Testimony of How I Received this Book

As the Lord had been doing since 1998, in 2012 He led me to speak to another set of so-called pastors, referred to by Jesus as “hireling[s who] careth not for the sheep” (John 10:13, KJV). This time it was to the leaders of Riverdale Baptist in Largo, Maryland, so that I wrote them ‘the message’ in the form of a book. I then handed it to them before the service. Then during the service the visiting pastor, their mentor, preached “prophets have to wait, but they’ll experience joy while waiting.” Heart shattered because I heard God say “prophets have to wait” I decided to take a break for a day and go to the beach. And because it’s over two hours away I headed to the library to get a CD for the road trip. As I was in the custom of doing, before going to look for my CD I went into the sale section asking the Lord if He had anything for me when my eyes immediately landed on this book with my name on it. And looking over the cover I realized that He did have something for me, something fun, and was reminded of what else the hireling had said, that prophets would experience “joy while waiting.”

The Cover

There’s a peculiar child who’s stuck between the General, who’s also the King, and His wife, the Queen.

Being Peculiar. As the story unfolds you see that the girl, Maya/me, is peculiar because Jesus “gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify unto himself a peculiar people, zealous of good works” (Titus 2:14, KJV).

A Child. She’s a child—I’m represented by a child—because “whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child, he shall not enter therein” (Mark 10:15, KJV).

The Queen. The queen represents the Church, the “body of Christ” (1 Cor. 12:27, KJV) because our “Maker is [our] husband” (Isa. 54:5, KJV) and “the husband is the head of the wife, even as Christ is the head of the church” (Eph. 5:23, KJV). And He’s “the blessed and only Potentate, the King of kings, and Lord of lords” (1 Tim. 6:15, KJV).

The General. This general is the Commander in Chief because He represents Jesus the “Captain of [our] salvation” (Heb. 2:10, KJV). He’s a general because Scripture says “the LORD is a man of war” (Ex. 15:3, KJV). However, as I cover in Satan Exposed: Rightly Dividing the Word, the LORD spoken of in this instance, the “man of war” is the “god of this world” (2 Cor. 4:4, KJV), Satan, who the body of Christ has confused with God, both the Father and the Son, for not “rightly dividing the word of truth” (2 Tim. 2:15, KJV). While Jesus is not a man of war He does hand us over to Satan for the destruction of our flesh (1 Cor. 5:5). He’s the One in control being that “all things were created by him, and for him” (Col. 1:16, KJV). Again, as explained in great detail in Satan Exposed, He appears in the Bible, especially in the Old Testament, as a combination of God and Satan. Anyhow, this general is the King because “he hath on his vesture and on his thigh a name written, KING OF KINGS” (Rev. 19:16, KJV).

Stuck in the Middle. Maya is stuck between the two because while “there is...one mediator between God and men [Jesus]” (1 Tim. 2:5, KJV), God uses regular people whom He has called as prophets as mediators, like “when Moses held up his hand, [so] that Israel prevailed: [but] when he let down his hand, [the enemy] prevailed” (Ex. 17:11, KJV). For another example, we read “Elijah was a human being, even as we are” (James 5:17, NIV).

The Banquet. They're at a banquet because Jesus says "Behold, I stand at the door, and knock: if any man hear my voice, and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me" (Rev. 3:20, KJV), and dining with Jesus isn't just any ol' meal! Also because we're nearing the best dining experience of all about which God says "Blessed are they which are called unto the marriage supper of the Lamb" (Rev. 19:19, KJV). Our fellowship with Christ is dining with Him and leads to our greatest meal with Him, the marriage supper. Except that will just be the first meal with Him of many meals with Him in the flesh.

Dirty Looks. The Queen/the Church/the "body of Christ" (1 Cor. 12:27, KJV) is giving Maya/me a pretty dirty look while the General eyeballs the girl who's a bit scared of Him. The body of Christ gives me (Maya) 'dirty looks' because, as prophesied, "because iniquity shall abound, the love of many shall wax cold" (Matt. 24:12, KJV) and "a prophet is not without honor except in his own town and in his own home" (Matt. 13:57, NIV). And under the new covenant the "home" of all born again souls is the body of Christ. The NIV says "Because of the increase of wickedness, the love of most will grow cold" (Matt. 24:12, NIV) and they got that right! As my life testimony reveals, professing Christians are extremely unloving to God and man. As He says "Men love...darkness rather than light, because [ou]r deeds [a]re evil" (John 3:19, KJV). As summed up with the apostasy timeline, the body of Christ has historically NOT obeyed the Lord in increasing measure so that humanity's deeds have become increasingly wicked.

God is Watching. The King/Jesus eyeballs the girl because it's as He says, "I the Lord search the heart and examine the mind, to reward each person according to their conduct, according to what their deeds deserve" (Jer. 17:10, KJV). God is always eyeballing us!

Fearing the Man More than Man. Maya's a bit scared of the King because I know that "it is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God" (Heb. 10:31, KJV) since He passes us over to Satan having said "Hand this man over to Satan for the destruction of the flesh, so that his spirit may be saved on the day of the Lord" (1 Cor. 5:5, KJV) and He gave me a decent taste of what that's like shared in Led by the Spirit: My Testimony, Part 2. As you can see by her eyes, Maya fears the King/God more than the Queen/the body of Christ, as the psalmist wrote "Blessed is that man that maketh the LORD his trust, and respecteth not the proud, nor such as turn aside to lies" (Ps. 40:4, KJV).

Loving Food. Maya inhales her food eyes on the King because Jesus' "flesh is meat indeed, and [His] blood is drink indeed" (John 6:55, KJV). In the more modern translation He says "My flesh is real food" (John 6:55, NIV). Therefore, when His "words were found, I [Maya] did eat them" (Jer. 15:16, KJV). And Jesus' "name is called The Word of God" (Rev. 19:13, KJV). Since He's both the food and the Word the girl/Maya/me inhales her Food. He says "O taste and see that the LORD is good: blessed is the man that trusteth in him" (Ps. 34:8, KJV). "Delight thyself also in the LORD: and he shall give thee the desires of thine heart" (Ps. 37:4, KJV). You delight in God by inhaling the Word of God, the Food—by spending tons of time with Him, obediently.

Eyes on Christ. Maya's eyes are on the King rather than the Queen who represents the body of Christ because of "this great company that cometh against us [the New World Order, so while we don't know] what to do...[her/my] eyes are upon [Him]" (2 Chron. 20:12, KJV). And anyone who's even remotely awake can take one look at the Queen, the body of Christ and KNOW they have no clue as to what to do about our plight, most aren't even aware that we're in a fix!

Maya's Favorite Sauce. This sauce on the table, is a 'sauce' I'd written about in the original book the Lord called me to write three years before giving me this Maya book, calling it 828 after Romans 8:28. It's Maya's favorite sauce because "all things work together for good to them that love God" (Rom. 8:28, KJV). This is a point God makes very clear through my personal testimony shared in five books on my website presented as spiritual markers.

Twisted Noodles. Maya loves this sauce on pasta because "the blood of Jesus...cleanseth us from all sin" (1 John 1:7, KJV). And pasta, twisted noodles, represent both the Lord and the body of Christ—something God confirmed with the biblical interpretation of the movie Ratatouille (2007) for which He later gave me an interpretation. In that movie the main character, Linguini (a pretty twisted noodle), represents God's people, as well as the Lord. And, like all the biblical interpretations it parallels what's gone down and will be going down. The noodles are twisted because Jesus has a sense of humor—as He's revealing through these biblical interpretations along with my personal testimony. He's also revealing that we, the body of Christ, are seriously twisted.

For example, while we're at a time when it's as serious as it gets since we're coming into the worst period of all of human history, this is when Jesus is revealing His sense of humor more than He ever has publicly before, and that's twisted. And God's people are twisted because even though Jesus informed us how to defeat Satan, the body of Christ has continued to serve him! The New Testament clearly says "submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you" (James 4:7, KJV). Instead, professing Christians rebuke you when you hold them accountable to God's Word and DEFEND Satan by persevering in his ways!

Inside Cover

Fat dogs just stand there. They represent the "hireling[s who]...care...not for the sheep" (John 10:13, KJV). God says they are "watchmen [who] are blind: they are all ignorant, they are all dumb dogs, they cannot bark; sleeping, lying down, loving to slumber. Yea, they are greedy dogs which can never have enough, and they are shepherds that cannot understand: they all look to their own way, every one for his gain" (Isa. 56:10-11, KJV). This is so obviously true and the clip makes the point.

Therefore, "outside are the dogs, those who practice magic arts, the sexually immoral, the murderers, the idolaters and everyone who loves and practices falsehood" (Rev. 22:15, NIV). And Christianity AS A WHOLE practices falsehood! And has done so for most of Christian history! You don't have to take my word for it since the New Testament clearly reveals it and in 2008 God also had Frank Viola and George Barna publish Pagan Christianity: Exploring the Roots of Our Church Practices. These are the pagan, satanic roots, our Christianity's practices.

First Title Page

You can tell Maya's having fun while being a follower and a servant. The girl is having fun because "the joy of the LORD is [my] strength" (Neh. 8:10, KJV), as God reveals through this ministry. And she's a follower and servant because Jesus says "If any man serve me, let him follow me; and where I am, there shall also my servant be: if any man serve me, him will my Father honour" (John 12:26, KJV). God is revealing through every aspect of this ministry just how much He has honored me, which He touches on in this Maya book, for those with eyes that see.

Maya's Got Funky Feet. Her feet are in socks to draw attention to them because it's an important aspect of this Maya, the follower of Christ. God says "How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of him that bringeth good tidings, that publisheth peace; that bringeth good tidings of good, that publisheth salvation; that saith unto Zion, Thy God reigneth!" (Isa. 52:7, KJV).

And since even the born again have chased after the things of the world rather than followed hard after Jesus (Rev. 13:3 & Phil. 2:21 below), this Maya totally doesn't fit in. In other words, it's the same for me in real life as it is for Maya in the book. Her feet/my ways disturb the undiscerning who focus more on the outward appearance when "the Lord looks at the heart" (1 Sam. 16:7, NIV).

Revelation 13:3, KJV All the world wondered after the beast.

Philippians 2:21, KJV For all seek their own, not the things which are Jesus Christ's.

Maya Carries Quite a Load. It's a huge load for a mere child [of God] because it concerns "the care of all the churches" (2 Cor. 11:28, KJV) as we approach the time of the world's greatest need when there "shall be great tribulation, such as was not since the beginning of the world to this time, no, nor ever shall be" (Matt. 24:21, KJV). Yet "who hath believed our report? and to whom is the arm of the LORD revealed?" (Isa. 53:1, KJV). As of January 2021, NO ONE, even though God has had me trying to get through to Christians for over TWO DECADES! However, He did tell me He wouldn't remove the blinders until His "appointed time" (Hab. 2:3, KJV). What He was doing in having me reach out to people has several aspects to it:

1. He was laying down dormant seeds;
2. He was revealing/will be revealing that it is as He says, "the heart is...desperately wicked" (Jer. 17:9, KJV). It's like Joshua said way back when to God's people, "You are witnesses against yourselves that you have chosen to serve the LORD" (Josh. 24:22, NIV); and,
3. Being that the body of Christ has made the current mess we're in over the course of the last 2000 years, it's required time for me to get as enlightened as I am today.

Second Title Page

Maya closely eyes her food. This girl, who represents me, is like the Bereans who “were more noble than...[others], in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, and searched the scriptures daily, [to see] whether those things [others were feeding her] were so” (Acts 17:11, KJV). Also, because God says “Do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits to see whether they are from God, because many false prophets have gone out into the world” (1 John 4:1, NIV). Eyeing her food represents “tak[ing] captive every thought to make it obedient to Christ” (2 Cor. 10:5, KJV). What she’s doing—what I’ve been doing—is what all Christians should do, run everything people are feeding us through God’s Word in relation to the new covenant—like running it all through a sieve so that we can catch all the lies.

God’s Word is a Sifter

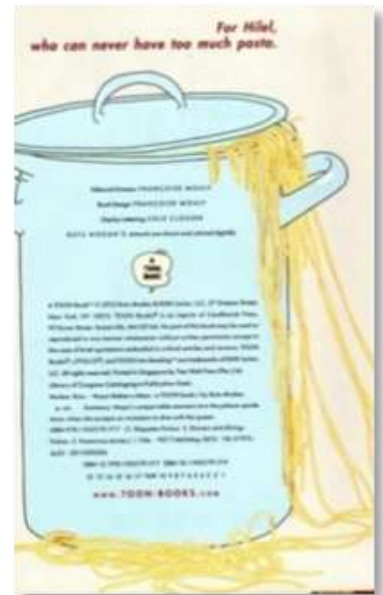

Maya Eats Like a Pig! Maya porks out because it’s as the Bible says, “O taste and see that the LORD is good: blessed is the man that trusteth in him” (Ps. 34:8, KJV). And because “I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth” (Rom. 1:16, KJV).

In the original book the Lord had me write in 2009, He led me to write a section about cooking, and doing it properly because His disciples have been called to “feed [His] sheep” (John 21:17, KJV). That section is now a book I’ve called A Culinary Parable.

What God is doing is about cooking because “the disciples d[o] as Jesus ha[s] appointed [us]; and...ma[k]e ready the passover” (Matt. 26:19, KJV). This refers to when God passed over the faithful, sparing their lives, while letting the angel of death kill the firstborn males among the Egyptians (Ex. 12:29-30 below) since they worshipped false gods—and God hasn’t changed. He says “For I am the LORD, I change not” (Mal. 3:6, KJV).

