WORD
A Biblical Interpretation

Maya Makes a Mess

I represent the Bride of Christ, His church. (2 Cor. 11:2)

I represent the King of kings (Rev. 17:14), a man of war (Ex. 15:3).

I represent the Lord’s servant, Maya, a peculiar girl. (Titus 2:14)

The ketchup represents the blood of Christ (1 John 1:7), my favorite food on twisted noodles.

The banquet represents the marriage supper of the lamb (Rev. 19:9) and Jesus, meat and drink indeed (John 6:55).

I'm making a mess because God is using me to turn the table.

All my work is dedicated to Jesus, and it goes out to His sheep.

[Jesus] gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify unto himself a peculiar people, zealous of good works.

How God Gave Me this Book

Following the Lord through the harlot churches of the Vatican in 2012, He called me to give the church (Riverdale Baptist of Largo, MD) the book He’d had me write. At the time it was a version of the original book which I’ve since broken down into many booklets. And the Lord has taught me a TON since then about the church and what’s really going in the world. At that point I was blind that Christianity as most people know it is totally unbiblical. I still thought it could be reformed. But since the whole system is unbiblical, as summed up in Frank Viola and George Barna’s book, as well as on this table, it must be abandoned. Jesus says “Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues” (Rev. 18:4, KJV).
And the week after I handed the book to them, God used the visiting pastor, the senior pastor’s mentor who was preaching, to inform me that they also wouldn’t see God’s hand in it or hear His voice, and therefore, not repent, as had been the case for 14 years up to that point. This man’s sermon was all about prophets having to wait, but he also said we would experience joy while waiting. So this booklet reveals some of that joy because I’m interpreting a children’s book the Lord gave me the day after the sermon. As with the other biblical interpretations I’m revealing God’s hand hidden in plain sight much like Joseph interpreted dreams—as God said His followers would be able to do, as with this passage:

It shall come to pass in the last days, saith God, I will pour out of my Spirit upon all flesh: and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams: And on my servants and on my handmaidens I will pour out in those days of my Spirit; and they shall prophesy (Acts 2:17-18, KJV).

Exhausted from this calling, especially as I was discerning that God was telling me to do yet another overhaul on the book (and He’d had me do several overhauls already), I decided to head to the beach for a break before regrouping and plowing ahead. And since it’s a two and a half hour drive, I went to the library to get a book on CD for my road trip. And since God often had something for me in the sale section, I asked Him to make it clear to me if He did—and He did. Because as soon as I stepped into the room that has the stuff for sale I saw this children’s book making it clear to me that God was probably answering my prayer since it had my name on it. He’d done the same thing with a job once so that my husband had said “You have to apply. It has your name on it!” So I did and ended up working for the MayaTech Corporation.

So, knowing the Lord’s quirky sense of humor, I was smiling right away since it’s a children’s cartoon book. Then as I looked over the cover, I immediately discerned it was a prophetic Word for God’s royally messed up church/Christianity, presented in the Lord’s royal manner. He’s so much fun! He can be.
The Cover
There’s a peculiar child who’s stuck between the General, who’s also the King, and His wife, the Queen.

Being Peculiar. As the story unfolds you see that the girl, Maya/me, is peculiar because Jesus “gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify unto himself a peculiar people, zealous of good works” (Titus 2:14, KJV).

A Child. She’s a child because “except [w]e be converted, and become as little children, [w]e shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven” (Matt. 18:3, KJV).

Stuck in the Middle. She’s stuck between the two because while “there is...one mediator between God and men [Jesus]” (1 Tim. 2:5, KJV), God uses regular people whom He has called as prophets as mediators, like “when Moses held up his hand, [so] that Israel prevailed: [but] when he let down his hand, [the enemy] prevailed” (Ex. 17:11, KJV).

The General. This general is the Commander in Chief because He represents Jesus the “Captain of [our] salvation” (Heb. 2:10, KJV). He’s a general because “the LORD is a man of war” (Ex. 15:3, KJV). He’s also the King because “he hath on his vesture and on his thigh a name written, KING OF KINGS” (Rev. 19:16, KJV).

The Queen. The queen represents the church/Christianity because our “Maker is [our] husband” (Isa. 54:5, KJV) and “the husband is the head of the wife, even as Christ is the head of the church” (Eph. 5:23, KJV).

The Banquet. They’re at a banquet because Jesus says “Behold, I stand at the door, and knock: if any man hear my voice, and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me” (Rev. 3:20, KJV), and dining with Jesus isn’t just any ol’ meal! And “Blessed are they which are called unto the marriage supper of the Lamb” (Rev. 19:19, KJV). Our fellowship with Christ, dining with Him, leads to our greatest meal with Him, the marriage supper.
Dirty Looks. The Queen/the church/Christianity is giving Maya/me a pretty dirty look while the General eyeballs the girl who’s a bit scared of Him. The church gives me (Maya) ‘dirty looks’ because, as prophesied, “the love of many shall wax cold” (Matt. 24:12). The NIV says “the love of most” and they got that right. As my 50 year testimony reveals, professing Christians are extremely unloving to God and man as He says “men love...darkness rather than light, because [ou]r deeds [a]re evil” (John 3:19). We, born again Christians, have historically NOT obeyed the Lord as this timeline reveals.

God is Watching. The General/Jesus eyeballs the girl because it’s as He says, “I the Lord search the heart and examine the mind, to reward each person according to their conduct, according to what their deeds deserve” (Jer. 17:10). God is always eyeballing us!
Fearing the Man More than Man. Maya’s a bit scared of the General because I know that “it is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God” (Heb. 10:31, KJV). As you can see by her eyes, Maya fears the General/God more than the Queen/the church/Christians because God has “authority to cast to the gehenna; [so that Jesus said of God, the Father]...Fear ye Him” (Luke 12:5, YLT).

And while gehenna has been translated as hell in most Bibles, that’s a pagan concept; it doesn’t exist. What exists is actually closer to purgatory in that it’s a temporary type of hell. I cover it in the booklet and playlist The Good News! In any case, “in God have I put my trust: I will not be afraid what man can do unto me” (Ps. 56:11, KJV) As for “them that kill the body...after that [they] have no more that they can do” (Luke 12:4, KJV).

And the Queen represents the enemy because she’s serving the enemy as this video reveals since the pope/the Catholic church rejects Jesus’ lordship as God revealed during the Middle Ages (500 years ago!) so that there was at that time a reformation (of sorts) in Christianity. But since they didn’t fully reform Christianity is now a royally unbiblical mess.

Loving Food. Maya inhales her Food eyes on the General because Jesus’ “flesh is meat indeed, and [His] blood is drink indeed” (John 6:55, KJV). Therefore, when His “words were found, I [Maya] did eat them” (Jer. 15:16, KJV). And Jesus’ “name is called The Word of God” (Rev. 19:13, KJV). Since He’s both the food and the Word the girl/Maya/me inhales her Food. He says “Delight thyself also in the LORD: and he shall give thee the desires of thine heart” (Ps. 37:4, KJV). You delight in God by inhaling the Word of God, the Food—by spending tons of time with Him, obediently.
Eyes on Christ. Maya’s eyes are on the General because of “this great company that cometh against us [the New World Order, so while we don’t know] what to do...[her/my] eyes are upon [Him]” (2 Chron. 20:12, KJV).

Maya’s Favorite Sauce. This sauce, which is on the table, is a ‘sauce’ I’d written about in the original book the Lord called me to write three years before receiving this Maya book, calling it 828 after Romans 8:28. It’s Maya’s/my favorite sauce because “all things work together for good to them that love God” (Rom. 8:28, KJV). This is a point God makes very clear through my personal testimony shared in six different booklets covering my entire life.

Twisted Noodles. The girl/Maya/me also loves this sauce on pasta because “the blood of Jesus...cleanseth us from all sin” (1 John 1:7, KJV). And pasta, twisted noodles, represent both the Lord and the body of Christ—something God confirmed with the biblical interpretation of the movie Ratatouille (2007) which He gave me some time later (though I don’t remember exactly when). In that movie the main character, Linguini (a pretty twisted noodle), represents God’s people, as well as the Lord. And, like all the biblical interpretations it parallels what’s gone down and will be going down. The noodles are twisted because Jesus has a sense of humor—as He’s revealing through these biblical interpretations along with my personal testimony.

For example, while we’re at a time when it’s as serious as it gets since we’re coming into the worst period of all of history, this is when Jesus is revealing His sense of humor more than He ever has publicly before, and that’s twisted. And God’s people are twisted because even though Jesus informed us how to defeat Satan, Christians have continued to serve him! The New Testament clearly says “Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you” (James 4:7, KJV)
Inside Cover
Fat dogs just stand there. They represent the “hirelings[who]...care...not for the sheep” (John 10:13, KJV), the “watchmen [who] are blind: they are all ignorant, they are all dumb dogs, they cannot bark; sleeping, lying down, loving to slumber. Yea, they are greedy dogs which can never have enough, and they are shepherds that cannot understand: they all look to their own way, every one for his gain” (Isa. 56:10-11, KJV).

Therefore, “outside are the dogs, those who practice magic arts, the sexually immoral, the murderers, the idolaters and everyone who loves and practices falsehood” (Rev. 22:15, NIV, my emphasis). And Christianity AS A WHOLE practices falsehood! And has done so for most of Christian history!
You can tell Maya’s having fun while being a follower and a servant. The girl is having fun because “the joy of the LORD is [my] strength” (Neh. 8:10, KJV), as God reveals through this ministry as shared in the booklets and videos. And she’s a follower and servant because Jesus says “If any man serve me, let him follow me; and where I am, there shall also my servant be: if any man serve me, him will my Father honour” (John 12:26, KJV). God is revealing through this ministry just how much He has honored me, which He touches on in this Maya book, for those with eyes that see.

Maya’s Got Funky Feet. Her feet are in socks to draw attention to them because it’s an important aspect of this Maya, the follower of Christ. God says “How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of him that bringeth good tidings, that publisheth peace; that bringeth good tidings of good, that publisheth salvation; that saith unto Zion, Thy God reigneth!” (Isa. 52:7, KJV).

And since even the born again have chased after the things of the world rather than followed hard after Jesus (Rev. 13:3 & Phil. 2:21 below), this Maya/me totally doesn’t fit in, just like in the book. Her feet/my ways disturb the undiscerning who focus more on the outward appearance when “the Lord looks at the heart” (1 Sam. 16:7, NIV).

Revelation 13:3, KJV All the world wondered after the beast.

Philippians 2:21, KJV For all seek their own, not the things which are Jesus Christ's.

Maya Carries Quite a Load. It’s a huge load for a mere child [of God] because it concerns “the care of all the churches” (2 Cor. 11:28, KJV) as we approach the time of the world’s greatest need when there “shall be great tribulation, such as was not since the beginning of the world to this time, no, nor ever shall be” (Matt. 24:21, KJV). Yet “who hath believed our report? and to whom is the arm of the LORD revealed?” (Isa. 53:1, KJV). As of October 2019, NO ONE, even though God has had me trying to get through to Christians for TWO DECADES! However, He did tell me He wouldn’t remove the blinders until His “appointed time” (Hab. 2:3, KJV). What He was doing in having me reach out to people is two-fold:

1. He was laying down dormant seeds; and,
2. He was revealing/will be revealing that it is as He says, “the heart is...desperately wicked” (Jer. 17:9, KJV). It’s like Joshua said way back when to God’s people, “You are witnesses against yourselves that you have chosen to serve the LORD” (Josh. 24:22, NIV).

Second Title Page
Maya closely eyes her food. This girl, who represents me, is like the Bereans who “were more noble than...[others], in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, and searched the scriptures daily, [to see] whether those things [others were feeding her] were so” (Acts 17:11, KJV). Also, because God says “Do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits to see whether they are from God, because many false prophets have gone out into the world” (1 John 4:1, NIV). Eyeing her food represents “tak[ing] captive every thought to make it obedient to Christ” (2 Cor. 10:5, KJV). What she’s doing—what I’ve been doing—is what all Christians should do, run everything people are feeding us through God’s Word in relation to the new covenant—like running it all through a sieve so that we can catch all the lies.
Maya Eats Like a Pig! Maya porks out because it’s as the Bible says, “O taste and see that the LORD is good: blessed is the man that trusteth in him” (Ps. 34:8, KJV). And because “I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth” (Rom. 1:16, KJV).

