1 Serving the Lord
Two decades ago God gave me the following passage:

The LORD answered me, and said, Write the vision, and make it plain upon tables, that he may run that readeth it. For the vision is yet for an appointed time, but at the end it shall speak, and not lie: though it tarry, wait for it; because it will surely come, it will not tarry (Hab. 2:2-3, KJV).

As it turns out, God has been revealing things to me my entire life (even before I was born again) so that I could fulfill His calling at His appointed time. And I discern He’s done this for all of us since “God does not show favoritism” (Acts 10:34, NIV) and “worketh all things after the counsel of his own will” (Eph. 1:11, KJV).

But this is how God worked His Plan into my life:

- through the things He had me experience before I became born again, which included quite a few trials;
- giving me a very visual experience of the “forces of evil” (Eph. 6:12, NIV) right after I’d spent a season earnestly seeking Him and cleaning up my life, and daily begging Him to take over for a week;
- having me follow Him through the churches and Christian groups for over three decades;
- having me read tons of Christian books besides the Bible;
- having me write to MANY Christians, especially leaders, holding them accountable for two decades;
- having me write an unpublished book in 2009 (Wake Up! Carest Not?); and,
- having me repeatedly edit that book, breaking it down into shorter booklets and creating corresponding videos, which He’s also had me remaking, for the past ten years as He’s revealed more to me, fine tuning the original material—“the vision” (Hab. 2:2, KJV).

So this book is one of the many ways God has had me sum up the vision, as with The Problem. This time doing it specifically for you—as He’s had me do for others, with the exception that He’s also having me make it into an audio book for you. It’s also the most fine tuned summarized version. It’s like the latest upgrade version of the summarized vision. And He’s had me sum it up in many different ways, not only with words and graphics, as I’ll be explaining. Basically, God is NAILING His point—about how rebellious we’ve been and what it actually means to follow Him—to get us to follow Him as a group, speaking of “the body of Christ” (1 Cor. 12:27, KJV). But as He said, He’ll be doing it at His “appointed time” (Hab. 2:3, KJV). And it hasn’t yet been that time. However, you’re the best candidate so far—by far! I discern you’re the end of the line, for several reasons including the following:

- the times in which we’re living in, in that we’re running out of time;
you knew me and my family, at least somewhat, whereas most people He’s had me reach out to haven’t known me at all;
- the connection with your baby who died;
- the connection God repeatedly made between both of our families (here, Indy, next door Indy, back here...);
- I never once thought of reaching out to you in 20 years; and,
- you have brains. Even though this is about faith, brains come in handy.

God has also confirmed, in many ways, that He’s using me. But to have eyes that see you have to be born again and not have beams blinding you (Matt. 7:5 in the graphic). You also have to care! This graphic actually reflects what a very enlightened former pastor from South Africa wrote to me. While it was obvious to me that this man was born again, and he was warmer and more enlightened than most Christians on my path—probably all!—he was still very proud (which is why I have him standing on a pedestal). I discern there are very few (if any) born again Christians alive today who don’t have at least these many beams in their eyes! It’s the reason it’s taken me two decades since God gave me that Word from Habakkuk to see the whole vision since I’ve had beams that I’ve had to remove. And there are still blurry areas!

So here’s an example of a beam. After our little group in Indiana broke up, those few weeks that we met together with the other two couples, your Ex wife came over one day crying confessing that God had indeed called us to prayer and that she hadn’t been willing—just like the rest of the group. And think about that for a second, Christians unwilling to answer God’s call to pray when Jesus, our Role Model, was a man of prayer spending “all night in prayer to God” (Luke 6:12, KJV) and we’re in a brutal spiritual war with the “forces of evil” (Eph. 6:12, NIV). Our hearts are SUPER HARD! Anyhow, what she did wasn’t actually repent. She merely acknowledged her rebellion and confessed it. Repentance would have meant that we now did what we hadn’t done but were supposed to do since we have been called to follow Jesus. He says “Follow me” (Matt. 4:19, KJV). But we still didn’t do it! (Not as a group anyway.) And I’m just as guilty since I didn’t even suggest that we now obey the Lord (to my recollection). Yet God says “There is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit” (Rom. 8:1, KJV, my emphasis). In other words, there is condemnation for those who walk after the flesh—who are not followers of Christ—even if born again (which I discern you are). And, again, this material clearly reveals that Christians as a whole have walked after the flesh for most of the last 2000 years! And because we’ve been rebellious, God has been holding most of those beams in place. We’ve also suffered the consequences of it—not only for our rebellion but of having beams in our eyes since they blind us to God and to the forces of evil.

However, God removes those beams when you “diligently seek Him “(Heb. 11:6, KJV) which He’s clearly encouraging you to do by having me put this material together for you. And by having me put it together for you He has made it very easy for you. It’s like He’s handing you the vision, the ministry—a very important ministry for the last of the last days—on a platter! In contrast, I’ve had to go against the grain of all by myself, pretty much, following Him through the land mines that cover Christianity Land in order to be able to connect the dots. It’ll be more than annoying if you also blow Him off like everyone else has done.

My understanding is that God aims to use you—to be the first one to whom He’ll open up the vision (but you have to do your part!). Because of what He’s shown me, I discern He aims to use you (or whoever it is He’ll actually be using) as He used Aaron for Moses (see Exodus 4) and Barnabas for Saul. “Barnabas took him and brought him to the apostles [and] told them how...the Lord had spoken to him” (Acts 9:27, NIV). In other words, you’ll validate my testimony—IF you’re the one God is using, which He’ll do if you “earnestly seek Him” (Heb. 11:6, NIV).
2 The Standard Scenario

I’m adding this tidbit since the Lord had it happen yet again the other day (1/14/20), reminding me that this is how it ALWAYS goes. May it help you not go there or, better said, not stay there!

At the gym waiting for the class to start, a nurse I often run into, who’s a professing Christian, asked me why I don’t do Yoga since I do the other classes. When I said “No one should do Yoga, especially a Christian” she immediately got angry. Having started to tell her of the many former Yoga instructors who testify on YouTube of Satan’s hand all over it, she demanded “Give me a Scripture!” And since the Zumba class was starting I just said, “If you compare the New Testament with what Christians have been doing for most of Christian history, it TOTALLY doesn’t line up.” To that, she laughed and said, “Well I believe in Jesus...[and something equivalent to that’s all that matters.]” As I started saying “Believing isn’t enough since “the devils believe” (James 2:19, KJV),” she again talked over me and said “Whatever floats your boat!”

Since this is how it’s gone for the last 20 years—professing Christians being super proud and unbiblical—it’s part of the reason God has had me write to everyone. Writing gives the reader the opportunity to get past your flesh and actually listen to what’s being spoken and consider it. However, you’ll also want to walk in the flesh while you’re reading (or listening) since it’s what everyone has done. Therefore, I know I would be no different if I was on the other side. So you should at least try to keep the following in mind:

- We’re at War: We’re in a brutal spiritual war, not with people (and certainly not with other Christians) but with the “forces of evil” (Eph. 6:12, NIV) who are out to “devour” us (1 Pet. 5:8, KJV). This alone calls for a measure of sobriety.

- My Work is Centered on God’s Word: As my 20 year testimony reveals, in which God has always had me back up what I’m saying with Scripture, Christians say they want Scripture but aren’t really interested in it for being more in love with their own opinions and desires. And that calls for repentance. If they actually valued Scripture they would respond with Scripture. But NO ONE has! Not one!

- Most Anger is Carnal: If a Christian gets angry when another Christian is explaining their understanding of Scripture, the angry person is walking in the flesh and, therefore, will not have ears to hear. For one thing, it’s impossible to hear what someone is saying to you when you’re talking over them OR when you’re focused on your opinion. And since we’re in a brutal spiritual war we shouldn’t be focused on proving our point but on discerning God’s Point. Since so much is at stake—speaking not of heaven or hell but of the consequences for us on earth—“Everyone should be quick to listen, slow to speak and slow to become angry” (James 1:19, NIV).

- Communicating is Essential: If, having LISTENED, our biblical understanding differs, all we have to do is calmly explain our view with the Scriptures in relation to the new covenant. Then listen again to how the other person responds, humbly working together towards being “one in heart and mind” (Acts 4:32, KJV), not only with each other but, more importantly, with Christ! We’re to “submit to one another out of reverence for Christ” (Eph. 5:21, NIV).

- Soft Hearts are Required: Laughing because we have dishonored Jesus, who gave His life for us in an extremely painful and humiliating manner SO THAT we could live in a perfect and righteous kingdom for the rest of eternity (no less), reveals a great deal of pride and ingratitude—reveals that person is NOT right with God. “A broken and contrite heart...God, will not despise” (Ps. 51:17, NIV). And if this woman was laughing because she thought what I said was a lie, that I was delusional in saying that we’ve totally dishonored God for most of Christian history, that reveals a hardened heart since it’s OBVIOUS that Christians are not honoring Him as we should. The lost can easily see that Christians are a bunch of hypocrites. And Jesus detests hypocrisy having repeatedly rebuked the Jews for it saying “Woe to you, teachers of the law and Pharisees, you hypocrites!” (Matt. 23:13, NIV).

- Devils Believe and Fear God: Believing in Jesus is not enough because “the devils also believe, and [they] tremble” (James 2:19, KJV).

- It’s About Doing God’s Will Not Ours: Since “every one of us shall give account of himself to God” (Rom. 14:12, KJV) and “every idle word that men shall speak, they shall give account thereof in the day of judgment” (Matt. 12:36, KJV) “whatever floats your boat” doesn’t even begin to cut it! It’s more like ‘Not my will but God’s will’ (Matt. 26:39, KJV)—the example Jesus gave us.
3 Being a Good Berean

Christians love to call themselves Good Bereans (Acts 17:11 below) when they’ve hardly been that at all. Moreover, much of what God has me saying will only be clear to you when you’ve read the whole thing and removed the beams from your eyes. Because, points can only be be presented one after the other and beams blind us. Keeping an open heart and mind, the more information you receive the more it’ll make sense—provided you actually remove the beams, at the very least acknowledge that you have them. Please don’t make the typical mistake and assume this isn’t correct and, therefore, not read it at all. At the very least, listen to it all. (And I’m not saying I think it’s all correct. I’m sure there are mistakes, which I talk about later.) In any case, since God is trying to communicate very important information to you, you should make an earnest effort to discern His voice.

Acts 17:11 [The Bereans] were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, and searched the scriptures daily, whether those things were so.

Moreover, a ‘Good Berean’ can only begin to be good by being “quick to listen…and slow to become angry” (James 1:19, NIV). Having actually listened and checked your anger, you then have to search the Scriptures as needed. And by having me cover every point with Scripture, He’s gone a long way in helping us out! But since I could be wrong, you still have to do your part. If it turns out that your life doesn’t line up with the truth of God’s Word, you have to actually apply the information so as to remove any beams you may have in your eyes. Finally, if you discern that I’m in the wrong, you’ve been called by God to “contend for the faith” (Jude 1:3, KJV) and correct me.

Yet in two decades not one Christian has bothered to be a Good Berean or contend for the faith! And that, in turn, proves how wrong and hard hearted they are—which is clear with all those denominations that call themselves Christian (1 Cor. 3:3-4 below). Christians are carnal, walking in the flesh. And “the mind governed by the flesh is death [because it]...is hostile to God” (Rom. 8:6-7, NIV). My Zumba lady revealed it by saying “Whatever floats your boat!” That’s like saying Who cares what you do or Who cares what God did for us. Well, God cares—quite a bit—on both counts and has called Christians to care, after all we’re supposed to be representing “God [who] is love” (1 John 4:8, KJV). Love cares.

1 Corinthians 3:3-4, KJV Ye are yet carnal: for whereas there is among you...divisions, are ye not carnal, and walk as men? For while one saith, I am of [the Baptists]; and another, I am of [the Pentecostals]; are ye not carnal?

4 Born Again

I have to cover everything to help us get on the same page. Therefore, there’s a decent amount of repetition here. It’s like Paul said “It is no trouble for me to write the same things to you again, and it is a safeguard for you” (Phil. 3:1, NIV). So this graphic represents how God has had me sum up being born again. According to Scripture it means that we have God’s Spirit inside of us which He gave us after we’d expressed obedience to Jesus for a season of time. Simply believing in Him means next to nothing since “devils believe” (James 2:19, KJV) and it’s not as if they’ll ever become born again followers of Christ. And we have to obey the Lord for at least a season of time since Jesus said we have to “keep [His] words” (John 14:23, KJV). Yet Christianity as we know it teaches people to “Say this prayer [and you’re in!]...Welcome to the Family!”
And while a born again Christian has “the foundation” of Christ” (1 Cor. 3:11, KJV in the graphic), we can build on this foundation in a manner that reveals/will reveal we were in rebellion to one degree or another—at worst, to the point of being “saved as by fire” (1 Cor. 3:15, KJV). So the end result for all born again Christians will be like the Best & Worst Case Scenarios graphic—and everything in between, having some gold, silver, and precious stones. So when Jesus said “Without me ye can do nothing” (John 15:5, KJV), He meant that even when we’re born again, without walking in obedience to Him—without being His follower—we’d be able to accomplish nothing that will amount to anything when tested by fire, nothing but a pile of worthless ash. Since He’s our Lord He’s the One we’re supposed to be following, not other people or our own ideas. We’re to “Worship the Lord...our God, and serve him only” (Luke 4:8, NIV).

5 The Great Apostasy
As should be crystal clear to the born again with this timeline, Christians have thoroughly fulfilled the great apostasy which God said we would do before “that day” (2 Thess. 2:3 in the graphic). “That day” refers to the day of His return, the “great and dreadful day of the Lord” (Mal. 4:5, KJV). It will be “great” for His followers and “dreadful” for the rest. God warned us saying “If you do not stand firm in your faith, you will not stand at all” (Isa. 7:9, NIV), and Christians, as a whole, haven’t. We’ve proven God’s Word. If that’s not yet clear to you it should be by the time you’ve finished this book! (And it should already be crystal clear!) However, all of my material nails the point further and further in since the Carpenter is behind it, and He’s very good at His job since He’s the “Master” (Matt. 8:19, KJV).
As history and Scripture reveal, the falling away is not something that will happen in the future or happen suddenly as most preach, but something that has been happening over the past 2000 years since it began shortly after Jesus walked the earth. As Paul said “Some are already turned aside after Satan” (1 Tim. 5:15, KJV). And, at some point, they began to worship men, their leaders who eventually called themselves popes, a word that comes from papa which means father, as in Father. And Catholics call the popes Holy Father as if that man is God! Since Satan set out to “be like the most High” ( Isa. 14:14, KJV), the Catholic church represents one of Satan’s biggest counterfeits, the Protestant church representing the biggest! (As I'll be making clear.) And it makes sense since Satan is “a liar and the father of lies” (John 8:44, NIV). Therefore, he would take the truth and reshape it into his biggest lie.

In fact, since Satan is the “god of this world” (2 Cor. 4:4, KJV), what we call reality is like this graphic. We were all born in the dark since we were born as sinners into a fallen world (read Genesis). And Christianity as most know it is very much in the dark!

So even though God revived the church with the Reformation of the Middle Ages, because the Reformers kept many of the pagan practices held by the Catholics, that snowball effect continued and landed us in the mess we’re in today—both in the church and world since Christians are “the light of the world” (Matt. 5:14, KJV). If the born again walk in the dark, so does the rest of the world. And today, Protestants worship men, their so-called pastors. That’s my 20-year testimony. Even when Christians have seen that what I’m saying lines up with Scripture, the few times that’s actually happened, they’ve ALL immediately run to their pastor for confirmation and direction, rather than run to Jesus, the One they’re supposed to be following since He is our “high priest” (Heb. 4:14, KJV). And because these men (and women) are “hireling[s who] careth not for the sheep” (John 10:13, KJV), they haven’t approved of the truth. And since those Christians idolized men rather than looking to Jesus, they’ve remained in the dark while thinking they’re walking in the light. But “neither the sexually immoral nor idolaters...will inherit the kingdom of God” (1 Cor. 6:9-10, NIV). I’ve summed it up in this graphic. The point is that more than likely most professing Christians have historically not actually been Christian, been born again. As Jesus says “Narrow is the way...and few...find it” (Matt. 7:14, KJV).
While Jesus clearly warned us to be on guard against the teaching of so-called spiritual leaders, those paid professionals, Christians didn’t pay any attention to Him—or very little—so that their false teaching worked like yeast, like a snowball effect, contaminating the whole body of Christ, all of Christianity. I’m referring to the passage where Jesus said “Be on your guard against the yeast of the Pharisees...the teaching of the Pharisees” (Matt. 16:6-12, NIV). Institutional Christianity is a tradition of men handed down to us by the satanic Catholic church. And today’s Protestant so-called church leaders act just like the Pharisees of Jesus’ day. Try holding them accountable on even the most obvious points and they’ll attack so fast your head’ll spin!

And if you look into Martin Luther, a man considered by most Christians to be a pillar of the church of Christ, according to Jesus it’s NOT very likely that he was actually born again since he wrote—towards the end of his life—in his book On the Jews and their Lies (that we should have killed the Jews. That’s problematic since Jesus says “Love your enemies” (Matt. 5:44, KJV) and “love your enemies” is baby food Christianity! No born again Christian walking in the Spirit would counsel others to kill anyone—much less so a pillar of the faith! And there’s other evidence revealing that Luther was not likely born again.

Since Christians have been rebellious hypocritical apostate idolaters ignoring all of Jesus’ clear warnings, as when He said “If a house is divided against itself, that house cannot stand” (Mark 3:25, NIV), we haven’t been living by faith and have, therefore, misunderstood much of what God has actually said and/or meant. Blinded by beams and lack of faith, most born again Christians lack discernment about the times in which we’re living—all of which I cover in this text. But I’ll mention up front that there are VERY CLEAR prophecies revealing that it’s very likely that we’re the last generation. While we can’t know the day or the hour (Mark 24:36 below) Jesus said “Be careful, or your hearts will be weighed down with carousing, drunkenness and the anxieties of life [the “anxieties of life” would include your career], and that day will close on you suddenly like a trap” (Luke 21:34, NIV). In other words, by watching and praying (Luke 21:36 below)—by being a faithful follower of Christ (as He’s had me be)—we can know the season. Scoffing just because you don’t believe it is what the lost do. Stop it! Christians have been called to be Good Bereans, people who “receive...the message with great eagerness and examine...the Scriptures every day to see if what [is being said is] true” (Acts 17:11, NIV). And there are plenty of signs of the times revealing that we’re nearing the end of the line. Again, I cover it in more detail further in this text. But that’s way too meaty at this point. As Scripture says “Though by this time [decades after having become born again] you ought to be teachers, you need someone to teach you the elementary truths of God’s word all over again. You need milk, not solid food!” (Heb. 5:12, NIV).

Matthew 24:36, NIV About that day or hour no one knows, not even the angels in heaven, nor the Son, but only the Father.

Luke 21:36, KJV Be always on the watch, and pray that you may be able to escape all that is about to happen, and that you may be able to stand before the Son of Man.

While it should be OBVIOUS that I’m a born again Christian called as a prophet, even the most enlightened have found it hard to tell! (Though your Ex was able to tell 20 years ago. In fact, God used her to first inform me! But like the rest she hardened her heart to me having hardened it to the Lord.) So even the most enlightened today (like the former “pastor” from South Africa) are super blind. Like what, a lost soul would encourage others to obey Christ?! False prophets warn people of the danger they’re facing unless they repent?! False prophets pray God’s Word for people and sacrifice all?! No. They even preach the truth themselves. They KNOW the truth. (This is a rerun of Paul’s ministry since he preached to Jews who knew the Scriptures but refused to open their hearts to the Lord.) So while today’s born again are babies in Christ in understanding, since they have knowledge of the Scriptures, even much understanding, they’re really like a spoiled brat, like the typical young woman of our day. So I summed it up with this graphic. Tens of thousands of denominations are as if we have that many lovers since we have been “espoused...to one husband, that [we] may [be] present[ed]...as a chaste virgin to Christ” (2 Cor. 11:2, KJV). The Bride of Christ/the church/born again Christians are like the woman in My Fair Lady who was given a royal bath so that she could look like a lady! Through this ministry God will be “cleans[ing Her] with the washing of water by the word, That he might present [Her] to himself a glorious church, not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that [She] should be holy and without blemish” (Eph. 5:26-27, KJV).
6 The Test of Faith

If Christians had paid attention to the Lord and tested themselves as He warned us we should do (2 Cor. 13:5 below), the world wouldn’t be in the mess that it’s in and the saints (aka born again) would not have suffered loss or shame—as they’ll be doing. So it’s high time to take the test and salvage what you can. The key is to be honest with yourself since “your Father [already] knows” (Matt. 6:8, KJV) how badly you’ve scored, how badly we’ve all scored. This test is like when He said to Adam “Where art thou?” (Gen. 3:9, KJV), asking the question to get Adam to wake up to himself.

2 Corinthians 13:5, NIV  Examine yourselves to see whether you are in the faith; test yourselves. Do you not realize that Christ Jesus is in you—unless, of course, you fail the test?

Considering your answers so far, is it very likely that you are filled with God’s Spirit, aka born again?  Yes ___  No ___

(10) 10. The new covenant says “Other foundation can no man lay than that is laid, which is Jesus Christ...and the fire shall try every man’s work of what sort it is...If any man’s work shall be burned, he shall suffer loss: but he himself shall be saved; yet so as by fire” (1 Cor. 3:11-15, KJV)

Assuming you are actually born again (have the foundation of Christ), if tested by fire today, would most of your life’s work burn?  Yes ___  No ___

As many as I love, I rebuke and chasten: be zealous therefore, and repent (Rev. 3:19, KJV)

Many will say to me on that day, Lord, Lord... then I will tell them plainly, “I never knew you. Away from me, you evildoers!” (Matt. 7:22-23, NIV).
7 God Uses Families as Examples of the Whole

God is using our two families as examples, illustrations of the norm and also to help everyone see how the the “forces of evil” (Eph. 6:12, NIV) are at work behind the scenes. It’s how He used many of the prophets, Hosea being the clearest example. “The LORD said to Hosea, Go, take unto thee a wife of whoredoms and children of whoredoms: for the land hath committed great whoredom, departing from the LORD” (Hosea 1:2, KJV). God had Hosea’s family reflect what was going on with His Family. And it’s what He’s done with both of our families. I’m guessing He’s done it with all families but He’s let me clearly see it with mine, and partly with yours. However, you won’t be able to connect all the dots until you’ve read my testimony, which I talk about elsewhere—and again, this is just a summary. This is also clearly one of the places where you can take offense, where you can easily harden your heart to God. But Jesus says “Blessed is he, whosoever shall not be offended in me” (Matt. 11:6, KJV). Since we were “bought with a price” (1 Cor. 6:20, KJV), with Jesus’ blood on the Cross, we should be willing to let Him say anything to us and do anything with us—without taking offense.

So here’s what I mean. Having given us the best possible set up, we’ve had the most wretched outcome! While we (parents) were all educated and fairly intelligent—me obviously being the dummy of the group (1 Cor. 1:27-29 below)—living in a nation with the freedom to worship Him, allowed to clearly see His hand on our lives (as He did with your baby, for instance) you guys are divorced and we might as well be divorced. And our friendship and fellowship between the families is non existent (though there does seem to be a very thin thread lingering between my youngest and your eldest). And while it’s bad enough from God’s perspective that our families have no relationship, it’s so much worse than that.

1 Corinthians 1:27-29, NIV God chose the foolish things of the world to shame the wise; God chose the weak things of the world to shame the strong. God chose the lowly things of this world and the despised things—and the things that are not—to nullify the things that are so that no one may boast before him.

So let’s look at it from God’s perspective. Jesus said “A new commandment I give unto you, That ye love one another; as I have loved you, that ye also love one another. By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have love one to another” (John 13:34-35, KJV). Jesus loved us by laying down His life for us. He literally loved us to death! So while we should have been loving each other to death, loving each other like crazy, the way He’s loved us, we have ZERO relationship! NONE whatsoever! Even though we only live a few miles from each other.

And for the worse of it, we look at our children. Your child sung a song on YouTube of wanting to kill people (with Seek and Destroy by Metallica) and one of our girls actually tried to kill herself, repeatedly. That’s what Christian hypocrisy/apostasy has created—a world without conviction, direction, or hope even though Jesus overcame the world! (John 16:33 below). It’s what He said, that we “nullify the word of God by your tradition” (Mark 7:13, NIV)—the tradition of fake Christianity, apostasy. Rather than singing of killing people and attempting to kill themselves, our children should have been “of good cheer” knowing with certainty that Jesus overcame the world. But because of historical Christian hypocrisy/apostasy, our kids—bright kids raised in educated Christian homes in a nation with the freedom to worship God—didn’t have a chance! Neither did we. (And where does that leave those with less education and opportunity?) The ability to take God seriously has gotten exponentially worse with every generation because of Christian apostasy so that God has made His Point, “the heart is...desperately wicked” (Jer. 17:9, KJV, my emphasis).

John 16:33, KJV Be of good cheer; I have overcome the world.

Circling the Wagons. Over the years God has shown me that Christians, like the lost, love their family and friends more than Him so that when held accountable they circle the wagons. It happens like clockwork. First people get angry (“believer” and unbeliever alike) then they circle the wagons. It’s what Peter did (only much worse since he circled them around Jesus!) so that Jesus called him “Satan” (no less) since he had in mind “not the things that be of God, but those that be of men” (Matt. 16:23, KJV). To be called Satan is like being called antichrist. And that’s what Christians have historically been and are when we side with the world, others, or ourselves, when we side against Christ in favor of anyone or anything that runs contrary to God’s will, His Plan.
So while your eldest was just a kid singing a rock song not actually meaning lets go out and kill people, by singing those lyrics he was not honoring Jesus but Satan. Simple as that. We’ve ALL done it TONS of times! This is just a very good example of the depths of the damage Christianity as a whole has done. So, in order to not circle your wagons and offend Jesus, you have to remember that if we side with the Truth, with Jesus who is “the truth” (John 14:6, KJV), our sins will work out well for us in the end that God will use them to bring healing and growth—first to us and then to others—as we acknowledge the truth, confess those sins, and turn from them. But if we side with Satan and ignore the truth, ignore Jesus...woe to us! Please, don’t do it since that would keep you and your son, and everyone you have influence over, in the dark. Instead, you can “walk in the light, as he is in the light, [so that] we [can all] have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus, his Son, purifies us from all sin” (1 John 1:7, NIV). You DON’T want to be walking in the dark when we come up on the worst period of history the world has ever known! Which is exactly what we’re coming up on “for then shall be great tribulation, such as was not since the beginning of the world to this time” (Matt. 24:21, KJV).

While God will be using our families to reveal the negative impact educated Christian families have had who’ve had the best opportunities to honor Him—and we blew it—He also aims to use us to deliver His people through our testimony. In other words, He’s giving us the opportunity to make up for it, to finally “store up...treasures in heaven” (Matt. 6:20, NIV). More importantly (to my mind), He’s giving us the opportunity to be prepared for the nightmare that’s coming down, and has already been coming down on many around the world! (You’d have to be living under a rock to not know we’re living in a unique time period!)

And we don’t typically realize the level of impact we have, when it’s outrageous! So God walked me through something, shared in my testimony booklets, showing me the impact I could have had throughout my life had Christians not be apostate, which I summed up on this table. It’s the impact we all have! It seems to be what they’re getting at with six degrees of separation. And the web goes a long way in making those connections! So it’s not crazy to think that God will use this ministry to impact the world—which is what He’s revealed to me summed up with this earth graphic—and do so in a short time period. It’s pretty logical considering our technology (when things “go viral”) and the fact that “with God all things are possible” (Matt. 19:26, KJV). And that He loves to use the absolute nobodies. That’s definitely me.
Since God “worketh all things after the counsel of his own will” (Eph. 1:11, KJV), throughout my material I reveal how God has worked our sins along with Satan’s schemes into His Master Plan. So one way He’s done that is this. Since you and my husband (who I’m referring to as Buddy) don’t speak and you and your wife are divorced, it’ll be easier for you to hear me speak of them, since it’s not typically in a good light being that all have gone prodigal. But remember, this isn’t about siding with me or against anyone. This is about acknowledging the truth—and repenting—because we haven’t sided with Jesus.

What’s going on, will be going on, is like when the apostate Israelites were coming against Jehu and he got them to fall in line behind him (see 2 Kings 9). They immediately turned their back on their human leaders to follow the Lord’s anointed. In this case, everyone (as my life testimony reveals) is serving Satan to one degree or another while professing or actually being God’s people. And as God opens up this ministry, in His “appointed time” (Heb. 2:3, KJV), those “appointed to life age-during” (Acts 13:48, YLT) will turn their back on Satan and all who serve him and start following the Lord, the “King of kings” (1 Tim. 6:15, KJV) by listening to one He has anointed, whether that’s me, or you, or whoever He’ll use. So it’s kind of like this graphic, except no one has yet been given eyes that see.

