Jesus says “Freely ye have received, freely give”

Unlike what most Christians say, that “I accepted Jesus,” Jesus made it clear that He accepts us (John 15:16 below). And He accepts people among those “afore prepared unto to glory” (Rom. 9:23, KJV), so that not everyone believes in Him but “as many as were appointed to life age-during” believe (Acts 13:48, YLT). Having believed what He says in His Word, the Bible, we cry “Thanks be to God for his indescribable gift!” (2 Cor. 9:15, NIV). Jesus is a gift “God has given to those who obey him” (Acts 5:32, NIV). “The wages of the sin [is] death, and the gift of God [is] life age-during in Christ Jesus our Lord” (Rom. 6:23, YLT). According to the literal translations of the Bible, everyone has been granted eternal life. But only the elect who obey the Lord get “life age-during.” What that means is life during the millennial reign of Christ and for the ages to come before the consummation of all things, summed up on this graphic which I walk through in The Good News! booklet and playlist. Those who didn’t honor God during this life will have to go through the “second death” (Rev. 2:11 below) during that time, the ages or eons depending on the translation.

John 15:16, KJV Ye have not chosen me, but I have chosen you, and ordained you, that ye should go and bring forth fruit.

Revelation 2:11, KJV He that overcometh shall not be hurt of the second death.

God has also made it clear that there are rewards for faithful service to Him, not only for us as individuals but for us as a group, and not only here on earth but for the ages. The reward isn’t ‘just’ heaven, though that is pretty nice.
Our Estate

The Scriptures make it clear that God created two types of people for this age, summed up in the graphic, elect and non-elect. And, concerning the elect, we're told that Jesus “gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify unto himself a peculiar people, zealous of good works” (Titus 2:14, KJV). And the following passages explain why not being a zealous follower of Christ is the worst thing elect souls can do for themselves. God says:

Other foundation can no man lay than that is laid, which is Jesus Christ. Now if any man build upon this foundation [with] gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, stubble; Every man's work shall be made manifest: for the day shall declare it, because it shall be revealed by fire; and the fire shall try every man's work of what sort it is. If any man's work abide which he hath built thereupon, he shall receive a reward. If any man's work shall be burned, he shall suffer loss: but he himself shall be saved; yet so as by fire (1 Cor. 3:11-15, KJV).

Lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal (Matt. 6:20).
After thy hardness and impenitent heart treasurest up unto thyself wrath against the day of wrath and revelation of the righteous judgment of God (Rom. 2:5, KJV).

Not only do faithless elect lose the rewards they could have earned and enjoyed for the ages, the eons, they will also suffer God’s wrath for having taken God’s Gift, Jesus, for granted.

In contrast, in Hebrews 11, known as the Hall of Faith, God sums up historical characters who honored Him so that they “obtain[ed] a better resurrection” (Heb. 11:35, KJV)—a better outcome being that they were faithful rather than hypocritical/unfaithful as Christians have historically been, for the most part summed up with the timeline. Rather than obey the Lord Christians have mostly disobeyed Him fulfilling the prophesied “falling away” (2 Thess. 2:3, KJV) also known as the Great Apostasy.
And considering that the ages, the eons, will last a really long time (Rev. 22:5 below), you want to get through God’s fiery test suffering as little loss as possible. Consider, therefore, the best & worst case scenarios and honestly ask yourself what you’ve been doing with your life. And that’s assuming you’re actually born again, which is a pretty huge assumption considering what Jesus said (Matt. 7:21-23 below).

Revelation 22:5, CLT They [the faithful] shall be reigning for the eons of the eons.

Revelation 22:5, YLT They shall reign—to the ages of the ages.