In the original book the Lord had me write in 2009, He led me to write a section about cooking, and doing it properly. Because, His disciples have been called to “feed [His] sheep” (John 21:17, KJV). That section is now the booklet I’ve called A Culinary Parable.

What God is doing is about cooking because “the disciples d[o] as Jesus ha[s] appointed [us]; and...ma[k]e ready the passover” (Matt. 26:19, KJV). This refers to when God passed over the faithful, sparing their lives, while killing the firstborn males among the Egyptians (Ex. 12:29-30 below) since they worshipped false gods—and God hasn’t changed. He says “For I am the LORD, I change not” (Mal. 3:6, KJV).

Exodus 12:29-30, KJV And it came to pass, that at midnight the Lord smote all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, from the firstborn of Pharaoh that sat on his throne unto the firstborn of the captive that was in the dungeon; and all the firstborn of cattle. And Pharaoh rose up in the night, he, and all his servants, and all the Egyptians; and there was a great cry in Egypt; for there was not a house where there was not one dead.

Therefore, “I testify unto every man that heareth the words of the prophecy of this book [the Bible], If any man shall add unto these things, God shall add unto him the plagues that are written in this book: And if any man shall take away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God shall take away his part out of the book of life, and out of the holy city, and from the things which are written in this book” (Rev. 22:18-19, KJV).

The Cost. While Maya Makes a Mess was published in 2012, God provided it for me in 2012 for just 26 cents even though it’s priced at $12.95. Because, it’s like salvation. To us, it’s a freebie which cost Him plenty. Therefore, it will cost us something, like 26 cents—nothing compared to what it cost Him. It’s a freebie to us because we’re “saved through faith; and that [faith is] not of...ourselves [it doesn’t come from us]: it is the gift of God” (Eph. 2:8, KJV). However, it cost Jesus intense “agony...[so that] his sweat was...great drops of blood falling down to the ground” (Luke 22:44, KJV). So while salvation is free to us since faith is a gift from God, our “fellowship [with Jesus is in] his sufferings” (Phil. 3:10, KJV) so that we still have to “work out...our own salvation with fear and trembling” (Phil. 2:12, KJV). In other words, in God’s eyes we have put in our 26 cents.

Maya’s parents, her elders—representing “the hireling[s]” (John 10:13, KJV) and all Christian “hypocrites” (Matt. 23:13, KJV)—rebuke her. Like Jesus and all the prophets, I have “suffer[ed] many things [because] of the elders” (Matt. 16:21, KJV). But it’s not just because even the most mature Christians are hypocrites, it’s also because “the servant [of Christ] is not greater than his lord. [Since] they have persecuted [Jesus], they will also persecute [His servants]” (John 15:20, KJV).

Maya’s elders don’t like how she shoves her food down her throat and lets it fall on the floor for the dog. They think she should eat like them. Again, Jesus is the Food since His “flesh is meat indeed” (John 6:55, KJV). And “when they [the Jewish elders] saw some of his disciples eat bread...they found fault” (Mark 7:2, KJV). Likewise, Christians have found fault with me because I don’t think or live like them. Rather than go with the flow of the masses—a mass of people headed to “destruction” (Matt. 7:13, KJV)—I’ve gone against the grain of unbelievers and Christians alike. I’m like Maya in the book who basically ignores them and lets “the dog...eat of the crumbs which fall from the...masters’ table” (Matt. 15:27, KJV). I ignore Christians since they’re unbiblical, and, as the Lord leads, I feed people whatever ‘crumbs’ I can, as with this little magnet He had me make for the cleaning lady at the gym.
Since Christians are so unfaithful they look at me like I’m an idiot for being faithful. Like the hypocritical Jewish leaders, today’s Christians think I should be worldly and unbiblical like them blind to that’s what they are. But Jesus says “This people honoureth me with their lips, but their heart is far from me...in vain do they worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men” (Mark 7:6-7, KJV).

Until there’s a move of repentance among a group—so that I’m not totally alone—all I can do is feed people ‘crumbs.’ There’s no way to feed the lost any more than that since all of Christianity—especially where I live—is doing something completely different (completely unbiblical); even in the house churches. There’s no way the lost are going to believe that one person has it right when EVERYONE ELSE is doing something else including those who profess to be Christian. That’s NOT the system God set up as revealed in the New Testament.

Therefore, because of how they are—speaking of Christians/her parents/her elders—Maya gets an attitude. And that’s how it’s been, as God is my witness. Today’s Christians “walk after [thei]r own devices...every one do[ing] the imagination of his evil heart” (Jer. 18:12, KJV). If that weren’t true there wouldn’t be tens of thousands of so-called Christian denominations. But since there are, Jesus “look[s] round about...with anger...grieved for the hardness of [you]r hearts” (Mark 3:5, KJV).
Maya’s parents (representing so-called mature Christians) don’t let her do anything. No matter what she does it’s not right in their eyes, which has been my life. As my 20-year testimony reveals, nothing I do is right in Christian eyes, even among the more supposedly mature, because “a prophet is not without honour, save in his own country, and in his own house” (Matt. 13:57, KJV). And my own ‘country and house’ is the kingdom of God/Christianity (Heb. 11:16 below), so that Jesus says “I send unto you prophets, and wise men, and scribes: and some of them ye shall...persecute...from city to city” (Matt. 23:34, KJV) so that’s what’s happened. Hold today’s Christian leaders accountable to God’s Word and they tell you to leave “their” church or their group.

Hebrews 11:16, KJV They desire a better country, that is, an heavenly: wherefore God is not ashamed to be called their God: for he hath prepared for them a city.

Therefore, since “a broken spirit drieth the bones” and “a merry heart doeth good like a medicine” (Prov. 17:22, KJV) God has helped me have a merry heart in spite of this miserable calling by giving me the discernment to see what others can’t see. However, one day, in God’s “appointed time” a remnant will have eyes to see (Hab. 2:2-3 below). That remnant is referred to as the “two witnesses” to whom God will “give power [in the very last days]...so that they shall prophesy a thousand two hundred and threescore days [3½ years], clothed in sackcloth” (Rev. 11:3, KJV). They’ll be the ones who repent and move forward doing what Jesus told us to do, “Produce fruit in keeping with repentance” (Matt. 3:8, NIV), or as the literal translation says, “worthy of the reformation” (Matt. 3:8, YLT).

Habakkuk 2:2-3, KJV The LORD answered me, and said, Write the vision, and make it plain upon tables, that he may run that readeth it. For the vision is yet for an appointed time.

With so many rules that are NOT part of the new covenant—Maya really gets an attitude. Especially since the man (representing Christians) is such a hypocrite. Ironically, he has Maya consider her manners. It’s ironic because his manners/Christianity’s ‘manners’ are so atrocious—as God is revealing.

Speaking of commanding “certain people not to teach false doctrines any longer” (1 Tim. 1:3, NIV) we’re told “the goal of this command is love, which comes from a pure heart and a good conscience and a sincere faith. [Most] have departed from these and have turned to meaningless talk. [While they call themselves] teachers of the law [in other words, Christian]...they do not know what they are talking about or what they so confidently affirm” (1 Tim. 1:5-7, NIV). They don’t actually know Jesus! (If they did, they’d be interpreting God’s Word hidden in plain sight.) Therefore, Jesus continues to say “Hypocrites! You shut the door of the kingdom of heaven in people’s faces. You yourselves do not enter, nor will you let those enter who are trying to” (Matt. 23:13, NIV).

What Maya’s parents do/what Christians are doing is what the Jews did when Jesus walked the earth, “transgress the commandment of God by [thei]r tradition” (Matt. 15:3, KJV) while rebuking Him as if He was the one at fault. And since I represent Him as an “ambassador...of Christ” (2 Cor. 5:20. KJV), they rebuke me—and therefore the girl in the book.

And it’s what the pastors at Riverdale in Largo, MD and at Eagle in Indianapolis did with me, and all those churches in between. Eagle was the first and Riverdale was the last institutional church the Lord had me reach out to, ending it in 2012. Every Christian on my path has ignored their need to repent, and some of them (like Riverdale and Eagle) have instead focused on my past—my life before I was born again, even though Jesus forgave me of those sins! It’s what 8 year olds do!

And these two—Eagle and Riverdale—represent the brains and Ground Zero of Christianity since Eagle was mentored by RZIM and Riverdale Baptist is 15 minutes from the capital of the world’s superpower. Yet unknown to me at the time, while Ravi is a super brain, he actually worships Satan! And, again unknown to me at the time, when the Lord had me reach out to Riverdale one of their elders was in court for having sexually abused a child, which is standard practice among institutional professing Christian leaders—speaking of Protestants.

In any case, they’ve all been deaf to God and helping Satan while professing to love Jesus, which is why they’ve been deaf and blind to what God has been saying to them through me—and through so many others.

Someone is Knocking. The doorbell rings while they’re dining. And Jesus says “I stand at the door, and knock” (Rev. 3:20, KJV). “Sound an alarm...let all the inhabitants of the land tremble: for the day of the LORD cometh, for it is nigh at hand” (Joel 2:1, KJV). Because Christians have ignored God’s commands, everyone is getting... caught off guard to one degree or another. He said “In such an hour as ye think not the Son of man cometh” (Matt. 24:44, KJV).

And, as prophesied, He’s first coming as a move of the Spirit (Joel 2:23 below), as with these biblical interpretations which are a reflection of God “in wrath remember[ing] mercy” (Hab. 3:2, KJV). Then—after the later rain—He’ll come in person, a timeline summed up with this graphic. He says “I am coming soon! My reward is with me, and I will give to each person according to what they have done” (Rev. 22:11, KJV).

Joel 2:23, KJV Be glad then, ye children of Zion, and rejoice in the LORD your God: for he hath given you the former rain moderately, and he will cause to come down for you the rain, the former rain, and the latter rain.

Ding Dong! The expression on the door means 'What a Dimwit!' Or ‘Hhhellooo? Is ANY body home?’ God is using it because His people—especially so-called church leaders—are dense. Jesus says “I am the door” (John 10:7, KJV). “I set watchmen over you, saying, Hearken to the sound of the trumpet. But they said, We will not” (Jer. 6:17, KJV)—and that’s my 20-year testimony. So that He still asks, two thousand years into this thing, “Are you still so dull?” (Matt. 15:16, NIV, my emphasis). It’s time to ANSWER the Door! He says “By me if any man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall go in and out, and find pasture” (John 10:9, KJV).
Dining. The Bride, the Queen, the church of Christ, has been dining—celebrating the Lord’s supper—unbiblically for most of the past two thousand years! Yet God warned us saying “He that eateth and drinketh unworthily, eateth and drinketh damnation to himself, not discerning the Lord’s body. For this cause many are weak and sickly among you, and many sleep [are dead, dying, or getting killed, as with the use of Directed Energy Weapons in weaponized weather]. For if we would judge ourselves, we should not be judged” (1 Cor. 11:29-31, KJV).

While God made a way through Jesus for us to have life “more abundantly” (John 10:10, KJV), because of our rebellion and Satan’s help, we’ve instead made fellowship with God and man a dry meaningless ritual. Yet the Lord’s supper is called “love feasts” (Jude 1:12, YLT) so that we could have been having the time of our lives like celebrating Thanksgiving every week or even every day with mentally and spiritually healthy people as opposed to dysfunctional ones.

Page 8-9: God is Ever Faithful

A messenger has come with news, an invitation, which takes them all by surprise. This little man represents an angel. God says “Do not forget to show hospitality to strangers, for by so doing some people have shown hospitality to angels without knowing it” (Heb. 13:2, KJV). Yet today’s Christians—like the man in the book—can’t even show hospitality to other Christians! The literal version translated the term angel as “messenger.” It says “of the hospitality be not forgetful, for through this unawares certain did entertain messengers (Heb. 13:2, YLT).

In any case, this ‘angel’ says “Fear not: for, behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people” (Luke 2:10, KJV), to all who take God seriously. Jesus says “Come unto me...Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall find rest unto your souls” (Matt. 11:28-29, KJV). The message God is giving His people through the ministry He has given me will take everyone by surprise—to one degree or another—because we haven’t kept watch when Jesus said “Watch and pray, that ye enter not into temptation” (Matt. 26:41, KJV).

