*Lord, who shall abide in thy tabernacle?
who shall dwell in thy holy hill?
He that walketh uprightly, and worketh righteousness, and speaketh the truth in his heart.
Psalm 15:1-2, KJV*

Lord, give your people
the conviction to walk uprightly working righteousness and speaking the truth.

I've paid my dues

Jesus prophesied that He would “be delivered unto the Gentiles, and [would] be mocked, and spitefully entreated, and spitted on” (Luke 18:32, KJV). Having prophesied about it He then walked in it. Jesus paid His dues on the Cross having been “wounded for our transgressions” (Isa. 53:5, KJV). So they weren’t even His dues. Except they were in a way. The Father promised Him that He would reign after this “present evil age” (Gal. 1:4, YLT) if He would pay His dues, so He did. Scripture says “he shall reign over the house of Jacob to the ages” (Luke 1:33, YLT). It’s like He’s mocking us since everyone—including born again Christians—constantly blame Jesus for everything that goes wrong. It’s almost like He’s saying “I’ve paid My dues. What have you done?” “The Lord doth mock at [us]” (Ps. 2:4, YLT) because what we, “the body of Christ” (1 Cor. 12:27, KJV) have done is trampled Him under foot. As made clear through this ministry the body of Christ has nullified the Word of God. We’ve created a god in our own image a god to fit our own ideas in spite of what Scripture reveals. The doctrine of hell is a great example. While Scripture tells us that “the Son is the radiance of God’s glory and the exact representation of his being” (Heb. 1:3, NIV)—and everyone knows Jesus wouldn’t hurt a fly—for centuries, if not for most of Christian history, the body of Christ has been teaching that God is more evil than Satan!

And the reason Jesus paid His dues wasn’t so that He could reign since when it’s all been said and done “then the end will come, when he hands over the kingdom to God the Father after he has destroyed all dominion, authority and power” (1 Cor. 15:24, NIV). Jesus paid His dues on the Cross so that “we [would] have...an high priest which...was in all points tempted like as we are” (Heb. 4:15, KJV). He went to the Cross for humanity so that we would know that He understands what it is we’re going through—since He went through it. The last thing any of us should be doing is blaming Him for anything. We should all be on our faces thanking Him and relying on Him.

And God, the Father, did it through Jesus, Himself in the flesh, since He’s the only one who could actually pay the dues. For one thing, “the wages of sin is death” (Rom. 6:23, KJV) so someone had to pay with their life, and it had to be Jesus because no one else is “without sin” (Heb. 4:15, KJV). Since God is holy the life that would cover the wages of all of creations sins had to holy and without blemish.

God is also making the point to humanity that we all are “desperately wicked” (Jer. 17:9, KJV). To enable everyone to be able to see it and to fully grasp it, He allowed Satan to be the “ruler” (John 12:31, YLT) and “god of this world” (2 Cor. 4:4, KJV) for “the present evil age” (Gal. 1:4, YLT), giving us the option to rely on Him instead. But, of course, we haven’t.

Because God is a holy being, perfect and without fault, He requires those who come near Him to be holy as well. He says “Be holy, for I am holy” (Lev. 11:45, KJV). Therefore, the only way for sinful self-willed humans to become holy is through Christ, more specifically, through His blood. It’s like He gives those who genuinely believe in Him during this life a blood transfusion. [The rest will get it during “the coming ages” (Eph. 2:7, NIV).] Without it, we’re stuck with unholy blood since the first human, Adam, sinned and “through [this] one man sin entered into the world, and through sin death” (Rom. 5:12, CLT) so that everyone who’s born dies. However, having received His blood transfusion, “he one who believes in [Him] will live, even though they die” (John 11:25, NIV).

By believing what God has revealed to us in His Word, the Bible, specifically concerning the new covenant Jesus made with His blood, believing Him enough that we actually start obeying Him, God empties us of our old sinful blood, our old nature, and fills us with His pure holy blood, His nature. Scripture says “the Holy Spirit...God has given to those who obey him” (Acts 5:32, NIV). So He refers to it as being “born again” (John 3:3, KJV) as if we’re born with new blood even though we’re no longer a baby. And since “the life of the flesh is in the blood” (Lev. 17:11, KJV), as all medical personnel know, “except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God” (John 3:3, KJV). Without His blood, His Spirit, inside of us, we are “dead in...our sins” (Col. 2:13, KJV). And dead people can’t see. We are spiritually dead and cannot see spiritual things presented by God. “The person without the Spirit does not accept the things that come from the Spirit of God but considers them foolishness, and cannot understand them because they are discerned only through the Spirit” (1 Cor. 2:14, KJV).

However, we can see spiritual things presented by the “god of this world” (2 Cor. 4:4, KJV), Satan, who’s purpose is to “deceive the nations” (Rev. 20:3, KJV). We can see “spiritual wickedness” (Eph. 6:12, KJV) and be deceived to think it’s actually good and coming from God. A great example is with Yoga as many former Yoga instructors and enthusiasts testify. Yoga and the Occult: Ex Witch Tells All - YouTube.

In any case, through His sacrifice on the Cross, Jesus purchased for God, for Himself, a kingdom of people. Scripture says:

With your blood [Jesus] you purchased for God persons from every tribe and language and people and nation (Rev. 5:9, NIV).

Ye [born again] are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's (1 Cor. 6:20, KJV).

Ye are bought with a price; [therefore] be not ye the servants of men (1 Cor. 7:23, KJV).

And because Jesus purchased the people with His blood, with His own life, the Father has given Him authority over His kingdom, “the age-during reign of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ” (2 Pet. 1:11, YLT).

I paid my dues time after time

While Jesus paid His dues, He’s been “put to an open shame” (Heb. 6:6, KJV) by professing Christians for most of the past 2000 years, therefore “time after time.” The “body of Christ” (1 Cor. 12:27, KJV) today, the soon to be Bride of Christ, is as apostate—as far from God—as She’s ever been having fulfilled the “falling away” period (2 Thess. 2:3, KJV).

The Great Apostasy!

And He warned us that we would not see Him again on earth until we would earnestly say “Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord” (Matt. 23:39, KJV). In other words, we have to acknowledge those who come in His name, which is what He’s had me doing for over two decades. Yet no one has acknowledged this obvious truth, nailing the point that He’s paid His dues “time after time.” Because, when you reject the people God sends you, you are rejecting Him. “The LORD said unto Samuel...they have not rejected thee, but they have rejected me, that I should not reign over them” (1 Sam. 8:7, KJV). And Jesus says to His disciples “He that receiveth you receiveth me” (Matt. 10:40, KJV). Therefore, he that doesn’t receive one of His disciples doesn’t receive Him. As He says, “Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me” (Matt. 25:40, KJV).

