From Unity in Christ to Disunity

A genuine born again Christian (Acts 5:32 below) but in rebellion against God is commonly referred to as being prodigal or as being a backslider. Having experienced the fellowship of the believers, at some point they rebelled against God by choosing to do something God disapproves of, not choosing to do something He was calling them to do, or not believing what He clearly says in His Word, the Bible. And I discern that turning a blind eye to denominations has made it very easy for every born again Christian to turn a blind eye to their personal sins, which sets in motion a downward cycle and hardening of the heart which influences the group, the body of Christ, Christianity.

Acts 5:32, NIV The Holy Spirit...God has given to those who obey him.
While initially united in Christ—united with the Lord and with her sister in Christ—when tempted or tried, rather than submit to God’s will, the born again Christian decided to do her will, breaking fellowship with her Lord and with her sister in Christ as pictured in the graphic. No longer a follower of Christ, she serves Satan, as she’d done before becoming born again—but likely with a different set of sins. The point is that she’s again serving Satan, the “god of this world” (2 Cor. 4:4, KJV). While born again, she’s no longer serving Jesus who she professes to love. She’s become a hypocrite indifferent to her hypocrisy. Admonished to repent (2 Thess. 3:14-15 below), unrepentant, she’s become blind to her hypocrisy having placed beams in her eyes (Matt. 7:5 in the graphic), which also keep her from growing in Christ.

2 Thessalonians 3:14-15, KJV If any man obey not our word by this epistle, note that man, and have no company with him, that he may be ashamed. Yet count him not as an enemy, but admonish him as a brother.
Since the born again stopped loving the truth, God handed her over to “Satan [John 8:44 below] for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord” (1 Cor. 5:5, KJV). God does it so that the pain inflicted on us brings us back to our senses—modeled for us with the prodigal son who finally “came to himself [and] said, How many hired servants of my father's have bread enough and to spare, and I perish with hunger! I will arise and go to my father, and will say unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and before thee, And am no more worthy to be called thy son: make me as one of thy hired servants” (Luke 15:17-19, KJV).

John 8:44, KJV The devil...was a murderer from the beginning, and abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own: for he is a liar, and the father of it.

And because the prodigal gets handed over to Satan who set out to “be like the most High” (Isa. 14:14, KJV) and who “masquerades as an angel of light” (2 Cor. 11:14, NIV), she can think she’s hearing from Jesus when she’s actually hearing from Satan. So broken fellowship also look like this graphic.
Becoming prodigal, a born again Christian not only deceives herself, she deceives others because while she tells everyone she’s a Christian, she behaves in a way that dishonors Christ, confusing those who don’t know the Lord or who don’t know Him well. A backslider places a “stumbling block” in front of others when Christians have been commanded not to do that. The new covenant says “No man put a stumblingblock or an occasion to fall in his brother's way” (Rom. 14:13, KJV). Having done it—and it’s what Christianity has done as a whole historically as summed up with the apostasy timeline—she’s further sinning against God. She’s become insensitive to the Lord’s voice, ruining her life as she makes horrendously bad choices, and not only hurting herself but others, especially those she loves most (as with divorce, for example). On top of all that, she’s ruining her eternal outcome since she’ll loose the rewards she could have enjoyed for the ages as summed up with this graphic.
The Knowledge and Fellowship Gap

When a born again Christian breaks fellowship with Christ, a gap of knowledge and fellowship develops between the rebel and Christ and also between her and her friend in Christ (2 John 1:9; 2 Thess. 3:14-15 below). It’s like how you forget math, and how muscles atrophy. If you don’t use it you lose it. Spiritually, you lose the spiritual understanding and discernment you’d once had, like Adam and Eve did after eating the forbidden fruit so that they “hid themselves from the presence of the LORD God” (Gen. 3:8, KJV) when you can’t hide from God. They became spiritually blind. And blind born again Christians help Satan ruin their lives, just like the lost do.

2 John 1:9, NIV Anyone who runs ahead and does not continue in the teaching of Christ does not have God; whoever continues in the teaching has both the Father and the Son.

2 Thessalonians 3:14-15, KJV If any man obey not our word by this epistle, note that man, and have no company with him, that he may be ashamed. Yet count him not as an enemy, but admonish him as a brother.

However, since the born again Christian has been enlightened to the truth that Jesus is God, they are now blind to their broken fellowship and the damage they’re doing, lying to themselves that Jesus doesn’t care that they’re sinning against Him. And since they know the truth that Jesus is God—unlike the lost who don’t know this—it’s that much harder to get through to them. They don’t believe they’re blind since they know that Jesus is God.

In contrast, the one who remained faithful to Jesus continued getting to know Him better every day by ‘sitting at His feet’ like Mary (Luke 10:40-42 below) and ‘dining’ with Him (Rev. 3:20 below), growing in knowledge and wisdom (Luke 2:40 below).