God Feeds Dogs. While the kingdom subjects haven’t been paying attention so that God says “You have a reputation of being alive, but you are dead” (Rev. 3:1, NIV), the poor dog—representing the lost elect—still gets fed. Because, “if we believe not, yet he abideth faithful: [since] he cannot deny himself” (2 Tim. 2:13, KJV). So it’s how the Lord saved this poor dog’s soul, testimony summed up in Sandwiched.
It’s About Royalty. While it’s a royal messenger with an invitation to a royal dinner party, the head of the home (the so called mature Christian, especially so-called pastors) is annoyed that their measly little dinner is being disrupted! And it’s about royalty because God says to the born again “Ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood” (1 Pet. 2:9, KJV). So while that messenger represents an angel, he also represents His people, because Jesus says “I send unto you prophets, and wise men, and scribes” (Matt. 23:34, KJV). And this messenger has an invitation to a royal dinner party because the party is ultimately “the marriage supper of the Lamb” (Rev. 19:9, KJV). And the head of the home is the man because “the husband is the head of the wife” (Eph. 5:23, KJV).

Annoyed by God’s “Interruptions.” While God is constantly knocking on the door of our hearts to get us to draw nearer to Him—summed up in the graphic—Christians views these invitations as interruptions. We first answer the “Door” (John 10:7, KJV) for salvation and then for the rest of our lives in order to get to know Him better and better.
And God revealed how annoyed todays Christians get with His invitations through the prophet that approached John MacArthur during a service in 2015—a prophet most Christians thought was a false prophet when MacArthur is the false prophet! True Prophet Confronts the False: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=YKZeJsx_KFs&t=8s

You can see by the look on MacArthur’s face just how seriously he takes God. He doesn’t. Because, not only is John MacArthur a “hireling [who] careth not for the sheep” (John 10:13, KJV), and therefore doesn’t care for the Shepherd/Jesus either, he’s an Illuminati Freemason, NOT born again. He’s not actually Christian!

Timing is Everything. The invitation is for tonight. God says “To day if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts” (Heb. 3:15, KJV). Tomorrow is not guaranteed to anyone. Therefore “Behold, now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation” (2 Cor. 6:2, KJV).
And the invitation is really coming from the King (not the Queen) since the man is a step above the woman since God says “Wives, submit yourselves unto your own husbands, as unto the Lord” (Eph. 5:22, KJV). It’s like when Esther had to get permission from her husband, the king, to have a banquet as we read in this passage:

Esther put on her royal apparel, and stood in the inner court of the king's house...And it was so, when the king saw Esther the queen standing in the court, that she obtained favour in his sight: and the king held out to Esther the golden sceptre that was in his hand. So Esther drew near (Esth. 5:1-2, KJV).

Porking Out is Required. Maya’s comment about already having eaten and the messenger’s reply refer to how we're to feed on God 24/7, and also, about who’s the One in charge—it’s not us! God says “Fix these words of mine in your hearts and minds...Teach them to your children, talking about them when you sit at home and when you walk along the road, when you lie down and when you get up” (Deut. 11:18-19, NIV) because “It is your life” (Deut. 32:47, KJV). Instead, most Christians snack on God so that they “hate...instruction, and cast...[His] words behind the[m]”(Ps. 50:17, KJV). Yet our will is NOTHING compared to His. He says “My counsel shall stand, and I will do all my pleasure” (Isa. 46:10, KJV, my emphasis). Like the messenger says, “So what?” to your will and what you want or what you even think. God rules.
Pages 10 & 11: We Have a High Calling

As the messenger gets things started, Maya waves goodbye from the plane to her family.

Revving Things Up. The messenger (representing both God’s angel and God’s prophet) gets things started because God says “New things do I declare: before they spring forth I tell you of them” (Isa. 42:9, KJV). “The Sovereign LORD does nothing without revealing his plan to his servants the prophets” (Amos 3:7, KJV).

Moving Onward and Upward! Maya says goodbye to her family because they represent elect antichrists and Christian antichrists since “the person without the Spirit does not accept the things that come from the Spirit of God but considers them foolishness, and cannot understand them because they are discerned only through the Spirit” (1 Cor. 2:14, NIV) and carnal born again Christians place beams in their eyes when being hypocrites which blind them. She is leaving them behind for the kingdom—which is what I’ve done. Like David, who penned this verse inspired by the Spirit, “I have more understanding than all my teachers: [because God’s] testimonies are my meditation” (Ps. 119:99, KJV). In contrast most Christians “have[e] a form of godliness, but deny...the power thereof [and we’re told] from such turn away” (2 Tim. 3:5, KJV). Rather than live for the world, the girl is “seek[ing]...the kingdom of God” (Matt. 6:33, KJV).

Wrongly Focused. As Maya sets out to leave them behind, they hold out some things for her ignoring the important stuff, like shoes. They are “blind guides, which strain at a gnat, and swallow a camel” (Matt. 23:24, KJV). Since shoes are so important, both in the material and spiritual realm, that’s what should have concerned them. God says to Christians “Stand firm then...with your feet fitted with the readiness that comes from the gospel” (Eph. 6:15, NIV). And Jesus is ALL ABOUT THE GOSPEL.

God’s Ways are NOT Ours! Maya’s funky feet and manner sum up how God is having me bring this Good News because it’s as He says “my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways” (Isa. 55:8, KJV).

Proper Dress. In another booklet God makes the point with another pretty little dress on another funky little ‘person’—a point He made to me before giving me this Maya book. He says “I counsel thee to buy of me gold tried in the fire, that thou mayest be rich; and white raiment, that thou mayest be clothed, and that the shame of thy nakedness do not appear” (Rev. 3:18, KJV). “The one who is victorious will, like them, be dressed in white. I will never blot out the name of that person from the book of life, but will acknowledge that name before my Father and his angels” (Rev. 3:5, NIV).

God Mocks Us. While God is making fun of all of us, having said “He who is sitting in the heavens doth laugh, The Lord doth mock at them” (Ps. 2:4, YLT), especially mocking the hirelings, He was making fun of me at the time because He gave me the Maya book the week my youngest moved to campus having transferred from community college. A few years younger than the norm, I was freaking out trying not to be the crazy helicopter mom. It’s funny because I kept it all in, yet here He goes and makes fun of me anyhow knowing how I was feeling (Ps. 139:1-3 below).

Psalm 139:1-3, KJV O lord, thou hast searched me, and known me. Thou knowest my downsitting and mine uprising, thou understandest my thought afar off. Thou compassest my path and my lying down, and art acquainted with all my ways.

In any case, as with all the interpretations He’s given me, all key players are represented so that I’ve summed up the elect on this table. I go over it in another booklet but it should be easy enough to figure out for yourself. If you’re a Christian and don’t understand it you’re not as enlightened as you should be.
Election. When the Bible speaks of the “elect” it is not speaking of born again Christians or the saints. These terms—born again and saint—mean the same thing, those who have “the Holy Spirit, whom God has given to those who obey him” (Acts 5:32, NIV). The following passage, which I’ve made into a graphic, sums it up and Paul made it clear when he said “I endure all things for the elect’s sakes, that they may also obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus” (2 Tim. 2:10, KJV). Elect are those who have the ability to become born again during this “present evil age” (Gal. 1:4, NIV). The non-elect will have that ability during the eons explained in the booklet and playlist The Good News!

!Graphic of the Vessels of Wrath and Vessels of Mercy

Because born again Christians have not obeyed the Lord historically, even remotely, we’ve had beams in our eyes blinding us. Therefore, we’ve misunderstood MUCH—the essence—of what God has actually done! So, again, I’ve summed it up on the booklet and playlist The Good News! And it’s part of the reason it’s taken me so long to get as enlightened as I am.
We’re Nearly Out of Time. The messenger says there’s no time to waste even though the King controls all and, therefore, has all the time in the world. He is the “Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the ending” (Rev. 1:8, KJV). But we are on His schedule, not ours. Therefore, God says “I send an Angel before thee, to keep thee in the way, and to bring thee into the place which I have prepared” (Ex. 23:20, KJV). That place is His Kingdom. And we’re on His schedule because He says “At what instant I shall speak concerning a nation, and concerning a kingdom, to pluck up, and to pull down, and to destroy it; If that nation, against whom I have pronounced, turn from their evil, I will repent of the evil that I thought to do unto them” (Jer. 18:7-8, KJV). And even though He warned us pretty clearly that He was planning to destroy this nation, the U.S., with the 9/11 attacks, Christians—those who profess to know and love the “truth” (John 14:6, KJV), the “Word of God” (Rev. 19:13, KJV)—have ignored Him and refused to repent.
God’s elect—especially the born again—are like Job who cried “Thou regardest me not” (Job 30:20, KJV) and Jeremiah “Why do you always forget us? Why do you forsake us so long?” (Lam. 5:20, KJV). Or else scoff saying “Where is the promise of his coming?” (2 Pet. 3:4, KJV). But when He’s practically banging us upside the head with the signs of the times—as He’s been doing for decades—we do like Lot who “lingered [so that] the men laid hold upon his hand [and dragged him out of the city]...the LORD being merciful unto him” (Gen. 19:16, KJV). It’s been nearly two decades since the towers dissolved before our very eyes and loads of evil stuff has been happening around the world and Christians still refuse to take God seriously! And yet it’s like the little guy says, “No time, not time!” We are running out of time. I go over it elsewhere but there are three prophecies—Daniel’s last week, the Hosea prophecy, and the Berisheet prophecy— which point to the Lord’s return in 2030. If this is right, we’ve only got 7 years before all hell breaks lose for the born again worldwide. So, again, it’s as the little man says “No time, no time!” And God says “Everyone should be quick to listen” (James 1:19, NIV).
Lambs Up for Slaughter

On the plane, Maya has a moment of trepidation as she considers dining with the Queen since she knows her manners and the Queen’s differ greatly. This is exactly what I was doing when God gave me this book since He had just asked me to begin ‘the routine’ with these pastors at Riverdale. Not wanting to, since I know how it goes, God says “Work out your own salvation with fear and trembling” (Phil. 2:12, KJV). Like so many other times, I felt “like a lamb or an ox that is brought to the slaughter” (Jer. 11:19, KJV)—dreading moving forward yet moving forward, like she’s doing in the plane.

God Helps Us with the Work He Calls Us to Do. Considering her hesitation, Maya is surprised when the flight attendant brings her refreshments. It’s how I felt with God’s song from OK Go (Needing Getting) and other things He did and provided that week, surprised considering how rebellious I was feeling. If only I’d never met the Queen before!
The flight attendant represents an angel because angels are His servants as the angel told John when he bowed to him. He said “Do it not: I am thy fellowservant” (Rev. 19:10, KJV). In fact, angels are “sent forth to minister for them who shall be heirs of salvation” (Heb. 1:14, KJV). God sends angels to help His elect and uses them however He wants to.

And I was surprised that the Lord was ministering to me because I was feeling rebellious, sick of this calling. So it was like Elijah who said “It is enough; now, O LORD, take away my life; for I am not better than my fathers. [Yet] as he lay and slept under a juniper tree, behold, then an angel touched him, and said unto him, Arise and eat. And he looked, and, behold, there was a cake [cookies in this case] baken on the coals, and a cruse of water at his head [my guess is Kool Aid since the Lord is Cool and aids us]” (1 Kings 19:4-6, KJV).
Getting Taken for a Ride. In the song Hotel California by the Eagles—another resource the Lord has had me interpret—there’s a point about the ‘Rides’ God takes me on as if they’ve all been manufactured by Mercedes-Benz who once made airplanes as Daimler-Benz. In short, God has nothing but the best for Maya (Ps. 84:11, below) even though it most often doesn’t look or feel like it (Ps. 34:19; Rom. 8:28 below). This is a HUGE point God has made in the Bible—if only His people would read and believe it.

Psalm 84:11, KJV No good thing will he withhold from them that walk uprightly.

Psalm 34:19, KJV Many are the afflictions of the righteous: but the Lord delivereth him out of them all.