Having rejected Him, He says to the body of Christ “Thine own wickedness shall correct thee, and thy backslidings shall reprove thee: know therefore and see that it is an evil thing and bitter, that thou hast forsaken the LORD thy God, and that my fear is not in thee” (Jer. 2:19, KJV). Born again Christians will know this when they finally remove the blinders from their eyes because of all the trials coming upon the earth, already right on top of us.

I've done my sentence but committed no crime

Jesus committed no crime as Pilate testified when he said “I find no fault in this man” (Luke 23:4, KJV). God, the Father, “made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him” (2 Cor. 5:21, KJV), as in by Him.

I've paid my dues time after time I've done my sentence but committed no crime

The first few lines of this song also refer to me in that I've done my sentence for the past 22 years without having committed a crime—as far as I've been accused. While I'm a sinner just like everyone else since “there in none righteous” (Rom. 3:10, KJV), I'm not delusional, a false prophet, or serving Satan as I get accused, which God has made obvious through the material He's had me put together.

The problem is that you not only need God's Spirit inside of you to be able to hear God's voice and see His hand, to connect the dots—have spiritual discernment and actually be loving—you have to be “walk[ing] in the Spirit” (Gal. 5:16, KJV). God says “There is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit” (Rom. 8:1, KJV, my emphasis). So if you're born again but refuse to walk in the Spirit God holds those beams in place so that you remain blind. And there's no way to walk in the Spirit if you're not being honest. Jesus says “I am...the truth” (John 14:6, KJV) and “the devil...is a liar” (John 8:44, KJV). Those are the two and only choices. We can either walk in the truth and honor God or walk in lies and honor Satan. And God is proving, not only through my testimony but through Christian and all of history, that humans LOVE TO LIE! It's what we do. The born again who walk after the flesh and not after the Spirit aren't able to clearly discern God's voice since they're under condemnation by God, which means strong disapproval (Rom. 8:1 above). And since even born again Christian hypocrites have historically walked after the flesh, today's Christians are under condemnation and, therefore, lack discernment.

And I would be in the exact same boat if not for God's hand on my life, which has NOTHING to do with me. And I'm not saying I have perfect discernment. I DO NOT! Christians often say “I don't know why God would choose me” as if they're something special about them, missing the point. There is NOTHING special about any of us since “there is none righteous, no not one” (Rom. 3:10, KJV). It's like when I grab a piece of gum out of my pack of gum. There was nothing special about the one I grabbed. It's just the one I grabbed! The only One who's special is Jesus, God's Christ. And He made the point—what I'm trying to get across—when He rebuked the disciples and said “Rejoice not, that the spirits are subject unto you; but rather rejoice, because your names are written in heaven” (Luke 10:20, KJV). We're to rejoice if we're elect by not taking our election—what Jesus did for us—for granted. In other words, do what needs doing to be able to walk in the Spirit.

But since that's not what the born again have been willing to do, we've revealed that it's as He said, “This cometh to pass, that the word might be fulfilled that is written in their law, They hated me without a cause” (John 15:25, KJV). Everyone, including the born again, hate those who walk more closely with the Lord because “this is the condemnation, that light [ha]s come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because [ou]r deeds [a]re evil” (John 3:19, KJV). That's one of the main points God is making through this ministry. Our hearts are "desperately wicked" (Jer. 17:9, KJV) EVEN when born again unless we "take captive every thought to make it obedient to Christ" (2 Cor. 10:5, NIV). And the state of Christianity today reveals that Christians have historically NOT taken their thoughts captive to Christ. Not even close, and "refuse...to be ashamed" (Jer. 3:3, KJV).

Therefore, we have the next line of the song...

And bad mistakes I've made a few

Again, God is mocking us using the word few because "our sins are higher than our heads" (Ezra 9:6, KJV)—as revealed by the dartboard graphic. God is mocking Christians, both real and delusional, but especially the born again. "He who is sitting in the heavens doth laugh, The Lord doth mock at them" (Ps. 2:4, YLT).

And while sin is always a mistake, it's much more than that because while "God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble" (Ps. 46:1, KJV)—and humanity is in desperate trouble today—God says "Your sins have hid his face from you, that he will not hear" (Isa. 59:2, KJV). Our sins keep God from listening to our prayers, keep Him from helping us! And there's not much point in praying if God won't even hear us. So not only are our sins mistakes, they are incredibly bad mistakes as the lyrics say. "Bad mistakes I've made a few," a little sarcasm from God, since we've all made so many we can't even begin to count them!

I've had my share of sand kicked in my face But I've come through Jesus, along with all of God's faithful servants have had our share of sand kicked in our face, so to speak, because "all that will live godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution" (2 Tim. 3:12, KJV). But because of God's love, mercy and power, we've come through/will come through. We, the born again, are "confident of this very thing, that he which hath begun a good work in [us] will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ" (Phil. 1:6, KJV)—until the day He returns, the Day of the Lord, the day "this present evil age" finally ends (Gal. 1:4, YLT). With God's Spirit within, we "can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth [us]" (Phil. 4:13, KJV). Those who learn to "bring...into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ" (2 Cor. 10:5, KJV) are like the energizer bunny, only better, so that we will come through no matter how much 'sand' gets kicked in our face.

And I've always loved the beach (where they kick sand in your face), and realized in 2013 as I edited this that my first favorite beach was Rockaway Beach (in Queens, New York) as in Keep throwin' those rocks at 'em, ya Queens! As in, We Will Rock You, the other song by Queen the Lord has had me interpret. Again, Queen and Queens (plural) represent the Lord's Bride, His church, the born again, God's "children [who are]...joint-heirs with Christ" (Rom. 8:17, KJV) who is the "King of kings" (Rev. 19:16, YLT) since she's/we are the Bride of Christ. Using me like He used John to "Prepare the way for the Lord" (Matt. 3:3, KJV), He's had me represent His Queen (both singular and plural) by having me be born in La Reina, Santiago, Chile (The Queen), and grow up during my elementary school years in Queens, New York.

The Queen of Queens Married to the King of Kings

La Reina, Santiago, Chile
The Queen, the Bride of Christ

Queens, New York, New York
The Queen, the Bride of Christ

And, it's what the Lord had been telling me for days (when I first wrote this) since the battle against "spiritual wickedness in high places" (Eph. 6:12, KJV) had gotten quite heated and I wanted to quit, like Elijah who said "It is enough; now, O Lord" (1 Kings 19:4, KJV). And as I edit this again a few days after my 57th birthday in 2021, it's not all that different, though milder. While I wish I'd never been born, we must "press on toward the goal [against the grain of 'sand kicked in our face'] to win the prize for which God has called [us] heavenward in Christ" (Phil. 3:14, KJV). And we can persevere when we continually seek and trust Him that He will come through for us. Because the only way we "come through" is by Him coming through for us. "They that wait upon the LORD shall renew their strength" (Isa. 40:31, KJV, my emphasis). No matter how exhausted or discouraged we get, looking to Jesus for help, He does always help us. For example, this morning crying my eyes out because of my cold "Christian" family and Family—no one to even talk to beyond chit chat for over a decade—His Word from the biblegateway dashboard was "Unto you it is given in the behalf of Christ, not only to believe on him, but also to suffer for his sake" (Phil. 1:29, KJV). It was encouraging. He was again letting me know I'm not the one who's delusional because cold love isn't love. And you can't actually love anyone while rejecting Christ since "God is love" (1 John 4:8, KJV). And by not being His follower you are rejecting Him since you're not letting Him lord over you when that's who He is, Lord God.

