Recap

Isolated as a mixed couple in Indianapolis with two preschoolers, tight on cash, with a husband who professed to be a Christian yet showed nearly zero signs of actually being one, I again became desperate for God.

Seeking God Among the Harlot Daughters

We hadn't found a decent church since they're such weird places. That's what stands out most when taken on a Church Tour by the Founder of the Touring Company. To Buddy it was no big deal. His attitude was like It's just the way it is, as if he was saying Who cares? While he called himself a Christian, he had no expectations from God or from Church/Christians, whereas I was burdened that Church had the answers since that's the stamp the Man had placed on my Ticket—and He did because it's what the new covenant says! Except, for the past 500 years, like the rest, I'd misunderstood the definition of church. So this video (made by someone else) sums it up. What Constitutes A Real Church? - YouTube

Finally facing the truth that my Christian husband wasn't much of a Christian, I finally put my foot down. I'd prayerfully found a so-called church in the yellow pages that marketed itself as "reaching out to the unchurched" (me!). And after I'd been there a bit I remembered that someone at another church, a Mom's group, had mentioned this group indirectly. They'd said something about a church or denomination based out of somewhere else focused on reaching the unchurched. In any case, reading their ad in the yellow pages I drove out to Eagle during the week to check it out, grabbing every bit of paperwork they had at the entryway, reading it all gave me a sense of nesting.

So I told Buddy I was going with or without him. He'd burned out from the so-called Church as a pastor's kid seeing all the garbage (what he told me) while I'd burned out from the world's garbage. And living in The Landfill had us at the edge of divorce—like so many. But since God is faithful and "work[ing] all things [out] after the counsel of his own will" (Eph. 1:11, KJV), we went to Eagle as a family.

And that first day a very friendly man introduced himself to us after the service and, knowing nothing about us, joked about how he and his wife had been at the point of divorce when they'd first come there—so Buddy and I SHOT EACH OTHER LOOKS—but God had turned it all around for them at this "great church."

FOOD!

Starved for love, and "God is love" (1 John 4:8, KJV), while also being "food" (John 6:55, NIV), I devoured everything He offered: a seeker class studying Surprised by Faith by Don Bierle, a heavy duty paper by Peter Bocchino on thermodynamics and God, two growing in Christ studies, Blackaby's Experiencing God, and a slew of other studies, books, and conferences, along with some paper on baptism so that I was finally baptized. The New Testament says "If thou believest with all thine heart, thou mayest [be baptized]. And he answered and said, I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God [and was baptized]" (Acts 8:36-3, KJV). So while I had wanted to be baptized for years, I didn't believe with all of my heart because of my questions. I knew Jesus was God, that the Bible was His Word, and that I was a sinner. But the questions about all the denominations (along with other things) made everything fuzzy—as it is for most of today's born again Christians.

A Still Small Voice

Christians talk about God speaking in a “still small voice.” It comes from the following passage:

[The angel of the Lord said to Elijah], Go forth, and stand upon the mount before the LORD. And, behold, the LORD passed by, and a great and strong wind rent the mountains, and brake in pieces the rocks before the LORD; but the LORD was not in the wind: and after the wind an earthquake; but the LORD was not in the earthquake: And after the earthquake a fire; but the LORD was not in the fire: and after the fire a still small voice (1 Kings 19:11-12, KJV).

And while I didn’t understand this til more recently, it’s clear to me now that the body of Christ as a whole has historically very often ignored this still small voice so that we’ve landed the Church in great apostasy. And since I’m part of the body of Christ and God is using me to help the rest see what we’ve done, I did it too—lots of times. The following two are the clearest:

NASA’s Nazi’s: In 1991 we were living in grad housing since my husband was working on his PhD. I remember lounging around the apartment one afternoon and just scanning through his aerospace text books and coming across something that shocked me. He eventually got rid of most of his texts books so I can’t scan it but it was a blurb about Operation Paperclip, summed up in the graphic. Asking him about it he said “Yeah” with a weird face. It’s like he new about it but glossed it over. And then I glossed it over! There’s nothing I could have done about it at that point since we were already married but I’m pretty sure I wouldn’t have married him had I known that before—considering I’d refused to marry the wealthy man who worked for the Navy, since he was trained to kill. Nazi’s somehow seems worse to me. And if you’re gonna sell out, you might as well do it for money! Right?

Seriously, God’s “still small voice” (1 Kings 19:12, KJV) was speaking to me, telling me, warning me, but I ignored it, ignored Him.

Getting Baptized: Announcing that their next baptism would take place on Mother’s Day I knew it was my time. I’d wanted to be baptized for years, finally had a church home, and it would be on Mother’s Day. A “mother” is all I was and the most important thing I was—besides being born again. Clearly, it was time. They hadn’t even realized they’d schedule it for Mother’s Day until I told them.

And because God had made the worship pastor look very much like my brother, so that Buddy even noticed the resemblance, I reached out to this worship pastor. Also, because he had a very warm personality. So he gave me a journal article to read about baptism which had a questionnaire. Then when I gave it back to him, flipping through my answers he says “Maya, you always take everything so seriously!”

I felt like SUCH A FOOL when he said that, like he’d taken all the air out of my happy face balloon.

But then, as I engaged my brain past his insult, I was stunned by his comment. We’re talking about Jesus who went to the Cross and suffered BRUTALLY for us, and I’m not supposed to take Him seriously?! That’s when I should have RUN OUT THE DOOR and never looked back! That’s when I should have PAID ATTENTION to God’s still small voice!

However, being an idolater at heart just like everyone else, rather than walk in the truth and run out the door, I glossed it over! I ignored this man’s obvious lack of faith in God even though he was a so-called pastor! Having waited so long for spiritual clarity and a church “home” (since that’s the lie we’ve all been fed) I was too eager to submit to so-called church leadership—even when they were clearly wrong! And others at Eagle did it too, repeatedly! It’s what the body of Christ has done as a whole for most of the last 2000 years—glossed over Satan’s lies! We’ve done it even when they’re as obvious! Rather than “take captive every thought to make it obedient to Christ” (2 Cor. 10:5, NIV), the body of Christ has historically believed—and currently believes—a TON of lies about God, about His Church, and about what He’s actually done for humanity through the Lord’s work on the Cross, deceived for having glossed over Satan’s lies and clearly unrighteous ways.

And if this is what the body of Christ does, so do the lost—like all of those aerospace engineers, for example.

But, again, the Good News is that God “worketh all things after the counsel of his own will” (Eph. 1:11, KJV) and uses Satan’s sins along with our sins “for the good of those who love God and are called according to his purpose” (Rom. 8:28, NLT). In other words, love God and no matter how bad you mess or how often, God will still make it work out for your benefit in the end! And not just yours, but the benefit of the body of Christ as a whole, which, in turn, works out for His glory! Praise God!

God is Faithful

Since the “hireling[s]...care...not for the sheep” (John 10:13, KJV) so that they call people to volunteer, and because I wanted to be a “good person,” I immediately answered their call to work in the preschool ministry. Therefore, I was learning as I was teaching, doing what you’re NOT supposed to do—and as tons institutional Christians do! Yet Jesus warned us saying “It were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and he [be] cast into the sea, than that he should offend one of these little ones” (Luke 17:2, KJV). Institutional Christians are offending the younger generations—and have been doing so for centuries—since that entire system is totally unbiblical, which they would have known if they had taken the time to study the Word of God for themselves well. Instead, everyone has joined the institutional so-church—pagan Christianity, which is NOT Christianity—and been increasingly indoctrinated with more lies as they’ve supposedly matured in the faith. But instead of actually maturing in the faith they’ve placed increasingly more hypocritical beams in their eyes—and that’s speaking of the born again. The majority aren’t actually born again according to Scripture, as in “narrow is the way, which leadeth unto life, and few there be that find it” (Matt. 7:14, KJV), for example.

So while preschoolers understand the core message and eagerly want to honor God, they get turned away from Him by Churchianity’s “traditions” which “nullify the word of God” (Mark 7:13, NIV).

For example, Michael Chriswell in his video “Why We Left the Church” repeatedly tells people to remain in the institutional church if they’re getting fed. But that’s not God’s will. He says “Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues” (Rev. 18:4, KJV). If you’re born again you SHOULD see the problem as revealed in this graphic and corresponding videos. No more information is needed. The Catholic church rejects Jesus’ lordship placing the pope as head of the church, and the denominations reject the lordship of Christ in favor of the pope. As God says in the following passage. “Ye cannot drink the cup of the Lord, and the cup of devils” (1 Cor. 10:21, KJV). You have to choose a side.

The Catholic Church teaches that the pastoral office, the office of shepherding the Church, that was held by the apostles, as a group or “college” with Saint Peter as their head, is now held by their successors, the bishops, with the Bishop of Rome (the pope) as their head.

If you're getting fed in an institutional church, as I was at Eagle, it's because God is using them in spite of them. God uses everything and everyone for His purposes. And it's out of His grace and mercy being that "if we believe not, yet he abideth faithful [since] he cannot deny himself" (2 Tim. 2:13, KJV). Thank God! But we shouldn't keep building on this false system that's clearly led by Satan, summed up with these pyramids. That said, it's also all about being a follower of Christ, which you do by hearing His voice for yourself having asked Him for His leading. For example, He might want you in that system for a season to help others. You can't assume anything.

The institutional church doesn't just function like a business, it mirrors the satanic New World Order!

Satan's Advocate

God made it very clear to me that He wanted me to share my testimony which I hadn't shared with anyone. And He wanted me to do it with the whole congregation at my baptism! Yet, as noted previously, I'm so not into public speaking that I put off junior English in college until my very last semester knowing I would have to give a 3 minute presentation in front of the class. On top of that, sharing testimony about how I came to the Lord included the psych ward. It also meant that I had to go against Buddy's worldly counsel. God was introducing his partial role in my life as Satan's advocate—all of which caused me to go spelunking in the Valley since "we wrestle not against flesh and blood but against....spiritual wickedness in high places" (Eph. 6:12, KJV). Actually, Buddy had been used by Satan all along since he had been a professing Christians having sex with me outside of marriage. I was just becoming increasingly more sensitive to God's "still small voice" (1 Kings 19:12, KJV).

So while we tend to complain that God takes too long, we're then bothered that He's moving TOO FAST! And it's tough to have your husband, the one who's supposed to be the spiritual head of your home (Eph. 5:23 below), and a professing Christian who's supposedly been a Christian for years, son of a pastor, NOT encourage you in Christ but speak contrary to His leading! Especially, considering where I was coming from and the fact that God had led me to marry the man! It was, and has been, a MAJOR MISERABLE Head Game. But God says "My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness" (2 Cor. 12:9, KJV). Eventually, that will be revealed through my testimony, in God's "appointed time" (Hab. 2:3, KJV).

Ephesians 5:23, NIV For the husband is the head of the wife as Christ is the head of the church, his body, of which he is the Savior.

Moreover, it seems to me that God has given all of us Satan's advocate as our closest friends. That's the challenge, to love Him more. Jesus said it straight out, pretty much. "He that loveth father or mother more than me is not worthy of me: and he that loveth son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me" (Matt. 10:38, KJV). While he didn't specifically say husband or wife, it seems to be implied, more than implied since Scripture also says the following:

An unmarried woman or virgin is concerned about the Lord's affairs: Her aim is to be devoted to the Lord in both body and spirit. But a married woman is concerned about the affairs of this world—how she can please her husband. I am saying this for your own good, not to restrict you, but that you may live in a right way in undivided devotion to the Lord (1 Cor. 7:34-35, NIV).

Our spouse is supposed to be our best friend. Therefore, if we're married we've got this divided devotion when it is God's will for us to have an "undivided devotion" to Him, that's the first commandment, to "love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind, and with all thy strength: this is the first commandment" (Mark 12:30, KJV). So it's basically as I said, God has given all of us Satan's advocate as our closest friend in the flesh. And He says "He that taketh not his cross, and followeth after me, is not worthy of me" (Matt. 10:38, KJV). Instead of listening to our closest friend in the flesh, we have to listen to our closest Friend in the Spirit, Jesus, who says "I have called you friends" (John 15:15, KJV). So that's what I did at Eagle and have continued to do.

Praying with an Open Scroll

Challenged, obeying the Lord, I was encouraged and empowered by God as many extended to me the "right hand of fellowship" (Gal. 2:9, KJV) since God used my testimony to encourage and challenge them in their walk, which also helped build up my trust in Him.

And since Satan's NOT INTO THAT, Foes were really making a fuss—again. Especially since God had renewed what He'd started on the bed sheets, praying His Word, and I was much more focused about having grown in Christ. Moreover, what I've learned since then is that while this the surface level breakdown, members of either team, Friends or Foes, will be used to help or hurt us. For example, the body of Christ has been primarily hurting me—and all of us—our entire lives. God has also used the lost and demonic spirits to minister to me on many different occasions. The way we make it all work for us and do so to its full potential is by "tak[ing] captive every thought to make it obedient to Christ" (2 Cor. 10:5, NIV).

A Calling without Honor

By the second year at Eagle the Lord was using me to speak up for Him and feel the heat. He says “Blessed are ye, when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake...for great is your reward in heaven” (Matt. 5:11-12, KJV). “All that will live godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution” (2 Tim. 3:12, KJV).

Having raised me up to “Feed [His] sheep” (John 21:17, KJV) and function as His Sous Chef for these last days, Chef Jesus started the burner on low heat for a long simmer with a friend who asked for financial counsel. But when I gave it to her using the Bible and my bankruptcy testimony, she immediately turned on me because it meant she couldn’t buy the truck she wanted, abruptly ending our friendship as she shot daggers at me across the sanctuary for a year. And it wasn’t in my head because another friend once asked why that woman was glaring at me with such hatred. (She eventually asked forgiveness for it while confessing to the trials that had followed since she’d bought the truck anyhow.)

Overlapping with the darts shooting in from this woman and from my family of origin, God then turned up the heat with leadership in the preschool ministry while also having me work on Sunder’s book. The Lord was cooking! And since He’s a Gourmet Chef and unlike any other (Acts 4:12 below), His stove has multiple burners so that He got those other burners going to include other leaders and all of the pastors, while darts also shot in from strangers and several people from my past who tried to reconnect out of nowhere—disgusted with me since I was not preaching Christ and they of course were steeped in sin—all the while having me immersed in His Word and in prayer with others around the city.