Romans 8:28, KJV All things work together for good to them that love God.
Page 13: Called to Live by Faith

On Captain’s orders, the flight attendant warns all to buckle their seatbelts—because, you’re in for a Ride! Jesus is “the captain of [our] salvation” (Heb. 2:10, KJV) and Christians were told to ‘buckle their seatbelts’ since God says “Stand firm...with the belt of truth buckled around your waist” (Eph. 6:14, KJV). And we’re all in for a Ride because God says “I will shew [you] how great things [you] must suffer for my name's sake” (Acts 9:16, KJV). Christians get to experience a good portion of the tribulation because we’ve been so unfaithful—as God knew we would be being that He “make[s] known the end from the beginning” (Isa. 46:10, NIV).

Still, Maya’s not too worried (1 John 4:18 & 4:8; Ps. 23:4 below).

1 John 4:18, KJV There is no fear in love; but perfect love casteth out fear: because fear hath torment. He that feareth is not made perfect in love.

1 John 4:8, KJV God is love.

Psalm 23:4, KJV Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
However, most Christians should be worried since they haven’t buckled their seatbelts, “the belt of truth” (Eph. 6:14, KJV).

Seeing God’s Hand. You should be able to see God’s hand in this ministry. It’s right there in the middle since He is the “captain” (Heb. 2:10, KJV).

Coming In. The plane is coming in for a landing as the Lord returns (Rev. 3:11 below), having ‘sent’ me—along with many others (Luke 3:4 below)—to prepare the way because of how it is (2 Cor. 12:20).

Revelation 3:11, KJV Behold, I come quickly: hold that fast which thou hast, that no man take thy crown.

Luke 3:4, KJV The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.

2 Corinthians 12:20, NIV I am afraid that when I come I may not find you as I want you to be, and you may not find me as you want me to be. I fear that there may be discord, jealousy, fits of rage, selfish ambition, slander, gossip, arrogance and disorder.
Pages 14 & 15: Christians are Proud

A royal red carpet leads Maya to the Queen (the church/Christianity), while the band plays on and the Queen’s subjects and fat dogs stand by.

The Red Carpet Treatment. In one of the original versions I’d written about red carpets and I’m pretty sure it’s still in one of the booklets. Essentially, all elect have been given The Red Carpet Treatment compared to what the non-elect get since they don’t have the ability to chose Christ being that they were “fitted to destruction” (Rom. 9:22, KJV). The New Testament says “as many as were ordained to eternal life believed” (Acts 13:48, KJV). However, the literal translation doesn’t call it eternal life—since everyone is getting that—but “life age-during” (YLT). In other words, not all were ordained for life during the eons, only the elect. But it’s our choice as to whether we walk on the red carpet or not. God says “He that overcometh, the same shall be clothed in white raiment; and I will not blot out his name out of the book of life” (Rev. 3:5, KJV). Apparently, all elect were born with their names written in the book of life since “he chose us in him before the creation of the world to be holy and blameless in his sight” (Eph. 1:4, NIV). But God will erase it, “blot” it out, if we don’t become born again.

And, ultimately, God is the One who makes the choice for us—of who’s elect and who’s not elect—since He “worketh all things after the counsel of his own will” (Eph. 1:11, KJV) and “it is God who works in [us] to will and to act in order to fulfill his good purpose” (Phil. 2:13, NIV). This is His Show. The best we can do is “fear God, and keep his commandments: for this is the whole duty of man” (Eccl. 12:13, KJV). We’ll fully understand it AFTER this life is over.
The Band. The band plays on because God’s people “s[i]ng praises with gladness” (2 Chron. 29:30, KJV) for having been ordained to life age-during. Rather than being proud, Christians are supposed to be humble. Jesus says “Do not rejoice that the spirits submit to you, but rejoice that your names are written in heaven” (Luke 10:20, NIV) since they could not have been written in heaven. We could just as easily have NOT been elect, not have the ability to take God seriously during this life. What God has done is as if the people He created—all of humanity—are pieces of gum in a pack of gum. And since I’m elect, I’m the one He chose. It has NOTHING to do with me! Yet Christians say “I accepted Jesus” when Jesus says “Ye have not chosen me, but I have chosen you” (John 15:16, KJV).

The Kingdom’s People. The Queen’s subjects (Christianity) and fat dogs (the hirelings/the shepherds/so-called church leaders) stand there not looking too friendly towards Maya because “all seek their own, not the things which are Jesus Christ's” (Phil. 2:21, KJV) and “they are greedy dogs...[who] cannot understand” (Isa. 56:11, KJV).

And as Maya is greeted by the Queen, we see that she’s no different than anyone else (James 5:17 below) as she’s momentarily mesmerized by junk (James 4:4; 1 John 2:15-17, below)—that rock on her hand.

James 5:17, NIV Elijah was a human being, even as we are.

James 4:4, KJV Whosoever therefore will be a friend of the world is the enemy of God.

1 John 2:15-16, KJV Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him. For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world.
So while the Queen’s children aren’t real keen on Maya—as you can tell by their stance (the snobs)—God says “If ye had known what this meaneth, I will have mercy, and not sacrifice, ye would not have condemned the guiltless” (Matt. 12:7, KJV). “My little children, let us not love in word, neither in tongue; but in deed and in truth” (1 John 3:18, KJV). At some point the Queen/born again Christians, will echo the queen’s words and acknowledge that it was good of me to come, good of me to obey the Lord.

The Queen Leads the Way. The Queen/the Bride of Christ/Christianity leads everyone into the banquet hall with Maya right behind her who’s getting disparaging looks from everyone since she totally doesn’t fit in “for so persecuted they the prophets which were before [me]” (Matt. 5:12, KJV). And Scripture says the following:

God hath chosen the foolish things of the world to confound the wise; and God hath chosen the weak things of the world to confound the things which are mighty; And base things of the world, and things which are despised, hath God chosen, yea, and things which are not, to bring to nought things that are: That no flesh should glory in his presence (1 Cor. 1:27-29, KJV).

Through these booklets, especially the ones where I specifically share my testimony, God is making the point that all of those nothings represent my life.
The Queen’s Role. Since I’m a child of God having “received the Spirit of adoption” (Rom. 8:15, KJV), and God is the “King” (1 Tim. 6:15, KJV) and all of His children are also His Bride since our “Maker is [our] husband” (Isa. 54:5, KJV), I am also represented by the Queen and I’m making this announcement, that the party, the latter rain, is about to begin. There’s a fake version of it going on right now, as with Torben Sondergaard’s Last Reformation. There’s a fake version since Satan is copying EVERYTHING Jesus is doing being that he set out to “be like the most High” (Isa. 14:14, KJV). All you need to do is compare what Torben (and so many others) are saying and doing with the New Testament. It’s fake. I’m announcing the real version, the work Jesus is doing/will be doing.

And God made it pretty clear that I represent the Queen/Christianity with the places where I grew up—La Reina/The Queen in Santiago, Chile and Queens in Queens New York, along with a whole bunch of other stuff shared in my testimony booklets, as with this swim meet where my brother and I hold the sign for our Team, The Queen, leading the way. And according to Scripture there is no such thing as coincidence. For instance, the New Testament says that “He marked out their appointed times in history and the boundaries of their lands” (Acts 17:26, NIV). It was God’s purpose to have me represent the Queen in many ways including with the places where I was born and raised, La Reina (The Queen) in Santiago, Chile and Queens, New York.
The Party. In response to God’s promises and prayers, the party—the latter rain—is finally about to get started, an announcement made by the Queen. God says “Be glad then, ye children of Zion, and rejoice in the LORD your God: for he hath given you the former rain moderately, and he will cause to come down for you...the latter rain” (Joel 2:23, KJV). The former rain began with Pentecost and covered the first years of the church described in the book of Acts. And according to God that was nothing—“moderate”—compared to the latter rain He’s now working up to—and that was amazing!

So the party is the latter rain and God has revealed to me that the ministry He has given me will get it going. And it’s the Queen who makes the announcement because She is the Bride of Christ, the First Lady, the one hosting the party, so I’m like Esther who said “Come to the banquet” (Esth. 5:8, KJV). Eventually, born again Christians will no longer be ashamed of Christ or take Him for granted. They’ll finally openly invite others to fellowship with them and with Christ, which they can’t even do right now since most don’t have fellowship with Christ.

Set Apart. While everyone else is accompanied by someone, Maya walks alone enduring everyone’s contempt, as you can see by their faces. As a servant of Christ “I am come in my Father’s name, and ye receive me not: [yet] if another shall come in his own name, him ye will receive” (John 5:43, KJV). However, I’m not really alone because the Lord is with me. He says “I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee” (Heb. 13:5, KJV). And He has said to His followers “Be ye separate...touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you” (2 Cor. 6:17, KJV). Christians aren’t supposed to be like the rest of the world—as they know!
Pages 16 & 17: The King’s Table

Maya sits at the head of the court between the King/Jesus and the Queen/the church/Christianity. It’s where every prophet has ‘sat’ and where Jesus’ close followers sat.

There are Different Callings. The girl sits at the head of the table because “God has placed in the church first of all apostles, second prophets” (1 Cor. 12:28, NIV). Prophets are stuck between God and His Bride because they are sent by Him to “a rebellious nation that hath rebelled against [Him]” (Ezek. 2:3, KJV). As my 20-year testimony reveals, today’s Christians have no discernment. It’s like the NIV says “it is hard to make [things] clear to you because you no longer try to understand” (Heb. 5:11, NIV). Therefore, Christians call “evil good, and good evil” (Isa. 5:20, KJV)—just like the lost. God says “They have turned unto me the back, and not the face: though I taught them, rising up early and teaching them, yet they have not hearkened to receive instruction” (Jer. 32:33, KJV). So the Queen has her back to Maya/God’s prophet/me—more importantly, to God/Jesus/the General.
And you can clearly see that Christians have ‘their back’ to God in this graphic since all of the key Christian leaders are using occult hand signs. Rather than serve Jesus, as most Christians think, they are serving Satan.

Followers
Follow. The General/God tells Maya/the prophet when to speak (Rev. 22:10 below) and when not to speak (Rev. 10:4 below), in the same way that He Himself (Jesus) didn’t act on His own initiative (John 5:19-20 below).

Revelation 22:10, KJV He saith unto me, Seal not the sayings of the prophecy of this book: for the time is at hand.

Revelation 10:4, KJV I was about to write: and I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Seal up those things...and write them not.

John 5:19-20, KJV The Son can do nothing of himself, but what he seeth the Father do...For the Father loveth the Son, and sheweth him all things that himself doeth.
Turning a Blind Eye.
Everyone at the table looks decent enough (1 Sam. 16:7 below), but they let dogs roam around freely (Hab. 1:3 below).

1 Samuel 16:7, KJV Man looketh on the outward appearance, but the LORD looketh on the heart.

Habakkuk 1:3, NIV Why do you make me look at injustice? Why do you tolerate wrongdoing?

In saying “Why do you make me look at injustice? Why do you tolerate wrongdoing?” (Hab. 1:3, NIV) God is referring, for example, to the nun who shouldn’t be at the table. He says “Whosoever shall eat this bread, and drink this cup of the Lord, unworthily, shall be guilty of the body and blood of the Lord” (1 Cor. 11:26-27, KJV). The nun shouldn’t be included at the table—considered Christian—because she is Catholic and the Vatican worships Satan, the leading antichrist, rather than Jesus, God’s Christ, as the first video makes clear, and as God re-clarified 500 years ago during the Middle Ages. Yet, as the second video makes clear, Christians today include Catholics at the table when God says “Ye cannot drink the cup of the Lord, and the cup of devils: ye cannot be partakers of the Lord’s table, and of the table of devils” (1 Cor. 10:21, KJV). Therefore, He says “I have a few things against thee, because thou sufferest that woman Jezebel, which calleth herself a prophetess [in other words, the Catholic church which calls herself Christian]...I will cast her...and them that commit adultery with her into great tribulation, except they repent of their deeds” (Rev. 2:20, KJV). And this is just one grave sin Christians are committing—one of many.
Pages 18 & 19: Servants Serve the Meal

God has been sending His prophets/the waiters/servants for 2000 years and Christians haven’t listened to them, for the most part, just like the Jews didn’t listen to them. So He continues to say the following:

Since the day that your fathers came forth out of the land of Egypt unto this day I have even sent unto you all my servants the prophets, daily rising up early and sending them: Yet they hearkened not unto me, nor inclined their ear, but hardened their neck: they did worse than their fathers (Jer. 7:25-26, KJV).