Matthew 7:21-23, KJV Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven. Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works? And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity.
The Father’s Care Packages. It’s like our heavenly Father has two boxes for each elect soul, one is the Gift, Jesus (2 Cor. 9:15 in the graphic), and the other is a box of rewards, upgrades. The first one is a gift to those He “ordained to eternal life” (Acts 13:48, KJV). And gifts are freebies. However, you have to be willing to receive the gift. If you refuse to receive it you lose your election (Rev. 3:5 below). Essentially, it’s like what Esau did. Having the birthright, not appreciating it, he traded it for a bowl of soup (Gen. 25:31-32 below). And the articles in the second box—the upgrades—must be earned by living in submission to Christ, rewards we’ll receive after this life is over and which will last us for the eons (Matt. 6:19-20 below). And they’re different for each person since our calling is different. “God has placed in the church first of all apostles, second prophets, third teachers, then miracles, then gifts of healing, of helping, of guidance [etc.].” (1 Cor. 12:28, NIV).

Revelation 3:5, KJV He that overcometh, the same shall be clothed in white raiment; and I will not blot out his name out of the book of life, but I will confess his name before my Father, and before his angels.

Genesis 25:31-32, KJV Jacob said, Sell me this day thy birthright. And Esau said, Behold, I am at the point to die: and what profit shall this birthright do to me. [He was hungry.]

Matthew 6:19-20, KJV Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal: But lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal.
All elect are supposed to become born again by obeying the Lord so that they receive “the Holy Spirit, whom God has given to those who obey him” (Acts 5:32, NIV).

The Trinity is a Deception: Unlike what most Christians believe and teach, there are not ‘three persons’ that make up the Trinity of God. According to Scripture God is not three in One. I cover it in another booklet. But consider, for example, that only the Father and the Son have thrones (Luke 1:32 & Rev. 3:21 below). Nowhere in Scripture do we read of the throne belonging to the Spirit, which we should if the Spirit is an equal part of the so-called Trinity. “God is a Spirit” (John 4:24, KJV) Who refers to Himself as Father (1 John 5:7) and “the Son [Jesus] is the image of the invisible God” (Col. 1:15, NIV).

Luke 1:32, YLT Son of the Highest he shall be called, and the Lord God shall give him the throne of David his father.

Revelation 3:21, NIV To the one who is victorious, I will give the right to sit with me on my throne, just as I was victorious and sat down with my Father on his throne.

The Trinity is a concept made up by the Catholic church which denies the lordship of Christ since “Christ is the head of the church”
(Eph. 5:23, KJV) yet the popes makes themselves out to be the head of the church. And there are MANY ways the Catholic church reveals it’s not actually Christian. You need only compare their teachings with the New Testament.

So while all elect are equal here, since born again Christians are all “brethren” (Matt. 23:8, KJV), Jesus’ kingdom is a theocracy. All authority will come from a spiritual institution, that institution is the Father and the Son. And yet it will also be something of a monarchy as well because Jesus is the “KING OF KINGS” (Rev. 19:16, KJV). And He says “I counsel you to buy from me gold refined in the fire, so you can become rich” (Rev. 3:18, NIV). He meant become rich for the eons, not during this life since He also said “My kingdom is not of this world” (John 18:36, KJV).

And while God knows who’ll end up in each of those ‘seats,’ we don’t. Getting to know Jesus well, He reveals to us where we’ll be sitting, our position in His kingdom—at least that’s what I discern He’s done for me. It’s kind of crazy to believe what I think I discern, but I’d have to ignore the obvious and NOT walk by faith to not see it. (But I also could have misunderstood Him.) However, I discern He made it obvious for the following three reasons [obvious to those who remove the beams from their eyes]:

1. To motivate me to persevere with the difficult calling He’s given me;
2. To motivate His people to seek Him more earnestly about their own calling; and,
3. To motivate His people as a group during these trying last days when there “shall be great tribulation, such as was not since the beginning of the world to this time, no, nor ever shall be” (Matt. 24:21, KJV).