Acts 2:12, KJV For there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved.

So one day while I was downloading about what was taking place at Eagle, Mrs. X who attended a different congregation suddenly burst out laughing. “Maya! You’re a prophet and you don’t even know it!”

Her words scared me. Because, the Old Testament says “a prophet who presumes to speak in my name...is to be put to death” (Deut. 18:20, NIV). And—while I didn’t know this at the time—it’s pretty clear that all prophets for the last 500 years, at least, have prophesied falsely! And we don’t get put to death as in the Old Testament because, for one thing, we’re now under a covenant of grace. “For the law was given by Moses, but grace and truth came by Jesus Christ” (John 1:17, KJV). We’re now under a new system—which is of grace. It’s like a mixed blessing. While prophets don’t get “put to death” under the new covenant—which is very good—it’s made it harder for the born again (since we’ve been so rebellious) to discern the truth—which is really bad. Basically, grace has been our Achilles heel, something Satan has known and has used against us.

Prophets Under the New Covenant: Since Jesus said “I send unto you prophets” (Matt. 23:34, KJV) and every Christian has been wrong on many points throughout most of Christian history, apparently a prophet under the new covenant won’t be wrong about the major stuff like Jesus being God or about clear doctrines, as with homosexuality being a sin (Rom. 1:27 below). But they can be wrong about unclear details just like everyone else, wrong in their interpretation of what has been revealed/spoken to them by God. However, I think God actually made it very easy to tell when you’re dealing with a true or false prophet. The only reason born again Christians haven’t been able to tell is because they have “beam[s]” blinding them (Matt. 7:5, KJV) due to their hypocrisy and also haven’t “take[n] captive every thought to make it obedient to Christ” (2 Cor. 10:5, NIV). In short, they haven’t been honest.

Romans 1:27, NIV Men also abandoned natural relations with women and were inflamed with lust for one another. Men committed shameful acts with other men, and received in themselves the due penalty for their error.

Anyhow, having a decent “fear of God” which is “the beginning of wisdom” (Prov. 9:10, KJV), I asked the Lord if what Mrs. X had said was true, if I was actually a prophet, which He confirmed immediately and for years many times over through a combination of Scripture and trials—Food (John 6:35 & 55 below) and Heat (2 Tim. 3:12; Heb. 12:29 below). And we all know that’s a great combination.

John 6:35, KJV Jesus said unto them, I am the bread of life.

John 6:55, KJV For my flesh is meat indeed.

2 Timothy 3:12, KJV All that will live godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution.

Hebrews 12:29, KJV For our God is a consuming fire.

Then, nearly a decade later God gave me the culinary parable shortly followed by a confirmation with the book Maya Makes a Mess and the movie Babette's Feast (1987) and several other food oriented books and movies for me to interpret for His people as Food for them to eat.

Porking Out

Since my mind was now clear, as opposed to when I was born again having been so stressed out and God having placed me in a realm where the spiritual and carnal meet, and I’d been digging deep into God’s Word, I realized that I was thirty plus years into my life and hadn’t stored up hardly a thing in heaven! Yet Jesus clearly told us to “Lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal” (Matt. 6:20, KJV). Panicked about it, I began asking God to give me His work to do—thinking it would be paid work. Except He says “My thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways” (Isa. 55:8 below).

So during an RZIM conference, Bill Bean, the worship pastor, asked me if I’d be interested in editing a book written by the pastor who’d just blown us all out of the water, Sunder Krishnan, Ravi Zacharias’ brother in law and mentor to Eagle.

Was I interested!? Not only did it answer my prayer, I immediately saw how my work experience in publications tied in to God’s calling on my life. So while unpaid, I was still interested even though Sunder’s book was in such bad shape that no publisher would pick it up, and the transition to DIY publishing hadn’t taken place yet. The Web wouldn’t even be mainstream for another two years. Cell phones weren’t even popular yet!

As a study on the psalms, Sunder’s book was a gold mine. It was like working on a translation (which I loved doing) because the man had a Master’s in mechanical engineering from MIT, of all places, and neither was English his first language. Let’s just say it wasn’t exactly ‘user friendly.’ It was more like a 200-page run on sentence! But what a sentence! And it was a sentence God had especially prepped me for with the work He’d had me do on those journal articles at MayaTech—having worked my deceptive “fundamental Christian” bosses ways into His Mater Plan since He “worketh all things after the counsel of his own will” (Eph. 1:11, KJV).

I also knew I had to clearly understand not only what Sunder was saying, but what God was saying through His Word which Sunder was interpreting. And that the only way to do the job right would be to read everything he’d written and referenced—what I could get my hands on. So I was reading and studying God’s Word, what Sunder wrote, what others wrote that he had referenced, and other books and resources those people referenced...so that I was porking out like Maya from Maya Makes a Mess, a book the Lord provided 14 years later for me to interpret for His people. And why not pork out like Maya? After all, I am Maya. And I do love FOOD (John 6:55 below)—both material and spiritual, as the scale and these booklets are my witness.

John 6:55, KJV [Jesus says] My flesh is meat indeed, and my blood is drink indeed.

Called to Plug the Hole in the Cup

Having been led by the Lord to my first and only so-called home church—Eagle in Indianapolis—God gave one of the so-called elder’s wives a message for me.

And a few days before she said anything to me about having a Word from God for me, a close friend and prayer partner from a different church, Mrs. X, had lamented saying “Church is so draining!” to which I’d nodded in agreement. It’s draining because the body of Christ is so rebellious.

So when this so-called elder’s wife told me she had a message from the Lord for me, we agreed to meet in one of Eagle’s conference rooms. I’d arrived first. She then came in a minute later sipping out of a Styrofoam cup. Then as she sat down she said “God keeps filling you to overflowing!” This was true because I was spending nearly all of my time (as a stay at home mom with two preschoolers) seeking God in earnest and praying with different groups all over the city. In turn, the Lord was speaking to me constantly as He promised He would saying “Thine ears shall hear a word behind thee, saying, This is the way, walk ye in it, when ye turn to the right hand, and when ye turn to the left” (Isa. 30:21, KJV). Having “anointe[d] my head with oil; my cup runneth over” (Ps. 23:5, KJV). It was just as she had said, I was getting filled to overflowing so that Eagle’s pastor, the “hireling” (John 10:13, KJV) Kerry Bowman, and others, had repeatedly spoken of me as being “on fire for God.”

Then this woman said, as she poked a hole through the bottom side of her cup, “But just as soon as He pours it in it all drains out!”

Again, this was true just as my friend had lamented and I’d agreed. The “Church is so draining!”

Then this woman said “He wants you to PLUG the hole in the cup!” At which time I realized she was really mad at me.

And since God had given me a decent dose of the fear of the Lord with Hell Week and all that, I got scared thinking God was seriously mad at me. So I genuinely asked her “Do you know what the hole is?” To which she nodded No.

Then, thinking about it for a moment, I suddenly blurted out “It’s the Church!” It’s what I’d been experiencing in increasing measure. The better I got to know the Lord and His Word the more hypocritical Christians revealed themselves to be, preaching one thing and doing the exact opposite while being unwilling to be held accountable. They were the hole! And because this woman was a so-called elder’s wife, she did not appreciate my statement so that our meeting ended abruptly. I’m also guessing she thought I just meant the church as in Eagle when I meant the Church as in the “body of Christ” (1 Cor. 1:27, KJV).

It’s the same thing that happened with Frank Viola and George Barna’s book, Pagan Christianity: Exploring the Roots of Our Church Practices, which came out in 2008. While it’s obvious that Christians are NOT honoring Christ, most Christians get mad when the truth is pointed out to them. Super proud when we’re supposed to be super humble.

Then, at about the same time—maybe even that week—the Lord walked me through Moses and his calling, using not only my Bible but the movie The Prince of Egypt (1998), letting me know that this woman had placed the emphasis on the wrong part of the sentence. While she had said “He wants you to PLUG the hole in the cup” God actually meant “I want YOU to plug the hole in the Cup.” He was using her to give me details about my calling, the “Cup” referring to “the cup of salvation” (Ps. 116:13, KJV). Because of Christian historical hypocrisy, apostasy, Christians have “nullif[ied] the word of God for the sake of...our tradition[s]” (Matt. 15:6, NIV). Not only does Christianity celebrate pagan holidays, the whole system we’ve called Christianity is a pagan tradition as God had Frank Viola and George Barna expose with Pagan Christianity in 2008.

And that was about the time (1998) when the Lord first spoke the following verse to me, further confirming His calling on my life, having started with letters, which turned into a book, and then He had me break down into many booklets:

The LORD answered me, and said, Write the vision, and make it plain upon tables, that he may run that readeth it. For the vision is yet for an appointed time, but at the end it shall speak, and not lie: though it tarry, wait for it; because it will surely come, it will not tarry (Hab. 2:2-3, KJV).

So, again, that’s what this ministry is about.

In these testimony books I’ve been going over spiritual markers revealing God’s hand on my life as it ties in to how He’s using me. Since God is in control of all, He doesn’t just remind the born again of what He has taught us as a born again soul, He reminds us about what He’s been teaching us our whole lives. As Jesus said “The Comforter...shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you” (John 14:26, KJV). God has been speaking to us our entire lives, we just didn’t have any discernment at all before becoming born again because it’s as He says in the following passage:

The person without the Spirit does not accept the things that come from the Spirit of God but considers them foolishness, and cannot understand them because they are discerned only through the Spirit (1 Cor. 2:14, NIV).

Therefore, when we’ve become a fully devoted follower of Christ, knowing and studying God’s Word without purposely sinning against Him and also not ignoring the sins of others, we can finally understand—from God’s perspective—all those crazy things we went through, especially when we ask Him to reveal these things to us.

God’s Punching Bag

Bill Bean, worship pastor at Eagle, once said “Maya, you’re like God’s punching bag.” It was prophetic because the walk God has had me on and the material He’s had me put together—the ministry He’s placed in my care—reveals it.

However, I didn’t realize it until January 2021, more than two decades later, that I’d always pictured that punching bag like the ones we have at LA Fitness, the big bags where your punches are given somewhat slow, with the focus being on hard and steady. But that’s now it’s been. What my life has been like is the little speed bags you mostly see boxers use in the movies—fast, hard (but not as hard), and repetitive. Lot’s of punches. That’s been my experience with professing Christians (and unbelievers), especially since Eagle. And, as Bill had noted, it was something of my experience before Eagle.

Satan’s Chew Toy

I’ve also been something of Satan’s chew toy. And I wrote that three years before some dogs—real animals—literally chewed me up, having had it happen for years by the spiritual dogs God’s prophesied about in the following passage:

His watchmen are blind: they are all ignorant, they are all dumb dogs, they cannot bark; sleeping, lying down, loving to slumber. Yea, they are greedy dogs which can never have enough, and they are shepherds that cannot understand: they all look to their own way, every one for his gain (Isa. 56:10-11, KJV).

Without the trials and heartache, the body of Christ being what it is, I would also ignore what Christ did for me and tells me, and, like everyone else, “seek [my] own [interest], not the things which are Jesus Christ's" (Phil. 2:21, KJV). There's no doubt in my mind that I'd do that because "there is none that seeketh after God. [We] are all gone out of the way, [we] are together become unprofitable; there is none that doeth good, no, not one" (Rom. 3:11-12, KJV). It's what everyone's done to one degree or another for the past 2000 years as Christian history reveals! Even the best servants of Christ have bought the lies about institutional Christianity—and everything that goes along with that.

God's #1 Cheerleader

Bill had also referred to me as "God's #1 Cheerleader." And it sure looks like he had that right, as God is proving through the ministry with which He has entrusted me. But His people won't be able to see that until they read what He's had me write AND remove the beams from their eyes, again, summed up with this graphic of a more "mature" born again Christian. Today's Christian leaders are young men and SUPER proud or older men and not only SUPER proud but too proud and set in their ways to change, to even consider that they could have been wrong for so long—even through they clearly have been.

Praised and Forgotten

Having sent Sunder a draft of my work, he immediately called me from Canada, super hyper, saying he was so pleased he was making me co-author, which naturally inspired me to pork out all the more. Bill said Sunder was Eagle's mentor, and the man was biblically solid (as good as they get in the harlot system). He was also firmly associated with RZIM, not only as an associate but as Ravi's brother-in-law.

However, as the Bible warns us "knowledge puffs up" (1 Cor. 8:1, NIV), and cold fronts do come in from Canada. So as things went down with Eagle, it wasn't terribly shocking that I never heard from Canada again. And God had prepped me for the Cold Front by letting me personally experience Sunder's cold shoulder/too busy for people manner in person. The same manner they all have once you get past the surface level Grip and Grin greeting. Except that's not how they should be according to the Manual and what they themselves preach (Matt. 7:12 below). So Jesus says "Whatsoever thy bid you observe...do; but do not ye after their works: for they say, and do not" (Matt. 23:3, KJV). They're hypocrites.

Matthew 7:12, KJV All things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them: for this is the law and the prophets.

Worse than a Hypocrite

In 2016 God showed me that Ravi was an occult Illuminati Freemason—not actually a follower of Christ, explaining some of the unbiblical statements he'd made over the years. And at this point in time, you'd have to lie to yourself pretty good to say that his hand signs are all natural. Moreover, after he died their was that scandal about his sexual activity. In my mind, there's no way Ravi was my brother in Christ. No way. While there's probably much more against him, the following is more than enough:

- He used occult hand signs;
- He endorsed Joyce Meyers as a "great Bible teacher" when she's a self-help guru;
- He endorsed Henri Nouwen, a Catholic monk;
- He lived in luxury when His supposed role model, Jesus, said "Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him" (1 John 2:15, KJV);
- He owned worldly day spas;
- He sexually harassed women; and,
- He endorsed The Chosen series when it's a Catholic production.

It all points to a worldly unregenerated soul who was what God warned us about when He said “Evil men and seducers shall wax worse and worse, deceiving, and being deceived” (2 Tim. 3:13, KJV). And you can see how his deception spreads, as with the blurb concerning The Chosen. The person is saying this series is OK because Ravi endorsed it! However, we decide if something is OK with God NOT because someone else says so but because Jesus says so. “We demolish arguments and every pretension that sets itself up against the knowledge of God, and we take captive every thought to make it obedient to Christ” (2 Cor. 10:5, NIV).

