

WORD

A Revelation

For Such a Time

Welcome to
IOWA
Land of Delusions

notmocked.com
notmocked@gmail.com

All my work is dedicated to Jesus, and it goes out to His sheep.

You no longer try to understand.
Hebrews 5:11, NIV

Father,
convict Your children
so they again try to understand.

2021

Not for sale.

Jesus says "Freely ye have received, freely give." —Matthew 10:8, KJV

Pictures not created by me are used under the Fair Use law.

Idiots Out Wandering Around

When living in Indianapolis I heard said of people from Iowa that they're Idiots Out Wandering Around (IOWA), and the Lord showed me—as I followed Him around, that it's not just people from Iowa. It's humanity. "All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way" (Isa. 53:6, KJV). More specifically, He's referring to professing Christians. Even more specifically "the body of Christ" (1 Cor. 12:27, KJV), those who have His Spirit within. Because, what the Jews did in the Old Testament, Christians have done repeatedly ever since then—even while born again, as I've summed up in my apostasy graphic.

In the Old Testament, "The LORD appeared unto Abram, and said, Unto thy seed will I give this land" (Gen. 12:7, KJV)—the land of Canaan. He also said to him "Know of a surety that thy seed shall be a stranger in a land that is not theirs, and shall serve them; and they shall afflict them four hundred years" (Gen. 15:13, KJV). And as I walk through in Satan Exposed: Rightly Dividing the Word, I discern this was a combination of Lord Satan and Lord Jesus talking. Since Satan is the "god of this world" (2 Cor. 4:4, KJV), he's the one who was ruling before Jesus came on the scene. In fact, he's still the one ruling everyone who doesn't submit to Jesus as He says "He that is not with me is against me; and he that gathereth not with me scattereth abroad" (Matt. 12:30, KJV). What God has done is taken Satan's garbage and "worke[d] all things after the counsel of his own will" (Eph. 1:11, KJV). The important point here is that when the time came, Moses was used to deliver the people who'd been enslaved by the Egyptians. And because they lacked faith, the one leading them "led them not through the...[shortcut]; for God said, Lest...when they see war...they return to Egypt: [So] God led the people about, through the way of the wilderness" (Ex. 13:17-18, KJV).

Again, whether that was actually the "god of this world" (2 Cor. 4:4, KJV) or God, the Lord Jesus, is beside the point. And I discern it was a combination of the two. Since Satan is the "ruler" (John 12:31, YLT) and "god of this world" (2 Cor. 4:4, KJV) and he was using the Hebrews to establish his power over humanity and make a name for himself, I discern he was the one leading this expedition. But since "by [Jesus] were all things created, that are in heaven, and that are in earth, visible and invisible, whether they be thrones, or dominions, or principalities, or powers" (Col. 1:16, KJV), I discern He was interceding as needed because He "worketh all things after the counsel of his own will" (Eph. 1:11, KJV). Basically, He let Satan do his thing knowing how He was going to coordinate it for His ultimate purposes.

His Story Repeats Itself

We're told that the trip from Goshen to the Promised Land, the heart of which is Jerusalem, takes only days on foot since "there are eleven days' journey from Horeb by the way of mount Seir unto Kadeshbarnea" (Deut. 1:2, KJV), points you can find on my map. Yet lacking faith in the One they thought was God, the people continually angered Lord Satan while on the journey so that He "made them wander in the wilderness forty years, until all the generation, that had done evil in the sight of the LORD [Satan], was consumed" (Num. 32:13, KJV). "Satan...masquerad[ing] as an angel of light" (2 Cor. 11:15, KJV) made the people go the long way because of their lack of faith in the One they thought was God. And Lord Satan kept them in the wilderness—like idiots out wandering around in circles—due to their continual rebellion. He said:

Not one of those who saw my glory and the signs I performed in Egypt and in the wilderness but who disobeyed me and tested me ten times—not one of them will ever see the land I promised on oath to their ancestors...Not one of you will enter the land I swore with uplifted hand to make your home, except Caleb son of Jephunneh and Joshua son of Nun (Num. 14:22-30, NIV).

Again, we have a combination of Lord Satan and Lord Jesus at work. Satan can perform "signs and lying wonders" (2 Thess. 2:9, KJV) and he's "a liar and father of it" (John 8:44, KJV). And I discern it was God who made the promises. It's like Satan hijacked the truth and used it for his purposes and carried things out in his manner. And his manner is as Jesus says "thief cometh not, but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy" (John 10:10, KJV). But Jesus is greater than Satan so He's the One with the ultimate victory who "c[a]me that they [all of humanity] might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly" (John 10:10, KJV).

Referred to as Idiots by Jesus (since He's the One who showed me the connection and repeatedly confirmed it with modern day Idiots), the Israelites finally came into the Promised Land by way of the Jordan River led there by Joshua (Josh. 3). But only two from the original group of idiotic men, an estimated 600,000 Lord Satan had wanted to take into the land, were actually allowed to go into the land! Just two! Because Satan is on a serious power trip and "the devil...lusts [after] murder" (John 8:44, KJV). It's what he loves to do.

In any case, by walking me through the Old Testament version of Idiots also having walked me through the modern day version of Idiots (also known as born again and professing Christians), which He's done through several decades and then very specifically during a season in 2012, God is making the point that if you don't take Him seriously, you will NOT get into the Promised Land, His Kingdom! Therefore, may you be given a heart that fears the Lord so that you'll have eyes that see. Scripture says "the fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom" (Prov. 9:10, KJV). The fear He's talking about is respect. We need to respect God because He's the One who allows Satan to do the things he does, like a cop with his police dog. And the New Testament clearly says "hand this man over to Satan for the destruction of the flesh, so that his spirit may be saved on the day of the Lord" (1 Cor. 5:5, NIV).

And while there's speculation that more may have been allowed to enter the Promised Land, the point remains the same either way, MOST who could have entered the land were not allowed to enter because they weren't obedient. Satan has been killing people off throughout history because they haven't obeyed him. And "God did so love the world, that His Son—the only begotten—He gave, that every one who is believing in him may not perish, but may have life age-during" (John 3:16, YLT). He means life during the coming ages summed up in this graphic. He also call for obedience. He says, for instance, "Whoever has my commands and keeps them is the one who loves me. The one who loves me will be loved by my

Ages of the Ages

To the King of the ages, the incorruptible, invisible, only wise God,
[in] honour and glory—to the ages of the ages! Amen.
1 Timothy 1:17, YLT

Before the Ages We declare God's wisdom, a mystery that has been hidden and that God destined for our glory before time began. 1 Corinthians 2:7, NIV	<table style="width: 100%; border-collapse: collapse;"> <tr> <td style="width: 50%; vertical-align: top; padding: 5px;"> Present Evil Age Who did give himself for our sins, that he might deliver us out of the present evil age, according to the will of God even our Father, Galatians 1:4, YLT </td> <td style="width: 50%; vertical-align: top; padding: 5px;"> Age of Christ They lived and reigned with Christ a thousand years. Revelation 20:4, KJV </td> </tr> </table>	Present Evil Age Who did give himself for our sins, that he might deliver us out of the present evil age, according to the will of God even our Father, Galatians 1:4, YLT	Age of Christ They lived and reigned with Christ a thousand years. Revelation 20:4, KJV	Age of Judgment All those in the tombs shall hear his voice, and they shall come forth; those who did the good things to a rising again of life, and those who practised the evil things to a rising again of judgment. John 5:28-29, YLT
Present Evil Age Who did give himself for our sins, that he might deliver us out of the present evil age, according to the will of God even our Father, Galatians 1:4, YLT	Age of Christ They lived and reigned with Christ a thousand years. Revelation 20:4, KJV
End of the Ages Then cometh the end, when he shall have delivered up the kingdom to God, even the Father; when he shall have put down all rule and all authority and power. 1 Corinthians 15:24, KJV

Father, and I too will love them and show myself to them” (John 14:21, NIV). His commands are to love. He says the following, for example:

Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind and with all your strength.’ The second is this: ‘Love your neighbor as yourself.’ There is no commandment greater than these (Mark 12:30-31, NIV).