What Christians have done is much worse than what the Jews did since we’ve had access to the completed Word of God, the Bible, and access to the “Spirit whom God [gives] to those who obey him” (Acts 5:32, NIV).
The Feast. Even though dinner (John 6:55 below) was served 2000 years ago (Matt. 4:17 below), Christians, as led by the “hireling[s]” (John 10:13, KJV) have made the Meal/Jesus, the “bread of life” (John 6:48, KJV), the “food” (John 6:55 below) look very unappetizing.

John 6:55, NIV For my flesh is real food and my blood is real drink.

Matthew 4:17, KJV From that time [2000 years ago] Jesus began to preach, and to say, Repent: for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.

Therefore, He says to Christians “Hypocrites!...ye shut up the kingdom of heaven against men: for ye neither go in yourselves, neither suffer ye them that are entering to go in” (Matt. 23:13, KJV). And through my personal testimony God has made this point very clear, how it is that so-called Christians keep others from getting saved or from growing in Christ. It’s bad enough getting persecuted by unbelievers, but it’s what Christians are doing as well! Christians have made it impossible for the lost elect and and the born again. And it’s what Jesus said “You nullify the word of God for the sake of your tradition” (Matt. 15:6, NIV)—our tradition of a fake version of Christianity.

Seeing the table before her Maya is both shocked and disappointed. While God “prepare[d] a table before [us] in the presence of [our] enemies” (Ps. 23:5, KJV), Christians have “removed from...the grace of Christ unto another gospel” (Gal. 1:6, KJV) “which is really no gospel” (Gal. 1:7, NIV). Told to “grieve not the holy Spirit of God, whereby [w]e are sealed unto the day of redemption” (Eph. 4:30, KJV), grieving God is pretty much all Christians are doing—with the exception of a miniscule remnant worldwide.
Following the Rules

Knowing what’s better (Ps. 34:8 below), Maya asks (1 John 5:14 below) and receives, having asked properly (Mark 11:24; James 4:3 below).

Psalm 34:8, KJV The LORD is good [“taste[s]” good].

1 John 5:14, KJV This is the confidence that we have in him, that, if we ask any thing according to his will, he heareth us.

Mark 11:24, KJV What things soever ye desire, when ye pray, believe that ye receive them, and ye shall have them.

James 4:3, KJV Ye ask, and receive not, because ye ask amiss, that ye may consume it upon your lusts.

We have to “build...ourselves up in...our most holy faith and pray...in the Holy Spirit” (Jude 1:20, NIV), which we do by reading, believing, and obeying God’s Word, the Bible, in relation to the new covenant.
The Kitchen is Where You Find the Cook. The waiter, the servant, checks “in the kitchen” because that’s where God does His work since it’s all about feeding His sheep (John 21:16 below). We can’t feed others without getting that food from Christ, just like Jesus “gave [the loaves and fish] to the disciples, and the disciples gave them to the people” (Matt. 14:19, NIV). Since Jesus is the “Master” (John 13:13 below) He is Master of All including the Kitchen, He’s the Chief Chef, the “head” (Eph. 5:23 below) Chef—which ties in to the culinary parable He had me write three years before giving me this Maya book, about the International Academy of Manna (IAM).

John 21:16, KJV Feed my sheep.

John 13:13, KJV Ye call me Master and Lord: and ye say well; for so I am.

Ephesians 5:23, KJV Christ is the head of the church: and he is the saviour of the body.
It’s a Waiting Game. Knowing the Man wasn’t lying (1 Sam. 15:29 below), Maya waits. However, waiting is hard, boring, lonely, and annoying. But God says “The testing of your faith produces perseverance. [Therefore] Let perseverance finish its work so that you may be mature and complete, not lacking anything” (James 1:3-4, NIV). Hard as it is—as it’s been—certain she’ll receive (Matt. 7:8; Heb. 11:6 below) the girl waits (1 Pet. 5:6 below)—as I’ve been doing for over two decades (Hab. 2:2-3 below).

1 Samuel 15:29, NIV He who is the Glory of Israel [God] does not lie or change his mind.

Matthew 7:8, KJV For every one that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened.

Hebrew 11:6, KJV But without faith it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him.

1 Peter 5:6, KJV Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God, that he may exalt you in due time.

Habakkuk 2:2-3, KJV The LORD answered me, and said, Write the vision, and make it plain upon tables, that he may run that readeth it. For the vision is yet for an appointed time, but at the end it shall speak, and not lie: though it tarry, wait for it; because it will surely come, it will not tarry.
Expressing Genuine Gratitude. Receiving (Matt. 25:21 below), Maya is very thankful (Rom. 7:25 below) if not entirely humble (Rom. 3:10 below).

Matthew 25:21, KJV [My] lord said unto [me], Well done, thou good and faithful servant: thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy lord.

Romans 7:25, KJV I thank God through Jesus Christ.

Romans 3:10, KJV As it is written, There is none righteous, no, not one.

In contrast, today’s Christians say they’re thankful to God (those that do) but reveal by their actions that they don’t really appreciate who He is and what He’s done for them so that He continues to say “This people honoureth me with their lips, but their heart is far from me” (Matt. 7:6, KJV). “They claim to know God, but by their actions they deny [Me]. They are detestable, disobedient and unfit for doing anything good” (Titus 1:16, NIV). And we can see that in the state of the church and world. Christianity has NOT produced much good! It’s mostly producing proud spiritual hypocrites who keep themselves and others from knowing the Lord.

Page 21: THE MILLION DOLLAR QUESTION.

“Which one?” represents the question everyone asks but few have answered correctly. Faced with this table setting, it’s like Maya is asking What is the meaning of life? The utensils represent so-called Christian denominations and the glasses represent other religions and philosophies people believe to make sense out life (Acts 17:23 below). And the noodles represent all of humanity since “all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God” (Rom. 3:23, KJV). We don’t have to sin to become a sinner because we were all born as sinners as we’re informed in Genesis. Therefore, the ketchup bottle represents God’s answer to our problem and to Maya’s question. The blood of Jesus answers the meaning of life question because “there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved” (Acts 4:12, KJV). It’s a ‘great sauce’ and highlight of the work God has done “for God hath concluded them all [all of humanity] in unbelief, that he might have mercy upon all” (Rom. 11:32, KJV). Having shed His blood for us, explains the color of the sauce. God crucified His own Son/crucified Himself (John 10:30 below) so as to create a righteous Family, a righteous world, as we’re told “His purpose was to create in himself one new humanity” (Eph. 2:15, NIV). So it involves everyone, not just the elect, as I cover in the booklet and playlist The Good News! “For even as in Adam all die, so also in the Christ all shall be made alive” (1 Cor. 15:22, YLT)—just not at the same time. The non-elect and faithless elect won’t be transformed and made like Christ—perfect—until after the eons and they’ve satisfied God’s wrath.

Acts 17:23, KJV For as I passed by, and beheld your devotions, I found an altar with this inscription, To THE UNKNOWN GOD. Whom therefore ye ignorantly worship, him declare I unto you.

John 10:30, KJV I and my Father are one.

A Mess God Rules. So while the lost elect don’t know the answer to the Question—especially those not born into a professing Christian home, like me, Maya—the enlightened elect should have had them covered fulfilling Jesus’ will for us to be “one fold” (John 10:16, KJV). The noodles especially represent all of the elect, “the vessels of mercy, which he had afore prepared unto glory” (Rom. 9:23, KJV). And the lost elect don’t know the answer to the Question because, as the Eunuch told Philip “How can I [understand], except some man should guide me?” (Acts 8:30-31, KJV). That’s the system God set up, that the enlightened ones would inform the unenlightened. That’s the Great Commission, God’s working orders for Christians, having said “Go ye therefore, and teach all nations...to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you” (Matt. 28:19-20, KJV). Enlightened elect, the born again, should be willing, like Paul, to “endure all things for the elect’s sakes, that they may also obtain the salvation which is in Christ” (2 Tim. 2:10, KJV). But instead, most have historically been living for themselves, just like the lost, making it seem to the lost as if God’s not real or not represented by Jesus. Or, that He doesn’t really mean what He says in His Word, the Bible.

Still, it’s NOT as if faithless Christians have messed up God’s Plan. He is still the One in control who knew this is what we would do and worked it into His Plan as we’ve been informed. He “worketh all things after the counsel of his own will” (Eph. 1:11, KJV) so that “we [followers of Christ] know that all things work together for good to them...who are the called according to his purpose” (Rom. 8:28, KJV). God allowed Christians to be this unfaithful to prove to us that we ARE “desperately wicked” (Jer. 17:9, KJV) even while born again when we don’t “take captive every thought to make it obedient to Christ” (2 Cor. 10:5, NIV)—and we don’t; we haven’t. But we will since “Christ...loved the church, and gave himself for it; That he might sanctify and cleanse it with the washing of water by the word, That he might present it to himself a glorious church, not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without blemish” (Eph. 5:25-27, KJV).

The General pretends He doesn’t know what’s going on, what needs to be done, and that He doesn’t even care, even though He’s overseeing the whole thing! God says “When you did these things and I kept silent, you thought I was exactly like you. But I now arraign you and set my accusations before you” (Ps. 50:21, NIV)—which He’s doing through this ministry. What God does is like when Jesus asked “Philip, “Where shall we buy bread for these people to eat?”...[having] asked this only to test him, [since] he already had in mind what he was going to do” (John 6:5-6, KJV). And He pretends He doesn’t care what’s going on as a test of our faith. He says “For a brief moment I abandoned you, but with deep compassion I will bring you back” (Isa. 54:7, NIV). He tests our faith—and has tested it as a group—to prove to us that we are “desperately wicked” (Jer. 17:9, KJV). Admitting it, He’ll draw us back with deep compassion. And we know that He’s the One in full control because He has told us, as He says “I make peace, and create evil: I the Lord do all these things” (Isa. 45:7, KJV). There is only One who is in control, and it’s not Satan. Thank God. And it’s certainly not us!

And as you can see by His eyeball and the look on His face—and the fact that He gave His life for us!—God is actually eager to see His subjects do what needs doing—slosh on that classic red wine sauce. He says “I have no greater joy than to hear that my children walk in truth” (3 John 1:4, KJV). “If [you] walk in the light...[you will] have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jesus [that classic wine sauce]...[will] cleanse...[you] from all sin” (1 John 1:7, KJV).

God Doesn’t Change. The point that there isn’t a fork for these twisted noodles has to do with the fact that I’ve had to walk in unchartered territory since Jesus is the end of Old Testament prophet, and yet He’s using me like an old Testament prophet. It was the end because on the Cross “He said, It is finished” (John 19:30, KJV) and “in these last days [God has] spoken unto us by his Son” (Heb. 1:2, KJV). So while Jesus said “I send unto you prophets” (Matt. 23:34, KJV), no one (including me) would have ever guessed He meant in this manner, so twisted! (As revealed in some of the booklets He’s had me write.)

So what I’ve discerned is that while He’s using me like an Old Testament prophet, because we are under the new covenant of grace we have to function as the body of Christ—which is basically what they should have been doing in the Old Testament as well. The difference is that all elect souls now have access to His Spirit, who makes His home inside of us when we become His faithful follower, as revealed in the graphics for John 14:23 and Acts 5:32. He’s also told us that “If one part [of the body of Christ] suffers, every part suffers with it; [but] if one part is honored, every part rejoices with it” (1 Cor. 12:26, NIV)—every member of the body gets blessed. So the way for modern day prophets to walk in it is the same as all the prophets walked in it, by pigging out on God’s Word (1 Pet. 1:10-14 below)—as He says “Eat it the way you’re used to.” We have to diligently study the Scriptures and walk in the truth. That’s what I was doing before He informed me that He had called me as a prophet and it’s what I’ve kept doing ever since.