RAVI ZACHARIAS PROMOTES ROMAN CATHOLIC HENRI NOUWEN AND CONTEMPLATIVE SPIRITUALITY/MYSTICISM

A while back Apprising Ministries ran a piece called Ravi Zacharias Answers “Can A Person Live A Sincere Christian Life As A Homosexual?” [1] Within it you can hear, via a YouTube clip [2], the well-respected Protestant evangelical apologist, Ravi Zacharias, say, “One of the greatest saints of recent memory was Henri Nouwen.” For those who may not be aware, Henri Nouwen (1932-1996) was a Roman Catholic monk, and remains to this day a veritable superstar teacher of neo-Gnostic Contemplative Spirituality/Mysticism (CSM).

Not only was Ravi NOT in Christ, it's very possible that Sunder, along with Eagle leadership, are Illuminati Freemasons as well—God having used them for His purposes. Because, that congregation was very “Purpose Driven” rather than driven by the holy Spirit, being lovers of Rick Warren who is clearly unbiblical and a Freemason. And concerning Ravi, if you can be a born again Christian for more than five decades, with an obviously very bright mind, and this is the best that you can become morally, then Jesus’ work on the Cross was a massive failure!

Except is wasn’t.

Baby Faith

Just as soon as we had landed at Eagle, having lost my father to cancer, my 24-month old baby presented with what they thought might be Leukemia. Impressed by God that both girls were more His than they are mine, I gave it up. Not easily, but I gave it up. You either soften or harden your heart to God, every day, throughout the day, especially when trials arise. He says “To day if ye will hear his voice, harden not your heart” (Heb. 3:15, KJV). That’s always the choice, and it’s very often not an easy one to make because if it were easy there would be no growth. It’s typically a very hard choice because it requires living by faith rather than by sight, trusting that there’s a positive outcome in all of it when it looks like all is lost. It also typically requires going against the grain, listening to and believing God’s “still small voice” (1 Kings 19:12, KJV) instead of all the other voices, most of which profess to have faith in Christ, telling you something different—like when I left the psych ward, God was quietly telling me to trust Him while everyone including the professing Christian were firmly admonishing me to take the drugs and see the shrink. So not only do you have go against the grain, you have to take the heat for it since they’ll get mad at you for trusting God.

So during that difficult Valley Experience the Lord began teaching my baby how to trust Him. And while she never cried when having her blood drawn, her eyes would get REALLY BIG if we drove near the hospital, which we often did. So I promised to tell her beforehand if she was going to have blood drawn and that I’d help her prepare for it. I did that by teaching her how to relax her little muscles and engage her little brain on the love of Christ. Since her muscles were relaxed it didn’t hurt as much, and little children readily understand the love of Christ, which is partly why Jesus says “become as little children” (Matt. 18:3, KJV). And how many preschoolers do you know who don’t cry when getting stuck with a needle, especially at 24 months of age?! Only God makes that happen (typically). The nurses were always shocked.

And God, our Father, loves us enough—all the more than any mother does her child!—to prepare us for things in our future. Except you need to listen, believe, and do what He says (Amos 3:7 & Heb. 11:6 below), like my baby did.

Amos 3:7, KJV Surely the Lord GOD will do nothing, but he revealeth his secret unto his servants the prophets.

Hebrews 11:6, KJV Without faith it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him.

Psalm 32:8, NIV I will instruct you and teach you in the way you should go; I will counsel you with my loving eye on you.

A Growing Vine

One day a man at Eagle contacted the pastors saying God spoke to him about laying hands on me and praying over me. Then, as they were praying, the man went off on a word picture of an intricately woven basket with a green vine in it. The vine is very green and growing and growing and growing... He went on and on about it.

God—represented by the basket (as in all my eggs are in His Basket)—is very intricate, as in “manifold” (Eph. 3:10, NIV) and I was very “green” compared to what I am today. However, I was also “green” as in fresh, open to God. Jesus spoke of His day as being a time of greenness. He said “if they do these things in a green tree, what shall be done in the dry?” (Luke 23:31, KJV). His day was green because there were disciples who actually believed and obeyed Him, in spite of the ruling authorities. And that’s the walk I was about to begin walking in—going against the “ruling authorities” of so-called church leadership.

And since they laid their hands on me, there's been loads and loads and loads of growth. Even back then "pastor" Kerry Bowman had noted that I was "growing by leaps and bounds." I was, because I finally understood who I am in Christ—what my lesbian demonic neighbor had correctly accused me of NOT knowing a year or so before—"for as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God" (Rom. 8:14, KJV). I was now finally secure on being God's child having much greater understanding.

I also better understood who He is, love, since "God is love" (1 John 4:8, KJV). And when Buddy and I had been living together in California, we had little assignments we were doing, one of which was to write down what we thought was our purpose in life. For some reason I'd written down that my purpose, or a big part of my purpose, was to know what love is. I have no idea why I would have even said that...other than I knew that knew very well what love/hate relationships were all about since it was nearly all I'd ever experienced—not just because of other people but because of me as well. It's what God says about the lost, that we are "being hated and hating one another" (Titus 3:3, KJV) doing it while calling it love.

And what I'd written, that my purpose was to know what love is, is what God has purposed for all of His elect during the "present evil age" (Gal. 1:4, YLT) having created us as "vessels of mercy, which he had afore prepared unto glory" (Rom. 9:23, KJV). That's our purpose for this life, to not only know what love is but to personally know love and know Him well, because "God is love" (1 John 4:8, KJV) and Jesus is God being that He said "I and my Father are one" (John 10:30, KJV).

And this ministry, the past 22 years since they laid hands on me, reveals that the man's words were very prophetic, this vine has grown and grown and grown. And it's not done growing. He said it was a green vine and this vine, I, have remained green, remained open to God. He raised up this "green vine" to help the rest of His body, the born again, who could then help the rest of the elect who are currently lost.

A Bonsai

During that same season the head pastor, Kerry Bowman, did a series called The Gardener out of John 15 where Jesus says the following:

I am the true vine, and my Father is the gardener. He cuts off every branch in me that bears no fruit, while every branch that does bear fruit he prunes so that it will be even more fruitful. You are already clean because of the word I have spoken to you. Remain in me, as I also remain in you. No branch can bear fruit by itself; it must remain in the vine. Neither can you bear fruit unless you remain in me. I am the vine; you are the branches. If you remain in me and I in you, you will bear much fruit; apart from me you can do nothing (John 15 1-5, NIV).

Listening to the sermon, I heard the Lord say that I was a bonsai tree as He reminded me of what I'd been taught in my college poetry class years earlier since "the Holy Spirit...will remind [us] of everything [He has] said to [us]" (John 14:26, NIV). An older man had written a poem called I Do Bonsai, explaining to the class all about bonsai trees. More recently, about a decade ago so a decade after that, visiting the National Arboretum I was further enlightened about the bonsai. The link is no longer available online but there used to be a slide show and this particular tree was slide #25, which God tied to the movie The Secret Life of Walter Mitty (2013) which He's had me interpret. There are six things God is saying to His elect about this bonsai/me/#25:

1. They're normal trees. Spiritually speaking it's like "Elijah was a human being, even as we are" (James 5:17, NIV). He was a regular guy, like me, only I'm female;
2. The Gardener's work is training;
3. The tree gets pruned intensely;
4. It's a really long process. This little tree has been in training since 1626! So my Tour of Duty isn't bad in comparison (though it feels like an eternity); and,

The Japanese white pine that survived the atomic bomb was given to the U.S. as a 200th birthday present. Here, it's surrounded by morning glories in 2013.

PHOTOGRAPH COURTESY USA-U.S. NATIONAL ARBORETUM

5. It was an overcomer of the atomic bomb, God stressing the magnitude of the war we're in "against spiritual wickedness in high places" (Eph. 6:12, KJV).

What the Lord impressed upon me back then, which would help sustain me over the difficult years of massive pruning which lay ahead, was that I was growing at a decent rate (as the vine in the basket) and would be pruned substantially according to His wishes (as the bonsai) since He's "the gardener" (John 15:1, NIV).

I also understood that the spiritual war would be intense since that's how He had started me on this walk just as soon as I'd become born again bringing me in through the Scared Straight Program and because of what the Bible says, and how history has played out—in a word, Hiroshima. It's that's what God has prophesied for the very last days as we read in this passage and see in the Hiroshima victim:

This is the plague with which the LORD will strike all the nations that fought against Jerusalem: Their flesh will rot while they are still standing on their feet, their eyes will rot in their sockets, and their tongues will rot in their mouths (Zech. 14:12, NIV).

Hiroshima Victim

Except I don't think He means the Jerusalem of earth. Churchianity thinks we're supposed to be helping the Jews of Israel when they reject His lordship. That's not what God is saying. Yes, we're supposed to help them in Christ's name but not because they're supposedly the chosen people. They're not even the actual descendants of the Hebrew Israelites since those people were a Black community. I cover it in detail in God's Plan. God is speaking of fighting against the "new Jerusalem" which is made up of the body of Christ, the born again. Scripture says "I saw the Holy City, the new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride beautifully dressed for her husband" (Rev. 21:2, NIV). I walk through the new Jerusalem in God's Plan and summed it up with this graphic. Unlike the lies most Christians have been indoctrinated to believe, when Jesus returns the born again and those who died in Christ will "meet the Lord in the air" (1 Thess. 4:17, KJV) and escort Him back in the same way that Martha and Mary went out to meet the Lord and escorted Him back to town when Lazarus had died (see John 11:1-44).

(If you've never read the book Hiroshima by John Hersey...you should. It'll teach you the fear of the Lord.)

Preschool Prophecies with a Double Twist

As the medical trial ended with our baby, Buddy presented with symptoms they couldn't diagnose for years, and which further developed over the years. Then while working on the original book in 2009, God showed me that He had prophesied about it all through some birthday parties we'd thrown the girls during those early years while at Eagle. The first one was a Doctor's party and the other had been a Stranded on an Island theme which was prophetic about this calling, which ties in to the song Message in a Bottle by The Police And the only thing Christian about the parties was that some of us were Christian, either born again or professing. They were just standard preschool birthday parties thrown by a mom who loves little kids, the Lord, and is creative (being a child of the Creator).

The Good Physician's Party.

I sent out invitations calling doctors to form a medical team to extract the BBOMA bug from our patient (Buddy). The thing bugging me was having Both Birthday's One Month Apart (BBOMA, as in Bummer!) right during Christmas which we still celebrated, that's why it was such a bummer. It's just TOO MUCH. Christmas alone was too much. Seeing the pictures again, which I'd made into a collage poster and had up on the wall, God smacked me upside the head with the revelation one day since "the Holy Spirit....remind[s us] of everything [He has] said to [us]" (John 14:26, NIV).

Hooking Up to the Source: During the girls' well visit we told their pediatrician of our birthday plans so that he suddenly rushed out of the room all excited and returned with a plastic oxygen mask and its tubes—a kid at heart (Matt. 18:3 below). I hooked it up to a painted five gallon water bottle for our oxygen tank (Acts 2:2 below). It's like what Buddy was hooked up to at times (in the future, my current past)—and what the BRAT needs to get hooked up to, ASAP. CODE BLUE! (Acts 5:32 & 1:8 below)

Matthew 18:3, KJV Except ye be converted, and become as little children, ye shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven.

Acts 2:2, KJV A rushing mighty wind.

Acts 5:32, NIV The Holy Spirit...God has given to those who obey him.

Acts 1:8, NIV You will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes on you; and you will be my witnesses.

Diseased from Head to Toe: I presented Buddy with a new set of PJs and fellows in residence taped loads of candy and small toys onto them, hiding the BBOMA bug under his surgical cap. And today, Buddy is ill from head to toe, just like God's Girl who "look[s] beautiful on the outside but on the inside [is] full of the bones of the dead and everything unclean" (Matt. 23:27, NIV). And he does have a growth in his head, just like the Lord's Girl for not "bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ" (2 Cor. 10:5, KJV). So what's happened is this passage:

When the unclean spirit is gone out of a man, he walketh through dry places, seeking rest, and findeth none. Then he saith, I will return into my house from whence I came out; and when he is come, he findeth it empty, swept, and garnished. Then goeth he, and taketh with himself seven other spirits more wicked than himself, and they enter in and dwell there: and the last state of that man is worse than the first (Matt. 12:43-45, KJV).

Here's how I explained it recently to Mr. X. who naturally reacted quite hostile just because I knocked on his door. The prodigal born again is represented by Buddy who is not a man of prayer, not interested in talking about the Lord, does not evangelize...nothing, yet still says he believes in Jesus and sees NO PROBLEM with how he's living his life! He knows he's (supposedly) on the right track since he's a "believer." And because he's born again (as God revealed to me, testimony shared under the entry A Muscular Backbone), his temple has been "swept" clean by the blood of Christ. But, having hardened his heart to the Lord as a born again Christian, his present state, "the last state" is "worse than the first" because he's spiritually proud. So not only does he have a hardened heart but beams in his eyes which blind him (Matt. 7:5). While he probably thinks he's walking towards Christ—my guess is he doesn't think about it at all—he's actually walking towards Satan! Because if prodigals actually thought about the Lord they would no longer be prodigal since they'd get convicted and repent. So I've been able to see this play out over the years since 15 years ago (around 2001 to 2008) Buddy was more interested in the Lord than he is today. And that's how it is with all prodigals.

In contrast, the more the earnest soul continues to seek after, follow, and obey the Lord while living this life, so that the narrow way gets increasingly narrower until they finally break free from that tangled web of lies Satan has fed the body of Christ for centuries. We're able to break free since this world has less and less that entices us being that our hearts and minds are increasingly more focused on God's kingdom which makes everything this world has to offer look increasingly more like "dung" (Phil. 3:8, KJV). [In modern terms it looks like shit!] Following Jesus, "the light of the world" (John 8:12, KJV), we consistently hear Him say "Be ye separate...touch not the unclean thing [that manure]; and I will receive you" (2 Cor. 6:17, KJV). Doing that, we get increasingly more enlightened through our fellowship with Him. As we're told "Do not conform to the pattern of this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind. [That's a constant thing we have to do.] Then you will be able to test and approve what God's will is—his good, pleasing and perfect will" (Rom. 12:2, NIV).