Bear ye one another's burdens, and so fulfil the law of Christ (Gal. 6:2, KJV).

And yet, as Christian history reveals, and as my testimony reveals, the born again haven’t been very faithful to the Lord at all. Like our born again ancestors, the born again today have been major Idiots because the New Testament says “Submit yourselves, then, to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you” (James 4:7, KJV). That’s all we had to do to get Satan out of the picture. Instead, we’re coming upon “great tribulation, such as was not since the beginning of the world to this time” (Matt. 24:21, KJV). Those trials are coming from Satan allowed by God because we, the body of Christ, didn’t take Him seriously.

In fact, in other accounts which took place earlier we see the same thing happen. During Noah’s day and his faithless generation of Idiots, only eight were allowed to enter the ark (Gen. 7:13 below). And during Abraham’s time, only three escaped God’s destruction of Sodom and Gomorrah since Lot’s wife disobeyed instructions and “looked back [so that] she became a pillar of salt” (Gen. 19:26, KJV).

Genesis 7:13, KJV In the selfsame day entered Noah, and Shem, and Ham, and Japheth, the sons of Noah, and Noah's wife, and the three wives of his sons with them, into the ark.

Lord Jesus allowed Lord Satan to abuse humanity before He came to earth to reveal the damage he’s capable of doing. It was a warning. And He said, “If you do not stand firm in your faith, you will not stand at all” (Isa. 7:9, NIV, my emphasis). And because He’s merciful He’s used my life testimony as tied to Eagle Church, shared in the book and video Welcome! A Testimony and Word for God’s Church to reveal that it’s just as He warned.

In fact, The Pilgrim Church by E. H. Broadbent (a free PDF you may find online reveals the very small remnant of the Middle Ages (before the so-called Reformation) that went against the grain standing apart from the world and from the unbiblical church. Yet the unbiblical Christians on my path have thought I’m the one out to lunch because God would NEVER do such a thing as only set a few apart for His purposes, when it’s what’s He’s always done! Jesus clearly said “Narrow is the way, which leadeth unto life, and few there be that find it” (Matt. 7:14, KJV).

And that’s the whole problem with trying to communicate with Idiots, they’re idiots! It’s the reason Jesus lamented, exasperated, “O faithless generation, how long shall I be with you? how long shall I suffer you?” (Mark 9:19, KJV). It’s also why Paul was exasperated with them. Being sarcastic, he said “How were you inferior to the other churches, except that I was never a burden to you? Forgive me this wrong!” (2 Cor. 12:13, NIV). It was their responsibility to provide for him since “the workman is worthy of his meat” (Matt. 10:10, KJV). While God’s assemblies (commonly called churches) aren’t responsible for supplying their spiritual teachers a salary, because that would make them “hireling[s]” (John 10:13, KJV), they are responsible for helping those who help them.

Pagan’s Had More Discernment

Because of God’s actions in the Old Testament pagans feared God so that Rahab, the prostitute, said the following:

I know that the LORD hath given you the land, and that your terror is fallen upon us, and that all the inhabitants of the land faint because of you. For we have heard how the LORD dried up the water of the Red sea for you, when ye came out of Egypt; and what ye did unto the two kings of the Amorites, that were on the other side Jordan, Sihon and Og, whom ye utterly destroyed. And as soon as we had heard these things, our hearts did melt, neither did there remain any more courage in any man, because of you: for the LORD your God, he is God in heaven above, and in earth beneath (Josh. 2:9-11, KJV).

Like all the rest of the Old Testament characters, Rahab confused Lord Satan for Lord God. But she had the sense to see that he was powerful and to be feared. And the reason for the confusion is because without God’s Spirit inside of you, which no one had before “Pentecost...[and] All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit” (Acts 2:1 & 4, NIV), you don’t have spiritual discernment, you can’t fully understand as we’re clearly informed in the following passage:

The person without the Spirit does not accept the things that come from the Spirit of God but considers them foolishness, and cannot understand them because they are discerned only through the Spirit (1 Cor. 2:14, NIV).

Even if you’re born again you’ll get confused—lack discernment—unless you “take captive every thought to make it obedient to Christ” (2 Cor. 10:5, NIV).

Having been set apart from the people around them, given decent rules of governance along with (mostly) faithful leadership who had direct contact with the One they thought was God since “the LORD spake unto Moses face to face, as a man speaketh unto his friend” (Ex. 33:11, KJV)—which I discern was at times Lord Jesus and at times Lord Satan—you would think the Israelites would have become a model society. But instead, they were severely corrupt! And because of what’s happened over the past 2000 years since Pentecost, we can know without a doubt that even if Lord Satan had not been in the picture, it would have worked out the same way. They still would have become severely corrupt. That’s exactly how Christianity is today, severely corrupt.

And it’s what happened after Joshua died, which is what took place while Moses lived, “They forsook the LORD God of their fathers, which brought them out of the land of Egypt, and followed other gods...provok[ing] the LORD to anger” (Judges 2:12, KJV). They forsook both Lord Jesus and Lord Satan. The other gods they followed were the other fallen angels since before the present evil age, or at the very beginning of it, Satan the “dragon...swept a third of the stars out of the sky and flung them to the earth” (Rev. 12:3-4, NIV). Those stars were angels, rebellious angels since Scripture says “stars are the angels” (Rev. 1:20, NIV). One third of the angels rebelled with Satan against God. And since they’re all power hungry, the reason they rebelled, they were the ones tempting the people against Lord Satan so that they provoked him to anger. Jesus was surely grieved, but I don’t think He’d get angry at them knowing they didn’t have the required discernment to even know what they were doing. And on the Cross, while in excruciating pain, He prayed “Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do” (Luke 23:34, KJV).

As time moved forward, even though God continually raised up people to help them—judges and prophets—for all of God’s favor, help, and direction, they were still just like the people around them—people who didn’t know God. And that’s how it is today! Except they actually had an excuse since Jesus hadn’t yet “redeemed us from the curse of the law by becoming a curse for us” (Gal. 3:13, NIV).

Having forsaken God and the one they thought was God, their “wicked hearts” (Jer. 17:9, KJV) did whatever they choose to do—in a word, sin. We’re told the following, for example:

The LORD raised up judges, which delivered them out of the hand of those that spoiled them...the LORD was with the judge, and delivered them out of the hand of their enemies all the days of the judge: for it repented the LORD because of their groanings by reason of them that oppressed them and vexed them. And it came to pass, when the judge was dead, that they returned, and corrupted themselves more than their fathers, in following other gods to serve them, and to bow down unto them; they ceased not from their own doings, nor from their stubborn way (Judges 2:16-19, KJV).

And the body of Christ is much worse today, focusing on the United States, because unlike the Israelites, we’ve been given all of the following:

- The completed revelation of God, the Bible;
- Cheap and easy access to it since you can get a Bible for a dollar or two, even free, or download it on your phone;
- The Spirit of God (in the born again), or access to Him “the Holy Spirit, whom God has given to those who obey him” (Acts 5:32, NIV), at least for a season initially;
- Zero persecution, the kind that draws blood, like they get in the 10/40 Window so that American Christians “have not yet resisted unto blood, striving against sin” (Heb. 12:4, KJV);

- The technology to communicate rapidly, effectively, and for fairly cheap;
- Relative security; and,
- Wealth.

