how we need to be knowing that “many false prophets are gone out into the world” (1 John 4:1, NIV). Remy only wants to eat “the good stuff.” And God says “Prove all things; hold fast that which is good. Abstain from all appearance of evil” (1 Thess. 5:21-22, KJV). “Have nothing to do with the fruitless deeds of darkness, but rather expose them” (Eph. 5:11, NIV).

And Remy, this rat, knows that the “good stuff” is found in the kitchen. The kitchen represents the Bible, for the most part. And it’s where nothing is poisoned because “The word of the LORD is tried” (Ps. 18:30, KJV). The food in the kitchen has already be tested for safety. So while the kitchen is the one place where the food is known to be safe, Dad counsels Remy to stay out of the kitchen and to hate people. In this scene, Dad is serving as a “minister” of Satan (below). It’s what church leaders have historically done by encouraging Christians to trust them rather than the Bible—since what they’re doing contradicts the new covenant—and by dividing God’s Family rather than helping to united us. All those denominations, divisions in the body of Christ, tens of thousands of them, were created by church leaders, people Jesus called by “hireling[s]...who care...not for the sheep” (John 10:13, KJV). And Christians were told to “watch out for those who cause divisions and put obstacles in your way that are contrary to the teaching [we] have learned. Keep away from them” (Rom. 16:17, KJV). But as God is making clear in these last days, we didn’t pay any attention to Him at all!

2 Corinthians 11:13-15, KJV For such are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ. And no marvel; for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light. Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness; whose end shall be according to their works.
So while told to stay away from humans, Remy values them because they are creative with food. And humans, more specifically born again Christians, are creative with the Cookbook/the Bible (or can be) because it’s as Jesus said, “Every scribe which is instructed unto the kingdom of heaven is like unto a man that is an householder, which bringeth forth out of his treasure things new and old” (Matt. 13:52, KJV).

Like me, since I’ve learned from God on TV among other places, Remy learns from Gusteau on TV and Gusteau represents the Holy Spirit. The Bible says “They shall all be taught of God” (John 6:45, KJV). And “God is a Spirit” (John 4:24, KJV). And since “all things were created by him, and for him” (Col. 1:16, KJV), through the ministry He has given me God is revealing how He has used everything and everyone to teach me my whole life, beginning at age four confirming what He was saying to me with the show The Flying Nun. And He’s using it all—the TV (using secular movies), as well secular songs and books, and places, etc.—to reveal the truth about what He has said, that “greater is he that is in you [in the born again], than he that is in the world” (1 John 4:4, KJV). While Satan has been using the TV (along with radio, and music, everything) for his purposes—to control the masses—God is revealing that He trumps Satan in those who have His Spirit within, which He gives to “them that obey him” (Acts 5:32, KJV). He’s also doing it to draw in His elect who are hooked on the TV, especially the younger set.

So Remy learns that not only is each bite totally unique, you can combine flavors to get something new. And that’s pretty much what God has me doing, combining His Word with different aspects of His world creating something quite new. And like Maya in Maya Makes a Mess, and me in real life, this rat, Remy, thoroughly enjoys food, as if to “delight [him]self...in the Lord” (Ps. 37:4, KJV)—since Jesus is food as He says “Meat indeed” (John 6:55, KJV).

Having learned from Gusteau, the Holy Spirit, Remy has a secret life. And that’s how it is for me as well because no one on my path has been open to God (for two decades) including professing Christians, including those I discern are born again. And it’s because we’re all under God’s judgment for having been so unfaithful to Jesus and because He’s working out His Plan. So while members of my family were interested in God in the beginning, that interest died out, just as it has for most Christians historically.

And Christians often get extremely angry when I bring Him up beyond the basics—like the woman with the shotgun. So I have my secret life with the Lord which He’s having me share through the booklets and videos having said the following to me:

Write the vision, and make it plain upon tables, that he may run that readeth it. For the vision is yet for an appointed time, but at the end it shall speak, and not lie: though it tarry, wait for it; because it will surely come, it will not tarry (Hab. 2:2-3, KJV).

So while I’ve been waiting for God’s “appointed time” I’ve been watching Christians doing exactly what God has told us NOT to do. For instance, while He says “Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth” (Matt. 6:19, KJV), every Christian I’ve ever known has focused on doing exactly that. And it’s what most professing Christians have historically focused on doing. They’ve been living for this world just like the lost when God clearly warned us that “Anyone who chooses to be a friend of the world becomes an enemy of God” (James 4:4, KJV). Rather than relying on the Lord for all things, Christians have let the “anxieties of life” rule over them so that the Day of the Lord “will close on [the majority] suddenly like a trap” (Luke 21:34, NIV).
Being Righteous in an Unrighteous World

Remy’s brother, Emile, doesn’t understand him. But Remy says that he can be himself around him. It’s like Christians don’t understand me, but I can still be myself, a Christian, around them. In contrast, the majority of the lost get quite hostile the minute I bring Jesus up. So God says “The proud and arrogant person—“Mocker” is his name—behaves with insolent fury” (Prov. 21:24, NIV). And the thing is, Christians have become very arrogant spiritually. So just like in the movie when Remy is talking to Emile about the cheese and his eyes glaze over, talking to Christians any deeper than the surface level, their eyes glaze over! And it is just like in the movie since Jesus is “real food” (John 6:55, NIV).

Handling Food

Remy walks uprightly making sure he has clean paws. The psalmist asked God, “Lord, who shall abide in thy tabernacle? who shall dwell in thy holy hill?” (Ps. 15:1, KJV). And God replied “He that walketh uprightly” (Ps. 15:2, KJV). God also says “Touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you” (2 Cor. 6:17, KJV).

Remy also gets very excited about food, as I do as well—as did Jesus. It is said of Him “the zeal of thine house hath eaten me up” (John 2:17, KJV). And that’s how it should be for all Christians since Jesus “gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify unto himself a peculiar people, zealous of good works” (Titus 2:14, KJV). So Remy doesn’t just like food, he’s into cooking it.
And Jesus was that sacrifice, the “Lamb of God” (John 1:29, KJV). And Satan represents the lightning since Jesus said “I beheld Satan as lightning fall from heaven” (Luke 10:18, KJV). And he’s the one who was behind the Jews and Romans who crucified Him, though planned and coordinated by God. Scripture says “it pleased the Lord to bruise him...Making his soul an offering for sin” (Isa. 53:10, KJV). “Christ loved us and gave himself up for us as a fragrant offering and sacrifice to God” (Eph. 5:2, NIV). It’s like Jesus was ‘roasted’ for us by God who was “pleased” to do it because of what He’s actually doing. “By setting aside in his flesh the law with its commands and regulations. His purpose was to create in himself one new humanity out of the two, thus making peace” (Eph. 2:15, NIV).

And those who want to please God also offer our lives as a living sacrifice so that “we are to God the pleasing aroma of Christ among those who are being saved and those who are perishing” (2 Cor. 2:15, NIV). In other words, we are the food God uses to feed His sheep. “To the one [the non-elect or proud elect] we are an aroma that brings death; [and] to the other [the elect who are more humble, we are] an aroma that brings life” (2 Cor. 2:16, NIV). But because of historical and extreme Christian hypocrisy, Christians have mostly brought death.

However, one day, when God removes the blinders, elect will find this material a pleasing aroma. Scripture says “Thanks be to God, who always leads us as captives in Christ’s triumphal procession and uses us to spread the aroma of the knowledge of him everywhere” (1 Cor. 2:14, NIV). That’s what I’m doing through this ministry—will be doing.

Being Teachable

Remy admires Gusteau, God, so he reads his book and applies the knowledge he learns from it. He knows that Gusteau, Jesus, is “the best chef in the whole world!” But Emile, his brother who represents the typical Christian, thinks reading is a bad thing. Like Emile, most Christians don’t read the Bible very much and think it’s bad when some of us do and actually apply what we learn from it. And they think that not submitting to institutional pastors is a crime.
when God made it clear that “we ought to obey God rather than men” (Acts 5:39, KJV). And, He says “Do not merely listen to the word, and so deceive yourselves. Do what it says” (James 1:22, NIV)—like Remy.

Living up to Your Potential

Gusteau says that “you mustn’t let anyone else define your limits.” God tells us the same thing. He says “Don’t let anyone look down on you because you are young, but set an example for the believers in speech, in conduct, in love, in faith and in purity” (1 Tim. 4:12, KJV). He says “because you’re young” since Paul was speaking to Timothy, but God is speaking to all born again Christians no matter what age we are. In other words, don’t let anyone else define your limits.