Luke 10:40-42, KJV Jesus...said...Martha, thou art careful and troubled about many things: But one thing is needful: and Mary [sitting and listening] hath chosen that good part, which shall not be taken away from her.

Revelation 3:20, KJV Behold, I stand at the door, and knock: if any man hear my voice, and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me.

Luke 2:40, KJV The child grew, and waxed strong in spirit, filled with wisdom: and the grace of God was upon him.

What happens is an extension of the teaching about Martha and Mary. It’s what would have happened had Martha ignored Jesus’ rebuke. And it’s what’s happened to the Lord’s BRAT, His Bride, the church, Christianity. Born again Christians haven’t obeyed Him so that they/She is ultra-busy like Martha, only more so. Had Martha not heeded the Lord’s rebuke, a gap between the two of them, and between her and her sister, Mary, would have developed and grown with time. And it’s what has happened with Christians as a whole, historically, for not truly loving “the truth,” the Man, Jesus (John 14:6, KJV).
Moreover, we don’t really know if our old friend, the prodigal, was actually born again in the beginning. It could have just seemed that way (Matt. 7:22-23 below). While Jesus said “By their fruit you will recognize them” (Matt. 7:16, NIV), considering how little biblical fruit there is around the world, it’s more likely than not that they weren’t actually born again. And, at the time that we had fellowship with them we were also younger in the faith and lacked discernment.

Matthew 7:22-23, KJV Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works? And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity.

Deceived by Satan, Christians would have you believe that most professing Christians are actually Christian. Yet this passage (above) makes it clear that the lost can prophesy in the Lord’s name, cast out devils in the Lord’s name, and do many wonderful works in His name. But these people are NOT actually Christian. And Christianity—as a whole—is “serving God” in an unbiblical system as summed up with this video someone else made and the table the Lord had me make, Scriptures for which can be downloaded here: http://notmocked.com/wp-content/uploads/2018/07/Fake-vs-Real-Church.pdf
Falling Away
God has said “Deliver such an one [a rebellious one] unto Satan for the destruction of the flesh” (1 Cor. 5:5, KJV). He also says “I have written unto you not to keep company, if any man that is called a brother be a fornicator, or covetous, or an idolator, or a railer, or a drunkard, or an extortioner; with such an one no not to eat” (1 Cor. 5:11, KJV). However, God also says “Brethren, if a man be overtaken in a fault, ye which are spiritual, restore such an one in the spirit of meekness; considering thyself, lest thou also be tempted” (Gal. 6:1, KJV). In other words, since the prodigal is in rebellion against God, her sister who isn’t in rebellion is called by God to hold her accountable and to separate from her if she’s not repentant otherwise she’ll “shipwreck” her own faith as well (1 Tim. 1:19 below). We’re to break fellowship with prodigals since they broke their fellowship with Christ. It always goes back to God’s two greatest commandments, love God first and people second. We’re to love no one or nothing more than God or we’ll shipwreck our faith and also become an unrighteous hypocrite who dishonors God, hurts others, and wastes their life away.

1 Timothy 1:19, KJV Holding faith, and a good conscience; which some having put away concerning faith have made shipwreck.

Yet this is what Christians have been doing as a whole for centuries! And it’s what God prophesied we would do, known as the great apostasy. The New Testament says “that day [the Day of the Lord, the day of Jesus’ return to earth] shall not come, except there come a falling away first” (2 Thess. 2:3, KJV). And Christians have fulfilled it.

Having broken fellowship with Christ, prodigals have been left to fend for themselves since “your iniquities have separated between you and your God, and your sins have hid his face from you” (Isa. 59:2, KJV).

Prodigals also no longer really believe Satan is real or as powerful as God has informed us, that he “prowls around like a roaring lion looking for someone to devour” (1 Pet. 5:8, NIV). Lying to themselves, they’ve laid out the red carpet for Satan to have full access to their lives even worse than before they were born again. God warned us. He said:

When an impure spirit comes out of a person, it goes through arid places seeking rest and does not find it. Then it says, ‘I will return to the house I left.’ When it arrives, it finds the house unoccupied, swept clean and put in order. Then it goes and takes with it seven other spirits more wicked than itself, and they go in and live there. And the final condition of that person is worse than the first (Matt. 12:43-45, NIV).

This is what Christians have done as a group.

In turn, we are living in the climax of the falling away period so that I, and a small remnant scattered on earth, have either zero or near zero human fellowship.

But because the girl was actually born again, one day God will enlighten her to her sins, apparently either after she’s wasted the bulk of her life away so that God says “Thou [will] mourn at the last, when thy flesh and thy body are consumed, And say, How have I hated instruction, and my heart despised reproof” (Prov. 5:10-11, KJV). Born again Christians as a whole will mourn when they realize how they dishonored Christ; how much they hurt others, especially those they loved; how many bad choices they made; that they lost the rewards they could have earned; and, the horrendous state of the world we, Christians, have created. The rebellious girl (representing the Bride of Christ) handed herself AND the rest of the world over to Satan by refusing to continue to submit to Jesus. Because, Christians were called, were enlightened, to be “the light of the world” (Matt. 5:14, KJV).