So I summed it up with this graphic. Starting out as a lost soul you're in the dark. Enlightened to the truth we begin to obey Jesus so that He gives us "the Holy Spirit, whom God has given to those who obey him" (Acts 5:32, NIV). But we're "green" at this point since we don't know a whole lot, and yet, born again. However, if we continue in the faith being "transformed by the renewing of...our mind" (Rom. 12:2, KJV) by taking our thoughts captive to Christ (2 Cor. 10:5) we get increasingly enlightened and changed from the "old man" (Col. 3:9, KJV) to the new man who is becoming more and more like Christ. So while we can start feeding others right way, we should really wait until we've made up our mind to not lie to ourselves about anything. The body of Christ has historically NOT done that so that we've landed in the mess we're now in—Satan's grip.

The Born Again Should be Getting Fully Transformed by Christ

*Be not conformed to this world:
but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind,
that ye may prove what is that good,
and acceptable, and perfect, will of God.*

Romans 12:2, KJV

Back to the party...

Misdiagnosed: This repeatedly happened to Buddy and it's what God's Girl does—misdiagnose the situation—by being unable to tell the difference between true and false prophets when it shouldn't be that hard for the born again. "Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Consider your ways" (Hag. 1:7, KJV).

A Mad Dash to Help the Dying: I made ambulances for all the doctors for a sack race. God says "Know ye not that they which run in a race run all, but one receiveth the prize? So run, that ye may obtain" (1 Cor. 9:24, KJV).

Sincere Concern: After the party Buddy said the children had been genuinely concerned for him forgetting it was just play. If only God's adult children were like that. If only they understood that genuine "love is patient...[and] kind...does not envy...does not boast...[and] is not proud" (1 Cor. 13:4, NIV).

Scrubs & Gloves: I made scrubs for each child and Mrs. X donated surgical caps, medical face masks, and gloves for balloons since she was medical residency. It's like what the Lord has done except we haven't made use of the equipment He's given us. By having Jesus go to the Cross, our heavenly Father gave the faithful "authority to drive out impure spirits and to heal every disease and sickness" (Matt. 10:1, KJV). And it was a donation since salvation is a "free gift" (Rom. 5:15, KJV). However, we only have that authority when we "walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit" (Rom. 8:4, KJV). We also have to function as a group, as God meant for us under the new covenant, as modeled for us in the New Testament. They functioned as the "body of Christ" (1 Cor. 12:27, KJV), "submitting...ourselves one to another in the fear of God" (Eph. 5:21, KJV)—which is what the children did. They weren't submitting in the fear of God but they were submitting to one another. They all PLAYED NICE—not like today's Christians who are supreme snobs and super ice cold!

Figuring Out the Game Plan: The kids worked great together to bring Buddy back to health, submitting to the one I'd made Head Doctor, the oldest one (1 Tim. 5:17 below) who walked them through the medical chart I'd created. I'd made a huge poster and gave him a pointer (the stick from a Venetian blind with red tape on the end) to organize his team and figure out their plan of attack. Really into it, they took their jobs seriously while having fun—like Christians are supposed to be doing (Neh. 8:10 & Eph. 5:21 above).

1 Timothy 5:17, KJV Let the elders that rule well be counted worthy of double honour, especially they who labour in the word and doctrine.

Nehemiah 8:10, KJV For the joy of the LORD is your strength.

Overloaded with Meds: I decorated the operating room with charts and graphs on the walls, brought out a small white bookcase ditching the books and filing it with bottles of different "meds" for the kids to give their dying patient, Buddy, who represents the Lord's dying Girl, the Church, the body of Christ (Rev. 3:1-3 below), and stashed it with all sorts of medical equipment. We even had an unexpected Code Blue! (What a Buddy! He nearly overdosed on all the meds they were giving him! Ha!)

Revelation 3:1-3, NIV You are dead. Wake up! Strengthen what remains and is about to die, for I have found your deeds unfinished in the sight of my God. Remember, therefore, what you have received and heard; hold it fast, and repent. But if you do not wake up, I will come like a thief, and you will not know at what time I will come to you.

In reality, I don't know how Buddy or this drug-addicted nation keep track. Our Physician counsels us to buy meds from Him (Rev. 3:18 below) rather than another (Mark 5:25-29; Heb. 11:6 below). The body of Christ acts like they've never even read the gospel message while they profess to be faithful! SO DELUSIONAL!

Revelation 3:18, KJV I counsel thee to buy of me gold tried in the fire, that thou mayest be rich; and white raiment, that thou mayest be clothed, and that the shame of thy nakedness do not appear; and anoint thine eyes with eyesalve, that thou mayest see.

Mark 5:25-29, KJV A certain woman, which had an issue of blood twelve years, And had suffered many things of many physicians, and had spent all that she had, and was nothing bettered, but rather grew worse, When she had heard of Jesus, came in the press behind, and touched his garment. For she said, If I may touch but his clothes, I shall be whole. And straightway the fountain of her blood was dried up; and she felt in her body that she was healed of that plague.

Hebrews 11:6, KJV Without faith it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him.

When the Girl finally gets her head on straight, I discern patients like Buddy—seeing that God requires faithful men—will finally become faithful men who will walk in the following directives:

Is any sick among you? let him call for the elders of the church [the mature in Christ]; and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord: And the prayer of faith shall save the sick, and the Lord shall raise him up; and if he have committed sins, they shall be forgiven him. Confess your faults one to another, and pray one for another, that ye may be healed. The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much (James 5:14-16, KJV).

Again, the “elders of the church” aren’t found in so-called church buildings. They are the older more mature Christians among us, of whom there are hardly any at the moment! I’ve yet to meet one! But, eventually, it will be like it was 2000 years ago, as we read in this passage:

The Twelve gathered all the disciples together and said, “It would not be right for us to neglect the ministry of the word of God in order to wait on tables. Brothers and sisters, choose seven men from among you who are known to be full of the Spirit and wisdom. We will turn this responsibility over to them and will give our attention to prayer and the ministry of the word.” This proposal pleased the whole group. They chose Stephen, a man full of faith and of the Holy Spirit. [They all had the discernment to recognize this person was a mature Christian.] (Acts 6:2-6, NIV).

Captured & Locked Up: When one of the children finally found the BBOMA bug—a beastly looking creature (Isa. 45:7 below) though kinda cute (2 Cor. 11:14 below)—we placed him in a plastic specimen jar (Rev. 20:2 below) for her to take home.

Isaiah 45:7, KJV I form the light, and create darkness: I make peace, and create evil: I the LORD do all these things.

2 Corinthians 11:14, KJV For Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light.

Revelation 20:2, KJV He laid hold on the dragon, that old serpent, which is the Devil, and Satan, and bound him a thousand years.

Friends called for hours afterwards to say how much fun they’d had (parents and kids), and how wound up they still were, though whipped, which parallels real Christian life, especially during the very last of the last days. God says:

He [Satan through his servants] shall speak great words against the most High, and shall wear out the saints of the most High (Dan. 7:25, KJV).

Rejoice, inasmuch as ye are partakers of Christ’s sufferings; that, when his glory shall be revealed, ye may be glad also with exceeding joy (1 Pet. 4:13, KJV).

Working with preschoolers can go over the edge into chaos if you’re not focused—especially if you wind them up—but what fun living on the edge with them! If only Princess wasn’t such a royally brain-dead BRAT, we would have been having a blast, according to Jesus who says “I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly” (John 10:10, KJV).

So while I can have fun as I see God’s hand in all of it, it’s also been very serious with layer upon layer of stress and heartache, year after year after year—in one way or another. For instance, during one of the worst years for Buddy, which coincided with things coming to a head with our family on both sides—I asked the neurologist about a symptom I’d read about which, to my mind, was one of the most serious ones. I asked “What about the possibility of blindness?”

This doctor SHOT ME A LOOK and said “Maya! Blindness is the least of your problems!”

Naturally (1 Peter. 5:8 below).

1 Peter 5:8, KJV The devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour.

But he hasn't gone blind. In fact, it's been pretty quiet for quite a while. He's 'just' blind spiritually. Physical blindness may have actually been better. Either way, it's the pits. Just the same, God is working it all out so that I am "confident of this, that he who began a good work in [him, and the rest of the body of Christ] will carry it on to completion" (Phil. 1:6, NIV). While He's made it clear that most will not fully humble themselves, a core group will.

The Stranded on an Island Party. My invitations were a crumpled old treasure map I'd made on the computer asking for help sending it as a message in a bottle (plastic Coke bottles). It was loads of fun driving around town with my children sneaking them into friends' mailboxes! Then I blew up our beach whale placing an American Girl doll riding it bronco in front of the house (Rev. 17:7 below) to help them find the party. And one of the games was a race to catch fish (Matt. 4:19 below). Again, I wasn't thinking of having a Christian party. I was thinking of having fun with little children.

Revelation 17:7, KJV I will tell thee the mystery of the woman, and of the beast that carrieth her.

Matthew 4:19, KJV He saith unto them, Follow me, and I will make you fishers of men.

The Song, the Message: Listen to this song engaging your brain and connect the dots by "bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ" (2 Cor. 10:5, KJV). The Police - Message In A Bottle - YouTube.

As you can see with the lyrics, the song really ties in to my walk, and the fact that I'm not the only lonely one out there. There's a sea of lost souls who need rescue—which is why God has had me send out this SOS to the world (online). And as I was editing this in 2020, and listening to the song again, I realized that I'd actually sent out an SOS on my website contact page when I created it in 2015. The Lord's too funny! The more you look, the more you see—always! That's why John wrote "Jesus did many other things as well. If every one of them were written down, I suppose that even the whole world would not have room for the books that would be written" (John 21:25, NIV). The millennial reign of Christ is going to be a blast! He's so much fun! Hope to see YOU there.

And check out the number of times it's repeated! He's SERIOUS. It reflects the number of times He's had me reach out to people who haven't had ears to hear. It's been way more than that but He's getting the message across. Unless you're deaf, dumb, and blind!

God's Ways are NOT Ours

While most pastors preach as if they have it all figured out, which they obviously do not, some will think that I think I've got it all figured out, which I DON'T. God's ways are anything but straightforward as far as prophesy goes. As He says "My thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways" (Isa. 55:8, KJV). Yet most Christians think they've arrived, like Michael Chriswell who said that looking into the information God wanted me to give him would get him off track, forgetting that walking with the Lord is a daily process of listening and learning whereby He uses others to cross our paths being that we're part of the "body of Christ" (1 Cor. 12:27, KJV). The New Testament clearly says "we, being many, are one body in Christ, and every one members one of another" (Rom. 12:5, KJV). And He says "Be not forgetful to entertain strangers: for thereby some have entertained angels unawares" (Heb. 13:2, KJV). If you're too busy doing your own thing, you're going to miss out on just about everything God has for you—as most Christians have historically done!

And the best example God gave me to stress this point about His ways being different than ours goes back to the Xs baby who died, whose name means Gift from God or He Gave. The baby had been in and out of the hospital and was now out, and it looked like he was finally out of the woods. But then I got the call that he was back in the hospital so that I was again back on my face before God who gave me this Word, which I heard as a rebuke since my faith in Him stalled when I heard the baby was back in the hospital. "Behold, the LORD's hand is not so short that it cannot save; Nor is His ear so dull That it cannot hear" (Isa. 59:1, NASB).

Having asked His forgiveness for lacking faith in Him, that evening, as Eric Simpson preached at Eagle out of Acts 3, I discerned God was saying the baby would be healed, so it's what I told Mrs. X. I didn't say he would be healed but that this was the Word the Lord had given me, which I'd interpreted to mean the baby would be healed. (And who wouldn't having been rebuked by God for lacking faith and then given this Word!):

Now Peter and John went up together into the temple at the hour of prayer, being the ninth hour. And a certain man lame from his mother's womb was carried, whom they laid daily at the gate of the temple which is called Beautiful, to ask alms of them that entered into the temple; Who seeing Peter and John about to go into the temple asked an alms. And Peter, fastening his eyes upon him with John, said, Look on us. And he gave heed unto them, expecting to receive something of them. Then Peter said, Silver and gold have I none; but such as I have give I thee: In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth rise up and walk. And he took him by the right hand, and lifted him up: and immediately his feet and ankle bones received strength. And he leaping up stood, and walked, and entered with them into the temple, walking, and leaping, and praising God (Acts 3:1-8, KJV).

Except the baby died that night! So I was back on my face before God—especially since she asked me to give the eulogy and as I've repeatedly noted, I'm NOT one for speaking in public.

Confused, heart broken for my friends, exhausted, and scared of having to speak in public at such an important event, seeking God about it within the hour I was clear on my mistake and on what I would say (read) at the eulogy. Seeking the Lord when told the baby had died, I realized God meant that he'd live forever praising Him, whereas I had understood he would live and praise God now on earth, during his life on earth. It was a slight but HUGE difference! So while I'd been wrong, I'd also been right. It's the same mistake Corrie Ten Boom's sister made about their ministry shared in the movie The Hiding Place \(1975\). They were in Nazi concentration camp when Corrie's sister discerned that she and her sister would this amazing ministry after the war. However, she died in the camp. What God had meant was that even though she would die in the camp she would still be part of the ministry through her legacy, her testimony as shared by her sister. She had been wrong, yet also right.

I see the same applies concerning everything I've written about the Church. I'm sure I'm right, just as I'm sure I'm wrong—because God's ways are SO NOT OUR WAYS. Again, He says "My thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways" (Isa. 55:8, KJV). How we interpret what He says to us is so often slightly DIFFERENT than what He actually means. You can see that throughout the Scriptures and throughout history. And Christians can see it throughout much of their individual walks with Him, as well—if they're honest.

So we can't be too hard on these bratty self-absorbed cold as iceberg "hireling[s]" (John 10:12, KJV)—those that aren't Freemasons purposely deceiving the people. The problem with the Prophetic Mountain Range is that it's full of peaks and valleys, which have snowdrifts that keep us from knowing exactly how deep the valleys are, or how long it will take to dig our way through the snow, or how much manure lies under the snow. It gets messy. Prophecy has many peaks, many different events it's actually pointing to because "the word of God is alive and active" (Heb. 4:12, NIV). So it works like this example from Isaiah 5 as God has spoken, is speaking, and will speak to each generation using the same Word.