Gusteau also says that while “anyone can cook, only the fearless can be great.” Again, God says the same thing, “Many are called, but few are chosen” (Matt. 22:14, KJV). While many born again Christians have been called for greater service but only a few have been chosen because the majority are too afraid to go against the grain—when that’s what’s needed. We have to be “fearless.” If we’re faithful in a little, God entrusts us with greater work. He says “Well done good and faithful servant; thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things” (Matt. 25:23, KJV). This is something God repeats throughout our life after we’ve become born again. The more faithful we continue to be, the more responsibility God continues to give us. And when He does, we’re not to let anyone else define our limits. Because, as a part of God testing our faith, He’ll allow EVERYONE to try to get us to not follow Him, including born again Christians because it’s all about proving our faith, our faithfulness, to Him. So Jesus says:

> If any man come to me, and hate not his father, and mother, and wife, and children, and brethren, and sisters, yea, and his own life also, he cannot be my disciple. And whosoever doth not bear his cross, and come after me, cannot be my disciple... whosoever he be of you that forsaketh not all that he hath, he cannot be my disciple (Luke 14:26-27 & 33, KJV).
The Falling Away

t was because of Anton Ego, who represents elect institutional leaders, that Gusteau’s restaurant lost one of its stars. And that’s how it is. Because of historically poor Christian leadership—minus the very early days of the church—“the name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles” (Rom. 2:24, KJV). It’s in great part because of historical Christian hypocrisy that Jesus’ name is used as a curse word today. But it’s much worse than that. “The leaders of this people cause them to err; and they that are led of them are destroyed” (Isa. 9:16, KJV). He’s speaking primarily of spiritual leaders since “judgment...begin[s] at the house of God” (1 Pet. 4:17). If Christianity had had good leadership, we would be living the life since Jesus “c[a]me that they [we] might have life, and that [we] might have it more abundantly” (John 10:10, KJV). He didn’t just mean after death. And He left us to establish on earth a church “without blemish” (Eph. 5:27, KJV), which is hardly what Christians have done as revealed through these graphics. We were supposed to “live by faith” (Rom. 1:17) in order to reveal that He is actually greater than then one in the world, Satan.

Being Hated

Since they’re rats, they’re hated by just about everyone and always in danger. It’s the same for Christians because “we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against...spiritual wickedness” (Eph. 6:12, KJV). We’re in a spiritual war. And Satan “the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour” (1 Pet. 5:8, KJV). Like the rats in the movie we always have to be on our guard against spiritual wickedness (Satan and the demons) but also against our own wicked hearts. When we don’t “take captive every thought to make it obedient to Christ” (2
Cor. 10:5, NIV), we make bad choices and end up in messed up situations like Emile. As Scripture says “I do not understand my own actions...I do not do what I want, but I do the very thing I hate” (Rom. 7:15, ESV). That’s why Jesus said “Watch and pray or you’ll fall into temptation” (Matt. 26:41, KJV).

And even though you didn’t know they were there, the whole colony of rats was actually in the house. You just couldn’t see them until the ceiling came crashing down. And that’s how it is. I can’t see the rest of the rats since no professing Christian or lost soul on my path has been open to God. So it seems like there’s not a born again soul around! And yet I know there are a ton of rats alive today because “there is a remnant” (Rom. 11:5, KJV). The problem is that they’re asleep right now (Rev. 3:1-2 below). And that’s a pretty ratty thing to be doing, sleeping, considering how much Jesus has done for us. It’s also pretty dangerous considering the times in which we’re living.

Revelation 3:1-2, NIV You have the reputation of being alive, but you’re dead. Wake up, and strengthen what remains and is about to die, for I have not found your works complete in the sight of my God.

Going Against the Grain
Remy goes against the grain of everyone in his colony for the sake of the book. It’s what Jesus did as well as many of the Old Testament prophets, and what He’s had me doing. God says “Broad is the way that leadeth to destruction, and many there be which go in thereat” (Matt. 7:13, KJV). Since hell is a pagan concept not found in the literal translations of the Bible, destruction doesn’t mean hell. It means a destroyed life on earth, or even destroyed life for the eons. For example, many will enter the next life “saved; yet so as by fire” (1 Cor. 3:15, KJV).
As for Jesus, “All the disciples forsook that he said “All...forsook me” (2 Tim. 4:16, KJV). And it’s the him” (Matt. 25:56, KJV). And the same thing happened to Paul so same thing that’s happened to me. All the Christians I ever knew forsook me, more importantly, they forsook the Lord. They’ve all backslidden. Yet, rather than backslide, we should all be like Remy who goes against the grain of all.

And while we go against the grain of the rats—against born again Christians who aren’t walking in the Spirit—we also come under attack from the non-elect, as Remy does in the movie with the woman who’s trying to kill him with her shotgun.

Yet Remy was willing to risk his life in order to save the book which represents the Bible, the cookbook. It’s what many have historically done and there are a couple of good documentaries about it:

1. A Lamp in the Dark https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=RmXBj2N9fhY
2. Tares Among the Wheat https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=qe3CMDXeG4w, and
3. The Forbidden Book.

Like Remy, all born again should love the Book more than our own lives. God says:

The judgments of the LORD are true and righteous altogether. More to be desired are they than gold, yea, than much fine gold: sweeter also than honey and the honeycomb. Moreover by them is thy servant warned: and in keeping of them there is great reward (Ps. 19:9-11, KJV).

They overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony; and they loved not their lives unto the death (Rev. 12:11, KJV).
Separation
Remy gets separated from the rest of his clan. And that’s how it’s always been for those whom God has used in greater measure:

- Joseph was separated from his family and country, and then also from the Egyptians.
- Moses was separated from his family, from the Israelites, and then also from the Egyptians.
- John the Baptist was raised in the wilderness.
- Anna lived her life in the temple.
- Saul spent years alone before becoming Paul the Apostle.

It’s through the isolation wilderness experience that God builds up His people. That’s why the Bible says “Consider it pure joy, my brothers and sisters, whenever you face trials of many kinds, because you know that the testing of your faith produces perseverance. Let perseverance finish its work so that you may be mature and complete, not lacking anything” (James 1:2-4, NIV). Through his trials Remy is saved by the book—and that’s how it is in reality as well since Jesus is “called The Word of God” (Rev. 19:13, KJV).

Waiting on the Lord
Remy waited a long time for a sound, a voice, a sign, something, and that’s how it’s been for me. I’ve been waiting for over 20 years for someone to acknowledge and walk in the truth as God informed me that I would have to do (Hab. 2:2-3 below). Waiting is a very big part of God’s Game Plan. He says “Wait on the LORD: be of good courage, and he shall strengthen thy heart:
wait, I say, on the LORD” (Ps. 17:14, KJV). By waiting on God we prove that we actually do believe what He says and that we trust Him.

Habakkuk 2:2-3, KJV The LORD answered me, and said, Write the vision, and make it plain upon tables, that he may run that readeth it. For the vision is yet for an appointed time, but at the end it shall speak, and not lie: though it tarry, wait for it; because it will surely come, it will not tarry.

So while he waits, Remy reads the book and begins to talk to the man in it. And that’s how it is with God’s Book. Those who read the Bible, especially while in the Valley of Isolation, also known as the Wilderness, will begin talking to the man in the Book, to Jesus, the “Word that was made flesh” (John 1:14, KJV), who gives us sound counsel. His “counsels...are faithfulness and truth” (Isa. 25:1, KJV).

Therefore, Gusteau tells Remy “If you focus on what you left behind you’ll never be able to see what lies ahead.” Likewise, God says “Forget...those things which are behind, and reach...forth unto those things which are before...press toward the mark for the the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus” (Phil. 3:13-14, KJV). “No man having put his hand to the plough, and looking back, is fit for the kingdom of God” (Luke 9:62, KJV).

Living Off the Word, the Food

Even though Remy is starving, Gusteau rebukes him when he’s about to eat the bread and reminds him that he’s a cook not a crook. Likewise, God says “Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word of God” (Luke 4:4, KJV). And Remy is modeling what Jesus did after He was baptized. “Jesus, full of the Holy Spirit, left the Jordan and was led by the Spirit into the wilderness, where for forty days he was tempted by the devil [and] He ate nothing during those days” (Luke 4:1-2, NIV). The real food, the Word of God, righteousness, is much more important than material food. And according to God—and portrayed in the movie—righteousness leads to all other desires being met. God says “Seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added to unto you” (Matt 6:33, KJV). So we see that play out in the movie just as God has prophesied will play out in real life for His elect who take Him seriously.