1 Peter 1:10-14, KJV The prophets have enquired and searched [the Scriptures] diligently...Unto whom [God’s secrets were] revealed...Wherefore gird up the loins of your mind, be sober, and hope to the end for the grace that is to be brought unto you at the revelation of Jesus Christ; As obedient children, not fashioning yourselves according to the former lusts in your ignorance.
Page 23: Loving God—Food—Offends Sinners

These pictures of Maya eating is what all born again Christians should be doing, “search[ing] the Scriptures” like good Bereans (Acts 17:11, KJV), “delight[ing] in the Lord” (Ps. 37:4, KJV), “study[ing them] to shew [themselves] approved unto God...workm[e]n that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth” (2 Tim. 2:15, KJV), and “be[ing] filled with the knowledge of his will in all wisdom and spiritual understanding” (Col. 1:9), even though digging in and porking out offends people (Matt. 5:11-12 below), Christians more than the lost (John 7:5 below), so-called Christian leaders especially (John 10:13 below). Because, they consider themselves righteous having gotten proud for knowing the truth, just like the Jews of the Old Testament and the majority Jesus encountered when He walked the earth.

Matthew 5:11-12, KJV Blessed are ye, when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake. Rejoice, and be exceeding glad: for great is your reward in heaven: for so persecuted they the prophets which were before you.

John 7:5, KJV For even his own brothers did not believe in him.

John 10:13, KJV The hireling...careth not for the sheep.

The people are so offended by Maya/me, they don’t even say anything to the girl. Deceived by their own wicked hearts and Satan’s lies, the masses want everyone to be like them so that they feel good about themselves. Except “broad is the road that leads to destruction, and many enter through it” (Matt. 7:13, NIV). That’s why Jesus says “Blessed is he, whosoever shall not be offended in me” (Matt. 11:6, KJV).

However, I discern part of the reason they’re offended is because they’re afraid knowing, deep down, that they’re not right with God. So God says “He that feareth is not made perfect in love” (1 John 4:18, KJV)—and that’s how it is. Since today’s Christians have not been made perfect in love, not walking in the truth, they’re afraid. You see that all over YouTube as they present information on the New World Order and discuss it in the comments section. They’re all angry at the powers that be and clueless as to what to do about it, when God has clearly told us what we need to do. He says “God is a Spirit: and they that worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth” (John 4:24, KJV). And since Christians aren’t doing that, we need to repent and start doing that—which He has me covering through this ministry pointing out the lies we’ve historically believed concerning Christianity.
In any case, my guess is that the expression on that dog’s face has been yours (Mark 1:22, KJV) as the Lord has led you to this material AND convicted you.

Mark 1:22, KJV They were astonished.

God is Wild! While everyone is so full of unbelief—eagerly believing lies rather than the truth as someone summed up on this graphic—the fact is that God has done plenty of wild things before (Heb. 11 below), for the same reason, to draw the people back to the truth, back to Him (Isa. 29:23-24 below).

Hebrews 11:29-35, KJV By faith they passed through the Red sea as by dry land...By faith the walls of Jericho fell down...By faith the harlot Rahab perished not...the time would fail me to tell of Gedeon, and of Barak, and of Samson, and of Jephthae; of David also, and Samuel, and of the prophets: Who through faith subdued kingdoms, wrought righteousness, obtained promises, stopped the mouths of lions...not accepting deliverance; that they might obtain a better resurrection.

Isaiah 29:23-24, KJV They shall sanctify my name, and sanctify the Holy One of Jacob, and shall fear the God of Israel. They also that erred in spirit shall come to understanding, and they that murmured shall learn doctrine.

That will happen first for born again Christians, then for lost Gentile elect, and then for elect Jews—before the age ends, before the Lord returns.
Condemning the Guiltless. The Queen/the body of Christ rebukes Maya saying that no one’s ever eaten that way, not even in the “wilds” of the kingdom, meaning, the wilderness. However, she’s quite wrong because that’s exactly what happens in the wilderness as we see with Jesus’ example:

Jesus being full of the Holy [Spirit]...was led by the Spirit into the wilderness, Being forty days tempted of the devil...[and He defeated him with God’s Word so that] when the devil had ended all the temptation, he departed from him for a season (Luke 4:1-13, KJV).

Jesus’ example, along with the example of the saints described in Hebrews 11 are all about the “bad manners” God’s people have had in the wilderness, which also got them in trouble with unbelievers and those who professed to know God. Jesus, and all those whom God has used most, knew God’s Word well—porked out on God’s Word, the so-called “bad manners,” which is what’s needed since Satan knows God’s Word well—better than any of us (excluding Christ).

And the thing is, no one God has used before has been as familiar with Him publicly on His behalf as He has me doing, as shared in many of the booklets. We’ve also never before in history had all of these resources—the Bible, not only in book format, but as movies, in audio, and with YouTube; and the world at our fingertips through technology; all that He’s currently using. Neither has anyone gone to this extreme over Him outside of the 10/40 Window, without any support, any fellowship whatsoever. And He’s doing it, in part, to make the point of how far apart He has set me. Also because He’s using me as an example of how to follow Him.
Jailed for Christ. When the Lord gave me this Maya book I thought the book He had me working on was for publication to sell at cost. So the night before God provided it I’d shown my daughter a huge binder with all the pictures I was using—mostly line drawings of other people’s artwork, tracings I’d made since I’m no artist. She’d nodded, chuckled, and said, “You’re going to jail!” (A publisher had told me this was legal, except she didn’t know that.) And whether jail for me is prophetic or not I don’t know, but I do know that prison is where the bulk of those open to God in this nation are likely to be found besides preschool (Matt. 18:3 below) since the poorest among our poor are richer than most of the world’s population (Matt. 19:24 below).

Matthew 18:3, KJV Except ye be converted, and become as little children, ye shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven.

Matthew 19:24, KJV It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.

And since unbelievers are antichrist and professing Christians are also antichrist, I’m already ‘in jail’ and have been so for years because there is no one with whom to have a conversation! (My daughters turned completely away from the Lord when they entered college years ago, along with my husband though he still professes to believe in Jesus.) I’m in a prison without walls for choosing to remain faithful. I could count on two hands the number of words my husband says to me each week! And that’s the extent of my social life since it’s only greetings that we do at the gym—mostly—and I work for the Lord at home alone. While most Americans call themselves Christian they’re not even remotely interested in Jesus Christ, the “truth” (John 14:6, KJV). They’d rather hold on to a man made image of Him which doesn’t line up with Scripture. (Right now.) And while I know there is a more faithful remnant out there in the world since the New Testament says “at this present time also there is a remnant according to the election of grace” (Rom. 11:5, KJV), no one on my path has been interested in genuinely following Jesus. My guess is there is NO ONE in this nation following hard after Christ.
Page 25: One Day Things WILL Change

According to God a day is coming when the Queen/the born again will do like the Queen in the book and take the time to ask Maya/me questions and earnestly listen (Hab. 2:2-3 below). In turn, those people will hear God’s voice confirming what I’m saying and “run” with it. Like John the Baptist, I have “gr[own], and waxed strong in spirit, and [have been] in the deserts till the day of [my] shewing unto Israel” (Luke 1:80, KJV), “the Israel of God” (Gal. 6:16, KJV)—the born again.

Habakkuk 2:2-3, KJV The LORD answered me, and said, Write the vision, and make it plain upon tables, that he may run that readeth it. For the vision is yet for an appointed time.

Taking God seriously the born again will hear “a voice out of the cloud [meaning, from heaven], which sa[y]s, This is my beloved [child], in whom I am well pleased; hear ye h[er]” (Matt. 17:5, KJV). “Receive her in the Lord, as doth become saints, and...assist her in whatever matter she may have need of you—for she also became a leader of many” (Rom. 16:2, YLT).
Learning Manners. Maya explains to the Queen that her parents taught her manners in the same way that my heavenly Father, taught me my manners—the manner in which I follow Him. As Jesus says “Every man therefore that hath heard, and hath learned of the Father, cometh unto me” (John 6:45, KJV).

For Heaven’s Sake. It is “for heaven’s sake” that Maya eats like a pig since “joy shall be in heaven over one sinner that repenteth” (Luke 15:7, KJV)—and that’s the goal of the ministry God has given me. In fact, that many will repent because of my testimony and teaching provided in these booklets.

Food Tasting Better. Food, the Lord/Jesus, tastes better/is more appealing when you pork out because that’s how you really get to know Him. If you don’t pork out on God’s Word, the “food” (John 6:55, NIV) you won’t be satisfied because it’s like the difference between having an acquaintance as compared to a good friend. Acquaintances hardly know you and you hardly know them. It’s mostly chit chat or awkward conversation that you have with them. And that’s not all that enjoyable. You can just as well do without it. And that is how it is; most born again Christians have barely gotten to know the Lord so that they soon do without Him—live their lives without Him—until those moments when they’re in desperate need of help. They USE Him.

And no one likes being used. Therefore, He doesn’t reveal Himself like He would if He was your close friend. Like with any friend, the better you get to know Him, the more open and honest you are with Him, the better friendship you have—the better He tastes. And He warned us saying “Since you disregard all my advice [as even born again Christians have done] and do not accept my rebuke, I in turn will laugh when disaster strikes you” (Prov. 1:25-26, NIV). That should scare THE MESS OUT OF YOU and move you to take Him seriously considering the disasters headed our way, as prophesied.
Paying Attention. Having actually listened to what the girl had to say, the Queen takes her thoughts captive to Christ (2 Cor. 10:5 below) and decides to take up the challenge (Mal. 3:10 below).

2 Corinthians 10:5, NIV We demolish arguments and every pretension that sets itself up against the knowledge of God, and we take captive every thought to make it obedient to Christ.

Malachi 3:10, NIV “Test me in this,” says the LORD Almighty.

The Overweight Love Food. The Queen, the born again, will finally listen because, as you can see from the looks of her, she really does love Food. Like me, you can tell that the Queen has done more than just “taste...that the LORD is good” (Ps. 34:8, KJV, my emphasis).

The King’s Soul Mate. Everyone has to listen to the Queen since She represents Her Husband, the King (Eph. 5:23; 2 Cor. 5:20).

Ephesians 5:23, KJV For the husband is the head of the wife.

2 Corinthians 5:20, NIV We [born again Christians] are...Christ’s ambassadors, as though God were making his appeal through us. We implore you on Christ’s behalf: Be reconciled to God.
Pages 26 & 27: Making a Mess

When the Queen/Christianity finally listens to Maya/to me, She’ll make quite a mess as in cause quite a commotion. The born again will be “moved, saying, Who is this?” (Matt. 21:10, KJV). They’ll be wondering who is this Maya person as well as thinking ‘This isn’t the Jesus I’ve known’ and come to realize they haven’t actually bothered to get to know Him very well. God is making that obvious through this ministry.

As Christians take on Maya’s eating habits (explained and modeled throughout the series of booklets), there’s a mess alright, since we’ve got a ton of changes to make to fix the mess we’ve made! But it will also be because Satan won’t like it, therefore, neither will the non elect along with the rebellious elect. God says “I will wipe [the church/Christianity] as a man wipeth a dish, wiping it, and turning it upside down” (2 Kings 21:13, KJV). “Many shall be purified, and made white, and tried; but the wicked shall do wickedly: and none of the wicked shall understand; but the wise shall understand” (Dan. 12:10, KJV). The wicked, the carnally minded, “always resist the Holy Spirit!” (Acts 7:51, NIV).

Right now, most of those who are more awake, are mostly more awake to the occult, Satan’s secrets hidden in plain sight. But God is using this ministry to get His people to wake up to His secrets hidden in plain sight (Dan. 2:47 below) so that you get empowered by Him and not fear what the heathen fear (Zech. 8:13 below) and neither have a false sense of security.

Daniel 2:47, KJV God is a...revealer of secrets.

Zechariah 8:13, KJV It shall come to pass, that as ye were a curse among the heathen...so will I save you, and ye shall be a blessing: fear not, but let your hands be strong.

Getting the Boot. Making the necessary changes, those dogs will get booted from God’s kingdom, His table (Ezek. 34:10 & Jude below) as will whoever feeds them (1 Cor. 5:5 & Rev. 2:5 below)—notice, the Queen doesn’t.

Ezekiel 34:10, KJV This is what the Sovereign LORD says: I am against the shepherds and will hold them accountable for my flock. I will remove them from tending the flock so that the shepherds can no longer feed themselves. I will rescue my flock from their mouths, and it will no longer be food for them.

Jude 1:12, NIV These people are blemishes at your love feasts, eating with you without the slightest qualm—shepherds who feed only themselves. They are clouds without rain, blown along by the wind; autumn trees, without fruit and uprooted—twice dead.