Born Again?

Since the one in my graphic for broken fellowship was actually born again, she cannot loose her salvation. While she lost the battle, she did not loose the war because Jesus already won it on the Cross—telling us, “It is finished” (John 19:30). Hallelujah! However, she lost most or all of the rewards she could have earned, and if she doesn’t repent, will enter eternity “as by fire” (1 Cor. 3:15, KJV).
And the fact that born again believers can’t lose their salvation has been made crystal clear to us by God with the following passage:

Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword? As it is written, For thy sake we are killed all the day long; we are accounted as sheep for the slaughter. Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him that loved us. For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come, Nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord (Rom. 8:30-39, KJV).

Clearly, nothing can separate the born again believer from the love of God. No matter how rebellious, a born again soul cannot become unborn again. The question is actually whether or not they were born again in the first place. So rather than get mad at someone when they question your salvation, you should humbly seek God about it to make sure that person is dead wrong! And if they weren’t wrong, the wise person will react accordingly by getting right with God.

Moreover, Christians were told to “Examine yourselves to see whether you are in the faith; test yourselves. Do you not realize that Christ Jesus is in you—unless, of course, you fail the test?” (2 Cor. 13:5, NIV). And if you actually were to test yourself, you’d see that it’s a rather difficult test to pass—if you’re honest. And through the testimony and ministry God has given me, He is making the Point that most are currently failing the test.
Since God hands us over to a powerful delusion for not loving the truth (2 Thess. 2:10-11 below) and many will die thinking they were born again when they weren’t (Matt. 7:22-23 below), God warned us saying “Work out your own salvation with fear and trembling” (Phil. 2:12, KJV), which is clearly NOT what Christians have historically done.

2 Thessalonians 2:10-11, KJV Because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved. And for this cause God shall send them strong delusion, that they should believe a lie.

Matthew 7:22-23, KJV Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name have done many wonderful works? And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity.

And it really comes back to the doctrine of election, which most Christians have rejected, summed up in the graphic. The point here is that if you believe what God has said, that He chose us (His elect, the vessels of mercy) “before the foundation of the world” (Eph. 1:4, KJV), you’d be focused on making sure (proving it to yourself) that you’re born again—which you can only do by daily reading, believing, and obeying God’s Word and will for your life. You’d do what He says, “Work out your own salvation with fear and trembling” (Phil. 2:12, KJV), while—at the same time—having the “peace of God” (Phil. 4:7, KJV) because you would be hearing from God daily confirming to you that you are actually born again. “The Spirit himself testif[y]ing with [y]our spirit that [you] are God’s child” (Rom. 8:16, NIV).
Why God Hands Us Back Over to Satan

Besides the fact that we’ve taken what Jesus did for granted, part of God’s rationale for handing rebels back over to Satan is that when the born again soul gets off track, they lead others off track, and that move snowballs. The best biblical example of this is in the following passage:

When Peter [a born again Christian (Acts 2 below)] was come to Antioch, I [Paul, also born again (Acts 9:18 below)] withstood him to the face, because he was to be blamed. For before that certain came from James, he did eat with the Gentiles: but when they were come, he withdrew and separated himself, fearing them which were of the circumcision [fearing man rather than God is the same as loving man more than God]. And the other Jews dissembled likewise with him; insomuch that Barnabas also was carried away with their dissimulation (Gal. 2:11-13, KJV, my emphasis).

Acts 2:1 & 14, KJV When the day of Pentecost was fully come... Peter stood up [and explained what was happening].

Acts 9:18, KJV There fell from his eyes as it had been scales: and he received sight forthwith, and arose, and was baptized.

Peter got off track by being more concerned with what people thought of him than with being right with God, flipping God’s two greatest commandments around—something he had a habit of doing (Matt. 16:23 below). And in so doing he led others astray including Barnabas, who otherwise walked closely with the Lord, called by God to work alongside Paul when “the Holy Spirit said, “Set apart for me Barnabas and Saul for the work to which I have called them”” (Acts 13:2, NIV). Paul was used by God to write the bulk of the New Testament. Therefore, Barnabas was also ‘up there.’ Yet he fell because of Peter’s hypocrisy.

Matthew 16:22-23, NIV Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him. “Never, Lord!” he said. “This shall never happen to you!” Jesus turned and said to Peter, “Get behind me, Satan! You are a stumbling block to me; you do not have in mind the concerns of God, but merely human concerns.”
And we’re not told how long it took for Peter to repent. It could have been immediately, but it could have taken a decent amount of time. And Barnabas should serve as a warning because we don’t really hear about him any more after that incident, when we probably would have had he been more faithful, considering how much we hear of Paul.