Having Eyes that See

Having listened to Gusteau, Remy ends up getting a full view of the land. It’s what God has given me, which He’s had me sum up in many different ways, as with God’s Master Plan, the 7000 Year Plan, God’s Mission Statement, The Problem, the Agricultural Metaphor, and many others. And He says “Where there be no vision, the people perish: but he that keepeth the law, happy is he” (Prov. 29:18, KJV).
Having given me a decent view of the Promised Land, you should be able to see in my videos and writing that, while I’m totally isolated and ridiculed—and the world is facing her biggest nightmare—I’m still at peace. And you should especially see it on the Biblical Interpretations playlist. It’s what Paul said “I have learned, in whatsoever state I am, therewith to be content” (Phil. 4:11, KJV).

So having accepted Gusteau’s rebuke, Remy comes to find out that all the while he had been leading him to his restaurant to work with his son. And, again, that’s how it is (John 6:44-45, KJV). Everyone who genuinely seeks God will find Him. In His words, “Ye shall seek me, and find me, when ye shall search for me with all your heart” (Jer. 29:13, KJV).

Therefore, once you become a fully devoted follower of Christ, you can look back at your whole life and see how God had been drawing you. So I reveal how He’s done that in my life in the six books where I share my testimony, which I’ve summed up in the first one, Sandwiched.

Linguini & the Kitchen

Linguini, who’s hired as a garbage boy, represents God’s elect as well as God’s Son, Jesus. More specifically, he represents the one willing to take the lowest position. Jesus says:

> When someone invites you to a wedding feast, do not take the place of honor, for a person more distinguished than you may have been invited. If so, the host who invited both of you will come and say to you, ‘Give this person your seat.’ Then, humiliated, you will have to take the least important place. But when you are invited [and all elect have been invited], take the lowest place, so that when your host comes, he will say to you, ‘Friend, move up to a better place.’ Then you will be honored in the presence of all the other guests. For all those who exalt themselves will be humbled, and those who humble themselves will be exalted (Luke 14:8-11, NIV).

And the children of the kingdom have been ‘hired’ by God (1 Cor. 6:20 below) since “he hath chosen us in him [in Jesus] before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and without blame before him in love” (Eph. 1:4, KJV). And God ‘hired’ us, in part, so that we could ‘take out the garbage.’ For example, He says “Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you” (James 4:7). And the devil obviously represents the garbage.

1 Corinthians 6:20, KJV Ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's.

And our job begins in the kitchen because “judgment must begin at the house of God” (1 Pet. 4:17, KJV). The “house of God” refers to the church, Christianity. Christianity/the church is the kitchen because it’s only as a born again Christian that we can cook the food that we use to feed God’s sheep, God’s people. And right now there is a TON of garbage in the Kitchen! Therefore, we’ve been given a uniform which we’re required to wear. God says “Put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil” (Eph. 6:11, KJV).

So it all begins with this garbage boy and rat working together, to cook up some comfort food—the boy representing the elect and the rat representing God (except for some scenes).
Renata
Linguini says about his mother, Renata, that “She died believing in heaven so...it’s OK, she’s covered.” It’s the standard belief among people. I believe in heaven so I’m in, I’m covered. Except that’s not reality according to the One who created heaven and is the keeper of it. He says “Heaven is my throne, and the earth is my footstool” (Isa. 66:1, KJV). Therefore He had Isaiah, the prophet, say “Open the gates that the righteous nation may enter, the nation that keeps faith” (Isa. 26:2, KJV). God is referring to the people He views as His nation, the born again, those who keep faith, who have faith in Him. In fact, have His Spirit within which He gave us because we “obey him” (Acts 5:32, KJV). The born again are “the Israel of God” (Gal. 6:16, KJV). And Jesus says “Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God” (John 3:3, KJV). Therefore, “Ye must be born again” (John 3:7, KJV).

And it just so happens that the name Renata comes from Renatus which means born again. So she really was “covered,” but not because she believed but because she was born again. God says “Thou believest that there is one God; thou doest well: the devils also believe, and tremble” (James 2:19, KJV). And devils aren’t destined for really good things, so.

And Renata was Gusteau’s old flame. She represents the born again, the Lord’s Girl, His church, His Bride. God says “I am married unto you” (Jer. 3:14, KJV), and Gusteau represents the Holy Spirit/God. And He says “Thou hast left thy first love” (Rev. 2:4, KJV). “She...follow[ed] after her lovers, but she...[did] not find them [wasn’t satisfied with them]: then she says, I will go and return to my first husband; for then was it better with me than now” (Hosea 2:7, KJV). This was the story of the Israelites and it’s been pretty much been the same for Christian history. We’ve played the harlot, and as my testimony reveals have “refuse[d] to be ashamed” so that “the showers have been withheld, and there hath been no latter rain” (Jer. 3:3, KJV).
Therefore, at some point, the born again will leave all those lovers and return to the Lord. They’ll abandon they’re false denominations, false church system, and false doctrines—as a group. At least that’s true for those who’ll take Him seriously. God has prophesied saying “I will give power unto my two witnesses [born again Jews and Gentiles], and they shall prophesy...clothed in sackcloth” (Rev. 11:3, KJV), meaning, repentant.

Tested by God
Having read the book, Gusteau tests Remy on the knowledge he acquired. Mostly, he tests him on the roles of the staff and their responsibilities. Institutional Christians seem to be clueless on these roles and responsibilities! They’re clueless for either having been handed over by God to a very strong delusion (2 Thess. 2:10-11 below) or for being hypocrites (Matt. 7:5 below). Therefore, “Although they knew God, they did not honor him as God or give thanks to him, but they became futile in their thinking, and their foolish hearts were darkened” (Rom. 1:21, NIV).

2 Thessalonians 2:10-11, KJV  Because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved. And for this cause God shall send them strong delusion, that they should believe a lie.

Matthew 7:5, KJV  Thou hypocrite, first cast out the beam out of thine own eye; and then shalt thou see clearly.

But since Jesus is “the light” (John 8:12, KJV) and a “consuming fire” (Heb. 12:29, KJV ), He can fire up that flame again, which is what He’s going to be doing—as played out in the movie.
And while Remy thinks Linguini, the garbage boy, is nobody, Gusteau doesn’t look at it that way since he’s an important part of the kitchen staff. And it’s the same with God who says “Just as a body...has many parts...so it is with [the body of] Christ” (1 Cor. 12:12, NIV). “Those parts of the body that seem to be weaker are indispensable” (1 Cor. 12:22, NIV). “God has so composed the body, giving greater honor to the part that lacked it, that there may be no division in the body, but that the members may have the same care for one another” (1 Cor. 12:24-25, ESV). Every single member of the body of Christ is extremely important because “if one part suffers, every part suffers with it” (1 Cor. 12:26, NIV).

But instead of taking God seriously, Christians have made pastors, hirelings who don’t even care for the sheep, much more important than everyone else! And they’ve done it with other hirelings as well.
And, ultimately, the body of Christ is made up of every born again Christian who is alive. Christians need to stop thinking of the body of Christ as that group of people who go to their so-called church, especially since those “churches” aren’t even local bodies according to Scripture. They do not represent the church Jesus is building, which should be clear since they are “hireling[s who]...careth not for the sheep” (John 10:13, KJV) and many of them are Illuminati worshippers of Satan as you can tell by their occult hand signs.

And without Linguini, the garbage boy, the kitchen would quickly get inundated with garbage. And that’s how it is in reality. The church today is loaded down with sin, with garbage, since the born again have ignored the Lord, the One they profess to LOVE.

Playing at Cooking

Linguini dumps stuff in the soup, ruining it. He didn’t know what he was doing. He was just playing in the kitchen, playing at being a cook. And that’s what most Christians are doing, playing at being the church, playing at being Christian, ruining God’s testimony. God says “The name of God is

Living for the Lord

Remy risks his life to fix the soup. And that’s how it’s supposed to be. “We who are alive are always being given over to death for Jesus’ sake, so that his life may also be revealed in our mortal body” (1 Cor. 4:11, NIV).