8 Words, their Meaning & God
The majority of the Jews of Jesus’ day refused to listen to Him, assuming they understood the Scriptures and knew God—when they didn’t. Their pride got in their way. And it’s the same for Christians today including those who are actually born again. Because, while Christians have assumed to understand the Message, the more time you spend closely following the Lord—as He’s had me doing for 30 years, especially (more closely) the last 20—so that I have no paid job (so no personal money of my own), no extended family who’ll speak to me, and my immediate family barely speaks to me, no vacations, NOTHING to look forward to. By saying closely following the Lord, I mean actually doing what He said when He said “Those of you who do not give up everything you have cannot be my disciple” (Luke 14:33, NIV). So, when you closely follow the Lord, He reveals that major teachings of the new covenant are not at all what Christianity as a whole has believed! The clearest example would be the lie of denominations. While called to “be of one mind” (2 Cor. 13:11, KJV) and told “there should be no division in the body” (1 Cor. 12:25, NIV) Christians have been divided in increasing measure—to the tens of thousands—lying to themselves and the lost—and to God—that we’re actually united in Christ!

And there are several reasons Christians have lied to themselves, besides having been born into an apostate version of Christianity and everything attached to that. One reason I’ve never heard anyone else mention is that God “to the devious... show[s] Him[self] shrewd” (Ps. 18:26, NIV). The fact is that all Christians have been devious by lying to ourselves that we’ve been obeying the Lord when we clearly haven’t been—as with this list of key teachings. In turn, He has revealed Himself as shrewd; not a sucker to our devious ways. As He says “God is not mocked” (Gal. 6:7, KJV).

Key Teachings of Christ Christians Ignore
1. The Two Greatest Commandments—to love God and people (Mark 12:30-31)
2. How to Worship Him—in Spirit and in truth (John 4:24)
3. God has No Buildings—bornagain Christians are the temple (Acts 7:48; 1 Cor. 3:9)
4. The Call to Unity—to be united as one (1 Cor. 1:10 & 12:25; John 17:21)
5. The Great Commission—to observe and teach the truth (Matt. 28:19-20)
6. The Spiritual War—we’re not to fight with weapons (Eph. 6:12; 2 Cor. 10:4)
7. Have No Idols—Pastor is not a title but a function (Lev. 19:4; Matt. 23:8; Mark 10:42-44).
Another reason is that since Jesus is “the Word...made flesh” (John 1:14, KJV) He loves to play with words. Think of all those parables, Word games—head games. It’s caused those who are less diligent (all of us!) confusion and deception. (And through my testimony He’s revealed just how much He loves those head games!

Words also have multiple meaning as well as depth of meaning as the born again should have learned from the example God provided with the Jews. They constantly wanted to kill Jesus because they were focusing on the surface level meaning when Jesus meant something different since He was focused on the deeper meaning. So we read the following which centers on the word death:

[Jesus said] If a man keep my saying, he shall never see death. Then said the Jews unto him, Now we know that thou hast a devil. Abraham is dead, and the prophets; and thou sayest, If a man keep my saying, he shall never taste of death. Art thou greater than our father Abraham, which is dead? and the prophets are dead: whom makest thou thyself? Jesus answered...Verily, verily, I say unto you, Before Abraham was, I am. Then took they up stones to cast at him (John 8:52-59, KJV).

Had the Jews walked humbly before God and actually listened to Jesus (as a minority of them did), they would have understood what He was saying and taken into account (or learned) some of the different meanings of death, like when Lazarus died but He called it “sleep” (John 11:11, KJV). But they were too proud, focused more on their opinions and desires rather than God’s.

And as my testimony reveals, Christians have been no different. I highlighted that section since it’s what Christians have done to me, telling me that I’m nuts for holding up God’s Word! It’s what Festus, a lost soul, told Paul, “Much learning doth make thee mad” (Acts 26:24, KJV). It’s also what the born again followers of Christ told Rhoda when she told them Peter—who they had been praying would be released—had been released (Acts 12:5-16 below). In other words, Christians—including those with the Spirit within—have severely lacked faith.

Acts 12:5-16, KJV Prayer was made without ceasing of the church unto God for [Peter]. And when...Peter was sleeping between two soldiers...the angel of the Lord came upon him...And when Peter was come to himself, he...came to the house of Mary...where many were gathered together praying [for him to be released]. And as Peter knocked at the door of the gate, a damsel came to hearken, named Rhoda. And when she knew Peter's voice, she opened not the gate for gladness, but ran in, and told how Peter stood before the gate. And they said unto her, Thou art mad. But she constantly affirmed that it was even so. Then said they, It is his angel. But Peter continued knocking: and when they had opened the door, and saw him, they were astonished.

Looking at the graphic of some of the things professing Christians tell me, if it were true that there are many ways to interpret the Bible we could never have unity in Christ when that’s a clear New Testament directive! And God can use anyone to tell us we need to repent, like He used Samuel, the child, for Eli, the priest (see 1 Samuel 1).
Another problem for us arises because “the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy” (Rev. 19:10, KJV). Since Jesus is “the Word...made flesh” (John 1:14, KJV), He’s speaking to every generation through the Scriptures having said that “heaven and earth shall pass away; but my words shall not pass away” (Mark 13:31, KJV). So while He’s using His Word to speak to every generation, the greatest focus falls on the group first mentioned or referred to. Therefore, the Word of God works like this graphic since Isaiah 5 can apply—though somewhat differently—to each of those periods. (So, technically, Isaiah’s day would be the highest peak on the mountain range for this passage.) Knowing that humans would be as hard headed and hard hearted as we are, God has made His point in every way necessary through His Word for all generations but especially those living in “the present evil age” (Gal. 1:4, NIV).

So while we like to think that if circumstances were better we’d behave better, He’s prophesied—and will be proving through the millennial reign—that that’s not the case at all, since during the millennial reign humans will still fail, though it won’t be revealed til the very end of that age (Rev. 20:7-8 below). The fact is that we are “desperately wicked” (Jer. 17:9, KJV). And He’s already proven it through Christian history—we’ve proven it with our rebellion. The main point I’m trying to make here is that everything God has said and is saying runs SO MUCH DEEPER than we’ve actually considered.

Revelation 20:7-8, NIV When the thousand years are over, Satan will be released from his prison and will go out to deceive the nations in the four corners of the earth—Gog and Magog—and to gather them for battle. In number they are like the sand on the seashore.

So if you disagree with something I’ve said, you should discuss that with me since you may not actually understand what I’ve meant. OR, I could be wrong and you have some important input I need to consider. OR, we could both be wrong. Either way, humbly discussing it, taking it before the Lord in prayer and to His Word in study—having removed the revealed beams from our eyes—is the only way we’ll be able to get at the truth, at the “mind of Christ” (1 Cor. 2:16, KJV). This is what God was actually calling from us 20 years ago in Indianapolis when He called our little group to prayer, but everyone was more interested in their own lives. Rather than constantly divide as Christians have historically done, and as we did, we should have been working hard at becoming one in Christ as admonished. For instance, the New Testament says “Be likeminded one toward another according to Christ Jesus: That ye may with one mind and one mouth glorify God” (Rom. 15:5-6, KJV). Instead, our families are both a wreck from God’s perspective reflecting the wreck that makes up His Family at large. Tens of thousands of denominations do not glorify God. Rather, they make it seem as if He doesn’t mean what He says—as if He’s saying “Whatever floats your boat!” And that is what most believe as we see with the ecumenical movement so that all are coming together from Satanists to so-called Christians to form a one world religion—a work of Satan. It’s a work born again Christians have helped propagate by not standing firm on the Truth, by not being followers of Christ.
Revelation is also progressive. In turn, the more information I give you, the more you repent as needed, the more you’ll see, the less ludicrous it will seem, the more alarmed you’ll get, the more seriously you’ll take it/take Him, the better prepared you’ll be for the days ahead, the more God will be able to use you, and the closer fellowship we (the born again) will have with each other and, more importantly, with the Lord. Every born again Christian KNOWS this is what the New Testament teaches! We just haven’t taken it as seriously as we should have lying to ourselves that what we’ve been doing is OK since all the Christians around us have lied to themselves to one degree or another, and mostly to a very high degree!

But since God is the One in control, He’s been working our sins along with Satan’s schemes into His Master Plan since He “worketh all things after the counsel of his own will” (Eph. 1:11, KJV). So over the past several decades He’s been convicting me on different points so that I’ve had to consistently repent/turn from those beliefs I’ve held and actions based on those beliefs so that I could fulfill the calling He’s had on my life. So it’s not as if I’m saying ALL OF YOU PEOPLE need to repent while I sit up on my high mountain looking down on you. I’m saying we all need to repent—first as individuals and then as a group because we’ve got some serious trials headed our way in a very short time which I’ll be going over in this text. And the only way to get through them successfully will be as close followers of Christ working together as “the body of Christ” (1 Cor. 12:27, KJV) under His lordship. That’s the system God has set up—as all Christians KNOW.

9 Psycho or Discerning?

Since “there is none righteous, no, not one” (Rom. 3:10, KJV), if not for God I KNOW that I would “have spent the last 30 years building my own career, like you, Buddy, and your Ex have done—just like the typical born again Christian of our generation. The only reason I didn’t do that was because of how God worked in my life, leaving me no option but to choose His will instead of mine. It’s been like Jeremiah wrote “If I say, ‘I will not mention his word or speak anymore in his name,’ his word is in my heart like a fire, a fire shut up in my bones. I am weary of holding it in; indeed, I cannot” (Jer. 20:9, NIV). Jeremiah wanted to do his own thing. Same here, since that would have been a MUCH EASIER life to have lived! So I’ve summed up God’s calling on my life in the booklet Sandwiched, on my website, which you should read to help you see what God has done.

Basically, God gave me a slew of trials before revealing Himself to me so that I would take Him more seriously than the norm. For example, born into a home of educated parents who were not religious, in a four year period—between the time I was 8 to 11—all of the following took place which was just the beginning of this Joy Ride called life:

- there was a pedophile (though I wasn’t touched it wasn’t dealt with at all);
- our house was broken into twice;
- the car was stolen;
- my father had an affair and beat my mom up since she wanted a divorce;
- he slipped a disc so that they discovered lung cancer;
- our hometown was taken over by the CIA sponsored Pinochet coup (and everything that went along with that);
- my brother got hit by a car making him legally blind (I think it may have been a hit and run);
- the oven light blew up in my mom’s face;
- I broke my arm which wouldn’t heal;
- there was a plane crash; and,
- my father died.

In turn, we ended up stuck in a foreign country without extended family and with a “dumb blond” for a mom who didn’t speak English and constantly told me she “NEVER wanted to have children.” And since I was the youngest I was her biggest problem, again, which she constantly told me. And then the fun began. (While my mom earned a Master’s, she severely lacked common sense. So as the youngest I suffered more from her consequences since my brother and sister were old enough—or close enough—to move out.)

And if you’re thinking (as many have) that because of it all I MUST be deranged, you are ignoring the fact that Jesus is a “Wonderful Counsellor” (Isa. 9:6, KJV) who “heals all...our diseases” (Ps. 103:3, KJV)—and broken heart—being the “Almighty” (Gen. 17:1 KJV). God is able to heal all of our wounds no matter how much or how often we’ve been hurt since
His “mercies...are new every morning” (Lam. 3:22-23, KJV). Rather than earnestly listen to what’s being said, even the most enlightened have grabbed at my life experience and resolved that I’m just “hurt and angry.” Born again Christians grab at anything to not have to be honest with themselves! (So the lost don’t exactly do any better.)

Then, mere days after I’d repeatedly begged God to take over my life when I was 24, He scared the mess out of me in order to teach me the “fear of the Lord” since few have had it and it’s “the beginning of wisdom” (Prov. 9:10, KJV) and He’s working out His Plan having said “I will do all my pleasure” (Isa. 46:10, KJV). And it’s obvious few have had the fear of God since we’ve fulfilled the great apostasy, the “falling away” from the truth.

During that same summer, God made it clear to me (in a vision shared in my testimony booklets) that I was to marry my current husband, son of a so-called pastor. Except neither he or his father—or his clan—actually honored Jesus, as is the norm among professing Christians. But I didn’t know that at the time (even though it was obvious!). I was just trusting God that this man was His choice for me. And it took me nearly a decade to put the pieces together and two decades to stop hoping for better! (And I haven’t mastered it yet!) Every now and then I still find myself talking to the man as if he actually has ears to hear. (It’s confusing with him because from a worldly standpoint he’s a really good person. But from God’s perspective he’s a really bad Christian, like the rest, better in some ways and worse in others. And he’s the only seasoned adult in my life! And he actually knows the Bible, and knows it well, making it SUPER SUPER frustrating.)

In short, through my life experience God made me—and has kept me—very hungry for Him, the “truth” (John 14:6, KJV). Being a genius, God prepared me for the calling He had on my life. It’s what we’d all do if we were the “author” (Heb. 12:2, KJV) of this story called Life. Again, what God did is what He’s done with all of us: combined Satan’s schemes with our sins along with His Master Plan “work[ing out] all things after the counsel of his own will” (Eph. 1:11, KJV) for His purposes and, ultimately, for our own good and for the good of the whole. So in Sandwiched you can easily see how God worked my sins (and Buddy’s) into His calling for our marriage. (You should even be able to see it with this graphic it’s so obvious! You can also clearly see (in Sandwiched) how God used Satan’s schemes to give me the fear of the Lord since I understood that God is the One in control of all, including Satan.
And because we’re living in extreme times—as you should realize with the signs of the times, what’s going on around the world, and with this material, especially the further I get into it—my testimony is extreme in that I’ve had to live in isolation. While there are others in my life, my immediate family members (but our youngest no longer lives at home so it’s just my husband and our eldest) I’m still totally alone—spiritually, mentally, and socially—and have been so for nearly a decade. Really, it’s been for my whole life in one way or another. But I’m isolated now because, when born again Christians reject Jesus’ lordship over their lives—as everyone on my path has done—they live and act as if they’re lost, blind to their hypocrisy, their disrespect for God, and the consequences they’ll have to face. And since they are “having a form of godliness, but denying the power thereof [God says] from such turn away” (2 Tim. 3:5, KJV). Therefore, I’ve been ‘alone’ even though not actually alone. And our girls don’t even profess to believe anymore (I don’t think). They’ve gotten rid of everything that had to do with God in their lives, and have gone out of their way to show their rebellion against Him. So while Buddy says he still believes, when I’ve asked him, he’s not interested in Jesus at all and only was for part of our marriage, mostly while the girls were growing up. Even then, he was never what you’d call ‘on fire’ for God, but he did have more respect for Him in the past (while we homeschooled). Still, the Lord showed me that he is actually born again, testimony provided in Sandwiched.

And because I’m reserved by nature (a one on one kind of person), having to live in extreme isolation has been easier for me than it otherwise would have been. Though it’s still been super hard! And since hindsight is 20/20, living in Indiana was EASY though I hated nearly every minute of it because I was so extremely isolated! But God used that to help me with this. It’s what He does. It’s also what prophecy is all about! God prepares us for what we’ll have to deal with—because, “God is love” (1 John 4:8, KJV).

So while Christians are supposed to be able to see God’s hand in the world around us, when we walk in the Spirit as I’ve been doing and have detailed in my testimony booklets, Christians react just like the lost and accuse us/me of needing psychiatric help! You’re mad! (Acts 12:15). Lacking faithfulness, they lack faith and discernment so that trying to communicate with born again Christians has proven IMPOSSIBLE! Essentially, it’s been as the New Testament says, Christians “no longer [even] try to understand” (Heb. 5:11, NIV). Today’s Christians, like unbelievers, have the nurse’s mentality, “Whatever floats your boat!” In turn, I’ve had to live my life in No Man’s Land since the lost aren’t interested in Jesus either. I know they’re not because God has also had me reaching out to them over the years, just not as much. Sure, some are interested in the watered down version of the Gospel, but not in the actual truth (although they WOULD BE if Christians as a group were actually preaching it!). But how could the lost be interested in Jesus if even the born again aren’t?!
And No Man’s Land is where the majority of the prophets lived—a wilderness experience like John the Baptist before God opened up his ministry. John “grew, and waxed strong in spirit, and was in the deserts till the day of his shewing unto Israel” (Luke 1:80, KJV). It’s the same thing God prophesied to me about the vision being for His appointed time. He also prophesied to me through many that I’d be having a Joseph Experience, speaking of Joseph from the Old Testament, so that’s what I’ve walked in. Scripture also says “Brothers and sisters, as an example of patience in the face of suffering, take the prophets who spoke in the name of the Lord” (James 5:10, NIV). My experience reflects the walk of a prophet.

Christians have also rebuked me for not being worldly enough, though they were blind to the fact that that’s what they were actually doing. Yet as all born again know, “a friend of the world is the enemy of God” (James 4:4, KJV). And the ones I’m thinking of who rebuked me of that I’m pretty sure were born again. Christians in every way encourage you to disobey Christ! That’s been my experience since the time I was a seeker in high school.

Another reason for which Christians have scoffed at me is for praying God’s Word for His people—like what an idiot I am to waste my time that way. Again, not exactly in tune with the Lord! (Read the Bible.)

Or else they rebuke me for focusing too much on God’s Word. However, since Jesus’ “name is called The Word of God” (Rev. 19:13, KJV) it’s NOT as if God has a problem with anyone focusing too much on Him! Rather, God has been pouring out His wrath on the world in increasing measure for the last 2000 years because we haven’t focused on Him.

And the most common rebuke I receive is because I’m saying Christians need to repent when IT’S OBVIOUS we need to repent! Institutional hirelings preach it! Yet when I say so I get accused of “bashing the church.” That’s the problem with having beams in your eyes, they blind you to your own hypocrisy so that Christians have created a very vicious downward cycle, a snowball effect of apostasy, that’s landed the church and the world in the mess we’re currently in as Chris Hedges summed up. Except the problem isn’t merely national but worldwide.

Or else, knowing we need to repent, Christians have lied to themselves that God’s grace is greater than our rebellion. But to that God says “Thine own wickedness shall correct thee, and thy backslidings shall reprove thee: know therefore and see that it is an evil thing and bitter, that thou hast forsaken the Lord thy God, and that my fear is not in thee” (Jer. 2:19, KJV). Between what’s going on in the world, what God has done through this ministry, and what’s shortly coming down on us—already coming down on many—God will be making it painfully clear just how evil we (born again Christians) have been and how bitter the consequences. Remove the beams from your eyes and you’ll clearly see what I mean. Or, you can stick your head in the sand and pretend all is well. Those are the only two options. Please don’t join the crowd since they’re headed for “destruction” (Matt. 7:13, KJV). And, again, there are several meanings for destruction—none of which is eternity in fire burning hell! (Not according to Scripture, as I touch on further in the text. It’s one of the many lies Christians have believed and propagated.)

And because of what I know of you, know of Scripture, and what I see God doing, my guess is that you’re actually born again. For your own sake you need to “test yoursel[f]” (2 Cor. 13:5, NIV) and make sure you pass the test. And this is a test we have to take repeatedly because our hearts are “desperately wicked” (Jer. 17:9, KJV) so that we love to lie to ourselves.

For example, for years Buddy said something like ‘I’m not a very outgoing person’ as his excuse for not being passionate about Christ (which included having premarital sex, not being a man of prayer, and living like the world, like a “decent” guy in the world) as if God has a different standard for different personality types. Show me Scripture?! It’s a lie he kept telling himself to the point that he actually believed it. But since we’ll all “stand before the judgment seat of Christ” (Rom. 14:10, KJV) all we have to is run it by Jesus to see if holds any water. ‘Jesus, I can’t get passionate about you since I’m just not that kind of guy.’ That doesn’t hold any water since there is no Scripture saying there’s a different standard for anyone. Rather, He says “As many as I love, I rebuke and chasten: be zealous therefore, and repent” (Rev. 3:19, KJV).
And, ironically, the most passionate I’ve ever seen Buddy, which was actually quite excited, was when the Santa fire truck came by (years ago)! So you’ve got lies on top of lies. Christmas is a massive lie Christians have told themselves, so massive that in the documentary The Unwrapping of Christmas (1999), after the woman spends an hour going over every which way this is a pagan holiday, steeped in paganism, she then says you can still celebrate it! All Satan had to do to fool the masses was flip one little letter and nearly all fell for it longing to be just like the world when God called us “out” of the world to “be...separate” (2 Cor. 6:17, KJV). While many Christians reject Santa they don’t reject Satan. So they’re not really rejecting Santa, just like Buddy revealed with his excitement. Yet he can’t get excited over Jesus!

Since God is “shrewd” (Ps. 18:26, NIV) when we lie to ourselves—which means that we’re lying to God (as Christians have historically done)—He allows Satan to deceive us (which he’s more than happy to do). And God lets him do much worse to us if needed. And according to Scripture, it’s needed. So that’s what God has prophesied for the very last days (2 Tim. 3:1-5 & Matt. 24:21 below). Just look around at what’s been going on in the world for the last two decades. And it’s not as if God prophesied of the great tribulation because that was His will—which seems to be what Christians are thinking! He prophesied of it because it’s what we would bring about because our hearts are “desperately wicked” (Jer. 17:9, KJV).

2 Timothy 3:1-5, NIV There will be terrible times in the last days. People will be lovers of themselves, lovers of money, boastful, proud, abusive, disobedient to their parents, ungrateful, unholy, without love, unforgiving, slanderous, without self-control, brutal, not lovers of the good, treacherous, rash, conceited, lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of God—having a form of godliness but denying its power. Have nothing to do with such people.

Matthew 24:21, NIV For then there will be great distress, unequaled from the beginning of the world until now—and never to be equaled again.

I’m also looked down on by “believers” and unbelievers alike because I don’t “work” for a living. Yet, in obedience to the Lord, I work every day, unpaid, taking the heat from all sides, and have been doing so for two decades so that it’s cost me everything and everyone—just as Jesus said it would (Luke 14:33; Matt. 10:37 & Matt. 5:11-12 below).

Luke 14:33, KJV Whosoever he be of you that forsaketh not all that he hath, he cannot be my disciple.

Matthew 10:37, KJV He that loveth father or mother more than me is not worthy of me: and he that loveth son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me.

Matthew 5:11-12, KJV Blessed are ye, when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake. Rejoice, and be exceeding glad: for great is your reward in heaven: for so persecuted they the prophets which were before you.

Yet Christians constantly push you to love your children, husband, parents, anything more than Jesus! That’s my testimony for over two decades.
So while having to move forward entirely solo for years, I’ve been able to persevere because God has made it clear to me—and to all who’ll have eyes that see—that I’m walking in Psalm 126:5-6 (in the graphic). Therefore, every tear will have been worth it. Though every miserable lonely year it gets harder and harder—especially the last few months—since I’ve had to stand completely alone for so long with no one to even talk to! And, again, God prepared me for this extremely isolated calling with the life He had me live even before having become born again. All those hardships were a measure of grace—in more ways than one. As the psalmist penned “It is good for me that I have been afflicted; that I might learn thy statutes” (Ps. 119:75, KJV).

And since having “conversations” that are only surface level and last mere seconds can drive you MAD—especially since the best Christians have to offer is “Whatever floats your boat!”—having had nothing but that for years, I started an indoor hydroponic garden in December of 2019 just to keep my sanity, and that led me to working with cement (to make my free containers more attractive since I want to take it outdoors when it gets warm). I need SOMETHING to do beside working at making things clear for those who don’t have eyes to see or ears to hear, or even care! Because, it’s SUPER HARD starting every day with my first thought being I wish I’d never been born! [While I KNOW I’m super blessed, I’m living in the present not the future (Matt. 5:12 below).] And on doing my research on this type of gardening, I almost immediately saw another way we, Christians, have blown it. Because, it sure looks like if the born again had been faithful we could have easily fed the world by feeding the needy living near us, with any type of edible gardening (as with microgreens which are healthier, easy to grow, and harvest in no time). In other words, had Christians been faithful, God would have done what Jesus told us to pray for, “in earth as it is in heaven” (Matt. 6:10, KJV). But, of course, He knew we wouldn’t be faithful. So we’ve gotten and will continue to get (as prophesied) the exact opposite, in earth a representation of hell—a hell on earth! Just look around.

Matthew 5:12, KJV Rejoice, and be exceeding glad: for great is your reward in heaven: for so persecuted they the prophets which were before you.
And praying for God’s will to be done while we’re sinning against Him—as the best Christians are currently doing—doesn’t work since “God heareth not sinners. [But] If any man be a worshipper of God and doeth his will, him he heareth” (John 9:31, KJV). Sure, God answers many prayers anyhow, but that’s strictly because of His grace since “he does not treat us as our sins deserve” (Ps. 103:10, NIV). However, He’s not going to answer the most important prayers concerning His church and world while we’re in total rebellion as a group!

Because the so-called faithful have been faith less, God has been keeping the blinders/those beams in place—until His “appointed time” (Hab. 2:3, KJV). Being hypocrites, “God hath given [the body of Christ as a whole!] the spirit of slumber [to one degree or another], eyes that they should not see” (Rom. 11:8, KJV). While born again Christians aren’t blind to the fact that Jesus is God, they are blind to their own hypocrisy and to the damage they’re doing to themselves and to others—along with much of what God has actually said. So even when God has had me reach out to the more enlightened, when confronted with something they’ve not been enlightened to or disagree with, even though it’s what Scripture clearly says, rather than take the time to humble themselves before God and seek His face to see if what I’m saying is true, they immediately react just like the lost, like the nurse—and she was mild. It’s really more like this graphic or else they completely blow me off, which isn’t exactly loving, and therefore not biblical. And this graphic is actually what my first (and only pastor) did. When God called me to admonish him because he wasn’t a man of prayer, he got so up in my face yelling at me at the top of his lungs that I could actually make out his tonsils! And that’s pretty standard practice among Christians. Out of control!

And I know I’m no different. I’ve surprised myself a few times at what’s come out of my mouth and/or my actions. I’m pretty sure we’ve all been there, admit it or not, because “there is none righteous, no, not one” (Rom. 3:10, KJV). Christians, as a whole, are SUPER proud—the opposite of humble—and that reveals a bit of a problem since Jesus says “Unless you change and become like little children [like humble little preschoolers], you will never enter the kingdom of heaven” (Matt. 18:3, NIV). And anyone who thinks they’re not as bad as others is either lying to themselves or doesn’t know what they’re capable of. And clearly NO ONE in centuries has done what the New Testament tells us to do, and “take captive every thought to make it obedient to Christ” (2 Cor. 10:5, KJV). And it makes it that much harder to express self-control 24/7 when even the born again are working against you! And have been doing so for your entire adult life!

So here’s a good example of typical Christian pride. One guy—who’s much more enlightened than the average Christian—told me that to read what God had me write for him would make him take his eyes off Christ. That was a supremely PROUD response because Christians are always supposed to be open to God speaking to us through anyone. The New Testament says “Do not forget to show hospitality to strangers, for by so doing some people have shown hospitality to angels without knowing it” (Heb. 13:2, NIV). We also can’t “test the spirits” (1 John 4:1, NIV) as we’ve been warned to do if we’re not willing to even listen to what’s being said! Even Eli, who was not right with God at all, was still humble and discerning enough to know God had spoken to Samuel (see 1 Sam. 3). While it took him a bit, he still figured it out that very night! In contrast, I haven’t been able to get through to anyone in two decades!

And while God killed Eli, since he didn’t honor Him above his own children, today’s Christians are worse! And, according to Scripture, the consequences are worse since we have been granted access to God’s Spirit. So we read “how shall we escape, if we neglect so great salvation” (Heb. 2:3, KJV). We won’t. “God [will] give unto [those who don’t repent] the cup of the wine of the fierceness of his wrath” (Rev. 16:19, KJV). Either God is serious or I am crazy.
10 My Testimony

Either God is using me or I am insane since it would be crazy to forgo ALL relationships along with employment for decades for One who isn’t even real! And if the reason I don’t work for a living is because I’m a lazy slob, as more than one hireling accused me of being, I’d just be sitting on my butt watching TV all day. But that’s not what I’ve been doing. And the fact is that many people who have actually known me, at least somewhat, have quickly recognized and commented that I’m anything but lazy. So there’s actually another way to put it: either the Bible is true or it isn’t. And there’s plenty of proof that it’s true. And to cherry pick from it as Christians have done is idolatry, and idolaters are among those who do NOT inherit God’s kingdom. He says “Be not deceived: neither fornicators, nor idolaters...shall inherit the kingdom of God” (1 Cor. 6:9-10, KJV).

So even though I’ve summarized my testimony in Sandwiched, you should actually read all six of my testimony booklets. For one thing God intertwined part of your life and that of the members of your family into my part of the story and what’s taken place with Christianity as a whole. As noted, He’s using both of our family’s as an example. So I refer to you as Mr. X because of how God first brought you into my life (I was reading Malcolm X and you looked exactly like him, which years later I learned you were trying to do). In turn, I made your Ex Mrs. X, your eldest X Junior, and your departed, Baby X. And at one point your youngest comes up when I’m going over your names (without using your real names) since they sum up what God is doing, Last but not least, she reflects the victory Jesus obtained for us.

Another reason why should read my entire testimony is because I’m revealing how I’ve seen God’s hand in my life from my earliest recollection, which is when I was four years old. It’s what Henry Blackaby, the author of Experiencing God, called spiritual markers. Once we start following the Lord closely, no longer willing to turn a blind eye to our sins or the sins of others, earnestly seeking Him on a daily basis, He reminds us of how He was involved in our lives before we were born again, even though we didn’t know it—especially when we specifically ask Him to do that. Jesus said “the Holy Spirit...will remind you of everything I have said to you” (John 14:26, NIV). He’s been speaking to us our entire lives. We just weren’t typically able to hear Him. And sometimes we did hear Him but didn’t know or weren’t certain that it was Him since we weren’t yet born again. So He’s had me give examples of all of that.

