WORD
A Biblical Interpretation

Needing Getting

www.notmocked.com
All my work is dedicated to Jesus, and it goes out to His sheep.

The showers have been withholden, and there hath been no latter rain; and thou hadst a whore's forehead, thou refusedst to be ashamed.

Lord, cleanse your Bride with the Word that She feels shame.

God’s View of His Bride is NOT OK
The ‘official’ version is the funny one, the one to watch. Maybe you’ll get it (Luke 10:23 below). YouTube Needing Getting OK Go. https://youtu.be/MejbOFk7H6c.

Luke 10:23, KJV Blessed are the eyes which see.

What God is doing through these biblical interpretations is teaching His people how to walk in the Spirit because when we “walk in the Spirit...[w]e shall not fulfil the lust of the flesh” (Gal. 5:16, KJV)—and, therefore, not get deceived (as much). We don’t because having experienced how much fun the Lord is, we no longer look for ‘fun’ in the things of the flesh. It’s also easier to press on with our calling and go against the grain when we can clearly see His hand in the world around us. Since “all that will live godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution” (2 Tim. 3:12, KJV, my emphasis) We need to walk in the Spirit and not listen to the many people around us telling us we’re in the wrong. Rather, we need to listen to the Spirit, walk in the Spirit.

So here’s my interpretation of this song by OK Go.

I've been waiting for months,
waiting for years,
waiting for you to change.

God says:

Since the day that your fathers came forth out of the land of Egypt unto this day I have even sent unto you all my servants the prophets, daily rising up early and sending them: Yet [you] hearkened not unto me, nor inclined [you]r ear, but hardened [you]r neck: [you] did worse than [you]r fathers (Jer. 7:25-26, KJV).

[You] have turned unto me the back, and not the face: though I taught [you], rising up early and teaching [you], yet [you] have not hearkened to receive instruction (Jer. 32:33, KJV).
So God, through His Spirit, is singing about His Girl, His Bride, His church, the BRAT (Isa. 54:5, Jer. 3:14, 2 Cor. 11:2 below).

Isaiah 54:5, KJV Thy Maker is thine husband; the Lord of hosts is his name; and thy Redeemer the Holy One of Israel; The God of the whole earth shall he be called.

Jeremiah 3:14, KJV Turn, O backsliding children, saith the Lord; for I am married unto you.

2 Corinthians 11:2, KJV For I am jealous over you with godly jealousy: for I have espoused you to one husband, that I may present you as a chaste espoused virgin to Christ.

_Aw, but there ain't much that's dumber, there ain't much that's dumber than pinning your hopes on a change in another_

Christians think God is so dumb that He would actually pin His hopes on a bunch of sinners. That's what Christians are doing by denying the doctrine of election. But He's not an idiot. He's a genius! He says “You thought I was exactly like you [an idiot]. But I now arraign you and set my accusations before you” (Ps. 50:21, NIV). Through this ministry God is setting His accusation before His church, the born again.

And since you probably got offended in my calling you an idiot, what I'm doing is following the Spirit. So in the booklet and playlist For Such a Time as This I walk you through something God walked me through, a revelation, revealing that we (the born again) are idiots. And I, yeah I still need you, but what good's that gonna do? Needing is one thing, and getting getting’s another.

While we’re in rebellion and have been for most of Christian history, Jesus still needs those of us who are filled with His Spirit (the born again), because that’s how He has purposed to reach the lost, a massive group of people as you can visualize with my pie charts. While they’re not based on statistics, since there are none, they are based on common sense and, more importantly, the Spirit’s leading and teaching. God says:

How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without a preacher [preaching the truth]? (Rom. 10:14, KJV).

I walk through these pie charts in the booklet Growing Pains.
So I been sitting around, wasting my time, wondering what you’ve been doing.
Aw, and it ain’t real forgiving, it ain’t real forgiving sitting here picturing someone else living.

This was Jesus letting me know He knows how it feels. It’s like born again Christians have kept Jesus behind bars for most of Christian history—not letting Him carry out His will for making themselves more important than Him, loving themselves more than Him or His people, the lost elect. It’s like we’ve bound and gagged Him! (While professing to love Him.) SUPER hypocritical! And what we do to Jesus’ servants we do to Him. He says “Whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you did for me [and]...Whatever you did not do for one of the least of these, you did not do for me” (Matt. 25:40 & 45, NIV).

So while I know I haven’t been “wasting my time,” it does feel like it since I’ve kept at it for years on end and not one soul has been able to see the obvious. (And they haven’t because, as God informed me in the late 1990s, this ministry is for His “appointed time” (Hab. 2:3, KJV). Because of our rebellion/extreme hypocrisy, God is holding those beams/those blinders in place—speaking of the born again.

It’s difficult to tell if Maya is a true or false prophet.

Hypocrite, first cast out the beam[s] out of thine own eye[s]; and then shalt thou see clearly. Matthew 7:5, KJV
While Jesus says “Hypocrite, first cast out the beam out of thine own eye; and then shalt thou see clearly” (Matt. 7:5, KJV), He also says the following:

This people’s heart has become calloused; they hardly hear with their ears, and they have closed their eyes. Otherwise they might see with their eyes, hear with their ears, understand with their hearts and turn, and I would heal them (Matt. 13:15, KJV, my emphasis).