In any case, if we’re elect yet don’t get to know Jesus well even though we became born again, we forfeit the seat we could have had for a lesser one. Jesus said “When you are invited take the lowest place, so that when your host [Jesus] comes, he will say to you, ‘Friend, move up to a better place.’ Then you will be honored in the presence of all the other guests” (Luke 14:10, NIV). And all elect have been invited since we were “afore prepared unto glory” (Rom. 9:23, KJV). He also made it clear throughout the Bible that He humbles the proud.

But instead of listening to Him, so-called Christian leaders have proudly taken the seats of honor, not obeyed Him, and lord over others when we hold them accountable—as John MacArthur’s henchmen did the prophet in 2015, and so many of us have experienced—when Jesus specifically said not to do that, as with this passage:

Ye know that they which are accounted to rule over the Gentiles exercise lordship over them; and their great ones exercise authority upon them. But so shall it not be among you: but whosoever will be great among you, shall be your minister (Mark 10:42).

And you can see, rather than have any fear of God, this supposed pastor is laughing about it. What’s worse, most so-called Christians viewed the true prophet as a false prophet and view MacArthur as a true prophet when he’s an Illuminati Freemason—a deceiver.
In turn, they’ll be sorely humiliated when Jesus returns, even before He returns—and not just them. That’s a big part of this ministry. Jesus said “Some men's sins are open beforehand, going before to judgment; and some men they follow after” (1 Tim. 5:24, KJV). When God opens up this ministry the born again who’ve taken those higher seats by force will be openly confessing their sins since it will have become clear to them that they have no other option. Glory to God! And it'll be the same for all the born again.

Because, the biblical fact is that “pastor” isn’t even found in the literal translations of the Bible since Jesus said “Be not ye called Rabbi: for one is your Master, even Christ; and all ye are brethren” (Matt. 23:8, KJV). We’re not to call anyone Rabbi, as in pastor, teacher, priest, or pope, because we have a great high priest, that is passed into the heavens, Jesus the Son of God” (Heb. 4:14, KJV) and those paid professionals are “hirelings[s who]...careth not for the sheep” (John 10:13, KJV). The biblical church looks like the left side of this graphic.

And if you think they don’t lord it over others, try holding them accountable. I’ve had a so-called pastor so up in my face that I could actually make out his tonsils! It’s their standard reaction to being held accountable to God’s Word. That’s the problem with submitting to Satan, you become like him. It’s bad enough when you let him lord over you as an unbeliever, but when you do it as a professing Christian you become so much more proud—and all the more as a Christian leader.

The Basic Package. Since God “prepared [vessels of mercy] unto glory” (Rom. 9:23, KJV), all elect who obey the Lord enough to become born again automatically get The Basic Package thanks to Jesus who set up the new covenant by sacrificing His life for us on the Cross saying “This cup is the new covenant in my blood, which is poured out for you” (Luke 22:20, NIV). The Basic Package is Jesus plus the basics since there won’t be any homeless there. The new covenant says “God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain” (Rev. 21:4, KJV).

So let’s say The Basic Package includes a nice little house in town—in Paradise—with a basic job. It’s a heavenly Walmart kind of thing; lower class, shopping at Walmart in Paradise. So...not great. But not bad either since it’s in Paradise. So pretty great actually! The classic example of someone who’ll get The Basic Package is the guy who died on the cross next to Jesus, “Saved...as by fire” (1 Cor. 3:15. KJV). He had obviously known the truth but lived his life as he pleased nevertheless, submitting to Jesus with his last breath motivated only by excruciating pain—which is clearly how many will come to the Lord in the last days.
Speaking of the elect, the new covenant says “We are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which God hath before ordained that we should walk in them” (Eph. 2:10, KJV). He says we “should walk in them” because God has given each of us the option (free will) to choose whether or not we’ll do those tasks, having worked our sins into His Master Plan (Rom. 8:28-29 below).

Romans 8:28-29, KJV We know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose. For whom he did foreknow, he also did predestinate to be conformed to the image of his Son, that he might be the firstborn among many brethren.