Another reason is because God has me teaching through my testimony. This is a prophetic teaching ministry.

And since “all things were created by him, and for him” (Col. 1:16, KJV), He’s had me interpret many secular songs, books, movies, places—many things—in relation to what He’s saying and doing. I go into that further towards the end of this book. But, basically, since He said I would be having a Joseph Experience—and Joseph interpreted dreams—God has me interpreting as well. And it’s what every close follower of Christ will be able to do, should be able to do. By reading my life testimony you’ll be able to connect the dots in those interpretations. And it should make you very curious to know how He’s been involved in your life. It’ll help you get more serious about Him, seek Him more earnestly.

Finally, you should be aware that since I used Word’s book fold format for all of the booklets (unlike what I’ve done with this book)—and also use loads of graphics—all together my six testimony booklets add up to one regular sized book. However, be forewarned that if you can’t see God’s hand in this (which is SUPER OBVIOUS), you won’t see it in my testimony. You’ll just think I’m nuts. That’s the problem with being a carnal Christian, we become just like the lost who “do...not accept the things that come from the Spirit of God but considers them foolishness, and cannot understand them” (1 Cor. 2:14, NIV).
11 The Church Jesus is Building

God warned us saying “Because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved...for this cause God shall send them [a] strong delusion, that they should believe a lie” (2 Thess. 2:10-11, KJV, my emphasis). The main delusion does not concern unbelievers (as most Christians have focused on) but professing Christians, that we’re Christian when we’re not and/or that what we’ve been doing is OK since it’s as Jesus said in the following passage:

Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works? And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity (Matt. 7:22-23, KJV).

And the born again can blind themselves with beams because of their hypocrisy since this is what else Jesus said “Thou hypocrite, first cast out the beam out of thine own eye; and then shalt thou see clearly to cast out the mote out of thy brother’s eye” (Matt. 7:5, KJV).

And the fact is that the whole system we’ve called Christianity, institutional church, is a lie—which should be obvious with these videos someone else made. It should be obvious just with the pictures of the videos since “Christ is the head of the church” (Eph. 5:23, KJV) and the popes view themselves as the head of the church rejecting Jesus’ authority and all denominational leaders bow to the popes.

So while many Christians have been calling out individual pastors as false prophets and different denominations as having fallen away (you can see that throughout YouTube), ALL so-called pastors are false teachers (and possibly false prophets) since they are paid professionals who don’t actually care for God’s people (John 10:11-13 below), and, therefore, they don’t care for Jesus either. If they did they’d obey Him. Though my guess is that some of those hirelings are actually born again blinded by many beams, but probably not most of them. But it’s just a guess. What is clear to me is that their hearts are extremely hardened. And all denominations are a lie. In fact, church is not a physical building! Those buildings are not the “house of God” as they claim since Scripture says “Ye [born again] are God’s building” (1 Cor. 3:9, KJV).

John 10:11-13, KJV I am the good shepherd: the good shepherd giveth his life for the sheep. But he that is an hireling, and not the shepherd, whose own the sheep are not, seeth the wolf coming, and leaveth the sheep, and fleeth: and the wolf catcheth them, and scattereth the sheep. The hireling fleeth, because he is an hireling, and careth not for the sheep.
Since that’s only the tip of the iceberg God had me sum it up on the table, Scriptures for which are included in the document on my website under the Docs tab http://notmocked.com/wp-content/uploads/2018/07/Fake-vs-Real-Church.pdf. And God had Frank Viola and George Barna write about it in 2008 in their book, Pagan Christianity: Exploring the Roots of Our Church Practices—the pagan roots—which went into deaf ears, mostly. (That was published over a decade ago!) And God first had me make the table and then showed me the book, confirming to me what I’d been discerning. And He’s confirmed it in many ways. I’m also not saying that I agree with everything these men say and do. I do not. I’m saying on this point they’re right, according to the new covenant. So I’ve said it before and I’ll say it again. Because God “worketh all things after the counsel of his own will” (Eph. 1:11, KJV) He’s using everything and everyone. And it is our job to “test them all [test everything]; hold on to what is good, reject every kind of evil” (1 Thess. 5:20, KJV).

And unlike them—and many of the more enlightened Christians—I do not “peddle the word of God for profit” (2 Cor. 2:17, NIV). Rather, I spend money to obey the Lord when I don’t even make any money.

So, again, since I spend money I don’t make, Buddy is a good example of how God works. While he shows no interest in what Jesus is saying or doing, God is using him to pay for the work He has me doing. (I’d be very interested to hear Buddy’s reasoning for why he does so. But, again, he’s not interested in talking to me about Christ.) In any case, “God is not mocked” (Gal. 6:7, KJV), a fact everyone has ignored to one degree or another, so it’s the foundational Scripture for the ministry He has given me. My understanding is that if Buddy was a follower of Christ, the money he spends to “support” his work—support me since I don’t “work”—would earn him rewards or more rewards (2 John 1:8 below). But since he doesn’t talk to me (other than the most minimal chit chat every now and then) much less pray with me or work with me, most of his “effort” will burn when tested by fire—as it stands today (1 Cor. 3:11-15 below). But not all since he does help me when I ask for it, like when my computer has a bug, for instance—and, again, he does pay ALL the bills. And I discern he’ll come around at some point and line up his life with the Lord and actually follow Him. And for his sake (and that of the girls—all of ours) I hope and pray I’m right. Because, if Buddy was to repent and get right with God the girls would start to feel the sting of conviction as well, so would Buddy’s siblings. And it’s the same for you and your children and relatives, and for all born again men since God made you guys the spiritual heads of the home (Eph. 5:23 below). Your faithfulness—or lack thereof—works like a ripple effect. And while that’s true for all of us, since God made the husbands the spiritual heads, your lack of faithfulness goes further, does more damage. So much more!

2 John 1:8, KJV Look to yourselves, that we lose not those things which we have wrought, but that we receive a full reward.

1 Corinthians 3:11-15, KJV For other foundation can no man lay than that is laid, which is Jesus Christ. Now if any man build upon this foundation gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, stubble; Every man’s work shall be made manifest: for the day shall declare it, because it shall be revealed by fire; and the fire shall try every man’s work of what sort it is. If any man’s work abide which he hath built thereupon, he shall receive a reward. If any man’s work shall be burned, he shall suffer loss: but he himself shall be saved; yet so as by fire.

Ephesians 5:23, KJV The husband is the head of the wife, even as Christ is the head of the church.

So that’s a big part of my testimony. God called me to homeschool the girls, something Buddy funded but had next to zero involvement with even though he’s their father and my husband. And, because of God, they excelled not only academically but spiritually. But because I’m not the spiritual head of our home, it ALL fell apart when they entered college in their early teens. It all came to NOTHING! Not when tested by God’s fire—as it stands today (1 Cor. 3:11-15 above). I’m primarily speaking spiritually. Who cares what we do in the world, we shouldn’t care since “this world in its present form is passing away” (1 Cor. 7:31, NIV). Our work in this world should be viewed as nothing more than ‘tent making’ (Acts 18:3 below), a means by which we support ourselves. Yet Christians, like the lost, have made it their livelihood. It’s everything to them!

Acts 18:3, KJV [Paul] was of the same craft [as Aquila and Priscilla so that], he abode with them, and wrought: for by their occupation they were tentmakers.

So while the church, the Bride of Christ, looks like a whore right now (Jer. 3:3 below)—acting like a royal BRAT—in order to get Her to change Her ways, God has me presenting the information in a way that will make those who’ll finally take Him seriously eagerly “run” with it (Hab. 2:2, KJV) as He prophesied. Again, I go into that towards the end of this book. While the trials the world has been facing have gotten some Christians alarmed (even many unbelievers are alarmed), because we’re so wicked they haven’t been enough to get us “fired up” about Jesus, as pearl harbor and the 9/11 attacks proved, even with all the aftermath on both counts. No small trials! (And so much has gone down since 9/11!) God will be getting the born again fired about Him through discernment which will lead to “godly sorrow” and to increasingly more discernment since “godly sorrow brings repentance” (2 Cor. 7:10, NIV). And unlike everyone else, you might actually listen to what I have to say since it ties to your baby who died—and men are the spiritual heads (so He wouldn’t use another woman for this calling which I talk about further in the text). Discernment is what’s needed because the more discernment we have, the clearer we can see Him in our midst. The clearer we can hear His voice which we need to be able to do in order to follow Him (John 10:27 below). Discernment is the key to seeing God Who’s invisible. It’s partly why Scripture says “where there is no vision, the people perish” (Prov. 29:18, KJV).

Jeremiah 3:3, KJV The showers have been withheld, and there hath been no latter rain; [because] thou hadst a whore’s forehead, thou refusedst to be ashamed.

John 10:27, KJV My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me.
12 The Born Again are Blinded by Beams

This point can’t be stressed enough. Again, God made it clear that the born again can blind ourselves with beams like this typical born again “mature” Christian in my graphic, reflecting the best I’ve encountered and what I myself have been. My guess is that there are very few born again Christians alive today who don’t have at least these many beams in their eyes since we were all born into a severely apostate form of Christianity which we joined when we became born again. In turn, even the most mature born again Christians bought the lies, not only about Christianity but about the world, which the Lord has been revealing to people over the past several decades. So He’s had me sum it up (concerning Christianity) and present it in booklets and videos—all of which I’m having to remake, yet again, because of everything He revealed to me this past year. What He’s been doing is teaching me. And one of the better YouTube channels I’ve come across on the lies concerning the world is Truth Stream Media https://www.youtube.com/user/TRUTHstreammedia. But there are lots of decent channels.

While many have viewed some of the evidence and scoffed, seeing the truth as paranoid conspiracy theories—and some of them are that—Jesus says “If I have told you earthly things, and ye believe not, how shall ye believe, if I tell you of heavenly things?” (John 3:12, KJV). You won’t.

And most of those who are more enlightened about what’s been going on behind the scenes, aren’t enlightened about Jesus, or not fully enlightened about the lies Christians have believed. So here’s one area where communication between us would help. How much research have you done about what’s going on behind the scenes concerning the world, the information we’ve been fed? People seem to be at either one extreme or the other, totally deceived, still believing all the lies we’ve been fed, or on their journey pretty far deep into the “rabbit hole.” However, what I mostly see is people focusing on Satan’s hand in the world while ignoring Jesus—to one degree or another. And since I have no real contact with people all I can go by is what I see online and at the gym. And at the gym they don’t seem to be terribly enlightened. Or they are somewhat enlightened about the world but since they’re not enlightened spiritually (though most seem to call themselves Christian) they’re not connecting the dots. Because if you’ve connected the dots, you wouldn’t be living as if everything’s just fine. No way.

So predictive programming is a good example of the lies we’ve been fed concerning the world. Either 9/11 was a real conspiracy or all of these examples (and there are more) were mere coincidences. And the Bible makes it clear that coincidences don’t even exist.

So what I see is that the majority of the population either ignores the fact or are ignorant to the fact that humanity is in a brutal spiritual WAR (Eph. 6:12 below) led by Satan who is the “ruler” (John 12:31, YLT) and “god of this world” (2 Cor. 4:4, KJV) out to devour every human being (1 Pet. 5:8 below). The majority also ignore the fact that the experts, especially those in government, are not followers of Christ but of Satan. Everyone is either following one or the other every minute of every day (Matt. 12:30 below) since we’ve been called to “take captive every thought to make it obedient to Christ” (2 Cor. 10:5, NIV), and nobody’s come remotely close to doing that since that first batch of Christians 2000 years ago. If Christians had remained faithful to God we would be so much MORE enlightened and empowered by God today than the first Christians were considering all the resources we have, like the Bible available to all, for example (never mind our technology!). And that first batch of Christians was seriously empowered by God! But because the human heart is “desperately wicked” (Jer. 17:9, KJV), even born again Christians have consistently opted to live for themselves rather than live for the Lord and His kingdom.

Ephesians 6:12, KJV We wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places.

1 Peter 5:8, KJV Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour.

Matthew 12:30, KJV He that is not with me is against me; and he that gathereth not with me scattereth abroad.

And while even born again Christians look to the so-called “experts,” these people are NOT following Jesus—neither those in the so-called church (as summed up with the pope videos) or in the world, as someone summed up in this graphic breaking down the Illuminati.
And the Christians who are aware of what’s going on behind the scenes are primarily focused on getting raptured—the timing of which is a deliberate lie put out there by the Jesuits. Or else they’re focused on fighting the spiritual war with the ways of the world and/or worldly leaders when “the weapons of our warfare are not carnal” (2 Cor. 10:4, KJV). Christians are a mess!

And one of the reasons many Christians are in the dark, especially around here, is because this is one of Satan’s biggest strongholds, summed up in the graphic. That’s why you can’t even find one remotely decent Christian around here, much less so than in Indiana where they had at least some level of discernment. It’s also why God placed us here and took us there but didn’t leave us there. God has a work to do in the world and some of that will stem from this part of the country since it’s such an important area. And He’s calling you to be a big part of that—or suffer the consequences.
Since Satan is “the god of this world” (2 Cor. 4:4, KJV) and God is expressing His displeasure with us for having taken His gift of salvation for granted (Heb. 2:2-3 below), what’s happened is like the boiling frog fable. Having put the frog in warm water he doesn’t realize he’s getting cooked until it’s too late for him to do anything about it. Yet if he’d been placed in hotter water he would have immediately leapt out of the pot. So while God warned us about Satan and the spiritual war we’re in, since our hearts are “desperately wicked” (Jer. 17:9, KJV), we didn’t take God (or Satan) seriously and have therefore, been getting slowly cooked—and the water is now very close to boiling! (As I’ll be revealing in this book.)

Hebrews 2:2-3, NIV For since the message spoken through angels was binding, and every violation and disobedience received its just punishment, how shall we escape if we ignore so great a salvation?

But since God is merciful and gracious even though we don’t deserve it (Ps. 103:10 below), He’s been enlightening many to what’s been taking place and will fully enlighten the elect who finally humble themselves before Him (Isa. 65:1 below)—who’ll jump out of the pot! (2 Cor. 6:17 below). Better late than never (Rev. 16:2 below).

Psalm 103:10, NIV He does not treat us as our sins deserve or repay us according to our iniquities.

Isaiah 65:1, KJV I am sought of them that asked not for me; I am found of them that sought me not.

2 Corinthians 6:17, KJV Wherefore come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you.

Revelation 16:2, KJV There fell a noisome and grievous sore upon the men which had the mark of the beast, and upon them which worshipped his image.

13 A Sketch of Satan’s Rule Over the World

So here’s a condensed timeline of what’s apparently been going on behind the scenes since Satan is the “god of this world” (2 Cor. 4:4, KJV), given that position by God for His purposes, addressed further in the text. And he uses people, whoever’s willing, who the New Testament calls “his ministers [people who are] transformed [as in appear] as the ministers of righteousness; [and] whose end shall be according to their works” (2 Cor. 11:15, KJV). And when born again Christians turn a blind eye to evil, we become part of the problem when we’re supposed to be part of the solution. We’re either on one side or the other as Jesus says “He that is not with me is against me” (Matt. 12:30, KJV). To be “with” Him you have to be His follower, be with Him in mind, and therefore, in action.

The most cohesive group of infiltrators the church has ever seen are the Freemasons. They work behind the scenes to subvert the Gospel, and in fact, meet in secret to teach salvation on the basis of another savior. We know this to be the fact, because we were members of the organization. We were Freemasons. Masons are sworn to secrecy, not once, but three times...We are deeply grieved that we have participated in this falsehood (from an article by Ex-masons for Jesus www.emfj.org).

I have a longer version going from Adam to the 9/11 attacks showing Satan and God’s hand intertwining through history, but this should be enough to show how we turned a blind eye. And I did it myself as a born again follower of Christ, though I was really young in the faith and VERY confused (again, detailed in my testimony booklets). Still, the following account is a classic example of what we do, what the born again do. While we were living in grad housing I remember scanning through Buddy’s aerospace text books and coming across the Nazi information. Shocked, I asked Buddy about it and he’s like “Yeah” (frownie face). And I was like Wow. OK. And we continued with our lives, while seeking and even following the Lord, somewhat! But if we were walking closely with Jesus, we would be repulsed by everything He is repulsed by and “have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of the darkness” (Eph. 5:11, YLT).

In any case, many Christians are aware that we’re the last generation. Even many unbelievers are aware that we’re in dire straights because of what’s going on around the world today. The problem with most Christians is that they’ve bought Satan’s lies for not being earnest followers of Christ—key lies I cover in this book further in the text. Mostly, they’re living for themselves just like Buddy and I were both doing in the early 90s. But consider these videos for instance and LET God break your heart since “a broken and a contrite heart...God...wilt not despise” (Ps. 51:17, KJV):

As Christians know, the lost don’t know what to do. Sure, there are people working at fixing the world’s massive problems but, according to Scripture, that’s not the answer. Only the born again have the answers. So we need to stop living for the world and turning a blind eye to our hypocrisy—and everything unrighteous—and actually do our job. “Take heed to the ministry which [we] ha[ve] received in the Lord, that [we] fulfil it” (Col. 4:17, KJV). And if you’re not sure what your ministry is exactly, God has made it at least somewhat clear to me, covered further in the text. Moreover, if you take Him seriously with this, He’ll blow it wide open for you. He’ll first fully enlighten you as to what it is and then pave the way for you. He tells the faithful “I have set before thee an open door, and no man can shut it: for thou hast a little strength, and hast kept my word, and hast not denied my name” (Rev. 3:8, KJV).
Preparing the Way for the Lord

Essentially, God is using me like John the Baptist to “go before the face of the Lord to prepare his ways” (Luke 1:76, KJV). He’s made it SUPER obvious through the ministry He’s given me! He’s using me (along with many others) to “sanctify and cleanse [His assembly, the church] with the washing of water by the word” (Eph. 5:26, KJV) “for such a time as this” (Esth. 4:14, KJV)—a time when we’re at the climax of “the present evil age” (Gal. 1:4, NIV). Watching the two towers disintegrate before our very eyes in minutes should have woken up every born again Christian on the planet! Talk about a sign of the times! (Matt. 16:2-3 below). Yet it barely made a dent into these severely hardened hearts of ours as revealed through my testimony. With all that’s gone down in the past 20 years, the best most Christians can say is “Whatever floats your boat!” when the ENTIRE New Testament teaches that such a philosophy is in TOTAL contradiction to God’s will. While Jesus clearly detests hypocrisy (Matt. 6:2 6:16 & 23:13 below), Christians—including the born again—have been the biggest hypocrites the world has ever known! And rather than laughing about it as Christians do, it should break our hearts!

Matthew 16:2-3, KJV O ye hypocrites, ye can discern the face of the sky; but can ye not discern the signs of the times?

Matthew 6:5, NIV And when you pray, do not be like the hypocrites.

Matthew 6:16, NIV When you fast, do not look somber as the hypocrites do.

Matthew 23:13, KJV Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites!
Apparently, the climax of “the present evil age” (Gal. 1:4, NIV) has a plateau which I discern we’re currently in. While we can’t know the “day and hour” (Matt 24:35, KJV) of Jesus’ return, He warned us to “watch, and pray” (Luke 21:36 below) so that the Day of the Lord would NOT come on us “like a trap” (Luke 21:34 below). By watching and praying—as He’s had me and few others doing—we can, apparently, know the year. Because according to the Hosea and Berisheet prophecies Jesus is coming back in 2030! So—if that’s actually right—we’ve only got a few years before “the times of the Gentiles be fulfilled” (Luke 21:24, KJV) and all hell breaks loose worldwide as we enter “the time of Jacob’s trouble” (Jer. 30:7, KJV), the worst period of human history! (Matt. 24:21 below).

Luke 21:36, KJV Watch ye therefore, and pray always, that ye may be accounted worthy to escape all these things that shall come to pass, and to stand before the Son of man.

Luke 21:34, NIV Be careful, or your hearts will be weighed down with carousing, drunkenness and the anxieties of life, and that day will close on you suddenly like a trap.

Matthew 24:21, KJV For then shall be great tribulation, such as was not since the beginning of the world to this time, no, nor ever shall be.

And if you’re thinking it doesn’t look all that bad yet, Jesus said that people in the very last days would be living as if everything was fine (as if not looking all that bad), like in the days of Noah (Luke 17:26-27 below). So it’s like the beginning of the movie Bird Box (2018). SUPER crazy stuff was going on in other parts of the world (as it is today in real life, much worse than ever before and in many ways) and the majority were still living as if everything was essentially fine—until it was right up in their face (for being totally self-centered). Again, that’s how it currently is and as God prophesied it would be.

Luke 17:26-27, KJV As it was in the days of Noe, so shall it be also in the days of the Son of man. They did eat, they drank, they married wives, they were given in marriage, until the day that Noah entered into the ark, and the flood came, and destroyed them all.

Besides the Hosea and Berisheet prophecies, Daniel’s last week parallels everything that happened before! You can see the parallel. If 2030 is correct, then according to other prophecies (Rev. 11:3 & Dan. 7:25 below), this is how it lays out. So while I seriously struggle believing that in just three years born again Christians will mature as a group(!), God reminded me of a few things as I worked on this book for you:

1. the first batch of Christians went from Zero to SUPER DUPER EMPOWERED BY GOD IN NO TIME!
2. “with God all things are possible” (Matt. 19:26, KJV);
3. the first Christians didn’t have our technology, not even their own Bibles!
4. when things go viral online masses are tuned in; and,
5. there are tons of born again prodigal Christians like my husband who are very knowledgeable about the Scriptures, they’re just not currently faithful. But all it takes is repentance.

I’m always been shocked because nearly every time I’ve asked Buddy something about the Bible, he’s always had the right answer! He doesn’t lack knowledge. He lacks conviction. And God has clearly shown me that he represents the typical prodigal born again Christian.

Revelation 11:3, KJV I will appoint my two witnesses, and they will prophesy for 1,260 days, clothed in sackcloth.

Daniel 7:25, NIRV God’s holy people will be placed under his power for three and a half years.
It's also clear that we're near the end—not only with the TONS of signs of the times—but with a basic understanding of Scripture about God's parallels, so I've summed it up with this graphic. "God is not the author of confusion" (1 Cor. 14:33, KJV) we've done that! So while the graphic is self explanatory, I'll point out a couple of things:

Life: The crucifixion marks the point between no life and life since Jesus says "I am...the life" (John 14:6, KJV).

The Last Days: The New Testament speaks of 2000 years ago as being the last days when the writer says “In these last days he has spoken to us by his Son” (Heb. 1:2, NIV). Day 5 and Day 6 are the last days before Day 7, the Day of Rest when both the people of God, the saints, and the land, the world, will rest from Satan's influence since he'll be locked up, as we've been informed. “[The angel] seized the dragon, that ancient serpent, who is the devil, or Satan, and bound him for a thousand years” (Rev. 20:2, NIV).

The Day of the Lord: The day of the Lord's return is described as being that “great and dreadful day of the Lord” (Mal. 4:5, NIV). It will be a “great” day for the followers of Christ since “the dead in Christ shall rise first: Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air” (1 Thess. 4:16-17, KJV). And because of the ministry God has given me, walking by faith, I don't think there will be any apathetic born again souls at that time. That day will also be "dreadful" because “then shall appear the sign of the Son of man in heaven: and then shall all the tribes of the earth mourn” (Matt. 24:29-31, KJV). They'll mourn, not only because they'll realize they were wrong but because of the following:

At that very hour there will be a severe earthquake and a tenth of the city [Jerusalem will] collapse (Rev. 11:13, NIV).

No earthquake like it has ever occurred since mankind has been on earth, so tremendous will the quake be... and the cities of the nations will collapse... God [having] remembered Babylon the Great [so that He'll] g[i]ve her the cup filled with the wine of the fury of his wrath (Rev. 16:18-19, NIV). [Babylon the Great is essentially that New World Order religion stemming from the Catholic church.]

Before them the earth [will] shake...the heavens tremble...[and] The Lord [will] thunder...at the head of his army; his forces [being] beyond number...mighty is the army that obeys his command [a combination of resurrected souls and angels]. The day of the Lord is great; it is dreadful (Joel 2:10-11, NIV).

Neither their silver nor their gold will be able to save them on the day of the Lord’s wrath. In the fire of his jealousy the whole earth will be consumed, for he will make a sudden end of all who live on the earth (Zeph. 1:18, NIV).

The Lord will swallow them up in his wrath, and his fire will consume them (Ps. 21:9, KJV).

So I summed it up with this graphic.

![Graphic of the Great and Dreadful Day of the Lord]

They heard a great voice from heaven saying unto them, Come up hither.
And they ascended up to heaven in a cloud; and their enemies beheld them (Rev. 11:12).
And when he had opened the seventh seal,
there was silence in heaven about the space of half an hour (Rev. 8:1)
And I beheld, and heard an angel flying through the midst of heaven, saying with a loud voice, Woe, woe, woe, to the inhabitants of the earth (Rev. 8:13).

So while I walk through these prophecies in the booklets and videos (somewhat, not much), discussing all of this would be helpful for several reasons. For one thing, my material speaks to the whole spectrum of antichrists (those who don’t believe and those who give Him lip-service)—and everyone is ALL OVER THE PLACE right now, including the born again! And there are a TON of details. And God knows where you’re at not only spiritually but as it pertains to the world—which makes a difference. And, surely, you can enlighten me about some things.

We should also discuss it because God created us to “submit...one to another in the fear of God” (Eph. 5:21, KJV). I, and others, could be wrong—CLEARLY, since we’ve all been wrong about most everything! (As I’ll be revealing.) In fact, I myself have questions on the Daniel graphic I made! What I’ve seen is that everyone has had some things right while, at the same time, having some things wrong AND we can be right while looking at it somewhat off—like Corrie Ten Boom’s sister did concerning their ministry played out in the movie The Hiding Place (1975), and how I did with your baby. I was right since he is completely healed from God’s perspective and I was WRONG since he physically died that night!
And as we grow spiritually we get further enlightened—as God has been doing for me over the past 11 years since He first had me write the original book, Wake Up! And we grow through godly fellowship “teaching and admonishing one another” (Col. 3:16, KJV). Moreover, God has made it clear that our discernment won’t be refined until we worship Him as REQUIRED since “God is a Spirit; and they that worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth” (John 4:24, KJV), and discuss it, since “as iron sharpens iron, so one person sharpens another” (Prov. 27:17, KJV) and we’ve been called to function as “the body of Christ” (1 Cor. 12:27, KJV). Call me crazy if you must, but it sure seems to me that it’s time we paid attention to our Maker!

15 Genuine Christian Fellowship

God is calling the born again to do what we somewhat attempted 20 years ago when we met as a group for a few weeks in Indianapolis. Today, so many Christians have left the institutional churches that we’ve been nicknamed the Dones (done with church). But part of the problem back then (and with the current house church movement worldwide) was that we were all terribly misinformed spiritually. So what we did—and what many are doing today—is like when Moses tried to fulfill his calling by killing the Egyptian, not quite hitting the mark, yet (sort of) on the right track. (I cover in this booklet how we’ve been outrageously misinformed, further in the text.) In any case, this graphic of the first Thanksgiving sums it up, what we’re supposed to be doing, and I walk through it in a couple of booklets and videos— which I have to remake to fix the graphics because of what God taught me this past year (in 2018-19).

And several touch on it on YouTube as with these videos. But the first one strictly looks at what most are still doing:

On my second YouTube channel I’ve pulled together a couple of playlists on the house churches. But, again, it’s fallen short because Christians aren’t FULLY open to Christ. EVERYONE God has had me approach is either SUPER proud and/or too busy doing their own thing—either way NOT walking humbly before God. In short, the New Testament reveals no institutional churches because they were ALL house churches, groups that met in someone’s home, like we read in the following accounts:

Peter therefore was kept in prison: but prayer was made without ceasing of the church unto God for him...And, behold, the angel of the Lord came upon him, and a light shined in the prison: and he smote Peter on the side, and raised him up, saying, Arise up quickly. And his chains fell off from his hands. And the angel said unto him, Gird thyself, and bind on thy sandals...and follow me...And when he had considered the thing, he came to the house of Mary the mother of John, whose surname was Mark; where many were gathered together praying. And as Peter knocked at the door of the gate, a damsel came to hearken, named Rhoda (Acts 12:5-13, KJV).

Saul began to destroy the church. Going from house to house, he dragged off both men and women and put them in prison (Acts 8:3, NIV).
Likewise greet the church that is in their house. Salute my well-beloved (Rom. 16:5, KJV).

And their leader was Jesus, not some hireling, some paid professional.