Exodus 12:29-30, KJV And it came to pass, that at midnight the Lord smote all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, from the firstborn of Pharaoh that sat on his throne unto the firstborn of the captive that was in the dungeon; and all the firstborn of cattle. And Pharaoh rose up in the night, he, and all his servants, and all the Egyptians; and there was a great cry in Egypt; for there was not a house where there was not one dead.

But, again, “the Lord” here is actually Satan, “god of this world” (2 Cor. 4:4, KJV) because “him that had the power of death, that is, the devil” (Heb. 2:14, KJV). All the power the devil/Satan has, as well as all his minions, is power granted by God. That’s why God says “Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you” (James 4:7, KJV). It’s like He’s saying honor me and I won’t let Satan or any of the forces of evil mess with you. And because God’s covenant is with us as a group called the “body of Christ” (1 Cor. 12:27, KJV), if we want Satan to take a hike we have to honor Him as a group.

Copyright & The Cost. While Maya Makes a Mess was published in 2012, God provided it for me in 2012 for just 26 cents even though it's priced at $12.95. Because it's like salvation. To us, it's a freebie which cost Him plenty. Therefore, it will cost us something, like 26 cents—nothing compared to what it cost Him. It's a freebie to us because we're "saved through faith; and that [faith is] not of...ourselves [it doesn't come from us]: it is the gift of God" (Eph. 2:8, KJV). However, it cost Jesus intense "agony...[so that] his sweat was...great drops of blood falling down to the ground" (Luke 22:44, KJV). So while salvation is free to us since faith is a gift from God, our "fellowship [with Jesus is in] his sufferings" (Phil. 3:10, KJV) so that we still have to "work out...our own salvation with fear and trembling" (Phil. 2:12, KJV). In other words, in God's eyes we have put in our 26 cents worth.

Maya's parents, her elders—representing "the hireling[s]" (John 10:13, KJV) and all Christian "hypocrites" (Matt. 23:13, KJV)—the body of Christ—rebuke her. Like Jesus and all the prophets, I have "suffer[ed] many things [because] of the elders" (Matt. 16:21, KJV). But it's not just because even the most mature born again souls are hypocrites, it's also because "the servant [of Christ] is not greater than his lord. [Since] they have persecuted [Jesus], they will also persecute [His servants]" (John 15:20, KJV).

Maya's elders don't like how she shoves her food down her throat and lets it fall on the floor for the dog. They think she should eat like them. Again, Jesus is the Food since His "flesh is meat indeed" (John 6:55, KJV). And "when they [the Jewish elders] saw some of his disciples eat bread...they found fault" (Mark 7:2, KJV). Likewise, the body of Christ, especially among the "leaders" have found fault with me because I don't think or live like them. Rather than go with the flow of the masses—a mass of people headed to "destruction" (Matt. 7:13, KJV)—I've gone against the grain of unbelievers and the body of Christ. I'm like Maya in the book who basically ignores them and lets "the dog...eat of the crumbs which fall from the...masters' table" (Matt. 15:27, KJV). I ignore professing Christians since they're unbiblical, and, as the Lord leads, I feed people whatever 'crumbs' I can, as with this little magnet He had me make for the cleaning lady at the gym. And that is about a crumb's worth! Because the body of Christ is currently so unfaithful that's the best we can do right now!

Since Christians are so unfaithful they look at me like I'm an idiot for being faithful. Like the hypocritical Jewish leaders, today's "believers" think I should be worldly and unbiblical like them blind to that's what they are. But Jesus says "This people honoureth me with their lips, but their heart is far from me...in vain do they worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men" (Mark 7:6-7, KJV). And again, God had Viola and Barna reveal that they're teaching the commandments of men. And He's had many others revealing different aspects of it so He's had me sum it all up in this ministry, and especially in God's Plan: A Vision for the Body.

Until there's a move of repentance among a group—so that I'm not totally alone—all I can do is feed people 'crumbs.' There's no way to feed the lost any more than that since all of Christianity—especially where I live—is doing something completely different (completely unbiblical); even in the house churches. There's no way the lost are going to believe that one person has it right when EVERYONE ELSE is doing something else while professing to be Christian. That's NOT the system God set up as revealed in the New Testament. What the body of Christ is currently doing is like saying Believe in Jesus but for God's sakes don't take Him too seriously!

Therefore, because of how they are Maya gets an attitude. And that's how it's been, as God is my witness.

Page 6: Christians are Standing in God's Way

Maya's parents (representing the body of Christ) don't let her do anything. No matter what she does it's not right in their eyes, which has been my life. As my 22-year testimony reveals, nothing I do is right in Christian eyes, even among the more supposedly mature, because "a prophet is not without honour, save in his own country, and in his own house" (Matt. 13:57, KJV). And my own 'country and house' is the kingdom of God/Christianity/the body of Christ (Heb. 11:16 below). What's gone down and revealed in the story is what Jesus prophesied when He said "I send unto you prophets, and wise men, and scribes: and some of them ye shall...persecute...from city to city" (Matt. 23:34, KJV). Hold today's Christian leaders accountable to God's Word and they tell you to leave "their" church or their group. Or allow you to hang out with them only as long as you don't say anything at all concerning the truth.

Hebrews 11:16, KJV They desire a better country, that is, an heavenly: wherefore God is not ashamed to be called their God: for he hath prepared for them a city.

Therefore, since "a broken spirit drieth the bones" and "a merry heart doeth good like a medicine" (Prov. 17:22, KJV) God has helped me with this miserable calling by giving me the discernment to see what others can't see. However, one day, in God's "appointed time" a remnant will have eyes to see (Hab. 2:2-3 below). That remnant is referred to as the "two witnesses" to whom God will "give power [in the very last of the last days]...so that they shall prophesy a thousand two hundred and threescore days [3½ years], clothed in sackcloth" (Rev. 11:3, KJV). They'll be the ones who repent and move forward doing what Jesus told us to do, "Produce fruit in keeping with repentance" (Matt. 3:8, NIV), or as the literal translation says, "worthy of the reformation" (Matt. 3:8, YLT).

Habakkuk 2:2-3, KJV The LORD answered me, and said, Write the vision, and make it plain upon tables, that he may run that readeth it. For the vision is yet for an appointed time.

With so many rules that are NOT part of the new covenant—Maya really gets an attitude. Especially since the man (representing Christians) is such a hypocrite. Ironically, he has Maya consider her manners. It’s ironic because his manners/Christianity’s manners are so atrocious—as God is revealing.

Speaking of commanding “certain people not to teach false doctrines any longer” (1 Tim. 1:3, NIV) we’re told “the goal of this command is love, which comes from a pure heart and a good conscience and a sincere faith. [Most] have departed from these and have turned to meaningless talk. [While they call themselves] teachers of the law [in other words, Christian]...they do not know what they are talking about or what they so confidently affirm” (1 Tim. 1:5-7, NIV). They don’t actually know Jesus! (If they did, they’d be interpreting God’s Word hidden in plain sight like He has me doing.) Therefore, Jesus continues to say “Hypocrites! You shut the door of the kingdom of heaven in people’s faces. You yourselves do not enter, nor will you let those enter who are trying to” (Matt. 23:13, NIV).

What Maya’s parents do/what Christians are doing is what the Jews did when Jesus walked the earth, “transgress the commandment of God by [thei]r tradition” (Matt. 15:3, KJV) while rebuking Him as if He was the one at fault. And since I represent Him as an “ambassador...of Christ” (2 Cor. 5:20, KJV), they rebuke me—and therefore the girl in the book.

And it’s what the pastors at Riverdale in Largo, MD and at Eagle in Indianapolis did with me, and all those churches in between. Eagle was the first and Riverdale was the last institutional church the Lord had me reach out to, ending it in 2012. Since then He’s only had me reach out to leaders in the house churches—for the same unbiblical response. Every Christian on my path has ignored their need to repent, and some of them (like Riverdale and Eagle) have instead focused on my past—my life before I was born again, even though Jesus forgave me of those sins! It’s what 8 year olds do!

And these two—Eagle and Riverdale—represent the brains and Ground Zero of Christianity in the United States, even the world, since Eagle was mentored by RZIM and Riverdale Baptist is 15 minutes from the capital of the world’s superpower. Yet unknown to me at the time, while Ravi was a super brain, he actually worshipped Satan! He was a “deceiver” (Titus 1:10, KJV). And, again unknown to me at the time, when the Lord had me reach out to Riverdale one of their elders was in court for having sexually abused a child, which is standard practice among institutional professing Christian leaders—speaking of Protestants.

In any case, they’ve all been deaf to God and helping Satan while professing to love Jesus, which is why they’ve been deaf and blind to what God has been saying to them through me—and through so many others.

Someone is Knocking. The doorbell rings while they're dining. And Jesus says "I stand at the door, and knock" (Rev. 3:20, KJV). "Sound an alarm...let all the inhabitants of the land tremble: for the day of the LORD cometh, for it is nigh at hand" (Joel 2:1, KJV). Because Christians have ignored God's commands for most of Christian history, everyone is getting caught off guard to one degree or another. He said "In such an hour as ye think not the Son of man cometh" (Matt. 24:44, KJV).

And, as prophesied, He's first coming as a move of the Spirit, the "latter rain" (Joel. 2:23 below), as with these biblical interpretations which are a reflection of God "in wrath remember[ing] mercy" (Hab. 3:2, KJV). Then—shortly after the later rain—He'll come back in person, the timeline for which I walk through in God's Plan: A Vision for the Body. He says "I am coming soon! My reward is with me, and I will give to each person according to what they have done" (Rev. 22:11, KJV).

Joel 2:23, KJV Be glad then, ye children of Zion, and rejoice in the LORD your God: for he hath given you the former rain moderately, and he will cause to come down for you the rain, the former rain, and the latter rain.

Ding Dong! The expression on the door means 'What a Dimwit!' Or 'Hhhellooo? Is ANY body home?' God is using it because His people—especially so-called church leaders—are dense. Jesus says "I am the door" (John 10:7, KJV). "I set watchmen over you, saying, Hearken to the sound of the trumpet. But they said, We will not" (Jer. 6:17, KJV)—and that's my 22-year testimony. So that He still asks, two thousand years into this thing, "Are you still so dull?" (Matt. 15:16, NIV, my emphasis). It's time to ANSWER the Door! He says "By me if any man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall go in and out, and find pasture" (John 10:9, KJV).

Dining. The body of Christ has been dining—celebrating the Lord's supper—unbiblically for most of the past two thousand years! Yet God warned us saying "He that eateth and drinketh unworthily, eateth and drinketh damnation to himself, not discerning the Lord's body. For this cause many are weak and sickly among you, and many sleep [are dead, dying, or getting killed, as with the use of Directed Energy Weapons in weaponized weather]. For if we would judge ourselves, we should not be judged" (1 Cor. 11:29-31, KJV).

While God made a way through Jesus for us to have life "more abundantly" (John 10:10, KJV), because of our rebellion we've instead made fellowship with God and man a dry meaningless ritual. Yet the Lord's supper is called "love feasts" (Jude 1:12, YLT) so that we could have been having the time of our lives like celebrating Thanksgiving every week or even every day with mentally and spiritually healthy people as opposed to dysfunctional ones. (1\) The False "Church System" Deception - YouTube).

Page 8-9: God is Ever Faithful

A messenger has come with news, an invitation, which takes them all by surprise. This little man represents an angel. God says “Do not forget to show hospitality to strangers, for by so doing some people have shown hospitality to angels without knowing it” (Heb. 13:2, KJV). Yet today’s Christians—like the man in the book—can’t even show hospitality to other Christians! The literal version translated the term angel as “messenger.” It says “of the hospitality be not forgetful, for through this unawares certain did entertain messengers” (Heb. 13:2, YLT).

In any case, this ‘angel’ says “Fear not: for, behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people” (Luke 2:10, KJV), to all who take God seriously. Jesus says “Come unto me...Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall find rest unto your souls” (Matt. 11:28-29, KJV). The message God is giving His people through the ministry He has entrusted to me will take everyone by surprise—to one degree or another—because the body of Christ hasn’t kept watch when Jesus said “Watch and pray, that ye enter not into temptation” (Matt. 26:41, KJV).

God Feeds Dogs. While the kingdom subjects haven’t been paying attention so that God says “You have a reputation of being alive, but you are dead” (Rev. 3:1, NIV), the poor dog—representing the lost elect—still gets fed. Because, “if we believe not, yet he abideth faithful: [since] he cannot deny himself” (2 Tim. 2:13, KJV). So it’s how the Lord saved this poor dog’s soul, testimony shared in Dead in Sin: My Testimony Part 1.

It’s About Royalty. While it’s a royal messenger with an invitation to a royal dinner party, the head of the home (the so called mature Christian, especially so-called pastors) is annoyed that their measly little dinner is being disrupted! Which is exactly how it is. And it’s about royalty because God says to the born again “Ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood” (1 Pet. 2:9, KJV). So while that messenger represents an angel, he also represents His people, because Jesus says “I send unto you prophets, and wise men, and scribes” (Matt. 23:34, KJV). And this messenger has an invitation to a royal dinner party because the party is ultimately “the marriage supper of the Lamb” (Rev. 19:9, KJV). And the head of the home is the man because “the husband is the head of the wife” (Eph. 5:23, KJV).

God Starts Knocking

The longer you put God off the more opportunities you waste and the harder your heart gets.

I stand at the door, and knock:
if any man hear my voice, and open the door,
I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me.
Revelation 3:20, KJV

I've been such a proud fool!

Annoyed by God's "Interruptions." While God is constantly knocking on the door of our hearts to get us to draw nearer to Him—summed up in the graphic—Christians view these invitations as interruptions. We first answer the “Door” (John 10:7, KJV) for salvation and then for the rest of our lives in order to get to know Him better and better. It's what He meant when He said things like the following, for example:

Without faith it is impossible to please God, because anyone who comes to him must believe that he exists and that he rewards those who earnestly seek him (Heb. 11:6, KJV).