So while most Christians consider their hypocrisy no big deal, being in the habit of joking about it, God has repeatedly revealed how dangerous it is and how much damage it causes, and how much He hates it (Matt. 23:13 below). In fact, He’s using our time and this ministry to reveal that Christian hypocrisy has enabled the power elite to nearly destroy the planet! That’s how big a deal it is. Our rebellion against God goes out as a ripple effect in every direction through time!

Matthew 23:13, NIV Woe to you, teachers of the law and Pharisees, you hypocrites! You shut the door of the kingdom of heaven in people’s faces. You yourselves do not enter, nor will you let those enter who are trying to.
Any born again Christian can get off track, and it’s happened to Christianity as a whole so that today God again describes His church as being “dead” (Rev. 3:1, NIV below). Christianity has a reputation for being alive—a reputation held mostly amongst themselves. Yet the majority are as good as dead in God’s eyes—as if She’s in a coma. And the rest of God’s elect aren’t doing any better!

Revelation 3:1-2, NIV I know your deeds; you have a reputation of being alive, but you are dead. Wake up!

The Rudder & the Gap
Speaking of the dangers of how we use our words, the Bible says “Take ships as an example. Although they are so large and are driven by strong winds, they are steered by a very small rudder wherever the pilot wants to go. Likewise, the tongue is a small part of the body, but it makes great boasts. Consider what a great forest is set on fire by a small spark” (James 3:4-5, NIV). The human tongue is like a rudder. We use it to bless and curse others, and also to pray to God and also to curse His name. While being so small it does an amazing amount of good and bad. Using this passage along with many other things throughout the course of my life, the Lord revealed to me what’s happened, coordinating it all for His glory and the good of His elect who take Him seriously (Rom. 8:28; Eph. 1:11 below), giving me a graphic way to sum it up.

Romans 8:28, KJV All things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose.

Ephesians 1:11, KJV [God] worketh all things after the counsel of his own will.

As you can see with The Rudder Syndrome, it’s as if the two born again friends from the Unity in Christ graphic had started out together in the same ‘place’ (walking on water) but when the Lord said “Follow me,” one did things her way instead, taking the easier route as if heading out on a cruise ship as opposed to a kayak. Rather than follow Jesus, she took the easier route as most do, lying to herself that she was following Christ when she was only believing that He’s God, not actually following Him.
Destruction Redefined. Jesus says “Enter through the narrow gate. For wide is the gate and broad is the road that leads to destruction, and many enter through it. But small is the gate and narrow the road that leads to life, and only a few find it” (Matt. 7:13-14, NIV). Most Christians think of this passage as referring to hell. However, I discern it’s talking about life on earth—our quality of life—since hell doesn’t even exist in that it’s a pagan concept, covered in the booklet and playlist The Good News! I discern “destruction” refers to a ruined life here on earth and/or to a ruined life for the eons/the ages.

And since we’re in a spiritual war with the “rulers of...darkness” (Eph. 6:12, KJV), and “God is a Spirit” we can’t see (John 4:24, KJV), and the born again Christian is supposed to “follow” Jesus (Matt. 4:19, KJV), it’s as if He set out ahead of us in His stealth fighter kayak.

So while both friends were supposed to follow Him since both are born again, only one did. Following Him solo is the harder choice because it means living life against a much tougher current—especially in our day when the majority have fallen away from the truth (2 Thess. 2:3 below), as my testimony reveals.

2 Thessalonians 2:3 , KJV For that day shall not come, except there come a falling away first.
The rebel chose the easier route following the masses that call themselves Christian in the harlot daughters of Babylon, ignoring the fact that she was breaking fellowship with the Lord. (The Catholic church does NOT represent God because “Christ is the head of the church” (Eph. 5:23, KJV) yet the pope makes themselves out as the head of the church beings Satan’s “ministers” (2 Cor. 11:15, KJV)). And she did it because she lacked both the fear of God and love for God. In turn, she didn’t take God at His word as she should have—she didn’t take Him seriously enough. Lacking both fear and love for God, she let herself get influenced by the crowd. And since Christianity as a whole is in rebellion, the crowd’s influence is horrendously powerful today—again, as my testimony reveals.
While God tells us that we need to “walk in the light, as he is in the light” (1 John 1:7, KJV), the girl who rebelled against God bought the lies Satan whispered in her ear—one who “masquerades as an angel of light” (2 Cor. 11:14, KJV)—deceiving herself, when God says “Do not be deceived...God cannot be mocked” (Gal. 6:7, KJV). Being deceived is represented by darkness, being blind to the truth. And that’s the thing about Satan, he’s a damned good liar, “the father of it” (John 8:44, KJV). It’s the reason we were admonished to “work out...our own salvation with fear and trembling.” (Phil. 2:12, KJV). It’s only when we’re a close follower of Jesus that He gives us increasing measures of assurance that we are actually born again and in right fellowship with Him—doing it regularly, daily. “The Spirit himself testifies with our spirit that we are God’s children” (Rom. 8:16, KJV). He does it by letting us see His hand in the world around us more frequently and in greater measure, as with the resources He’s had me interpret as well as the connections He’s revealed to me about my life and how they tie in to the Big Picture—which I walk through in the Biblical Interpretations and Testimony booklets and videos, respectively.