The Critic

Solène Leclaire, the food critic, liked the soup. Her name, Solène, means solemn or religious. And Leclaire means bright or light—as in religious light. In other words, the critic's name means religious clarity. And Jesus says “I am the light of the world: he that followeth me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life” (John 8:12, KJV). This critic, the one in the movie, represents Jesus, the Light of the World, and I represent Him as His “ambassador” (Eph. 6:20, KJV). And God is using me to bring in some religious clarity. He said that “Ye [born again Christians] are [also] the light of the world” (Matt. 5:14, KJV). Except that’s only true when we “walk in the Spirit, and...not fulfil the lust of the flesh” (Gal. 5:16, KJV).
So while I’m being critical of Christianity, professing Christians, especially those in so-called church leadership, rebuke me for it when God has given me the right. He’s given all born again, not only the right but the responsibility to critique Christianity. He says “Ye should earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints” (Jude 1:3, KJV). We have the responsibility of criticizing the church when She’s being unbiblical. Paul says “What business is it of mine to judge those outside the church? Are you not to judge those inside? God will judge those outside” (1 Cor. 5:12, NIV). It’s what we need to do to stay on the right path and protect ourselves from Satan and the fallen angels. Instead, Christians judge those outside when that’s NOT what they’re supposed to be doing.

So Colette says “How can we claim the name of Gusteau if we don’t uphold his most cherished belief, that anyone can cook?” It’s like saying How can we call ourselves Christian if we don’t uphold God’s Word? Aren’t we holding a double standard? Which is what the Lord says, “Why call ye me, Lord, Lord, and do not the things which I say?” (Luke 6:46, KJV). While God says “Quench not the Spirit. Despise not prophesying. Prove all things; hold fast that which is good” (1 Thess. 5:19-21, KJV), and that He has “no greater joy than to hear that [Christians] walk in truth” (3 John 1:4, KJV), Christians do the exact opposite. Christians quench the spirit, despise prophesying, don’t prove all things, and therefore don’t walk in the truth but instead hold on to what’s evil while rejecting what’s good.

Therefore, God calls Christians wicked. He says “What hast thou to do to declare my statues, or that thou shouldest take my covenant in thy mouth? Seeing thou hatest instruction, and casteth my words behind thee” (Ps. 50:16-17, KJV). Christians are outrageous hypocrites.
Gaining the Victory

The girl’s name, Colette, means victory. And she plays a major role in helping Linguini succeed. And Linguini represents professing Christians, son of Gusteau and Renata. He also represents that mess of noodles from Maya Makes a Mess—a children’s book the Lord had me interpret. Christians will succeed when we finally make up our minds to run this race to win. We’ll have victory when we finally follow the Lord—as a group. He says “Know ye not that they which run in a race run all, but one receiveth the prize? So run, that ye may obtain” (1 Cor. 9:4, KJV). It’s like the Olympics. Even thought there are teams, only one (typically) gets the Gold Medal. Likewise, spiritually it’s a combination of teamwork as well as fulfilling our individual calling. It’s NOT that complicated.

Abusive Shepherds

The head chef is extremely cold and unloving. And that’s how it is in the real world. It’s how it’s always been. God says:

Woe be to the shepherds of Israel that do feed themselves! should not the shepherds feed the flocks? Ye eat the fat, and ye clothe you with the wool, ye kill them that are fed: but ye feed not the flock. The diseased have ye not strengthened, neither have ye healed that which was sick, neither have ye bound up that which was broken, neither have ye brought again that which was driven away, neither have ye sought that which was lost; but with force and with cruelty have ye ruled them. And they were scattered (Ezek. 34:2-5, KJV).
This is what the Old Testament shepherds did who did not have God’s Spirit within, and it’s also what New Testament so-called shepherds have done. Therefore, it’s likely that most of them do not have God’s Spirit within either!

But thanks to God Christians are realizing that we have a Good Shepherd who gave His life for the sheep (John 10:11, KJV) so that they’ve been coming out of the institutional churches in increasing measure over the past several decades. Though I’m not saying they’ve all been doing it for the right reasons. Some have.

In the movie, the head chef despises Linguini and Remy, and uses Gusteau for his advantage. Again, it’s what the fake shepherds have always done. They “love the uppermost rooms at feasts, and the chief seats” (Matt. 23:6, KJV) which they get because Christians are so unfaithful, they given them to them—as with Pastor Appreciation Month, for example. The one positive thing he does is admit that Gusteau’s reputation—the reputation of the restaurant, the church, Christianity—is hanging by a thread. And it is! God says “You have a reputation of being alive, but you are dead. Wake up! Strengthen what remains and is about to die” (Rev. 3:1-2, NIV).

However, Jesus is building His church. He said “I will build my assembly, and gates of Hades shall not prevail against it” (Matt. 16:18, YLT). What’s actually hanging by a thread are all those professing Christians who don’t obey God and have never obeyed Him so that they don’t have His Spirit inside of them. God says “Examine yourselves to see whether you are in the faith; test yourselves” (2 Cor. 13:5, NIV). “He that overcometh...I will not blot out...of the book of life” (Rev. 3:5, KJV).

Si Linguini is sent to kill Remy. Yet he knows that he can’t cook and that his job is on the line, and that he’s already lost many other jobs. God says “Consider your ways. Ye have sown much, and bring in little...ye clothe you, but there is none warm; and he that earneth wages earneth wages to put it into a bag with holes” (Haggai 1:6, KJV). Whether you yet realize it or not, that is what is happening. So here’s a good documentary to get you going in the right direction, though it’s not just going on in America. America: Freedom to Fascism by Aaron Russo https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=1nslgLmyirw&t=84s
Hell’s Kitchen
The head chef says to Linguini “Welcome to hell!” And he does because he represents the “hireling[s] who careth not for the sheep” (John 10:13, KJV). In fact, he represents Satan, as do most of today’s popular Protestant so-called leaders. But when questioned, all church leaders behave the same way—like Satan—because that’s who they’re serving since institutional church in NO WAY represents the church Jesus is building, according to the Cookbook which I’ve summed up on the table.

Wishy Washy Christians
The head chef also represents wishy washy Christians like when he says that you can get too familiar with vegetables. Most professing Christians think you can get too serious about God! They TOTALLY miss the point! He says “Come near to God and he will come near to you” (James 4:8, KJV). You can never get too familiar with God. You can never get too serious about Him. Since He has “called [us] friends” (John 15:15, KJV) saying you can get too serious about Him is like saying you can be too good a friend to your best friend! Never!

Becoming Born Again
Giving it some thought, Linguini decides to work with Remy knowing that this is the only chance they both have. It’s the only way Remy will get to live and the only way Linguini will be able to keep his job. And that’s how it is for professing Christians. You need to admit that you don’t know how to cook. If you did, you’d be writing about God’s Hand hidden in plain sight. You need to echo the prophet who said “I am undone...I am a man of unclean lips, and I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips” (Isa. 6:5, KJV). Acknowledge also that it’s as Jesus says “Without me, ye can do nothing” (John 15:5, KJV).

Without our cooperation Jesus is typically unwilling to manifest Himself. The New Testament says “He did not many mighty works there because of their unbelief” (Matt. 13:58, KJV). You have to do like Linguini, admit the truth and then work with the Rat, letting Him take the lead. God says “Anyone who runs ahead and does not continue in the teaching of Christ does not have God; whoever continues in the teaching has both the Father and the Son” (2 John 1:9, NIV). And Christianity as a whole has historically run ahead without God so that we’ve fulfilled the prophesied “falling away” (2 Thess. 2:3, KJV), the great apostasy.

The Power of Love

Linguini admits that his house isn’t much. It’s what professing Christians need to do concerning the church—what they call the church—especially since it should be greater today than it was in the beginning!

However, his apartment does have that great view. And Jesus came so that “they may have life, and have it to the full” (John 10:10, KJV).
And there’s a love story playing on the TV while Linguini/Christianity is sleeping. It’s a love story since “God is love” (1 John 4:8) and that’s what this life is primarily about. So the woman says “Are you...is this a dream?”

And He says “The best kind of dream. One we can share.”

“But why here? Why now”

“Why not here? Why not now?”

God says “Your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams” (Acts 2:17-18, KJV). What God is doing is a love story since our “Maker is thine husband” (Isa. 54:5, KJV), and since He’s a spirit it involves dreams and visions.