Ye shall seek me, and find me, when ye shall search for me with all your heart (Jer. 29:13, KJV).

No one who's only become born again (as opposed to a follower of Christ) has searched for God will all their heart. It's most like He rudely interrupted their lives when they weren't even looking for Him (Isa. 65:1 below) or they were sorta looking for Him. In other words, becoming born again is just the first step.

Isaiah 65:1, KJV I am sought of them that asked not for me; I am found of them that sought me not.

God revealed how annoyed today's Christians get with His invitations through the prophet that approached John MacArthur during a service in 2015—a prophet most Christians thought was a false prophet when MacArthur is the false prophet! Charismatic false prophet confronts Pastor John MacArthur at Grace Community Church - YouTube

You can see by the look on MacArthur's face just how seriously he takes God. He doesn't. Because, not only is John MacArthur a “hireling [who] careth not for the sheep” (John 10:13, KJV), and therefore doesn't care for the Shepherd/Jesus either, he's an Illuminati Freemason, NOT born again. He's not actually Christian! There's plenty of proof besides his occult hand signs.

Timing is Everything. The invitation is for tonight. God says “To day if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts” (Heb. 3:15, KJV). Tomorrow is not guaranteed to anyone. Therefore “Behold, now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation” (2 Cor. 6:2, KJV).

Moreover, you don’t want to get “saved; yet so as by fire” (1 Cor. 3:15, KJV). You want to “receive a full reward” (2 John 1:8, KJV) and “obtain a better resurrection” (Heb. 11:35, KJV).

And the invitation is really coming from the King (not the Queen) since the man is a step above the woman since God says “Wives, submit yourselves unto your own husbands, as unto the Lord” (Eph. 5:22, KJV). It’s like when Esther had to get permission from her husband, the king, to have a banquet as we read in this passage:

Esther put on her royal apparel, and stood in the inner court of the king's house...And it was so, when the king saw Esther the queen standing in the court, that she obtained favour in his sight: and the king held out to Esther the golden sceptre that was in his hand. So Esther drew near (Esth. 5:1-2, KJV).

Porking Out is Required. Maya’s comment about already having eaten and the messenger’s reply refer to how we’re to feed on God 24/7, and also, about who’s the One in charge—it’s not us! God says “Fix these words of mine in your hearts and minds...Teach them to your children, talking about them when you sit at home and when you walk along the road, when you lie down and when you get up” (Deut. 11:18-19, NIV) because “It is your life” (Deut. 32:47, KJV).

Instead, most members of the body of Christ do little more than snack on God so that they “hate...instruction, and cast...[His] words behind the[m]”(Ps. 50:17, KJV).

Yet our will is NOTHING compared to His. He says “My counsel shall stand, and I will do all my pleasure” (Isa. 46:10, KJV, my emphasis). So it’s just as the messenger says to her objections. “So what?” to your will and what you want or what you even think. God rules.

Pages 10 & 11: We Have a High Calling

As the messenger gets things started, Maya waves goodbye from the plane to her family.

Moving Onward and Upward! Maya says goodbye to her family because they represent antichrists or apostate Christians who are also antichrist. Scripture says “the person without the Spirit does not accept the things that come from the Spirit of God but considers them foolishness, and cannot understand them because they are discerned only through the Spirit” (1 Cor. 2:14, NIV) and apostate born again Christians place beams in their eyes when being hypocrites which blind them, summed up with this graphic of a so-called mature Christian. She is leaving them behind for the kingdom—which is what I’ve done. Like David, who penned this verse inspired by the Spirit, “I have more understanding than all my teachers: [because God’s] testimonies are my meditation” (Ps. 119:99, KJV). In contrast most Christians, as revealed by my 22 year testimony and the history of Christianity, “hav[e] a form of godliness, but deny...the power thereof [and we’re told] from such turn away” (2 Tim. 3:5, KJV). Rather than live for the world, the girl is “seek[ing]...the kingdom of God” (Matt. 6:33, KJV).

Reving Things Up. The messenger (representing both God’s angel and God’s prophet) gets things started because God says “New things do I declare: before they spring forth I tell you of them” (Isa. 42:9, KJV). “The Sovereign LORD does nothing without revealing his plan to his servants the prophets” (Amos 3:7, KJV).

Wrongly Focused. As Maya sets out to leave them behind, they hold out some things for her ignoring the important stuff, like shoes. They are “blind guides, which strain at a gnat, and swallow a camel” (Matt. 23:24, KJV). Since shoes are so important in both the material and spiritual realm, that’s what should have concerned them. God says to the body of Christ “Stand firm then...with your feet fitted with the readiness that comes from the gospel” (Eph. 6:15, NIV). And Jesus is ALL ABOUT THE GOSPEL.

God’s Ways are NOT Ours! Maya’s funky feet and manner sum up how God is having me bring this Good News because it’s as He says “My thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways” (Isa. 55:8, KJV).

Proper Dress. God walked me through something years ago, way before 2012 and giving me this Maya book, making the point with another pretty little dress on another funky little ‘person.’ Bad Bunny. (Her full name is Dust Bunny.) He says “I counsel thee to buy of me gold tried in the fire, that thou mayest be rich; and white raiment, that thou mayest be clothed, and that the shame of thy nakedness do not appear” (Rev. 3:18, KJV). “The one who is victorious will, like them, be dressed in white [so that He says] I will never blot out the name of that person from the book of life, but will acknowledge that name before my Father and his angels” (Rev. 3:5, NIV).

God Mocks Us. While God is making fun of all of us, having said “He who is sitting in the heavens doth laugh, The Lord doth mock at them” (Ps. 2:4, YLT), especially mocking the hirelings, He was making fun of me at the time because He gave me the Maya book the week my youngest moved to campus having transferred from community college. A few years younger than the norm, I was freaking out trying not to be the crazy helicopter mom. It’s funny because I kept it all in, yet here He goes and makes fun of me anyhow knowing how I was feeling, because it’s just as we’re told in the following passage:

O lord, thou hast searched me, and known me. Thou knowest my downsitting and mine uprising, thou understandest my thought afar off. Thou compassest my path and my lying down, and art acquainted with all my ways (Ps. 139:1-3, KJV)..

In any case, as with all the interpretations He’s given me, all key players are represented so that I’ve summed it up on this table—Mom and Dad possibly in either of those two camps. As it is, considering their actions in the real world, it’s hard to tell whether they’re actually born again or not.

God’s Elect The Vessels of Mercy Today
View of the Bible	Don’t Claim to Believe	Claim to Believe	Claim to Believe	Believe

Born Again	No	No	Yes But Carnal	Yes
Follower of Christ	No	No	No	Yes
God’s View	Lost & Dead	Hypocrite Lost & Dead	Hypocrite & Dead	Faithful & Alive
Assessment	No Rewards	No Rewards	Lose Rewards	Earn Most Rewards

And elect is a more common term for the vessels of mercy from the following passage:

God, willing to shew his wrath, and to make his power known, endured with much longsuffering the vessels of wrath [non elect] fitted to destruction [during this present evil age” (Gal. 1:4, YLT), not forever]...that he might make known the riches of his glory on the vessels of mercy [the elect], which he had afore prepared unto glory [again, speaking of this present evil age and not forever] (Rom. 9:22-23, KJV).

Unlike what most Christians seem to think, elect does not mean born again. Paul said “I endure all things for the elect's sakes, that they may also obtain the salvation which is in Christ “ (2 Tim. 2:10, KJV). If elect meant born again, Paul's statement would make no sense. I cover it in the book Election: One of the Biggest Blinders.

Because born again Christians have not obeyed the Lord historically, we've had beams in our eyes blinding us. And because the body of Christ has been building on our apostasy for centuries, we have TONS of beams in our eyes today! Therefore, we've misunderstood MUCH—the essence—of what God has actually done! Rather than believe what Scripture actually says, we've believed Satan's lies some of which were inserted into the translations by the translators. Still, if you were to ignore what Christians teach and just read the New Testament in just about any translation, you'd come up with a different understanding than what Christianity has been teaching for most of Christian history and definitely for the past several centuries, since the Middle Ages and so-called Great Reformation. Again, I walk through in God's Plan: A Vision for the Body.

We're Nearly Out of Time.

Even though the King controls all and, therefore, has all the time in the world the messenger says there's no time to waste. While God, the King, is the “Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the ending” (Rev. 1:8, KJV), the problem (for us) is that we are on His schedule, not ours. Therefore, He said “Lo, I am sending a messenger before thee to keep thee in the way, and to bring thee in unto the place which I have prepared” (Ex. 23:20, YLT). That place is His Kingdom. And we're on His schedule because it's as He says. “At what instant I shall speak concerning a nation, and concerning a kingdom, to pluck up, and to pull down, and to destroy it; If that nation, against whom I have pronounced, turn from their evil, I will repent of the evil that I thought to do unto them” (Jer. 18:7-8, KJV). And He sent me to the body of Christ with a message of repentance starting in 1998—to deaf ears. And even though He warned us pretty clearly that He was planning to destroy this nation, the U.S., with the 9/11 attacks, Christians—those who profess to know and love the “truth” (John 14:6, KJV), the “Word of God” (Rev. 19:13, KJV)—have still continued to ignore Him and refuse to repent.

And, again, it's not God who destroys but Lord Satan, “god of this world” (2 Cor. 4:4, KJV). “For the Son of man is not come to destroy men's lives, but to save them” (Luke 9:54, KJV). However, when we refuse to honor God, we get handed over by Him to Satan who is very willing and able to brutally destroy us (1 Cor. 5:5).

Page 12: Lambs Headed for Slaughter

On the plane, Maya has a moment of trepidation as she considers dining with the Queen since she knows her manners and the Queen's differ greatly. This is exactly what I was doing when God gave me this book since He had just asked me to begin 'the routine' with these pastors at Riverdale. Not wanting to, since I know how it goes, God says "Work out your own salvation with fear and trembling" (Phil. 2:12, KJV). Like so many other times, I felt "like a lamb or an ox that is brought to the slaughter" (Jer. 11:19, KJV)—dreading moving forward yet moving forward, like she's doing in the plane.

God Helps Us with the Work He Calls Us to Do. Considering her hesitation, Maya is surprised when the flight attendant brings her refreshments. It's how I felt with God's song from OK Go (Needing Getting) and other things He did and provided that week, surprised considering how rebellious I was feeling. If only I had never met the Queen before!

The flight attendant represents an angel because angels are His servants as the angel told John when he bowed down to him. He said "Do it not: I am thy fellowservant" (Rev. 19:10, KJV). In fact, angels are "sent forth to minister for them who shall be heirs of salvation" (Heb. 1:14, KJV). God sends angels to help His elect and uses them however He wants to, however is needed.

Again, I was surprised that the Lord was ministering to me because I was feeling rebellious, sick of this calling. So it was like Elijah who said "It is enough; now, O LORD, take away my life; for I am not better than my fathers. [Yet] as he lay and slept under a juniper tree, behold, then an angel touched him, and said unto him, Arise and eat. And he looked, and, behold, there was a cake [cookies in this case] baked on the coals, and a cruse of water at his head [my guess is Kool Aid since the Lord is Cool and aids us]" (1 Kings 19:4-6, KJV).

Getting Taken for a Ride. In the song Hotel California by the Eagles—another resource the Lord has had me interpret—there's a point about the 'Rides' God takes me on as if they've all been manufactured by Mercedes-Benz who once made airplanes as Daimler-Benz, the song tying into both my husband's work as an aerospace engineer and the motorcycle I once had. The point is that God has nothing but the best for Maya (Ps. 84:11, below) even though it most often doesn't look or feel like it (Ps. 34:19; Rom. 8:28 below). This is a HUGE point God has made in the Bible—if only His people would read and believe it.

Psalm 84:11, KJV No good thing will he withhold from them that walk uprightly.

Psalm 34:19, KJV Many are the afflictions of the righteous: but the Lord delivereth him out of them all.

Romans 8:28, KJV All things work together for good to them that love God.

Page 13: Called to Live by Faith

On Captain's orders, the flight attendant warns all to buckle their seatbelts—because, you're in for a Ride! Jesus is "the captain of [our] salvation" (Heb. 2:10, KJV) and Christians were told to 'buckle their seatbelts' since God says "Stand firm...with the belt of truth buckled around your waist" (Eph. 6:14, KJV). And we're all in for a Ride because God says "I will shew [you] how great things [you] must suffer for my name's sake" (Acts 9:16, KJV). Christians get to experience a good portion of the tribulation because we've been so unfaithful—as God knew we would be being that He "make[s] known the end from the beginning" (Isa. 46:10, NIV).

Still, Maya's not too worried (1 John 4:18 & 4:8; Ps. 23:4 below).

1 John 4:18, KJV There is no fear in love; but perfect love casteth out fear: because fear hath torment. He that feareth is not made perfect in love.

1 John 4:8, KJV God is love.

Psalms 23:4, KJV Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

However, most Christians should be worried since they haven't buckled their seatbelts. They're not wearing "the belt of truth" (Eph. 6:14, KJV). If they don't repent they'll end up like the people Jesus spoke of in the following passages:

Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven. Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works? And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity (Matt. 7:21-23, KJV).

Other foundation can no man lay than that is laid, which is Jesus Christ...If any man's work abide which he hath built thereupon, he shall receive a reward. If any man's work shall be burned, he shall suffer loss: but he himself shall be saved; yet so as by fire (1 Cor. 3:11-15, KJV).