Yet American Christians still want to be just like those around them, people who reject Jesus! That should be crystal clear with my testimony as summed up in the Welcome! video. The body of Christ today has been SUPER proud and ungrateful so that God says to the church of the U.S.—modern days’ most idiotic set of IOWA:

My wellbeloved hath a vineyard in a very fruitful hill: And he fenced it, and gathered out the stones thereof, and planted it with the choicest vine, and built a tower in the midst of it, and also made a winepress therein: and he looked that it should bring forth grapes, and it brought forth wild grapes. And now, O inhabitants of [the United States], and men of [church leadership], judge, I pray you, betwixt me and my vineyard. What could have been done more to my vineyard, that I have not done in it? wherefore, when I looked that it should bring forth grapes, brought it forth wild grapes? And now go to; I will tell you what I will do to my vineyard: I will take away the hedge thereof, and it shall be eaten up; and break down the wall thereof, and it shall be trodden down: And I will lay it waste (Isa. 5:1-6, KJV).

We’ve been seeing that happening, especially over the past two decades and picking up speed this past year with the Covid lockdowns.

The lost reject those God sends to help them (Christians), preferring to be their own God for not realizing their “heart is...desperately wicked” (Jer. 17:9, KJV). And Christians reject Jesus’ lordship over them “call[ing Him] Lord...[yet] not [doing] the things which [He] say[s]” (Luke 6:46, KJV), also rejecting those God sends to help them, other Christians, many arguing that God doesn’t even have prophets today when Jesus clearly said “I send unto you prophets” (Matt. 23:34, KJV). Christians primarily opt either for their own lordship or for that of supposedly godly men they call pastors, ignoring the fact that these men also have wicked hearts since “there is none righteous, no, not one” (Rom. 3:10). They also ignore the fact that those church leaders are not the Good Shepherd but hirelings who don’t even care for the sheep, as Jesus clearly warned us (John 10:11-13 in the graphic).

And the real stupidity of it all is that God has wanted to bless our socks off having informed us that He came to give us “life superabundantly” (John 10:10, CLT) and revealed it through the first batch of Christians as we read in the book of Acts. But Christians haven’t let Him even though they’re supposedly longing for Him to come back.

Therefore, God says the following:

Turn ye even to me with all your heart, and with fasting, and with weeping, and with mourning: And rend your heart, and not your garments, and turn unto the LORD your God: for he is gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and repenteth him of the evil [the judgments He’s clearly allowing Satan to pour out all over the world]...Blow the trumpet in Zion, sanctify a fast, call a solemn assembly: Gather the people, sanctify the congregation, assemble the elders, gather the children, and those that suck the breasts: let the bridegroom go forth of his chamber, and the bride out of her closet. Let the priests, the ministers of the LORD, weep...and let them say, Spare thy people, O LORD (Joel 2:12-17, KJV).

The First Christians were Highly Empowered by God because they Obeyed Him as Individuals and as a Group

- They spoke in languages they hadn’t studied (Acts 2:4-6);
- They healed the sick (Acts 3:2-7);
- They raised the dead (Acts 9:37-41);
- They drove out demons (Acts 16:16-18);
- They witnessed boldly (Acts 4:4);
- They prayed for their attackers as they killed them (Acts 7:58-60);
- They enlightened thousands at a time (Acts 7:58-60);
- Their shadows provided healing (Acts 5:14-16);
- Unbelievers admired them (Acts 2:47);
- They beamed around like in Star Trek (Acts 8:39-40);
- They were full of wisdom (Acts 6:3);
- They were full of generosity (Acts 4:34-35); and,
- They were full of joy (Acts 2:46).

The only difference is that under the new covenant—Joel was under the old covenant law which Jesus delivered us from—“priests” and “ministers” are the saints, the born again. We are “a holy priesthood [therefore we should be] offering spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ” (1 Pet. 2:5, NIV). And sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus meant to “offer your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and pleasing to God—this is your true and proper worship” (Rom. 12:1, NIV). And since today’s body of Christ doesn’t even believe you can live for the Lord as required, He’s had me model it as shared throughout my material and especially with my testimony booklets found on my website www.notmocked.com.

A Dry and Weary Land

In contrast to what we should be doing, most of today’s so-called Christians are just like the Jews wailing at that wall blind to the fact that their Messiah already came. So while the majority of Jews and Christians supposedly wait for their Messiah to come or come back, they’ve both gone and made up their own doctrines—as IOWA have always done—leaving the world with nothing but “a dry and parched land where there is no water” (Ps. 63:1, NIV).

Therefore, in order to water the land—referring to the “latter rain” (Joel 2:21, KJV), the first rain being Pentecost—God has been exposing Christianity because He has a work to do in the world through His people. In fact, God has allowed His Church, the body of Christ, to get as far off Target as She has in order to teach everyone a lesson, one He naturally already taught us. Because a great example of Christianity’s MO, especially in the U.S., is a mirror image of what took place with a set of IOWA from the Old Testament. What follows sums it up.

IOWA want to be just like the people around them.

[The people] said unto [Samuel the prophet], Behold, thou art old, and thy sons walk not in thy ways: now make us a king to judge us like all the [other] nations (1 Sam. 8:5, KJV).

That’s what Christians have done by placing “hireling[s who] careth not for the sheep” (John 10:13, KJV) over themselves. All paid professional leaders are hirelings. If they genuinely cared about the Good Shepherd, Jesus, they would have “do[ne thei]r best to present [themselves] to God as [people]...who...correctly handles the word of truth” (2 Tim. 2:15, NIV). At the very least they would have gotten enlightened about the lie of institutional Christianity and come out of that system since it's actually headed by Satan as summed up with these graphics.

Catholic Church

The World

Protestant Church

The institutional church doesn't just function like a business, it mirrors the satanic New World Order!

IOWA don't just reject God's prophets, they reject God.

The LORD said unto Samuel, Hearken unto the voice of the people in all that they say unto thee: for they have not rejected thee, but they have rejected me, that I should not reign over them (1 Sam. 8:7, KJV).

Again, Christians have rejected the Lord by not letting Him actually lord over them, though they call Him their "Lord" (Luke 6:46, KJV). They're hypocrites.

Since IOWA reject God, He gives them what they want, Idiots for leaders.

[Samuel warned them saying] ye shall cry out in that day because of your king which ye shall have chosen you; and the LORD will not hear you in that day. Nevertheless the people refused to obey the voice of Samuel; and they said, Nay; but we will have a king over us; That we also may be like all the nations; and that our king may judge us, and go out before us, and fight our battles...And the LORD said to Samuel, Hearken unto their voice, and make them a king (1 Sam. 8:18-22, KJV).

And God gave them Saul a man who "hid himself" (1 Sam. 10:22, KJV)—a coward as well as an idiot.

And we clearly have idiots for leaders today, not only in this nation (and world) but in the so-called churches since they honor Satan with their occult hand signs. What could be more idiotic than that?!

IOWA are mesmerized by looks instead of by what matters.

They ran and fetched him thence: and when he stood among the people, he was higher than any of the people from his shoulders and upward...And all the people shouted, and said, God save the king (1 Sam. 10:23-24, KJV).

Man looketh on the outward appearance, but the LORD looketh on the heart (1 Sam. 16:7, KJV).

And it's obvious that today's Christians focus on the outward appearance as so-called church leaders are constantly building bigger and better buildings for themselves, all suffering from steeple envy. And "regular" Christians focus on their careers, houses, cars, and attire—trying to keep up with the Jones' just like the lost do.

The Idiot IOWA follow is his own god rather than being an obedient servant of God.

Thus saith the LORD of hosts...go and smite Amalek, and utterly destroy all that they have...And Saul smote the Amalekites from Havilah until thou comest to Shur...But Saul and the people spared Agag, and the best of the sheep, and of the oxen, and of the fatlings, and the lambs, and all that was good, and would not utterly destroy them (1 Sam. 15:2-9, KJV).

Today's Christians are no different as they only follow the Lord as long as it's not inconvenient—that's been my experience over several decades. And yet, inconvenience is the MARK of a true disciple since Jesus says "Those of you who do not give up everything you have cannot be my disciples" (Luke 14:33, NIV). In fact, today's Christians rebuke you for obeying the Lord! Again, that's my testimony. And not just mine.