While God uses people—like Paul—we are all ONLY servants as Jesus made clear when He said “So you also, when you have done everything you were told to do, should say, ‘We are unworthy servants; we have only done our duty’” (Luke 17:10, NIV). And it’s time we actually did it! Those God uses in greater measure should not be idolized as most professing Christians do their so-called pastors, and neither should we be puffed up if God is using us in greater measure since we are “unworthy servants.” Pastor, Prophet, Apostle, and Evangelist are not titles but functions within the body of Christ, except the word pastor isn’t even in the literal translations! The term is “shepherd” or “overseer” and they are nothing more than mature Christians, elders, recognized by the local body/assembly as such. And they are not the leader since “we have a great high priest” (Heb. 4:14, KJV) and His name is Jesus. The following passage goes a long way in describing real church, what we’re supposed to be doing! “When ye come together, every one of you hath [should have] a psalm, hath a doctrine, hath a tongue, hath a revelation, hath an interpretation. Let all things be done unto edifying” (1 Cor. 14:26, KJV). That’s not how it works in the institutional churches and it’s impossible for it to work that way when one man is the leader and everyone else just sits there like a zombie—like this graphic someone made of Pastor Bob. And these guys are feeding the sheep cheap baby food as opposed to what Jesus is willing to feed us—as He reveals through the ministry He’s entrusted to me.
The fact is that God has given us a picture of a group of followers of Christ, walking in the Spirit, loving Him and one another, as summed up in The Church of Christ graphic. And it just so happens to line up with the two greatest commandments, loving God and one another. So a house church can be as few as two and as many as fit in a house. But you don’t want more than 20 or so adults because the point is to get to know Jesus well as a group AND get to know each other well—and you can’t do that in a group that’s too large. And if we did it biblically the group would quickly grow and reproduce like cells, except we’re not supposed to be a cancer but the cure! Growing in Christ there will arise “some [as] apostles, and some [as] prophets, and some [as] proclaimers of good news, and some [as] shepherds and teachers” (Eph. 4:11, YLT). And the same set up makes up city, regional, and national churches which together make up the church of Christ, His assembly. So simple!
But since Christians across the board have loved their will, their traditions, more than God’s will, Satan has been able to SUCK THE LIFE out of what God meant for us to have, which was “life...abundantly” (John 10:10, KJV). As Jesus made clear, we “nullify the word of God [with our] tradition[s]” (Matt. 15:6, NIV). And since Jesus is “the Word made flesh” (John 1:14, KJV), we’ve sucked the life out of Him! We’ve cancelled Him out! Because, real fellowship/communion with God and man was supposed to be like celebrating Thanksgiving (with functional people as opposed to dysfunctional ones) every week! Every day even! Instead, Christians (using the term very loosely) made it into a sterile meaningless ritual—just as Satan wanted—allowed by God to prove to us just how self-absorbed and wicked we are. Because what He meant for us to have is even better than what the Danish people have in the documentary Happy (2011). Since they don’t have Jesus, what we could have had would have been absolutely AMAZING! So here’s a short clip of that part of the documentary, which you should definitely watch: Denmark Cohousing Happy Documentary Clip Uploaded by Lauette 1 https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=_cleTzREJNs

What Christians have done—for the past two decades—is to ignore their sins and point a finger at me (and others whom God has been using) saying I’m the one who’s not right with God since that’s so much easier to do, doing it without bothering to earnestly seek God about it. It’s what 8 year olds do after 8 years old do when held accountable! Super immature. And that’s not how it works according to the Bible, as they’ve all known! But that’s how we are. We’ve historically refused to be held accountable—to our own demise.

However, by acknowledging that God is using me and that I’m not the one who’s been delusional (as much), we can then start communicating and actually have fellowship in Christ, helping each other grow spiritually. In other words, we can become one in Christ so that He can then use us to help others. That’s the system God set up as revealed in the New Testament. And it was His aim in having repeatedly connected us: first in grad housing, then in Indianapolis, then having us become close neighbors (again) as He led me to the house one over from you guys, then in bringing us all back here, then bringing you to mind—NONE of it planned by us.

God has also made it clear to me—and done so in a way that others will be able to see (so you should be able to see, provided you take God seriously)—that He has a certain person in mind who will be the first to see how God is using me and get the ball rolling in the right direction. And, at this point, I discern that person is you. He’s not just using me like John the Baptist since He’s tied a bit of several key Old Testament prophets into this calling as with the following: the Weeping Prophet, Jeremiah (since I’ve done an awful lot of crying over the years because of this calling); Job and all his trials (not only before I became born again, but my whole life to one degree or another); Joseph and his dreams and experiences (which I talk about towards the end. God prophesied I would have a Joseph Experience, so that’s what I’ve been walking in); Queen Esther for such a time as this...and, Moses (to deliver His people). And Moses had Aaron. Therefore, over the years, in my frustration I’ve prayerfully racked my brains out thinking of different people I could reach out to asking the Lord if I should do that, if they were the Aaron He would be using. And while He led me to reach out to many over the years, people God will eventually be using (but not to that extreme), NOT ONCE did you come to mind—until He brought you to mind, having done that when I’d given up on reaching out to anyone. I figured He’d let me know, and He did. I discern He did. I discern you’re the one He’ll be using (or shoot me! PLEASE, SHOOT TO KILL).

In my defence, NO ONE in my shoes would want to reach out to anyone any more since ALL have been so cold and hard hearted for so long—and the consequences so extreme. In fact, I’ve been dragging this out for weeks (months) dreading the possibility that you’ll also be a royal idiot. This life, this calling, has been miserable. And you’d be a royal idiot because as a born again Christian, which is what I discern you are, you’re part of the “royal priesthood” (1 Pet. 2:9, KJV below). And Christians who live for the world are like those IDIOTS who went around in circles for 40 years for not taking God seriously—when it was about a two week walk to the Promised Land! (Deut. 1:2 below). It’s outrageous what idiots Christians have been, wandering around for 2000 years on Satan’s turf for being too full of ourselves. It’s amazing that Jesus went to the Cross for us!

1 Peter 2:9, KJV Ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, an holy nation, a peculiar people; that ye should shew forth the praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvellous light.

Deuteronomy 1:2, KJV There are eleven days’ journey from Horeb by the way of mount Seir unto Kadeshbarnea.
And God is using me like Esther since as a member of the body of Christ I am His Bride (Isa. 54:5 below)—part of Her—and, therefore, a queen since He is the “King of kings” (1 Tim. 6:15, KJV). And as you’ll see with my full testimony and the biblical interpretations, which I talk about later in this text, God has tied the queen thing in pretty clearly, both that I am His queen and not a false prophet or otherwise out to lunch as I get accused, and that we, idiotic Christians, are His queens. (And this is a graphic someone else made so it’s not me making connections that aren’t there. I’m just seeing more connections than others have seen since I’ve followed Him more closely.)

Isaiah 54:5, KJV For thy Maker is thine husband; the LORD of hosts is his name; and thy Redeemer the Holy One of Israel; The God of the whole earth shall he be called.

16 God Uses Whoever He Wants to Use

My brother once asked me, in a very mean way (as is his custom), “WHY WOULD GOD CHOOSE YOU?!!” It was as if he was saying Who THE HELL do you think you are?! (And if he could understand it, my answer would be, “I not only think but know I’m a child of God.” And you should understand it.) I was sharing some things with him as led by the Lord and because I discern he’s elect of God—the difference between elect and non-elect summed up in this graphic. But he won’t get enlightened until after Christians do, at least a decent sized group in this area, since “judgment must begin at the house of God” (1 Pet. 4:13, KJV)—it begins with Christians. There’s NO WAY the lost, like my brother, could understand (1 Cor. 2:14 below). But my brother also can’t understand when it’s coming from me because “a prophet is not without honour, save in his own country, and in his own house” (Matt. 13:57, KJV). According to Jesus there is NO WAY anyone in my family or clan will have eyes to see before others do.

1 Corinthians 2:14, NIV The person without the Spirit does not accept the things that come from the Spirit of God but considers them foolishness, and cannot understand them because they are discerned only through the Spirit.

Unlike the non-elect vessels of wrath, God has given the elect, the vessels of mercy, the opportunity to recognize and honor Him. I cover it in one of the booklets.
In any case, if you understand the Bible and have God's Spirit within, you know that whoever God chooses to do whatever He chooses to do with them is just like when we pull a piece of gum out of a pack of gum. Yet Christians go on and on about “I don’t know why He would choose me “ as if there must be something special about them compared to others, NOT getting it. There’s NOTHING special about the piece of gum we chose. It’s just the one we happened to pick, special in that we picked it. I’m pretty sure that’s what being “highly favoured” (Luke 1:28, KJV below) means since there was NOTHING about Mary that made her special. She was highly favoured in that God chose her as Scripture says “The Lord is with thee.” That’s what made her special. Unlike what idolatrous Catholics think, it was about God not Mary.

Luke 1:28, KJV The angel came in unto her, and said, Hail, thou that art highly favoured, the Lord is with thee: blessed art thou among women.

So please don’t go thinking I’m super proud or delusional for saying God chose me/is using me or get proud because He’s calling you. Even when we “decide” to honor Him we can’t take the credit because “it is God who works in [us] to will and to act in order to fulfill his good purpose” (Phil 2:13, NIV). When we screw up, yeah we can definitely take the credit. And, God knows, I’ve done plenty of that—just like everyone else. But when we do something right, especially spiritually, the credit belongs to Jesus. How exactly that works I’m not sure. But that is what the Bible teaches. For instance, Paul said “Who maketh thee to differ from another? and what hast thou that thou didst not receive? now if thou didst receive it, why dost thou glory, as if thou hadst not received it?” (1 Cor. 4:7, KJV). EVERYTHING we have, including our thoughts, have come from God since our hearts are “desperately wicked” (Jer. 17:9, KJV) and “there is none righteous, no, not one” (Rom. 3:10, KJV).

And everything I’m saying in this text, God has had me explain in detail in individual booklets. So please don’t take one point that you think is wrong—even a dozen of them—and tell yourself that’s a good enough reason to blow me off without a word. That’s not biblical, even if I am wrong since Christians have been called to “contend for the faith” (Jude 1:3, KJV). Yet that’s what everyone’s done! And all who’ve done it will suffer the consequences for it—and those consequences are pretty bad. Brutal even. I’m praying you have enough fear of God in you to be willing to discuss these things with me, since that’s where we need to start. Don’t let your pride and Satan’s not so sweet nothings he”s whispering in your ear keep you from what God has for you—any more than you already have!

Further, since Christians are so proud, whenever God has had me reach out to them they’ve immediately assumed the worst of me. Again, they behave like little brats since it’s so much easier to point the finger at others than it is to check your own heart and turn your life around. So that’s another reason I discern you’ll be different. You knew me enough to let me give the eulogy at your baby’s funeral service. That ought to count for something! All I’m asking of you is that you’d behave decently and not blow me off without a word, that’s it! But, keep in mind that God is asking—requiring—much more of you that what I’m asking for! We should at least attempt to do right by God!

So when the Lord had me reach out to my sister in law—a professing Christian—I asked the same of her. Yet what did she do, having promised that she wouldn’t do that? She blew me off without a word, just like everyone else! (Jer. 6:15 below). God even had me buy her Viola’s books, Pagan Christianity along with the companion to it, Reimagining Church, to help her see that it wasn’t just me talking, plus pray for her on the mirror for a season—just as He had me do for a woman, a Boot Camp instructor at the gym, a professing Christian who behaved brutally! Satan’s got everyone wrapped around his little finger! And he does since they’re not genuinely interested in the Lord. As the New Testament says “all seek their own, not the things which are Jesus Christ’s” (Phil. 2:21, KJV). The bright side of it is that when someone finally does respond biblically it will be OBVIOUS to them and to me—especially to me—that God is at work! And, that’ll be true moving forward as well. It’ll be obvious since in 20 years no one has had eyes to see or even behave decently. (Well, one or two attempted, literally one or two!)

Jeremiah 6:15, NIV “Are they ashamed of their detestable conduct? No, they have no shame at all; they do not even know how to blush. So they will fall among the fallen; they will be brought down when I punish them,” says the Lord.
In relation to moving forward, the Lord reminded of someone. Not too long ago God clearly led me to reach out to a guy on YouTube to rebuke him, who did seem earnest and actually received the rebuke—at least somewhat. This guy actually humbly listened to what I had to say so that we had a rapport going for several months. But, in the end, he refused to let go of his very unbiblical ideas taught by the false YouTube prophet Jonathan Kleck, a guy who supposedly got saved by saying a Hail Mary. He's clearly a false prophet. But because God led that man to Kleck, he ignored Kleck's false teachings. Yet all false teachers and false prophets teach a lot of truth. But they also teach things that are clearly unbiblical. Led to him, this man ignored the fact that God will hand us over to a powerful delusion when we don't genuinely love the truth (2 Thess. 2:10-11 below). The point is that communicating is just the first step. We have to actually be OPEN to the truth, the Lord, no matter how much it contradicts our current beliefs. That's true when God is first reaching out to us so that we become a born again Christian. And it true as a born again Christian. And it's a big part of my testimony. For ten years God has had me reworking the original book as He's taught me more! I've grown in Christ because I've been willing to let Him correct me—either directly or through others.

2 Thessalonians 2:10-11, KJV Because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved...for this cause God shall send them strong delusion, that they should believe a lie.

And the truth is described in the Bible in relation to the new covenant. Others, including this man, love to pass on information written by people—scholars, experts—in order to get others/me to change our way of thinking. That's not going to happen in my case! Praise God! Because, it's as Peter told Jesus “You [Jesus] have the words of eternal life” (John 6:68, NIV). Everyone else's opinion—including mine—means NOTHING as Paul said “As for those who were held in high esteem...[it] makes no difference to me” (Gal. 2:6, NIV). It doesn't matter how many titles, or degrees, or friends, or money, or land, whoever you are and whatever you have means NOTHING.

And, the fact is, that most so-called Christians don't even seem to understand the difference between the old and new covenants! They're either legalists holding on to parts of the old covenant law which God calls a ministry of death (2 Cor. 3:7 below), ignoring grace, or they ignore the teachings of the new covenant which Jesus summed up when He said “Whoever does not carry their cross and follow me cannot be my disciple” (Luke 14:27, NIV). We are now under “the ministration of the spirit” (2 Cor. 3:8, KJV), called to do as Jesus modeled for us and walk in the Spirit as He leads and which He's had me model as shared through my material.

2 Corinthians 3:7, KJV The ministration of death, written and engraved in stones [clearly referring to the ten commandments].

And, I hadn't thought about this before, but what this man did was like what I could have done since God led me to marry Buddy. Because God led me to marry him I could have ignored everything my husband was doing and does that doesn't line up with the new covenant. And I did struggle with that for years, especially since his father was a “Reverend” and because of how God enlightened me, what He did when I finally begged Him to take over my life, again, summed up in Sandwunched and covered in more detail in one of the other testimony booklets. I basically spent two decades working through it! And it took that long because all the Christians on my path have been sold on the lies Christianity has bought, even though they don't line up with the New Testament, new covenant. And they've been super proud; cocky. It's been quite the walk! And God had me walk that path because it's revealed to me the difficulty Christians have created for the lost. Apostate Christianity has made it IMPOSSIBLE for them! It's also made it impossible for genuine followers of Christ.
Everyone is born into the dark zone of rebellion since “by one man sin entered into the world” (Rom. 5:12, KJV) so that all of humanity was contaminated. We were born on the “broad...way, that leadeth to destruction” (Matt. 7:13, KJV). And we can re-enter this dark zone (and as dark as it gets) as a born again Christian if we go prodigal since we cannot become un born again (Rom. 8:39 & 1 Cor. 3:11 & 15 below). And the state of the prodigal born again is worse than when he was unsaved because he knows the truth, knows that Jesus is God which makes him spiritually proud. Again, that’s my 20 YEAR testimony! HOWEVER, we can get to know Him better every day during our lives on earth PROVIDED we walk humbly before Him—provided we’re followers of Christ. Then we’ll keep getting to know Him for the rest of eternity! And there’s a pretty big difference in knowing someone as an acquaintance as opposed to being good friends! The difference is HUGE! So God is revealing the difference through an aspect of the testimony He’s given me, covered later.

Romans 8:39, NIV Neither height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord. [By saying “our Lord” Paul reveals that he was speaking to and about born again Christians.]

1 Corinthians 3:11 & 15, KJV For other foundation can no man lay than that is laid, which is Jesus Christ...If any man’s work shall be burned, he shall suffer loss: but he himself shall be saved; yet so as by fire.

Scripture says the following, which I discern applies to the born again, so I’ll walk through it with an example:

When the unclean spirit is gone out of a man [when that man becomes born again], he [the spirit] walketh through dry places, seeking rest; and finding none, he saith, I will return unto my house whence I came out. And when he cometh, he findeth it swept and garnished [because that person is now born again]. Then goeth he, and taketh to him seven other spirits more wicked than himself; and they enter in [able to enter because that person has gone prodigal], and dwell there: and the last state of that man is worse than the first (Luke 11:24-26, KJV).

Again, the prodigal born again is represented by Buddy who is not a man of prayer, not interested in talking about the Lord, does not evangelize...nothing, yet still says he believes in Jesus and sees NO PROBLEM with how he's living his life! He knows he’s (supposedly) on the right track since he’s a “believer.” And because he’s born again (as God revealed to me, testimony shared in Sandwiched), his temple has been “swept” clean by the blood of Christ. But, having hardened his heart to the Lord as a born again Christian, his present state, “the last state” is “worse than the first” because he’s spiritually proud. So not only does he have a hardened heart but beams in his eyes which blind him. While he probably thinks he's walking towards Christ—my guess is he doesn’t think about it at all—he’s actually walking towards Satan! Because if prodigals actually thought about the Lord they would no longer be prodigal since they’d get convicted and repent. So I've been able to see this play out over the years since ten years ago Buddy was more interested in the Lord than he is today. And 20 years ago, he was even more interested. And that’s how it is with all prodigals.
In contrast, the more the earnest soul continues to seek after, follow, and obey the Lord while living this life, so that the narrow way gets narrower since this world has less and less that entices us being that our hearts and minds are increasingly more focused on God’s kingdom which makes everything this world has to offer look increasingly more like “dung” (Phil. 3:8, KJV). Following Jesus, “the light of the world” (John 8:12, KJV), we consistently hear Him say “Be ye separate...touch not the unclean thing [that dung]; and I will receive you” (2 Cor. 6:17, KJV). Doing that, we get increasingly more enlightened through our fellowship with Him. As we’re told “Do not conform to the pattern of this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind. [That’s a constant thing we have to do.] Then you will be able to test and approve what God’s will is—his good, pleasing and perfect will” (Rom. 12:2, NIV). So I summed it up with this graphic. Starting out as a lost soul you’re in the dark. Enlightened to the truth we begin to obey Jesus so that He gives us “the Holy Spirit, whom God has given to those who obey him” (Acts 5:32, NIV). But we’re “green” at this point since we don’t know a whole lot, and yet, born again. However, if we continue in the faith being “transformed by the renewing of...our mind” (Rom. 12:2, KJV) we get increasingly enlightened and changed from the “old man” (Col. 3:9, KJV) to the new man who is becoming more and more like Christ.

So, looking back at the previous graphic, the dark zone gets darker as you move towards Satan and the gray zone gets lighter moving towards the Lord. And since we can be deceived and distracted every minute of every day so that God says “Take captive every thought to make it obedient to Christ” (2 Cor. 10:5, NIV), doing so we can catch ourselves when deviating from the narrow way. And it doesn’t take much to get us to fully turn around and start going in the exact opposite direction! Christian history has made the point so that hardly anyone is on the right path today. And since we’ve been called to function as a group, a local body of Christ, I’m just standing there. I really can’t go much further until God provides some fellowship, contact with people earnest about Christ.
18 It’s about Relationship Not Religion

Because God “set eternity in the human heart” (Eccl. 3:11, NIV), unbelievers think all religions are good when it’s not about religion. And it’s no coincidence that my brother is a Unitarian Universalist lay “minister” since that religion sums up the ecumenical lie and also ties in to what God has actually done, covered later in the text. But as the born again know it’s about a relationship with God which can only be had through Jesus since “there is no other name under heaven given to mankind by which we must be saved” (Acts 4:12, NIV). And while Christians know it’s about the relationship, we’ve still focused on religion! We’re royal idiots! Except “wicked” is the term God uses (Jer. 17:9, KJV).

However, God walked me through a revelation presented in the booklet and playlist For Such a Time as This where He reveals that He’s OK with the term Idiot. (While in Indy my friend from Iowa told me of the acronym, which God later reminded me about concerning the Old Testament Idiots hanging out with Moses and the new covenant Idiots we’ve been). And He’s confirmed that we’ve been idiots in other ways as well. It’s OBVIOUS! In other words, it’s not me who’s insulting people but God! Because, “He who is sitting in the heavens doth laugh, The Lord doth mock at them” (Ps. 2:4, YLT). He’s laughing at our stupidity, while at the same time using it to help us—just as long as you’re not too proud to laugh at yourself and repent as needed. God has revealed through this ministry what it means to be not only our holy God but also our Friend, Jesus having called us “friends” (John 15:15, KJV). I go more into it further in the text.

In any case, if you’re only interested in continuing to build your own kingdom here on earth, may you “be accursed” (Gal. 1:9, KJV). I am not being unloving in saying that considering what Jesus did for you. Rather, it’s outrageously unloving to take what He did for us for granted! We are SUPPOSED to love our Creator more than ourselves and others since those are God’s two greatest commandments—and it’s logical!
Moreover, if you were to take God seriously, He would use you to bring healing to many—which, in turn, would bless YOU greatly for the eons (the term used in the Concordant literal translation) since you’ll be “stor[ing] up for yousell[f] treasures in heaven” (Matt. 6:20, NIV) by earning “reward[s]” (2 John 1:8, KJV). In contrast, if you continue to be more interested in your life in this world than in what Jesus is doing, and in His people, you’ll be letting Satan continue to hinder the work (1 Thess. 2:18 & James 4:7 below) hurting loads of people including yourself and everyone you love, which is why God says He will “laugh at your calamity” (Prov. 1:26, KJV)—speaking of everyone who does that.

1 Thessalonians 2:18, KJV Wherefore we would have come unto you, even I Paul, once and again; but Satan hindered us.

James 4:7, KJV Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you.

And the only reason a born again soul would let Satan use them is because they’ve got beams in their eyes. And the only way to get rid of those beams is by repenting on every point necessary. So that’s what the ministry God has entrusted me with is going to do for the born again who take Him seriously, in His “appointed time” (Hab. 2:3, KJV).

19 The Micro Consequences of Apostasy
Since God “worketh all things after the counsel of his own will” (Eph. 1:11, KJV), my family—the one I was born into, the one I married into (Buddy’s clan), as well as the one I live with—represents the damage Christians are doing since Christians were supposed to be “the light of the world” (Matt. 5:14, KJV). So yesterday (12/22/19) my eldest had a gathering to celebrate her birthday, to which I didn’t go. And here’s why. Married to a professing Christian, since he’s the head of our home but not a follower of Christ, our daughters also rejected Christ once they started college in their early teens. Again, that’s the power God gave born again men. And since Buddy’s father, the so-called Reverend, also did not follow Christ (even less than Buddy), his children do not either, including those who profess to believe like Buddy’s sister who also attended the gathering. So at the gathering there were two professing Christian seasoned adults who do not follow Christ and won’t even talk about Him with me/a Christian, ignoring the new covenant (Gal. 6:10 below), and two young women (our girls) who’ve rejected Christ and are chasing hard after the world—just like it is in most American Christian families. And, considering the very hard choices the girls made for years in order to honor Christ while homeschooling, I’m pretty sure they’re actually born again—even though there’s even less in them than in Buddy to reveal Christ. Then you’ve got the lost who were invited including my brother and his new wife.

Galatians 6:10, NIV As we have opportunity, let us do good to all people, especially to those who belong to the family of believers. [Giving a brother or sister in Christ the ice cold shoulder is not doing “good.”]

So, because even born again Christians refuse to honor Jesus in any way whatsoever, the lost can’t even begin to understand why I’m so “weird” and not like all the other “Christians” they know including my own family members! While Christians were told that “no man [should] put a stumblingblock or an occasion to fall in his brother’s way” (Rom. 14:13, KJV), they do it—as a group—and as a way of life! Being prodigal, born again Christians have made followers of Christ look like we are out of our minds! And, super UNLOVING—to not even go to my own daughter’s party, or funeral services, or weddings, or any gathering. Because, the only way I can be among them is to be like them, like the lost and like the hypocritical Christians who live and talk just like the lost—which is NOT God’s will since He says “be ye separate” (2 Cor. 6:17, KJV). If I go and stand up for Christ I’ll be causing conflict all the time, standing there by myself and really making them hate me even more. More importantly, they’ll be hating Jesus all the more. So while they’re not as bad as the lost, they’re still carnal. Hypocritical born again Christians have made it IMPOSSIBLE for genuine followers of Christ since we are so few worldwide. So few, in fact, that I’ve never met one Christian who has been willing to stand firm in the faith when it’s become inconvenient for them, when that’s the hallmark of what it means to be a Christian! Jesus having said “Whoever wants to be my disciple must deny themselves and take up their cross and follow me” (Matt. 16:24, NIV). And God has called Christians to be united as one in Him, walking in the truth, not just giving Him lip-service. He clearly says this as a rebuke having initially spoken it of the Jews. “These people honor me with their lips, but their hearts are far from me” (Matt. 15:8, KJV). God called us to be united in Christ so that we could be “the light of the world” (Matt. 5:14, KJV), of this dark world, to help the lost elect come to Christ. Instead, Christianity as a whole has helped increase the darkness since they stand against genuine followers of Christ.
Again, Buddy’s a good example because when the girls were at the community college just done homeschooling, he helped one of the girls lie to me when he should have rebuked the girl and helped her walk in the truth. Instead, of honoring Jesus he honored Satan and helped her honor Satan! So it’s as the New Testament says “Although they know God’s righteous decree that those who do such things deserve death, they not only continue to do these very things but also approve of those who practice them” (Rom. 1:32, NIV), help them even. Like his father before him, he taught his own children that it’s not a big deal to dishonor Christ and honor Satan. He’s like an exact replica of prodigal Christianity! Rather than honor Jesus, he calls himself Christian while walking in the ways of the world behaving like a lost soul and considers me a legalistic “Pharisee.”

While he’s never called me a Pharisee to my face (he never actually says anything), one day (very recently) when I was cleaning up I noticed a prayer journal. All of us used to do that, so I was surprised to see it since they’ve all abandoned the Lord. Curious I flipped it open and it was Buddy talking to Jesus about what a Pharisee I am and about how he knows “it is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God” (Heb. 10:31, KJV). It’s like I’ve said, prodigals know the Scriptures but don’t walk in the truth and are blind to their hypocrisy.

Yet if he had remained faithful our girls would have possibly remained faithful. Except I don’t think they would have. In fact, I know they wouldn’t have. Because, it was too hard to live in such extreme isolation since we had ZERO faithful Christian friends. It was so hard that the girl tried to kill herself several times, and nearly succeeded! (She was torn between the Lord she knew and the world she had to live in, the reality apostate Christianity has created.) This isn’t—what we walked in as homeschoolers and what I’m still walking in—isn’t the system God set up! He meant for us—born again Christians—to be united as a biblical local body of Christ “encourag[ing] one another daily, as long as it is called “Today,” so that none of us would be hardened by sin’s deceitfulness” (Heb. 3:13, NIV). Instead, EVERYONE has been “hardened by sin’s deceitfulness” (Heb. 3:13, NIV) so that “because of the increase of wickedness, the love of most has grown cold” (Matt. 24:12, NIV)—so cold that children raised in Christian families sing of killing people or attempt at killing themselves. That’s pretty much as cold as love gets! Any colder would mean they succeeded with either murder or suicide.

To sum it up, had Christians been faithful, in a mixed gathering witnessing for the Lord would have happened naturally. Since the faithful are people of prayer and God answers the prayers of the faithful and not of the unfaithful since “God heareth not sinners: but if any man be a worshipper of God, and doeth his will, him he heareth” (John 9:31, KJV), we would have been able to prepare their souls (through prayer) so that some fruit (planting or harvesting) could have taken place not only at this gathering but at all gatherings. But this can’t even begin to happen when followers of Christ have to stand alone against not only unbelievers but so called believers as well! While most born again are walking around without a light, God having “removed [their] lampstand” (Rev. 2:5, KJV), those who are walking in the light, as He is in the light” (1 John 1:7, KJV) have been snuffed out by all the darkness. There’s ZERO room for us, for Jesus! So it’s as He says “The Son of Man has no place to lay his head” (Matt. 8:20, KJV). Therefore, we need to “repent” (Rev. 2:5, KJV).
20 The Macro Consequences of Apostasy

The damage Christians have historically done by being self rather than Christ-centered is OVER THE TOP! We live in a “world of terror” because the people God granted the knowledge of the truth, including His Spirit—born again Christians—have ignored the Truth, ignored Him. Christians are the ones most at fault for having been so unfaithful historically, having taken God’s light and hidden it under a bushel with our rebellion.

If ye shall despise my statutes, or if your soul abhor my judgments, so that ye will not do all my commandments, but that ye break my covenant: I also will do this unto you; I will even appoint over you terror. Leviticus 26:15-16, KJV

Not only have we hidden the Truth, the Lord, from the lost but from ourselves as well since after 2000 years we should be so much MORE enlightened and empowered than that first batch of Christians! Instead, Christians, along with the rest of the world, are steeped in darkness and suffer from a spirit of grave confusion. Rather than make Jesus clearer for the lost elect to see that He is who He said He is, as we were supposed to be doing, we’ve made it IMPOSSIBLE for them!

Christians Today Suffers from a Spirit of Confusion

The Truth

* I am the light of the world.
  * John 8:12, KJV

What Christians have Done

* The name of God because of you is evil spoken of among the nations.
  * Romans 2:24, YLT

God is light, and in him is no darkness at all.