Seeing God's Hand. You should be able to see God's hand in this ministry. It's right there in the middle since He is the "captain" (Heb. 2:10, KJV).

Coming Near. The plane is coming in for a landing as the Lord returns (Rev. 3:11 below), having sent me (Isa. 6:8 below) to prepare the way because of how it is (Luke 3:4 & 2 Cor. 12:20 below).

Revelation 3:11, KJV Behold, I come quickly: hold that fast which thou hast, that no man take thy crown.

Isaiah 6:8, KJV I heard the voice of the Lord, saying, Whom shall I send, and who will go for us? Then said I, Here am I; send me.

Luke 3:4, KJV The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.

2 Corinthians 12:20, NIV [Jesus says] I am afraid that when I come I may not find you as I want you to be, and you may not find me as you want me to be. I fear that there may be discord, jealousy, fits of rage, selfish ambition, slander, gossip, arrogance and disorder.

Pages 14 & 15: Christians are Proud

A royal red carpet leads Maya to the Queen, the body of Christ, while the band plays on and the Queen's subjects and fat dogs stand by.

The Red Carpet Treatment. Essentially, all elect have been given The Red Carpet Treatment compared to what the non-elect get during the “present evil age” (Gal. 1:4, YLT) since they don't have the ability to chose Christ being that they were “fitted to destruction” (Rom. 9:22, KJV) for this present evil age. The New Testament says “as many as were ordained to eternal life believed” (Acts 13:48, KJV). However, the literal translation doesn't call it eternal life—since everyone is getting that—but “life age-during” (YLT). In other words, not all were ordained for life during the “coming ages” (Eph. 2:7, NIV), only the elect. But it's our choice—speaking of the elect—as to whether we walk on the red carpet or not. God says “He that overcometh, the same shall be clothed in white raiment; and I will not blot out his name out of the book of life” (Rev. 3:5, KJV). Apparently, all elect were born with their names written in the book of life since “he chose us in him before the creation of the world to be holy and blameless in his sight” (Eph. 1:4, NIV). But God will erase it, “blot” it out, if we don't become born again.

The Band. The band plays on because God's people “s[i]ng praises with gladness” (2 Chron. 29:30, KJV) for having been ordained to life age-during. Rather than being proud, the body of Christ is supposed to be humble. Jesus says “Do not rejoice that the spirits submit to you, but rejoice that your names are written in heaven” (Luke 10:20, NIV) since they could not have been written in heaven. We could just as easily have NOT been elect, not have had the ability to take God seriously during this life, this “present evil age” (Gal. 1:4, YLT). What God has done is as if the people He created—all of humanity—are pieces of gum in a pack of gum. And since I'm elect, I'm the one He chose to use for this calling. It has NOTHING to do with me! Yet Christians say “I accepted Jesus” as if it does have something to do with them when Jesus says “Ye have not chosen me, but I have chosen you” (John 15:16, KJV). They've missed the point. And if you can't get something as basic as that, you're not going get the more complicated stuff.

The Kingdom's People. The Queen's subjects, the body of Christ, which includes some of those fat dogs (the hirelings/the shepherds/so-called church leaders) stand there not looking too friendly towards Maya because “all seek their own, not the things which are Jesus Christ's” (Phil. 2:21, KJV) and “they are greedy dogs...[who] cannot understand” (Isa. 56:11, KJV).

And as Maya is greeted by the Queen, we see that she's no different than anyone else (James 5:17 below) as she's momentarily mesmerized by junk (James 4:4; 1 John 2:15-17, below)—that rock on the Queen's hand.

James 5:17, NIV Elijah was a human being, even as we are.

James 4:4, KJV Whosoever therefore will be a friend of the world is the enemy of God.

1 John 2:15-16, KJV Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him. For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world. [And the world is Satan's since he is the "god of this world" (2 Cor. 4:4, KJV).]

So while the Queen's children aren't real keen on Maya—as you can tell by their stance (the snobs)—God says “If ye had known what this meaneth, I will have mercy, and not sacrifice, ye would not have condemned the guiltless” (Matt. 12:7, KJV). “My little children, let us not love in word, neither in tongue; but in deed and in truth” (1 John 3:18, KJV). At some point—in God's “appointed time” (Hab. 2:3, KJV)—the body of Christ, will echo the Queen's words and acknowledge that it was good of me to come, meaning, good of me to obey the Lord.

The Queen Leads the Way. The Queen/the body of Christ who is soon to be the Bride of Christ leads everyone into the banquet hall with Maya right behind her who's getting disparaging looks from everyone since she totally doesn't fit in “for so persecuted they the prophets which were before [me]” (Matt. 5:12, KJV). And Scripture says the following:

God hath chosen the foolish things of the world to confound the wise; and God hath chosen the weak things of the world to confound the things which are mighty; And base things of the world, and things which are despised, hath God chosen, yea, and things which are not, to bring to nought things that are: That no flesh should glory in his presence (1 Cor. 1:27-29, KJV).

Through these booklets, especially the ones where I specifically share my testimony, God is making the point that all of those nothings highlighted represent my life. I am a TOTAL NOBODY in this world and fit it nowhere, just like Maya in the book. Compared to the rest, the girl is pretty odd.

The First Christians were Highly Empowered by God because they Obeyed Him as Individuals and as a Group

- They spoke in languages they hadn't studied (Acts 2:4-6);
- They healed the sick (Acts 3:2-7);
- They raised the dead (Acts 9:37-41);
- They drove out demons (Acts 16:16-18);
- They witnessed boldly (Acts 4:4);
- They prayed for their attackers as they killed them (Acts 7:58-60);
- They enlightened thousands at a time (Acts 7:58-60);
- Their shadows provided healing (Acts 5:14-16);
- Unbelievers admired them (Acts 2:47);
- They beamed around like in Star Trek (Acts 8:39-40);
- They were full of wisdom (Acts 6:3);
- They were full of generosity (Acts 4:34-35); and,
- They were full of joy (Acts 2:46).

The Queen's Role. Since I'm a child of God having "received the Spirit of adoption" (Rom. 8:15, KJV), and God is the "King" (1 Tim. 6:15, KJV) and all of His children make up His Bride since our "Maker is [our] husband" (Isa. 54:5, KJV), I am also represented by the Queen and I'm making this announcement, that the party, the latter rain, is about to begin. The latter rain is the party because God said that the former rain was moderate in comparison to the latter rain. He says "Be glad then, ye children of Zion, and rejoice in the LORD your God: for he hath given you the former rain moderately, and he will cause to come down for you the rain, the former rain, and the latter rain" (Joel 2:23, KJV). And the former rain was AMAZING summed up with this graphic for the book of Acts.

There's a fake version of the latter rain going on right now, as with Torben Sondergaard's Last Reformation, for example. There's a fake version since Satan is copying EVERYTHING Jesus is doing being that he set out to "be like the most High" (Isa. 14:14, KJV). All you need to do is compare what Torben (and so many others) are saying and doing with the New Testament. It's fake. I'm announcing the real version, the work Jesus is doing/will be doing. Through this ministry, especially the biblical interpretations God is proving that this is the real deal.

In fact, God made it pretty clear that I represent the Queen/the body of Christ with the places where I grew up—La Reina/The Queen in Santiago, Chile and Queens, New York, along with a whole bunch of other stuff shared in my testimony booklets, as with this swim meet where my brother and I hold the sign for our Team, The Queen, leading the way—as in let the party/the meet begin. According to Scripture there is no such thing as coincidence. For instance, the New Testament says that "He marked out their appointed times in history and the boundaries of their lands" (Acts 17:26, NIV). It was God's purpose to have me represent the Queen in many ways including with the places where I was born and raised. Because, it's as He says "My counsel shall stand, and I will do all my pleasure" (Isa. 46:10, KJV). The fact is that all born again are both individuals queens as well as the Queen collectively.

The Queen of Queens Married to the King of Kings

La Reina, Santiago, Chile
The Queen, the Bride of Christ

Queens, New York, New York
The Queen, the Bride of Christ

And it's the Queen who makes the announcement because as the Bride of Christ, She's the First Lady, the one hosting the party. So I'm like Esther who said "Come to the banquet" (Esth. 5:8, KJV). Eventually, the born again will no longer be ashamed of Christ or take Him for granted or be cold and mean to their brethren. They'll finally openly invite others to fellowship with them and with Christ, which they can't even do right now since most don't have fellowship with Christ. And they are ashamed of Christ since most of them NEVER evangelize much less regularly.

Set Apart. While everyone else is accompanied by someone, Maya walks alone enduring everyone's contempt, as you can see by their faces. As a servant of Christ "I am come in my Father's name, and ye receive me not: [yet] if another shall come in his own name, him ye will receive" (John 5:43, KJV).

However, I'm not really alone because the Lord is with me. He says "I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee" (Heb. 13:5, KJV). And He has said to His followers "Be ye separate...touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you" (2 Cor. 6:17, KJV). Christians aren't supposed to be just like the rest of the world—as they know!

Pages 16 & 17: The King's Table

Maya sits at the head of the court between the King/Jesus and the Queen/the body of Christ. It's where every prophet has 'sat' and where Jesus' close followers sat so that most of them have been martyred. The girl sits at the head of the table because "God has placed in the church first of all apostles, second prophets" (1 Cor. 12:28, NIV). Prophets are stuck between God and His Bride because they are sent by Him to "a rebellious nation that hath rebelled against [Him]" (Ezek. 2:3, KJV). As my 22-year testimony reveals, today's Christians have no discernment. It's like the NIV says "it is hard to make [things] clear to you because you no longer try to understand" (Heb. 5:11, NIV). Therefore, Christians call "evil good, and good evil" (Isa. 5:20, KJV)—just like the lost. God says "They have turned unto me the back, and not the face: though I taught them, rising up early and teaching them, yet they have not hearkened to receive instruction" (Jer. 32:33, KJV). So the Queen has her back to Maya/God's prophet/me—and, more importantly, to God/Jesus/the King.

And you can clearly see that Christians have 'their back' to God in these graphics since they honor the popes as the head of the Church rather than Christ, and all the key protestant leaders use occult hand signs.

The Catholic Church teaches that the pastoral office, the office of shepherding the Church, that was held by the apostles, as a group or "college" with Saint Peter as their head, is now held by their successors, the bishops, with the bishop of Rome (the pope) as their head.

Followers Follow. The King/God tells Maya/the prophet when to speak (Rev. 22:10 below) and when not to speak (Rev. 10:4 below), in the same way that He Himself (Jesus) didn't act on His own initiative (John 5:19-20 below).

Revelation 22:10, KJV He saith unto me, Seal not the sayings of the prophecy of this book: for the time is at hand.

Revelation 10:4, KJV I was about to write: and I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Seal up those things...and write them not.

John 5:19-20, KJV The Son can do nothing of himself, but what he seeth the Father do...For the Father loveth the Son, and sheweth him all things that himself doeth.

Turning a Blind Eye. Everyone at the table looks decent enough since “Man looketh on the outward appearance, but the LORD looketh on the heart” (1 Sam. 16:7, KJV). So they let dogs roam around freely. God says “Why do you make me look at injustice? Why do you tolerate wrongdoing?” (Hab. 1:3, NIV) God is referring, for example, to the nun who shouldn't be at the table. He says “Whosoever shall eat this bread, and drink this cup of the Lord, unworthily, shall be guilty of the body and blood of the Lord” (1 Cor. 11:26-27, KJV). The nun shouldn't be included at the table—considered Christian—because she is Catholic and the Vatican worships Satan, the leading antichrist, rather than Jesus, God's Christ. There is loads of information about it online. Yet, Christians today include Catholics at the table when God says “Ye cannot drink the cup of the Lord, and the cup of devils: ye cannot be partakers of the Lord's table, and of the table of devils” (1 Cor. 10:21, KJV). Therefore, He says “I have a few things against thee, because thou sufferest that woman Jezebel, which calleth herself a prophetess [as in the Catholic church which calls herself Christian]...I will cast her...and them that commit adultery with her into great tribulation, except they repent of their deeds” (Rev. 2:20, KJV). And this is just one grave sin the body of Christ is committing—one of many, the most important of which I address in God's Plan: A Vision for the Body.

Pages 18 & 19: Servants Serve the Meal

God has been sending His prophets/the waiters/servants for 2000 years and the body of Christ hasn't listened to them, for the most part, just like the Hebrews didn't listen to them. So He continues to say the following:

Since the day that your fathers came forth out of the land of Egypt unto this day I have even sent unto you all my servants the prophets, daily rising up early and sending them: Yet they hearkened not unto me, nor inclined their ear, but hardened their neck: they did worse than their fathers (Jer. 7:25-26, KJV).

What the body of Christ has done is much worse than what the Hebrews did since we've had access to the completed Word of God, the Bible, along with access to the "Spirit whom God [gives] to those who obey him" (Acts 5:32, NIV).

The Feast. Even though dinner (John 6:55 below) was served 2000 years ago (Mark 1:14-15 below), Christians, as led by the "hireling[s]" (John 10:13, KJV) have made the Meal/Jesus, the "bread of life" (John 6:48, KJV), the "food" (John 6:55 below) look very unappetizing—just like in the book. Two thousand years ago it was like the following passage:

They, continuing daily with one accord in the temple, and breaking bread from house to house, did eat their meat with gladness and singleness of heart, Praising God, and having favour with all the people. And the Lord added to the church daily such as should be saved (Acts 2:46-47, KJV).

John 6:55, NIV For my flesh is real food and my blood is real drink.

Mark 1:14-15, KJV Now after that John was put in prison, Jesus came into Galilee, preaching the gospel of the kingdom of God, And saying, The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand: repent ye, and believe the gospel.