The Idiot IOWA follow is a liar (lying to himself, to others, and about others), thinking God is the idiot.

Having been commanded to "utterly destroy the...Amalekites" (1 Sam. 15:18, KJV), Saul didn't but still told Samuel "Yea, I have obeyed the voice of the LORD...and have utterly destroyed the Amalekites [even though he didn't kill the king and then blames others saying]...the people took of the spoil (1 Sam. 15:20-21, KJV, my emphasis).

Again, this has been my experience as the Lord has had me hold Christians, especially among leadership, accountable. They lie like crazy! And then accuse you of being unrighteous, when they are blatantly unrighteous. They're outrageous hypocrites just like the Pharisees of Jesus' day. The Lord says "When you did these things and I kept silent, you thought I was exactly like you. But I now arraign you and set my accusations before you" (Ps. 50:21, NIV). That's what He's clearly doing through this ministry.

The Idiot IOWA follow is rejected by God.

[Samuel, God's prophet, said] rebellion is as the sin of witchcraft, and stubbornness is as iniquity and idolatry. Because thou hast rejected the word of the LORD, he hath also rejected thee (1 Sam. 15:23, KJV).

Jesus says "He that overcometh...I will not blot out his name out of the book of life" (Rev. 3:5, KJV). In other words, if you don't honor Jesus with your life, He will blot out your name from His sacred book. It doesn't matter if you call yourself a Christian, He will reject you. He's made that very clear in the following passage:

Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven. Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works? And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity (Matt. 7:21-23, KJV).

However, as long as you're alive you can repent because we are now under a covenant of grace so that He says the following:

Submit yourselves, then, to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you. Come near to God and he will come near to you. Wash your hands, you sinners, and purify your hearts, you double-minded. Grieve, mourn and wail. Change your laughter to mourning and your joy to gloom. Humble yourselves before the Lord, and he will lift you up (James 4:7-10, NIV).

The Idiot IOWA follow makes life difficult for God's prophet by transferring responsibility.

Samuel hewed Agag in pieces before the LORD in Gilgal (1 Sam. 15:33, KJV) [doing the job God had given Saul to do].

Likewise, all Christians have been given “good works, which God hath before ordained that we should walk in them” (Eph. 2:10, KJV). So if you're not doing YOUR good works, it falls on someone else. While I get looked down on for everything, including the fact that I “don't work” for a living, I work 10 to 12 hours a day, seven days a weeks on average, unpaid, and against the grain in order to honor Jesus and help His people. And the idiotic Christians who are thinking I'm wrong for not “honoring the Sabbath” forget that Jesus says “My Father is always at his work to this very day, and I too am working” (John 5:17, NIV). There is TONS of work to do in these last of the last days! The Sabbath during this part of the “present evil age” (Gal. 1:4, YLT) is Jesus. He is our Sabbath rest. Scripture says “there remaineth therefore a rest to the people of God. For he that is entered into his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works, as God did from his” (Heb. 4:9-10, KJV). Those who are born again will enter the millennial reign, the day of rest, summed up in the graphic.

The Idiot IOWA follow grieves God.

The LORD repented that he had made Saul king over Israel (1 Sam. 15:35, KJV).

Likewise, it's clear that Christians are grieving God when He says “Grieve not the holy Spirit of God, whereby ye are sealed unto the day of redemption” (Eph. 4:30, KJV). He's speaking of born again Christians, those who actually have “the Holy Spirit, whom God has given to those who obey him” (Acts 5:32, NIV).

he Idiot IOWA follow puts everyone at risk.

The Philistine said, I defy the armies of Israel this day; give me a man, that we may fight together. When Saul and all Israel heard those words of the Philistine, they were dismayed, and greatly afraid (1 Sam. 17:10-11, KJV).

Everyone is at risk today because of Christian hypocrisy, apostasy, since members of the body of Christ were enlightened to be “the light of the world” (Matt. 5:14, KJV). Instead, as a group, we have hidden “the light” (John 8:12, KJV) with all the lies we’ve believed from Satan for not being faithful and “bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ” (2 Cor. 10:5, KJV)—summed up with the graphic.

God always has a backup plan in the works before things completely fall apart for IOWA.

Samuel said to Saul, Thou hast done foolishly: thou hast not kept the commandment of the LORD thy God, which he commanded thee: for now would the LORD have established thy kingdom upon Israel for ever. But now thy kingdom shall not continue: the LORD hath sought him a man after his own heart, and the LORD hath commanded him to be captain over his people, because thou hast not kept that which the LORD commanded thee (1 Sam. 13:13-14, KJV).

And since God “chose us [the born again] in him before the creation of the world to be holy and blameless in his sight” (Eph. 1:4, NIV), He has revealed through my personal testimony how that’s true in my case, that He’s chosen a woman after his own heart. He’s made it SUPER obvious. But since Christians are blinded by tons of beams in their eyes for being such outrageous “hypocrite[s]” (Matt. 7:5, KJV), summed up with the graphic, they haven’t been able to see the obvious.

God replaces unfaithful Idiot leaders of IOWA with others who’ll be more faithful.

The LORD said unto Samuel, How long wilt thou mourn for Saul, seeing I have rejected him from reigning over Israel? fill thine horn with oil, and go, I will send thee to Jesse the Bethlehemite: for I have provided me a king among his sons (1 Sam. 16:1, KJV).

God has certain people in mind who He’ll be anointing to step up to the plate, in His “appointed time” (Hab. 2:3, KJV), I discern someone who will begin this “run” with the “vision” He’s given me (Hab. 2:2-3, KJV). But “if ye [IOWA] shall still do wickedly, ye shall be consumed, both ye and your [leaders]” (1 Sam. 12:25, KJV).

The Kamikaze Dive

At the left end of the spectrum of hypocritical Christians, you also have the lost elect and non-elect who completely reject God's Word which says "this is the record, that God hath given" (1 John 5:11, KJV). So that Jesus says "If ye believe not that I am [God], ye shall die in your sins" (John 8:24, KJV). So while the non elect "vessels of wrath fitted to destruction" (Rom. 9:22, KJV) have "heard from the Father [they don't have the ability to]...learn [from Him so as to] "come...to [Jesus]" (John 6:45, YLT). But the lost elect do. Yet instead of seriously considering His testimony provided in the Bible, the majority accuse Christians who have been trying to help them (those that have been), of being hateful and intolerant while they won't tolerate the Bible—even though they're supposedly tolerant. They hold a huge double-standard! Intolerant of God, the lost have worked very hard in this country, especially over the past 50 years, to legalize hateful laws repulsive to God.

For example, in 1963 their efforts led to school prayer getting banned. Yet we've been commanded to "pray without ceasing" (1 Thess. 5:17, KJV). So while no one can stop anyone from praying, denying this nation's children prayer in the schools is hateful because it clearly tells young minds that God isn't worthy of our attention when Jesus is the most important person they can know.

Then in 1969, steadfast with their biblical intolerance, Satan was able to publish the satanic Bible written by Anton LaVey, in the United States. So while many see Christians as being hateful and intolerant, in their zeal to be "tolerant" they've pushed us, the U.S., to tolerate Satan, a sociopathic "liar" and mass "murderer" (John 8:44, KJV)—helped by hypocritical Christian Idiots who haven't stood on the faith they profess to have.

Then, in 1973, the U.S. legalized abortion so that those with zero capacity to speak for and defend themselves are now being murdered to the grand 'reported' sum of somewhere between an estimated 700,000 to 900,000 a year, according to the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) and the Guttmacher Institute, respectably. God knows how high that number actually is today! Abortion is hateful because God has created each baby that has been murdered since He "formed [us] in the belly" (Jer. 1:5, KJV). Abortion keeps in line with the murderous Satan who lies by calling it abortion rather than murder and who unbelievers keep pushing everyone to tolerate.