* 1 John 1:5
So that’s a big part of my testimony, not only did Christians keep me from getting enlightened (and countless others since God is using me as an example), born again Christians have also kept me from growing in Christ. They’re still infants in Christ DECADES after having become born again! So God continues to say “Though by this time you ought to be teachers, you need someone to teach you the elementary truths of God’s word all over again. You need milk, not solid food!” (Heb. 5:12, NIV). Again, no born again Christian on my path has been able to accept this ministry, in great part, because, it’s too meaty for them and they’re like NEWBORN babies who can’t even handle rice milk yet! Rather than acting like a baby we should be HELPING that baby!

So while everyone always questions why God allows horrendous things to happen—as with the two world wars and these survivors of them—Christians typically don’t have an answer for them. But a big part of the answer is because born again Christians have not obeyed God. And while neither has anyone else, born again Christians—unlike everyone else—COULD HAVE obeyed the Lord. And definitely should have.

Instead we’ve got lip-serving whatever floats your boat born again Christians. Consider Buddy’s high security clearance, for example (along with the many that have them). While informed that we should not make oaths Jesus having said “Swear not at all” (Matt. 5:34, KJV) and “not lie to each other” (Col. 3:9, NIV), he’s doing both for a living as part of the ‘war machine’ empowering Satan! And all born again Christians are empowering Satan in one way or another and to one degree or another. Rather than work with the Lord so that God’s “will [would] be done in earth, as it is in heaven” (Matt. 6:10, KJV), we’ve helped Satan create hell on earth. Yet Christians—the one’s who supposedly believe the Bible—scoff at the truth.

So you do it yourself. When we spoke on the phone about the 9/11 attacks (when it happened) and I said it was a warning from God you laughed at me. I was too shocked to respond, so I probably said nothing. But that’s not the case today. According to Scripture Satan is God’s servant/His tool (Isa. 10:6 below)—like His Swiss army knife—who is not allowed to do ANYTHING without God’s permission as we’ve been informed (Job 1:9-12 & Matt. 8:31-32 below). Satan and the demons can do NOTHING without God’s permission, and only as much as He permits them. If Satan could do anything without God’s permission it would mean that he’s greater than his Creator. It would mean he is God! But he’s not. Thank God!

Isaiah 10:6, KJV I will send him [Satan] against an hypocritical nation, and against the people of my wrath will I give him a charge, to take the spoil, and to take the prey, and to tread them down like the mire of the streets.

Job 1:9-12, KJV Satan answered the LORD, and said, Doth Job fear God for nought?...And the LORD said unto Satan, Behold, all that he hath is in thy power; only upon himself put not forth thine hand. So Satan went forth from the presence of the LORD [and did a number of Job].

Matthew 8:31-32, KJV The devils besought [Jesus], saying, If thou cast us out, suffer us to go away into the herd of swine. And he said unto them, Go.
Further, earnestly consider the California fires and Directed Energy Weapons, keeping in mind Satan’s schemes, the fact that he is “the god of this world” (2 Cor. 4:4, KJV), that all humans are “desperately wicked” (Jer. 17:9, KJV), and that “God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap” (Gal. 6:7, KJV). And these fires are going on worldwide, and they’re not just fires. Those in power are using weather control—along with many other means—to depopulate the planet since Satan is “a murderer” (John 8:44, KJV) and hates humanity since Jesus loves humanity. President Kennedy spoke of having the goal of controlling the weather and they’ve achieved it. They’ve weaponized the weather against humanity since Satan rules their hearts. And by dishonoring Jesus the born again have also been HELPING Satan destroy humanity when we were supposed to be instruments of salvation! Just think of all the Christians who go to war and shout “God bless our troops” as if He’s only the God of this nation and has called us to kill when Jesus says “love your enemies” (Matt. 5:44, KJV).We’ve been just a little bit blind.

And why would “good” people do things to destroy the world and hurt other people. For one thing, because our hearts ARE “desperately wicked” (Jer. 17:9, KJV). And for another, because they’re focused on this world, on making a living rather than trusting Christ, so they turn a blind eye here and there and, not having loved the truth “God sends them a powerful delusion” (2 Thess. 2:11, NIV) so that they think that what they’re doing isn’t all that bad. After all, everyone’s doing it! It’s my job. I’ve gotta make living, and so on.

In any case, the psych industry coined the term cognitive dissonance to reflect our love of lies over truth. I think every more mature Christian has accused me of not giving people enough credit, being a cynic. Well no. If you look at it from God’s perspective “there is not one righteous, no, not one” (Rom. 3:10, KJV) and all of our hearts are “desperately wicked” (Jer. 17:9, KJV)—as we have proven. We don’t deserve any “credit.” We are super “unworthy servants” (Luke 17:10, KJV), so unworthy we haven’t even done our duty! I’m not being a cynic, I’m being realistic and NOT lying to myself.

For example, during WWII many Jews refused to believe that they were being exterminated—though it does appear that the holocaust numbers couldn’t possibly be what we’ve been told. And during Pinochet’s regime [I’m from Santiago, the capital] many Chileans refused to believe the truth. Living in NY City at the time, we knew what was going on because my father worked for the UN, we were in Santiago a few months after the coup, and he helped friends flee including two teens who came to live with us. Yet I met several Chileans in this country who told me I was nuts for believing the truth (prep work for this calling). However, the truth eventually came out: Pinochet’s regime was brutal. (And it’s no coincidence that the Chilean coup, which took place in my hometown, was the other 9/11).
What’s worse, many who knew what was going on, justified it because “Pinochet improved Chile” to quote a dear uncle (and this man was such a sweet and fun person!) yet having a government that tortures people isn’t an improvement! What my uncle was doing was lying to himself and focusing on the outward appearance when “God looketh on the heart” (1 Sam. 16:7, KJV)—and being very self centered. It’s what all who defend institutional Christianity are doing—as someone summed up on this false teachers graphic.

So everything God has revealed to me shows me that the whole thing God has done in creating humanity and having us walk through the lessons of history—past, present, and future—has been to not only reveal Himself to us, but more importantly, to reveal to us who WE are, how outrageously wicked we are, even when born again, even when He is physically with us, as in the days of the millennial reign since they’ll have the VERY BEST possible scenario and yet as many as “the sand of the sea” (Rev. 20:8, KJV) will follow after Satan to war! As He says, we are “desperately wicked” (Jer. 17:9, KJV). But, since “God is love” (1 John 4:8, KJV) and “does not treat us as our sins deserve or repay us according to our iniquities” (Ps. 103:10, NIV), in the end when it’s ALL been said and done, having enlightened and cleansed all because of the work Jesus did on the Cross, God will unite and heal us ALL—in spite of ourselves. I cover it further in the text.

21 The TRUTH Sets us Free
You need to keep the following in mind when I share with you some of what God has revealed to me (coming up further in the text) since I haven’t come across ANYONE who sees it all. And while there are pockets of people who see the same things—on different issues—on each of those issues it doesn’t take much scratching of the surface to see where they devalue the Scriptures placing more value on man’s opinions. That’s usually what it comes down to. So, to put it another way. I disagree on major points with others who preach part of what I’m saying since they’re ignoring chunks and hunks of Scripture concerning the new covenant.

In fact, those with whom the Lord has had me communicate have revealed extreme blindness on key issues even though they’re enlightened on other key points! (They’ve also revealed very hardened hearts.) So I’ve discerned that God is proving the following, will be proving it, to the born again:

1. That He’s the One in full control (duh); and,
2. That all of our hearts are “desperately wicked” (Jer. 17:9, KJV) even while born again when we don’t “take captive every thought to make it obedient to Christ” (2 Cor. 10:5, NIV). And it’s what He’s had me do by covering every point with Scripture.

However, sometimes I haven’t referenced the Scripture since that Scripture is so basic and providing the reference would distract from the main point I’ve been trying to make. (Christians have been so hostile I feel like I have to defend myself from every angle like a trapped animal! And that’s NOT how it should be!)
Anyhow, this dartboard, which sums up the state of the church, is HARDLY a picture of Christians having taken their thoughts captive to Christ! Rather, it reveals the extreme opposite. We have historically loved our will much more than God’s, even while born again. And the consequences for it go out like a ripple effect which never seems to stop! (It’s like the saying What a tangled web we weave when we practice to deceive—which is what we’ve done, lying to ourselves.) Consider Abram and Sarai’s Ishmael fiasco which led to the Muslim nation. Their faithless disobedience is still killing and torturing people and will continue to do so until the very day the Lord returns! It’s the reason, I discern, that we’ll have to account, not only for our actions, but for our words as well since it all has so much impact. Yet the only thing most Christians have focused on is being a believer. “Yeah, I believe.” That’s it!
So this is how it works, AS YOU KNOW. If our opinion doesn’t agree with the new covenant, it’s WRONG. It’s not the truth. And if we hold on to it anyhow when corrected we’ve placed a beam in our eye. (Actually, we’ve further wedged in the beam that we had in our eye!) And one beam quickly leads to other beams just like we were warned when we were little. Surely every child was told “If you tell a lie, you’ll end up telling many lies and believing your own lies.” That’s biblically true since the New Testament says “because they received not the love of the truth...for this cause God shall send them [a] strong delusion, that they should believe a lie” (2 Thess. 2:10-11, KJV). And while that verse is speaking of the lost, it works the same way with the born again since we place beams in our eyes blinding ourselves by our hypocrisy.

So for the past 20 years Christians have mostly blown me off without a word, which is actually better than some of the words many have said to me. And yet they’ve all thought they were representing Jesus who “is love” (1 John 4:8, KJV). But, according to Love, even if you were to disagree with EVERYTHING I’m saying, as a Christian you should at least be able to—politely—acknowledge that I contacted you. And much more than that! If you, a brother in Christ, think I’m wrong, you should be willing to correct me using the Scriptures (in relation to the new covenant), as the following passages tell us to do, for example:

If your brother or sister sins, go and point out their fault, just between the two of you. If they listen to you, you have won them over (Matt. 18:15, NIV).

Save others by snatching them from the fire; to others show mercy, mixed with fear—hating even the clothing stained by corrupted flesh (Jude 1:23, NIV).

Correcting others when they’re wrong is what love does. But NO ONE in two decades has even attempted to do that! And while there were a couple who made an attempt, they didn’t use the Scriptures! (But, they at least made an attempt.) And I’m talking about people who believe in hell, no less! Christians are appalling. They believe God will torment all who dishonor Jesus in a place called hell, letting them burn in the fire for the rest of eternity, and yet refuse to lift even one finger to help those people! That’s my testimony before I became born again. (And you know just as well as I do that the majority of Christians DO NOT try to reach the lost. Rather, they mostly laugh at those who don’t believe Jesus is God!) And the best Christians have done for me as a Christian is to tell me I’m wrong because what I’m saying or doing doesn’t line up with the ways of the world, TOTALLY OFF! And the New Testament example is that BEFORE we blow off the false prophets and false teachers we hold out the truth to them—as Jesus and Paul and Barnabas modeled for us in the following passages:

[Jesus said] You have a fine way of setting aside the commands of God in order to observe your own traditions! For Moses said, ‘Honor your father and mother,’ and, ‘Anyone who curses their father or mother is to be put to death.’ But you say that if anyone declares that what might have been used to help their father or mother is Corban (that is, devoted to God)—then you no longer let them do anything for their father or mother. Thus you nullify the word of God by your tradition that you have handed down. And you do many things like that (Mark 7:9-13, NIV).

Paul and Barnabas waxed bold, and said, It was necessary that the word of God should first have been spoken to you: but seeing ye put it from you, and judge yourselves unworthy of everlasting life, lo, we turn to the Gentiles (Acts 13:46, KJV).
And the thing is, we ARE going to disagree on many points. The way the born again will become of “one mind” (Rom. 15:6, KJV) as commanded (1 Cor. 1:10 below)—one with Christ who is “the truth” (John 14:6, KJV)—is by respectfully discussing where we differ, praying through those issues, being good Bereans (Acts 17:11 below), letting go of every point on which we’ve been wrong and walking in the Spirit as opposed to the flesh (Gal. 5:16 below). And since it’s SO SIMPLE we’ve historically revealed how proud and unfaithful Christians have been, therefore, how “desperately wicked” (Jer. 17:9, KJV). So, again, according to the New Testament, this graphic sums up what real church, the Lord’s assembly, His ecclesia, should actually look like, which has been “at hand” (Matt. 3:2, KJV) for 2000 years. We’ve just refused to walk in it too focused on living for ourselves.

1 Corinthians 1:10, NIV I appeal to you, brothers and sisters, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that all of you agree with one another in what you say and that there be no divisions among you, but that you be perfectly united in mind and thought.

Acts 17:11, KJV These were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, and searched the scriptures daily, whether those things were so.

Galatians 5:16, KJV Walk in the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfil the lust of the flesh.

According to Scripture, the church Jesus is building is an international network of biblical house churches. Servant leaders are mature Christian elders, not those with a degrees and connections as it is in institutional Christianity, because “circumcision is that of the heart, in the spirit, and not in the letter” (Rom. 2:29, KJV). Biblical Christianity is the picture of a functional tribal clan (as opposed to dysfunctional)—and that’s because we represent God’s Family. Instead, Christians have made the church/Christianity resemble, not only the business model but Satan’s New World Order, as you can see with the pyramids. And there are TONS of articles and videos online dissecting the information. (Throughout my material I point to many of them.)
And the house church movement has failed miserably so far because even when they’re not just replicating the institutional setup on a smaller scale (as most house churches seem to be doing), Christians still haven’t been letting Jesus reign over them when it’s His church since He’s the One who gave up His life for it. So even among these people, there’s still a depth of darkness, a severe lack of discernment and lack of love. As Jesus puts it “Their hearts [a]re hardened” (Mark 6:52, NIV).

So if I’d been like the typical Christian as everyone has pushed me to be, God would NOT have further enlightened me. In other words, if I’d been unwilling to let God correct me and redo a ton of work over and over and over and over again for the past 20 years (since God started with letters before calling me to write the original book)—no end in sight—tweaking it to better line up with the truth as He’s revealed it to me, while working against the grain, unpaid, taking the heat, dishing out money, totally alone, thoroughly discouraged...God wouldn’t have further enlightened me (Rom. 5:3-5 below). Only one can rule, either Him or us. That’s the essence of being a follower of Christ. We have to PICK UP OUR CROSS AND FOLLOW JESUS COME WHAT MAY. Doing so we become spiritually stronger and wiser in the process—finally arriving at our Destination (Matt. 24:13 below). If you only focus getting into heaven, as the majority have done, you’ll become a born again believer and “suffer loss” (1 Cor. 3:15, NIV) and God’s wrath—at least to some degree—since you’re under condemnation for walking after the flesh rather than the Spirit (Rom. 8:1, KJV).

Romans 5:3-5, NIV We...glory in our sufferings, because we know that suffering produces perseverance; perseverance, character; and character, hope. And hope does not put us to shame, because God’s love has been poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit, who has been given to us.

Matthew 24:13, KJV He that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved [from God’s wrath].

Romans 8:1, KJV There is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.

Instead of being “strong” as most focus on (like the satanic strong woman deception most Western women have fallen for) it’s in our weakness that God proves Himself strong so that Paul testified that God said “My strength is made perfect in weakness” (2 Cor. 12:9, KJV). Therefore, while “many be called [like all those He’s had me reach out to for two decades]...few chosen” (Matt. 20:16, KJV). They weren’t chosen for greater service since they were “wise in their own eyes” (Isa. 5:21, KJV) and love this world more than Jesus, while professing to know and love Him.

But as Jesus says “No one can serve two masters. Either you will hate the one and love the other, or you will be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve both God and money” (Matt. 6:24, NIV). So that’s my testimony: Christians so love the world that they can’t stand to be corrected by the Word of God! Everyone I knew who once “loved the Lord” two decades ago made a choice at some point to honor themselves more so that the gap between them and Jesus has gotten bigger and bigger and today they want NOTHING to do with Him and His followers while professing to still believe in Him (those that do). It’s like Buddy who (typically) physically walks the other way when I bring Him up! So I typically don’t anymore. Walking away while someone is talking—always doing it on that subject—is a pretty good clue that you are NOT interested!

So it’s like God’s been playing this little Game and placed these doors before all elect. And, at best, those who’ve gone into Door #1 have come back out and gone into Door #2! Rather than practice restraint, since our calling is all about waiting on the Lord (Isa. 25:9 below), they gone for immediate gratification deceived to think they can ‘have it all’ during this life AND for the rest of eternity!

Isaiah 25:9, KJV And it shall be said in that day, Lo, this is our God; we have waited for him, and he will save us: this is the LORD; we have waited for him, we will be glad and rejoice in his salvation.
The Spiritual War & the Counter Reformation

Because we’re in a spiritual war between the “forces of evil” (Eph. 6:12, NIV) who are led by Satan, the leading antichrist, and the forces of God, who are led by Jesus, God’s Christ, both leaders using people (2 Cor. 11:14-15 & Matt. 12:30 below), I summed it up with this graphic for God’s Master Plan. While any human can be willing, and are quite willing, to serve Satan, in the end only the elect will serve Jesus and only the non-elect will continue to serve Satan. Strictly speaking of the end of the “present evil age” (Gal. 1:4, NIV). But most elect, I discern, have historically not served Christ.

2 Corinthians 11:14-15, KJV Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light. Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness; whose end shall be according to their works.

Matthew 12:30, KJV He that is not with me is against me; and he that gathereth not with me scattereth abroad.

And since there was a Reformation there was also a counter reformation so that Satan inspired Jesuits to arise from within the Catholic church, a pretty big fake version of church Jesus is building, since Satan set out to “be like the most High” (Isa. 14:14, KJV) as, essentially, programmed by God. Since God is the One in control having said “I form the light, and create darkness: I make peace, and create evil: I the LORD do all these things” (Isa. 45:7, KJV), God, the Creator, creates evil in that He created Satan—having done so for His holy purposes which this ministry eventually will make clear to those who take Him seriously. And it’s what God informed us about in Romans 9:22-23, so that this version of the graphic is more biblically accurate, yet still not the full picture. In any case, God created two types of beings, supernatural and human, some as “vessels of wrath” and some as “vessels of mercy.” So that among the supernatural/angels some would follow Satan, aka Lucifer, in rebellions against God (Rev. 12:3-4 & 1:20 below). And among the humans, some were programmed by God for “destruction” whereas others He programmed for “glory.” However, He made it so that the human “vessels of mercy” programmed for “glory” could reject His offer of salvation, like the Jewish leaders to whom Paul said “To you it was necessary that first the word of God be spoken, and seeing ye do thrust it away, and do not judge yourselves worthy of the life age-during, lo, we do turn to the nations” (Acts 13:46, YLT). I cover it in the booklet The Gift & the Rewards and also in The Good News! (Maybe God did the same thing with the angels as well, gave some of them the ability to choose Him and one third rebelled. God knows.) Whatever God actually did, He gave us, humans, free will—while at the same time—remaining in total control. In other words, it’s like we have free will within His parameters, like when we were little and were allowed to run around freely within certain boundaries. Remember that?

Revelation 12:3-4, KJV [The] dragon...drew the third part of the stars of heaven, and did cast them to the earth.

Revelation 1:20, KJV Stars are the angels.

It’s kind of funny. When visiting New York as adults with a friend, taking her on a tour of our turf growing up my brother and I both suddenly stopped at a certain street corner. And she’s like “Well what over there?” And we explained that we had no idea since we had reached the boundary of our turf. And we still didn’t cross the street. We’ll NEVER KNOW what was over there in the Forbidden Zone. And Scripture clearly reveals that Satan and demons have boundaries (already covered) and God says about humans that “from one man he made all the nations, that they should inhabit the whole earth; and he marked out their appointed times in history and the boundaries of their lands” (Acts 17:26, NIV), the combination of which adds up to the same thing. We have free will within God’s preset boundaries.
So the “forces of evil” (Eph. 6:12, NIV)—led by Satan who is controlled by God—including the Illuminati, Freemasons, the Catholic church, the Jesuits, all governments, and all false religions including fake Protestant Christianity, along with everyone’s who’s willing to serve Satan or, better said, not serve Christ since He say “He that is not with me is against me; and he that gathereth not with me scattereth abroad” (Matt. 12:30, KJV). And since Jesus is coming back—something Satan and his forces know since the demon said “Jesus, thou Son of God? art thou come hither to torment us before the time?” (Matt. 8:29, KJV)—they are building up for a massive war against Him, first during this “present evil age” (Gal. 1:4, NIV), known as “Armageddon” (Rev. 16:16, KJV), and then during the millennial reign, for the “God and Magog” thing (Rev. 20:8, NIV).

But since Jesus is the One in control of all—this is His Show—so that He has been revealing the truth to His servants, including those who don’t serve Him just like He used the ungodly high priest Caiaphas to prophesy of truth (John 11:49-51 below). God is using everything and everyone at His disposal. And it’s ALL at His disposal since “all things were created by him, and for him” (Col. 1:16, KJV). So we’re told that He “worketh all things after the counsel of his own will” (Eph. 1:11, KJV). That’s why we can still learn from servants of Satan including those in the fake church, the institutional churches, just as long as we do what God told us to do which is to “test them all [test everything they says against new covenant Scripture (2 Cor. 10:5 below)]; hold[ing] on to what is good, [while] reject[ing] every kind of evil” (1 Thess. 5:21, NIV).

John 11:49-51, KJV One of them, named Caiaphas, being the high priest that same year... prophesied that Jesus should die for that nation. [Caiaphas understood it one way and the enlightened understand another way.]

2 Corinthians 10:5, NIV We demolish arguments and every pretension that sets itself up against the knowledge of God, and we take captive every thought to make it obedient to Christ.

So as the book Codex Magica https://www.scribd.com/doc/206750904/Codex-Magica-Texe-Marrs-pdf and the graphic make clear, the political system is a show, a distraction. While people think there are different sides, they’re all on the same team, Satan’s. Those hand signs are occult symbols expressing their allegiance to Satan, whom they like to call Lucifer. We can lie to ourselves that they’re innocent OK and I love you signs but just ask yourself why Anton LaVey, author of the Satanic Bible, would have made that sign and said it was the sign of the devil’s horns? He wasn’t saying I love you people! He was saying Hail Satan. He was doing what no born again Christian would do. Yet, if I’m not mistaken, at least three, possibly four, of those politicians have professed to be Christian at some point. They’re liars and murderers who “belong to [thei]r father, the devil, and...want to carry out [thei]r father’s desires. He was a murderer from the beginning, not holding to the truth, for there is no truth in him. When he lies, he speaks his native language, for he is a liar and the father of lies” (John 8:44, NIV).
And because God is “shrewd” and Christians have been “devious” (Ps. 18:26, NIV), we’ve all been fooled by the institutional church lie and her leaders, many of whom are Illuminati Jesuits/Freemasons. In fact, it looks like ALL the most popular so-called Protestant leaders are Illuminati servants of Satan, as you can see on this graphic which matches this passage:

A troublemaker and a villain, who goes about with a corrupt mouth, who winks maliciously with his eye, signals with his feet and motions with his fingers, who plots evil with deceit in his heart—he always stirs up conflict. Therefore disaster will overtake him in an instant; he will suddenly be destroyed—without remedy (Prov. 6:12-15, NIV).

Again, we’ve been deceived because WE haven’t loved the truth.

Obviously Occult Ministries.

And, again, God informed us—warned us—that the time is soon coming when He will allow Satan to go at it full force (Matt. 24:21 below). That’s not when you want to wake up to yourself. Doing so would parallel the elect guy who hung next to Jesus on the cross. Because, Scripture reveals that he already KNEW the truth, but it wasn’t until he was motivated by excruciating pain that he finally admitted it! It would be wise to learn from his grave mistake especially since it will be MUCH WORSE this time around since Jesus hadn’t yet been resurrected. Elect who continue to ignore Him will hear God “laugh at [thei]r calamity” (Prov. 1:26, NIV)—doubling the terrifying experience (Rev. 18:5-7 below).

Matthew 24:21, KJV For then shall be great tribulation, such as was not since the beginning of the world to this time, no, nor ever shall be.

Revelation 18:5-7, KJV For her sins have reached unto heaven, and God hath remembered her iniquities. Reward her even as she rewarded you, and double unto her double according to her works: in the cup which she hath filled fill to her double. How much she hath glorified herself, and lived deliciously, so much torment and sorrow give her: for she saith in her heart, I sit a queen, and am no widow, and shall see no sorrow.

If thou be Christ, save thyself and us. Luke 23:39, KJV

Don’t you fear God...
We are punished justly.
But this man has done nothing wrong...

Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom.

Truly I tell you, today you will be with me in paradise.
Luke 23:43, NIV

As non-elect
this soul curses Christ to the end.

As elect
this soul finally changes.
23 The Bible Translators & their Lies

It is my understanding that the Bible is inerrant, without flaw, in the original languages whereas all the translations have room for error since they were translated by sinners, some of whom were purposely serving Satan/Lucifer who they see as God, quite the deception.

Essentially, the King James Bible translators were King James’ hired hands—“hirelings[s who]...careth not for the sheep” (John 10:13, KJV). And the King James Bible is the mother to most English translations and likely most translations worldwide. And these translators were all ultimately serving themselves not the Lord. For instance, King James was concerned that “his” people honor him, as we’re informed in this online blurb, and it’s common sense (and there’s plenty of evidence). So while King James gave the translators orders on how to translate the Bible in his favor, today’s blind “King James Only” Christians honor King James more than Jesus when the so-called Authorized Version was actually a work of Satan which God has used for His purposes—just like everything else. Again, the Bible is inerrant in the original languages. But King James idolaters are saying we’re supposed to place the King James translation on a pedestal because some man, King James, authorized this translation—as if a human could be that pure when Jesus made it clear “there is none good but one, that is, God” (Mark 10:18, KJV). Therefore, Jesus authorized the Bible being that He’s “the Word [who] was made flesh” (John 1:14, KJV). And He wasn’t out to please Himself (like King James) but the Father. He said “I seek not to please myself but him who sent me” (John 5:30, KJV) and demonstrated it on the Cross having prayed “My Father, if it is possible, may this cup be taken from me. Yet not as I will, but as you will” (Matt. 26:39, NIV). King James was just another sinner. And the record reveals he was quite a big one at that.

And since I don’t know the original languages in which the Bible was written, God has had me focus on the literal translations, Young’s (YLT) and the Concordant (CLT), while presenting the information in easy to understand English, using whichever translation gets the original meaning across clearly. However, since there are many passages that are better in the King James, and many “better” Christians can’t see past the KJV, I have kept the KJV as my main source of reference—unless there are clear problems with a specific passage or, like I said, another translation is clearer.

So, since the Bible translators were not entirely focused on Jesus being that they were focused on a man, King James and his desires, and on the Church of England a denominational lie with unbiblical beliefs about there being an ordained clergy, they introduced their opinions into the translation. Therefore, you can’t find certain teachings in the literal translations, in reference to the new covenant, as with the following:

- the concept of there being a church building;
- the word pastor and that person’s position;
- the trinity (neither the word or the concept);
- the holy Ghost
- hell, a pagan concept; and
- eternal damnation for anyone!
The Church Building: I’ve already covered this. But if you search the term “church” in a Bible database like www.biblegateway.com you’ll see that you get zero hits under Young’s Literal Translation (YLT). The original language referred to a group of people who have been called out since Jesus is calling us out of the world, out of Satan’s realm, so it’s better translated as congregation or assembly—terms used by some translations. And it’s what He clearly says in the following passages:

Wherefore come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you (2 Cor. 6:17, KJV).

Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues (Rev. 18:4, KJV).

The Pastor: Again, I’ve covered this and if you search the term in the YLT, you’ll come up empty. This idolatrous role we have given men and women does not exist because it places humans above God. And that’s my 20-year testimony. Christians have come to depend on those people more than on Jesus.

The Trinity: Again this term is not in the Bible, not even in the translations. And neither is the concept. The Father and the Son both have thrones (Rev. 3:21 below), but the Spirit doesn’t because he’s not a person. The Bible makes it clear that “God is one” (Mark 12:29, KJV) not “three in one” as most Christians teach. If God was three in One and Jesus and the Father both have thrones, so would the Spirit, but there’s no such thing. The New Testament teaches us that Jesus “is the image of the invisible God” (Col. 1:15, KJV) who said “I and my Father are one” (John 10:30, KJV). They are one in mind. And the born again have been called to “be of one mind” (2 Cor. 13:11, KJV) with Him and with one another. The Spirit is not a “person” but the manner by which God works in the world, not only today but in the Old Testament as well. The Spirit is how God has always worked in the world. The difference since Pentecost has been that “the Holy Spirit...God has given to those who obey him” (Acts 5:32, NIV), given to live inside of us as Jesus told the first disciples “He lives with you and will be in you” (John 14:17, KJV).

Revelation 3:21, KJV To him that overcometh will I grant to sit with me in my throne, even as I also overcame, and am set down with my Father in his throne.

The Holy Ghost: If God had meant ghost speaking of His Spirit, as used by the King James translation, the original Greek would have used the word phantasma. But His Spirit is not a ghost, which, unless I’m mistaken, has a rather negative connotation so that in my mind I associate ghost with demons. Is there a friendly ghost besides Casper? And that right there tells me that other people see the term ghost as having a negative connotation as well so that they made Casper one who was different—as you can tell with the graphic for the cartoon.
Hell: Christians have been fed the lie that God will torment people He created in His image FOREVER burning them in a place called hell when that would be so much worse that what He rebuked Old Testament Israel for doing having followed the ways of the pagans around them. For instance, we read that Ahaz “burnt his children in the fire, after the abominations of the heathen whom the LORD had cast out” (2 Chron. 28:3, KJV). Yet Christians believe God is going to do much worse than those He cast out! NO WAY! For one thing, “God is love” (1 John 4:8, KJV) not a psychopath! And since He clearly HATES hypocrisy (Matt. 23:13 below) He’s NOT going to behave like a hypocrite and then require us to worship Him for it! The whole thing is ludicrous!