As pictured on my graphic for What God has Done & Why, with the sheep and goat pens (the circles) God placed boundaries on our free will. At the same time, we’re told that He “worketh all things after the counsel of his own will” (Eph. 1:11, KJV). God knows where the fine line is drawn between our free will and His. I certainly don’t. But since God knows “the end from the beginning” (Isa. 46:10, KJV), He knows what we’ll end up doing. We don’t. We think we know what we’ll do but we don’t know how we’ll react under pressure. God made that clear with Peter (Matt. 26: 35 & 75 below). Being a close follower of Christ—taking all of our thoughts captive to the new covenant is how we experience a better outcome. We have been admonished to “cast...down imaginations, and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bring...into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ” (2 Cor. 10:5, KJV).

Matthew 26:35 & 75, KJV Peter said unto him, Though I should die with thee, yet will I not deny thee. Likewise also said all the disciples...[Having denied Him and hearing the cock crow] Peter remembered the word of Jesus, which said unto him, Before the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice. And he went out, and wept bitterly.
Our Box of Rewards. To illustrate what God has done, let’s imagine that my ‘box of rewards’ has, among other things, two houses, one in the city and one in the country, a great job doing something I would absolutely love to do, and a seat near Jesus at His table in His kingdom. God has certain work He has for me to do to earn each of those rewards.

But if I’m like your typical elect who’s become born again, I’ll mostly live for myself and not get the rewards I could have enjoyed for the eons when the new covenant says “Look to yourselves, that we...receive a full reward” (2 John 1:8, KJV). So I lost all or most of my rewards just so I could have a few kicks during this life when, compared to the eons, my entire life here (even if I were to live to be 120 years old—and that’s not very likely) isn’t as much as one little drop in the bucket! Our life is like that x on my Views of Life chart compared to the arrow. And since the arrow keeps going for eons, the x keeps getting smaller and smaller. It’s NOTHING! That’s why Jesus says “Count...the cost” (Luke 14:28, KJV).
On top of that, by living for myself as a professing Christian I’ll have run the risk that I’m not getting saved from God’s wrath and “the second death” (Rev. 2:11 & Rom. 2:5 below) since Jesus says “Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father” (Matt. 7:21, KJV) and “He that endureth to the end shall be saved” (Matt. 10:22, KJV). He also says “Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works? And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity” (Matt. 7:22-23, KJV). There are professing Christians who will have prophesied, cast out demons, and done great Christian works during this life who weren’t actually born again—people who refuse to abandon the harlot daughters, for example, those worldly institutional churches. They thought they were Christian and others did as well. But in the end Jesus says to them, I never knew you. Depart from me.

Revelation 2:11, KJV He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; He that overcometh shall not be hurt of the second death.

Romans 2:5, NIV Because of your stubbornness and your unrepentant heart, you are storing up wrath against yourself for the day of God’s wrath, when his righteous judgment will be revealed.
According to Scripture, the only way to ensure that you’re destined for The Basic Package (at least) is by persevering as a faithful follower of Christ. God says “Examine yourselves to see whether you are in the faith; test yourselves. Do you not realize that Christ Jesus is in you—unless, of course, you fail the test?” (2 Cor. 13:5, NIV). If you fail the test, you’ve been losing rewards and may not even have The Basic Package. So it should be very clear to you how royally Christians have historically messed up! And God is nailing the point deeper and deeper with each booklet of this series He called me to write (Hab. 2:2-3 below). So while The Basic Package is great. GREAT! The upgrades make it MUCH BETTER.

Habakkuk 2:2-3, KJV The LORD answered me, and said, Write the vision, and make it plain upon tables, that he may run that readeth it. For the vision is yet for an appointed time, but at the end it shall speak, and not lie: though it tarry, wait for it; because it will surely come, it will not tarry.
Free Will: A Blessing & A Curse

Unlike jobs and careers, no one chooses their calling. God says “No man taketh this honour unto himself, but he that is called of God” (Heb. 5:4, KJV). And no one would actually choose the higher callings because they’re so much harder, as revealed throughout the Bible, some Christians of history, and my personal testimony. There’s NO WAY I would have chosen this life for myself even though God says this:

Blessed are ye, when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake. Rejoice, and be exceeding glad: for great is your reward in heaven: for so persecuted they the prophets which were before you (Matt. 5:11-12, KJV).