Therefore, I've presented it all as I have, trusting that once others get right with Him and we start working together biblically—humbly “submitting...one to another in the fear of God” (Eph. 5:21, KJV)—we'll have more clarity and God will work a miracle for us, many miracles. That's what's needed and what He's promised to do when we're faithful to Him as a group (Rev. 11:3 below). I'm basically jumping off the Cliff of Faith head first because you've gotta practice what you preach.

Revelation 11:3, KJV I will give power unto my two witnesses [born again Jews and Gentiles], and they shall prophesy a thousand two hundred and threescore days [3½ years], clothed in sackcloth [meaning, genuinely repentant for having been so unfaithful historically].

So while most professing Christians are currently serving Satan, the leading antichrist, the born again don't belong to him. They've been fooled because of their lack of devotion “for all seek their own, not the things which are Jesus Christ's” (Phil. 2:21, KJV). But, glory to God, that's not where the story ends!

The Funeral Service

Mrs. X asked me to give the eulogy at her baby's funeral since I'd been prayer journaling the spiritual war during the baby's life from conception to death, to eternal life. God says “In this way [in obedience to Christ] they will lay up treasure for themselves as a firm foundation for the coming age” (1 Tim. 6:19, NIV). So this graphic sums up the ages (also called eons in different literal translations) which I walk through in God's Plan: A Vision for the Body.

Having impressed me to lay up heavenly treasure for myself through prayer journaling, God then had me sum up the year and a half into a four page poem for the eulogy. And while I'm not into public speaking—AT ALL—and the service was standing room only, not only did I not faint or blow my cookies, an elderly woman literally ran out of the church after me in her heels to praise God, with several others following. It's what God meant when Paul wrote “My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength [the strength of God] is made perfect in [our] weakness. Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest upon me” (2 Cor. 12:9, KJV). I was walking in my weakness and God’s strength since I find public speaking overwhelming but was relying on the Lord to carry me through. It’s kind of like Joan Baez who said in a PBS program that she would be in the middle of a song during a concert, leave the stage and go throw up, then come back and finish her performance! [I’m guessing that if she’d relied on the Lord she wouldn’t have actually blown her cookies. ☺]

In any case, the last one who came to praise God was a giant blue-eyed creature (but I’m only 5’2” so) who vigorously shook my hand then shook my husband’s hand then shook my friend’s hand, all the while saying, What a beautiful day! Beautiful beautiful day! Praise God! Praise God! More vigorous hand shaking, drained, I then noticed the powder-puff clouds on baby blue skies. It was a beautiful day!

And I was beat because this took place during a season God had me speaking up to institutional church leaders and taking the heat worse than ever. It was the middle of the beginning of that part of my calling so that even Mrs. X would turn on me, had already begun to do so, seeing God’s hand on my life when it was convenient but not when it wasn’t—as it is with all professing Christians (according to Christian history as well as my 22 year testimony).

In any case, before the funeral service, right after I’d written the poem, I’d gone over to read it to Mrs. X, showing up just as they’d returned from the morgue (not planned). In her 20s, looking more like 80, heartbroken and exhausted from her long and difficult ordeal, I had to gently physically lead her from the kitchen to sit down in the living room. But as I read her the poem, she increasingly became herself again—as if God had been breathing life back into her—so that as soon as I finished, she yelled for Mr. X to come and hear it. She was back to her old self (both of them Type A). So within the hour both Xs and I were genuinely laughing again—and they had just viewed their 6 month old infant at the morgue. Only God can do that! We’re told “the sacrifices of God are a broken spirit: a broken and a contrite heart, O God, thou wilt not despise” (Ps. 51:17, KJV). No matter what’s gone down, when we’ve been walking in the Spirit, He picks us back up.

So while Scripture says “a cord of three strands is not quickly broken” (Eccl. 4:12, NIV), because of the Whorish historically apostate BRAT, the cord with our friends (and theirs with each other and ours with each other) was broken. Like so many Christians of our day, they divorced, giving “Satan...an advantage [over] us” (2 Cor. 2:11, KJV). And, like everyone else, she didn’t even respond when I reached out to her, too full of herself—like the norm. And Buddy and I are nothing more than housemates. At best we share a handful of words each day. Often none. No hostility. But nothing else either. We have nothing in common. He loves the world. I love the Lord. There’s nothing to talk about other than “Cat vom.” “OK.” Since I’m the cat lover, I have clean up duty. And most often these are texts and not actual words!

In any case, it’s noteworthy that Mrs. X didn’t hesitate to correct me concerning the poem (which I apparently threw out in one of my Fed Up stages). I’d written “when they took her to X-ray” when it should have been to “Delivery.” It had to do with her being pregnant and about to give birth so that if I’d rudely ignored her correction—as Christians ignore God’s prophets sent to correct them—her manner would have changed drastically. And if she hadn’t bothered to correct me, as most Christians do concerning their so-called leaders and brethren—we would have made God look the fool, as the BRAT has done so that “the name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles through [Christians]” (Rom. 2:24, KJV).

God allowed the cord with our friends to break, and theirs with each other, and our with each other, to make an important point. When her trials ended so did her close walk with the Lord—like it does for EVERYONE—a point God nailed with 9/11. Right after the attacks Christians were talking about how the victims had finally made that emergency 911 call to God for help. Emergency over, professing Christians were back to business as usual—which is AMAZING considering everything that’s gone down since then, never mind what actually went down then!

Married Life—or Not

They played the same music video over and over again for a season at Eagle, Two Sets of Jones' - Official Music Video - YouTube.

And through it God impressed me that Buddy and I were the Christian set and my brother and his wife were the godless materialistic set. So while we haven't had the support (nor therefore the joy) of the Christian set, the video is essentially how it's played out, except my brother divorced his wife not the other way around.

However, because we're at the climax of the "falling away" period (2 Thess. 2:3, KJV), having hit the bottom of the barrel, it's been a much darker experience. We've had NOTHING of the joy they experienced in the video! For example, not only have we not had the support of extended family, I realized in 2018 or so that we've only gone out on a 'date' as a married couple ONCE in 30 years! And that was for our first wedding anniversary! I always made excuses to myself about it like time, money, he's sick, he's an engineer...but that's hardly been the issue. While all of my excuses had some validity, JESUS has been the issue! He's pretty much all I want to talk about and He's not what my husband wants to talk about so we have NOTHING to talk about. Therefore, we do NOTHING together. We don't even eat together. So it's not much of a marriage. It's just God "work[ing] all things after the counsel of his own will" (Eph. 1:11, KJV). And yet, there's ZERO hostility, at least on my husband's part, except for some passive aggression. I loose it every now and then. But much less so as time has passed. It's been over a year since I lost it. Nothing violent. I just expressed some angry words because of his hypocrisy, more frustrated than anything because I KNOW it goes in one ear and out the other.

Anyhow...there's another set which exists in ever increasing numbers—a set portrayed by my sister and her husband, correction, ex husband. It's the set that has the "friendly divorce." WHAT A LIE FROM THE PIT! For those who suggest that they and their kids are fine with the divorce, divorce does nothing to help your kids or society at large. It's a satanic lie, a whopper (John 8:44 below).

John 8:44, KJV The devil...was a murderer from the beginning, and abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own: for he is a liar, and the father of it.

Whatever the issue is, we're to cry out to God to change the situation and to change the both of us. Scripture clearly says "humble yourselves, therefore, under God's mighty hand, that he may lift you up in due time. Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you" (1 Pet. 5:6-7, NIV). And "anyone who divorces his wife, except for sexual immorality, makes her the victim of adultery, and anyone who marries a divorced woman commits adultery" (Matt. 5:32, NIV). "What God has joined together, let no one separate" (Matt. 19:6, NIV). "But if the unbeliever leaves, let it be so. The brother or the sister is not bound in such circumstances; God has called us to live in peace" (1 Cor. 7:15, NIV).

So while my marriage has dwindled down to housemates, communicating, at most, literally a handful of words a day if that much, most days nothing at all, it's biblical in that we haven't usurped God, as so many have with divorce. And I'm still trusting Him to fulfill His dead bones prophesy from years ago (shared in the last testimony book, An Eagle's View). I believe God because "He who is the Glory of Israel does not lie or change his mind; for he is not a human being, that he should change his mind" (1 Sam. 15:29, KJV).

However, God knows, I can barely see it at this point by faith so much damage has been done. I'm just focusing on finishing the work the Lord has called me to do knowing that when it's done I get to finally die. Hooyah! "For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain" (Phil. 1:21, KJV). This has been too hard for too long, having reached out to Christians for over two decades only to get an iceberg cold response, living in total social isolation!

So a few years ago the Lord impressed me to go see the movie Frozen (2013) knowing nothing about it, showing me that it parallels what's happened—and will happen. He's had me do a short interpretation of it and this graphic partly sums it up. The born again are supposed to be the “love experts” since they're the ones, and only ones who actually know the Lord. And through this calling and ministry God is revealing how little even the born again actually know Him.

And I've always kept this in mind. Again, portrayed in The Hiding Place, (1975), while Corrie's sister had envisioned herself as being physically part of the ministry God had spoken to her about, she died. However, the dead still speak, as we're told in this passage “By faith Abel offered unto God a more excellent sacrifice than Cain, by which he obtained witness that he was righteous, God testifying of his gifts: and by it he being dead yet speaketh” (Heb. 11:4, KJV). So however the Lord works it all out in this marriage, it's good, because sooner or later we do both end up with Him in His kingdom, as do our children, and our family's testimony—whether we're dead or alive—will fulfill our marriage vows (Ps. 67 below). In the end everyone ends up with the Lord, but I'm speaking of His millennial reign.

Psalm 67, KJV God be merciful unto us, and bless us; and cause his face to shine upon us; That thy way may be known upon earth, thy saving health among all nations. Let the people praise thee, O God; let all the people praise thee. O let the nations be glad and sing for joy: for thou shalt judge the people righteously, and govern the nations upon earth. Let the people praise thee, O God; let all the people praise thee. Then shall the earth yield her increase; and God, even our own God, shall bless us. God shall bless us; and all the ends of the earth shall fear him.

The poem I wrote Buddy for our first anniversary says it all, our hearts do chime, only it's not as our love caresses each other, but Time also known as God since He is the “Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the ending” (Rev. 1:8, KJV), and “God is love” (1 John 4:8, KJV), Who “never fails” (1 Cor. 13:8, NIV).

Psych Counseling

Soon enough, Mrs. X, along with Buddy (Ps. 41:9 below), Bill Bean and his wife, Molly (who became his ex wife), all felt I needed psych counseling because of what I was saying, which I'm still saying more than two decades later. Christians need to REPENT! (Which is SO OBVIOUS!) Except now I'm saying it with much more clarity.

And, the thing is, the Church needed to repent even before any of us had been born! It seems to me those who profess to believe the Bible, more specifically, believe in Christ, knowing that He requires obedience, are the ones in need of counseling. And there's only One “Wonderful Counselor” (Isa. 9:6, NIV)—the very One all have offended.

Psalm 41:9, KJV Yea, mine own familiar friend, in whom I trusted, which did eat of my bread, hath lifted up his heel against me.

*Anniversary
as autumn leaves
their colors change
while yet remaining same flowering anew, full
each yearly spring
the brightest green
the eyes have ever seen*

*so too,
showered love, my heart
like a thirsty flower opened and with each season's coming springs blossoms truly golden*

*each day
a Sunday morning
like chapel bells our hearts will chime
our tender love caressing time*

What's happened to me is what happened to Mary Magdalene and also Rhoda. God first appeared to Mary Magdalene "of whom he had cast seven devils. [So that when] she went and told them [that she had seen the risen Lord]...they...believed not" (Mark 16:9-11, KJV). In The Miracle Maker (1999) claymation Peter says "Your grief is making you mad!" In reality it's more like they're saying Your faith has made you mad! Again, it's the same thing they did to Rhoda. When "Peter knocked...and [she] told how Peter stood before the gate...they said unto her, Thou art mad" (Acts 12:13-15, KJV).

It's the same thing that happened to Paul when "Festus said with a loud voice, Paul...much learning doth make thee mad" (Acts 26:24, KJV), except Festus was lost! He officially had no faith in Christ.

So for more than two decades professing Christians have told me I need psych counseling, just like the lost tell me. I've been told I'm irrational, have a "persecution complex," am being legalistic, think I'm the Messiah, think I'm a martyr, a Pharisee...along with many other accusations they've hurled at me over the years for not wanting to acknowledge the evidence and submit to God's Word—which Christians hurl without God's Word.

It's amazing the things sinners come up with! Except it's not amazing at all when I consider who's actually behind it, Satan. He's got a billion lies and accusations in his back pocket being "a liar and father of it" (John 8:44, KJV) and "accuser of [the] brethren" (Rev. 12:10, KJV).

Even as I edit this (about a decade ago) there's another church scandal in court about children allegedly molested by leadership, and prominent church leaders have taken their stand with the perpetrator rather than the victims or the Word of God. This is standard practice within Christianity—and I'm the one who needs psych counseling?! WAKE UP!

Let Your Yes Be Yes

Several times in the Bible the prophet tells the people God's commands, to which the people agree they'll walk in—as the BRAT has done. Then he tells them they have witnessed against themselves since they won't walk in it (Josh 24:22 below)—as the BRAT has done.

Joshua 24:22, KJV Joshua said unto the people, Ye are witnesses against yourselves that ye have chosen you the LORD, to serve him. And they said, We are witnesses.

So while looking through my box of pictures I came across the ones I took during the groundbreaking ceremony at Eagle—since the majority of hirelings are all about building bigger buildings. Therefore, the Senior hireling, Kerry Bowman, asked each family to take a stake and write on it their commitment to God, which we then hammered into the ground where the new building would be going up. I'd forgotten about my stake and commitment, which is likely true for most if not all. But God says "They may forget, yet will I not forget" (Isa. 49:15, KJV).