However, Christians can’t ONLY go by dreams and visions as so many are doing today. For one thing, “Satan himself masquerades as an angel of light” (2 Cor. 11:14, NIV). For another, God likes to test our love, our sincerity. This is exactly why He sends false prophets. Scripture says:

If a prophet, or one who foretells by dreams, appears among you and announces to you a sign or wonder, and if the sign or wonder spoken of takes place, and the prophet says, “Let us follow other gods” (gods you have not known) “and let us worship them,” [in other words their doctrine doesn’t like up with the new covenant] you must not listen to the words of that prophet or dreamer. The LORD your God is testing you to find out whether you love him with all your heart and with all your soul (Deut. 13:1-3, NIV).

So to make sure we’re actually hearing from God, we need to confirm everything that’s coming in from others with Scripture in relation to the new covenant. We also need to back up everything we’re sharing with others with Scripture in relation to the new covenant—which is what God has me doing. In other words, all born again need to know the Scriptures well enough so that we can “take captive every thought to make it obedient to Christ” (2 Cor. 10:5, NIV). “Every thought.”

We need to place God’s Word on a pedestal because Jesus’ “name is called The Word of God” (Rev. 19:13, KJV). It’s like He’s the Bible personified “the Word...made flesh” (John 1:14, KJV). Therefore He says:

If any man shall add unto these things, God shall add unto him the plagues that are written in this book: And if any man shall take away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God shall take away his part out of the book of life (Rev. 22:18-19, KJV).

By adding to or taking away from the message of the new covenant—as Christianity has historically done with denominations and everything that goes with that—it’s like we’re dicing Jesus up! It’s like we’re cutting Him up in pieces! But if we really loved Him we wouldn’t purposely hurt Him any more.

The Review
This is the review Solène Leclaire, who represents Jesus, “the light of the world” (John 8:12, KJV), gave the restaurant/the church/Christianity:

The soup [that stuff Remy cooked in the kitchen] is a revelation! A spicy yet subtle taste experience. Against all odds, Gusteau’s has recaptured our attention. Only time will tell if they deserve it.

Again, that’s how it is. God has me ‘cooking’ some food—having said “Feed my sheep” (John 21:17, KJV)—food which is a bit spicy while, at the same time, provides a subtle taste experience. It’s spicy because it takes discernment to a new level, and it’s subtle because it’s only for those with “eyes that see” (Luke 10:23, NIV). It’s only for those who have God’s Spirit within and are open to Him. It’s only for those with a taste for the Truth. And the ministry God has given me will recapture the born again’s attention for God.

And by saying “only time will tell if we deserve it.” God is mocking us since He’s the “Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the ending [aka time]” (Rev. 1:8, KJV) Who has already informed us that NO, we don’t deserve it because “there is none righteous, no, not one” (Rom. 3:10, KJV). However, “He hath not dealt with us after our sins; nor rewarded us according to our iniquities” (Ps. 103:10, KJV). And thank God for that!

Learning to Work with the Lord

Linguini starts off just like most modern Christians do. Rather than walking into the kitchen as the new hire who knows NOTHING about cooking, Linguini barges into the kitchen! And while he’s too bold, he’s—at the same time—shy and insecure since he doesn’t know what he’s doing. And that’s most of Christianity today, proud rather than humble and spiritually unstable. Professing Christians shout at people and wave banners at them, super cocky, yet ask nearly any Christian almost anything about Christianity and they fumble all over the place most often getting it wrong. While God says “Examine yourselves [to see] whether ye be in the faith; prove your own selves” (2 Cor. 13:5, KJV), Christians haven’t been in the habit of doing that and tell you that you’re serving Satan when you try to help them!

Instead, Christians should be like this Jew, who was teachable, unlike today’s Christians:

He spake and taught diligently the things of the Lord, knowing only the baptism of John. And...when Aquila and Priscilla had heard, they took him unto them, and expounded unto him the way of God more perfectly (Acts 18:25-26, KJV).
And because of the state of the church, new Christians are just like Linguini as he tries to cook and Remy, representing the Spirit, bites him all over the place! Linguini has no clue as to how to work with God since no one has modeled it for him. Yet we’ve had 2000 years to work on this so that there should be an abundance of mature Christians showing new believers how to work with God. We’ve been told:

Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom; teaching and admonishing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your hearts to the Lord (Col. 3:16, KJV).

But, again, that’s not what the majority of Christians are doing. They have not let the word of Christ dwell in them richly. If that wasn’t true, the state of the church would not look like this dartboard!
So then Linguini admits that he only knows how to appear human. Professing Christians need to admit this as well, that they only know how to appear Christian. As God says “You have a reputation of being alive, but you are dead” (Rev. 3:1, NIV). You can’t fool God so all you’re doing is fooling yourself. And God tells us to “kiss the Son, lest he be angry and ye perish from the way, when his wrath is kindled but a little. Blessed are all they that put their trust in him” (Ps. 2:12, KJV). You have to depend on Him rather than in yourself or false prophets.

And in order to reveal that you do actually trust God, you have to do much more than just give Him lip-service and say you’re a believer. You have to be a follower of Christ and “walk by faith [rather than] by sight” (2 Cor. 5:7, KJV). You have to learn to walk in the Spirit by taking “captive every thought to make it obedient to Christ” (2 Cor. 10:5, NIV). So that’s what Linguini learns to do in the movie.

Learning to Walk in the Spirit

Because God is a Spirit who lives inside of those who obey Him, we do not need to go to church and neither do we not need anyone else to tell us what God is saying—though He will use others to speak to us. Because of what Jesus did on the Cross, we can hear directly from Him for ourselves at any time anywhere, provided we have His Spirit within (are born again) and not ignoring our sins or the sins of others. So Linguini starts off by wearing a blindfold. And that’s how it is since we can’t see God.

While awkward at first, we soon get the hang of it, like in the movie. The more time we spend with God in His Word, applying it to our lives, in relation to the new covenant law of love, the more quickly we grow in grace. The way to love God under the new covenant is by first becoming born again. Believing that Jesus is the Son of God, we ask God forgiveness for our sins and start living righteously. And we all know right from wrong because God placed His law on our hearts. Scripture says “the requirements of the law are written on their hearts, their consciences also bearing witness, and their thoughts sometimes accusing them and at other times even defending them” (Rom. 2:15, NIV). Having become born again we obey the Golden Rule. “In everything, do to others what you would have them do to you, for this sums up the Law and the Prophets” (Matt. 7:12, NIV).

So in the same way that Linguini learns to follow Remy’s leading as he tugs on his hair, the born again Christian has to learn how to follow God’s leading as He tugs at our hearts and minds. Which He does as we take our thoughts captive to Christ. And by yielding to the tugs on his hair Linguini was able to avoid a major collision—and, again, that’s how it is with the Spirit. God wants to protect us from danger.

That’s why the rat is parked up on his head. God meets with us in our minds. That is our current place of worship. In the past, God met with His people in the Garden; then later on the mount of God; later still, in the tabernacle; and then in the temple. But under the new covenant God meets with us in our minds. That’s why Paul said “With the mind I myself serve the law of God; but with the flesh the law of sin” (Rom. 7:25).
Communion

Real communion is about loving God and man, not the meaningless ritual Christians have made of it. Therefore, Linguini drinks the wine to Remy’s health and they both get soaked with it because Jesus “washed us from our sins in his own blood” (Rev. 1:5, KJV).

And all of God’s elect should get washed with the blood of Christ, especially as we’re coming into the tribulation period, the worst days on earth in all of history. The New Testament says:

For then shall be great tribulation, such as was not since the beginning of the world to this time, no, nor ever shall be” (Matt. 24:21, KJV)

These are they which came out of great tribulation, and have washed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb (Rev. 7:14, KJV).

You want to be part of that group who have washed their robes because the only other option is to experience even greater tribulation, the wrath of God, and then on top of that the “second death” (Rev. 20:14, KJV) where God will “both soul and body...destroy in gehenna” (Matt 10:28, YLT).
Therefore, He says, “Let no man deceive you with vain words: for because of these things [rebellion against God] cometh the wrath of God upon the children of disobedience” (Eph. 5:6, KJV). The born again “have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins” (Eph. 1:7). Like Remy, you want to get washed in the blood.