And since “we must through much tribulation enter into the kingdom of God” (Acts 14:22, KJV), that’s another clue. Travelling in a cruise ship partying, like they do in the harlot daughters, isn’t experiencing tribulation. It’s going with the flow that’s headed for destruction.

We’ve also been told to “go to him outside the camp, bearing the disgrace he bore” (Heb. 13:13, NIV). Therefore, in time, the obedient friend of Christ ‘lands’ near Valparaíso and Santiago. Valparaíso means Valley of Paradise, as in Paradise Valley, a representation of heaven on earth. And Santiago means Saint James, and James was “the Lord’s brother” and a saint being that he was an “apostle” (Gal. 1:19, KJV). In other words, when we stick close to Jesus, our Brother, without deceiving ourselves, we land closer to Paradise in that we hear “Well done, thou good and faithful servant: thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy lord” (Matt. 25:21, KJV). We’ve earned a “better resurrection” (Heb. 11:35, KJV)—and, a smoother ride while on earth in that Jesus is closely with us in all our trials.
On the other hand, rebellious Christians land closer to Tierra del Fuego which means land of fire, as in “the furnace of fire” (Matt 13:49-50 below), as so many are experiencing today, and the world has been experiencing in increasing measure.

Matthew 13:49-50, KJV So shall it be at the end of the world: the angels shall come forth, and sever the wicked from among the just, And shall cast them into the furnace of fire: there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth.

So while the three had started out together in the same ‘place,’ only the obedient follower of Christ has landed herself in the right place, close to her Lord and to Paradise. God says “If any man serve me, let him follow me; and where I am, there shall also my servant be” (John 12:26, KJV). In contrast, all who take the easy ride, as if on a cruise ship, land in the wrong place, far from God and His will.

Like the slight move of a rudder, rebellion—no matter how small—eventually causes a huge gap of knowledge and fellowship to form between the elect and their lord, even while born again. And since God has called us as a group, as the body of Christ, the impact we make as a group is either positive or negative, and we’ve done the latter, without question! He warned us saying “If one part [of the body of Christ] suffers, every part suffers with it” (1 Cor. 12:26, NIV).

In fact, having blinded themselves with their hypocrisy, over time Christian rebels forget what the Lord is really like and most of what He had taught them, so that they end up living just like the rest of the world, landing just as close to hell on earth as the rest of the world. Yet they’re oblivious to what they’re doing. Even though rebels may continue reading the Bible, they quickly forget what they know to be true because they refuse to repent and do what God says, which is why God says “Do not merely listen to the word, and so deceive yourselves. Do what it says” (James 1:22, NIV). Yet having deceived themselves, they read the Word without obeying it so that it runs through them like sand through a sieve. In turn, they soon start doubting what and Who they had known, lying to themselves and to others. They’ve become listeners of the Word of God but not doers of it, so they don’t experience much of God’s presence, which makes them doubt Him all the more so that they focus on activities called Christian—just as Satan wants them to do, keeping them distracted. But God says:

Be ye doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves. For if any be a hearer of the word, and not a doer, he is like unto a man beholding his natural face in a glass: For he beholdeth himself, and goeth his way, and straightway forgetteth what manner of man he was. But whoso looketh into the perfect law of liberty, and continueth therein, he being not a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work, this man shall be blessed in his deed (James 1:22-25, KJV).

Those who take God more seriously, sacrifice as called for since the new covenant says “we which live are always delivered unto death for Jesus' sake, [so] that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our mortal flesh” (2 Cor. 4:11, KJV). The sacrificial life of a true Christian is represented by traveling in an ocean kayak as opposed to a luxury cruise ship—a much more isolated and rougher ride, as my testimony reveals. In turn, that person—being challenged—continually grows in knowledge of God and in fellowship with Him as they cry out to Him for help out of their more frequent need. Rather than let someone else steer them along (a combination of one’s own wicked heart and Satan at work), followers of Christ “work out” their own salvation “with fear and trembling” as God admonished us to do (Phil. 2:12, KJV). The open water gets pretty rough and it’s much harder to travel alone than with a pack, and against the current on a small craft when there are sharks and killer whales in the water, those “powers of this dark world” (Eph. 6:12, KJV), looking to “devour” us (1 Pet. 5:8, KJV). But we can persevere, motivated and strengthened all along the journey by the near presence of the Lord just ahead of us—and, inside of us since “the Holy Spirit...God has given to those who obey him” (Acts 5:32, KJV) “receiv[ing] power [since] the Holy Spirit comes on [us]” (Acts 1:8, NIV).