My stake is the first one which says "WE COMMIT TO KNOW, LOVE AND OBEY THE LORD." I'd spent hours decorating it with pictures and Scriptures, front and back, which I'd cut out of Christian catalogs while praying for our family. I even varnished it. Because, He says "Whatsoever ye do, do it heartily, as to the Lord, and not unto men" (Col. 3:23, KJV). We're always supposed to give Him our best not the bottom of the barrel.

And by that point Buddy had really tuned out, sick of Eagle and deadbeat Christianity, yet no better himself. (Apparently that's how hypocrisy works.) In fact, he was already looking at me as if I was a moron for valuing prayer and expecting more from Church and from God, though he still went through the motions—and would do so for years. Though at times he seemed more earnest, quite a bit more. (Or maybe I was lying to myself since he's my husband and I was hoping for better. God knows. What I do know for sure is that he has never been passionate about God. And he knows it himself since he regularly used the excuse that he just doesn't have that kind of personality. Good luck with that argument when standing before the Lord! "Every one of us shall give account of himself to God" (Rom. 14:12, KJV). Moreover, I saw him quite passionate once when the pagans came by on their fire truck carrying Santa. And if I saw Him so did God since "nothing in all creation is hidden from God's sight. Everything is uncovered and laid bare before the eyes of him to whom we must give account" (Heb. 4:13, NIV).

The middle stake belonged to the Beans, Eagle's worship pastor and his family. The verse they referenced says "Joshua said unto the people, Sanctify yourselves: for to morrow the LORD will do wonders among you" (Josh. 3:5, KJV). But instead of sanctifying themselves, like so many Christians they got divorced and Bill had an ugly split with the so-called church, God having boomeranged what he'd accuse me of doing back on him, like He did with Haman:

Harbonah, one of the chamberlains, said before the king, Behold also, the gallows fifty cubits high, which Haman had made for Mordecai, who spoken good for the king, standeth in the house of Haman. Then the king said, Hang him thereon (Esther 7:9, KJV).

Bill accused me of being Dathan (Numbers 16:1-3 below),, except I never asked anyone to follow me. Just the opposite, from the very beginning I've been pleading with them to follow the Lord

Numbers 16:1-3, KJV Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab, and On, the son of Peleth, sons of Reuben, took men: And they rose up before Moses, with certain of the children of Israel, two hundred and fifty princes of the assembly, famous in the congregation, men of renown: And they gathered themselves together against Moses and against Aaron, and said unto them, Ye take too much upon you, seeing all the congregation are holy.

Then after he got kicked out of Eagle, not really sure how exactly that went down, Bill was meeting with a group (he'd taken from Eagle) at the Jesuit school even though Jesuits represent Jesus's worst enemies having vowed to deceive God's people, part of which is summed up in the blurb for their oath.

Finally, the third stake belonged to friends of the time, representing typical Christians in middle leadership roles in the institutional churches, whose unmarried teen got pregnant (1 Pet. 5:8 below), as so many "Christian" teens do. And they do because the institutional fake churches are setting them up to get pregnant with their so-called teen ministries which are nothing but worldliness with the name of Jesus splattered on them. That family's verse on their stake was "Then spake Jesus again unto them, saying, I am the light of the world: he that followeth me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life" (John 8:12, KJV). It's quite appropriate, He that FOLLOWETH ME shall not walk in darkness.

1 Peter 5:8, KJV Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour.

Excerpt from the Jesuit Oath

I further promise and declare that I will, when opportunity present, make and wage relentless war, secretly or openly, against all heretics, Protestants and Liberals, as I am directed to do, to extirpate and exterminate them from the face of the whole earth...I will hang, waste, boil, flay, strangle and bury alive these infamous heretics, rip up the stomachs and wombs of their women and crush their infants' heads against the walls, in order to annihilate forever their execrable race. That wen the same cannot be done openly, I will secretly use the poisoned cup, the strangulating cord, the steel of the poniard or the leaden bullet, regardless of the honor, rank, dignity, or authority of the person or persons, whatever may be their condition in life, either public or private, as I at any time may be directed so to do by any agent of the Pope or Superior of the Brotherhood of the Holy Faith, of the Society of Jesus.

The Catholic Church teaches that the pastoral office, the office of shepherding the Church, that was held by the apostles, as a group or "college" with Saint Peter as their head, is now held by their successors, the bishops, with the bishop of Rome (the pope) as their head.

Purpose Driven rather than driven by the Spirit of God, Eagle, like all of the harlot daughters of the Vatican, walks in darkness. The so-called pastors, along with the rest, focused mostly on the fun of it all, rather than on God "the truth" (John 14:6, KJV). Therefore, now would be a good time to repent and start working on those vows, which we never even should have made in the first place! God says "Above all things, my brethren, swear not, neither by heaven, neither by the earth, neither by any other oath: but let your yea be yea; and your nay, nay; lest ye fall into condemnation" (James 5:12, my emphasis). Not heeding His Word, Christianity as a whole has fallen into great condemnation—not just Eagle. They're just an example of the whole mess.

We really need to learn from the preschoolers and take the Job seriously while also having fun, in that order. Through this ministry—especially the biblical interpretations—God is obviously saying we can have fun, but that it has to line up with His Word and timing.

But since we've been so rebellious for so long, I doubt there's any fun left to be had for this generation—not enough anyway. It looks more like something worse than our worst nightmares playing out. Not long ago, in 2019, I had a terrifying dream that felt real. It was nighttime and everywhere we looked out on the horizon the city was in flames. It's what's repeatedly going on in California and other parts of the world. And many experts have testified that these are man made with the use of Directed Energy Weapons. And it sure doesn't look like these are standard forest fires since everything gets leveled while trees remain standing.

A Collision of Worldviews

One day I got an e-mail from my brother on the east coast. "Ma was HIT by a TRUCK...BLOOD in her BRAIN...article in the Washington Post...possible BROKEN BACK, could be PARALYZED...GLASS in her EYES!"

Struggling with my faith (that God was still on the Throne) and with my flesh since I lived hundreds of miles away, God comforted me by keeping His Word. He says "Fear thou not; for I am with thee: be not dismayed; for I am thy God: I will strengthen thee; yea, I will help thee; yea, I will uphold thee with the right hand of my righteousness" (Isa. 41:10, KJV). So out of the many area hospitals, my mom was taken to the one where Buddy's cousin was a nurse (whom he seldom saw), who happened to be working in the ER when they brought my mom in. Remembering my maiden name was the same as this woman's on the stretcher, she called her mom, a retired surgical nurse who had treated Reagan during the assassination attempt (reliable), and who had cared for our girls as babies for a year while I worked since she had a home daycare after she'd retired from nursing. She called me just as I was about to lose it. God's comforting Word at His impeccable timing: paralysis, brain damage, or blindness, not likely. So I slept well.

And since we were homeschooling having obeyed the Lord's leading to start doing that just a few months earlier, I could pack up the girls and our books to go care for her for more peace of mind, and easy to do without having the girls miss a beat because it's as He says, "I am the good shepherd" (John 10:11, KJV, my emphasis).

In fact, my mom was in tears and listening (for a change) to what I was saying of God's love and His hand on her life.

But a few hours later my sister showed up and focused on her outward appearance—as is the BRAT's standard practice. Taking her out for a new hairdo and makeover, my mom forgot all about her desperate need for God. It's He says "When any one heareth the word of the kingdom, and understandeth it not, then cometh the wicked one, and catcheth away that which was sown in his heart. This is he which received seed by the way side" (Matt. 13:19, KJV). My mother had no real understanding of the kingdom of God since she'd never studied the Bible and learned from the Father as Jesus admonished us to do saying "Everyone who has heard the Father and learned from him comes to me" (John 6:45, NIV). And my sister was going to a Methodist harlot church at the time open to homosexuality, contrary to God's Word (Rom. 1 below), explaining this trashed opportunity.

Romans 1:22-27, KJV Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools, And changed the glory of the uncorruptible God into an image made like to corruptible man...Wherefore God also gave them up to uncleanness through the lusts of their own hearts, to dishonour their own bodies between themselves...for even their women did change the natural use into that which is against nature: And likewise also the men, leaving the natural use of the woman, burned in their lust one toward another; men with men working that which is unseemly, and receiving in themselves that recompence of their error.

Like most of professing Christianity, my sister obviously missed the last part of this verse, if she ever even read it. "Pure religion and undefiled before God and the Father is this, To visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction, and to keep himself unspotted from the world" (James 1:27, KJV). Not observing pure religion, my sister, like the Bride of Christ, hasn't kept herself unspotted from the world and is, therefore, totally ineffective spiritually—which is what matters since the life we live in the flesh will die and rot. It's like Satan has fed everyone the lie summed up with COEXIST and even the body of Christ has bought it with all those tens of thousands of unbiblical denominations when "there should be no division in the body" (1 Cor. 12:25, NIV).

Have nothing to do with the fruitless deeds of darkness, but rather expose them.
Ephesians 5:11, NIV

A Muscular Backbone

At about that time I'd been asking God to show me what part of the body my husband, Buddy, was if he was indeed a member of the body of Christ! He's been so confusing and frustrating for me since he's neither here nor there and yet at times more here than there!

God then almost immediately gave me a vision, summed up with the two graphics, which I understood right away and have come to fully grasp. It was of a very bright, very muscular, juicy backbone like you might see in a medical anatomy book. The raw muscles were deep champagne colored and juicy, glistening. It's what he had been for me as my best girlfriend and moving forward, especially during the psych ward experience (financially at least, mostly), and it's what he's been for the body since he funds me. One day God will use this ministry which has been funded by this man, who is very juicy muscular because the whole time (since Eagle) he's been fighting illness, neurosarcoïdosis—yet works like a dog—for a government run by Satan who is God's servant. So...glory to God! He's using Satan's evil ways to fund the ministry which will finally bring healing to His Church/His body, because God "worketh all things after the counsel of his own will" (Eph. 1:11, KJV).

Preschool Faith in Action

God doesn't tell us to do things we can't do. He also tells us to come to Him as little children. In fact, He says "Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child, he shall not enter therein" (Mark 10:15, KJV). Yet most Christians today don't actually believe preschool children can really come to Him. That's partly why God gave me this testimony. But it's also prophetic.

That trip back east had been stressful not only because of my mom's accident, but because I hadn't seen my sister in 10 years since she thinks I'm "too religious." (And to profess to be Christian, as Methodists do, it's like my sister was saying I'm too good a friend to my best Friend when you can never be too good a friend to anyone!) So on this last night my brother and his (first) wife asked me to join them on an outing. Exhausted and facing an 11-hour drive back by myself with young children, I opted to stay home with the children, for whom I have a routine.

My Routine: At 8 p.m. all little children get on their little PJ's, brush their little teeth, and each pick a little book. Snuggled up together, I read all their little books (often lots of extra books) and then read from a children's Bible. We pray. I kiss their cute little faces. Then it's lights out and good night.

So parked on the bed with several children doing my routine, I suddenly noticed my nephew shaking his head. Making eye contact, he blurted out, "No! My parents don't believe in angels!" I'd been so tired that I'd forgotten where I was! So I said "Well...we do. We believe in God. This is His Book. We believe it. OK everyone, bed-time!"

However, like all the healthy preschoolers I've ever known, this child wasn't about to let me off the hook—and neither was God. The little boy had one question after another so that, not even realizing what I was actually doing, I was answering them using the pictures from The Beginner's Bible. (It's a great short read if you've never read the whole Bible since it outlines the entire thing, and it's probably at your local library. So what if it's a preschool book?! You're supposed to come to [Him] "like little children" (Matt. 18:3, NIV). So before even knowing what I was doing we had covered the Gospel message. And Jesus says "No man can come to me, except the Father which hath sent me draw him" (John 6:44, KJV). In other words, God was drawing this little boy since it's not something I'd planned to do, and have no actual power of doing according to Scripture.

And since it's such a simple message, the new covenant calling it "the simplicity that is in Christ" (2 Cor. 11:3, KJV), this very bright and very rebellious child understood it clearly. Therefore, he said "Mama, you have to give this book to my parents!" He was all over it! I'd actually given his parents the Quest Study Bible but they hadn't been interested so that years later they went through a brutal divorce. Long story short, the four year-old asked God to forgive him of his sins and to come into his life(Rom. 3:23 & 10:9-10 below). He also, naturally, wanted to know how to help his family. So I taught him how to pray, saying "Just ask God to open their eyes and keep asking Him" (Matt. 7:8 below)—and, like Christ, I taught by example.

Romans 3:23, KJV All have sinned, and come short of the glory of God.

Romans 10:9-10, KJV If thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved.

Matthew 7:8, KJV For every one that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened.

Children in bed, I grabbed my Bible and asked God if what I thought had just happened had really just happened! Going to my bookmark at Psalm 8, I listened for His answer which I received immediately as I read the following:

LORD, our Lord, how majestic is your name in all the earth! You have set your glory in the heavens. Through the praise of children and infants you have established a stronghold against your enemies, to silence the foe and the avenger (Ps. 8:1-2, NIV).

Again, I slept well.

Eyes suddenly open, I remembered the night before and was flooded with dread—my brother! (He's the most arrogant and cold person I've ever met. Meaning, when he's mad, he's MAD.) So I grabbed my devotional asking the Lord for His perspective. (It's at this link if you want to verify: The Supreme Climb | My Utmost For His Highest. Apparently it was the 11th of November.)

The Supreme Climb

Take now thy son... — Genesis 22:2

God's command is—Take now, not presently. It is extraordinary how we debate! We know a thing is right, but we try to find excuses for not doing it at once. To climb to the height God shows can never be done presently, it must be done now. The sacrifice is gone through in will before it is performed actually.

"And Abraham rose up early in the morning,...and went unto the place of which God had told him" (v. 3). The wonderful simplicity of Abraham! When God spoke, he did not confer with flesh and blood. Beware when you want to confer with flesh and blood, i.e., your own sympathies, your own insight, anything that is not based on your personal relationship to God. These are the things that compete with and hinder obedience to God.

Abraham did not choose the sacrifice. Always guard against self-chosen service for God; self-sacrifice may be a disease. If God has made your cup sweet, drink it with grace; if He has made it bitter, drink it in communion with Him. If the providential order of God for you is a hard time of difficulty, go through with it, but never choose the scene of your martyrdom. God chose the crucible for Abraham, and Abraham made no demur; he went steadily through. If you are not living in touch with Him, it is easy to pass a crude verdict on God. You must go through the crucible before you have any right to pronounce a verdict, because in the crucible you learn to know God better. God is working for His highest ends until His purpose and man's purpose become one.