Then during the same year, 1973, the fight for same sex marriages also officially began, so that all 50 states now have the legal right. This is hateful because same sex marriages promote twisted images of love among people hurting those people most of all—as former homosexuals testify Leaving the GAY Lifestyle, Former Homosexuals Speak Out - YouTube.

And God says:

Since the creation of the world God's invisible qualities—his eternal power and divine nature—have been clearly seen, being understood from what has been made, so that people are without excuse. For although they knew God, they neither glorified him as God nor gave thanks to him...Because of this, God gave them over to shameful lusts. Even their women exchanged natural sexual relations for unnatural ones. In the same way the men also abandoned natural relations with women and were inflamed with lust for one another. Men committed shameful acts with other men, and received in themselves the due penalty for their error (Rom. 1:20-27, NIV).

There are plenty of testimonies online of former homosexuals who've been delivered by the Lord. The whole thing is just another one of Satan's lies to hurt people and make them dishonor Jesus. What society has done in pushing homosexuality and the LGBT agenda is like telling me not to look down on my relative's alcohol abuse because he's genetically programmed to sin with alcohol, or like suggesting I OK the pedophile since he's "genetically programmed" that way. They just can't help it. That's what Satan would have you believe, as so many do. However, that is only partly true: non-elect can't help it, but the elect can through Christ.

So I summed up my understanding of election in the following graphic and on the book Election: One of the Biggest Blinders.

Unlike the non-elect, elect have been enabled by God through Christ to make the choice, every hour of every day, to not sin. That's God's purpose for the elect, that we would be that committed to the truth, to Him who is "the truth" (John 14:6, KJV)—grateful for what He's done for us—and not let the pack mentality rule over us. By sacrificing His life for us, God has empowered us to live righteously. He says "You will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes on you" (Acts 1:8, NIV), "the Holy Spirit, whom God has given to those who obey him" (Acts 5:32, NIV). God has already done His part, on the Cross. Now it's up to us to do ours. He says "Come to me" (Matt. 11:28, KJV), and "Work out your own salvation with fear and trembling" (Phil. 2:12, KJV).

Instead, most professing Christians have wasted their lives away living for this world and risked having their name erased from the book of life. God says "He that overcometh...I will not blot out his name out of the book of life" (Rev. 13:5, KJV). Most who think they're born again today, aren't. That's obvious by how they live their lives.

And the thing is, according to the national health statistics only 1.6% of American adults surveyed claim to be homosexual! You'd think it was 80% of the population with all the propaganda pushing "gay" life on us. (National Health Statistics Report \(Number 77 - July 15, 2014\)—Sexual Orientation and Health Among U.S. Adults: National Health Interview Survey \(cdc.gov\))

And because those who profess to love God want to be just like those who don't—since that's what immaturity is all about, being just like everyone else—in 2003 the first professing Christian so-called bishop came "out of the closet." Yet the Bible this man professed to believe says "A bishop then must be blameless, the husband of one wife [a biologically born female]" (1 Tim. 3:2, KJV). But he and his followers couldn't see that "because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved [so that] for this cause God...sent [t] them [a] strong delusion, that they should believe a lie" (2 Thess. 2:10-11, KJV)—the lie being that they're actually right with God when they're not.

Then in 2012 we elected the first openly homosexual Senator, liberals patting themselves on the back for being so progressive. Except having leaders who openly or hypocritically reject God's Word sets us all up for God's wrath. Look around. We've got exactly what Idiots wanted.

But is it really what you want?

Like Paul "I [know] that through ignorance ye did it" (Acts 3:17, KJV). And professing Christians are more at fault than the rest because "that servant, which knew his lord's will, and prepared not himself, neither did according to his will, shall be beaten with many stripes. But he that knew not, and did commit things worthy of stripes, shall be beaten with few stripes" (Luke 12:47-48, KJV).

And elect institutional church leaders are more at fault because "masters...shall receive the greater condemnation" (James 3:1, KJV).

And born again institutional church leaders with the biggest platforms are the ones most at fault, "for the leaders of this people cause them to err; and they that are led of them are destroyed" (Isa. 9:16, KJV).

So while Christians obey God only in part—a very small part at that—what the lost see isn't love but hatred because that's how hypocrisy always presents itself, and the reason Jesus is so against it. Spiritual hypocrites hold the biggest double standard there is so that Jesus continues to say to those who profess to know Him "Woe unto you...hypocrites! for ye are as graves [those pits for dead people]" (Luke 11:44, NIV). "Be not, as the hypocrites" (Matt. 6:16, KJV), because "except your righteousness shall exceed the righteousness of [the hypocrites]" (Matt. 5:20, KJV) and "receive the kingdom of God as a little child, [you] shall not enter therein" (Mark 10:15, KJV).

If you want to be blessed for the rest of the ages and used as an instrument for good while on this Tour of Duty we call life, so that you "obtain a better resurrection" (Heb. 11:35, KJV), a better life for the coming ages, and not have God's wrath unleashed on you, you need to be like the child who loves and honors his loving Father.

The Way to Destruction or Life

Jesus says “Enter ye in at the strait gate: for wide is the gate, and broad is the way, that leadeth to destruction, and many there be which go in thereat: Because strait is the gate, and narrow is the way, which leadeth unto life, and few there be that find it” (Matt. 7:13-14, KJV). So as I followed Him in 2009 He had me create a graphic giving me a clearer picture of how the narrow and broad way work. For example, everyone is born in one of two places, either into a family that’s clueless about Jesus or has only heard of Him or to one that knows Him or only professes to know Him. Therefore, I called the place the totally clueless group ‘walks’ on the Dirt Road and the place where the supposedly ‘enlightened’ ones walk on the Paved Road.

So while I’d made a graphic to go with my understanding in 2009, the Lord then walked me through more stuff over the years so that I’ve updated my graphic representing the way to destruction and life more clearly for the elect—which I’m walking through in this chapter. I’m not focusing on the non-elect vessels of wrath fitted to destruction (Rom. 9:22, KJV) since they don’t even have the ability to come to Christ during this “present evil age” (Gal. 1:4, YLT). Technically they’re scattered all over the Dirt and Paved part of the road, and mostly on the Paved Road deceiving the masses. In the next chapter I walk you through how the Lord paralleled it with reality in order to speak to the born again of this nation, the assembly, the church, of the United States.

And all who are not in submission to Jesus are walking south, headed towards destruction and, ultimately, the “second death” (Rev. 20:6, KJV) where there will be “weeping and gnashing of teeth” (Matt. 8:12, KJV). Jesus says “He that is not with me is against me; and he that gathereth not with me scattereth abroad” (Matt. 12:30, KJV). And since Christianity is divided by tens of thousands of unbiblical denominations when we’re supposed to “be of one mind” (2 Cor. 13:11, KJV) having “no division[s]” (1 Cor. 12:25, NIV), Christianity as a whole has clearly been heading the wrong way, historically. Christians have been apostate. We’ve fulfilled the “falling away” period of 2 Thessalonians 2:3 which God said would take place before His return.

In contrast to what the majority of Christians have historically done, followers of Christ are headed north, to heaven, so that one day we’ll go airborne as we’re informed in the following passages:

The Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first: Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord (1 Thess. 4:16-17, KJV).

In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed (1 Cor. 15:52, KJV).

And because time is moving/passing, you can have actually set up camp while moving south—heading in the wrong direction. In fact, when comparing the New Testament to what Christians have historically done and are currently doing, it's evident that the majority of professing Christians (most of whom aren't actually born again) have set up camp on the Paved Road. They profess to know Christ but if they actually knew Him they'd be following Him and, therefore, moving along to the next part of the road.