Discipleship

Even though Linguini gets trained by Remy, just as the born again get trained by God’s Spirit, God having said “They shall be all taught of God” (John 6:45, KJV), which He does primarily through His Word—he also gets trained by another cook, Colette. And that’s how it is in reality.

While we get taught by God’s Spirit, He also gives us training through other Christians—as He’s having me do through this ministry. And our training shouldn’t go on forever as it does in the institutional churches where most of those people NEVER mature in Christ! As with any job, you get trained and then you’re on your own. The difference is that as a born again Christian, one who has received “the Holy Spirit, whom God has given to those who obey him” (Acts 5:32, NIV) you’re alone and yet not alone. You’re with the Lord who says “I will never leave thee” (Heb. 13:5, NIV).

The Lie about the Strong Woman

Colette gives Linguini the I’m a Strong Woman speech, a satanic lie most have bought. It’s the exact opposite of what we need to be. God says “My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness”
(2 Cor. 12:9, KJV). Therefore, “when I am weak, then am I strong” (2 Cor. 12:10, KJV). God reveals Himself strong in the weak:

God hath chosen the foolish things of the world to confound the wise; and God hath chosen the weak things of the world to confound the things which are mighty; And base things of the world, and things which are despised, hath God chosen, yea, and things which are not, to bring to nought things that are: That no flesh should glory in his presence (1 Cor. 1:27-29, KJV).

In contrast, most of today’s Christians, male and female, find their strength in themselves, just like the lost.

And while I was working on this, the Lord showed me the following video of a prophetic which lines up with what I’ve walked in and what God has me saying through this ministry. Incredible 1961 Prophecy Describes What is Going On Today! Uploaded by Warriors for Christ https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Z49TtxF_b4

Stupid Old Men
Colette talks about “stupid old men” who’ve made it impossible for women to get into the kitchen. In reality these stupid old men are the hirelings who’ve made it impossible for others to get into the Kingdom of God, including themselves. God says:

Woe to you, teachers of the law...you hypocrites! You shut the door of the kingdom of heaven in people's faces. You yourselves do not enter, nor will you let those enter who are trying to (Matt. 23:13, NIV).

You thought that I was one like yourself. But now I rebuke you and lay the charge before you (Ps. 50:21, ESV).

That’s what God is doing with this ministry—will be doing.

Exploiting God
The head chef is exploiting Gusteau’s name. Likewise, Protestants and Catholics use God’s name, the name of Jesus, to benefit themselves or to deceive others. Therefore, “unlike so many, [I] do not peddle the word of God for profit. On the contrary, in Christ [I] speak before God with sincerity, as [one] sent from God” (2 Cor. 2:17, NIV). God says “The love of money is the root of all evil: which while some coveted after, they have erred from the faith, and pierced themselves through with many sorrows” (1 Tim. 6:10, KJV).

And since God is the One in control, while He’s being exploited He’s using it for His purposes so that He says “All things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purposes” (Rom. 8:28, KJV). God has coordinated Satan’s schemes along with our sins into His Plan.

And the fact is that God does wear many hats, international hats, because “in every nation he that feareth him, and worketh righteousness, is accepted with him” (Acts 10:35, KJV).

American Food

The head chef correctly defines American food—American Christianity—as being “cheap and fatty.” American professing Christians, including most born again, “have lived on the earth in luxury and in self-indulgence. You have fattened your hearts in a day of slaughter” (James 5:5). And it’s clear that we are in a day of slaughter. From GMOs to vaccines, chemtrails, 5G, weather warfare...it just go on and on!

So while Christianity worldwide is OFF, God blessed American Christians more than any other. Therefore, we are more guilty before God so that He will be using us more, like Saul turned Paul who “suffered much for [His] name’s sake” (Acts 9:16, KJV).
Hidden Manna
Colette says that in each dish Chef Gusteau/God always has something unexpected. Like with this movie, every movie, every song, every book, every thing, in each ‘dish,’ God has something unexpected for those with eyes that see. It’s the Master Chef’s job to be unexpected so that Jesus says “With God all things are possible” (Matt. 19:26, KJV). And it’s our job to follow His recipes, His commands as revealed in the Bible and in relation to the new covenant. Jesus “is able to do exceedingly abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that worketh in us” (Eph. 3:20, KJV). He does clearly say “Follow me” (Matt. 4:19, KJV).

And Colette has memorized all of the recipes in His book in the same way that a mature Christian has “stored up [His] word in [their] heart, [so that they] might not sin against him” (Ps. 119:11, KJV).

And she says, “You can tell a good bread by the sound of the crust. Listen.” And Jesus and the Father both confirm what she says.

Representing the I AM
She tells Linguini that they are pirates, not just cooks. It’s what Paul said:

To the Jews I became like a Jew, to win the Jews. To those under the law I became like one under the law (though I myself am not under the law), so as to win those under the law. To those not having the law I became like one not having the law (though I am not free from God’s law but am under Christ’s law), so as to win those not having the law. To the weak I became weak, to win the weak. I have become all things to all people so that by all possible means I might save some. I do all this for the sake of the gospel, that I may share in its blessings (1 Cor. 9:20-23, NIV).

So Linguini thanks her for the advice and she thanks him for taking it.

Likewise, Christians have been told to “Obey them that have the rule over you, and submit yourselves: for they watch for your souls, as they that must give account, that they may do it with joy, and not with grief: for that is unprofitable for you” (Heb. 13:17, KJV). However, it’s meant to be applied to biblical assembly. Our spiritual leaders are those who are filled with the Spirit and mature in Christ, who obey Christ—loving servant leaders—elders. It’s not those who have given themselves titles that don’t belong to them. Jesus clearly says “Be not ye called Rabbi [as in Pastor, Reverend, or Pope, for example]: for one is your Master, even Christ; and all ye are brethren” (Matt. 23:8, KJV). “Gentiles exercise lordship...But so shall it not be among you” (Mark 10:42-43, KJV). If anything, every Christian’s title is Brother or Sister. That’s it. There are no titles in genuine Christianity.

Hungry for Something New

The waiter freaks out because the customers want something new from the Chef and he knows they haven’t got anything new brewing—which is exactly how it is in most of Christianity. So that the head chef, the hireling, says “Just pull out the same ol’ stuff.” And that’s what they keep doing in the institutional churches month after month year after year.
However, those who are more sincere read the New Testament and KNOW God must have something new up His sleeve! Yet no one currently has anything new that’s biblical. And yet He does have something brewing, this here ‘soup.’ This ministry that He’s given me through the biblical interpretations. And there’s much more to come since “He hath given [us] the former rain moderately, and he will cause to come down...the latter rain” (Joel 2:23, KJV).

Cooks in Cahoots
Because the customers like Linguini’s soup, the head chef sets Linguini up for failure in the same way that “they schemed to arrest Jesus secretly” (Matt. 26:4, NIV)—out of “envy” (Matt. 27:18, KJV). But it backfires on him because the one in the born again Christian is greater than Satan (1 John 4:4 below). And He has said “I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee” (Heb. 13:5, KJV).

1 John 4:4, KJV Ye are of God, little children, and have overcome them: because greater is he that is in you, than he that is in the world.

So while Satan’s servants might be able to kill you, like they killed Jesus, that’s NOT where the story ends.
Lacking Discernment
The scene where Colette gets mad at Linguini for improvising when Linguini is following Remy is exactly how it plays out among professing Christians. While I’ve been following the Lord’s leading for over two decades, Christians have gotten mad at me and essentially say what she did in the movie. “Stop doing what you’re doing! You’re freaking me out.” They haven’t had any spiritual discernment!

And when he tells her it’s hard to explain what he’s doing, again, that’s how it’s been. “It is hard to make it clear to you because you no longer try to understand” (Heb. 5:11, NIV). But it’s even worst than that. Christians have made up their minds that they’re right, even though what they’re doing doesn’t line up with the new covenant.

Yet the customers love the food made by Linguini because it represents the covenant that Jesus made with His blood. And, eventually, that is how it will be among the cooks, the remnant that gets right with God. And it will be a remnant because “broad is the way, that leadeth to destruction” (Matt. 7:13, KJV).