Set Apart by and for God

By setting me apart from the lost and from Christianity’s backslidden idolaters—by motivating me to let Him lord over me—God has been able to teach me what He wants His people to know in order to get right with Him as a group (Hab. 2:2-3 below), what neither the harlot church or home church groups have been able to do, not having that level of commitment or, therefore, discernment. Reading these books as a humble seeker of truth, doing what God calls you to do—obeying Him—it’s as if you (whether you’ve been a backslider or lost elect) will be traveling up the coast, along that mountain range, and hooking up with Jesus somewhere between Santiago and Valparaiso. Glory to God!

Habakkuk 2:2-3, KJV The L ORD answered me, and said, Write the vision, and make it plain upon tables, that he may run that readeth it. For the vision is yet for an appointed time, but at the end it shall speak, and not lie: though it tarry, wait for it; because it will surely come, it will not tarry.
And the reason you’re traveling by land and not by sea, is because Christians have landed everyone near Tierra del Fuego. So while it’s a different route you’ll be taking than what God had me take, it’s still going to be rough going because those Andes represent the satanic New World Order that is more in our face every day—pretty rough terrain.

Besides, “we must [all go] through much tribulation [to] enter into the kingdom of God” (Acts 14:22, KJV) because our fellowship with Christ is in “his sufferings” (Phil. 3:10, KJV). When we make the harder choices to follow Him against the grain, He allows us to know Him better, to have closer fellowship with Him, making the journey, while difficult, also enjoyable—as God is revealing through the resources He’s had me interpret.

In contrast, backsliders get increasingly more fooled by Satan since he excels at being “transformed into an angel of light” (2 Cor. 11:14, KJV) and God hands rebels back over to him (1 Cor. 5:5 below). Every day a Christian refuses to honor Christ, they further harden their heart (Heb. 3:15 below). Yet every hardship God allows—whether we’re lost, in rebellion, or as one following Him closely—has been provided by Him so that we depend on Him (James 1:2-3 below).

1 Corinthians 5:5, KJV Deliver such an one unto Satan for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Jesus.

Hebrews 13:5, KJV Let your conversation be without covetousness; and be content with such things as ye have: for he hath said, I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee.

James 1:2-3, KJV My brethren, count it all joy when ye fall into divers temptations; Knowing this, that the trying of your faith worketh patience.
And what’s happened with the one rebellious Christian in my graphic is what’s happened to Christianity as a whole. It’s as if the distance from the unified threesome represents the distance from Pentecost to today, and the cruise ship represents Christianity while the kayak represents the small “remnant” who have walked more closely with Christ (Rom. 11:5, KJV).

God Will Sort It All Out
We don’t earn God’s favor when we lead others astray or don’t welcome those who speak the truth. Instead, we lose our rewards. God repeatedly warned us about it:

For whosoever shall give you a cup of water to drink in my name, because ye belong to Christ, verily I say unto you, he shall not lose his reward (Mark 9:41, KJV).

Look to yourselves, that we lose not those things which we have wrought, but...receive a full reward (2 John 1:8, KJV).

He that receiveth a prophet in the name of a prophet shall receive a prophet’s reward; and he that receiveth a righteous man in the name of a righteous man shall receive a righteous man's reward (Matt. 10:41, KJV).
While God’s people were not called to worship God alone all the time but as part of the body of Christ which “hath many members” (1 Cor. 12:12, KJV), we live in a day when that’s the only option where some of us live. In fact, you need to walk alone with the Lord to sort things out for yourself—unless you’re already in a house church that’s more serious about Christ or know someone who’s also serious about Him, which isn’t likely in 2019. But God is turning the tide, so it’s possible, especially moving forward. Right now we’re living something of a re-run of the days before Jesus came to earth when the remnant was extremely small due to the 400 year-old “famine of...hearing the words of the Lord” (Amos 8:11, KJV). Those who were most sensitive to the Spirit of God—before Jesus began teaching—were older and not living the fast track like the majority of today’s Christians. As with Simeon, for example:

Simeon...was righteous and devout. He was waiting for the consolation of Israel, and the Holy Spirit was on him. It had been revealed to him by the Holy Spirit that he would not die before he had seen the Lord’s Messiah (Luke 2:25-26, NIV).

Apparently Simeon was fairly old because, having held Jesus in his arms, he then says “Lord, now lettest thou thy servant depart in peace, according to thy word: For mine eyes have seen thy salvation” (Luke 2:29-30, KJV).