However, because God has a plan He's fulfilling, having worked humanity's sins into His plan since He "worketh all things after the counsel of his own will" (Eph. 1:11, KJV), many born again will be moving onto the Road of Sound Doctrine and getting us—a generation of us—onto those planes.

So having had me make this Narrow Way graphic in 2009, the Lord then tied some things to it in 2012, and then, probably around 2014, He opened up the movie Ratatouille (2007) to me, which He's had me interpret like Joseph interpreted dreams. In the process He showed me that the narrow way isn't just narrow and broken up into parts, the faithful on it are like this gold fish, going against the grain, which I discern all Christians know but haven't given it enough thought since most Christian graphics view the broad and narrow way as if there's a fork in the road and Christians are on the road less traveled. But there's actually only one road we're all on. Time. So one of the other songs the Lord opened up to me is Hotel California by the Eagles. We're on this dark desert highway. So in the Welcome! video I use that imagery like in this beams graphic. The closer I've drawn to the Lord, the "light of the world" (John 8:12, KJV), the more beams He's revealed I've had in my eyes so that I've been able to remove them.

And followers of Christ are going against the grain, a lot of grain. We're are not only lonely—like that lone gold fish— since we're on a narrow way with "few" on it (Matt. 7:14, KJV), we have to plow against the grain of unbelievers, whom God calls "lost" (Luke 15:4 & Jer. 50:6, for example), and also plow against the grain of professing Christians who aren't actually born again, and even plow against born again Christians who haven't yet been further enlightened—as He's had me doing solo for about a decade now. It's what the rat did in the beginning of Ratatouille (2007). He realized that he and the rest of the rats were running the wrong way so that he turned around and started running against their grain—against the grain of his clan, his brethren—in order to save the book, which parallels the Book, the Bible. Trying to save the truth, he was also going against the lost represented by the woman with a shotgun trying to kill him, who represents Satan "the devil, [who] as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour" (1 Pet. 5:8, KJV). But that's another story.

The Dirt Road

Everyone who was born into a home that was not a professing Christian home (Catholic or Protestant) was born on the Dirt Road. And it's a spectrum, spiritually speaking. To the far left you have those who were born into a home of Satan worshippers, like Anton LaVey and Aleister Crowley. And to the far right you have those born into fanatically religious homes, like fundamental Muslims, for example. Then in the middle you have those who were born into a home that had no religion, like me. In any case, most of these people on the Dirt Road have heard of the Bible and of Jesus—especially in the United States. But they haven't bothered to read the Bible in its entirety or at all, or to take Him seriously, so that they think Jesus is make-believe or a legend; either not reality or not God. They also have a very twisted understanding of Him since the body of Christ has historically been promoting a very twisted image of God. While speaking the truth that “God is love” (1 John 4:8, KJV) they also tell people that He's going to send them to a place called Hell where He'll torment them forever by burning them in the flames! It's a lie Satan fed the body of Christ through “his ministers” (1 Cor. 11:15, KJV) of the Catholic Church.

So the “second death” (Rev. 2:11, KJV), the ultimate end for those who reject Jesus, is not Hell as I explain in God's Plan: A Vision for the Body. Hell is a pagan concept that was brought into the Bible by unfaithful translators hired by King James. They were, according to Jesus, “hireling[s who] care[d] not for the truth” (John 10:13, KJV). Hell doesn't exist. However, the second death and God's wrath are NOT things you want to experience since these people, “the dead, small and great, [will] stand before God; and...[get] judged out of those things which were written in the books, according to their works” (Rev. 20:12, KJV) and “it is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God” (Heb. 10:31, KJV).

In any case, this road is a very difficult one on which to travel, to live, because it's headed towards destruction on the fast track. And the further you walk on it (the longer you walk on it) the more destruction you experience. Also, the closer we get to the end of God's 7000 year plan, the harder it gets for those people. In fact, for all of us. And by all accounts we're practically at the end. From what I'm seeing, we've entered the last decade.

So while my upbringing was difficult, it was absolute paradise compared to most of God's elect around the world since my parents were not religious and middle class. That being the case, I was born on one of the best parts of the Dirt Road. But no matter what part of the Dirt Road you've been born on, it's a much harder place on which to grow up because you have no idea, neither do those close to you, that God (the real One) actually exists. Or that we're in a brutal spiritual war “against spiritual wickedness in high places” (Eph. 6:12, KJV), against Satan and the rest of the demons. What's going on behind the scenes is like this graphic and we're the rope they're using for their tug of war. That's the worst thing about the Dirt Road. You really don't have a clue that Satan is real or that he's like “a roaring lion...seeking whom he may devour” (1 Pet. 5:8, KJV). You have no real clue about any of it! That's part of the reason Jesus refers to these people as being “lost” (Luke 19:10, KJV).

And if you were born into a home of another religion, what you know of God is a massive lie. And that allegiance you and your family hold is actually to Satan. Most people are bowing to Satan, worshipping Satan, and asking him for help!

The longer you put God off the more opportunities you waste and the harder your heart gets.

I stand at the door, and knock:
if any man hear my voice, and open the door,
I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me.
Revelation 3:20, KJV

I've been such a proud fool!

But since Jesus says “The Son of man is come to save that which was lost” (Matt. 18:11, KJV), the Father is at work drawing His elect—those “afore prepared unto glory” (Rom. 9:23, KJV)—to Jesus, His Son, every day of our lives, like you see in this graphic. Because “no man can come to [Jesus], except the Father...draw him” (John 6:44, KJV).

When God turns on the attic light of an elect soul on the Dirt Road and they actually appreciate what Jesus has done for them, they instantly make a U-Turn by not only changing their thinking but their actions. Having proven their sincerity to Him over a season of time, God then gives them “the Holy Spirit, whom God has given to those who obey him” (Acts 5:32, NIV). They’ve become born again, a genuine Christian so that they’re now walking on the Paved Road headed North, heavenward.

The Paved Road

The ones born on the Paved Road are in worse shape—in a way—(spiritually speaking) than the ones born on the Dirt Road. That’s because the one’s on the Paved Road have been hypocrites historically so that most of them aren’t actually born again. They’re seriously deceived. And Jesus said “Let both grow together until the harvest: and in the time of harvest I will say to the reapers, Gather ye together first the tares, and bind them in bundles to burn them: but gather the wheat into my barn” (Matt. 13:30, KJV). It’s very hard to get these people to come to the knowledge of the truth because they already think they know it all. What they are is spiritually proud either being led by blind guides or being blind guides, or both. And everyone knows what’s bound to happen. Jesus says “If the blind lead the blind, both will fall into a pit” (Matt. 15:14, NIV). And because they’re on the Paved Road, they refuse to listen to anyone who has greater insight. That’s the problem with being spiritually blind. When you’re literally blind, you know it. But when you’re spiritually blind you think you can see clearly. Except “because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved...for this cause God [has] sen[t] them [a] strong delusion, that they should believe a lie” (2 Thess. 2:10-11, KJV).

Because professing and born again Christians have historically been outrageous hypocrites who have not obeyed the teachings of Christ, those born in homes on the Paved Road, have easily also become hypocrites. So while those on the Paved Road know the truth—are informed about the truth, that Jesus is God and that the Bible is His Word—since they’re led by hypocrites and become hypocrites, they’re blind. Either they’re deceived to think they’re a Christian when they’re not actually born again—and that’s the majority—or else they are born again but blinded by beams due to their hypocrisy (Matt. 7:5). The lost who don’t take God seriously get blinded by God for not having loved the truth when it was presented to them. And born again Christians blind themselves by being hypocrites about the teachings of Christ. Deceived, the majority of professing Christians, lost and born again, have set up camp on the Paved Road—and that’s what Christianity has done as a whole historically! These people know the truth but they don’t walk in it—therefore, spiritually blind. As Jesus says, they “have a reputation of being alive, but...are dead” (Rev. 3:1, NIV), spiritually dead. They’re like someone who’s in a coma, not RIP dead, but not exactly what you’d call alive either. Because, He then says “strengthen what remains and is about to die” (Rev. 3:2, NIV). In other words, if they don’t repent they will die either physically so that they’ll enter eternity having lost some, most, or all of the rewards they could have earned (1 Cor. 3:11-15 below), or they’ll die “the second death” (Rev. 20:6, KJV) because God will “blot out the name of that person from the book of life” (Rev. 3:5, NIV).