Grieving God’s Spirit
Remy is tempted to steal in order to please his brother. And when challenged by Gusteau, in the same way that Christians get challenged by God who says “To day if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts” (Heb. 4:7, KJV), Remy pushes Him aside. And that’s what Christians do. Told to “grieve not the holy Spirit of God” (Eph. 4:30, KJV) born again Christians are in the habit of grieving Him. While they tell themselves they’re right with God they consistently lower His Standard, especially when family members are involved.
And if you lower God’s Standard in one way you’ll soon make a habit of lowering it in many ways. God says “If you do not stand firm in your faith, you will not stand at all” (Isa. 7:9, NIV). So before you now it you’ll be sinning like crazy and so far from God you can’t even discern who’s walking with the Lord and who isn’t—including yourself. So the Lord had me sum it up in the graphic and in the booklet The Rudder Syndrome. He showed me what’s taken place over the last 2000 years by having me walk in the same thing over the last 20 years.

And God says “Be sure that your sin will find you out” (Num. 32:23, KJV). Sooner or later “Thine own wickedness shall correct thee, and thy backslidings shall reprove thee: [and you’ll] know therefore and see that it is an evil thing and bitter, that thou hast forsaken the LORD thy God” (Jer. 2:19, KJV). That bitterness is clearly coming upon this generation.

Evangelizing the “Believers”
Remy tries to teach his brother how to appreciate food. but he doesn’t get it. And that’s how it goes. All his brother detects is “nuttiness,” because, God says:

The person without the Spirit does not accept the things that come from the Spirit of God but considers them foolishness, and cannot understand them because they are discerned only through the Spirit (2 Cor. 2:14, NIV).
That verse is true not only about the lost but about the carnal, those who do not walk after the Spirit.

Because Christians have been such hypocrites historically, even the born again have blinded themselves to the truth and think hearing God’s voice is “nutty.” The New Testament says that since “they did not think it worthwhile to retain the knowledge of God...God gave them over to a depraved mind, so that they do what ought not to be done” (Rom. 1:28, NIV). So that’s what Christians have historically done, actions of depraved minds. The lost have as well, but in different ways.

Partying in a Day of Slaughter
The scene with the rats partying reflects what most Christians are doing, along with the rest of the world. Yet God says “Weep and wail, you shepherds [and all professing Christians, and all of humanity]; roll in the dust, you leaders of the flock. For your time to be slaughtered has come” (Jer. 25:34, NIV). While Christians were supposed to be the “light of the world” (Matt. 5:14, KJV) we’ve historically helped Satan! So while we’re coming into the worst period of all of history (Matt. 24:21 below), the majority of Christians are totally off focus. They’re not prepared for what’s coming down and, therefore, neither is anyone else.

Matthew 24:21, NIV For then there will be great distress, unequaled from the beginning of the world until now—and never to be equaled again.
Waking Up from a Deep Sleep

The long scene were Remy tries very hard to get Linguini to wake up represents how it’s been. For two decades God has had me reaching out to Christians who refuse to take Him seriously. And God has been trying to wake us up for centuries! (Jer. 2:27-28 below). So “it is high time to awake out of sleep” (Rom. 13:11, KJV). But the Lord’s Girl, His Bride, has not wanted to wake up, being “dead” asleep (Rev. 3:1, KJV), like Linguini in the movie.

Jeremiah 2:27-28, KJV For they have turned their back unto me, and not their face: but in the time of their trouble they will say, Arise, and save us. But where are thy gods that thou hast made thee? let them arise, if they can save thee in the time of thy trouble: for according to the number of thy cities are thy gods.

So there are several scenes where Linguini tries to explain to Colette about Remy and how he’s able to cook. But he can’t get through to her.

Then when he does finally get through to them, they reject the truth and all walk out on him. And that’s how it is. Christians don’t really believe in Christ. While they know about Him they don’t really know Him. And those who do know Him don’t know Him very well at all, hardly at all, as He’s revealing through this ministry. So she finally realizes that she’s been a hypocrite.

In a Rage

Representing Satan, the head chef is beside himself when he finds out that Linguini is Gusteau’s son. “He is filled with fury, because he knows that his time is short” (Rev. 12:12, KJV). Linguini represents Jesus, the real head chef since Jesus is “the head” of the church (Eph. 5:23, KJV) and He’s the “Son of God” (Matt. 14:33, KJV) and Linguini is Gusteau’s son. But Satan has set out to “be like the most High” (Isa. 14:14, KJV). So the head chef in the movie will stop at nothing to keep Linguini from taking over the kitchen/the church/Christianity, which he considers to be his since Satan is the “ruler” and “god of this world” (John 12:31, YLT & 2 Cor. 4:4, KJV).

However, God only gave Satan rule over the world for a period of time, which is about over. And Jesus “will build [His] church [assembly]” (Matt. 16:18, KJV) and will take His rightful place as head of it. God allowed Satan to fool Christians throughout Christian history to let us see that we are “desperately wicked” (Jer. 17:9, KJV).

And what Satan has been given power over isn’t the real church of Christ but what people perceive to be the church of Christ.

And we are the ones who give Satan rule over us by rejecting Jesus, to whatever degree it is that we reject Him. Because, God says “Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you” (James 4:7, KJV). That’s all we had to do—submit to God and resist evil. But we didn’t.

Mind War

The head chef accuses Linguini, who represents Jesus, as toying with his mind and making him see the rat, who represents God, everywhere. And that’s how it is. God messes with our minds because we refuse to submit to him. He clearly says “Because they received not the love of the truth...for this cause God shall send them strong delusion, that they should believe a lie” (2 Thess. 2:10-11, KJV).

He also tells us that “the fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom: and the knowledge of the holy is understanding” (Prov. 9:10, KJV). Therefore, when you have a proper fear of the Lord—appreciating who He is and what He’s capable of—you obey Him, and you’re back at James 4:7 ‘Submit to God and Satan will flee.’
The Truth Sets us Free

The head chef says that the last thing he wants is for people to look into this, into Linguini/Jesus being the son of Gusteau/God. And, again, that’s how it is. The last thing Satan wants is for people to look into the Bible and teachings of the New Testament, and what God has some of us saying, the truth about Christianity. When people look into it they place Jesus on the throne where Satan now sits, the throne of their heart. As Jesus says “the truth shall make you free.” (John 8:23, KJV). Like in the movie, Jesus/Linguini is the rightful owner and head chef of the restaurant/God’s church/Christianity.

So when Remy is locked in the cage Gusteau tells him that he’s only as free as Remy imagines him to be. And that’s how it is because God has decided to work out His power in response to our faith. He says “According to your faith be it unto you” (Matt. 9:29, KJV). So that Jesus “did not many mighty works there because of their unbelief” (Matt 13:58, KJV). And He doesn’t do many miracles today for the same reason. Christians severely lack faith in Him. Today’s Christians are mostly talk but no power. If Christians really believed Him we would live as He told us to, “submitting...ourselves one to another in the fear of God” (Eph. 5:21, KJV). By not really believing in Him or obeying Him, we keep Jesus locked up and ourselves locked up with Him. In turn, we keep all of humanity under Satan’s lordship.

And Jesus said “Blessed is he, whosoever shall not be offended in me” (Matt. 11:6, KJV). Yet when confronted with the truth Christians have historically gotten offended which is how we ended up with tens of thousands of unbiblical denominations, “a house...divided” which Jesus said “cannot stand” (Mark 3:25, KJV). So when Linguini stands up for the truth, for Remy, and spells it all out for them, they all take offense and walk out on him. But it’s as he says “The truth sounds insane sometimes but that doesn’t mean it’s not true.”
And the truth is that we, born again Christians, have “love[d] darkness rather than light” (John 3:19, KJV). We’ve love lies more than the truth because “the heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked” (Jer. 17:9, KJV). Since Satan is the “father of [lies]” (John 8:44, KJV) and Jesus is “the truth” (John 1:14, KJV), Christians love Satan more than Jesus. That’s the truth. And it’s the reason for the horrendous state of the world today. Like unbelievers, born again Christians love their own opinions more than God’s Word. They also love the traditions of men—like all those pagan holidays and pagan so-called church services. Christians have historically loved those traditions more than God’s Word. Therefore, like the Jews, we have “nullif[ied] the word of God for the sake of...our tradition[s]” (Matt. 15:6, NIV).