In contrast, people today can't get far enough away from Christians fast enough, and would even rather kill themselves than continue to be a part of the "church" or world they've created, as my family's testimony reveals. The body of Christ has made it impossible for the lost elect and the born again. It's what Jesus said "You nullify the word of God for the sake of your tradition" (Matt. 15:6, NIV)—our tradition of a fake version of Christianity, aka apostasy.

Seeing the table before her, Maya is both shocked and disappointed. While God “prepare[d] a table before [us] in the presence of [our] enemies” (Ps. 23:5, KJV), the body of Christ has “removed from...the grace of Christ unto another gospel” (Gal. 1:6, KJV) “which is really no gospel” (Gal. 1:7, NIV). Told to “grieve not the holy Spirit of God, whereby [w]e are sealed unto the day of redemption” (Eph. 4:30, KJV), grieving God is pretty much all the body of Christ is doing these days—with the exception of a miniscule remnant worldwide.

Page 20: Following the Rules

Knowing what’s better (Ps. 34:8 below), Maya asks (1 John 5:14 below) and receives, having asked properly (Mark 11:24; James 4:3 below).

Psalm 34:8, KJV The LORD is good [“taste[s]” good].

1 John 5:14, KJV This is the confidence that we have in him, that, if we ask any thing according to his will, he heareth us.

Mark 11:24, KJV What things soever ye desire, when ye pray, believe that ye receive them, and ye shall have them.

James 4:3, KJV Ye ask, and receive not, because ye ask amiss, that ye may consume it upon your lusts.

We have to “build...ourselves up in...our most holy faith and pray...in the Holy Spirit” (Jude 1:20, NIV), which we do by reading, believing, and obeying God’s Word, the Bible, in relation to the new covenant.

The Kitchen is Where You Find the Food. The waiter, the servant, checks “in the kitchen” because that’s where the food is found and, therefore where Jesus is found. God does His work in The Kitchen since it’s all about feeding His sheep (John 21:16 below). And we can’t feed others without getting that food from Christ, just like Jesus “gave [the loaves and fish] to the disciples, and the disciples gave them to the people” (Matt. 14:19, NIV). Since Jesus is the “Master” (John 13:13 below) He is Master of All including the kitchen, He’s the Chief Chef, the “head” (Eph. 5:23 below) Chef—which ties in to the culinary parable He had me write three years before giving me this Maya book, about the International Academy of Manna (IAM).

John 21:16, KJV Feed my sheep.

John 13:13, KJV Ye call me Master and Lord: and ye say well; for so I am.

Ephesians 5:23, KJV Christ is the head of the church: and he is the saviour of the body.

It’s a Waiting Game. Knowing the Man wasn’t lying (1 Sam. 15:29 below), Maya waits. However, waiting is hard, boring, lonely, and annoying. But God says “The testing of your faith produces perseverance. [Therefore] Let perseverance finish its work so that you may be mature and complete, not lacking anything” (James 1:3-4, NIV). Hard as it is—as it’s been—certain she’ll receive (Matt. 7:8; Heb. 11:6 below) the girl waits (1 Pet. 5:6 below)—as I’ve been doing for over two decades (Hab. 2:2-3 below).

1 Samuel 15:29, NIV He who is the Glory of Israel does not lie or change his mind.

Matthew 7:8, KJV For every one that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened.

Hebrew 11:6, KJV But without faith it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him.

1 Peter 5:6, KJV Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God, that he may exalt you in due time.

Habakkuk 2:2-3, KJV The LORD answered me, and said, Write the vision, and make it plain upon tables, that he may run that readeth it. For the vision is yet for an appointed time, but at the end it shall speak, and not lie: though it tarry, wait for it; because it will surely come, it will not tarry.

Expressing Genuine Gratitude. Receiving (Matt. 25:21 below), Maya is very thankful (Rom. 7:25 below) if not entirely humble (Rom. 3:10 below).

Matthew 25:21, KJV [My] lord said unto [me], Well done, thou good and faithful servant: thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy lord.

Romans 7:25, KJV I thank God through Jesus Christ.

Romans 3:10, KJV As it is written, There is none righteous, no, not one.

In contrast, today's Christians say they're thankful to God (those that do) but reveal by their actions that they don't really appreciate who He is and what He's done for them so that He continues to say "This people honoureth me with their lips, but their heart is far from me" (Matt. 7:6, KJV). "They claim to know God, but by their actions they deny [Me]. They are detestable, disobedient and unfit for doing anything good" (Titus 1:16, NIV). And we can see that in the state of the Church and world. Christianity has NOT produced much good! It's mostly produced proud spiritual hypocrites who keep themselves and others from knowing the Lord.

While many (the born again) do know Him, it's more like they're just acquainted with Him. They barely know Him. They don't know Him well, which is part of the reason they don't evangelize.

Page 21: THE MILLION DOLLAR QUESTION.

“Which one?” represents the question everyone asks but few have answered correctly “because strait is the gate, and narrow is the way, which leadeth unto life, and few there be that find it” (Matt. 7:14, KJV). Faced with this table setting, it’s like Maya is asking What is the meaning of life? The utensils represent so-called Christian denominations and the glasses represent other religions and philosophies people believe to make sense out life (Acts 17:23 below). And the noodles represent all of humanity since “all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God” (Rom. 3:23, KJV).

Acts 17:23, KJV For as I passed by, and beheld your devotions, I found an altar with this inscription, TO THE UNKNOWN GOD. Whom therefore ye ignorantly worship, him declare I unto you.

Therefore, the ketchup bottle represents God’s answer to our problem and to Maya’s question. The blood of Jesus answers the meaning of life question because “there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved” (Acts 4:12, KJV). It’s a ‘great sauce’ and highlight of the work God has done “for God hath concluded them all [all of humanity] in unbelief, that he might have mercy upon all” (Rom. 11:32, KJV). Having shed His blood for us, explains the color of the sauce. God crucified His own Son/crucified Himself, basically (John 10:30 below) since it was like cutting off His own right hand. And He did it to create a righteous Family, a righteous world, as we’re told “His purpose was to create in himself one new humanity” (Eph. 2:15, NIV). So it involves everyone, not just the apostate hypocrites who talk about having accepted Christ, as I detail decently enough in God’s Plan. “For even as in Adam all die, so also in the Christ all shall be made alive” (1 Cor. 15:22, YLT)—just not at the same time. The non-elect and faithless elect won’t be transformed and made like Christ—perfect—until after the millennial reign of Christ and they’ve satisfied God’s wrath, summed up on this graphic which I walk through in God’s Plan: A Vision for the Body.

John 19:30, KJV

A Mess God Rules. While no one initially knows the answer to the Question—especially those not born into a professing Christian home, like me, Maya—the enlightened elect should have had them covered fulfilling Jesus’ will for us to be “one fold” (John 10:16, KJV). In other words, the noodles especially represent all of the elect, “the vessels of mercy, which he had afore prepared unto glory” (Rom. 9:23, KJV). So they even more specifically represent the body of Christ, the one fold.

And the lost elect don’t know the answer to the Question because, as the Eunuch told Philip “How can I [understand], except some man should guide me?” (Acts 8:30-31, KJV). That’s the system God set up, that the enlightened ones would inform the unenlightened. That’s the Great Commission, God’s working orders for the body of Christ, having said “Go ye therefore, and teach all nations...to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you” (Matt. 28:19-20, KJV). Enlightened elect, the born again, should be willing, like Paul, to “endure all things for the elect’s sakes, that they may also obtain the salvation which is in Christ” (2 Tim. 2:10, KJV). But instead, most have historically been living for themselves, just like the lost, making it seem to the lost as if God’s not real or not represented by Jesus. Or, that He doesn’t really mean what He says in His Word, the Bible.

Still, it’s NOT as if faithless Christians have messed up God’s Plan. He is still the One in control who knew this is what we would do and worked it into His Plan as we’ve been informed. He “worketh all things after the counsel of his own will” (Eph. 1:11, KJV) so that “we [followers of Christ] know that all things work together for good to them...who are the called according to his purpose” (Rom. 8:28, KJV). God allowed the body of Christ to be this unfaithful to prove to us that we ARE “desperately wicked” (Jer. 17:9, KJV) even while born again when we don’t “take captive every thought to make it obedient to Christ” (2 Cor. 10:5, NIV)—and we don’t; we haven’t. But we will since “Christ...loved the church, and gave himself for it; That he might sanctify and cleanse it with the washing of water by the word, That he might present it to himself a glorious church, not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without blemish” (Eph. 5:25-27, KJV).

The King pretends He doesn’t know what’s going on, what needs to be done, and that He doesn’t even care, even though He’s overseeing the whole thing! God says “When you did these things and I kept silent, you thought I was exactly like you. But I now arraign you and set my accusations before you” (Ps. 50:21, NIV)—which He’s doing through this ministry. What God does is like when Jesus asked “Philip, “Where shall we buy bread for these people to eat?”...[having] asked this only to test him, [since] he already had in mind what he was going to do” (John 6:5-6, KJV). And He pretends He doesn’t care what’s going on as a test of our faith. He says “For a brief moment I abandoned you, but with deep compassion I will bring you back” (Isa. 54:7, NIV). He tests our faith—and has tested it as a group—to prove to us that we are “desperately wicked” (Jer. 17:9, KJV). Admitting it, He’ll draw us back with deep compassion.

And as you can see by His eyeball and the look on His face—and the fact that He gave His life for us!—the Lord is actually eager to see His subjects do what needs doing—slosh on that classic red wine sauce. He says “I have no greater joy than to hear that my children walk in truth” (3 John 1:4, KJV). “If [you] walk in the light...[you will] have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jesus [that classic wine sauce]...[will] cleanse...[you] from all sin” (1 John 1:7, KJV).

God Doesn't Change.

The point that there isn't a fork for these twisted noodles has to do with the fact that I've had to walk in uncharted territory since Jesus is the end of Old Testament prophet, and yet He's using me like an Old Testament prophet. It was the end because on the Cross "He said, It is finished" (John 19:30, KJV) and "in these last days [God has] spoken unto us by his Son" (Heb. 1:2, KJV). So while Jesus said "I send unto you prophets" (Matt. 23:34, KJV), no one (including me) would have ever guessed He meant in this manner, so twisted! (As revealed in the books He's had me write.)

So what I've discerned is that while He's using me like an Old Testament prophet, because we are under the new covenant of grace we have to function as the body of Christ—which is basically what they should have been doing in the Old Testament as well. The difference is that all elect souls now have access to His Spirit, who makes His home inside of us when we become His faithful follower, as revealed in the graphic for John 14:23 and Acts 5:32. He's also told us that "If one part [of the body of Christ] suffers, every part suffers with it; [but] if one part is honored, every part rejoices with it" (1 Cor. 12:26, NIV)—every member of the body gets cursed or blessed, essentially. We fall or rise as a group. If someone took a hammer to my pinky toe, my whole body would collapse! Same thing. So the way for modern day prophets to walk in it is the same as all the prophets walked in it, by pigging out on God's Word (1 Pet. 1:10-14 below)—as He says "Eat it the way you're used to." We have to diligently study the Scriptures and walk in the truth. That's what I was doing before He informed me that He had called me as a prophet and it's what I've kept doing ever since. I study the Scriptures and I study those who've studied the Scriptures "quench[ing] not the Spirit. Despis[ing] not prophesyings. [And] Prov[ing] all things; hold[ing] fast that which is good" (1 Thess. 5:19-21, KJV).

1 Peter 1:10-14, KJV The prophets have enquired and searched [the Scriptures] diligently...Unto whom [God's secrets were] revealed...Wherefore gird up the loins of your mind, be sober, and hope to the end for the grace that is to be brought unto you at the revelation of Jesus Christ; As obedient children, not fashioning yourselves according to the former lusts in your ignorance.

Page 23: Loving God—Food—Offends Sinners

These pictures of Maya eating is what all born again Christians should be doing, “search[ing] the Scriptures” like good Bereans (Acts 17:11, KJV), “delight[ing] in the Lord” (Ps. 37:4, KJV), “study[ing them] to shew [themselves] approved unto God...workm[e]n that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth” (2 Tim. 2:15, KJV), and “be[ing] filled with the knowledge of his will in all wisdom and spiritual understanding” (Col. 1:9), even though digging in and porking out offends people (Matt. 5:11-12 below), Christians more than the lost (John 7:5 below), so-called Christian leaders especially (John 10:13 below). Because, they consider themselves righteous having gotten proud for knowing the truth, just like the Jews of the Old Testament and the majority Jesus encountered when He walked the earth.

Matthew 5:11-12, KJV Blessed are ye, when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake. Rejoice, and be exceeding glad: for great is your reward in heaven: for so persecuted they the prophets which were before you.

The people are so offended by Maya/me, they don't even say anything to the girl. Deceived by their own wicked hearts (Jer. 17:9 below) and Satan's lies (Rev. 20:3 below), the masses want everyone to be like them so that they feel good about themselves. Except "broad is the road that leads to destruction, and many enter through it" (Matt. 7:13, NIV). That's why Jesus says "Blessed is he, whosoever shall not be offended in me" (Matt. 11:6, KJV).

Jeremiah 17:9, KJV The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked.

Revelation 20:3, KJV [At the end of this age and angel will] cast [Satan] into the bottomless pit, and shut him up, and set a seal upon him, that he should deceive the nations no more, till the thousand years should be fulfilled.

However, I discern part of the reason they're offended is because they're afraid knowing, deep down, that they're not right with God and/or they're afraid of being led astray by a false prophet when they've been led astray by TONS of false prophets!