Well, OK. Considering everything He has shown me about who I am from His perspective (which I can’t even fully wrap my head around), I would have chosen this calling had I been given the choice since it’s clear that I’m very blessed for the eons. (I’d have to be an idiot not to choose it!) Still, given the choice I would not have chosen this calling without major reservations.

And that’s what we’ve been told about Jesus. Because of “the joy that was set before him [He] endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God” (Heb. 12:2, my emphasis). As a human, yet knowing who He was in the Big Picture having spent loads of quality time with the Father, even “all night in prayer” (Luke 6:12, KJV), He hated what it meant here on earth, but endured it anyhow because of what He had discerned from the Father who said “I have established the throne of his kingdom unto the age” (2 Sam. 7:13, YLT).

Here’s Matthew Henry’s commentary about it:

He endured their evil manners with great patience. Their contradictions were leveled against Christ himself, against his person as God-man, against his authority, against his preaching, and yet he endured all...a painful, ignominious, and accursed death, in which he was numbered with the transgressors, the vilest malefactors; yet all this he endured with invincible patience and resolution...He despised the shame. All the reproaches that were cast upon him, both in his life and at his death, he despised; he was infinitely above them; he knew his own innocency and excellency, and despised the ignorance and malice of his despisers...[Yet] He had something in view under all his sufferings, which was pleasant to him; he rejoiced to see that by his sufferings he should make satisfaction to the injured justice of God and give security to his honour and government, that he should make peace between God and man, that he should seal the covenant of grace and be the Mediator of it, that he should open a way of salvation to the chief of sinners, and that he should effectually save all those whom the Father had given him, and himself be the first-born among many brethren. This was the joy that was set before him.

It’s only when you have a vision of God’s calling on your life—when you know something of what’s in that second box—that you are motivated to persevere as a faithful follower of Christ, despising all the garbage you have to deal with along the way. God says “Where there is no vision, the people perish: but he that keepeth the law, happy is he” (Prov. 29:18, KJV). You’re happy when you keep the “law of Christ” (Gal. 6:2, KJV) because He makes Himself known to you on a regular basis, especially since He has a sense of humor and uses stuff like cute dumb sheep on a ship (one of the children’s books He’s had me interpret). He says “Whoever has my commands and keeps them is the one who loves me. The one who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I too will love them and show myself to them” (John 14:21, NIV). Through the books He’s had me write God reveals how He’s shown Himself to me and that “the joy of the Lord is [my] strength” (Neh. 8:10, KJV, my emphasis). There’s no better Friend you could possibly have!
And that’s what He’s done, made a way for us to be His close “friends” (John 15:15, KJV) even though we can’t see Him. So while I feel like I wish I’d never been born, the joy of the Lord keeps me pressing on.

And He’s made me such a close friend that He’s using me as His sous chef to “feed [His] sheep” (John 21:17, KJV)—which should be clear with Maya Makes a Mess, by Rutu Modan, and Ratatouille (2007), two cartoon prophecies—a book and a movie He’s had me interpret. (It should be clear with every single booklet He’s had me write!) Maya’s the girl sitting at the table between the General (Ex. 15:3 below) and the Queen (Rev. 19:7 below) in the picture a few pages back. And she’s a bit “peculiar” (Titus 2:14 below).

Exodus 15:3, KJV The LORD is a man of war: the LORD is his name.

Revelation 19:7, KJV Let us be glad and rejoice, and give honour to him: for the marriage of the Lamb is come, and his wife hath made herself ready. [His wife, the Queen, is Christianity, the church.]