1 Corinthians 5:5, NIV Hand this man over to Satan for the destruction of the flesh, so that his spirit may be saved on the day of the Lord.

Revelation 2:5, NIV Consider how far you have fallen! [Born again Christians] Repent and do the things you did at first. If you do not repent, I will come to you and remove your lampstand from its place.
Taste Matures. Eating like Maya (Deut. 12:32 below) the church/Christianity will finally stop making excuses for not obeying God (Rom. 1:20 below) so that She'll finally mature and become “holy and without blemish” (Eph. 5:27, KJV). In these last days the church will finally be sanctified.

Deuteronomy 12:32, KJV What thing soever I command you, observe to do it: thou shalt not add thereto, nor diminish from it.

Romans 1:20, KJV For...they are without excuse.

Beware of Dogs. You see that the dog wants what the Queen has, and he does because Satan set out to “be like the most High” (Isa. 14:14, KJV) so that “his servants...masquerade as servants of righteousness” (2 Cor. 11:15, NIV). Therefore, God says “Beware of dogs, beware of evil workers” (Phil. 3:2, KJV). Like “the patriarchs [they are] moved with envy” (Acts 7:9, KJV).

Not All are Kingdom Subjects. Notice that everyone named is part of the court representing the elect of God. The New Testament says “the Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God:And if children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ; if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together” (Rom. 8:16-17, KJV). All who will listen are those “chosen...in [Christ] before the foundation of the world” (Eph. 1:4, KJV). If you have ears to hear it’s because “it has been granted to you on behalf of Christ not only to believe in him, but also to suffer for him” (Phil. 1:29, NIV). But it’s not as if those who haven’t been granted this privilege will NOT suffer! They suffer brutally and do so for the eons. God says “The smoke of their torment doth go up to ages of ages; and they have no rest day and night, who are bowing before the beast and his image” (Rev. 14:11, YLT).
Kingdom Subjects Differ. While they all eat off the King’s table since “salvation is found in no one else, for there is no other name under heaven given to mankind by which we must be saved” (Acts 4:12, NIV), they each eat different things having a different calling, “created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which God hath before ordained that we should walk in” (Eph. 2:10, KJV). Yet most born again today have no clue what the good works are which God ordained for them!

In other words, when the elect become born again they “are the body of Christ, and members in particular. And God hath set some in the church, first apostles, secondarily prophets, thirdly teachers, after that miracles, then gifts of healings, helps, governments, diversities of tongues...[And God says] covet earnestly the best gifts (1 Cor. 12:27-31, KJV). And the best gift is prophecy because “the one who prophesies edifies the church” (1 Cor. 14:4, KJV). And the more faithful you are to Him, the more God enlightens and empowers you. God says “You will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes on you” (Acts 1:8, NIV). It’s up to you how much power you receive and how long it takes because “God gives the Spirit without limit” (John 3:34, NIV). While there is something of an obstacle since we have been called to function as the body of Christ, “submitting...one to another in the fear of God” (Eph. 5:21, KJV), even without any fellowship, God still empowers and enlightens us quite a bit as He’s revealing through this ministry.
Queen of the King’s Table. The Queen is the biggest pig of all, outdoing them all, because that’s what it means to be queen at something. The porky lady is Queen of the Word. As such, she learns to love that 8:28 sauce (Rom. 8:28 below) taking the bad with the good (Job 2:10 & Phil 4:11 below).

Romans 8:28, KJV We know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose.

Job 2:10, KJV What? shall we receive good at the hand of God, and shall we not receive evil?

Philippians 4:11, NIV I have learned to be content whatever the circumstances.

A Servant Like Christ. “Out[doing] them all” also speaks of out serving them all. While She’s the Queen, She has been called to serve the people, just like Jesus, the “King of kings” (1 Tim. 6:15, KJV) “did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many” (Mark 10:45, NIV). God says “He that is greatest among you shall be your servant” (Matt. 23:11, KJV). The real Queen/Christianity will reflect the love and service of Christ. Rather than promoting herself with buildings, banners, platforms, power, and money—as She currently does—She’ll get noticed and draw attention to Jesus by Her service, willing to give of Her all, like Her husband, the King, who also porked out “continu[ing] all night in prayer to God [the Father]” (Luke 6:12, KJV).
Eating the right way, as God meant, the Queen will finally feel satisfied and stop living off junk food. Jesus says “Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness: for they shall be filled” (Matt. 5:6, KJV, my emphasis). It’s like what I’m now doing in my 50s, and what so many are doing, speaking of actually eat healthy as summed up in David Zinczenko’s zero diet plans. Real food is so much more satisfying—in every way—as opposed to what’s been manufactured. (Not that I was eating all that bad before, just not as focused as this. And that’s what Christians need to do, get focused.)
The Kingdom. The Queen's kingdom is the King's kingdom, Christianity. And having eaten like Maya and found satisfaction the Queen declares that from now on—when God opens up this ministry in His “appointed time” (Hab. 2:3, KJV)—everyone in His court (the born again) will start poring out on His Word like I do, “but only on holidays,” which means holy days which refers to every day. While Christians argue as to whether the Sabbath is Saturday or Sunday, Scripture says “this is the day which the LORD hath made” (Ps. 118:24, KJV). This day is every day. We're told to “exhort one another daily, while it is called To day; lest any of you be hardened through the deceitfulness of sin” (Heb. 3:13, KJV)—which is exactly what happened since Christians didn’t obey Him. He specifically said “Do not let anyone judge you by what you eat or drink, or with regard to a religious festival, a New Moon celebration or a Sabbath day” (Col. 2:16, NIV). The New Testament also says “he that is entered into his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works, as God did from his” (Heb. 4:10, KJV). In other words, being a disciple of Christ, a genuine Christian, is a way of life. It’s something we do every day as Christians know but don’t do. As “Lord of the sabbath” (Matt. 12:8, KJV) and being that every day is holy since “This is the day which the LORD hath made” (Ps. 118:24, KJV), we are supposed to live as if celebrating the sabbath, honoring Jesus and resting in His finished work on the Cross, every day.

However, it’s clear that during the millennial reign of Christ, the elect who were not raptured along with those born during that time period will be celebrating the feasts as in the Old Testament, sacrificing animals, and observing the Saturday sabbath. I basically summed it up with this graphic. Right now the place of worship is the human temple since “the Holy Spirit...God has given to those who obey him” (Acts 5:32, NIV) so that He says to the born again “Ye are God's building” (1 Cor. 3:9, KJV). And since we are the building we do not go to church but actually are the church—every day, 24/7. Chris White has a very good video on the Sabbath at the following link, The Old Covenant the New Covenant, and The Sabbath by Chris White: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=3ez5X1rOVRc&t=3747s

Finally taking God at His Word (Heb. 11:6 below), repenting (1 John 1:9 below), stuffing themselves (Ps. 81:10 below), Christians will realize that what they’ve been doing hasn’t come even remotely close to what God has been offering all along (Luke 6:38 below).

Hebrews 11:6, KJV He that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him.

1 John 1:9, KJV If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

Psalm 81:10, KJV Open thy mouth wide, and I will fill it [says the Lord].

Luke 6:38, KJV Give, and it shall be given unto you; good measure, pressed down, and shaken together, and running over.

And the Good News is so much better than what most have imagined, which I summed up in the booklet and playlist The Good News! and walk through in the many booklets the Lord has had me write. The bottom line is that while Maya’s feet were funky looking, they brought very Good News with them. This graphic sums it up (a picture made by someone else and I added Jesus and the words). It’s what Scripture says the new earth will be like when it’s all been said and done at the end of the eons. Everyone who has ever lived will be united as one in love which is why “it is written, How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the gospel of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things!” (Rom. 10:15, KJV). There is no eternal torment in a place called hell since that is a pagan lie. However, there are very serious long-term consequences for unrighteousness, and through “Christ...there may be righteousness for everyone who believes” (Rom. 10:4, NIV).

Page 29: Every Great Meal Ends with Dessert

Having lived where they made Land O’ Lakes ice cream—a city named after a VIP, St. Paul—I developed a taste for it. And in the first draft, in the culinary section, amazed at all God was showing me, I’d written, “Wow! I wonder what we get for dessert!” Then some time later at Chincoteague, the name of the ice cream shop, The Creamery, struck a chord since I was ‘getting creamed’ for the Lord at the time. And the Spirit reminded me how Jesus had “made a whip out of cords, and drove all from the temple courts” (John 2:15 below). And knowing the Scriptures, I know how much He loves to play with words. So I made some connections.
And in the late 1990s God used two songs—along with a bunch of other stuff—to tell me that He would be using my testimony and this ministry to finally melt His people’s hearts. The first was by Timothy James Meaney, something about brining us to our knees and the other was by Chris Rice, Live by Faith, which says the following:

> ‘Cause blessed are those who have not seen and yet believe
> And blessed are the hands that keep givin’ but never receive > Blessed is the heart that gets broken but keeps holdin’ on... > that’s what it means to live by faith...

Connecting the dots, I realized that would be our dessert—ice cream, meaning, God will be melting the born again’s stone cold hearts and whipping them into shape. He says “I will put a new spirit within you; and I will take the stony heart out of their flesh” (Ezek. 11:19, KJV). Since we’re under the new covenant of grace, that whip—for those who take Him seriously—is of a different sort, as in this graphic.
Then, three years later, giving me the Maya book, God confirmed what I’d discerned so that the culinary guys dressed in white bring in three monstrous platters of ice cream. And since they’re dressed in white I know they represent angels (Acts 1:10 below).

Acts 1:10, KJV While they looked stedfastly toward heaven as he went up, behold, two men stood by them in white apparel.

However, it’s not just angels who bring in dessert. It’s also His Bride, the born again, because “to her was granted that she should be arrayed in fine linen, clean and white: for the fine linen is the righteousness of saints” (Rev. 19:8, KJV), and we’ve been called to “feed [His] sheep” (John 21:17, KJV).

God’s Sense of Humor. In the late 1990s the Lord gave me a food timeline. I don’t remember how exactly but I must have been thinking about food since that’s what I do. Someone has a keto website called All Day I Dream About Food. That’s it! In fact, when I was little my father compared me to the fat little dog in 101 Dalmatians. And looking him up I found two pictures that are very appropriate considering that God is having me rebuke Christians for being “dead [asleep and telling you to] Wake up!” (Rev. 3:1-2, NIV)
Anyhow, Jesus is really all three aspects of our dessert—the ice cream (Food), the whip cream (the Holy Spirit), and the cherry on top since He’s “life” (John 14:6, KJV). The cherry represents as much of His presence as we can have this side of heaven.

Discerning Time. As you see with each platter the amount of ice cream increases as do the number of cherries. You can see the time effect in the diminished color clarity of the last pile of ice cream and of the last culinary guy. It's further away so it's not as clear—yet. And the piles of ice cream get bigger with time as the number of born again souls rises and as the awareness of the Lord’s presence increases—therefore, more cherries. The meaning of our dessert is that God’s presence will be increasingly magnified as we move forward, both individually and as a group. He says “Draw nigh to God, and he will draw nigh to you. Cleanse your hands, ye sinners; and purify your hearts, ye double minded” (James 4:8, KJV). It's time we paid attention.
God also says “I will give you the rain of your land in his due season, the first rain and the latter rain, that thou mayest gather in thy corn, and thy wine, and thine oil” (Deut. 11:14, KJV), talking about a harvest of souls. He says “They waited for me as for the rain; and they opened their mouth wide as for the latter rain” (Job 29:23, KJV). Christians haven’t done that because the way you open wide for the Lord is by obeying Him—and we’re the furthest thing from that right now as summed up with the dartboard.

The Culinary Guys’ Shoes. In 1997, the first time God had me make prayer crafts (helping me be faithful in praying for His unfaithful and hateful people), I made hundreds of pasta angel crafts for loads of people, praying for everyone for months as I made them. And instead of painting them gold like the ones I’d received as a gift (which gave me the idea), I painted them different skin tones with different colored robes—like the different colored shoes on the culinary guys. According to the Bible “in every nation he that feareth [God], and worketh righteousness, is accepted with him” (Acts 10:35, KJV). And because of many things in my life, some of which are in the booklets, I understand God’s view on our racist attitudes. He’s not pleased. And instead of getting better, we keep getting worse! But if you want to be part of God’s Family and “receive a full reward” (2 John 1:8, KJV) you have to get rid of your racism.