So God says "He that feareth is not made perfect in love" (1 John 4:18, KJV). Since today's Christians have not been made perfect in love, not walking in the truth, they're afraid. You see that all over YouTube as they present information on the New World Order and discuss it in the comments section. They're all angry at the powers that be, and each other, and clueless as to what to do about it, when God has clearly told us what we need to do. He says "God is a Spirit: and they that worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth" (John 4:24, KJV).

And since Christians aren't doing that, we need to repent and start doing that. So that through this ministry He has me pointing out the lies we've historically believed concerning Christianity. He's revealed different things to different people and has had me pull it together in one place—like a boss uses his administrative secretary and how my dad used his wife.

In any case, my guess is that the expression on that dog's face has been yours (Mark 1:22 below) as the Lord has led you to this material AND convicted you. If it's not, it should be!

Mark 1:22, KJV They were astonished.

Condemning the Guiltless. The Queen/the body of Christ rebukes Maya saying that no one's ever eaten that way, not even in the “wilds” of the kingdom, meaning, the wilderness. However, she's quite wrong because that's exactly what happens in the wilderness as we see with Jesus' example in the following account:

Jesus being full of the Holy [Spirit]...was led by the Spirit into the wilderness, Being forty days tempted of the devil...[and He defeated him with God's Word so that] when the devil had ended all the temptation, he departed from him for a season (Luke 4:1-13, KJV).

Jesus' example, along with the example of the saints described in Hebrews 11 \(below\) is all about the “bad manners” God's people have had in the wilderness, which also got them in trouble with unbelievers and those who professed to know God. Jesus, and all those whom God has used most, knew God's Word well—porked out on God's Word, the so-called “bad manners,” which is what's needed since Satan knows God's Word well—a billion times better than any of us (excluding Christ).

Hebrews 11:29-35, KJV By faith they passed through the Red sea as by dry land...By faith the walls of Jericho fell down...By faith the harlot Rahab perished not...the time would fail me to tell of Gedeon, and of Barak, and of Samson, and of Jephthae; of David also, and Samuel, and of the prophets: Who through faith subdued kingdoms, wrought righteousness, obtained promises, stopped the mouths of lions...not accepting deliverance; that they might obtain a better resurrection.

And the thing is, no one God has used before has been as familiar with Him publicly on His behalf as He has me doing. We've also never before in history had all of these resources we currently have—the Bible, not only in book format, but as movies, in audio, and with YouTube; and the world at our fingertips through technology; all that He's currently using. Neither has anyone gone to this extreme over Him outside of the 10/40 Window, without any support, any fellowship whatsoever. And He's doing it, in part, to make the point of how far apart He has set me. Also because He's using me as an example of how to follow Him. He says “Wherefore come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you” (2 Cor. 6:17, KJV). “Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues” (Rev. 18:4, KJV). We have to come out/be set apart from the world and from all forms of Christianity that don't line up with the new covenant. And you can only know what that is by porking out on God's Word.

God is Wild! While everyone is so full of unbelief—eagerly believing lies rather than the truth as someone summed up on this graphic—the fact is that God has done plenty of wild things before (Heb. 11:29-35 below), for the same reason, to draw the people back to the truth, back to Him (Isa. 29:23-35 below).

Isaiah 29:23-24, KJV They shall sanctify my name, and sanctify the Holy One of Jacob, and shall fear the God of Israel. They also that erred in spirit shall come to understanding, and they that murmured shall learn doctrine.

Jailed for Christ. When the Lord gave me this Maya book I thought the book He had me working on was for publication to sell at cost. So the night before God provided it I'd shown my daughter a huge binder with all the pictures I was using—mostly line drawings of other people's artwork, tracings I'd made since I'm no artist. She'd nodded, chuckled, and said, "You're going to jail!" (A publisher had told me this was legal, except she didn't know that.) And whether jail for me is prophetic or not I don't know, but I do know that prison is where the bulk of those open to God in this nation are likely to be found—besides preschool (Matt. 18:3 below) since the poorest among our poor are richer than most of the world's population (Matt. 19:24 below).

Matthew 18:3, KJV Except ye be converted, and become as little children, ye shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven.

Matthew 19:24, KJV It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.

And since unbelievers are antichrist and professing Christians are also antichrist, I'm already 'in jail' and have been so for years because there is no one with whom to have an actual conversation! I haven't been able to talk to Christians since they condemn me. And my daughters eventually turned completely away from the Lord when they entered college years ago, along with my husband though he still professes to believe in Jesus. So for more than a decades, since before the Lord gave me this Maya book, I've been in a prison without walls for choosing to remain faithful. I could count on two hands the number of words my husband says to me each week! (It's a little more now with Covid since everyone's home now. But it's still not much and only chit chat and nothing.) And that's the extent of my social life since it's only greetings that we do at the gym—mostly—and I work for the Lord at home alone. (Except for the past nine months the gym has been taken away too due to Covid.)

While most Americans call themselves Christian they're not even remotely interested in Christ, the "truth" (John 14:6, KJV). They'd rather hold on to a man made image of Him which doesn't line up with Scripture. And while I know there is a more faithful remnant out there in the world somewhere—not in this nation!—since the New Testament says "at this present time also there is a remnant according to the election of grace" (Rom. 11:5, KJV), no one on my path has been interested in genuinely following Jesus. My guess is there is NO ONE in this nation following hard after Christ.

And three years before giving me this Maya book the Lord had me interpret the song Hotel California by the Eagles which speaks of my social isolation, my prison without walls in the following verse. "We are all just prisoners here, of our own device." Except when He gave me that interpretation it was still "we" and now it's only me. They, the body of Christ, have "put me in jail." However, it's also prophetic of those who will take God more seriously in His "appointed time" (Hab. 2:3, KJV) so it's still "we." Eventually, a group of us will all be prisoners here—faithful to Christ—by our own device, our own choice willing to "lay down [our] life for [our] friends" (John 15:13, KJV). The born again don't just lay down our lives by physically dying but, more importantly, by dying to this world and to our own desires, to echo Jesus "not as I will, but as you will" (Matt. 26:39, NIV) speaking of the Father.

God also confirmed it again with another interpretation, the movie Frozen (2013). While I mostly play the role of the younger sister in that movie, I also play the role of the ice princess who lives in cold isolation because the "love experts" in real life, the body of Christ, haven't been doing their job.

Page 25: One Day Things WILL Change

According to God a day is coming when the Queen/the body of Christ will do like the Queen in the book and take the time to ask Maya/me questions and earnestly listen (Hab. 2:2-3 below). In turn, those people will hear God's voice confirming what I'm saying and "run" with it. Like John the Baptist, I have "gr[own], and waxed strong in spirit, and [have been] in the deserts [aka the wilderness/the wilds] till the day of [my] shewing unto Israel" (Luke 1:80, KJV)—the body of Christ.

Habakkuk 2:2-3, KJV The LORD answered me, and said, Write the vision, and make it plain upon tables, that he may run that readeth it. For the vision is yet for an appointed time.

Taking God seriously the born again will hear "a voice out of the cloud [meaning, from heaven], which sa[ys], This is my beloved [child], in whom I am well pleased; hear ye h[er]" (Matt. 17:5, KJV). "Receive her in the Lord, as doth become saints, and...assist her in whatever matter she may have need of you" (Rom. 16:2, YLT).

Learning Manners. Maya explains to the Queen, the body of Christ, that her parents taught her manners in the same way that my heavenly Father, taught me my manners—the manner in which to follow follow the Lord, to pork out. As Jesus says "Every man therefore that hath heard, and hath learned of the Father, cometh unto me" (John 6:45, KJV).

For Heaven's Sake. It is "for heaven's sake" that Maya eats like a pig since "joy shall be in heaven over one sinner that repenteth" (Luke 15:7, KJV)—and that's the goal of the ministry God has given me. In fact, that many will repent because of the ministry He's entrusted to me.

Food Tasting Better. Food, the Lord/Jesus, tastes better/is more appealing when you pork out because that's how you really get to know Him. If you don't pork out on God's Word, the "food" (John 6:55, NIV) you won't be satisfied because it's like the difference between having an acquaintance as compared to a good friend. Acquaintances hardly know you and you hardly know them. It's mostly chit chat or awkward conversation that you have with them. And that's not all that enjoyable. You can just as well do without it. And that is how it is; most born again Christians have barely gotten to know the Lord so that they soon do without Him—live their lives without Him—until those moments when they're in desperate need of help. They USE Him. And no one likes being used.

Paying Attention. Having actually listened to what the girl had to say, the Queen, the body of Christ, engages her brain (2 Cor. 10:5 below) and decides to take up the challenge (Mal. 3:10 below).

2 Corinthians 10:5, NIV We demolish arguments and every pretension that sets itself up against the knowledge of God, and we take captive every thought to make it obedient to Christ.

Malachi 3:10, NIV "Test me in this," says the LORD Almighty.

The Overweight Love Food. The Queen, the born again, will finally listen because, as you can see from the looks of her, she really does love Food. Like me, you can tell that the Queen has done more than just “taste...that the LORD is good” (Ps. 34:8, KJV, my emphasis).

The King’s Soul Mate. Everyone at the table, the body of Christ, has to listen to the Queen since She represents Her Husband, the King (Eph. 5:23; 2 Cor. 5:20 below).

Ephesians 5:23, KJV For the husband is the head of the wife.

2 Corinthians 5:20, NIV We [the body of Christ] are...Christ’s ambassadors, as though God were making his appeal through us. We implore you on Christ’s behalf: Be reconciled to God.

Pages 26 & 27: Making a Mess

When the Queen, the body of Christ, finally listens to Maya/me, we’ll be making quite a mess as in cause quite a commotion. The born again will be “moved, saying, Who is this?” (Matt. 21:10, KJV). They’ll be wondering who is this Maya person as well as thinking ‘This isn’t the Jesus I’ve known’ and come to realize they haven’t actually bothered to get to know Him very well. God is making that obvious through this ministry.

As Christians take on Maya’s eating habits (explained and modeled throughout the series of books), there’s a mess alright, since we’ve got a ton of changes to make to fix the mess we’ve made! But it will also be because Satan won’t like it, therefore, neither will the non elect along with the rebellious elect. God says “I will wipe [the body of Christ] as a man wipeth a dish, wiping it, and turning it upside down” (2 Kings 21:13, KJV). “Many shall be purified, and made white, and tried; but the wicked shall do wickedly: and none of the wicked shall understand; but the wise shall understand” (Dan. 12:10, KJV). The wicked, the carnally minded, “always resist the Holy Spirit!” (Acts 7:51, NIV).

Right now, most of those who are more awake, are mostly more awake to the occult, Satan's secrets hidden in plain sight. But God is using this ministry to get His people to wake up to His secrets hidden in plain sight (Dan. 2:47 below) so that you get empowered by Him and not fear what the heathen fear (Zech. 8:13 below) and neither have a false sense of security as so many professing Christians do today deceived by the pre-tribulation rapture teaching, a Jesuit lie as someone summed up on the graphic.

Daniel 2:47, KJV God is a...revealer of secrets.

Zechariah 8:13, KJV It shall come to pass, that as ye were a curse among the heathen...so will I save you, and ye shall be a blessing: fear not, but let your hands be strong.

Pre-Trib is false prophecy, based on a Catholic Jesuit lie.

Getting the Boot. Making the necessary changes, those dogs will get booted from God's kingdom, His table (Ezek. 34:10 & Jude below) as will whoever feeds them (1 Cor. 5:5 & Rev. 2:5 below)—notice, the Queen doesn't.

Ezekiel 34:10, KJV The Sovereign LORD says: I am against the shepherds and will hold them accountable for my flock. I will remove them from tending the flock so that the shepherds can no longer feed themselves. I will rescue my flock from their mouths, and it will no longer be food for them.

Jude 1:12, NIV These people are blemishes at your love feasts, eating with you without the slightest qualm—shepherds who feed only themselves. They are clouds without rain, blown along by the wind; autumn trees, without fruit and uprooted—twice dead.

1 Corinthians 5:5, NIV Hand this man over to Satan for the destruction of the flesh, so that his spirit may be saved on the day of the Lord.

Revelation 2:5, NIV Consider how far you have fallen! [Born again Christians] Repent and do the things you did at first. If you do not repent, I will come to you and remove your lampstand from its place.

Taste Matures. Eating like Maya (Deut. 12:32 below) the body of Christ will finally stop making excuses for not obeying God (Rom. 1:20 below) so that we'll finally mature and become "holy and without blemish" (Eph. 5:27, KJV).

Deuteronomy 12:32, KJV What thing soever I command you, observe to do it: thou shalt not add thereto, nor diminish from it.

Romans 1:20, KJV For...they are without excuse.

Beware of Dogs. You see that the dog wants what the Queen has, and he does because Satan set out to "be like the most High" (Isa. 14:14, KJV) so that "his servants...masquerade as servants of righteousness" (2 Cor. 11:15, NIV) and do so to "deceive the nations" (Rev. 20:3, KJV). Therefore, God says "Beware of dogs, beware of evil workers" (Phil. 3:2, KJV). Like "the patriarchs [they are] moved with envy" (Acts 7:9, KJV).

Not All are Kingdom Subjects. Notice that everyone named is part of the court representing the body of Christ. The New Testament says "the Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God: And if children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ; if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together" (Rom. 8:16-17, KJV). All who will listen are those "chosen...in [Christ] before the foundation of the world" (Eph. 1:4, KJV). If you have ears to hear it's because "it has been granted to you on behalf of Christ not only to believe in him, but also to suffer for him" (Phil. 1:29, NIV). But it's not as if those who haven't been granted this privilege will NOT suffer! They'll suffer brutally in these last days and will also suffer for quite some time as they get refined by God's fire, not hell since that's a pagan concept. I walk through it in God's Plan: A Vision for the Body. In any case, the literal translations says the following, for example. "The smoke of their torment doth go up to ages of ages; and they have no rest day and night, who are bowing before the beast and his image" (Rev. 14:11, YLT).