Then the there was this old woman:

Anna, a prophetess, the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Aser: she was of a great age, and had lived with an husband seven years from her virginity; And she was a widow of about fourscore and four years [she was 84], which departed not from the temple, but served God with fastings and prayers night and day. And she coming in that instant gave thanks likewise unto the Lord, and spake of him to all them that looked for redemption in Jerusalem (Luke 2:36-38, KJV).
The Lord’s Maid Servant
Since Christians have historically made such a royal mess of Christianity, and been so cold and abusive to His servants (Jer. 7:27 & 32:33 below), The Beloved & the Gap sums up how God is cleaning it up, because that’s the kind of God He is, “love” (1 John 4:8, KJV). Meaning, He has helped me have a sense of humor about it all since “a merry heart doeth good like a medicine: but a broken spirit drieth the bones” (Prov. 17:22, KJV).

Jeremiah 7:27, KJV Therefore thou shalt speak all these words unto them; but they will not hearken to thee: thou shalt also call unto them; but they will not answer thee.

Jeremiah 32:33, KJV They have turned unto me the back, and not the face: though I taught them, rising up early and teaching them, yet they have not hearkened to receive instruction.

As the help, my job is hardly fancy, nor does it pay well. It doesn’t pay at all! But money’s not everything. My pro bono Job is interesting—and the benefits package is muy bueno! He says “Give, and it shall be given unto you; good measure, pressed down, and shaken together, and running over, shall men give into your bosom. For with the same measure that ye mete withal it shall be measured to you again” (Luke 6:38, KJV). I don’t know about all that, but I do know that God has revealed that my benefits package is very good. He’s made it so obvious you’d have to be blind to not be able to see it.
Scripture says that “before him shall be gathered all nations: and he shall separate them one from another, as a shepherd divideth his sheep from the goats” (Matt. 25:32). Everyone who humbly worships God as He requires, “bear[ing] fruit in keeping with repentance” (Matt. 3:8, ESV), will be stacked by Him in the Keep pile. The rest go to Goodwill. They may have meant good, but they were doing works without faith, doing their will not God’s, therefore, not really good since “without [Him we can do nothing” (John 15:5, KJV), nothing that’s worth it in His eyes. And many of their works weren’t even meant as good since so many professing Christians in leadership are actually Jesuit/Illuminati/Freemasons who worship Lucifer.

And while Matthew 25:32 (at the top), is speaking of the ultimate return of Jesus, He is first coming in the Spirit setting apart His elect to make ready the way for the Lord. And since He’s coming again physically, He’s preparing the way with a prophet just as He did before. He’s helping His people not get totally caught off guard. He’s being merciful and the “friend of...sinners” (Matt. 11:19, KJV).

Yet considering how hard-hearted most Christians currently are, harlot church leaders reading this, if not covered in biblical prayer and fasting, would get HOT and say something like “How can she say we have a knowledge and fellowship gap! What does she think we are, stupid!” In fact, those words echo what Kerry Bowman yelled at me at the top of his lungs. And while others heard him and saw me leave bawling, as at other times—no one ever said a thing. Apparently church-going pseudo Christians think that’s how you treat rebels. However, God says “Count him not as an enemy, but admonish him as a brother” (2 Thess. 3:15, KJV). And that’s not how we’re supposed to treat our siblings, no matter how wrong they might be. And I wasn’t in the wrong. In obedience to the Lord I was urging so-called pastor Kerry to become a man of prayer. God expects that from His people, especially if you’re leading them, as the first leaders did (Acts 6:4 below). And God had used others to try to get through to Kerry for years to no avail (Jer. 7:25-26 below), as He’s done with all institutional church leaders.

Acts 6:4, KJV We will give ourselves continually to prayer, and to the ministry of the word.

Jeremiah 7:25-26, KJV I have even sent unto you all my servants the prophets, daily rising up early and sending them: Yet they hearkened not unto me, nor inclined their ear, but hardened their neck: they did worse than their fathers.

Today’s Christians in the harlot system, from the top down, behave like the church of Corinth which was sinning greater than the lost, yet instead of being repentant, they were proud about it as we’re told in the following passage:

It is reported commonly that there is fornication among you, and such fornication as is not so much as named among the Gentiles, that one should have his father's wife. And ye are puffed up, and have not rather mourned, that he that hath done this deed might be taken away from among you (1 Cor. 5:1-2, KJV).

Over the years, having chosen to walk in darkness, one lie has led to another and another so that there’s now this huge gap between Christianity and the Lord, and so-called pastors behave abominably without the least bit of conviction about it at all. And most Christians don’t care, just as long as they enjoy the membership benefits of the Country Club. YouTube Runaway Train 4Him. https://youtu.be/KBbqFdSioMs.