1 Corinthians 3:11-15, KJV For other foundation can no man lay than that is laid, which is Jesus Christ. Now if any man build upon this foundation gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, stubble; Every man's work shall be made manifest: for the day shall declare it, because it shall be revealed by fire; and the fire shall try every man's work of what sort it is. If any man's work abide which he hath built thereupon, he shall receive a reward. If any man's work shall be burned, he shall suffer loss: but he himself shall be saved; yet so as by fire.

And these people—the born again along with professing Christians on the Paved Road—tend to be even more hard-hearted and hard to reach (hard to get through to) than those on the Dirt Road! Because, they think they’re right with God since they know the truth that Jesus is God. Yet having lied to themselves that they’re walking in it when they’re clearly not, they have been “hardened by sin’s deceitfulness” (Heb. 3:13, NIV). Ignoring they’re unwillingness to follow Christ they have hardened their hearts AND blinded themselves to the truth!

Yet all are hard to reach, especially in our day since we’re at the peak of great apostasy, the “falling away” (2 Thess. 2:3, KJV). We’re nearly at the very end of the last of the last days of God’s 7000 Year Plan for His elect. The only ones easy to reach have been little children—preschoolers. But because all the adults around them are such hard hearted “Christian” hypocrites or else lost, they quickly become hard hearted hypocrites as well as my 30-year testimony reveals. Today’s children never had a chance!

And yet at the same time, the Paved Road is much easier to travel on—a much easier place on which to grow up—because you have some understanding, from day one, that God exists, the real One, that Jesus is God. The born again hypocrites on this part of the Road also tend to experience more of God’s blessing since He “does not treat us as our sins deserve” (Ps. 103:10, NIV). Some of the experiences and discussions that take place in their homes and among some of your family and friends—or information that they were provided, which they took for granted—help them when needed. Even while lost, these people know that there is Someone to call on for help AND that that person is Jesus. Many on the Dirt Road don’t know that or they call out to a god that is not God—that’s actually Satan—asking him for help.

An Illuminati Infestation. There are tons of lost souls on the Paved Road purposely deceiving the people that they’re Christian leaders when they actually worship Satan, all those Illuminati/Freemasons. All key Protestant Christian leaders are purposely deceiving the people, primarily professing Christians, while actually worshipping Satan as revealed by their satanic hand signs and unbiblical practices—so clearly exposed with Ravi Zacharias' life. While he portrayed himself as a very bright born again Christian leader, having been born again for five decades, all of the following exposes the truth about him:

- He used occult hand signs;
- He endorsed Joyce Meyers as a “great Bible teacher” when she’s a self-help guru;
- He endorsed Henri Nouwen, a Catholic monk;
- He lived in luxury when His supposed role model, Jesus, says “Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him” (1 John 2:15, KJV);
- He owned worldly day spas revealing his love for the world;
- He was a sexual predator; and,
- He endorsed The Chosen series when it’s a Catholic production.

And God says “Ye cannot be partakers of the Lord's table, and of the table of devils” (1 Cor. 10:21, KJV).

Born again Christians have historically ignored the fact that we’re in a spiritual war with Satan who’s whole mission is to “deceive the nations” (Rev. 20:3, KJV). God has allowed him to do it to test our loyalty to Him. “The LORD your God proveth you, to know whether ye love the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul” (Deut. 13:3, KJV). And because of our apostate Christian history, God is revealing to the body of Christ in the last generation that we have NOT loved Him as we should have—using that to help us get on the right track, to repent. However, as my testimony reveals and as prophesied by a vision God gave Tommy Hicks in 1961 (video found on my YouTube channel), most will not repent. What we’re experiencing is a re-run of what took place 2000 years ago when Jesus walked the earth and the majority of Jews rejected Him.

So even though this part of the Road is paved, it’s still a very confusing place in which to hang out, so I made it a rocky paved road. What you want to do is get off this part of the Road as quickly as possible and move up to the Wilderness Road. Drawn by the Father to Jesus, taking Him seriously, having become born again you break down your camp, make a U-Turn and start walking on the best part of the Paved Road so that you very quickly end up in the Wilderness.

The North End. The best part of the Paved Road is the north end. This is a place coveted by God and, therefore, by Satan. Psalm 48:2 says “Beautiful for situation, the joy of the whole earth, is mount Zion, on the sides of the north” The “sides of the north” or the northern side, the northern part of the Road, is better because, as Matthew Henry wrote “Mount Zion was on the north side of Jerusalem.” And we’ve been informed that Satan said “I will sit also upon the mount of the congregation, in the sides of the north” (Isa. 14:13, KJV). Satan knows the north end of Mount Zion is better than the other parts. It’s the best part of the Road because it’s where those who are starting to take God seriously walk and it leads to the rest of the Road which takes us to the Airport and Homeward bound—and that’s not something Satan wants. He doesn’t want God’s elect to honor Christ and, especially that we get enlightened as a group because it signals that his time as the “ruler” (John 12:31, YLT) and “god of this eon” (2 Cor. 4:4, CLT) is up. It’s over. And, nothing but “torment” awaits him (Matt. 8:29, KJV) “for the eons of the eons” (Rev. 20:20, CLT).

The Wilderness Road

The Wilderness Road is where the born again put our faith into practice and learn to become overcomers, as Jesus modeled for us. Having spent quality time in God’s Word and in prayer, when “led by the Spirit into the wilderness [to be] forty days tempted of the devil” (Luke 4:1-2, KJV), Jesus was able to put up a “good fight of faith” (1 Tim. 6:12, KJV) and overcame Satan’s temptations so that “the devil...departed from him for a season” (Luke 4:13, KJV) “until an opportune time” (Luke 4:13, NIV). And it was then that He began His powerful ministry—after His wilderness experience.

And what the majority of Christians seem to be blind to, just like the lost, is that it’s only those who overcome who make it to the Airport. God says “To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the tree of life, which is in the midst of the paradise of God” (Rev. 2:7, KJV). However, “if any man shall take away from the words of the book of this prophecy [referring to the Bible, most specifically the teachings of the new covenant], God shall take away his part out of the book of life, and out of the holy city” (Rev. 22:19, KJV). And to “take away” from the Book doesn’t just mean that we preach that God doesn't mean what He has said. It also means that you don't do what He has said, you don't actually believe Him. By not obeying Him you are denying what He has said. You're denying the words of His prophecy.

So while those on the Paved Road should quickly move up to the Wilderness Road, because of the historically comatose state of Christianity, most, if not all, born again joined the massive group that makes up the harlot daughters of the Vatican, calling that mess Christianity, and also set up camp on the Paved Road, so that few are actually on the Wilderness Road today.

Mothers have daughters.
And the Catholic Church is a very bad Mother. Very very very bad.

Upon her forehead
was a name written,
MYSTERY, BABYLON THE GREAT,
THE MOTHER OF HARLOTS
AND ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH.
Revelation 17:5, KJV

The Catholic Church teaches that the pastoral office, the office of shepherding the Church, that was held by the apostles, as a group or "college" with Saint Peter as their head, is now held by their successors, the bishops, with the bishop of Rome (the pope) as their head.