Rebuked and challenged upon reading it, I asked God for help and jumped into the shower from where I soon heard my brother stomping down the hallway saying "No! NO! NO!" I also heard my nephew's little feet running after him, persisting "You HAVE to give your heart to God! You HAVE to!"

My young nephew had come to God as He requires “as a little child” (Mark 10:15, KJV). Having believed in his heart he was immediately evangelizing doing what the majority of Christians DON’T do “Earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints” (Jude 1:3, KJV), confirming God’s Word from the devotional—that I was in for it.

Dressed, I joined the couple in the living room where they were waiting for me. Not knowing what to say, I didn’t say anything and just listened to them while asking the Lord to give me the words to speak and to soften their hearts. He says:

Do not worry about how you will defend yourselves or what you will say, for the Holy Spirit will teach you at that time what you should say (Luke 12:11-12, NIV).

So when they were done rebuking me, I explained how I hadn’t planned what happened. I’d always been respectful of their views, as they had been of ours. Essentially, we had agreed to disagree. (In the early years, the Lord had me share the truth as opportunity presented itself with them, with the adults, which wasn’t often since we didn’t live nearby. But since they hadn’t bothered to “learn...from the Father” (John 6:45, KJV) though granted the opportunity throughout their lives, and given the Quest Study Bible, they got increasingly agitated, as we’ve been told will happen. God says “The person without the Spirit does not accept the things that come from the Spirit of God but considers them foolishness, and cannot understand them because they are discerned only through the Spirit” (1 Cor. 2:14, NIV).

That being the case, they rebuked me for not waiting to let them answer their child’s questions, a view I understood perfectly since I was also a parent of young children. However, having learned from the Father, I also understood God’s view. So I explained that to have done that, knowing they reject Christ, would have been to sin against God since no one asks questions about Him without God being at work in their lives, thinking of the following passages:

All that the Father giveth me shall come to me; and him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out (John 6:37, KJV).

Peter and the other apostles answered and said, We ought to obey God rather than men (Acts 5:29, KJV).

I also understood that this was God’s child, theirs on loan as mine are to Buddy and me. Scripture says “Children are an heritage of the LORD: and the fruit of the womb is his reward” (Ps. 127:3 below). “Every one of us shall give account of himself to God” (Rom. 14:12, KJV). We’re also told the following (Matt. 18:6-10 below).

But whoso shall offend one of these little ones which believe in me, it were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and that he were drowned in the depth of the sea. Woe unto the world because of offences! for it must needs be that offences come; but woe to that man by whom the offence cometh!...Take heed that ye despise not one of these little ones; for I say unto you, That in heaven their angels do always behold the face of my Father which is in heaven.

But since they hadn’t bothered to learn from the Father they couldn’t understand what I was saying or why I couldn’t agree with them. It was “foolishness” to them (1 Cor. 2:14, NIV). Exasperated with me, my brother finally said “Never mind! I’ll set him straight!”

To that I nodded, relieved, mindful of God’s Word in this passage:

Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword? As it is written, For thy sake we are killed all the day long; we are accounted as sheep for the slaughter. Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him that loved us. For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come, Nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord (Rom. 8:35-39, KJV).

Overjoyed that God was at work in this child’s life—that he’s elect—the drive home was a breeze! I wasn’t surprised by his age since God had enlightened my girls at that age, but I was surprised that he was the first from my clan God would reach out to. In fact, I was surprised that most preschoolers in Christian homes weren’t having their eyes opened. Now I know it’s because most Christians aren’t raising their children as God requires “in Spirit and in truth” (John 4:24, NIV). since their eyes aren’t open being that they’re spiritually “dead” (Rev. 3:1, KJV).

So even though I was overjoyed, since this child wouldn't be raised biblically either, I was also heartbroken. There would be no one to teach him! And as a preschooler it's not as if he could read the Bible even if he wanted to! Even if we had lived near them, I would only have answered the boy's questions if he had asked me any. So I prayed like crazy for him and his family as I'd been doing for years—only more so. In fact, the Lord gave me peace about it (John 14:27, KJV) by somehow (I don't remember how) letting me know this child was a Moses-type.

John 14:27, KJV Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid.

But since months went by without a word from my brother, while also enduring hatred from harlot church leaders at Eagle and other so-called Christians not just from Eagle, I started doubting God's Word when, out of nowhere, I got an e-mail from my brother asking if they could spend a week during Easter break at our house. "Please" he begged.

And since God is faithful and merciful, in order to help me stay encouraged about this boy, and because He knows the future, God coordinated events as follows.

On the first night of their visit, remembering my routine, this four year old had picked his book even before I'd told the girls to get ready for bed. But seeing he'd chosen a Christian one, my brother roughly said, "No! NOT that one!" And while there were many non-Christian books on the shelves, this child who couldn't read, kept picking one Christian book after another, only to hear the same rough response from his dad—who kept getting rougher with him.

Awed by what this little boy was doing, I snapped out of it discerning a tantrum brewing, explosions for which this child was infamous. Not knowing what to do or say (Luke 12:12 below), I was suddenly on my knees down at his level. Touching his arm, I said "It's so great that you want to know God! And He wants you to know Him. When He's ready, He'll tell you everything there is to know about Him and let you know Him really well. But, right now, He wants you to obey your Dad. OK?." And the whole time I was talking, this very rebellious child obediently listened nodding in agreement, fighting the tears. Then immediately went with his dad.

Luke 12:12, NIV The Holy Spirit will teach you at that time what you should say.

More than a decade later, the boy having come of age, Jesus had me remind him of what had transpired, and he rejected Him! I discern it was so that after reformation within the body of Christ has taken hold—the "latter rain" (Joel 2:23, KJV)—he won't be able to blame his parents knowing he had rejected God for himself. Duly humbled, God will use him as needed and as prophesied in his "appointed time" (Hab. 2:3, KJV).

And because of how it is, he has strayed so deep into Satan's turf that he's now a practicing homosexual.

Moreover, how could he not have rejected Jesus, considering how he was raised, in a Unitarian home; the state of the Church as apostate as she'll ever be; along with some of the trials they experienced, a whole family of friends, his good little friend, killed during 9/11 and his parents bitterly divorced? And while it's not all the Church's fault—since none of them bothered to learn from the Father—hypocritical born again believers, the saints, aren't helping the lost AT ALL! As God says "I have no praise for you, for your meetings do more harm than good" (1 Cor. 11:17, NIV). They do more harm than good—even though they do some good.

My guess is that after the BRAT repents—after the born again in and out of that system repent—and reformation spreads as times get harder, which is now a no-brainer to see clearly by sight will be happening, my nephew will again come humbly to Christ and get used by Him to reach those with whom he's been raised, people desperately deep into Satan's territory, leading them out to safer pastures, like Moses. Though I'm praying for much better than Moses since, as covered in Satan Exposed: Rightly Dividing the Word, Moses brought in a ton of lies to the body of Christ. I hope that prophecy was just in the sense of leading them out of bondage and not into a different type of bondage.

In any case, it's heartbreaking how much damage he'll probably do to himself in the meantime. Watching testimonies of former homosexuals, it's always the same, a very rapid and very deep slide into Satan's abyss.

Trusting God 201

Through this ministry God is proving many things, one of which is this. Jesus prophesied saying “Because of the increase of wickedness, the love of most will grow cold” (Matt. 24:12, NIV). So beginning with Eagle He started showing me just how cold. It’s not just cold towards each other, everyone can see that! But we’ve become cold towards Him. And since He says “judgment must begin at the house of God” (1 Pet. 4:17, KJV) and under the new covenant all the born again are His ‘House’ since we have His Spirit within. However, since we’ve been deceived to think His House is those pagan institutional building we’ve called “church” for centuries, judgment has begun with the leaders of those buildings some of whom are born again. We’ll know who when they repent, if they repent.

Therefore, having had others speak to this hireling, Kerry Bowman, about his need to become a man of prayer, the Lord also spoke to me about talking to him about it. Sitting in his office doing so he gets up and yells in my face, as you see in the graphic, so that I could actually make out his tonsils! I guess he forgot to read the part that says we’ve been called to “live self-controlled, upright and godly lives” (Titus 2:12, KJV).

Leaving his office bawling, it later dawned on me (years later) that all of those people outside of his office heard him yelling like that and it didn’t phase them at all. The body of Christ has been so brainwashed that we lie to ourselves that his is godly behavior. I even sent Kerry a card apologizing for getting him so upset! So, like my astronomy class in college, I had to retake it.

Judas Types

For some time the Lord had me speaking to Eagle leadership through the written word. So handing the Bowman hireling a letter God had impressed me to write to him, about the same old thing—REPENT—Kerry hugs me and says “Maya, everyone hear loves you!”

Wow. Everyone?

I was shocked at what he'd said and done, and naturally encouraged (though he hadn't opened the envelope yet). Maybe I was nearing the end of the line, even though I knew the Lord had told me it was only the beginning. Class repeat after me: LO-BO-TO-ME!

I'd known Eagle was Boot Camp, so I knew Tours of Duty would follow since that's how it works. You go to Boot Camp for training and then get sent off to FULFILL your mission in this war “against the rulers of the darkness of this world” (Eph. 6:12, KJV).

Therefore, days after the Everyone Loves You hug, Kerry sent Bill and two so-called elders with the conditions under which I could remain at their church, doing it because crooked cowardly leaders always send their cronies to do their dirty work for them. We all know this.

Giving me their ice cold unbiblical stipulations, while I listened to Bill's garbage looking down and praying, Buddy later said it had looked “as if Satan had entered into him.” And running into an Eaglite a year later, she spoke of Bill in such a disgusted and hateful manner that I called another person from Eagle who said the same thing. Bill had gone from being the warm fun-loving sweet man who drew people into God's presence with his sermonettes during worship to someone they couldn't stand, as if Satan had entered into him.

Having listened to all their unbiblical garbage, they then hugged us goodnight. And what's a Christian to do but hug back? It's like Jesus let Judas kiss Him:

Judas said, “Greetings, Rabbi!” and kissed him (Matt. 26:49, NIV).

“Judas, are you betraying the Son of Man with a kiss?” (Luke 22:48, NIV). “Do what you came for, friend.” Then the men stepped forward, seized Jesus and arrested him (Matt. 26:50, NIV).

And since then I've noticed it's what all Christians do. They speak and behave in a manner that is super ungodly and unbiblical then sign off or send you off with a hug, a kiss, or a “bless you” as if saying and/or doing that proves their right with God!

In any case, by the next morning Buddy and I had both discerned it had been a goodbye hug—and good riddance! God had finally released us! (We hadn't realized that was as good as it gets, even though we already knew it!)

And it wasn't good riddance, because right away God called me to not only keep praying for them but to step it up, especially concerning Bill. He says “Love your enemies, do good to them which hate you, Bless them that curse you, and pray for them” (Luke 6:27-28, KJV). Which, naturally, wasn't what I felt like doing—but did.

The Lord also had me write a letter to several Eagles telling them what had gone down and urging them to pray for their leadership. But, of course, I didn't hear from anyone—even though “everyone” there “loved” me. More importantly, they all professed to love Jesus! But who really cares if God's Word and ways are being dishonored, just as long as this thing works for us. That is what it all comes down to. Most professing Christians in those buildings they call church don't really give a damn about Jesus! So it's not working for them, but for Satan (Matt. 12:30; Rev. 13:3 & Phil. 2:21 below). Saying you care and showing you care are two very different things, as Jesus made clear when He said “Hypocrites...This people honoureth me with their lips, but their heart is far from me” (Mark 7:6, KJV).

Matthew 12:30, KJV He that is not with me is against me; and he that gathereth not with me scattereth abroad.

Revelation 13:3, KJV All the world wondered after the beast.

Philippians 2:21, KJV For all seek their own, not the things which are Jesus Christ's.

Repentance Heals All Wounds

About a year later we ran into a couple with whom we'd spent quite a few afternoons over lunch after services. The woman then asked me if we were ready to come back since time should have healed all wounds—MISSING the point. The only way time heals all wounds is because God is Time, the “the Beginning and the End” (Rev. 22:13, KJV), and He does it by way of repentance, and, therefore, truth. He says “Confess your sins to each other and pray for each other so that you may be healed” (James 5:16, KJV). Our measure of time just helps those who've been wounded by building up a scar, but nothing's gone away. Christians have not been called to sin against God and each other, let some time pass, and go on business as usual. That's what the lost do! God's people have been called to “Be...holy; for [He is] holy” (1 Pet. 1:16, KJV). And the only way to be holy is through obedience and repentance so that complete healing and growth can take place. Jesus clearly says “Produce fruit in keeping with repentance” (Matt. 3:8, NIV).

The other part of the equation is forgiveness. And while I've been accused of being angry and unforgiving, if that were true I would not have prayed for them for years! Still praying for them 22 years later, those who are still alive! Or reached out to them as led by God. There's a big difference between holding a grudge and standing up for Christ—and the body of Christ doesn't seem to know the difference! So sad.

New Converts as Leaders

Having asked God for years to allow us to leave Eagle, when He finally released us He gave me this verse. “Ye have not received the spirit of bondage again to fear; but ye have received the Spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, Abba, Father” (Rom. 8:15, KJV). And He gave Buddy a Scripture echoing the same (though neither of us remember the actual verse). And the last conversation I had with Eagle leadership was with the pastor 2nd in command who's now the senior pastor, Eric Simpson, confirming the bondage aspect associated with Eagle and all unbiblical congregations. Eric was surprised and angry that we were leaving. So delusional! Having been told that you have no discernment and need someone else to interpret God's Word for you—which is in TOTAL contradiction to the teachings of the New Testament—Who would want to stay? And yet, we would have stayed if God had told us to do so! Not because we're idiots who enjoy being verbally abused, but out of love and obedience to God who says “Resist not evil” (Matt. 5:39, KJV). Eric yelled at me on the phone “YOU KNOW WHAT YOUR PROBLEM WAS MAYA! YOU DIDN'T TRUST US ENOUGH!”