Matthew 23:13 KJV Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye shut up the kingdom of heaven against men: for ye neither go in yourselves, neither suffer ye them that are entering to go in.

Moreover, the only real argument Christians give for defending hell is because without this concept the lost won’t fear God. Well, if that were true professing Christians should fear and obey God. But we haven’t for most of Christian history. Rather than draw the lost elect to God, it keeps them away from Him since they question how a loving God could send people to hell to burn FOREVER. They refuse to believe in such a God, as well they should since that’s NOT what He’s actually like! “God is love” (1 John 4:8, KJV, my emphasis).

Working out His Plan, every year for the past 30 years (since I became born again) God has revealed more to me consistently building on the previous revelations. So having already revealed a ton of amazing lies about the world and the church that we’ve been fed, in 2018 He led me to several resources opening my eyes to some of the problems with the concept of hell summed up in this video, Lecture - Edward Fudge - The Fire That Consumes: A Biblical and Historical Study of Hell https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=oHUPpmbTOV4&t=257s. (I purchased the book Hell a Final Word which is a much shorter and cheaper version of the the book The Fire that Consumes, both by Edward Fudge.) Fudge’s understanding is that hell is not eternal damnation but annihilation. But that’s also wrong—according to the literal translations. And, as you’ll see when reading my testimony, hell was a BIG part of my mindset! (For good reason.) But, having given me time to let the teaching of annihilation sink in—and giving me three decades from those original revelations and all the growth that I’ve experienced in all that time—God then took it further a few months later showing me that it’s not even annihilation.

Eternal torment in hell is a lie—since it is NOWHERE in the literal translations of the Bible. But that doesn’t mean that God will not punish those who reject Him or otherwise dishonor Him. According to Scripture the punishment is extreme, but it’s not forever—another term which has been translated loosely and often wrongly. I cover it on my main playlist The Good News! and touch on it further in this text—and summed it up in this graphic. Either God is a hypocritical psychopath or as Scripture says “God is love” (1 John 4:8, KJV). And since He is love, He hates hypocrisy since it plays out as hatred—as the Jews so clearly revealed, and as my 20-year testimony reveals.
24 Black Jesus

Another area where God has been shrewd concerns the color/race issue, in that it sure looks like the original Jews were a dark skinned people—so that Jesus was a black man. The 3 hour documentary, Hebrews to Negroes: Wake Up Black America (2018) nails the point. But they’re off in a pretty big way. They seem to think being black makes you a shoe in with God! I kept zoning out during the documentary since it was SO LONG! So I’m not sure how far they actually took it but they did essentially go in the direction of the black Hebrew Israelites which is just another denominational cult, which, like all the rest, lacks grace. The bottom line is that there is one race, it’s called human. And God says “There is neither Jew nor Gentile, neither slave nor free, nor is there male and female, for you [born again] are all one in Christ Jesus” (Gal. 3:28, KJV). The only division that matters, concerning humans, is elect and non-elect. Even then, we’re to treat everyone, including our enemies, nicely since Jesus says “Love your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you, and pray for them which despitefully use you, and persecute you” (Matt. 5:44, KJV).

And if you could see how God is using me, you’d understand why God had me marry Buddy, a black man (who’s name means King) and is having me reach out to you in this way, also a black man—giving you the best possible opportunity anyone has had in two decades of being able to see what He’s done, doing it during a time when “Black Lives Matter” hypocritically since most people (black, white, and every shade in between) are racist when you get down to it, to one degree or another. We ALL are! As you’ll see with my testimony God has had the race issue be a big part of my entire life. So I’m not just making a general statement without having some experience concerning what I’m talking about.

The bottom line is that (I discern) God will be using a black man for this ministry because...well, for a lot of reasons, but ultimately to weed out the riff raff since so many Christians are bigots. It’s like the movie Guess Who’s Coming to Dinner (1967). He thought he wasn’t racist until his girl came home to announce her engagement to a black man. We’re all fine on certain issues until it somehow hits home. Then we’re like WHAT?!!!

So while I do believe Jesus was a black man, my graphics don’t reflect that since I’m not an artist and, therefore, using graphics available to me, tweaking some of them as I’ve been able. But to make all of my pictures of Jesus black would be too time consuming. I tried. Besides, since we’re dealing with Him in the Spirit, that’s mostly what I’ve used (when possible), the Spirit form of God, an image that’s neutral.
25 The New Humanity & Restoration of All Things

Because of Christian hypocrisy/apostasy born again Christians have seriously misunderstood God, so that the Good News is so much better than most have imagined, which I’ve summed up on this graphic and walk through on my main playlist and booklet, The Good News! But, again, while I see others have this same view (to one degree or another), I also see that they value the opinions of men more than the Word of God (to one degree or another)—or are otherwise off. In any case, this graphic I made sums up my current understanding. However, I’m not as clear on the Pre Adamic Eon, Eons of the Eons, or on Satan’s ultimate end, and I don’t care. I’m only concerned in getting us to worship Him as required, in Spirit and truth. Since we haven’t understood it all clearly in 2000 years there’s no way we’re going to now either. Rather, we need to focus on becoming followers of Christ. At the same, it is important to get a better handle on what God has actually done as opposed to the lies we’ve believed.

So here’s the gist of it as I understand it. According to Scripture, God created a “new humanity” (Eph. 2:15, NIV). But in order to reveal to this humanity how desperately wicked” (Jer. 17:9, KJV) we really are, God came up with a Plan creating angels, good and bad, also creating elect and non-elect humans. Then He placed Himself in a human body, putting it on like a glove, and went to the Cross so that we could become that new humanity while, at the same time, being enlightened (through the history of this humanity—past, present, and future) about how depraved we are in contrast to His amazing love and grace. In fact, Christian apostasy has proven our wickedness—our desperate need for the change that Christ in us can bring—since even born again Christians haven’t honored Jesus even when we’ve had every possible benefit as we’ve had in this country—and as both of our family’s had. But since most haven’t gotten it during the “present evil age” (Gal. 1:4, NIV), He’s really going to nail the point with the millennial reign since tons of people will follow Satan when he’s set free, as many as “the sand on the seashore” (Rev. 20:8, NIV). While they’ll have had Paradise on earth for 1000 years, better than Adam and Eve had it since there will be a much larger community, and better than 2000 years ago since all the resurrected saints will also populate the earth along with Jesus—and we’ll be like Jesus was when He walked the earth as a resurrected soul, able to walk through walls and teletransport, for instance—helping the “normal” people, most will STILL follow Satan and turn against Jesus and His followers! BECAUSE, the human heart IS desperately wicked.
Having walked us through all of the garbage that we’ve consistently created for ourselves—like WWI, WWII, the slave trade, the Great Pacific Garbage Patch, 5G, atomic warfare, the millennial reign rebellion, and all the garbage in-between which includes war upon war upon war upon war!—humbling us and changing us through the work Jesus did on the Cross we’ll eventually become that new humanity and everyone, including Jesus, will live as one, in love, in submission to the Father “for he [Jesus] must reign until he has put all his enemies under his feet” (1 Cor. 15:25, KJV). At that point Jesus will reveal His most humble act of all as He gives up His right to reign!

Unlike what most Christians teach, Scripture tells us that God has reconciled ALL to Himself through Christ (Col. 1:19-20 below). Therefore, in the end, after the millennial reign—and after the ages/eons are over (terms used in the literal translations)—everyone will have been not only resurrected but reconciled to God because of the work Jesus did on the Cross. “For even as in Adam all die, so also in the Christ all shall be made alive” (1 Cor. 15:22, YLT, my emphasis). “For God hath concluded them all in unbelief, that he might have mercy upon all” (Rom. 11:32, KJV, my emphasis). It’s just not going to happen for everyone at the same time or in the same way. But Jesus covered everyone at the Cross. Everyone is included in the term all. And there are plenty more verses that confirm this view, many of which I walk through in The Good News! So either God is able to accomplish what He set out to do and has told us He will do, or not. And He “is able” (Luke 3:8, KJV).

Colossians 1:19-20, NIV For God was pleased to have all his fullness dwell in him [in Jesus], and through him [through Jesus] to reconcile to himself all things, whether things on earth or things in heaven [so that would include Satan and the demons], by making peace through his blood, shed on the cross. So, from what I can see, when it’s ALL been said and done the new humanity will look something like this graphic someone else made, to which I added Jesus, the Scriptures, and my comment based on the Scriptures. This—unlike the doctrine that if you don’t obey God you’ll burn in hell forever—is actually VERY good news! Especially for the elect who become faithful followers of Christ during this evil age since they’ll inherit the kingdom of God, the kingdom of the millennial reign. And it’s CLEAR that the new humanity God was referring to is NOT this one, not even among the born again since even the born again have been cold as ice! Consider the Christians who were OK with those Jim Crow laws, for example. Some of those people probably were actually born again, all things considered—but not exactly followers of Christ. In fact, I just watched a movie last night based on a true story that makes that very point, The Color of Courage (1998). And Buddy makes the point since even though our daughter tried to take her own life he was still unwilling to pray with me for her! And yet he calls himself a believer. And God made it clear to me that he is actually born again!
The Lake of Fire
The “lake of fire” (Rev. 20:14, KJV) has a different meaning than we’ve understood since hell is a pagan concept and God is not a psychopath who repays evil with greater evil. Rather, He teaches that we, like Him, should turn the other cheek (Luke 6:29). At the same time, He is not a patsy so that He “will not leave the guilty unpunished” (Nahum 1:3, NIV).

So this graphic sums it up concerning the lake of fire and second death, and I walk through it on The Good News! playlist providing links to others who give thorough explanations. Essentially, we’ve taken what God meant figuratively literally. For example, the born again experience the second death during this life as we continually die to self crucifying our flesh not literally, yet quite real. The faithful experience the “second death” during this life by dying to self. In contrast, the non-elect and faithless elect will experience the second death—the lake of fire [which] is the second death” (Rev. 20:14, KJV)—after this life is over, not being part of the kingdom of God, of Jesus’ millennial reign. However, they’ll also be changed and become like Christ because of the work He did on the Cross. They will die to self through the punishment they’ll suffer during the ages/eons. As we’ve been informed “there doth come an hour in which all those in the tombs shall hear his voice, and they shall come forth; those who did the good things [the born again] to a rising again of life, and those who practised the evil things to a rising again of judgment” (John 5:28-29, YLT). “There will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the wicked” (Acts 24:15, NIV).

It’s like the Catholics had it partly right with Purgatory. Those who die without God’s Spirit within will suffer at God’s hand for the sins they committed and experience the second death, the lake of fire—some form of just punishment at God’s hand. And “it is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God” (Heb. 10:31, KJV). It think it ties in to the account where Jesus, speaking of being judged and sent to prison, said “Truly I tell you, you will not get out until you have paid the last penny” (Matt. 5:26, KJV). Other than that, nothing about Purgatory is correct! (In other words, the Catholic teaching of Purgatory is mostly totally incorrect!)

While unbelievers and believers argue about God’s fairness, when in all fairness none of us should be granted mercy, God has actually made it super fair for us, but not for Jesus since “he committed no sin” (1 Pet. 2:22, NIV) yet suffered brutally. Concerning the rest of us, what follows is my current understanding.

The Non-Elect: While the non-elect were “fitted to destruction” (Rom. 9:22, KJV) so that they weren’t even given the opportunity to believe on Jesus during the present evil age (which seems so unfair) they’ve lived entirely for themselves during this life and many have been quite brutal towards others. Even those who haven’t been have hurt others since self-centeredness always hurts others. And they never gave Jesus the time of day. So they'll get their just punishment, but that’s not eternal burning hell. Yet “it is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God” (Heb. 10:31, KJV). And the thing is EVERYONE knows right from wrong, just talk to a preschooler. They get it. Therefore, God says “Since the creation of the world God’s invisible qualities—his eternal power and divine nature—have been clearly seen, being understood from what has been made, so that people are without excuse” (Rom. 1:20, KJV). Everyone knows in their heart of hearts that God exists, yet the non-elect lived entirely for themselves consistently doing wrong so that they'll have to make amends for their sins. It's the account of the rich man and Lazarus. While the “rich man...was dressed in purple and fine linen and lived in luxury every day...Lazarus [was] covered with sores [totally ignored by the rich man]” (Luke 16:20-21, NIV). So while the parable says that while he was in Hades there was “a great chasm” that couldn't be crossed (Luke 16:26, KJV), when you put it against the full counsel of God you see a bigger picture. The rich man won’t get out of Hades until He has “paid the last penny” (Matt. 5:26, KJV).

The Faithless Elect: Those who were “vessels of mercy afore prepared unto glory” (Rom. 9:22, KJV) were granted the opportunity, by God, to believe on the Lord and become followers of Christ and “store...treasures in heaven” (Matt. 6:20, KJV). Yet these people were more interested in living for themselves and what they could get out of this life. Therefore, like the non-elect who were “fitted to destruction” (Rom. 9:22, KJV), they'll also not enjoy the kingdom of God and suffer at God’s hand until they have paid the just punishment for their sins AND for having rejected Jesus.

Barely Faithful Elect: The elect who became born again but didn’t become faithful followers of Christ will “suffer loss” (1 Cor. 3:15, KJV) of “reward[s]” (2 John 1:8, KJV) since they primarily chose to live for themselves. In my mind this is actually the worst group. While having not only the opportunity, but also the knowledge, AND the Spirit of God within, they still lived for themselves! And it’s not just my opinion that this is the worst group since this is what the New Testament says:

How much more severely do you think someone deserves to be punished who has trampled the Son of God underfoot, who has treated as an unholy thing the blood of the covenant that sanctified them, and who has insulted the Spirit of grace? (Heb. 10:29, NIV).

And yet, it’s the best any of us would do without God’s intervention!

Born Again Followers of Christ: The elect who became born again and picked up their cross daily willing to suffer for Jesus’ sake will “obtain a better resurrection” (Heb. 11:35, KJV). So while it might seem unfair since it is “God who works in [us] to will and to act in order to fulfill his good purpose” (Phil. 2:13, NIV), these people still had to deny themselves during this life and actually live by faith honoring Jesus—going against the grain suffering persecution, which is spectrum. And God has informed us that in the same way that people will suffer their just punishment (Jude 1:7 & Luke 12:47-48 below) they will also receive just rewards, as when He tells us that we can build on the foundation of Christ with “gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, stubble” (1 Cor. 3:12, KJV) and when He says “My reward is with me, and I will give to each person according to what they have done” (Rev. 22:12, NIV).

Jude 1:7, YLT As Sodom and Gomorrah, and the cities around them, in like manner to these, having given themselves to whoredom, and gone after other flesh, have been set before -- an example, of fire age-during, justice suffering.

Luke 12:47-48, NIV The servant who knows the master's will and does not get ready or does not do what the master wants will be beaten with many blows. But the one who does not know and does things deserving punishment will be beaten with few blows.
So while there are different ways to experience the second death, either during this life or after this life is over, and some will get to live during the kingdom of God, the millennial reign of Christ enjoying rewards (or being grateful that they made it even though only as one escaping the flames), everyone will eventually enjoy genuine living. After it has all been said and done—as summed up in this section of the graphic—we will all be as one with Christ, and like Christ, living in an endless glorious kingdom genuinely loving God and one another BECAUSE OF the work Jesus did on the Cross! Hallelujah!

All Will Be Justified: “For just as through the disobedience of the one man [Adam] the many [all of us] were made sinners, so also through the obedience of the one man [Jesus] the many [all of us] will be made righteous” (Rom. 5:19, NIV).

All Will Be Reconciled: “For God was pleased to have all his fullness dwell in him [in Jesus], and through him [through Jesus] to reconcile to himself all things, whether things on earth or things in heaven, by making peace through his blood, shed on the cross” (Col. 1:19-20, NIV).

All Will Be Revived: “For as in Adam all die, so in Christ all will be made alive [not burned alive]. But each in turn: Christ, the firstfruits; then, when he comes, those who belong to him. Then the end will come, when he hands over the kingdom to God the Father after he has destroyed all dominion, authority and power [through the second death/lake of fire]. For he must reign until he has put all his enemies under his feet” (1 Cor. 15:22-25, NIV).

All Will Be Subjected: When he has done this, then the Son himself will be made subject to him who put everything under him, so that God may be all in all” (1 Cor. 15:28, NIV).

A Teachable Moment. Here’s a good example of how Christians get confused. This passage above (1 Cor. 15:22-25) says “each in turn: Christ, the firstfruits: then when he comes, those who belong to him. Then the end will come when he hands over the kingdom to God the Father after he has destroyed all dominion, authority and power [through the second death/lake of fire]. For he must reign until he has put all his enemies under his feet” which means under His submission.

We ourselves, who have the firstfruits of the Spirit, groan inwardly as we wait eagerly for our adoption to sonship (Rom. 8:23, NIV).

Salute my well-beloved Epaenetus, who is the firstfruits of Achaia unto Christ (Rom. 16:5, KJV).

Then the passage says “then when he comes [2000 years later], those who belong to him [referring to the rapture]. Then the end will come.” Well, between that period and “then the end will come” you’ve got the millennial reign of Christ plus the eons since Jesus won’t “hand...over the kingdom to God the Father” until “he has put all his enemies under his feet” which means under His submission.
And you see the same linguistic problem over and over again (a time problem and also one of word usage which is exacerbated by proud Christians). For example, Christians argue about whether the bride of Christ is Israel or the church, I'm thinking both! How can that be? Well, for one thing, Scripture says “Thy Maker is thine husband” (Isa. 54:5, KJV) and He is everyone's Maker. Another one is with the 144,000 which again ties in to the issue of firstfruits so that these people already walked the earth. It's what I spoke about in the very beginning. Since Jesus is “the Word” (John 1:14, KJV) and God’s works and wisdom are manifold (Ps. 104:24 below) there are layers and depth of meaning within God's Word. In other words God is SUPER detail oriented and if we want to understand Him we have to be so as well.

Psalm 104:24, KJV O LORD, how manifold are thy works! in wisdom hast thou made them all: the earth is full of thy riches.

Yet whenever I say something to a Christian that goes against their current understanding they immediately get angry, say something like “Be blessed” as if I can’t discern their anger, and then they blow me off. A guy just did it yesterday. It’s always the same. You can feel their anger through the words they’re using, and yet they sign off with Christianese, some trite Christians phrase, to appear godly (to justify themselves). And then blow me off, unwilling to even discuss the Scriptures! That's pretty proud. And deceived. Cuz that is not walking in the Spirit or in love—or in truth!

27 The Rudder Syndrome
God had me sum up what's happened with this graphic having helped me by tying different aspects of my life into what He's saying. So Valparaiso (where my father is buried) means Paradise Valley (like heaven on earth). It's what we were suppose to pray for having been told to pray “Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven” (Matt. 6:10, KJV). So even though many have prayed for that, we didn't get it since we weren't faithful. Santiago (my home town) means Saint James. This was the Lord’s brother. In other words, God is saying that all the brethren should be in Paradise Valley standing next to the Lord having followed Him. Except His brethren didn’t. And Tierra del Fuego means Land of Fire (the place my sister's friends biked to from Minnesota). Clearly, it refers to hell—the lie we've believed. But more importantly, it’s what God has prophesied for the last of the last days. We've been informed that “the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night [since everyone has been too busy doing their own thing]; in the which the heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat, the earth also and the works that are therein shall be burned up” (2 Pet. 3:10, KJV). This is what God prophesied since we asked for it with our rebellion. So what God will be doing through this ministry can be summed up by those footprints, as He prophesied, having made the “the vision...plain” those who read it—being honest with themselves—will “run” with it (Hab. 2:2, KJV). You need to stop what you're doing and trek north to close the gap! I walk through it in a booklet—The Rudder Syndrome.
In fact, when I made the graphic I actually had your Ex wife in mind since we once had fellowship in Christ. But, like the rest, she chose to travel with the crowd of Christians who follow their own desires so that they’ve suffered the consequences along the way since they’re on the “broad...way, that leadeth to destruction” (Matt. 7:13, KJV) However, from man’s perspective their lives look successful and fulfilling. But from God’s perspective, if they were to die today, they’ll have “suffer[ed] loss but yet will be saved—even though only as...escaping through the flames” (1 Cor. 3:15, NIV), barely escaping Tierra del Fuego.

Having prophesied of a former and latter rain, which He had me sum up in this graphic, the Lord is using me as His Latina handmaid to clean up His house—summed up in the bottom graphic. And, again, He tied a bunch of stuff together to reveal this (shared in my material), so it’s not just me having a “wild imagination” or needing psych counseling. It seems to me those who say they believe in a God they don’t obey and Who they know should be feared and obeyed, are the ones needing the counseling. And the good news about it is that He doesn’t charge for His services, that’s how “Wonderful” He is (Isa. 9:6 below).

Isaiah 9:6, KJV For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given: and the government shall be upon his shoulder: and his name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, The mighty God, The everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace.

28 Friendship with the Lord

The “hireling[s]” (John 10:13, KJV), so-called pastors and other paid spiritual professionals, often scoff at Christians (not just at me) for bringing God down to our level as if He’s our Buddy. And there are two huge problems with that—important to understand since God has me being very familiar with Him at times as shared in some of the booklets. It’s like when Jesus walked the earth and they wanted to kill Him because He called God His Father (being a bit too familiar). But it was true. Similarly, having called us “friends” (John 15:15, KJV) and having drawn me close, persuaded me to chose Him over myself and everything and everyone else, Jesus is my good Friend (my only friend!). And Christians (not just the hirelings) get SUPER OFFENDED by that for not having done it themselves, just like the lost get offended because Christians say we know God and they don’t. So yes I’m saying that I know Him better than most born again Christians, which God has proven. I’ll show you that in this text—I’ll give you a taste of it. But first, here are the two key problems with what the hirelings are saying:

1. This is coming from men who “careth not for the sheep” (John 10:13, KJV) and who are Illuminati/Jesuits who have purposely set out to deceive God’s people ever since the counter reformation of the Middle ages. And the graphic of all those occult sign making “pastors” makes it clear that today’s most popular so-called Christian leaders (along with politicians and most performers) are Illuminati Freemasons, and former Freemasons testify to Freemasonry being heretical http://www.emfj.org/.

2. The whole amazing thing about what Jesus did is to make God accessible to us so that He said “I have called you friends” (John 15:15, KJV). But if you’re the kind of “friend” that I can’t be myself with—which is what so-called pastors are saying—you’re not really my friend. What I mean is that if I can’t be myself with Jesus, He’s only going to be my acquaintance since I won’t be all that interested in Him. I know this well since all I have are very loose acquaintances since I can’t be myself with them being that they’re only interested in Jesus hypocritically. Therefore, I can just as well do without them. So while Jesus made a way for us to know Him like our very best Friend, the hirelings want us to only know Him like some far off holier than thou type, as if Jesus is a Pharisee! But that’s the whole point. Jesus is the Friend of Sinners!
In fact, what’s happened is like this graphic for the marriage spectrum since God says “Thy Maker is thine husband” (Isa. 54:5, KJV). Since I have a very dysfunctional marriage so that we’re only housemates and have been so for over a decade, I understand what marriage should be, as opposed to what I have. My husband and I are nothing more than housemates. We’re like the 20 people that shared a house when my sister was in college, many of whom barely knew each other. Buddy and I do nothing together. Since I kept expecting my Christian husband to behave like a Christian and would get blindsided every time he didn’t, I’d seriously lose my temper because of it, since that’s my biggest sin area, and for other reasons which you should understand with my testimony. So I moved into another room of the house which has worked out well. I wake up and immediately KNOW where I’m at. Alone. I have minimal positive expectations from anyone while knowing, by faith, that one day God will open someone’s heart—starting that move OUTSIDE of this home. The point is that I have a clear idea of what a good marriage should look like, which is one where husband and wife are BEST FRIENDS! (’Cuz I’m a genius.)

As Jesus said about the Jews, born again Christians have also been “blind guides” so that the whole world has fallen into “a pit” (Matt. 15:24, KJV)—the New World Order, also called the United Nations Agenda 21/2030, as someone else summed up on this graphic. And, again it’s no coincidence that my father worked for the UN and that I went to the UN school (or that my husband is an aerospace engineer for the DOD or that my brother also works for the DOD). NOTHING is a coincidence because God is revealing His control over ALL, “work[ing] all things after the counsel of his own will” (Eph. 1:11, KJV)—which you should clearly see with my full testimony. It’s also no coincidence that the prophecies point to 2030 and that the occult UN has their goal as 2030 since Satan set out to “be like the most High” (Isa. 14:14, KJV).
29 All Things Lead to Biblical Interpretations

God has informed us that “all things were created by him, and for him” (Col. 1:16, KJV). In turn, Christians talk about seeing God’s hand in the world around them and hearing His voice, which was a big part of the eulogy I gave at your baby’s funeral service. Yet because Christians have so many beams in their eyes they can only see and hear God every now and then, and often mistake Satan’s hand and voice for that of Christ’s. (If you still have a copy of the poem I read at the eulogy you can see where I did it!) It’s the reason we’re supposed to “take every thought captive to Christ” (2 Cor. 10:5, NIV). In short, born again Christians today don’t hear from the Lord very often. Yet, as they and Scripture proclaim, God is speaking through everything. So He’s revealing this truth through an aspect of the ministry He has given me which I walk through on the playlist I’ve called Biblical Interpretations. Basically, since scholarly papers haven’t gotten Christians motivated in Christ (as such dry material never could!), God has used His Spirit to do that, as He says “Not by might, nor by power, but by my spirit” (Zech. 4:6, KJV). He’ll also use genuine Christian fellowship to get us fired up about Him as a group.

But since Christians love to lie to themselves and accuse me of twisting Scripture and reality, consider the lyrics for the song The Reason since they reveal that I am not imagining things or twisting Scripture in saying that Christians profess to believe that God is in control of all. It’s what the Bible says and, therefore, what many hymns and Christian songs say. This one has been on the radio the whole time I’ve been working on this so that’s what I’m using—able to discern God’s leading.

Basically, God prophesied through many while we were living next door to you guys in Indianapolis that He was giving me “a Joseph Experience” speaking of Joseph of the Old Testament. So that’s what I’ve walked in—still living in the dungeon—a cell without walls (solitary confinement). So in the same way that God had Joseph interpret dreams, God has had me interpret secular songs, books, movies, names of places and people, and more since “all things were created by him, and for him” (Col. 1:16, KJV). In the same way that Joseph was able to interpret dreams, God has enabled me to interpret His hand in the world around us in a way that those who remove the beams from their eyes will clearly see His hand and hear His voice—like at your baby’s funeral service. Speaking with one of your friends about the poem I’d read at the service, when I started to explain to him that it was all God, he interrupted me and said “It was obviously God.” (I’m very curious to know where that man is today in relation to Jesus. He was the father in the other family you had over for Easter Sunday after the baby’s death.)

Again, because born again Christians are so unfaithful—and God is the One in control—so far, like the lost, they’ve been blind to God’s hand and accuse me of needing psych counseling. But I’m not delusional. I’m spiritually discerning! In fact, EVERY close follower of Christ should be able to see God’s hand in EVERYTHING around us—books, movies, songs, places, people, all of it—since “all things were created by him, and for him” (Col. 1:16, KJV). In other words, He’s using it all to help His Bride, the church, the born again. So God is doing (will be doing) all of the following through the biblical interpretations:

1. Helping the born again see that He’s using me;
2. Teaching His people through these interpretations;
3. Revealing Himself, how real and near—how “down to earth” He actually is;
4. Motivating the born again to walk more closely with Him; and
5. Training His people so that they’re prepared for the very last days of life on earth as we know it, summed up in this graphic which is at least somewhat off. Woe #3, for example, seems to cover much more ground, starting earlier.

Looking at the graphic, The Point of No Return for Gentiles is when the majority of Jews will get enlightened the “times of the Gentiles” having been fulfilled (Luke 21:24, KJV). Then there’s a group who will get enlightened at the very last minute. In fact, right after the rapture. Scripture says the following:

They [the born again] heard a great voice from heaven saying unto them, Come up hither [the rapture]. And they ascended up to heaven in a cloud; and their enemies beheld them. And the same hour was there a great earthquake, and the tenth part of the city fell, and in the earthquake were slain of men seven thousand: and the remnant were affrighted, and gave glory to the God of heaven (Rev. 11:12-13, KJV).

This “remnant” will make up the people who repopulate the earth for the millennial reign, whereas those who were raptured will be like Jesus was when He came in and out during that period between His resurrection and ascension. Anyhow, there’s Scripture about how God will protect them during that period of wrath. And while I could be right I sure could be wrong. But that’s my current understanding.

And I just recently realized the plagues of the last days are the same plagues God poured out on Egypt through Moses. Except this time around it will be much worse.
To sum up the Last Days graphic, God prophesied that He will be empowering His “two witnesses” (Rev. 11:3-6), which are not two people but the two groups who make up His people (born again Jews and Gentiles). He also informed us that He would help and protect His faithful followers during the tribulation, the worst days of life on earth (Rev. 12:6 & 12:14 below). And the only way “the woman” (the church, the born again) will have the power and discernment God has prophesied about is by walking closely with Jesus—like Elijah and the widow did during that famine (1 Kings 17:7-16 below)—which we can only do by being honest with God, with ourselves, and with others. But He’s also prophesied that many Christians will be martyred during these last days (Dan. 7:21 below)—which has been happening worldwide in increasing measure.