The Duke ate the chicken with his hands.
The Princess put her face in the soup bowl.
The Countess put her hands in the salad.
The Duchess fed cheese to the dog.

And it's not as if God is unfair. If He hadn't made some people elect "vessels of mercy" (Rom. 9:23, KJV), we would all become as wicked as the most wicked sooner or later, mostly sooner. Scripture says the human "the heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked" (Jer. 17:9, KJV). "There is none righteous, no, not one" (Rom. 3:10, KJV). "It is God which worketh in you both to will and to do of his good pleasure" (Phil. 2:13, KJV). In short, if not for God's intervention every spiritual decision we would all EVER make would be bad. So this is one of the reasons to have an active prayer life, we need to beg the Father to lead His elect to Jesus (John 6:44 below) and we need to beg Him to motivate us (and them) to do His good pleasure.

John 6:44, KJV [Jesus says] No man can come to me, except the Father which hath sent me draw him: and I will raise him up at the last day.

Kingdom Subjects Differ. While they all eat off the King's table since "salvation is found in no one else, for there is no other name under heaven given to mankind by which we must be saved" (Acts 4:12, NIV), they each eat different things having a different calling, "created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which God hath before ordained that we should walk in" (Eph. 2:10, KJV). Yet most born again today have no clue what the good works are which God ordained for them to do! In the same way that there's a Duke, Princess, Countess, and Duchess in the story, Scripture says the following:

There are different kinds of gifts, but the same Spirit distributes them. There are different kinds of service, but the same Lord. There are different kinds of working, but in all of them and in everyone it is the same God at work. Now to each one the manifestation of the Spirit is given for the common good (1 Cor. 12:4-7, NIV).

In other words, when the elect become born again they "are the body of Christ, and members in particular. And God hath set some in the church, first apostles, secondarily prophets, thirdly teachers, after that miracles, then gifts of healings, helps, governments, diversities of tongues...[And God says] covet earnestly the best gifts" (1 Cor. 12:27-31, KJV). And the best gift is prophecy because "the one who prophesies edifies the church" (1 Cor. 14:4, KJV). And the more faithful you are to Him, the more God enlightens and empowers you. God says "You will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes on you” (Acts 1:8, NIV). It’s up to you how much power you receive and how long it takes because “God gives the Spirit without limit” (John 3:34, NIV). While there is something of an obstacle since we have been called to function as the body of Christ, “submitting...one to another in the fear of God” (Eph. 5:21, KJV), even without any fellowship, God still empowers an enlightens us quite a bit as He’s revealing through this ministry.

The Head is in Heaven
Christ is the head of the church:
and he is the saviour of the body.
Ephesians 5:23, KJV

The Body is on Earth & in the Grave
God has put the body together, giving greater honor to the parts that lacked it,
so that there should be no division in the body, but that its parts should have equal concern for each other.
If one part suffers, every part suffers with it;
if one part is honored, every part rejoices with it.
Now you are the body of Christ,
and each one of you is a part of it.
1 Corinthians 12:24-27, NIV

He’s a Man of Color: This is one of the things I think about when I write of the born again barely knowing the Lord at all. Most are going to stand before Him one day and be shocked at His appearance. However, Scripture clearly says, for instance, “He that sat was to look upon like a jasper and a sardine stone” (Rev. 4:3, KJV). Again, I walk through it in God’s Plan: A Vision for the Body but I summed up His body parts based on Scripture with this graphic.

Queen of the King’s Table. The Queen is the biggest pig of all, outdoing them all, because that’s what it means to be queen at something. The porky lady is Queen of “the Word...made flesh” (John 1:14, KJV). As such, she learns to love that 828 sauce (Rom. 8:28 below) taking the bad with the good (Job 2:10 & Phil 4:11 below).

Romans 8:28, KJV We know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose.

Job 2:10, KJV What? shall we receive good at the hand of God, and shall we not receive evil?

Philippians 4:11, NIV I have learned to be content whatever the circumstances.

A Servant Like Christ. “Out[doing] them all” also speaks of out *serv*ing them all. While the porky lady is the Queen, she has been called to serve the people, just like Jesus, the “King of kings” (1 Tim. 6:15, KJV) “did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many” (Mark 10:45, NIV). God says “He that is greatest among you shall be your servant” (Matt. 23:11, KJV). The real Queen, the body of Christ, will reflect the love and service of Christ. Rather than promoting herself with buildings, banners, platforms, power, and money—as the body of Christ currently does—She’ll get noticed and draw attention to Jesus by Her service, willing to give of Her all, like Her husband, the King, who also porked out “continu[ing] all night in prayer to God [the Father]” (Luke 6:12, KJV).

Page 28: Food that Satisfies

Eating the right way, as God meant for the body of Christ, the Queen will finally feel satisfied and stop living off junk food. Jesus says “Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness: for they shall be filled” (Matt. 5:6, KJV, my emphasis).

The Kingdom. The Queens kingdom is the King’s kingdom, commonly called Christianity. And having eaten like Maya and found satisfaction the Queen declares that from now on—when God opens up this ministry in His “appointed time” (Hab. 2:3, KJV)—everyone in His court (the born again) will start porking out on His Word like I do, “but only on holidays,” which means holy days which refers to every day.

While Christians argue as to whether the Sabbath is Saturday or Sunday, it’s clearly Saturday. Since Satan “changeth the times” (Dan. 2:21, KJV), having done it through “his ministers” (2 Cor. 11:15, KJV) the “hireling[s]” (John 10:13, KJV) the body of Christ has been ‘celebrating’ the Lord’s day on Sunday for centuries. Had the body of Christ been more “vigilant” (1 Pet. 5:8, KJV), we would have been more sensitive to God’s time table, summed up in the graphic.

However, when we actually celebrate the Lord’s day has nothing to do with an actual day since “this is the day which the LORD hath made” (Ps. 118:24, KJV). This day is every day. We’re told to “exhort one another daily, while it is called To day; lest any of you be hardened through the deceitfulness of sin” (Heb. 3:13, KJV)—which is exactly what happened since Christians didn’t obey Him. He specifically said “Do not let anyone judge you by what you eat or drink, or with regard to a religious festival, a New Moon celebration or a Sabbath day” (Col. 2:16, NIV). The New Testament also says “he that is entered into his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works, as God did from his” (Heb. 4:10, KJV). In other words, being a disciple of Christ, a genuine believer, is a way of life. It’s something we do every day as Christians know but don’t do. As “Lord of the sabbath” (Matt. 12:8, KJV) and being that every day is holy since “This is the day which the LORD hath made” (Ps. 118:24, KJV), we are supposed to live as if celebrating the sabbath, honoring Jesus and resting in His finished work on the Cross, every day.

However, it's clear that during the millennial reign of Christ, things will be different. Again, I walk through it in God's Plan: A Vision for the Body. But right now the place of worship is the human temple since "the Holy Spirit...God has given to those who obey him" (Acts 5:32, NIV) so that He says to the born again "Ye are God's building" (1 Cor. 3:9, KJV). And since we are the building we do not go to church but actually are the Church—every day, 24/7. Chris White has a very good video on the Sabbath at the following link The Old Covenant the New Covenant, and The Sabbath by Chris White - YouTube.

Finally taking God at His Word (Heb. 11:6 below), repenting (1 John 1:9 below), stuffing themselves (Ps. 81:10 below), the born again will realize that what they've been doing hasn't come even remotely close to what God has been offering all along (Luke 6:38 below).

Hebrews 11:6, KJV He that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him.

1 John 1:9, KJV If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

Psalms 81:10, KJV Open thy mouth wide, and I will fill it [says the Lord].

Luke 6:38, KJV Give, and it shall be given unto you; good measure, pressed down, and shaken together, and running over.

And the Good News is so much better than what most have imagined, which I summed up in God's plan and some summed up in this graphic which I tweaked to make it more thorough. The bottom line is that while Maya's feet were funky looking, they brought very Good News with them. According to Scripture, at the end of the ages, everyone who has ever lived will be united as one in love which is why "it is written, How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the gospel of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things!" (Rom. 10:15, KJV). There is no eternal torment in a place called hell since that is a pagan lie. However, there are very serious long-term consequences for unrighteousness.

Page 29: Every Great Meal Ends with Dessert

Having lived where they made Land O' Lakes ice cream—a city named after a VIP, St. Paul—I developed a taste for it. And in the first draft of the book the Lord had me write, in the culinary section, amazed at all God was showing me, I'd written, "Wow! I wonder what we get for dessert!" Then some time later at Chincoteague, the name of the ice cream shop, The Creamery, struck a chord since I was 'getting creamed' for the Lord at the time. And the Spirit reminded me how Jesus had "made a whip out of cords, and drove all from the temple courts" (John 2:15 below). And knowing the Scriptures and the Lord, I know how much He loves to play with words. So I made some connections.

So in the late 1990s God used two songs—along with a bunch of other stuff—to tell me that He would be using my testimony and this ministry to finally melt His people's hearts. The first was by Timothy James Meaney, something about brining us to our knees and the other was by Chris Rice, Live by Faith, which says the following:

*'Cause blessed are those who have not seen and yet believe
And blessed are the hands that keep givin' but never receive Blessed is the heart that gets broken but keeps holdin' on...
that's what it means to live by faith...*

Connecting the dots, I realized that would be our dessert—ice cream. What I mean is that God will be melting the born again's stone cold hearts and whipping them into shape. He says "I will put a new spirit within you; and I will take the stony heart out of their flesh" (Ezek. 11:19, KJV). Since we're under the new covenant of grace, that whip—for those who take Him seriously—is of a different sort, as in this graphic.

Then, three years after the Creamery vision, giving me the Maya book, God confirmed what I'd discerned so that the culinary guys dressed in white bring in three monstrous platters of ice cream. Dressed in white I know they represent angels since "two men stood by them in white apparel" (Acts 1:10, KJV) and they were angels.

However, it's not just angels who bring in dessert. It's also His Bride, the body of Christ, because "to her was granted that she should be arrayed in fine linen, clean and white: for the fine linen is the righteousness of saints" (Rev. 19:8, KJV), and we've been called to "feed [His] sheep" (John 21:17, KJV).

God's Sense of Humor. In the late 1990s the Lord gave me a food timeline. I don't remember how exactly but I must have been thinking about Food since that's what I do. Someone has a keto website called All Day I Dream About Food. That's it! (Except she looks amazing.) In fact, when I was little my father compared me to the fat little dog in 101 Dalmatians. And looking him up I found two pictures that are very appropriate considering that God is having me rebuke Christians for being "dead [asleep and telling you to] Wake up!" (Rev. 3:1-2, NIV)

His Story—It's ALL About FOOD (John 6:55)

The Law	The Prophets	The Temple	The Messiah	The Holy Spirit	The Final Touch
Recorded c. 1440 B.C. Ex. 31:18	From Moses til Jesus' Return Matt. 23:34 1 Cor. 13:8-10	Building Began in 956 B.C. 1 Kings 6:1	Jesus' Ministry c. 28 A.D.	Provided 50 days after Resurrection Acts 2	The latter rain. Joel 2; Deut. 11:14; Jer. 3:3

Anyhow, Jesus is really all three aspects of our dessert—the ice cream (Food), the whip cream (the Holy Spirit), and the cherry on top since He's "life" (John 14:6, KJV). The cherry represents as much of His presence as we can have this side of death.

Discerning Time. As you see with each platter the amount of ice cream increases as do the number of cherries. You can see the time effect in the diminished color clarity of the last pile of ice cream and of the last culinary guy. It's further away so it's not as clear—yet. And the piles of ice cream get bigger with time as the number of born again souls rises and as the awareness of the Lord's presence increases—therefore, more cherries. The meaning of our dessert is that God's presence will be increasingly magnified as we move forward, both individually and as a group. He says “Draw nigh to God, and he will draw nigh to you. Cleanse your hands, ye sinners; and purify your hearts, ye double minded” (James 4:8, KJV). It's time the body of Christ paid attention.

God also says “I will give you the rain of your land in his due season, the first rain and the latter rain, that thou mayest gather in thy corn, and thy wine, and thine oil” (Deut. 11:14, KJV), talking about a harvest of souls. He says “They waited for me as for the rain; and they opened their mouth wide as for the latter rain” (Job 29:23, KJV). Christians haven't done that because the way you open wide for the Lord is by obeying Him—and we're the furthest thing from that right now as summed up with the dartboard.

The Culinary Guys' Shoes. In 1997 or 98, the first time God had me make prayer crafts (helping me be faithful in praying for His unfaithful and mean people), I made hundreds of pasta angel crafts for loads of people, praying for everyone for months as I made them. And instead of painting them gold like the ones I'd received (which gave me the idea), I painted them different skin tones with different colored robes—like the different colored shoes on the culinary guys. According to the Bible “in every nation he that feareth [God], and worketh righteousness, is accepted with him” (Acts 10:35, KJV). And because of many things in my life, some of which are in the books, I appreciate God's view of our racist attitudes. And instead of getting better, we keep getting worse! But if you want to be part of God's Family and “receive a full reward” (2 John 1:8, KJV) you need to dump your racism.

Page 30: Home is Where the Heart Is Maya insists on getting home. In other words, I'm dying to get Home since Jesus is so much fun! "For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain" (Phil. 1:21, KJV). But it's also because I'm sick of working alone, day after day, years on end, for a bunch of ingrates who refuse to acknowledge the obvious truth or even behave decently while so much hell is breaking forth around the world. It's like Jesus said, "O faithless and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you? how long shall I suffer you?" (Matt. 17:17, KJV). Answer: Until we have fulfilled our Duty, the "works, which God prepared in advance for us to do" (Eph. 2:10, NIV). Therefore, having fulfilled His mission Jesus cried out "It is finished." [and] With that, he bowed his head and gave up his spirit" (John 19:30, NIV).