Detoxing

So when it becomes public that Linguini is Gusteau’s son, the head chef gets fired and the staff burns all of the abuses of Gusteau’s name. It’s what they repeatedly did in the Old Testament. The king or prophet would get rid of all the pagan idols saying “We have cleansed all the house of the Lord” (2 Chron. 29:18, KJV). It’s also what they did when the church of Christ was first begun and they burned all of the stuff associated with witchcraft. “A number who had practiced sorcery brought their scrolls together and burned them publically” (Acts 19:19, NIV). It’s clearly what today’s Christians need to do, ASAP.
The Problem with the Human Heart

Because the human heart is “desperately wicked” (Jer. 17:9, KJV) humans can’t handle status. It’s what’s happened to every man, some of whom are elect, who’ve fallen for the lies and become a hireling in the institutional church. Like Linguini, they’ve gotten full of themselves. And “pride goeth before destruction” (Prov. 16:18, KJV). So Linguini goes through that in the movie. Not only does he not give Remy the credit he’s due—just like hirelings don’t give Jesus the credit He’s due—he’s so delusional he thinks he doesn’t even need Remy anymore forgetting that “without [Him he] can do nothing” (John 15:5, KJV).

Ego Maniacs

Anton Ego further portrays how self absorbed hirelings have become by lording over Linguini. It’s what they do in the so-called churches when Jesus clearly told us NOT to do that:

Jesus said to them, “The kings of the Gentiles hold power over their people. And those who order them around call themselves Protectors. But you must not be like that. Instead, the most important among you should be like the youngest. The one who rules should be like the one who serves (Luke 22:25-26, NIRV).

Instead of being humble Christians, the hirelings act as if they are God!
The Falling Out
The scene where Linguini and Remy have a falling out, make up, fall out again, is how Christians behave, no different than the rest of the world. Yet God said “The law is fulfilled in one word, even in this; Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself” (Gal. 5:14, KJV). Instead, Christians “bite and devour one another...[so that we are being] consumed one of another” (Gal. 5:15, KJV). Instead of working together in love against Satan and the demons, Christians have been fighting one another helping Satan and the demons because everyone knows that a house divided cannot stand (Mark 3:25). In other words, if we were to “walk in the Spirit...[we would] not fulfill the lust of the flesh” (Gal. 5:16, KJV).

The state of Christianity today—which is totally umbilical—and the failure of the house church movement (also called organic and simple) to produce any real fruit in forty years reveals that Christians are lusting after the flesh rather than walking in the spirit and devouring one another. As Frank Viola notes in his blog, and many have experienced, the house churches tend to be just as toxic as the institutional churches. So the bottom line is that Christians have refused to submit to God or to one another in Christ, letting Satan lord over us all. Because if you’re the one on the throne of your heart, it’s really Satan who’s sitting there lording over you. That’s basic Christianity.

The Speech/The Sermon
The speech Linguini gives the staff is like the typical sermon and prayers given by institutional pastors and among Christian groups. They suck the life out of the people! They’re totally un-anointed. Therefore, God says “I have no praise for you, for your meetings do more harm than good” (1 Cor. 11:17, KJV).
Giving the Credit to Whom it Belongs

Linguini finally admits that he has no talent and that they have been giving him credit for Remy’s gift. Likewise, Christians have no talent (Rom. 3:10 below) and give pastors the credit when they should be honoring Jesus. Instead, Christians treat Jesus like how the rats treated the health inspector! And it is as if Jesus is our Health Inspector because by not obeying Him we will end up experiencing not only a brutal death (as we get into the tribulation) but a brutal second death as well! Even if you’re elect, by being unfaithful God He will “blot out [your] name out of the book of life” (Rev. 3:5, KJV). And “whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire” (Rev. 20:15, KJV) which is “the second death” (Rev. 20:14, KJV). It’s as God said “They [the words of the Bible, His words] are not just idle words for you—they are your life” (Deut. 32:47, NIV).

Roman 3:10, KJV There is none righteous, no, not one.

Anyone Can Cook

While most Christians seems to think only those who’ve been to seminary or have some special title or special connections or lots of money, power, fame, are the one who can cook, the fact is that anyone can cook—anyone who has God’s Spirit. And it’s NOT typically those with the title, money, power or connections (Isa. 55:8 below). God says “All of you who were baptized into Christ have clothed yourselves with Christ. [Therefore] There is neither Jew nor Gentile, neither slave nor free, nor is there male and female, for you are all one in Christ” (Gal. 3:27-28, KJV). There is no one special except Jesus! And through Him any one of us can do whatever God chooses to enable us to do.

Isaiah 55:8, KJV For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, saith the LORD.

So, admitting that they can’t cook, Remy’s dad says to Remy what all born again rats need to say to Jesus. “You tell us what to do and we’ll get it done.” It’s what Jesus said to the Father and modeled for us “Not as I will, but as thou wilt” (Matt. 26:39, KJV).

But before getting to work all the rats line up to get clean since God says “Wash you clean...cease to do evil” (Isa. 1:16, KJV).

Remy then directs everyone to a specific station since every born again soul is God’s “workmanship created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which [He] hath beforehand ordained that we should walk in” (Eph. 2:10, KJV).
So while Colette questions what Remy has chosen to cook, she then agrees. And that’s how it is. When God first tells us to do something it often seems absurd. But we don’t know everything else He’s doing. It’s only as we obey Him that we get to see all the pieces fall into place. So we see that happen in the movie.

Jesus said that He would build His church/His assembly and that we would help Him do it as we submit to His lordship doing whatever He tells us to do, submitting not only to Him but also “one to another” (Eph. 5:21, KJV), which is how they finally work in the movie to prepare the meal for Anton Ego and the other customers.

Therefore, with everyone working together under the lordship of Christ, represented by Remy, the meal they cook for the super hard hearted Anton Ego, who represents elect hirelings, that simple meal immediately takes him back to his childhood. And that’s exactly what’s needed since “whoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child shall in no wise enter therein” (Luke 18:17, KJV). That meal, cooked by a group who worked well together, no pride involved, Remy/the Holy Spirit allowed to live out His role, totally transforms Ego.

And that’s exactly what it’s going to take because Jesus cannot build His church until these egomaniacs who call themselves Pastor and Reverend, for instance, step down and become the children in Christ they were created to be—speaking of the elect among them. And the elect among them won’t change until a good portion of the born again begin functioning biblically as the body of Christ—as modeled for us with the rats in the movie. They’ve got too much power—and absolute power corrupts absolutely. So they won’t break in any other way. We need to get right with God and begin fasting and praying for them so that the Holy Spirit convicts them, so that they beg Him to “wash [them] thoroughly from [their] iniquity, and cleanse [them] for [their] sin” (Ps. 51:2, KJV). We need elect pastors to get enlightened because they hold a great deal of power over professing Christians since they’ve taken that platform.

Doing things God’s way it’ll be as Anton Ego confessed saying “They have rocked me to my core.” That’s God’s Plan. Ego finally gets it. He says “Not everyone can become a great artist. But a great artist can come from anywhere.” Then he publically acknowledges the rat/Jesus as being a genius and the finest chef in France. And that’s who Jesus is, a genius and the finest Chef in all of Creation.
When the elect who are currently serving as institutional church leaders admit the same, reformation will spread worldwide rapidly, which is what God has prophesied will happen, covered in other booklets.

So while Ego lost his job, he ends up happier than ever—totally transformed. And that’s how it will be because all the Egos, all the elect and all the rats, will finally live in submission to Christ and, therefore, walking in the joy of the Lord (though it won’t be fully fulfilled until after this life is over)

The End of the Age

There’s more but that’s the gist of it. And anyone who becomes born again and gets to know the Bible decently, daily reading, believing, and obeying Jesus, taking their thought’s “captive to Christ” (2 Cor. 10:5, KJV), will be given eyes that see God’s Hand in unique places around them so they too will be able to cook and feed the sheep, the rats, fun little meals like this one.

And while we walk in the joy of the Lord when we’re in submission to Him, because Christians have been so rebellious for so long, there’s much trial and tribulation coming our way. God said:

At what instant I shall speak concerning a nation, and concerning a kingdom, to pluck up, and to pull down, and to destroy it; If that nation, against whom I have pronounced, turn from their evil, I will repent of the evil that I thought to do unto them (Jer. 18:7-8, KJV, my emphasis).

In other words, we blew it.
But because God “does not treat us as our sins deserve” (Ps. 103:10, KJV), and because He’s working out His Plan to glorify Himself, those who take Him seriously will overcome and experience a decent dose of the joy of the Lord, along with His power, again, covered in other booklets and videos.

May you become a Foodie like Remy, a humble servant like Linguini became, an honest cook like Colette, and a child like Anton—for your own good and the glory of God.