And all Christians, even while in rebellion, get at least some sand kicked in their face since they go against the major grain of the world. As Jesus says "If they have persecuted me, they will also persecute you" (John 15:20, KJV).

But since the majority have become "friend[s] of the world" (James 4:4, KJV), God is now sending quite a bit of sand all of our way as well because "whosoever therefore will be a friend of the world is the enemy of God" (James 4:4, KJV). And since we're part of "the body of Christ" (1 Cor. 12:27, KJV), what happens to one impacts all.

And I need to go on and on and on and on

This passage applies to several beings/groups: Satan, Jesus, Me, and the rest of the born again.

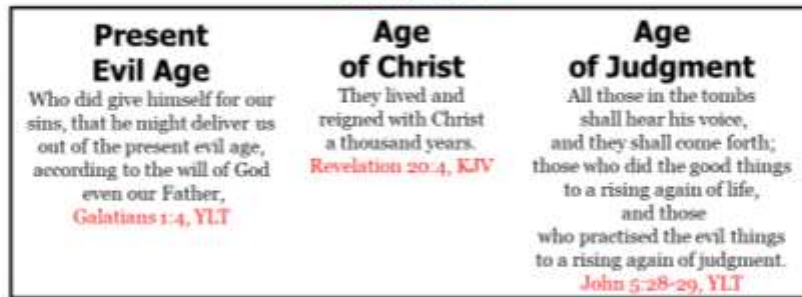

Satan Needs to Go On and On and On and On. Since God created the “vessels of wrath fitted to destruction” (Rom. 9:22, KJV), as in programmed for destruction—during this “present evil age” (Gal. 1:4, YLT)—Satan has no other desire than to go on and on and on and on “deceiv[ing] the nations” (Rev. 20:3, KJV). And as I walk through in God’s Plan: A Vision for the Body “destruction” is not forever. Ultimately, through the work Jesus did on the Cross and the ages, God is destroying everyone’s evil nature, both in human beings and in supernatural beings. Concerning Satan Scripture says the following:

In that day lay a charge doth Jehovah, With his sword—the sharp, and the great, and the strong, On leviathan—a fleeing serpent, And on leviathan—a crooked serpent...he doth take hold on My strength, He doth make peace with Me, Peace he doth make with Me (Isa. 27;1-5, YLT).

Ages of the Ages

To the King of the ages, the incorruptible, invisible, only wise God,
[is] honour and glory—to the ages of the ages! Amen.
1 Timothy 1:17, YLT

Before the Ages
We declare God’s wisdom,
a mystery that has been hidden and that God destined for our glory before time began.
1 Corinthians 2:7, NIV

End of the Ages
Then cometh the end, when he shall have delivered up the kingdom to God, even the Father; when he shall have put down all rule and all authority and power.
1 Corinthians 15:24, KJV

We’ve also been informed that “God has bound everyone over to disobedience so that he may have mercy on them all” (Rom. 11:32, NIV). “God created Satan for His purposes, to work out His plan, which is ultimately to reveal His glory:

[God’s plan is] that there might be made known now to the principalities and the authorities in the heavenly [places] [to Satan and the demons], through the assembly [the body of Christ], the manifold wisdom of God, according to a purpose of the ages, which He made in Christ Jesus our Lord (Eph. 3:10-11, YLT)

The “principalities and the authorities in the heavenly [places]” are the fallen angels, Satan and the rest of demons/devils. God is using their wickedness to reveal both our depravity and His goodness. I walk through it in God’s Plan but for 2000 years His elect have been able to “Submit...to God. Resist the devil, and he [would have had to] flee” (James 4:7, KJV). Instead, even the born again have helped Satan and his “ministers” (2 Cor. 11:15, KJV).

In any case, until God’s plan is fulfilled, Satan will need to “go on and on and on and on” deceiving the nations—but it’s not as if he’s doing it against his will! It’s his nature. Satan “lusts...[after] murder...[and] he is a liar (John 8:44, KJV). And everyone who is not a follower of Christ will be willing to do the same under the “right” circumstances.

Jesus Needs to Go On and On and On and On. When He walked the earth, He was focused straight like an arrow heading toward its target, like David who said “GOD will help me...therefore have I set my face like a flint, and I know that I shall not be ashamed” (Isa. 50:7, KJV). Jesus knew His mission having spent loads of quality time with the Father even “all night in prayer” (Luke 6:12, KJV) and was, therefore, determined to fulfill God’s purpose for His life so that we read “from that time forth began Jesus to shew unto his disciples, how that he must go unto Jerusalem, and suffer many things of the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and be raised again the third day” (Matt. 16:21, KJV). And He still needs to go on and on and on and on because Jesus is our “advocate with the Father” (1 John 2:1, KJV) so that “He ever liveth to make intercession” (Heb. 7:25, KJV). While Satan is “the accuser of [the] brethren” (Rev. 12:10, KJV), Jesus defends the elect, especially the born again, to the Father as if He’s our lawyer, which is what advocate means.

ADVOCATE, n. [L. advocatus, from advoco, to call for, to plead for; of ad and voco, to call. See Vocal.]
 1. Advocate, in its primary sense, signifies, one who pleads the cause of another in a court of civil law. Hence,
 Noah Webster, American Dictionary of the English Language, 1828.

What Jesus is currently doing for the elect is like this graphic. And He gave us a glimpse of how intensely He defends us when He walked the earth as revealed in the Gospel of Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John—the record of His life on earth.

Jesus also needs to go on and on and on and on because He’s God who was neither created nor can He be destroyed. While the Father has always existed His Son was not created by Him but “begotten” (John 1:18, YLT), just like a man and woman don’t create their children. As God’s “only begotten Son” (John 3:16, KJV), carried by Mary as if she was His surrogate mother, Jesus is God. (I walk through it in God’s Plan.) Being God “it was impossible for death to keep its hold on him” (Acts 2:24, NIV). In turn, He needs to go on and on and on and on. God is everlasting.

I Need to Go On and On and On and On: While I was totally fried from life when I became born again—testimony summed up Welcome!—for 30+ years I’ve persevered against the grain of lost antichrist and Christian antichrists because you either do that or blow your brains out. But the New Testament makes it clear that if you kill yourself you will not rise for the first resurrection since “he that endureth to the end shall be saved” (Matt. 10:22, KJV)—saved from Satan’s “great wrath” (Rev. 12:12, KJV). “He that overcometh shall not be hurt of the second death” (Rev. 2:11, KJV). We overcome and are able to go on and on and on and on by relying on Christ.