Hola? Maid Service! God had some temporary job detours for me, some of which included house cleaning work. It was primarily to pray for the people whose houses I was cleaning and to reach out to some of them since God is all about cleaning His House beginning with individuals. He says, for instance, “I [will] sprinkle clean water upon you, and ye shall be clean: from all your filthiness, and from all your idols, will I cleanse you” (Ezek. 36:25, KJV). And when Jesus was here “there came a leper to him, beseeching him, and kneeling down to him, and saying unto him, If thou wilt, thou canst make me clean. And Jesus, moved with compassion, put forth his hand, and touched him, and saith unto him, I will; be thou clean” (Mark 1:40-41, KJV). And the New Testament makes it clear that His ’business’ is all about house cleaning. God says:

Christ also loved the church, and gave himself for it; That he might sanctify and cleanse it with the washing of water by the word, That he might present it to himself a glorious church, not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without blemish (Eph. 5:25-27, KJV).
So two weeks before even thinking of working outside our home (just so I could get out of here!), I’d changed my blurb on the Beloved graphic making it Spanish to echo my mother who would kiss my friends, say the casa thing (the traditional way), then go crazy offering food, doing what Christians are supposed to do, spiritually—feed God’s sheep (John 21:15-17 & 6:55 below).

John 21:15-17, KJV Lovest thou me...Feed my lambs...lovest thou me?...Feed my sheep...lovest thou me?...Feed my sheep.

John 6:55, KJV For my flesh is meat indeed, and my blood is drink indeed.

Christians are also called to be prayer warriors, praying for God’s sheep to be able to hear their Shepherd. So while today’s so-called Christians act like prayer is a “gift,” that only some Christians have received, the new covenant—the whole Bible!—is very clear that all of God’s people are called to live a prayerful life. Since prayer is the way we communicate with God, it’s a big part of every Christian’s calling. We’re told:

Pray for them which despitefully use you, and persecute you (Matt. 5:44, KJV).

Pray...that he will send forth labourers into his harvest (Matt 9:38, KJV).

Pray always, that ye may be accounted worthy to escape all these things that shall come to pass (Luke 21:36, KJV).

Pray one for another (James 5:16, KJV).

Pray without ceasing (1 Thess. 5:17, KJV).

Pray that ye enter not into temptation (Luke 22:40, KJV).

These all continued with one accord in prayer and supplication (Acts 1:14, KJV).

Without ceasing I make mention of you always in my prayers (Rom. 1:9, KJV).
Pray with the spirit, and...with the understanding also (1 Cor. 14:15, KJV).

Do not be anxious about anything, but in every situation, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God (Phil. 4:6, NIV).

Having changed the maid blurb, I then actually found myself working as a Latina maid! And it’s not as if I’d been thinking about doing that. Then just as I realized that God was calling me to pray for a new set of people, that that’s what the job was really about, my boss gave me my password for her website, CLEANDC1—and the light cranked up. God always begins with one and then works through the rest, like a ripple effect (a ripple I’d written about in 2010, three years earlier). He’s beginning His latter day rain and positive ripple with this Latina “maidservant of the Lord” (Luke 1:38, YLT) and the drop in my bucket having placed me in a very important area geographically, like Paul, “no mean city’ (Acts 21:39, KJV). God’s funny like that. YouTube Unconditional 1NC. https://youtu.be/9S9T_w_JLYo.

Using my degree for a part-time job would mean sitting somewhere else at a computer, spending money on dress clothes, parking, and commuting (so time consuming), and doing something even worse than toilet cleaning—all things considered. Except the way the cleaning industry’s set up, just like the grocery store He led me to, and the physical therapy job, they’re building businesses by taking advantage of the weakest link. What a shock. Not being in submission to God, God’s elect are ruled by their “wicked” hearts (Jer. 17:9, KJV) so that “decent” people take advantage of others just to make a buck, lying to themselves that they’re not actually doing that.

In each of these Job Detours, the Lord taught me stuff (shared throughout the series), called me to pray for loads of people, and had me challenge some people, as He’s having me do with you. Because, “every one of us shall give account of himself to God” (Rom. 14:12, KJV). And every time we ignore God’s voice when He’s speaking to us—which He’s constantly doing—we’re not just dishonoring Him but hurting ourselves and everyone around us as the current state of the world reveals. “He is our God; and we are the people of his pasture, and the sheep of his hand. To day if ye will hear his voice, Harden not your heart” (Ps. 95:7-8, KJV).
As revealed with The Rudder & the Ripple Effect, the kayak and the cruise ship represent the elect, those with the ability to honor Jesus during this life. Yet the more we ignore/disobey God, whether as a lost unbeliever, as one who thinks they’re born again, or as one who is actually born again, we’re walking in more of a hellish lifestyle which has a negative impact on our lives and on the lives of everyone around us, overall—even though it might not look like it since our standards are so much lower than holy. Yet Christian history reveals that our impact goes on and on and on. And it’s time to STOP making those negative ripples and leave that strictly to the non-elect!