Throughout the Bible we see the same theme play out. God’s people harden their hearts to Him so that He then helps them stick to that plan. In other words, because we refuse to repent God helps us along our path of self destruction.

And the part of the song where it says “it ain’t real forgiving” ties in to what I’ve struggled with since standing between God and man gets pretty frustrating as Moses revealed so that God didn’t let him enter into the Promised Land:

The LORD spake unto Moses, saying, Take the rod, and gather thou the assembly together, thou, and Aaron thy brother, and speak ye unto the rock before their eyes; and it shall give forth his water, and thou shalt bring forth to them water out of the rock: so thou shalt give the congregation and their beasts drink. And Moses took the rod from before the LORD, as he commanded him. And Moses and Aaron gathered the congregation together before the rock, and he said unto them, Hear now, ye rebels; must we fetch you water out of this rock? And Moses lifted up his hand, and with his rod he smote the rock twice: and the water came out abundantly, and the congregation drank, and their beasts also. And the LORD spake unto Moses and Aaron, Because ye believed me not, to sanctify me in the eyes of the children of Israel, therefore ye shall not bring this congregation into the land which I have given them (Num. 20:7-12, KJV).

By helping me have a sense of humor about it all, God has enabled me to be forgiving since you guys (born again Christians) obviously don’t know what you’re doing! Especially since I do sit here and picture everyone else living while I toil away by myself—while all hell breaks loose around the world! It’s not only depressing, it’s maddening! And I don’t just picture them, I see them living. The rest of my family just went off to spend the weekend with my husband’s relatives, for instance. Yet I know they’re not really living—having rejected Jesus. And since it’s as God says, “Because of the increase of wickedness, the love of most will grow cold” (Matt. 24:12, NIV). The love of most has grown cold. And cold love isn’t actually love. So I know I’m not really missing anything, nothing worthwhile anyhow. But it’s still hard living in such extreme isolation.

And I, yeah I still need you, but what good’s that gonna do? All needing is one thing, and getting getting’s another.

This is confirmation not only of how it is, but of what God is doing. Repetition in the Word of God reveals how serious it is and how determined God is, just like we put words in bold or underline and dump in a load exclamation points to stress our point. As God said through Joseph “The dream was doubled unto Pharaoh twice...because the thing is established by God, and God will shortly bring it to pass” (Gen. 41:32, KJV). Through this ministry, especially with the biblical interpretations of secular resources, God is repeating the same message over and over and over and over again to stress the point that what He has me saying has been established and He will shortly bringing it to pass. And what exactly has been established? Only the very end of the world! I summed it up in this graphic and walk through it elsewhere.
The point is that we need to be people who genuinely love the Lord and care about what He cares about. As He summed up with the following passage:

The Lord said unto [the angel], Go through the midst of the city, through the midst of Jerusalem, and set a mark upon the foreheads of the men that sigh and that cry for all the abominations that be done in the midst thereof. And to the others he said in mine hearing, Go ye after him through the city, and smite: let not your eye spare, neither have ye pity: Slay utterly old and young, both maids, and little children, and women: but come not near any man upon whom is the mark; and begin at my sanctuary (Ezek. 9:4-6, KJV).

While this was originally speaking of the Jews, because God’s Word is prophetic God uses it to speak to different generations. So, essentially, history repeats itself. Therefore, these passages are also speaking to our generation, which many discern is the last generation, and it’s speaking not only about Jerusalem but about the whole world. God gave us 2000 years to take Him seriously and we’re now almost out of time. And since “judgment...begin[s] with God’s household” (1 Pet. 4:17, NIV) Christians need to repent—as they KNOW but haven’t done!

I've been hoping for months, hoping for years, hoping I might forget. Aw, but it don’t get much dumber, it don’t get much dumber than trying to forget a girl when you love her.

This is the Lord going on about His Girl, His Bride, who’s sleeping around with tens of thousands of lovers, in a totally unbiblical system! And it’s the reason He’d like to forget her, as in Forget YOU! But it’s impossible for Him to do since He loves Her enough to have given His life for Her on that Cross, an extremely painful and humiliating death—the BRAT.
And I, yeah I still need you, but what good's that gonna do? Needing is one thing, and getting getting’s another.

Again the repetition, “doubled...[more than] twice...because the thing is established by God, and God will shortly bring it to pass” (Gen. 41:32, KJV).

The whole thing is a riot when seen from God’s perspective, not only the words but the serious looks on their faces, the costumes, the old instruments (on their side), the sound, the driving, the dirt, the rough ending, all of it, and then He says, “Did we get it?”

Yeah, did we?

While the guy says that we did, I doubt it! ‘Cuz there ain’t much that’s dumber than the Lord’s Girl, the born again, as my 20-year testimony reveals. Though according to God some will eventually get it. He says “None of the wicked shall understand; but the wise shall understand” (Daniel 12:10, KJV) in His “appointed time” (Hab. 2:3, KJV). Therefore, may God grant you a measure of wisdom!