So when we feel like quitting, we dig deeper still and beg God to bring us through. Except we don’t just beg for His help, we have to do our part by reading and applying His Word to our lives. In turn, He brings us through. So even though I felt like quitting ages ago before I was born again and repeatedly since I became born again—because of apostate Christians—I still go on and on and on and on coming through knowing I need to and because I’m able to, enabled by God who empowers me by His Spirit within me having said “You will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes on you” (Acts 1:8, NIV), which He gives to “those who obey Him” (Acts 5:32, NIV). And “God is not a man, that he should lie” (Num. 23:19, KJV).

The Born Again Need to Go On and On and On and On: While Satan is wearing out the saints, another term for born again, the real battle hasn’t even yet begun! So we need to go on and on and on and on! Daniel prophesied the following about the last and most brutal dictator this world will have, commonly referred to as the antichrist which is the beast system:

He’ll speak against the Most High God [referring to Satan and his ministers, the beast system]. He’ll treat God’s holy people badly. He will try to change the times and laws that were given by God [as with the many false teachings of the end times, most of which seem to have been introduced by Jesuits, servants of Satan]. God’s holy people will be placed under his power for three and a half years [the last three and a half years before the Lord’s return] (Dan. 7:25, NIRV).

I don’t think the part about changing times and laws is about the sabbath, as to whether it’s Sunday or Saturday...I think that’s just a distraction since Jesus made it clear that He’s “Lord even of the sabbath day” (Matt. 12:8, KJV) and being a follower of Christ is something we do EVERY day! And the New Testament says, for instance, “Let no man therefore judge you in meat, or in drink, or in respect of an holyday, or of the new moon, or of the sabbath days: Which are a shadow of things to come” (Col. 2:16-17, KJV, my emphasis). While Christians fight about the sabbath, they disobey God in so many ways! What we need to do is go on and on and on and on “produc[ing] fruit in keeping with repentance” (Matt. 3:8, NIV, my emphasis).

We are the champions

Jesus says “Ye must be born again” (John 3:7, KJV). When we believe the Gospel message and prove to God that we’re in earnest, we receive “the Holy Spirit whom God has given to those who obey him” (Acts 5:32, NIV).

But the born again aren’t necessarily “champions.” They’ll be overcomers because all born again—no matter how faithful or unfaithful we are—make up “the church of God, which he hath purchased with his own blood” (Acts 20:28, KJV). Jesus says “Life age-during I give to them, and they shall not perish—to the age” (John 10:28, YLT). “He that overcometh shall not be hurt of the second death” (Rev. 2:11, KJV). We overcome through faith in Christ, not by our works or even our faithfulness—just by genuinely believing the truth enough so that God gives us His Spirit. So it’s not through the Old Testament Law which God calls “the ministration of death, written and engraven in stones” (2 Cor. 3:7, KJV), clearly referring to the Ten Commandments.

It’s like this graphic. Having become born again we can live the rest of our lives anywhere on that red path, like the apostate BRAT who honors Satan—as the body of Christ has done for most of Christian history—or like I’ve been doing for the last 22 years, willing to “give up everything” (Luke 14:33, KJV) God puts His finger on. So far it’s included my immediate and extended family, a paid job/career, friends, peers, acquaintances, and income. It’s like David said “Lover and friend hast thou put far from me, and mine acquaintance into darkness” (Ps. 88:18, KJV).

The Broad & Narrow Ways

However, to become “the champions” we have to give it our all. The champions are those who make up their mind to follow Jesus no matter what or for however long. We’ve been called to love Him “with all [our] heart, and with all [our] soul, and with all [our] mind, and with all [our] strength [which is]...the first commandment” (Mark 12:30, KJV). These people will be able to fulfill the second commandment which is to genuinely “love...our neighbor” (Mark 12:31, KJV) which includes “lov[ing]...our enemies” (Matt. 5:44, KJV). “On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets” (Matt. 22:40, KJV). In other words, do the one thing—love God with all you’ve got—and everything else will fall into place like a domino effect, though not as easy as all that but still doable because “the Holy Spirit...God has given to those who obey him” (Acts 5:32, NIV) and we “receive power when the Holy Spirit comes on [us]” (Acts 1:8, NIV).

My Friends

The lyrics say “we are the champions, my friends. “My friends” are the elect of God, the sheep, the vessels of mercy, summed up most clearly in this passage which I’ve made into a graphic. It’s not just the born again since God’s elect have the potential of becoming born again children of God who don’t have their name blotted out of the book of life. Scripture says of the elect who are not born again, “Concerning the gospel, they are enemies...but as touching the election, they are beloved for the father’s sakes” (Rom. 11:28, KJV). And Jesus says “He that overcometh...I will not blot out his name out of the book of life, but I will confess his name before my Father, and before his angels” (Rev. 3:5, KJV). It’s not merely professing Christians since many of them aren’t even elect of God and most born again—every single one on my path so far (and I’m 57 years old!)—haven’t actually been walking in obedience to Him, as Jesus said would be the case:

Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven. Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works? And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity (Matt. 7:21-23, KJV).

In any case, the elect are “friends” since Jesus says “I have called you friends” (John 15:15, KJV). And while they don’t currently act like friends—so that I haven’t had a single friend in two decades!—a remnant among the born again will change before this “present evil age” (Gal. 1:4, YLT) is over. God prophesied the following, which is what’s happened and will happen:

Some of them of understanding shall fall, to try them, and to purge, and to make them white, even to the time of the end: because it is yet for a time appointed (Dan. 11:35, KJV).

Many shall be purified, and made white, and tried; but the wicked shall do wickedly: and none of the wicked shall understand; but the wise shall understand (Daniel 12:10, KJV).

The “wise” are those who will “take captive every thought to make it obedient to Christ” (2 Cor. 10:5, NIV). “Knowing...that now it is high time to awake out of sleep: for now is our salvation nearer than when we believed” (Rom. 13:11, KJV).

And Scripture says “the nations hearing were glad, and were glorifying the word of the Lord, and did believe—as many as were appointed to life age-during” (Acts 13:48, YLT, my emphasis). The fact is that not everyone has been “appointed” to life “age-during” or “eonian” (Acts 13:48, CLT), life for the millennial reign of Christ. Not everyone is elect of God. This is made clear throughout the Bible. And by saying “I endure all things for the elect’s sakes, that they may also obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus” (2 Tim. 2:10, KJV), Paul made it clear that elect and born again do not mean the same thing as most Christians today seem to view it.

So while everyone thinks I’m the biggest loser chasing after a God that doesn’t exist or wrong about how to follow Him, thinking I’ve wasted my life away, I’m a pretty big champion as revealed by God having stood alone against the grain of hateful unbelievers and of hateful hypocritical Christians for decades.