Child Like Faith. So while many happily wave goodbye to Maya, having been blessed by her presence, the youngest child won't even face her for being so upset she's leaving—it's what kids do. And "whosoever therefore shall humble himself as this little child, the same is greatest in the kingdom of heaven" (Matt. 18:4, KJV). And "unless you change and become like little children, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven" (Matt. 18:3, NIV).

Not All will Change. You can tell that some people don't care one hoot that Maya's leaving. And they don't because they're "vessels of wrath fitted to destruction" (Rom. 9:22, KJV) or else elect like "the Pharisees and the experts in the law [who] rejected God's purpose for themselves" (Luke 7:30, NIV). Because of all the horrendous trials coming on the earth during the last of the last days, I discern most, if not all, elect will take God more seriously. First, primarily Gentiles "until the times of the Gentiles are fulfilled" (Luke 21:24, NIV), and then elect Hebrews. "In this way all Israel will be saved. As it is written" (Rom. 11:26, NIV). However, as I explain in God's Plan: A Vision for the Body, according to Scripture only a remnant of the body of Christ will take Him as seriously as they should. While they'll become born again, they'll still be super proud.

We Are on a Tour of Duty. The Lord made it clear to me that I don't get to go Home until I've fulfilled my calling, which is why I keep working like crazy, alone, unpaid, against the grain. And that's not true for all of us. The faithful don't get to die until our Tour of Duty is over—those FEMA guillotines are a blessing! (Rev. 20:4 below) Where can stick my head please? (2 Pet. 2:7-8 below). But the unfaithful can be taken out of the way before their time as with Annanias and Sapphira (see Acts 5). It's also what Paul said, "Not discerning the Lord's body. For this cause many are weak and sickly among you, and many sleep [meaning many have died]" (1 Cor. 11:29-30, KJV). If you're born again and die before your allotted time, you "shall suffer loss [getting Home] saved; yet so as by fire" (1 Cor. 3:15, KJV). Meaning, you won't "receive a full reward" (2 John 1:8, KJV).

Revelation 20:4, KJV I saw the souls of them that were beheaded for the witness of Jesus, and for the word of God, and which had not worshipped the beast, neither his image, neither had received his mark upon their foreheads, or in their hands; and they lived and reigned with Christ a thousand years.

2 Peter 2:7-9, NIV Lot, a righteous man...was distressed by the depraved conduct of the lawless (for that righteous man, living among them day after day, was tormented in his righteous soul by the lawless deeds he saw and heard).

If I didn't understand God's Plan I'd have no respect for Jesus for having gone to the Cross for the likes of us. I'd think What a fool to give His life—and do it so brutally—for people who wouldn't even appreciate it. But since I understand what He's done, it's clear that God is amazingly gracious to His elect who haven't appreciated what He's done for us. It's also clear that He's no fool. "God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap" (Gal. 6:7, KJV). We, the body of Christ, are the fools!

As the Captain's co-pilot, Maya waves goodbye and makes a statement about her elders' manners—ya haven't got any! Again the Captain is Jesus, "the captain of [ou]r salvation" (Heb. 2:10, KJV).

And He says "To sit on my right hand and on my left hand is not mine to give; but it shall be given to them for whom it is prepared" (Mark 10:40, KJV). And it looks like I am sitting at His right hand. What exactly that means in the mind of God, God knows! What I do know since He's made it SO OBVIOUS is that I have been granted a seat of honor—obvious to those who can connect the dots.

And for those who'll still think I'm so proud for saying so...God knows I have no problem sitting in the back of the bus. All I care about is actually being on the bus! I don't need to be noticed, in fact, I like being unnoticed. I love a quite life—just not as quiet as all this!

Anyhow, when God finally opens up this ministry and removes the blinders from the eyes of the born again, you'll be saying to yourselves "How have I hated instruction, and my heart despised reproof; And have not obeyed the voice of my teachers, nor inclined mine ear to them that instructed me!" (Prov. 5:12-13, KJV), and that's especially true for elect men and women in institutional church leadership. For 2000 years Jesus has "suffered...their manners" (Acts 13:18, KJV)—which is why the girl/Maya "must teach [her] parents some manners!" (my emphasis.)

While everyone had been mad at Maya or offended by her until the very end, the fact is that the Captain/God invited her/me to the banquet and to sit next to Him. Jesus says "I have chosen you, and ordained you, that ye should go and bring forth fruit" (John 15:16, KJV). And "No man taketh this honour unto himself, but he that is called of God" (Heb. 5:4, KJV). And He's made it obvious that I've been called and chosen.

And He doesn't look like He's mad at me. He's smirking. In fact, He's got His eye on YOU! (Zoom in.) He says "He that receiveth a prophet in the name of a prophet shall receive a prophet's reward" (Matt. 10:41, KJV). And He told me the following two decades ago:

I will make them of the synagogue of Satan, which say they are [Christian], and are not, but do lie; behold, I will make them to come and worship before thy feet, and to know that I have loved thee" (Rev. 3:9, KJV).

I discern 'to worship at my feet' means that they will finally acknowledge His calling on my life. In other words, they'll finally honor Him. And Jesus said "Ye shall not see me henceforth, till ye shall say, Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord" (Matt. 23:39, KJV). He will not return until the body of Christ acknowledges those He has sent in His name. And it's as obvious as can be that I'm coming to you in His name!

Page 32: About the Author

The Queen, the the body of Christ, those who know “Jesus the author and finisher of our faith” (Heb. 12:2, KJV), or are getting to know Him, will recognize that I, Maya, “eat perfectly.”

Instead of what Christians do in the dressed down, watered down, purpose-driven abominable snobby brain-dead worldly so-called churches, we’re to come to God with childlike hearts (Matt. 19:14 below) concerned with what’s going on in the inside not what we’re wearing on the outside—but certainly not undressed, as in without the Spirit (Matt. 22:11-13 below)—or dressed immodestly (1 Tim. 2:9 below), or in childish mentality (1 Cor. 13:11 below).

Matthew 19:14, NIV Jesus said, “Let the little children come to me...for the kingdom of heaven belongs to such as these.”

Matthew 22:11-13, KJV When the king came in to see the guests, he saw there a man which had not on a wedding garment: And he saith...take him away, and cast him into outer darkness, there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

1 Timothy 2:9, NIV I also want the women to dress modestly, with decency and propriety...with good deeds, appropriate for women who profess to worship God.

1 Corinthians 13:11, KJV When I was a child, I spake as a child, I understood as a child, I thought as a child: but when I became a man, I put away childish things.

So while God has had me write these books in a manner that is not at all scholarly, the context (what really matters) is mature and biblical (John 7:24 below). And having told us to come to Him as little children, it’s not as if scholarly papers with big words would ever draw God’s elect and motivate their socks off. And they haven’t. While some of them have some decent information the fact is they’re dry and boring—a snooze in comparison to what God is doing through the biblical interpretations which, I discern, every mature born again soul should be able to do, have spiritual discernment!

John 7:24, KJV Judge not according to the appearance, but judge righteous judgment.

It’s All Connected. You should have noticed the twisted noodle running through the entire book just as there is through the Bible—prophesy about God’s Messiah, a noodle the Queen is eating. God says “My thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways” (Isa. 55:8, KJV). Our ways of “making disciples” has been utterly ineffective! But God will be revealing that His way, of truth and speaking between the lines, revealing His secrets to His servants, will be very effective. Because, it’s FUN! And He says “The joy of the LORD is your strength” (Neh. 8:10, KJV).

So in the same way that there's a twisted noodle running through the the Bible and the Maya book, there's a twisted noodle running through this ministry, the series of books the Lord has had me write, just as there is through my life and through the life of God's Church, the history of the Church. While God's people have consistently said to His more enlightened servants "Thou art mad...[we have] constantly affirmed it [i]s even so" (Acts 12:15, KJV). In other words, through the books, having followed and obeyed the Lord, He is constantly affirming that I've seen the Lord! I'm speaking on His behalf. (It's kind of a no brainer.)

Back Matter

Guide to Young Readers: It speaks of the importance of facial expressions. And somewhere I wrote about how I use whatever's available to me (like Jesus did), including my face, when explaining God's Word to people. He's had me rework this material so many times since 2009 that I don't remember when that comment is now, if it's even still included. But it's how I am when I explain God's Word to someone. I give it my all. Anyone on fire for God will do that. It's impossible not to.

Ham it Up! This entire series reveals that I haven't been afraid to go with God's flow even though it's meant going against just about every grain there is and letting people think I'm seriously wacked out, so that they've been quite insulting to me—and down right mean.

Talk about the Pictures: I just did.

Above All, Enjoy! Amen, because while "in the world [w]e shall have tribulation: [but Jesus says, and enables us to] be of good cheer; [since He] ha[s] overcome the world" (John 10:10, KJV).

TIPS FOR PARENTS AND TEACHERS:

HOW TO READ COMICS WITH KIDS

Kids love comics! They are naturally drawn to the details in the pictures, which make them want to read the words. Comics beg for repeated readings and let both emerging and reluctant readers enjoy complex stories with a rich vocabulary. But since comics have their own grammar, here are a few tips for reading them with kids:

GUIDE YOUNG READERS: Use your finger to show your place in the text, but keep it at the bottom of the speaking character so it doesn't hide the very important facial expressions.

HAM IT UP! Think of the comic book story as a play and don't hesitate to read with expression and intonation. Assign parts or get kids to supply the sound effects, a great way to reinforce phonics skills.

LET THEM GUESS. Comics provide lots of context for the words, so emerging readers can make informed guesses. Like jigsaw puzzles, comics ask readers to make connections, so check a young audience's understanding by asking, "What's this character thinking?" (but don't be surprised if a kid finds some of the comics' subtle details faster than you).

TALK ABOUT THE PICTURES. Point out how the artist paces the story with pauses (silent panels) or speeded-up action (a burst of short panels). Discuss how the size and shape of the panels carry meaning.

ABOVE ALL, ENJOY! There is of course never one right way to read, so go for the shared pleasure. Once children make the story happen in their imagination, they have discovered the thrill of reading, and you won't be able to stop them. At that point, just go get them more books, and more comics.

Level 1: The little mouse is putting on really large hiking boots like I did when I was four right before an earthquake hit in Chile. I'd been playing in my father's closet with his army boots and had to make my way down the spiral staircase with them on. And hiking boots are what I lived in during the years the Lord showed me much of what's shared in these books, especially the biblical interpretations. And a year before He gave me the Maya book, so in 2011, there had been an earthquake here in Maryland so that I was reminded of that time when I was four when the earthquake hit. Then, receiving this book from the Lord, He reminded me (John 14:26 below) of how my father would make fun of me because I did the same thing with my tongue the little mouse is doing. God, through His Spirit, will remind us of things we've experienced even as far back as preschool days—if needed for His purposes.

John 14:26, NIV [Jesus said] The Holy Spirit...will remind you of everything I have said to you.

Level 2: A cute little critter is cracking up with a monkey peeking behind her who's not laughing. I've always been accused of either being too quiet and of laughing too much. It's because I'm not into what everybody else is into—and never have been—and not afraid to laugh when it's funny. So what if it's not politically correct, politics are seriously screwed up. And there's a saying, "Monkey See, Monkey Do" and that's how Satan is since he's been copying everything Jesus does and doesn't like it (doesn't laugh) when someone isn't intimidated by him and obeys Christ instead. In fact, he looks mad.

Level 3: The little devil naturally represents Satan, and his little geeky friend represents those he's used to abuse people, who think they're so smart with their secret knowledge—Illuminati, Freemasons, and shadow government (Ps. 2:1-3 below)—or so-called science (1 Tim. 6:20 below). While they do have a great deal of power, they're very 'little' in God's eyes, as is Satan (Isa. 14:16-17 below). And, they're only as powerful as the body of Christ lets them be (1 John 4:4 below).

Psalm 2:1-3, KJV The heathen rage, and the people imagine a vain thing... The kings of the earth set themselves, and the rulers take counsel together, against the LORD, and against his anointed, saying, Let us break their bands asunder, and cast away their cords from us.

1 Timothy 6:20, NIV Turn away from godless chatter and the opposing ideas of what is falsely called knowledge.

Isaiah 14:10-17, KJV All they shall...say unto [Satan], Art thou also become weak as we? art thou become like unto us? ...They...shall...say...Is this the man that made the earth to tremble, that did shake kingdoms; That made the world as a wilderness, and destroyed the cities thereof?

1 John 4:4, KJV Ye are of God, little children, and have overcome them: because greater is he that is in you [speaking to those who have His Spirit within], than he that is in the world.

A bullet says the “reader needs to make connections and speculate.” That’s a big part of the message of the Bible. And we are talking 2nd grade reading level because the new covenant is not hard to understand. “Jesus said, Suffer little children, and forbid them not, to come unto me: for of such is the kingdom of heaven” (Matt. 19:14, KJV). Preschoolers can understand the Message and would continue to walk in the truth if the adults around them actually walked in it instead of being royal hypocrites.

Back Cover

It says “Are Maya’s Manners fit for a Queen?” And the standard Christian answer has been NO! (John 15:25 below). Except the ‘standard’ so-called Christian isn’t actually Christian. God says the following:

Because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved...for this cause God [has sent] them [a] strong delusion, that they should believe a lie. (2 Thess. 2:10-11, KJV).

John 15:25, KJV They hated me without a cause.

So that’s it. Praying you are part of the Court and take up the Queen’s challenge to pork out!