Revelation 12:6, KJV The woman fled into the wilderness, where she hath a place prepared of God, that they should feed her there a thousand two hundred and threescore days [which is 3½ years].

Revelation 12:14, KJV And to the woman were given two wings of a great eagle, that she might fly into the wilderness, into her place, where she is nourished for a time, and times, and half a time [which is 3½ years], from the face of the serpent.

1 Kings 17:7-16, KJV And it came to pass after a while, that the brook dried up, because there had been no rain in the land. And the word of the LORD came unto him, saying, Arise, get thee to Zarephath, which belongeth to Zidon, and dwell there: behold, I have commanded a widow woman there to sustain thee. So he arose and went to Zarephath. And when he came to the gate of the city, behold, the widow woman was there gathering of sticks: and he called to her, and said, Fetch me, I pray thee, a little water in a vessel, that I may drink. And as she was going to fetch it, he called to her, and said, Bring me, I pray thee, a morsel of bread in thine hand. And she said, As the LORD thy God liveth, I have not a cake, but an handful of meal in a barrel, and a little oil in a cruse: and, behold, I am gathering two sticks, that I may go in and dress it for me and my son, that we may eat it, and die. And Elijah said unto her, Fear not; go and do as thou hast said: but make me thereof a little cake first, and bring it unto me, and after make for thee and for thy son. For thus saith the LORD God of Israel, The barrel of meal shall not waste, neither shall the cruse of oil fail, until the day that the LORD sendeth rain upon the earth. And she went and did according to the saying of Elijah: and she, and he, and her house, did eat many days. And the barrel of meal wasted not, neither did the cruse of oil fail, according to the word of the LORD, which he spake by Elijah.

Daniel 7:21, KJV I beheld, and the same horn made war with the saints, and prevailed against them.

And, again, if you think that 3 years is too short a time to do such a huge work worldwide—that the deadbeat church would become the most powerful it’s ever been WORLDWIDE—I FEEL THE SAME WAY! But, because of our technology when something “goes viral” it is a worldwide work that happens in an outrageously short time. And as revealed by the first Christians of the New Testament, it did NOT take them long to mature in Christ. Moreover, “with God all things are possible” (Matt. 19:26, KJV). And Scripture says “blessed is she that believed: for there shall be a performance of those things which were told her from the Lord” (Luke 1:45, KJV). That’s always the choice. We can either believe God or not. And I, for one, feel much safer placing all of my eggs in His Basket. What do I care if you think I’m a idiot? Or even insane. Believing what seems impossible is pretty much THE POINT of living by faith!
So one of the key interpretations the Lord has given me is this children’s book, Maya Makes a Mess, a 32 page cartoon book, which sums up what’s gone down, what will be doing down, and how God is using me. As with several of the other resources I’ve interpreted, every word and picture, in fact every aspect from beginning to end, can be interpreted according to what God is saying to the church today. So it’s not even just the story line but the front and back matter as well, EVERYTHING. (And, again, I think that’s true of everything. We’ve just lacked the discernment to see it.)

So this is how He gave me the Maya book. In 2012, super spent, God called me to give another leadership team the entire book, one of the original versions before He had me start breaking it down into booklets. And the day I was handing it to them God had the pastor’s mentor preach that “prophets have to wait” but that we would “experience joy while waiting” letting me know they also wouldn’t get it but that God had something good in store for me.

And since I was wiped out and God was telling me to do yet another revision, I decided to go to the beach for a break. I probably figured that was the joy He was talking about—I don’t remember. But I’ve always loved the beach. In any case, I went to the library to get an audio book for the road trip. And I always used to ask Him if He had something for me when I went into the sale section—so my eyes were immediately drawn to this book since it had my name on it.
God had done the same thing with a job, so that while I didn’t want to apply for it for some reason, Buddy said “You have to apply! It has your name on it!” It was The MayaTech Corporation, one of the key places where God prepped me for this calling which has required doing much research and writing as well as working alone—spending all my time alone—while the rest party their lives away. That’s actually how it was. There were 15 in our group and they all worked on one piece of cake project while I’d been given another which turned out to be PhD material. My boss confessed when NIMH sent her a commendation for my work. It turns out she hadn’t had the funds for a PhD so she gave the work to this sucker, a B.A. And the rest of them had so much free time they would sit on the tables while this guy played his guitar while I struggled deciphering PhD material and medical research articles. And interestingly enough it was a very clear mix of people (in the whole company) who were into Voodoo (the founder, Mr. Mayas, being from Haiti) and “fundamental” typical apostate Christians, including my deceitful boss. And as you’ll see with my testimony God has played Name Games throughout my life.

So as I looked over the cover of the Maya book I immediately saw God’s hand all over it and realized it was part of the joy He said this prophet would experience—along with all those who take Him seriously. Anyhow, He gave me several resources at that time—songs mostly. And it is fun to see God’s hand in the most unlikely places, especially as He reveals His sense of humor, which He’s clearly done being that “He who is sitting in the heavens doth laugh, The Lord doth mock at them” (Ps. 2:4, YLT). God is ridiculing the mess out of born again Christians for having been so unfaithful.

And, again, this ties in to my upbringing since my brother and I grew up wrestling together and cutting on each other constantly, like Jacob wrestled with the Lord (Gen. 32:24-26 below) and He expects all of us to do with Him (our Brother) as modeled with the woman, with whom He played a Head Game (Matt. 15:22-28 below). It’s both a physical and mental wrestling game—again, how I grew up. My brother and I physically wrestled and cut on each other—having fun—until the point I became born again in my 20s. Then our relationship crashed and burned, since Jesus got in the way. The point is that I was well “trained” for this calling since God is making fun of our stupidity just like my brother used to make fun of me, cutting on me, and me on him, for what idiots we were, laughing at each and at ourselves—but especially at each other. And what my cartoon is saying is what he would actually say. It was his favorite line! And he really does know “nothing” since he’s unenlightened, not born again.

Genesis 32:24-26, KJV  Jacob was left alone; and there wrestled a man with him until the breaking of the day. And when he saw that he prevailed not against him, he touched the hollow of his thigh; and the hollow of Jacob's thigh was out of joint, as he wrestled with him. And he said, Let me go, for the day breaketh. And he said, I will not let thee go, except thou bless me.

Matthew 15:22-28, NIV  And, behold, a woman of Canaan came out of the same coasts, and cried unto him, saying, Have mercy on me, O Lord, thou son of David; my daughter is grievously vexed with a devil. But he answered her not a word. And his disciples came and besought him, saying, Send her away; for she crieth after us. But he answered and said, I am not sent but unto the lost sheep of the house of Israel. Then came she and worshipped him, saying, Lord, help me. But he answered and said, It is not meet to take the children's bread, and to cast it to dogs. And she said, Truth, Lord: yet the dogs eat of the crumbs which fall from their masters' table. Then Jesus answered and said unto her, O woman, great is thy faith: be it unto thee even as thou wilt. And her daughter was made whole from that very hour.
So one of the best resources, to my mind, is a song He gave me that same season, Needing Getting by OK Go. It’s pretty funny on its own (the official video) and very much so (to me) when seen from God’s perspective. Because, He’s seriously ragging on the born again BRAT, His faithless Girl. But most Christians can’t laugh with the Lord since they’re guilty and so spiritually immature, just like immature little kids can’t laugh at themselves but instead get mad and cry. And, sure enough, that was my sister. You had to walk on egg shells with her! And that’s how it is dealing with Christian. I’ve spent TONS OF TIME on this book for reordering it to make it the least offensive as possible, walking on eggs shells! And you’ll still get offended! You have to get right with the Lord to be able to laugh at what idiots we’ve been. And, ironically, getting right with God breaks your heart as you realize how wicked we’ve been and the consequences for it. But it’s still also as Jesus says, “Be of good cheer; I have overcome the world” (John 16:33, KJV). The whole thing is a massive Head Game!

And God seriously gets into it in the testimony booklets as I share what the Lord has walked me through, what He’s revealed to me about my life, the “walk” I’ve had—which will eventually inspire others to seek God in earnest so they can see how God has been all over their entire lives even though they also hadn’t realized it. And I do mean all over, just like they sing on that song, every hour, every minute, every second, He’s always been in it!

So here’s an example concerning the queen thing which I mentioned earlier, that God is revealing I’m His queen, at least part of her, and not a false prophet or otherwise looney. Though, yeah sure, I’m just as looney as the next guy. It’s part of being human, otherwise known as having a sense of humor. And God certainly has one since He created humor.

The Queen Name Game Thing. Jesus is both Father and Son as you can see with the following passages.

“For unto us a child is born...and his name shall be called...The everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace” (Isa. 9:6, KJV). The “everlasting Father” is God the Father and everyone knows that The Prince of Peace refers to Jesus. And Jesus said “I and my Father are one” (John 10:30, KJV). So being idiots, Christians naturally fight about who we’re supposed to pray to “The Father!” “No! The Son!” But, Hello, He’s One and the same.

So my father’s name was Leon, as in “the Lion of the tribe of Judah” (Rev. 5:5, KJV), and my brother’s name is his name backwards, as in the fake version of that Lion, the leading antichrist, like that pagan December celebration Christians love to honor and indulge in.

So my father’s house in Santiago was in the barrio called La Reina, which means The Queen. And it was located on Gibraltar Street, as in the Rock of Gibraltar which refers to Jesus.

So my brother and I led our swim team The Queens when we lived in La Reina (visiting for the summer)—since that’s what God will be doing, having me and my brother in Christ lead His team, the queens. And we made our home in Queens, New York (but kept the house in La Reina thinking we’d be going back).

And God has had me interpret two songs by the group Queen, We Will Rock You (since Jesus, the Rock, and I will be rocking the house of God with this ministry) and We are the Champions since that’s true of the born again even though we’re a bunch of idiots. However, Scripture uses the term conqueror saying that “we are more than conquerors [even though we’re idiots BECAUSE it’s] through him that loved us” (Rom. 8:37, KJV). Amen and hallelujah!
And my husband’s name, as you know, means king, so as his wife, I’m the queen. And when he bought me a Cabbage Patch doll since we weren’t ready for the real thing, it turned out that her name was Buddy’s kingly name in the feminine form, as in the queen. (Since you “adopt” them, you don’t know their name until you open the box.)

Anyhow, it’s like I said. God has made it clear as day that I am His queen and not a psycho or false prophet—which is so obvious. And while I’ve read several comments on YouTube of people saying Jesus has a queen who’s alive today, some woman, I’m not sure that’s who I’m saying I am. That’s a pretty big deal. At the same time, with all the biblical interpretations and everything God is saying and doing through this ministry it just might be who Jesus is saying I am. I dunno. That’s too...much of a distraction! But since I’ve seen it several times now, I am curious to know why those people think Jesus has an actual woman in mind. I guess next time I’ll shoot out a text. It’s crossed my mind because of everything He’s revealed to me and...this whole calling! Even my lost mother saw something unusual (when we were little) and said “There must be some reason for all that’s happened.” And that was just the beginning. I’m looking at 55 years of my life PLUS everything the Lord has shown me. What I do see clearly is that He is using me as a very important prophet for the last of the last days. Moreover, you should be able to see that already!

So here’s a list of the biblical interpretations He’s given me, some of which are already up online with both PDF and video:

1. Maya Makes a Mess by Rutu Modan (children’s book)
2. Needing Getting by OK Go
3. We Will Rock You by Queen
4. We are the Champions by Queen
5. Avatar (2009)
8. Hotel California by the Eagles
11. Sheep on a Ship by Nancy Shaw
13. Edge of Tomorrow (2014)
15. Fly Like an Eagle by the Steve Miller Band
17. Kate & Leopold (2001)
21. Seussical: The Musical (a play)
22. Frozen (2013)
23. Caro Mio Ben (My Dear Beloved, author uncertain)
Through this ministry, especially with the biblical interpretations, God is revealing what a close Friend Jesus is willing to be to us when we take Him seriously. So it might be better for you to read my full testimony before reading or watching the biblical interpretations since God has tied my life into those interpretations, like with the Maya book. And again, I’m guessing He’s done that for everyone, but the born again can’t see it in their lives, or much of it, since they haven’t sought Him wholeheartedly. In fact, barely. Actually, the reason to read my testimony first is because of that and because God is having me teach through my testimony while also revealing how unfaithful Christians have been and the consequences.

In any case, the ministry God has given me basically breaks down like this:

1. My Testimony: Summed up in Sandwiched and detailed through another five booklets.
2. Lessons: Basic Christian discipleship booklets for the lost, the born again babies, and meatier material.
3. The Biblical Interpretations, and
4. Prophecy

And since all of it needs to be redone and God might use you to teach me more and, therefore, call for another do over (sniff sniff) I’m going to focus on redoing the biblical interpretations since those will likely not change. And my hope is to HEAR FROM YOU while I’m working on that.

So here are a couple examples of what God is doing, and His sense of humor.

This one is from the movie Frozen (2013) where these funky little critters are called the Love Experts. In God’s world, that’s referring to born again Christians, the ones who have been granted His Spirit and, therefore, the ability to understand the Scriptures from His perspective—the ones who can actually know God who is “love” (1 John 4:8, KJV). In other words, the Love experts.

This is my Son, whom I love; with him I am well pleased. Listen to him!
Matthew 17:5, NIV

Ye are a...peculiar people; that ye should shew forth the praises to him who hath called you.
1 Peter 2:9, KJV
The sheep graphics are from the book Sheep on a Ship. These dummies are on the wrong ship, led by the skull and Bonesman, the Illuminati. So that while they fell asleep a massive storm came up on them and caught them totally off guard. It's a picture of the denominational totally unbiblical church which “cannot stand” (Mark 3:25, KJV), led by Illuminati Freemasons who serve Satan. While dressed like sheep they are actually “ravening wolves” in “sheep’s clothing” (Matt. 7:15, KJV).

30 A Powerful Confirmation

You should listen to the following audio video. The Lord led me to it in the spring of 2019, confirming much of what He had me write in the booklets, summed up in this text. Incredible 1961 Prophecy Describes What is Going On Today!* Uploaded by Warriors for Christ https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Z49TtxF--b4

*However, I’m not sure what they mean by “What is Going on Today.” If they mean the rejection of the truth, yeah I surely see that. But it sounds like they mean God’s Spirit being poured out. I surely don’t see that. What I see is a fake version of it which is what Satan does, copies everything Jesus is doing having set out to “be like the most High” (Isa. 14:14, KJV). However, God is always at work and His grace is greater than our sins so that there is a work of the Spirit going on around the world today. But not a huge outpouring. Rather, there are people like Torben Sondergaard with his ministry called “The Last Reformation” going around speaking quite a bit of truth along with a ton of lies and doing “miracles” which God calls “signs and lying wonders” (2 Thess. 2:9, KJV). All you need to do is scratch the surface of Torben’s ministry—or any ministry today—and see a severe lack of sound doctrine. And God is NOT going to pour out His Spirit, especially not in a huge way as He prophesied (Joel 2:23 below) until we, as a group (a decent number of us) get right with Him.

Joel 2:23, KJV Be glad then, ye children of Zion, and rejoice in the Lord your God: for he hath given you the former rain moderately, and he will cause to come down for you the rain, the former rain, and the latter rain.

You also need to remember that we can receive a vision from God and NOT interpret it entirely correct. I see some of that going on with this man’s interpretation of his vision. And then there’s the narrator who also doesn’t see some of the things I’ve pointed out. However, I clearly see that the vision the man was given in 1961 is essentially the same vision God has given me. You should be able to see that he prophesied of what's being going on, my 20 year testimony of Christians rejecting the truth, rejecting God's knock at the door of their hearts. It's what I summed up in the graphic.

Prophets Under the New Covenant: Since Jesus said “I send unto you prophets” (Matt. 23:34, KJV) and EVERY Christian has been wrong on many points throughout most of Christian history, it's clear to me that prophets under the covenant of grace can be wrong at times. So what I think I believe is that a prophet under the new covenant won't be wrong about the major stuff like Jesus being God. Or about clear doctrines, as with homosexuality being a sin (Rom. 1:27 below). But they can be wrong about some of the unclear details, wrong in their interpretation of what has been revealed/spoken to them by God, like I did with God's Word about your baby. I think God made it very easy to tell when you're dealing with a true or false prophet. But born again Christians haven't been able to tell who's a true prophet because they have beams in their eyes. And believer and unbeliever alike have been fooled by false prophets for ignoring Scripture. It's as He said, If we “take captive every thought to make it obedient to Christ” (2 Cor. 10:5, NIV) we won't get fooled. We won't call a true prophet a false prophet and we won't think a false prophet is a true prophet.

Romans 1:27, NIV Men also abandoned natural relations with women and were inflamed with lust for one another. Men committed shameful acts with other men, and received in themselves the due penalty for their error.

31 UNbelievable

This series on Netflix, Unbelievable, based on actual events, parallels what's taken place in the world and in my life in many ways. The series is about a serial rapist but it focuses on his first rape, like Satan with the Lord's spiritual “chaste virgin” (2 Cor. 11:2, KJV). (And I represent that first rape.) The girl was a teen who had been abused in one way or another her entire life by everyone including “well meaning” people who actually cared about her—like sinners do “being hated and hating one another” (Titus 3:3, NIV)—having grown up in the foster care system (Satan’s turf). Near the end, speaking to a decent counselor (Lord willing that person represents you!), she sums up what took place as she explains a movie she saw about zombies. She says the zombies couldn't help what they were doing whereas the others could. Those who knew better (the born again) chose to take advantage of the situation. The people were the real problem—not the zombies. And that's how it is. Unbelievers (zombies) can't help but be wicked since they don't have God's Spirit within to help them since they don't even believe in Jesus. But those who profess to believe the Bible can help themselves—especially the born again! So they're much more guilty. And that's what God says, “That servant, which knew his lord's will, and prepared not himself, neither did according to his will, shall be beaten with many stripes. But he that knew not, and did commit things worthy of stripes, shall be beaten with few stripes” (Luke 12:47-48, KJV). God does not hold us responsible for information we weren't enlightened to. So when you have been enlightened—like He's doing with you through this material (severely enlightening you)—you need to take it seriously. What's happened throughout church history is that grace has been our Achilles heel, our weakness. Because God is so gracious we've ignored His requirements. And it's time we stopped.

The girl also says that no matter how much people love you, it's not enough. And that's how it is. In the movie, since the truth didn't line up with their ideas about what should have been true, none of them believed her. Likewise, even though it’s beyond OBVIOUS that the church/Christians need to repent, from the very beginning (since the late 1990s) even close friends who were more than likely born again suggested I needed psych counseling for saying so, like your Ex. Why? Because it’s too hard to believe that Christians would have had it this wrong for so long. It means WE are wrong—and nobody wants to believe that about ourselves, especially Christians (just like the lost don’t want to admit it). And God really set me up by throwing the Psych Ward in as part of my salvation testimony! It’s the same thing Mary Magdalene walked in. Having been delivered by Jesus, seeing Him after He was resurrected—the first to see Him (like the first rape)—they didn’t believe her even though Jesus had TOLD THEM He would rise again at that time:

[Jesus told them] They shall kill him, and the third day he shall be raised again. And they were exceeding sorry (Matt. 17:23, KJV).

When Jesus rose early on the first day of the week, he appeared first to Mary Magdalene, out of whom he had driven seven demons. She went and told those who had been with him and who were mourning and weeping. When they heard that Jesus was alive and that she had seen him, they did not believe it (Mark 16:9-11).

While Jesus told us to “produce fruit in keeping with repentance” (Matt. 3:8, NIV), that’s the last thing born again Christians have done. They haven’t done it. While many will admit that the church/Christianity is wrong, that they themselves are even wrong on some points, they’ve all treated me like a false prophet for saying we need to repent—or else just ignored me and given me the ice cold shoulder. In other words, in the same way that the girl was violated when she was raped, she was then violated by the police (mature Christians) who said she was making it up, that it didn’t actually happen, and then she was also violated by nearly everyone she knew since they didn’t believe her (everyone God has had me reach out to). Likewise, Christians, who are supposed to believe the truth, reject the truth since it’s so inconvenient for them being that they’re chasing after the things of the world. Accusing me of being wrong, they’ve then all pat themselves on the back for supposedly being so faithful! Or, more than likely, they’ve probably viewed me as being an idiot and themselves as being so brilliant—totally clueless that it’s even about faith! And God used the movie Babette’s Feast (1987) to confirm what I’m saying, another biblical interpretation. So while the cops and her family and friends, portraying Christians (in my interpretation of the movie), were supposed to be helping her, they ALSO victimized her. And that’s how it’s been. Christians should have been helping rather than hurting me. It’s part of the reason God has backed up what I’m saying, not only with the Scriptures but with the biblical interpretations and with just about everything and everyone on my path. Whiles He’s done that for everyone, He’s LET ME SEE IT thoroughly nailing His Point since He’s an AMAZING Carpenter. But it was also to help me stay on track because otherwise I’d think I really am crazy. This has been an insane calling! That born again Christians would be so outrageously hard hearted—ALL OF THEM! For THIS LONG! And that, during a time when the world is in DIRE STRAIGHTS!

And, again, I KNOW that if not for God, “who worketh all things after the counsel of his own will” (Eph. 1:11, KJV), I’d either be a zombie or just another “well meaning” born again soul who walks after the flesh trampling Jesus along with my brethren. No doubt. That’s God’s point. We are ALL “desperately wicked” (Jer. 17:9, KJV) and “there is none righteous, no, not one” (Rom. 3:10, KJV)—which makes it even more frustrating since I can’t even (legally) get mad at anyone!

So you might watch the movie Detachment (2012) because it also parallels what’s gone down with Christians and, therefore, with the world. It’s also what’s happened with me. Meaning, I’ve lost it on occasion like the counselor did in the movie (and she seriously looses it!). Because, born again Christians are just like those students—enough to drive you mad or make you want to kill yourself, or them! You need to get a feel for what God has had me walk through because it’s how we’ve made Jesus feel. It’s the reason His wrath is being poured out in increasing measure. Warned to “not grieve the Holy Spirit of God” (Eph. 4:30, NIV, my emphasis), that’s nearly all born again Christians have done for most of the past 2000 years! And then they think God is going to rapture us outta here while He pours out His wrath on the people we should have been helping!

That’s what you call delusional.
32 God is Calling YOU

I’ve noticed over the last few years that the further along I’ve come as a follower of Christ, the bigger the lies God has revealed to me—making me think the biggest whoppers have already been exposed. We’ve pretty much had it ALL WRONG so I don’t think there’s anything left! At least nothing major. So what I see God doing in having me reach out to you like this is what’s portrayed in the movie The Book of Daniel (2013)
https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=R95HWFmOL8I

While the prophet Daniel had to walk through many hard trials over a lifetime in order to have his level of discernment, all King Cyrus had to do was humbly listen to Daniel, connect the dots, and step into that part of his calling—by faith. It’s what God has asked all elect to do through the Bible. And most times He uses others to help us, which is what He’s doing in having me reach out to you. I’ve been obeying God in praying for you and putting this material together for you—which I’ve been doing throughout the past year (along with other stuff He’s had me working on and some personal detours I’ve taken). The question is will you obey Him by actually listening and being a good Berean so that you become a follower of Christ (Matt. 4:19 in the graphic)—and will you do it right away. Will you “run” with it? God always seems to let me know ahead of time, but I don’t always recognize that He’d let me know or exactly what He’d meant until after I’ve reached out to that person or group—or immediately before of after, like with Riverdale leadership. If He had told me sooner it would have been really hard for me to move forward. In any case, it’s what happened to Peter when Jesus told Him “Thou shalt deny me thrice” (Matt. 26:34, KJV) but Peter didn’t ‘get it’ until it actually happened so that he went out and “wept bitterly” (Matt. 26:75, KJV). And if you don’t have eyes to see I most definitely will be weeping bitterly. WHEN is enough enough?!
Since we're under the new covenant called to function as a group, as the body of Christ, under Jesus’ lordship, I'm basically standing where Paul stood when he said “I long to see you, that I may impart unto you some spiritual gift, to the end ye may be established; That is, that I may be comforted together with you by the mutual faith both of you and me” (Rom. 1:11-12, KJV). In other words, walking humbly before God we can help and encourage each other in the faith, grow, and then help others.

And since the system God set up is so simple because of the work Jesus did on the Cross, and because the consequences are so horrendous due of our lack of faith in Him, every born again Christian will finally/eventually bow down low before Him realizing the truth of our depravity and echo these words, “I am too ashamed and disgraced, my God, to lift up my face to you, because our sins are higher than our heads and our guilt has reached to the heavens” (Ezra 9:6, NIV). Because, the damage faithless Christianity has done is over the top!

And my calling is closely tied to this passage (1 Cor. 12:26, in the graphic). Had Christians done right by the Lord 20 years ago—or any time in between then and now—they wouldn’t have ignored me recognizing that I’ve been a follower of Christ, therefore, they would have honored the Lord. In turn, not only would I and my family not have had to suffer the life we’ve lived, the rest of the body of Christ would have rejoiced since they would have reaped the benefits of this ministry, which would have been so much greater than what it will be. But, again, God knew this is how it would play out because we’ve all been more self absorbed rather than sold out for Christ being that our hearts are “desperately wicked” (Jer. 17:9, KJV). And that includes me—as God is my witness.
What God is doing is kind of like the doors in the Get Smart TV show where he goes deeper and deeper into those secret chambers. Because, with every obedience to God a new “door” is opened. And God has me covering a TON of ground! In other words, the deeper we go with God, Jesus is deeper still since “God is a...reveler of secrets” (Dan. 2:47, KJV). So you shouldn’t decide that I’m out to lunch until you’ve read and earnestly considered a decent amount of the information, removing as many beams from your eyes as He reveals. By taking this/taking God seriously not only will you not blow me off, you’ll clearly see God’s calling on your life for these latter days—a way to make up for lost time. Even better than that. While you probably feel very fulfilled with your career, knowing Jesus well—our Creator—has to be much more fulfilling! (I don’t know exactly since I haven’t had a career! But it’s probably a good guess—even if you love your work.)

And God used one of the biblical interpretations to tie into the Moses and Aaron thing, the movie Avatar (2009). So while I won’t have that video up for a while, since they’re so time consuming to make, you should read my testimony booklets first and watch the videos I do have up. And by watching all of the biblical interpretations which are on the playlist before Avatar, having read my full testimony—having removed the beams from your eyes—you’ll have a better shot at being able to connect all the dots concerning the details of what God is saying personally to you.

So while you’re probably thinking I don’t have time for this, you need to ENGAGE YOUR BRAIN! Because, from God’s perspective NOTHING, or very little, of the work that you’ve been doing for your adult life will benefit you after this life is over! It seems to me you should be retiring and finally pouring your heart and soul into God and making the most of the little time you have left. Because even if 2030 is not the time of the Lord’s return, and even if you lived to be 90, most people are mentally out of commission way before then.

Moreover, if you blow God off, He’ll essentially blow you off. As He says, He will “laugh at your calamity” (Prov. 1:26, KJV). And, all things considered, that is just. And, again, no one God has ever had me reach out to has been given as much and as clear information as you have. Neither did most of them have the advantage of the personal connection. Meaning, no one (other than your Ex) who God has had me reach out to like this knew me as well as you guys. And yet, we hardly knew each other at all! But, we did know each other somewhat. (It’s actually shocking to me how little your Ex and I actually got to know each other! Because, you guys were really the best family friends we ever had! That’s how miserable this calling has been!)

So, while no one is walking in 100% sound doctrine today—even among those who are attempting to honor Jesus—no one is actually addressing the problem! However, we will address it since that’s part of God’s Plan, Jesus having given His life “that he might present [the church] to himself a glorious church, not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without blemish” (Eph. 5:27, KJV). So while we CANT solve the world’s massive problems we can help the lost elect come to the knowledge of the truth and become faithful followers of Christ—as we’ve been admonished to do with the Great Commission, our working orders (Matt. 28:19-20 below). Today’s born again Christians need to mature in Christ SO THAT we can fulfill the Great Commission. There are more than enough lost souls to work at improving life on earth. Let them do that work since only the born again can “save others by snatching them from the fire” (Jude 1:23, KJV). As a fire safety engineer it’s time you went at it from a different and much more productive angle “for what shall it profit a man [all those people your work has helped], if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul?” (Mark 8:36, KJV).

Matthew 28:19-20, NIV Go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you.

And soul is yet another word we’ve misunderstood since animals actually do have souls. We’re told that when the angel pours his bowl into the sea “every living soul died which is in the sea” (Rev. 16:3, KJV) and it’s the same word used in the literal translations. Again, the Word of God runs so much deeper than we’ve considered. I think what God will be doing in these last days is making the born again—who are so proud and constantly fight over their opinions and interpretations of what Scripture says, rudely insulting each other—finally acknowledge that we’ve all had some things right and MANY things wrong!
However, we’ll only be fully empowered by God when we repent as a group—first locally then globally—and become His faithful followers. Because, that’s the system He has set up, that we function as “the body of Christ” (1 Cor. 12:27, KJV) under His lordship. Yet, right now, the best Christians are doing is making born again Christians that remain babies for life, and we’re making very few of those. Mostly, Christianity today is like Judaism was 2000 years ago to whom Jesus said “Ye make him a son of gehenna twofold more than yourselves” (Matt. 23:15, YLT). Gehenna was a place of death—a brutal death. It was where they sacrificed their children, just like the pagans, placing them in the fiercely hot arms of the Moloch statue, a furnace. SO evil! By making it impossible for the last generation of children to stand firm in the faith so that they start singing about killing people and attempting to kill themselves, we’ve been just as evil from God’s perspective. While He said “Let the little children come to me, and do not hinder them” (Matt. 19:14, KJV) Christians, including the born again, are currently doing their best to DRIVE THEM FROM the Lord!