And we'll keep on fighting til the end

Again, God “mock[s us]” (Ps. 2:4, YLT) because if He didn’t intervene we—born again Christians—would never stop fighting! The body of Christ is like this graphic, everyone more interested in their own opinion than in what God has actually said when Scripture says “if ye bite and devour one another, take heed that ye be not consumed one of another” (Gal. 5:14-16, KJV). Warned by God, ignoring Him, Christians have been devouring one another for most of the past 2000 years, doing so in increasing measure. That’s what the tens of thousands of unbiblical denominations are all about, Christians who refuse to submit to the lordship of Christ or “to one another out of reverence for Christ” (Eph. 5:21, NIV).

Grieve not the holy Spirit of God, whereby ye are sealed unto the day of redemption. Ephesians 4:30, KJV

There should be no division in the body. 1 Corinthians 12:25, KJV

The Center for the Study of Global Christianity at Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary estimated 43,000 denominations around 2012.

However, fighting til the end also means that enlightened and repentant elect will keep up the fight to the end since God has enabled us to win “for he hath said, I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee” (Heb. 13:5, KJV). God promised us the victory over Satan when keep up the fight having said “He that overcometh, and keepeth my works unto the end, to him will I give power over the nations” (Rev. 2:26, KJV).

This also applies to me personally in that no matter how many times I’ve been knocked down, or how hard, I’ve always gotten back in the fight so that I can honestly say the following whereas most Christians can’t—not honestly. “I have fought a good fight...I have kept the faith: Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day” (2 Tim. 4:6-8, KJV). I’ve been able to put up a good fight since the Lord has enabled me to continually get back in the fight. That’s the difference having His Spirit within makes WHEN we take our “thought[s] captive to Christ” (2 Cor. 10:5, NIV) rather than hold firm to our own opinion.

And, unlike what many Christians preach we should do—get out our guns, form a militia, and physically fight the New World Order, or fight in the courts, or on the streets with protests—God has NOT called us to fight with earthly weapons! “Though we walk in the flesh, we do not war after the flesh: For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal” (2 Cor. 10:3-4, KJV). We’ll keep on fighting til the end but we’ll finally do it right, using our official weapon, “the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God” (Eph. 6:17, KJV), since that’s how we win.

So you have to learn how to wield it. You have to learn the Word of God, the Bible, and know how to apply it in relation to the new covenant “Law of Christ” (Gal. 6:2, KJV).

The Second Amendment. While Americans have the right to bear arms according to the Constitution, we are in a war “against spiritual wickedness” (Eph. 6:12, KJV), against fallen angels and demons. We are in a brutal spiritual war. Therefore, when the disciples furnished merely two swords, Jesus said, “It is enough” (Luke 22:38, KJV) and rebuked Peter for actually using it:

Simon Peter having a sword drew it, and smote the high priest's servant, and cut off his right ear...Then said Jesus unto Peter, Put up thy sword into the sheath: the cup which my Father hath given me, shall I not drink it? (John 18:10-11, KJV).

And it’s the same for all elect. We have to drink the cup God has for us if we want to rise for “the first resurrection” (Rev. 20:6, KJV) and earn a “better resurrection” (Heb. 11:35, KJV). The fight we’re in can only be won in the Spirit which is why God has given us combat gear. It’s really a war of the mind against ourselves, our sinful nature. Conquer that and you’ve won!

So while our enemy is exceedingly fierce, “the sword of the Spirit” (Eph. 6:17, KJV) is our weapon of choice as Jesus demonstrated during His fight with Satan in the wilderness in Luke 4. And when we use it as a group—at least a decent sized remnant—doing it biblically in relation to the new covenant, having gotten right with the Lord, God will deliver us as a group. He says:

If my people, which are called by my name [Christian], shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land (2 Chron. 7:14, KJV).

However, at this point in time—considering that Christians have refused to repent for hundreds of years, along with prophesy—I discern the “land” that will get healed at the end of this “present evil age” (Gal. 1:4, YLT) refers to the Church, God’s assembly, His turf. God will heal the born again so that we, His assembly, finally become “holy and without blemish” (Eph. 5:27, KJV). In God’s Plan I explain why I discern only a remnant within the body of Christ will get fully right with God. And that’s enough to make a positive worldwide impact. It’s how it was 2000 years ago as revealed in the letters to the churches and which I’ve summed up on my report card. Except this time around we’ll make an even bigger and faster impact due to modern technology.

So even when God doesn’t deliver us from the situation but helps us go through it, it’s to test our faith—to prove ourselves faithful—and to be built up in Him. It’s what the boys told the king:

Our God whom we serve is able to deliver us from the burning fiery furnace, and he will deliver us out of thine hand, O king. But if not...we will [still] not serve thy gods (Dan. 3:17-18, KJV).

First Century Church Report Card
Ephesus Forsook her first love but hated the practices of Nicolaitans.	Grade D
Smyrna Afflicted and poor but rich.	A+
Pergamum Remained somewhat true while holding the teaching of Balaam.	C-
Thyatira Did more than at first but tolerated Jezebel and refused to repent—but not true of all.	D

Laodicea Neither hot or cold not realizing how wretched she is.	F

That’s ultimately the test. Will we remain faithful even “unto the death” (Rev. 12:11, KJV). And the only ones who are more likely to do that are those who know Jesus well, not just know of Him or barely discern His voice. And most Christians today don’t know Him very well as He’s proving through this with the biblical interpretations. If that weren’t true many people would be interpreting God’s Word hidden in plain sight as I’m doing, since “all things were made by him, and for him” (Col. 1:16, KJV). But I’ve never come across anyone on the web (or anywhere) doing this.

Essentially, Christians have focused on believing in Jesus when we were supposed to become His follower. And the thing is, “even the demons believe” in Jesus (James 2:19, KJV). So He says “If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily, and follow me” (Luke 9:23, KJV).

We are the champions, We are the champions

God made the point through Joseph that repetition means He's stressing the point. He said "The dream was doubled unto Pharaoh twice...because the thing is established by God, and God will shortly bring it to pass" (Gen. 41:32, KJV). And God is using this ministry to stress the point that He's coming soon, as seen through the last week of Daniel's 70 weeks prophecy, for example, with the mirror for the last days, repeating everything He did before, again, with a twist. And God is repeating the same message over and over and over again through the biblical interpretations of secular resources. However, as I explain in God's Plan I'm now discerning that those two periods of 3½ years, the time of the "two witnesses" (Rev. 11:3, KJV), the two being born again Jews and born again Gentiles, and the time of great tribulation when "the woman fle[es] into the wilderness" (Rev. 12:6, KJV) happen at the same time so that there is really only one period of 3½ years. God knows. We'd have better discernment if the born again weren't such proud apostate snobs and were instead helping some of us.