Page 30: Home is Where the Heart Is Maya insists on getting home. In other words, I’m dying to get Home since Jesus is so much fun! “For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain” (Phil. 1:21, KJV). But it’s also because I’m sick of working alone, day after day, years on end, for a bunch of ingrates who refuse to acknowledge the obvious truth or even behave decently while so much hell is breaking forth around the world. It’s like Jesus said, “O faithless and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you? how long shall I suffer you?” (Matt. 17:17, KJV). Answer: Until we have fulfilled our Duty, the “works, which God prepared in advance for us to do” (Eph. 2:10, NIV). Therefore, having fulfilled His mission Jesus cried out “It is finished.” [and] With that, he bowed his head and gave up his spirit” (John 19:30, NIV).

Child Like Faith. So while many happily wave goodbye to Maya, having been blessed by her presence, the youngest child won’t even face her for being so upset she’s leaving—it’s what kids do. And “whosoever therefore shall humble himself as this little child, the same is greatest in the kingdom of heaven” (Matt. 18:4, KJV). And “unless you change and become like little children, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven” (Matt. 18:3, NIV).

Not All will Change. You can tell that some people don’t care one hoot that Maya’s leaving. And they don’t because they’re “vessels of wrath fitted to destruction” (Rom. 9:22, KJV). Because of all the horrendous trials coming on the earth during the last days, I discern most, if not all, elect will take God seriously. First, primarily Gentiles “until the times of the Gentiles are fulfilled” (Luke 21:24, NIV), and then elect Jews. “In this way all Israel will be saved. As it is written” (Rom. 11:26, NIV).

We Are on a Tour of Duty. The Lord made it clear to me that I don’t get to go Home until I’ve fulfilled my calling, which is why I keep working like crazy, alone, unpaid, against the grain. And that’s not true for all of us. The faithful don’t get to die until our Tour of Duty is over—those guillotines are a blessing! (Rev. 20:4 below) Where can stick my head please? (2 Pet. 2:7-8 below). But the unfaithful can be taken out of the way before their time as with Annanias and Sapphira (see Acts 5) and it’s also what Paul said, “Not discerning the Lord's body. For this cause many are weak and sickly among you, and many sleep [meaning many have died]” (1 Cor. 11:29-30, KJV).

Revelation 20:4, KJV I saw the souls of them that were beheaded for the witness of Jesus, and for the word of God, and which had not worshipped the beast, neither his image, neither had received his mark upon their foreheads, or in their hands; and they lived and reigned with Christ a thousand years.
2 Peter 2:7-9, NIV  Lot, a righteous man...was distressed by the depraved conduct of the lawless (for that righteous man, living among them day after day, was tormented in his righteous soul by the lawless deeds he saw and heard).

If I didn’t understand God’s Plan I’d have no respect for Jesus for having gone to the Cross for the likes of us. I’d think What a fool to give His life—and do it so brutally—for people who wouldn’t even appreciate it. But since I understand what He’s done, explained in different booklets as with The Gift & the Rewards, it’s clear that God is amazingly gracious to His elect who haven’t appreciated what He’s done for us. It’s also clear that He’s no fool. “God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap” (Gal. 6:7, KJV). We, Christians, are the fools!
As the Captain’s co-pilot, Maya waves goodbye and makes a statement about her elders’ manners—ya haven’t got any! Again the Captain is Jesus, “the captain of [ou]r salvation” (Heb. 2:10, KJV).

And He says “To sit on my right hand and on my left hand is not mine to give; but it shall be given to them for whom it is prepared” (Mark 10:40, KJV). And He has made it clear through the booklets He’s had me write, that I am sitting at His right hand. And—for those who’ll have eyes to see what I’m talking about—understand that I DO NOT know how what God has revealed concerning me actually applies in the long term. But I do see that God has made it obvious that He’s given me a seat of honor—obvious to those who connect the Dots.

And for those who’ll think I’m so proud for saying so...God knows I have no problem sitting in the back of the bus. All I care about is actually being on the bus! I don’t need to be noticed, in fact, I like being unnoticed. I love a quite life—just not quite as quiet as all this!

Anyhow, when God finally opens up this ministry and removes the blinders from the eyes of the born again, you’ll be saying to yourselves “How have I hated instruction, and my heart despised reproof; And have not obeyed the voice of my teachers, nor inclined mine ear to them that instructed me!” (Prov. 5:12-13, KJV), and that’s especially true for elect men and women in institutional church leadership. For 2000 years Jesus has “suffered...their manners” (Acts 13:18, KJV)—which is why the girl/Maya “must teach [her] parents some manners!” (my emphasis.)

While everyone had been mad at Maya or offended by her until the very end, the fact is that the Captain/God invited her/me to the banquet and to sit next to Him. Jesus says “I have chosen you, and ordained you, that ye should go and bring forth fruit” (John 15:16, KJV). And “No man taketh this honour unto himself, but he that is called of God” (Heb. 5:4, KJV). And He’s made it obvious that I’ve been called and chosen.

And He doesn’t look like He’s mad at me. He’s smirking. In fact, He’s got His eye on YOU! He says “He that receiveth a prophet in the name of a prophet shall receive a prophet’s reward” (Matt. 10:41, KJV). And He told me the following two decades ago:

I will make them of the synagogue of Satan, which say they are [Christian], and are not, but do lie; behold, I will make them to come and worship before thy feet, and to know that I have loved thee” (Rev. 3:9, KJV).

I discern ‘to worship at my feet’ means that they/Christians will finally acknowledge His calling on my life. In other words, they’ll finally honor Him. And Jesus said “Ye shall not see me henceforth, till ye shall say, Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord” (Matt. 23:39, KJV). He will not return until born again Christians acknowledge those He has sent in His name. (Of course, that’s also true about the Jews.) And it’s OBVIOUS that I am coming to you in His name!
The Queen, the saints, those who know “Jesus the author and finisher of our faith” (Heb. 12:2, KJV), or are getting to know Him, will recognize that I, Maya, “eat perfectly.”

Instead of what Christians do in the dressed down, watered down, purpose-driven abominable snobby brain-dead worldly so-called churches, we’re to come to God with childlike hearts (Matt. 19:14 below) concerned with what’s going on in the inside not what we’re wearing on the outside—but certainly not undressed, as in without the Spirit (Matt. 22:11-13 below)—or dressed immodestly (1 Tim. 2:9 below), or in childish mentality (1 Cor. 13:11 below).

Matthew 19:14, NIV Jesus said, “Let the little children come to me...for the kingdom of heaven belongs to such as these.”

Matthew 22:11-13, KJV When the king came in to see the guests, he saw there a man which had not on a wedding garment: And he saith...take him away, and cast him into outer darkness, there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

1 Timothy 2:9, NIV I also want the women to dress modestly, with decency and propriety...with good deeds, appropriate for women who profess to worship God.

1 Corinthians 13:11, KJV When I was a child, I spake as a child, I understood as a child, I thought as a child: but when I became a man, I put away childish things.
So while God has had me write these booklets in a manner that is not scholarly, the context (what really matters) is mature and biblical (John 7:24 below). And having told us to come to Him as little children, it’s not as if scholarly papers with big words would ever draw God’s elect. And they haven’t.

John 7:24, KJV Judge not according to the appearance, but judge righteous judgment.

It’s All Connected. You should have noticed the twisted noodle running through the entire book just as there is through the Bible—prophesy about God’s Messiah, a noodle the Queen is eating. God says “My thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways” (Isa. 55:8, KJV). Our ways of “making disciples” has been utterly ineffective! But God will be revealing that His way, the way of truth and speaking between the lines, revealing His secrets to His servants, will be very effective.

So in the same way that there’s a twisted noodle running through the the Bible and the Maya book, there’s a twisted noodle running through this series the Lord has had me write, just as there is through my life and through the life of God’s church, His Bride, Christianity. While God’s people have consistently said to His more enlightened servants “Thou art mad...[we have] constantly affirmed it [i]s even so” (Acts 12:15, KJV). In other words, through the booklets, having followed and obeyed the Lord, He is constantly affirming that I’ve seen the Lord! I’m speaking on His behalf.
Back Matter

Guide to Young Readers: It speaks of the importance of facial expressions. And somewhere I wrote about how I use whatever’s available to me (like Jesus did), including my face, when explaining God’s Word to people.

Ham it Up! This entire series reveals that I haven’t been afraid to go with God’s flow even though it’s meant going against just about every grain there is and letting people think I’m seriously wacked out, so that they’ve been quite insulting to me.

Talk about the Pictures: I just did.

Above All, Enjoy! Amen, because while “in the world [w]e shall have tribulation: [Jesus says, and enables us to] be of good cheer; [sine He] ha[s] overcome the world” (John 10:10, KJV).
Toon Into Reading

Level 1: The little mouse is putting on really large hiking boots like I did when I was four right before an earthquake hit in Chile. I’d been playing in my father’s closet with his army boots and had to make my way down the spiral staircase with them on. And hiking boots are what I lived in during the years the Lord showed me much of what’s shared in these books, especially the biblical interpretations. And a year before He gave me the Maya book, so in 2011, there had been an earthquake here in Maryland so that I was reminded of that time when I was four when the earthquake hit. Then, receiving this book from the Lord, He reminded me (John 14:26 below) of how my father would make fun of me because I did the same thing with my tongue the little mouse is doing.

John 14:26, NIV [Jesus said] The Holy Spirit...will remind you of everything I have said to you.

God, through His Spirit, will remind us of things we’ve experienced even as far back as preschool days—if needed for His purposes.
Level 2: A cute little critter is cracking up with a monkey peeking behind her who’s not laughing. I’ve always been accused of either being too quiet and of laughing too much. It’s because I’m not into what everybody else is into—and never have been—and not afraid to laugh when it’s funny. So what if it’s not politically correct, politics are seriously screwed up. And there’s a saying, “Monkey See, Monkey Do” and that’s how Satan is since he’s been copying everything Jesus does and doesn’t like it (doesn’t laugh) when someone isn’t intimidated by him and obeys Christ instead. In fact, he looks mad. (Zoom in.)

Level 3: The little devil naturally represents Satan, and his little geeky friend represents those he’s used to abuse people, who think they’re so smart with their secret knowledge—Illuminati, Freemasons, and shadow government (Ps. 2:1-3 below)—or so-called science (1 Tim. 6:20 below). While they do have a great deal of power, they’re very ‘little’ in God’s eyes, as is Satan (Isa. 14:16-17 below). And, they’re only as powerful as the Bride of Christ lets them be (1 John 4:4 below).

Psalm 2:1-3, KJV The heathen rage, and the people imagine a vain thing...The kings of the earth set themselves, and the rulers take counsel together, against the LORd, and against his anointed, saying, Let us break their bands asunder, and cast away their cords from us.

1 Timothy 6:20, NIV Turn away from godless chatter and the opposing ideas of what is falsely called knowledge.

Isaiah 14:10-17, KJV All they shall...say unto [Satan], Art thou also become weak as we? art thou become like unto us? ...They...shall...say...Is this the man that made the earth to tremble, that did shake kingdoms; That made the world as a wilderness, and destroyed the cities thereof?

1 John 4:4, KJV Ye are of God, little children, and have overcome them: because greater is he that is in you [speaking to those who have His Spirit within], than he that is in the world.
A bullet says the “reader needs to make connections and speculate.” That’s a big part of the message of the Bible. And we are talking 2nd grade reading level because the new covenant is not hard to understand. “Jesus said, Suffer little children, and forbid them not, to come unto me: for of such is the kingdom of heaven” (Matt. 19:14, KJV). Preschoolers can understand the Message and would continue to walk in the truth if the adults around them actually walked in it instead of being hypocrites.

Back Cover

It says “Are Maya’s Manners fit for a Queen?” And the standard Christian answer has been NO! (John 15:25 below). Except the ‘standard’ so-called Christian isn’t actually Christian (John 3:19 & 2 Thess. 2:10-11 below).

John 15:25, KJV They hated me without a cause.

John 3:19, KJV Light is come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil.

2 Thessalonians 2:10-11, KJV Because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved...for this cause God [has sent] them [a] strong delusion, that they should believe a lie.

So that’s it. Praying you are part of the Court and take up the Queen’s challenge to pork out!