Titus 2:14, KJV [Jesus] gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify unto himself a peculiar people, zealous of good works.
I also discern that many, if not most, of the elect who God will be calling or further enlightening during this latter rain, have a very high calling compared to the elect of the past 2000 years—that’s kind of a no-brainer. But a high calling doesn’t necessarily mean martyrdom. It can simply mean living for Christ—what most Christians historically haven’t done. And this series will give you what you need to get motivated. Because of the times we’re facing, God is seriously motivating His people. Bill Bean, the worship pastor I had at Eagle in Indianapolis—the only so-called home church the Lord ever led me to—once referred to me as God’s Punching Bag and as God’s Number One Cheerleader, and while others have been punched much harder and longer, thinking about them—especially children—keeps me cheering that much harder for Christ. Bill was right. God is using me as His #1 Cheerleader. While there are some who are fired up for God as you can see on some of the YouTube testimonies, they’re also typically part of the harlot daughters—so something’s missing since they haven’t been further enlightened. And, ultimately, it’s God who is working out His Master Plan. It’s all about what He is doing—it’s about Him—since He “worketh all things after the counsel of his own will” (Eph. 1:11, KJV).

So while we should do the works God ordained for us to do, we don’t have to, as He says “we should walk in them” (Eph. 2:10, KJV). Should is a conditional, as is could. And that’s God’s point. Rather than do what we should and could have done—let Him lord over us—His elect have historically chosen to do our own thing, to one degree or another. And by doing our will rather Christ’s, we’ve been helping Satan hurt us all. Rather than follow Jesus’ example to do the Father’s will, most elect have primarily done their own will throughout history, landing us in a living nightmare! https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=C2Z_cSL24eo God says “All seek their own, not the things which are Jesus Christ’s” (Phil. 2:21, KJV). “He that hardeneth his heart shall fall into mischief” (Prov. 28:14, KJV)—and have we ever! Christian self-will has landed the world in the New World Order brutal worldwide dictatorship!
So even though the calling is difficult—especially as we move forward—the reward is as God says “great” (Matt. 5:12, KJV). And He’s using this ministry to reveal how great that can be to motivate His elect to step into all that God has purposed for you. But you’ll only be given eyes to connect all the dots by becoming a faithful follower of Christ who does everything He tells you to do in His Word as it relates to the new covenant—repenting as needed. In His words, “Bring[ing] forth therefore fruits meet for repentance” (Matt. 3:8, KJV). Don’t do that and He’ll give you over to an even stronger delusion (2 Thess. 2:10-11 below).

2 Thessalonians 2:10-11, KJV Because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved...for this cause God shall send them [a] strong delusion, that they should believe a lie.

And since Christians as a whole have been so far off track for most of Christian history, we shouldn’t pray God show me if I’m off in some area. We should pray Lord, please show me where I’m off!

And the ones who need to be the most cautious are the ones who think they know what God is doing. You don’t! We’ve all only had some of it right. On my part, it’s the reason the Lord has had me writing and rewriting these booklets since 2009 not only beefing up as He’s taught me more through the hard trials, but deleting as well as He’s revealed to me where I’ve been off. And there are so many details!

Further, because I’m working alone and not as part of the body, as we’ve been created to function, I know I won’t see some of where I’m off until He connects me with others who are genuine humble followers of Christ. Even if some of us were to have it all right, we won’t have the full picture until we work together. That’s the system God has set up.
So do you have any clue as to what’s in your second box? Have you even opened the first box? Do you even have a box?!

The system God has set up means that all elect can ignore God their entire lives like the guy who died next to Jesus on the cross. Elect of God, he was saved with his very last breath having wasted his entire life away. While the lost have the philosophy Whoever dies with the most toys wins and most Christians have the mindset that You can’t take anything with you when you die, they’re actually both wrong. The system God has set up for His elect is as if we have a heavenly Dropbox up there into which we can upload treasure every day of our lives! Having done that, when we die, it’ll feel like we’re moving with our U-Haul loaded with all of our ‘toys.’