Daniel's 70 Weeks Prophecy with End Times Mirror

No time for losers

Christians who don't take God seriously, even if actually born again, are losers because they miss out on knowing the Lord as well as they could have. Jesus says "Whoever has my commands and keeps them is the one who loves me...and I...will love them and show myself to them" (John 14:21, NIV, my emphasis). And while not getting to know the Lord well is bad enough—since He's our Creator—hypocritical born again Christians also miss out on what they could have had for the remaining ages since God has given us this life as an opportunity to build up our kingdom estate, as He's revealed through the following passages, for example:

For other foundation can no man lay than that is laid, which is Jesus Christ. Now if any man build upon this foundation gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, stubble; Every man's work shall be made manifest: for the day shall declare it, because it shall be revealed by fire; and the fire shall try every man's work of what sort it is. If any man's work abide which he hath built thereupon, he shall receive a reward. If any man's work shall be burned, he shall suffer loss: but he himself shall be saved; yet so as by fire (1 Cor. 3:11-15, KJV).

Bodily exercise profiteth little: but godliness is profitable unto all things, having promise of the life that now is, and of that which is to come (1 Tim. 4:8, KJV).

And, we (the born again who walk more closely with the Lord) don't have time for losers—aren't willing to give rebels our time endlessly—since they get in the way of God's kingdom work. As Joshua said, "Choose you this day whom ye will serve" (Josh. 24:15, KJV). If you're not interested, you're not interested. And the reality is that just like unbelievers, most born again Christians "be lovers of their own selves...Having a form of godliness, but denying the power thereof [and God says] from such turn away" (2 Tim. 3:4-5, KJV)—because, they're losers who'll drag you down with them.

It's like Paul with John Mark in the following account:

Paul said to Barnabas, "Let us go back and visit the believers in all the towns where we preached the word of the Lord and see how they are doing." Barnabas wanted to take John, also called Mark, with them, but Paul did not think it wise to take him, because he had deserted them in Pamphylia and had not continued with them in the work (Acts 15:36-38, NIV).

Paul didn't have time for this "loser" since he'd backslidden. However, he welcomed him back when the man had proven that he had changed his ways. We know this because later Paul said "Take Mark, and bring him with thee: for he is profitable to me for the ministry" (2 Tim. 4:11, KJV).

So while backsliders are losers for having had many of their eternal rewards burn, the real losers during this life are the non-elect since they're "vessels of wrath fitted [destined] to destruction" (Rom. 9:22, KJV). But everything the Lord has shown me about Himself and His ways leads me to believe that He actually created very few non-elect compared to the number of elect. Yet most elect have forfeited their election by not having taken their Maker seriously.

And the biggest loser is Satan since "the Devil, who is leading them astray, was cast into the lake of fire and brimstone, where [are] the beast and the false prophet, and they shall be tormented day and night—to the ages of the ages" (Rev. 20:10, YLT). I discern Satan will be the last one to be set free from the bed he's created for himself because Scripture says "the last enemy that shall be destroyed is death" (1 Cor. 15:26, KJV) and "him that had the power of death, that is, the devil" (Heb. 2:14, KJV). He's the worst sentient being God created so he'll have to put in the most time.

However, as I walk through in God's Plan, "the lake of fire and sulphur" is not referring to hell since that's a pagan concept. (Neither I am referring to the Catholic purgatory.) Hell, as we tend to imagine it, does not exist according to the original languages of the Bible. Hell is a place on earth created by man. We create hell on earth by dishonoring the Lord since, by doing that, we're honoring Satan. And it's like we've laid out the red carpet for him to abuse humanity.

Just the same, "torment" does await Satan and all who didn't seriously consider their Maker during this life. And with everything going on in the world, God is obviously saying it's time to stop putting Him off. And He's making it clear as day with this ministry.

Everyone who refuses to acknowledge the truth will have a VERY RUDE awakening. If you're lost but elect or born again but refuse to take Him seriously, you'll end up like the guy who died next to Jesus, finally admitting what he had obviously already known, admitting it since he was being motivated by excruciating pain! That's not the example you want to follow. And the non elect are too busy abusing the rest of humanity so they won't wake up to themselves until after they're dead. Jesus said "There doth come an hour in which all those in the tombs shall hear his voice, and they shall come forth; those who did the good things to a rising again of life, and those who practised the evil things to a rising again of judgment" (John 5:28-29, YLT). While they didn't have the opportunity to get to know the Lord during this life having been "fitted to destruction" (Rom. 9:22, KJV), they also didn't have to be as abusive as they've been either. So it's not as if God has been unfair. They'll be punished for the suffering they inflicted on others.

'Cause we are the champions of the world

Realizing that we're the last generation and that we can build up our kingdom nest egg during this Tour of Duty, the more humble and discerning born again will finally stop chasing after the things of the world and focus on honoring Jesus—better late than never. They'll finally take to heart the truth that "every man shall receive his own reward according to his own labor" (1 Cor. 3:8, KJV).

We must save up for the future!

Best & Worst Case Scenarios

A Better Resurrection
If any man's work abide which he hath built thereupon, he shall receive a reward.
1 Corinthians 3:14

A Pile of Ash
If any man's work shall be burned, he shall suffer loss.
1 Corinthians 3:15

And as born again Christians finally repent, gaining knowledge and wisdom, it will become a time on earth when there will be no more losers among the elect since they'll finally have the TRUTH preached to them and take it, take Him, seriously. Therefore, 'No time for losers' is really not a time of losers. Since God is "The Word" (Rev. 19:13, KJV) He loves to play with words.

And this time of no losers has been summed up and prophesied about in the following passage:

Christ...loved the church, and gave himself for it; That he might sanctify and cleanse it with the washing of water by the word, That he might present it to himself a glorious church, not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without blemish (Eph. 5:25-27, KJV).

This is the work God will be fulfilling in the very last days of this "present evil age" (Gal. 1:4, NIV).

However, the real time of no losers is the millennial reign since "they shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruninghooks: [and] nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more" (Isa. 2:4, KJV). At least that's true until the end of the thousand years when Satan is again "loosed [for] a little season" (Rev. 20:3, KJV) and loads of people serve him again—proving God's point yet again that the human heart is "desperately wicked" (Jer. 17:9, KJV).

I've taken my bows and my curtain calls
You brought me fame and fortune and everything that goes with it
I thank you all

Satan's Bows. Satan's curtain will be temporarily closing as an "angel come[s] down from heaven...And...b[i]nd[s] him [for] a thousand years" (Rev. 20:2, KJV) at the end of this "present evil age" (Gal. 1:4, YLT). He's had a "great" show, having taken many bows since the Dimwit BRAT has brought him fame and fortune for most of the past 2000 years even though Jesus set us free from his power. "For all seek their own, not the things which are Jesus Christ's" (Phil. 2:21, KJV). And we've given him everything that goes with his fame and fortune, the satanic New World Order along with the so-called Protestant church! So he thanks us all since we've all helped him being that "all the world wondered after the beast" (Rev. 13:3, KJV) for being more interested in this ungodly world and the junk Satan has to offer than in having fellowship with Jesus and building up His righteous kingdom.