However, ironically, my problem had been the exact opposite—I had trusted them too much. Fearing man more than God, I'd loved man more than God. I'd done what Peter did and what the body of Christ does as a whole. I'd flipped the commandments around. When Jesus told Peter and the others what was about to take place, and Peter rebuked him saying “Be it far from thee, Lord: this shall not be unto thee” (Matt. 16:22, KJV), Jesus turned, and said unto Peter, Get thee behind me, Satan: thou art an offence unto me: for thou savourest not the things that be of God, but those that be of men” (Matt. 16:23, KJV). Rather than being for Christ Jesus told him he was being antichrist, equal with Satan himself! It's what the entire body of Christ is currently doing in one way or another and mostly, in many ways.

And what Eric walked in is what God warned us about. Speaking of selecting leaders, Scripture says “not a novice, lest being lifted up with pride he fall into the condemnation of the devil” (1 Tim. 3:6, KJV). I remember hearing someone say, I think it was his wife, that just as soon as he'd “converted” Kerry had placed him in leadership!

Anyhow, I did what the body of Christ has done as a whole in flipping the commandments around, doing it even though God had given me a very decent dose of the fear of God! (And, like everyone else, I'd confused Satan with God!) It's part of the reason I don't hold a grudge. I KNOW WITHOUT A DOUBT that if not for God's hand in this, if not for God working out our sins into His Plan, I would be just like everyone else, either totally denying Jesus is God or hypocritically claiming I love Jesus while yelling at people at the top of my lungs to get them to love and obey Him! No doubt, because, “there is none righteous, no, not one” (Rom. 3:10, KJV).

HOMEWORK: On Institutional Church Leadership. “Take captive every thought to the obedience of Christ” (2 Cor. 10:5, NIV) and answer the following questions.

1. With Eric Simpson’s example, since he was placed in leadership as a new convert, why does God say a recent convert shouldn’t be placed in a leading role?

Here is a trustworthy saying: Whoever aspires to be an overseer desires a noble task. Now the overseer is to be above reproach, faithful to his wife, temperate, self-controlled, respectable, hospitable, able to teach, not given to drunkenness, not violent but gentle, not quarrelsome, not a lover of money. He must manage his own family well and see that his children obey him, and he must do so in a manner worthy of full respect. (If anyone does not know how to manage his own family, how can he take care of God’s church?) He must not be a recent convert, or he may become conceited and fall under the same judgment as the devil (1 Tim. 3:1-6, NIV).

2. Eric also said on the Eagle website (in 2014) that he likes to hang out “at a monastery with a good book.” What’s wrong with that?
3. Another time I’d gone up and noted that something Eric had said in his sermon contradicted Psalm 119:100 which says “I have more understanding than the elders, for I obey your precepts” (NIV). I was just pointing it out in a friendly manner doing what I would want a brother or sister in Christ to do for me when I’m wrong. But he immediately yelled at me and huffed off so that I was left standing there in shock. Then, having told his peers, they all got on my case about it. Are we to obey anyone no matter what they demand of us, just because they’re the supposedly “anointed” ones? And is huffing off and circling the wagons a godly response? (Eph. 4:26 & Eph. 5:21 below). You should figure it out before it’s too late!

Ephesians 4:26, KJV Be ye angry, and sin not: let not the sun go down upon your wrath.

Ephesians 5:21, KJV Submit...yourselves one to another in the fear of God.

I needed the Tour of Duty at Eagle because it was prep work for the walk the Lord had in store for me with Churchianity as a whole, just as it is for today’s elect in the harlot institutional churches in relation to government leaders, the New World Order. And it’s part of the reason God allowed Eric to walk that path. After he repents (provided he’s actually elect, Lord willing), he’ll know exactly what’s wrong with the path he took so that he can counsel others against it. It’s like Paul had to experience hating Jesus’ friends, as Saul, before being hated for befriending Jesus as Paul (See Acts 9). It helps to have walked in it yourself to better understand it from God’s perspective and to better know how to deal with it and help God’s people.

Bawling as always, when I went to the Lord about the phone “conversation” with Eric, God’s Word confirmed what I’d discerned. My bookmark was on Psalm 40, “Blessed is that man that maketh the LORD his trust, and respecteth not the proud, nor such as turn aside to lies” (Ps. 40:4, KJV). I had known they’d turned aside to lies and were super proud, yet I’d still respected them (somewhat) because I had also learned from them. And I’d been wrong to do so. Anyone who disrespects Jesus does not deserve our respect—especially when they profess to represent Him, and all the more so if they call themselves leaders among God’s people, which no one should do being that Jesus said “You are not to be called ‘Rabbi,’ for you have one Teacher, and you are all brothers” (Matt. 23:8, NIV).

And I was extremely wrong because they flat out refused to submit to God’s Word, to Him, whose “name is called The Word of God” (Rev. 19:13, KJV). Bottom line, they are “hireling[s who] careth not for the sheep” (John 10:13, KJV). What I did, and what the body of Christ has done as a whole, is summed up with this graphic someone else made.

Frying Pan Faith

Hell Week (the psych ward experience) had just been a preview of the war we're in with "spiritual wickedness in high places" (Eph. 6:12, KJV). So by the end of Eagle days I was really fried as nearly everyone except for my little girls had given me something of a Judas kiss. And the Lord had me break away from the rest since they've also been serving the enemy and God tells us "not to keep company, if any man that is called a brother be...covetous, or an idolator...with such an one no not to eat" (1 Cor. 5:11, KJV). God wanted this eagle to fly alone, because, that's what eagles do! We're not geese.

Hurt and exhausted, discerning this was just the beginning, the Lord had two movies for me at the time, besides His Word, confirming things. One was The Hiding Place (1975), which, of course, isn't entirely biblical. But, after the movie is over, Corrie Ten Boom, now elderly, comes on and says something like, No matter how hard it gets, Jesus is deeper still, and I knew the Lord was speaking to me through her. It was like when He had used Stuart McAllister during an RZIM conference to prophesy to me as he yelled to the whole congregation staring straight at me in the back of the room. (I know Stuart wasn't looking at me but God had him looking straight at me since He was behind it.) Stuart yells "When Jesus sets out to use you greatly, it will feel like He HATES YOUR GUTS!" Looking straight at me he went on and on yelling about how hard it would get. And I'd known immediately that it was the Lord warning me since it's as He says "My sheep hear my voice" (John 10:27, KJV). So, that's how it's felt having been placed by God in the sandwich scenario, hated by unbelievers and "believers" alike, so that no matter what I say or do, I either get ignored or eaten alive.

The other movie the Lord used was of a couple who, unknown to them, had been infected with a deadly communicable disease in Mexico and then crossed the border illegally—not knowing they were infected. So throughout the extremely difficult journey—99% of the movie—people were dying all around them while they were being hunted down while they were sick and while they were trying to find their way to a place they'd never been to before, until the woman, who was somewhat immune, ends her exhausting journey in the arms of a compassionate cop. Again, I knew it was God's preview. And it's exactly how it's played out, I just haven't physically landed in those arms yet, though I am in His arms since He "will never leave [me]" (Heb. 13:5, KJV). (I've never been able to find the movie.)

Working on the original book, Wake Up!, God used Google Images and some hot dogs to confirm how it's played out, to go with the line I'd had in the play, "Out of the fire and into the frying pan." (Heb. 12:29 & Heb. 13:5 below).

Hebrews 12:29, KJV We have had fathers of our flesh which corrected us, and we gave them reverence: shall we not much rather be in subjection unto the Father of spirits, and live?

Hebrews 13:5, KJV I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee.

Majo: Majo (in the graphic) refers to Maya and Jo. I'd used a penname when I thought the Lord was having me publish the original book to protect myself and my family, no real names involved. What I did was feminize my father's penname, Josefo Leonidas, making it Josefina Leonidas, Jo for short while also tying into to His calling for The Joseph Experience, covered in Part 5 of my testimony. But then in 2012 He gave me the Maya Makes a Mess book revealing that I had to use my real name. I guess my point is that there is a logical reason for everything, every word and every picture, because as Christians profess to know—but don't actually believe—God is in the details.

Judging Righteously

(I apologize for the repetition but it's a byproduct of writing this testimony in the form of spiritual markers.)

Spurred on by Kerry Bowman and the promise of the new worship center he would be leading—spurred on also by his own wicked heart (Jer. 17:9 below) and Satan (1 Pet. 5:8 below)—Bill Bean accused me of being Dathan (Num. 16:1-3 below). But even if I had been, which is a real stretch since I had NOBODY rising up against them with me (in fact, it's what he did a year later), they still messed up. Because according to Scripture, rather than bind and gag me in secret—as one of the teens had enough discernment to realized they'd done—they should have fed me to the wolves, the other wolves, the whole congregation (Matt. 7:15 & 18:15-17 below). So God boomeranged what Bill accused me of back on him since he was the one in rebellion.

Jeremiah 17:9, KJV The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked.

1 Peter 5:8, KJV The devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour.

Numbers 16:1-3, KJV Dathan and [others]... gathered themselves together against Moses and against Aaron.

Matthew 7:15, KJV Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves.

Matthew 18:15-17, KJV If thy brother shall trespass against thee, go and tell him his fault between thee and him alone...But if he will not hear thee...tell it unto the church: but if he neglect to hear the church, let him be unto thee as an heathen man and a publican.

The fact is that so-called pastors, what Jesus calls hirelings (John 10:11-13)—as a whole—haven't cared whether or not they're honoring God and His Word. That's obvious when you compare what they're doing to the new covenant, which is what God has had me do with this ministry. And since they haven't cared about honoring Jesus for hundreds of years, it's now irrelevant not only to them but to Christians as a whole. However, it's not irrelevant to God who says "Be not deceived; God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap" (Gal. 6:7, KJV).

So while today's "best" harlot church leaders with large platforms have been living cake lives fleecing God's people, I find comfort in the fact that they've wasted their entire lives away building their kingdoms on earth rather than where it actually matters—speaking of those who are actually elect or even born again.

So while you'll be tempted to say I'm so unloving for being glad these people have wasted their lives away, you need to engage thy brain (Titus 1:10-11 & John 7:24 below). The damage they've been doing is no small thing. 25 Sobering Statistics On Global Poverty That Might Upset You - YouTube

Rather than acting like a baby or a spoiled brat, the body of Christ should be helping that baby. And the way to do is by actually honoring Christ.

As it is, it would be loving for me to pray for key harlot church leaders to IMMEDIATELY DROP DEAD like Sapphira and Ananias! (Acts 5:4-10 below). What are these hypocrites compared to BILLIONS in need of God's love and protection? But it hasn't been what I've prayed for them and in 2020 God showed me why the Spirit hadn't led me that way (Rom. 8:26 below), covered in Satan Exposed: Rightly Dividing the Word.

Acts 5:4-10, NIV You have not lied just to human beings but to God. When Ananias heard this, he fell down and died...About three hours later his wife came in, not knowing what had happened. 8 Peter asked her, "Tell me, is this the price you and Ananias got for the land?" "Yes," she said, "that is the price." Peter said to her, "How could you conspire to test the Spirit of the Lord? Listen! The feet of the men who buried your husband are at the door, and they will carry you out also." At that moment she fell down at his feet and died.

Romans 8:26, KJV the Spirit also helpeth our infirmities: for we know not what we should pray for as we ought.

However, God gave me the Word to pray for Bill that he would be "converted [and] strengthen th[e] brethren" (Luke 22:32, KJV). But Bill died in 2018, never having repented! Bill died without repenting and, therefore, without strengthening the body of Christ. Had I misunderstood the Lord?

I don't think so.

I think it's like what He showed me with the movie The Hiding Place (1975) and also when the X's baby died, covered in the last testimony booklet. What I'm thinking is that Bill will get used like how Corrie Ten Boom's sister was used. Again, while in the concentration camp she told Corrie that God had spoken to her about the two of them having this amazing ministry after the war. But she died in the camp. However, she was a part of that ministry through her testimony.

Likewise, Bill is a part of this ministry and will be used to strengthen the body of Christ because he's a part of my testimony. Like RZIM and Eagle, I'd thought he'd be used in a positive way, but they're all going to be used to strengthen God's people through their negative testimony! Just like all the rest, stop doing what you're doing! And, in God's "appointed time" (Hab. 2:3, KJV) at least some of you will not because of any good in you but because God, through His Spirit, will convict you. Praise God!

Surprised by Faith!

This was the first study we did at Eagle led by a young man in his early 20s. And more than two decades later the Lord brought him to mind as someone, the last one, to reach out to as He's had me doing for years, writing them 'the message' and praying my heart out for them—all to come to nothing. If God doesn't use this man He's going to use a total stranger and I'm guess not from this country. This country is spiritually comatose DEAD (Rev. 3:1). And here's the irony. Apparently this man, Bryan, was initially going to become a missionary. And since "it is God who works in you to will and to act in order to fulfill his good purpose" (Phil. 2:13, KJV), the only reason he would have had that ambition is because of God. But he derailed, in God's terms "made shipwreck" of his faith (1 Tim. 1:19, KJV) just like everyone else. Except he's excelled at it, in a way, better than most. What he's done is run hard after Satan by building his kingdom on earth. Bryan is a leader in building up Indianapolis when God said "Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him" (1 John 2:15, KJV). So if God pierces his heart when he received my material, and Lord willing He will, he's going to be sorely surprised by his lack of faith! And that's true for the whole body of Christ!

So what I'm come to realize is that all the good spiritual choices we make are because of God and all the bad spiritual choices we make are because our hearts are "desperately wicked" (Jer. 17:9, KJV). In other words, the ONLY reason we ever make a good spiritual choice (thought, prayer, action) is strictly because of God working that in us. If not for Him we would all be just as corrupt as the most corrupt in society. Somewhere there's a very fine line between our free will and God's overriding authority—and I, for one, have no clue as to where that is but I envision it something like this graphic. The fine line being somewhere in the yellow area. And it emphasizes the importance of prayer. We were supposed to be begging God to draw us to Him and to keep us from straying, to convict us all along the way and to also draw others to Him. But everyone knows that's NOT what the body of Christ has historically done or does currently. If you disagree, you are seriously deceived. If that weren't true we would not have landed the world in the mess we're currently in!