In any case, the information the Lord has had me put together is more than enough to remove all beams from your eyes PROVIDED YOU ARE HONEST WITH YOURSELF. If you’ve been dreaming of a comfy retirement it would be wise to “WAKE UP! Strengthen what remains and is about to die, for I have found your deeds unfinished in the sight of my God” (Rev. 3:2, NIV, my emphasis). Just take an honest biblical look at the church as a whole and acknowledge where you fit into that picture. It’s NOT pretty! The fact is that we’ve all ROYALLY messed up in many ways! But, thanks to Jesus, God “does not treat us as our sins deserve or repay us according to our iniquities” (Ps. 103:10, NIV).

HOWEVER, if we don’t repent when warned He says “I in turn will laugh when disaster strikes you; I will mock when calamity overtakes you” (Prov. 1:26, NIV). And “it is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God” (Heb. 10:31, KJV)—as He SO CLEARLY demonstrated to us with the 9/11 attacks! Surely, given another chance, all the elect who died in the towers would eagerly choose to follow Christ rather than live for themselves. What a terrifying way to die. And that’s what the last days are ALL about. For “in those days shall men seek death, and shall not find it; and shall desire to die, and death shall flee from them” (Rev. 9:6, KJV).

That’s why “the fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom” (Prov. 9:10, KJV) and why God scared the mess out me the week I had repeatedly and earnestly begged Him to take over my life in 1988, having been working at cleaning up my life, again summed up in Sandwiched. He gave me enough fear of Him and of the “forces of evil” (Eph. 6:12, NIV) so that I would actually take Him seriously (unlike the norm), and to motivate me to go against the grain of all for years. EVERYONE has turned on me—believer and unbeliever alike, family and friends—so that for nearly a decade I’ve had NO ONE to even talk to! The most conversation I get is the “Hi, yada yada...see ya” at the gym like “Whatever floats your boat!” and a sentence or two with Buddy or one of the girls here and there, words about NOTHING since no one is interested in Christ for chasing the world. The born again who walk in the flesh are as good as “dead” (Rev. 3:1, KJV)—according to God. And talking to spiritually dead people is like trying to have a conversation with a corpse. It doesn’t work!
For example, when I last saw my brother in 2017 he actually said “You’re allowed to speak but only one sentence.” While that’s insanely proud, Christians behave the same way! (John 15:25 below). I’m allowed to speak just as long as it’s not about Jesus and/or what I discern He’s doing, even though they supposedly believe in Him and even want to “get this thing right.” So it’s like this sheep cartoon since it’s how they’ve always treated God’s prophets (1 Kings 18:17-18 below).

John 15:25, KJV This cometh to pass, that the word might be fulfilled that is written in their law, They hated me without a cause.

1 Kings 18:17-18, NIV When [Ahab] saw Elijah, he said to him, “Is that you, you troubler of Israel?” “I have not made trouble for Israel,” Elijah replied. “But you and your father’s family have. You have abandoned the Lord’s commands and have followed the Baals.

And the reason God had me come from Santiago, Chile, is because the same scenario that played out there will be taking place in the very last of the last days, only it’ll be worse and worldwide. People will increasingly justify the government’s brutal and unrighteous ways because the human heart is “desperately wicked” (Jer. 17:9, KJV). What they’ll be doing—are already doing—is like saying lynching of blacks was OK because they were disrupting the status quo. So while Satan’s brutality has been going on worldwide historically, it’s not worldwide in unison yet. But we’re nearly there. All the necessary technology is already being used, it’s just not in place universally yet. But they’re moving fast! The world is already so insane that twice, while looking at gardening/microgreen videos, people have testified of neighbors having called the police on them because they were growing vegetables, having assumed it was pot, and that when pot has already been legalized in many places. It’s CRAZY to immediately assume something green being grown is pot! AND call the cops! And it’s not like having cops come to your door these days is no big thing considering how much they’ve changed “because of the increase of wickedness” (Matt. 24:12, NIV). A few years ago a cop thought I was parked in the wrong section and the way he was yelling at me you’d think I’d killed a child!

And, as Christians, we should NOT be surprised by the brutality. If anything, we should question why Satan is not more brutal since Jesus said “If they do these things in a green tree, what shall be done in the dry?” (Luke 23:31, KJV) letting us know it would get really bad considering how badly they treated Him along with the first Christians. In other words, we should question why people aren’t more brutal since all humans are “desperately wicked” (Jer. 29:17, KJV) and used by Satan when not in submission to Jesus (Matt. 12:30 below). And the answer is because of God’s mercy. Because to actually be “with” Jesus you have to be walking in the Spirit following Him, the closer the better. He says “He that followeth me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life” (John 8:12, KJV). When we don’t follow Him we become like Satan, like today’s cops and so-called pastors.

Matthew 12:30, KJV He that is not with me is against me; and he that gathereth not with me scattereth abroad.

However, you have to keep in mind that the public is also kept blind to the truth—like in Chile—by the media and TV programming, politicians, a bogus educational system, all of it, since Satan is the “god of this world” (2 Cor. 4:4, KJV) and most people “seek their own, not the things which are Jesus Christ’s” (Phil. 2:21, KJV) so that they’re being used by Satan while calling themselves “good” or even “Christian.”
So, again, the booklet with the timeline from Adam all the way to the 9/11 attacks—even though I’m sure a lot of it’s wrong, it’s still a really good sketch to get a handle on the Big Picture, to see God’s hand and Satan’s hand and what we’ve done, how blind and cold hearted we have been, humanity has been. We’ve let Satan rule over us and then we get angry at God about it. Why doesn’t God do something?! That’s part of the reason why the born again don’t submit to the Lord. They’re angry with Him because things didn’t go their way. Well, how faithful were you? And the answer is you weren’t. None of us has been. (I have to re-type the timeline I’m talking about but it’ll be up as God’s Tainted Story.)

Anyhow, my experience and testimony are extreme because we’re living in extreme times. That’s obvious even to the lost. Talking to the young uneducated girl who was cutting my hair, I was shocked that she was so informed about what’s going on in the world, speaking of the Illuminati, not spiritually. Yet the college educated kids seem to be totally clueless! And that’s because that institution is RUN by the Illuminati. The educational system is indoctrination. There’s plenty of evidence for it. So that’s another place you’ll struggle since you’re part of that system—and it’s another reason you should retire. But you have to remember that Satan is the “god of this world” (2 Cor. 4:4, KJV), given that position by God for His purposes. It’s all been a TEST! And we’ve all failed miserably! “The LORD...our God [wa]s testing [us] to find out whether [we] love him with all...our heart and with all...our soul” (Deut. 13:3, KJV) and we’ve proven to Him, and to ourselves, that we haven’t. Not even close.

And, again, Christianity’s failure began right after Jesus walked the earth, revealed to us in the Letters to the Churches of Revelation 2 & 3. Since the church-es make up the church of Christ, His assembly, if the first century church had been given a report card they would have had to do First Grade all over again! And even though God took us through remedial school during the Middle Ages with the Reformation, we’ve still failed! The only reason some of us will actually get a ‘passing’ grade is because of God’s grace. So I’m praying you don’t continue to trample it. Appreciate the fact that “whom the LORD loveth he correcteth; even as a father the son in whom he delighteth” (Prov. 3:12, KJV).

33 The Mirror: A Prayer ‘Wall’

The first video on the playlist Praying God’s Word explains the mirror. Basically, God made it easier for me to obey Him with that part of the calling while also proving to those He’s had me pray for and reach out to that I was actually praying for them, and praying His Word and will for them as opposed to my own. What God has done—since He’s always had me reach out to people in writing backing up what I’ve been saying with Scripture—is pretty much like what He said through Joshua. Because, it’s been obvious from the very beginning (the late 1990s) that I’ve been serving the Lord whom they’ve professed to know and love. At some point everyone God has had me reach out to will realize they’ve been witnesses against themselves as they’ll have the letter or booklet God had me write them and some will also have the craft (or memory of it) to remind them that I’d reached out to them.

34 The Cover Explained

As this material makes clear, Christians have been rebellious against God in increasing measure for most of Christian history so that Christianity today is made up of little more than hypocrites who call Him Lord but don’t do what He has clearly told us to do. Rather than honor Christ, Christians have been “crucify[ing] to themselves the Son of God afresh, and put[ting] him to an open shame” (Heb. 6:6, KJV). In turn, having been rebellious, it’s as if Christians have kept Jesus— are keeping Him—behind bars, as if locked up. It’s what many Jews did 2000 years ago so that the New Testament says “he did not do many mighty works there because of their unbelief” (Matt. 13:58, KJV). And God tied a song to what I’ve said, confirming it, for which I’ve done a biblical interpretation, King of the World. (It’s not a Christian song but from Broadway.)

However, since “it is God which worketh in [us] both to will and to do of his good pleasure” (Phil. 2:13, KJV) and He’s working out His Plan, He’s had me continue as a follower of Christ. And He says “Whoever serves me must follow me; and where I am, my servant also will be” (John 12:26, KJV). Having continued as a follower of Christ my testimony reflects a life lived as if behind bars since I’m with Him. And we both WANT OUT!
35 My Pledge Before God

The main red button on my homepage takes you to The Good News! playlist where I’ve summed it all up coming at it from a different angle. And most videos have the booklet available as a PDF file in the descriptions box and it’s also on my website—a PDF either for the video itself or for the entire playlist. (The ones that are up are what I’ve already remade—the latest version of this miserable calling.) If this isn’t the end of it I really feel like I need to muster up the courage to step out onto Route 50 in front of a semi truck (1 Kings 19:4 below)—except that’s not even an option! (1 Cor. 3:17 below).

1 Kings 19:4, NIV I have had enough, LORD.

1 Corinthians 3:17, KJV If anyone destroys God’s temple, God will destroy that person; for God’s temple is sacred.

So here’s my pledge before God. If you blow me off without a word then I AM NOT RESPONSIBLE. I’ve waited 20 years standing firm. Moving forward I’ll finish the work BUT I WILL ALSO entertain myself with my plants and cement while the world goes to hell, or better said, hell comes upon us. Because, I will go insane if I have to keep standing alone doing nothing but working for those who don’t even give a damn. So it’s just like Pilate who washed his hands of it all (Matt. 27:24) and about whom Jesus said the others had the greater sin (John 19:11 below).

Matthew 27:24, NIV When Pilate saw that he was getting nowhere...he took water and washed his hands in front of the crowd. “I am innocent” he said. “It is your responsibility!”

John 19:11, NIV Jesus answered, “...the one who handed me over to you is guilty of a greater sin.”

And by making this pledge I am NOT being rebellious. Rather, I’m holding God accountable like Hannah’s husband did when he said “Do what seemeth thee good; tarry until thou have weaned him; only the LORD establish his word” (1 Sam. 1:23, KJV).

Praying you live up to the meaning of your name (Job 40:6-8 in the graphic).

Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do. Luke 23:34

Praying you live up to the meaning of your name (Job 40:6-8 in the graphic).
The Warm Smell of Colitas

I’m adding a section to the booklet and playlist A Private Word Made Public as an expression of faith in God for when He finally opens up this ministry. (The booklet is in the descriptions box).

Having obeyed the Lord to speak up on His behalf for over 20 years receiving nothing but the super ice cold shoulder from both unbelievers and so-called believers alike, and having spent over a year working on this book and related playlist, praying for Mr. X, who I discerned (and still discern) the Lord wanted me to reach out to, I was shocked at his response. Even if he no longer called himself a believer, I figured he’d at least read it, if nothing else, out of curiosity since it’s tied to his baby who died, for whom I read the eulogy poem. I figured he’d at least let me into his house, hear me out, and actually read what God had me put together for him.

No such thing!

The man, a former friend, a brother in Christ, didn’t even greet me. He answered the door saying “Yeah, what is it?” Telling him that I had a word from the Lord for him, he immediately said “Oh, no. I’m really not interested.” Then since I stood there dumbfounded, he said, just like my husband who’s not interested in what Jesus has to say, “I’m still a believer,” as if that’s all Jesus has required of us! Yet a child could read the New Testament and understand that this is what God calls “blind guides” (Matt. 15:14, NIV), “deceived” (Gal. 6:7, KJV), and “hypocrites” (Matt. 16:3, KJV).

By calling yourself a believer you are telling people that you believe the New Testament, which says, for example, “Test the spirits to see whether they are from God, because many false prophets have gone out into the world” (1 John 4:1, NIV). Clearly, you cannot “test the spirits” if you don’t even listen to what is being said! (And we all know what you do when you assume.) Jesus also says “By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have love one to another” (John 13:35, KJV). Yet rather than being loving by showing hospitality and common decency, today’s Christians, including the born again—which I discern Mr. X is—are just like the lost and refuse to even be polite. Mr. X behaved just like my lost brother who said to me “You can speak. But you’re only allowed to say one sentence.” Neither the lost or the born again have any room for God today—as is my 20 year testimony! The born again today are TOTALLY not interested in hearing that they need to repent! They only want to hear blessings from God. We’ve become a group of spoiled brats!

Having given it some thought this past week, I realized that Mr. X was ice cold because about ten years ago I’d rebuked them twice, once when they invited us to their daughters “christening” a Catholic thing which is totally unbiblical, and because I’d noted that their son was singing about wanting to kill people, which doesn’t exactly honor Jesus—even if he didn’t mean it. And as the man said, he’s a “believer.” In other words, he has witnessed against himself because a Christian father has great responsibility over his children, summed up with the passage that says “train up a child in the way he should go” (Prov. 22:6, KJV). And Mrs. X witnessed against herself by responding that she knew the christening wasn’t biblical but that they wanted to do it anyhow, no respect for Jesus at all! And that’s how the born again have been historically, knowing God’s will they’ve chosen to do their will instead, ignoring Jesus’ example when He prayed “not as I will, but as you will” (Matt. 26:39, NIV), and sacrificed Himself for us out of love. Christians have become totally blind that He said “If ye continue in my word, then are ye my disciples indeed” (John 8:31, KJV).
Rather than being unfaithful and cold, the New Testament says “as we have opportunity, let us do good to all people, especially to those who belong to the family of believers” (Gal. 6:10, NIV). Being cold as ice to a sister in Christ is not exactly doing good, especially when that sister tells you she has a message from the Lord for you. As Jesus says “Whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you did for me...[and] whatever you did not do for one of the least of these, you did not do for me” (Matt. 25:40 & 45, NIV). By not welcoming me or listening to what I’ve had to say, Christians have rejected Jesus they say they believe in.

Instead of being cold, proud, and self-willed, Christians have been called to be like the Bereans who “received the message with great eagerness and examined the Scriptures every day to see if what Paul said was true” (Acts 17:11, NIV). But today’s Christians refuse to even listen to what is being said! Mr. X’s reaction CONFIRMS everything the Lord has had me write about Christianity as we know it, as well as Tommy Hicks’ prophecy that many would refuse God’s call for the last day’s reformation (Incredible 1961 Prophecy Describes What is Going On Today! https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Z49TbxF--_b4). Because, we are living in the last of the last days when the following passage was prophesied to apply even to the born again, people who “have a form of godliness but deny...[His] power.” The full passage says:

There will be terrible times in the last days. People will be lovers of themselves, lovers of money, boastful, proud, abusive, disobedient to their parents, ungrateful, unholy, without love, unforgiving, slanderous, without self-control, brutal, not lovers of the good, treacherous, rash, conceited, lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of God—having a form of godliness but denying its power (2 Tim. 3:1-5, NIV).

Therefore, leaving this man’s house, discouraged and disgusted beyond measure, this is how the Lord walked me through it. Driving home in tears knowing I’d finally hit the bottom of the bottom of the barrel, my very last hope dashed to pieces, stopped at the light I decided to turn right since The Community Forklift is minutes from Mr. X’s house and much further from mine. Having received that response I’d been thinking about the pledge I’d made—that I’d finish the work God gave me to do but would also do more for myself moving forward, thinking of this passage, taking into consideration the difference the new covenant makes (which I’ve covered in this booklet and playlist):

Son of man, I have made you a watchman for the people of Israel; so hear the word I speak and give them warning from me. When I say to the wicked, ‘You wicked person, you will surely die,’ and you do not speak out to dissuade them from their ways, that wicked person will die for their sin, and I will hold you accountable for their blood. But if you do warn the wicked person to turn from their ways and they do not do so, they will die for their sin, though you yourself will be saved (Ezek. 33:7-9, NIV).

I’ve done my part in speaking up. But, that includes finishing the work God gave me to do. So that’s what I’ll do.

However, having walked through this nightmare for over two decades, I knew I needed to think about something else for a while to help me get back on track with the Lord. I was hurt. I was angry. I was beside myself with frustration, so I was determined to focus on my outdoor vegetable garden. The Community Forklift is a warehouse of reused items, like Goodwill, but instead of clothing the focus is on everything for the home and yard. It was a beautiful day in February, feeling like Spring but not quite there yet. And the Lord had just (this week) tuned me in to winter sowing, which is super cool. (The best channel on it is JuicingGardener (Sheryl Mann) https://www.youtube.com/channel/UChrMhrOM6Bo bdeTmLiNHtFw.) With this gardening technique you sow your seeds in the winter—even in snow (but you can do it any time)—by putting them in these little greenhouses you make out of plastic jugs, or whatever else can resemble a greenhouse, so that you end up with strong and hardy seedlings for a fraction of the cost of store bought plants and without having to go through the super tedious process of hardening the plants that you start indoors, while they’re also protected from insects and animals. Not only is it a load cheaper and easier, it’s much more fun! So having swung the car to the right, I asked God to fix my face since I get all red and blotchy when I’ve been crying.
Therefore, about 5 minutes later, decent looking, having just entered The Forklift and trying to focus on stuff down the aisle looking for what I could use for my new project, like trellises, for example—thinking of the plants that will be growing in my outdoor garden—trying hard to not think of Mr. X and all the iceberg Christians, that that’s ALL THERE IS out there, I heard Hotel California coming through the loud speaker. And since the Lord had me interpret this song, I heard HIM encouraging me along and giving you an example of what it is to walk in the Spirit, as well as how the Lord ministers to us when we’re down (many examples of which He’s provided through my testimony booklets).

So this is what I heard:

_On a dark desert highway, cool wind in my hair_
_Warm smell of colitas, rising up through the air._

The “dark desert highway” is the “narrow...way” (Matt. 7:14, KJV) that is _deserted_, a “desert highway,” since Christians are _so_ unfaithful! And ungrateful! Having left Mr. X, trying hard to not get angry with God since He’s the One in ultimate control, this had essentially been my prayer driving away from the X’s house. “God, earnestly I _seek you_; I _thirst for you_, my whole being _longs for you_, in a _dry and parched land_ where there is no water” (Ps. 63:1, NIV). I was/I am “on a dark desert highway.” It’s “dark” because even the born again allow Satan to rule rather than Jesus. While He’s “the light of the world” (John 8:12, KJV) Satan represents all that’s dark. And it’s a “high” way because it’s God’s way, not the vile scum of a way the majority are walking on, including the born again! And the "cool wind in my hair" is the Holy Spirit “a rushing mighty wind” that comes from “heaven” (Acts 2:2, KJV). He’s as cool as it gets since He’s God ALMIGHTY and the Friend of Sinners who coordinates everything with everything, all the time (Eph. 1:11 below) so that “He refreshes my soul. He guides me along the right paths for his name’s sake” (Ps. 23:3, NIV). Jesus was the One singing in my ear. As Scripture says “in his love he will...rejoice over you with singing” (Zeph. 3:17, NIV). He was ministering to me because by singing about the “warm smell of colitas, rising up through the air,” Jesus was reminding me that all who dishonor Him will be getting their due reward. “Colitas” in Spanish means _bootties_. In other words, the Lord is going to be doing what my mother once did to my brother, which was to chase him down with a broom to smack his bad little behind! Because, “the _LORD_ will not leave the guilty unpunished” (Nah. 1:3, NIV). Woe to Mr. X—and to all Christians who are so outrageously ungrateful to God. The New Testament says “that servant, which knew his lord's will, and prepared not himself [people like Mr. X], neither did according to his will, shall be beaten with many stripes. But he that knew not [the lost], and did commit things worthy of stripes, shall be beaten with few stripes” (Luke 12:47-48, KJV).

_Ephesians 1:11, KJV_ In whom also we have obtained an inheritance, being predestinated according to the purpose of him who worketh all things after the counsel of his own will.

In short, whenever I obey the Lord and end up in The Dumps because of it, He always shows up to let me know He’s on it and that it’s not me who’s off Track. Hearing clearly from God also helps you get _out_ of The Dumps since there’s no one more important than Him. Who cares what ungrateful faithless hypocrites think of me, God’s opinion is the only one that actually matters. That’s why the psalmist wrote “Though my father and mother forsake me, the _LORD_ will receive me” (Ps. 27:10, NIV). In other words, even though everyone including my own family members should reject me, as they have, if the Lord receives me, I’m more than OK. And the Lord has made it OBVIOUS through the material He’s had me put together that He has received me—even though _no one_ else has.

So, that was Saturday. Today is Thursday—less than a week later—and this is my outdoor garden _nursery_. I’ve been spending the week researching, sewing fabric containers, shopping, and planting. And already some plants have sprouted. And because of God’s leading hand, most of my materials have been free or _super_ cheap while being of higher quality than what I would have paid for elsewhere. For example, the cinderblocks at _The Forklift_ are much nicer than those at _Home Depot_ and _Lowes_ yet cost half as much. That doesn’t make a difference in this set up, but I might want to use them in front of the house at some point in a different manner.
Even if I only end up having a 50% success rate, with the number of seedlings I’ve planted and the variety that I’ve planted, I’ll still have a decent edible garden, and I have a great rewarding hobby—so, I’m happy. Most, if not all, of the money I spend (which will be for potting mix) should be recouped since I won’t have to spend it on toxic produce from the grocery store. Considering that Satan is the “god of this world” (2 Cor. 4:4, KJV) and it’s all about “money...root of all evil” (1 Tim. 6:10, KJV), my guess is that even the organic produce isn’t all that organic. And if my winter sown seedlings turn out to very successful—and I planted way more than I could possibly use—I’ll have a seedling yard sale.

I also plan on making more statues to hold some of my plants in front of the house, raise up off the ground to make it harder on bunnies and slugs. It’ll also be fun to get home from the gym seeing those guys faithfully holding the fruit of my labor—as I come back in to my dungeon to work for such outrageously ungrateful people. And if anyone were to steal them I’d have an excuse to make more! (It’s only $8 for loads of cement.) And if they were to get stolen, the second time around I’d make them bigger and reveal those biceps—sending the thieves a message. And it occurs to me that that’s exactly what the Lord has been doing. He came as a baby. Sent us a message through the book of Acts along with the many signs of the times throughout history, especially the last century, and even more so during our lifetime, showing us not only how powerful He is but that He’s soon coming back to finish the job. And His muscles are way big.

So that’s the thing about walking with the Lord. You can’t lose. In contrast, if you don’t walk with Him, you’re gonna lose everything! “For whoever has will be given more, and they will have an abundance. [But] Whoever does not have, even what they have will be taken from them” (Matt. 25:19, NIV). So what exactly is it that you either have or don’t have to start with? I discern it’s ultimately “faith [which]...is the gift of God” (Eph. 2:8, NIV). So while it’s a gift that comes from God, those of us who have been given this gift—the born again—have been granted the ability to exercise our faith in Him, or not, which I’ve been doing. Therefore, instead of being overwhelmed with heartache, anger, and frustration—which I have been walking through—I’ve been having an overall pretty good time! Thank you, Jesus!

Moreover, we live in a time when everyone should be growing at least some of their own food, not only because of all the pesticides, but because hard times are coming when we might be unable to afford what they’re selling, have to stand in super long lines to buy super expensive food that will quickly run out since there won’t be enough of it, or not even allowed to leave our homes in a state of emergency. While God provides miraculously for the faithful, He’s also given us brains and requires that we do our part.
So I’ve been listening to tons of gardening channels on YouTube all week, and most of these people are New Agers. They think it’s “Mother Nature” doing her thing when it’s Father God “the gardener” (John 15:1, NIV), who’s doing His thing. So while I tried very hard to get my mind on something else—and was successful—God ALSO kept reminding me that there’s NO WAY to reach any of them with the truth while born again Christians are so self absorbed!

Therefore, since the Lord led me to speak to Mr. X—who He knew wouldn’t even let me in the door—asking Him about Mr. X and what exactly He’s doing, the only thing He’s impressed me with, which He did pretty early on, probably on Sunday, was this. I don’t remember exactly how...I’ve been watching lots of New Testament movies, The Miracle Maker (1999) and several other adult and children’s versions of the Gospel, along with some Bible teachings on YouTube... So, somewhere in all of that, I was impressed that it’ll be like when Mary was pregnant and Joseph had in mind to divorce her quietly” (Matt. 1:19, NIV). Joseph was CERTAIN, without a doubt, that Mary was in the wrong, just like Mr. X is about me, since he wouldn’t even listen to anything I had to say. (And he’s like all the Christians have been on my path FOR TWO DECADES!) The difference is that Joseph had a legitimate reason for thinking the way he did (since virgins do not have babies) whereas Mr. X (along with all the hard hearted Christians) has NO REASON—nothing biblical anyhow. So after over two decades of this, having reached out to people in all walks of life, believer and unbeliever alike, highly educated and not as educated—and not educated at all—all ages, different races, male and female...and all of them have had zero ears to hear, it’s clear to me that the ONLY way anyone will be able to “run” with the message the Lord called me to “write” (Hab. 2:2-3 below), will be if God steps in supernaturally, like He did with Joseph (Matt. 1:20 below) and shakes their ground.

Habakkuk 2:2-3, KJV The Lord answered me, and said, Write the vision, and make it plain upon tables, that he may run that readeth it. For the vision is yet for an appointed time, but at the end it shall speak, and not lie: though it tarry, wait for it; because it will surely come, it will not tarry.

Matthew 1:20, NIV After he had considered this, an angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream and said, “Joseph son of David, do not be afraid to take Mary home as your wife, because what is conceived in her is from the Holy Spirit.”

God will either speak to His people about this ministry in their dreams or draw them to the YouTube channel or website and impress them of the truth behind it. He’s going to have to do that supernaturally. I’m done reaching out to anyone. There’s no point whatsoever. Sure, if God asked me to do it I would, but I don’t see Him asking me to do it anymore. It’s basically what Jesus told Peter:

When Jesus came into the coasts of Caesarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, saying, Whom do men say that I the Son of man am? And they said, Some say that thou art John the Baptist: some, Elias; and others, Jeremias, or one of the prophets. He saith unto them, But whom say ye that I am? And Simon Peter answered and said, Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God. And Jesus answered and said unto him, Blessed art thou, Simon Barjona: for flesh and blood hath not revealed it unto thee, but my Father which is in heaven (Matt. 16:13-17, KJV).
So that's what I'll be praying for once I get this nasty feeling completely out of my system, that He sends His angels to invade everyone's space—speaking of the born again, including Mr. X. But concerning this nasty feeling I've got, I'll give you a picture of it. During my lost days of bar hopping when I was in college, God used a couple to help me move in the right direction. These two were kissing while one of them was actually throwing up! (They were that stoned!) That's the nasty feeling I have. It's pretty bad. Christians make me SICK. I can only wonder how Jesus, who suffered so brutally for us, feels. Well, I don't have to imagine. It's as He says, There's a warm smell of colitas rising up through the air, because, “if anyone does not love the Lord, let that person be cursed!” (1 Cor. 15:22, NIV), so says the New Testament. And “it is time for judgment to begin with God's household...it begins with us” (1 Pet. 4:17, NIV).

And the thing is, while we totally DO NO deserve anything good from the Lord, He is still remembering mercy (Hab. 3:2 in the graphic) while pouring out His wrath. The Lord clearly showed me this through a Christian gardener, Paul Gautschi, and the Back to Eden Gardening documentary. God gave this man an amazing revelation about how to garden with the least amount of effort and outstanding results, for our day. And it's interesting, while he was given this great revelation, he was not enlightened to some important issues concerning Christianity. That's because, as God says, “I will do all my pleasure” (Isa. 46:10, KJV) and He has different work for each member of the body of Christ, which is why we need to listen to each other! He made that very clear in this passage:

As it is, there are many parts, but one body. The eye cannot say to the hand, “I don’t need you!” And the head cannot say to the feet, “I don’t need you!” On the contrary, those parts of the body that seem to be weaker are indispensable...God has put the body together, giving greater honor to the parts that lacked it, so that there should be no division in the body, but that its parts should have equal concern for each other. If one part suffers, every part suffers with it; [but] if one part is honored, every part rejoices with it (1 Cor. 12:20-26, NIV).

It's like Christians haven't paid any attention to the Lord at all concerning the body of Christ!
Behold, he cometh with clouds; and every eye shall see him, and they also which pierced him: and all kindreds of the earth shall wail because of him. Even so, Amen.
Revelation 1:7, KJV