My Vows and Curtain Calling. Having taken my vows (John 11:27, KJV below) and shared testimony before the congregation when I was baptized at Eagle in Indianapolis in the late 1990s, “profess[ing] a good profession before many witnesses” (1 Tim. 6:12, KJV), and now through this ministry fulfilling the “good works, which God hath before ordained that [I] should walk in” (Eph. 2:10, KJV), I am making/will be making my debut as God’s servant when He finally convicts the born again so that they remove the blinders from their eyes having given me the following Word back then:

The LORD answered me, and said, Write the vision, and make it plain upon tables, that he may run that readeth it. For the vision is yet for an appointed time, but at the end it shall speak, and not lie: though it tarry, wait for it; because it will surely come, it will not tarry (Hab. 2:2-3, KJV).

Therefore, my curtain is calling.

John 11:27, KJV [I] saith unto him, Yea, Lord: I believe that thou art the Christ, the Son of God, which should come into the world.

Since God is using me like John the baptizer to prepare the way for the Lord’s second coming, my experience parallels his. John “grew, and waxed strong in spirit, and was in the deserts till the day of his shewing unto Israel” (Luke 1:80, KJV). Like him, I’ve grown strong in the spirit for being so isolated because of Christian hypocrisy, apostasy, so that I’ve had nothing but time to study God’s Word and follow Jesus through a deserted wilderness experience, stuck in ‘no man’s land’ as summed up with the graphic. I’ve been living in the desert wasteland of what’s called Christianity going against the grain of unbelievers and of professing believers. It’s like the psalmist wrote, “God, earnestly I seek you; I thirst for you, my whole being longs for you, in a dry and parched land where there is no water” (Ps. 63:1, NIV). Christians are supposed to be refreshing each other in the Lord, not telling you that you need psych counseling for believing the truth and walking in it! What Christians have been doing—are currently doing—is Satan’s job for him!

God Thanking You All. Again, God mocks Christians since He can't exactly thank us. Rather, He says "I have no praise for you, for your meetings do more harm than good" (1 Cor. 11:17, KJV). Christian hypocrisy—apostasy—has destroyed many families, as God says:

There are many rebellious people, full of meaningless talk and deception...They must be silenced, because they are disrupting whole households by teaching things they ought not to teach—and that for the sake of dishonest gain (Titus 1:10-11, KJV).

He's referring to the "hireling[s]" (John 10:13, KJV), so called Christian leaders who are earning "dishonest gain" by teaching the lie about tithing and perpetuating a system that is totally unbiblical and honors Satan as Frank Viola and

The institutional church doesn't just function like a business, it mirrors the satanic New World Order!

George Barna revealed in 2008 with their book Pagan Christianity: Exploring the Roots of Our Church Practices and which He had me sum up on the table available on my website with all the Scriptures referenced.

Jesus' Curtain is Calling. Having made my debut, when the self-absorbed Dimwit has changed her ways and been willing to give Him all She's got, the Lord will then make His comeback. He's first showing up in the Spirit and then in the flesh. He says "The showers have been withholden, and there hath been no latter rain [because] thou hadst a whore's forehead, thou refusedst to be ashamed" (Jer. 3:3, KJV). And that's my 22-year testimony. In turn, He thanks "you all," His people, for setting Him free because you are gonna set Him free and unleash His power. I've got it on good Word. He says "So shall my word be that goeth forth out of my mouth: it shall not return unto me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it" (Isa. 55:11, KJV). "I will build my assembly, and gates of Hades shall not prevail against it" (Matt. 16:18, YLT). His Church, God's assembly, will be beautiful, "holy and without blemish" (Eph. 5:27, KJV). Even if only for a very short season. And it will begin when the born again finally admit that we as a group are in great rebellion and have been so for most of Christian history, and also admit that God is using me. As Jesus said, "Ye shall not see me henceforth, till ye shall say, Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord" (Matt. 23:39, KJV).

But it's been no bed of roses

Satan. It hasn't been a bed of roses for Satan knowing that he "shall be tormented day and night—to the ages of the ages" (Rev. 20:10, YLT). "He knows that his time is short" (Rev. 12:12, NIV). And the shorter it gets the meaner he gets.

Me. It hasn't been a bed of roses for me or for anyone who has taken God seriously since "all that will live godly in Christ Jesus...suffer persecution" (2 Tim. 3:12, KJV). That doesn't necessarily mean martyrdom since persecution is a spectrum.

Jesus. While Jesus was God incarnate, God in the flesh, He "learned...obedience by the things which he suffered" (Heb. 5:8, KJV) so that His "sweat was as it were great drops of blood" (Luke 22:44, KJV) on His way to the Cross. And if that wasn't bad enough, we have added insult to injury of the last TWO THOUSAND YEARS by taking Him for granted.

No pleasure cruise

Rather than it being a pleasure cruise, following the Lord is like going on cruise as a Naval officer or like crossing the ocean in a small sea kayak since we have to “endure hardness, as a good soldier of Jesus Christ” (2 Tim. 2:3, KJV). So I summed up the difference between what the Lord has had me doing for the last two decades and what mainstream born again Christians are doing.

Essentially, having opted for the pleasure cruise, unwilling to submit to the lordship of Christ, the Lord's Girl, the body of Christ, has landed not only Herself but the world in Tierra del Fuego, Land of Fire, aka hell on earth. You'd have to be dead asleep to not see that today. If you can't I suggest you read Satan's Reign: A Timeline where the Lord has had me start from the beginning and take it to the end, providing lots of links to others who go deeper into certain points.

In contrast to what the body of Christ has done as a whole, having been convicted to honor Christ I've been on this very long and difficult journey following the Lord so that I'm ending up next to Him in Valparaiso which means Paradise Valley. It's like I'm ending up in the city in which I was born, Santiago, which means Saint James, who was the Lord's brother. I'm ending up where the Lord's brethren should have all ended up. And because He's given me this ministry combined with all the trials the world is facing and headed our way, "great tribulation" (Matt. 24:21, KJV), the born again who get real with God can close the knowledge and fellowship gap that's developed between them and the Lord and make their trek across that mountain range to hook up with Him escaping the full blown hell on earth that's going to be coming down.

So while we do get R&R and have some fun with Jesus, our Commander in Chief—as He's revealing through this ministry—it's also quite serious since we're AT WAR, and it's a brutal war "for we wrestle...against...spiritual wickedness in high places" (Eph. 6:12, KJV). We're at war with Satan and the fallen angels—not people. Therefore, God warned us to "be sober, be vigilant; because...the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour" (1 Pet. 5:8, KJV). Rather than fight one another as the body of Christ has historically done, we need to hunker down and work together "submit[ting] to one another out of reverence for Christ" (Eph. 5:21, NIV).

I consider it a challenge
Before the whole human race

Satan and the Lord. It's been a challenge for Satan and for the Lord before the whole human race since God wrote about it in His Book, the number one best seller of all time—and everyone is serving one or the other every day of our lives since there are really only two spiritual leaders, Jesus and Satan.

There are Really Only Two Spiritual Leaders

The Body of Christ. It's also been a challenge for the body of Christ before the whole world throughout history, especially for those in the 10/40 Window.

Me. It's been a challenge for me before the whole human race since God will be doing a work worldwide through His Spirit and this material will be out before all at some point. I know that by faith since I believe the Lord when He "answered me, and said, Write the vision, and make it plain upon tables, that he may run that readeth it. For the vision is yet for an appointed time, but at the end it shall speak, and not lie" (Hab. 2:2-3, KJV).

And I ain't gonna lose

While Satan and his servants the "vessels of wrath fitted to destruction" (Rom. 9:22, KJV) act like they've won, they've actually already lost since "the ruler of this world [Satan] hath [already] been judged" (John 16:11, YLT). We've also been informed that the power elite who now rule the world and abuse humanity in every possible way will find themselves in less than desirable circumstances when they experience the "second death" (Rev. 20:14, KJV) shocked that that's where they are and that their beloved Lucifer is there with them, as we're informed in the following passage:

The unseen beneath [Sheol/Hades], it is disturbed for you to meet you at your coming; It rouses the Rephaim for you, all the he-goats of the earth; It raises from their thrones all the kings of the nations [who abused mankind]. All of them...shall respond and say to you: You too have become ill like us; You have become comparable to us [the one they thought was so powerful] (Isa. 14:9-10, CLT).

The problem is that Satan's really determined to win. "The dragon was angry against the woman [God's assembly, His Church, the born again], and went away to make war with the rest of her seed, those keeping the commands of God, and having the testimony of Jesus Christ" (Rev. 12:17, KJV). But some of us are pretty competitive, like Jacob who grabbed hold of Him and said "I will not let thee go, except thou bless me" (Gen. 32:26, KJV). It's what God wants all of us to do, and what we each need to do.

And God has made it is easier for me, and all of His elect of these last days, by letting us know WE ARE THE CHAMPIONS OF THE WORLD! It's what He's told us throughout the Bible and Jesus said it straight out. "In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world" (John 16:33, KJV). Therefore "we are more than conquerors through him that loved us" (Rom. 8:37, KJV).

But it's only true for those who walk in it. To those who profess to be Christian but aren't actually born again, Jesus says "He that overcometh, the same shall be clothed in white raiment; and I will not blot out his name out of the book of life" (Rev. 3:5, KJV). And the born again who are in rebellion won't be protected as needed during the hardest trials coming on the earth, "great tribulation, such as was not since the beginning of the world to this time" (Matt. 24:21, KJV). He says "Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues" (Rev. 18:4 YLT). "Come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you" (2 Cor. 6:17, KJV). We have to come out of the world and also come out of a fake system of worship. But if you don't come out of the harlot/beast system, you will receive of "her plagues." He says to those who've "kept my command to endure patiently, I will also keep you from the hour of trial that is going to come on the whole world to test the inhabitants of the earth" (Rev. 3:10, NIV).

So as much as Satan thinks he ain't gonna lose, that's how much the faithful have already won because "It is finished" (John 19:30, KJV). It was finished 2000 years ago on the Cross. THANK YOU JESUS!

And Satan knows he's already lost. He just likes to lie and psych us out since "he is a liar, and father of it" (John 8:44, KJV). He knows he's lost this war. Scripture says "the devil...ha[s] great wrath, because he knoweth that he hath but a short time" (Rev. 12:12, KJV, my emphasis). So while he's had 6000 years to abuse humanity, compared to eternity that is "but a short time."

And while Satan will have the most power during the last three and a half years before the Lord's return since Scripture says "the saints of the Most High it doth wear out, and...they are given into its hand, till a time, and times, and a division of a time [3½ years]" (Dan. 7:25, YLT). And 3½ years is a really short time, especially when you compare it to how long Jesus, Satan's adversary, will reign, which is "for the eons of the eons! Amen!" (Rev. 11:15, CLT).

Again, I'm thinking all of the following comes to a climax during the last 3½ years of this "present evil age" (Gal. 1:4, YLT):

- The peak of the "latter rain" (Joel 2:23, KJV);
- "The full number of the Gentiles has come in" (Rom. 11:25, KJV) so that "the times of the Gentiles [is] fulfilled" (Luke 21:24, KJV), was fulfilled right before this time period;
- "All Israel shall be saved" (Rom. 11:26, KJV);
- The "time of Jacob's trouble" (Jer. 30:7, KJV);
- The great "tribulation" (Matt. 24:21, KJV); and,
- "The woman fle[es] into the wilderness" (Rev. 12:6, NIV), meaning, the body of Christ experiences a wilderness experience.

The rest of the song repeats itself beginning with the need to go on and on and on and on. It also repeatedly repeats the point about being champions and again repeats the point that we don't have time for losers. And we don't because as the Daniel, Hosea, and Berisheet prophecies reveal, we are almost out of time. All three of these prophecies point to 2030 as being the year the Lord returns. And even if 2030 is off, which it could be since we're not functioning as required—neither worshipping God “in spirit and in truth” (John 4:24, KJV) or as the body of Christ is supposed to function, it's obvious that we're very near the end of the age.

The Question of Time Setting: As far as setting a time for the Lord's return, Jesus said “of that day and hour knoweth no man” (Matt. 24:36, KJV), so we can't know the day or the hour. But the New Testament says “Ye, brethren, are not in darkness, that that day should overtake you as a thief” (1 Thess. 5:3-4, KJV). “Be careful, or your hearts will be weighed down with carousing, drunkenness and the anxieties of life, and that day will close on you suddenly like a trap” (Luke 21:34, NIV). It appears that while we can't know the day or hour of the Lord's return, followers of Christ can know the year. But since most Christians have historically been weighed down with the “anxieties of life” for not trusting in the Lord, the day of the Lord is coming upon the majority “like a trap.”

In Christ we, though many, form one body, and each member belongs to all the others.
Romans 12:5, NIV

So the need to keep fighting is stressed three times in the song. However, the point that we are the champions—speaking of those who press on—has been repeated 12 times! And this was what first came up when I Googled “Hebrew meaning of the number 12.”

The number 12 is a symbol of faith, the church and divine rule. The number 12 features prominently in the Bible. The Old Testament Book of Genesis states there were 12 sons of Jacob and those 12 sons formed the 12 tribes of Israel. The New Testament tells us that Jesus had 12 apostles.