Pope - Wikipedia
<https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/>

Christ is the head of the church.
Ephesians 5:23, KJV

Her Protestant Harlot Daughters

All Denominations Bow Before the Pope

Come out of her,
my people,
that ye be not
partakers of her sins, and that ye receive
not of her plagues.
Revelation 18:4, KJV

Come out
from among them, and
be ye separate...
touch not
the unclean thing;
and I will receive you.
2 Corinthians 6:17, KJV

Pure religion and undefiled before God and the Father is this,
To visit the fatherless
and widows in their affliction, and to keep himself
unspotted from the world.
James 1:27, KJV

However, thanks be to God "even so...at this present time also there is a remnant according to the election of grace" (Rom. 11:5, KJV). He says "Examine yourselves to see whether you are in the faith; test yourselves. Do you not realize that Christ Jesus is in you—unless, of course, you fail the test?" (2 Cor. 13:5, NIV). And because of the historical state of the church—that it totally doesn't line up with the teachings of Christ or of the New Testament—it's clear that professing Christians, including the born again, have NOT been in the habit of testing themselves, have NOT taken God seriously, and have also ignored Jesus' warning to "enter through the narrow gate. For wide is the gate and broad is the road that leads to destruction" (Matt. 7:13, NIV).

So the way to get onto the Wilderness Road, is by continually reading the Bible, seeking God, and obeying Him even though it means having to take the heat for doing so, taking it from professing Christians as well as from the lost. God says "All that will live godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution" (2 Tim. 3:12, KJV). Therefore, in the same way that "the Son of man...suffer[ed] many things, and [was] rejected of the elders, and of the chief priests, and scribes" (Mark 8:31, KJV), the Jews suffered from their own people and the Gentile converts suffered from their own people. Paul wrote about the brethren that they "became followers of the churches of God which in Judaea are in Christ Jesus...[and] also...suffered like things of your own countrymen, even as they have of the Jews: Who both killed the Lord Jesus, and their own prophets, and have persecuted us" (1 Thess. 2:14-15, KJV). In turn, today's Christians should expect no different. That's the calling, to be willing to stand up for the truth, for Christ, and prove our faith and appreciation to God by the things we suffer. If Jesus "though he were a Son, yet learned he obedience by the things which he suffered" (Heb. 5:8), so must we. God tells us straight out "Unto you it is given in the behalf of Christ, not only to believe on him, but also to suffer for his sake" (Phil. 1:29, KJV).

This is the very reason why there are so few people on the Wilderness Road. Because it's a wilderness experience—not fun, summed up with my graphic and my testimony. While God enlightened the elect of the Middle Ages that the Catholic Church wasn't actually worshipping Jesus but Satan, so that they protested her teachings and became known as Protestants, since they kept many of the pagan traditions of the Catholic Church, a move that has snowballed ever since, Protestants, even while born again, have been going around in circles like a bunch of Idiots Out Wandering Around for the last 500 years! And to prove it to modern day IOWA, God gave me this calling, testimony, and ministry, decades of going against the Christian grain, wandering around in circles alone because Christians refuse to let Him lord over their lives, while they call Him their Lord. This is why God have me the acronym IOWA which begins with the word Idiots. Christians as a group have been outrageous Idiots, with a capital I—totally self centered when we're supposed to be Christ-centered!

Still, when you stay the course—by staying on the train even when you feel like you want to throw up (or blow your brains out)—you'll eventually find yourself having crossed over onto the Road of Sound Doctrine because of all the things you learned while on the Wilderness Road. And what it all adds up to is experiencing “the fellowship of his sufferings” (Phil. 3:10, KJV). By staying on the train as long as needed, as long as the Conductor says we have to, we learn how to walk in Jesus’ shoes in the wilderness, experiencing the opposition. In other words, we better understand what Jesus went through for us and what we humans are really like, which is “desperately wicked” (Jer. 17:9, KJV).

In turn, we are moved to pray for others in the same way that Jesus prayed for those who tortured Him, asking the Father to forgive those who hurt us knowing that they have NO CLUE as to what they're actually doing, totally blind due to their hypocrisy and lack of love for the Truth.

The Road of Sound Doctrine

Very few are on the Road of Sound Doctrine, and those who are, aren't far along on it because there are some pretty big holes in what's currently being taught by the best. My guess, based on my experience and Jesus's life testimony, is that we mostly walk alone on this road. Because even though Jesus had his disciples and people thronging Him, when it came down to it they all deserted Him revealing they had never been fully on board with Him.

However, because we're now coming to the end of the “present evil age” (Gal. 1:4, YLT), there will be at least a core group that walks humbly with the Lord and one another. But my guess is that you still shouldn't completely trust them because no one will be fully trustworthy until they've been completely changed at the “last trump” (1 Cor. 15:52, KJV). I'll certainly never trust anyone again during this life. That would make me the biggest fool of all. Instead, I'll follow Jesus' example. We're told “Jesus would not entrust himself to them, for he knew all people” (John 2:24, NIV). Jesus knew the human heart is “desperately wicked” (Jer. 17:9, KJV).

In any case, Christian history nails the point that we must work humbly together as a group, as the body of Christ. While we can't fully trust each other, we can trust the Lord.

The Latter Rain. Here's the beauty of what God is doing. Since we've come to the climax of the great "falling away" period (2 Thess. 2:3, KJV) and to the point where God is drawing His people back to the truth with the "latter rain" (Joel 2:23, KJV), while it's not yet in full swing, we live in a time when God is going to make the narrow way broad for a season. That's what He always does during a reformation, many come to the knowledge of the truth so that the narrow way becomes temporarily broad.

And the latter rain is the greatest reformation of all time. God says "I will give power unto my two witnesses [born again Jews and Gentiles who are close followers of Christ], and they shall prophesy a thousand two hundred and threescore days [3½ years], clothed in sackcloth" (Rev. 11:3, KJV). They'll be genuinely repentant for having been enlightened to what we've done and haven't done. It'll be like when a creek floods over for a time because of the melting snow combined with spring rains. The creek becomes a river, temporarily.

In any case, falling away periods give birth to revivals/reformations—a time when the people turn back to the truth and purify their lives. The climax of falling away periods and reformations go together. Biblical examples include the following:

Nineveh:

The word of the LORD came unto Jonah the son of Amittai, saying, Arise, go to Nineveh, that great city, and cry against it; for their wickedness is come up before me...Word came unto the king of Nineveh, and he arose from his throne, and he laid his robe from him, and covered him with sackcloth, and sat in ashes. And he caused it to be proclaimed and published through Nineveh...saying, Let neither man nor beast, herd nor flock, taste any thing: let them not feed, nor drink water: But let man and beast be covered with sackcloth, and cry mightily unto God: yea, let them turn every one from his evil way, and from the violence that is in their hands. Who can tell if God will turn and repent, and turn away from his fierce anger, that we perish not? And God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way; and God repented of the evil, that he had said that he would do unto them; and he did it not (Jonah 1:1-10, KJV).

These pagans went from one extreme to the other.

An Agricultural Metaphor

Judah During Josiah's Reign:

Manasseh had made Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to err, and to do worse than the heathen, whom the LORD had destroyed before the children of Israel. And the LORD spake to Manasseh, and to his people: but they would not hearken...[However] Josiah...did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the ways of David his father, and declined neither to the right hand, nor to the left. For in the eighth year of his reign, while he was yet young, he began to seek after the God of David his father: and in the twelfth year he began to purge Judah and Jerusalem from the high places, and the groves, and the carved images, and the molten images (2 Chron. 33-34, KJV).

So we've got pagans and a youth who were more discerning than today's born again Christians!

Transition Between Old and New Covenant: The 400 year silent treatment from God due to Israel's rebellion ended with John's ministry, summed up in this passage:

In those days came John the Baptist, preaching...saying, Repent ye: for the kingdom of heaven is at hand...Then went out to him Jerusalem, and all Judaea, and all the region round about Jordan, And were baptized of him in Jordan, confessing their sins (Matt. 3:1-6, KJV).

The First Rain: Because of Jesus' ministry we had the first rain. Less than two months after crucifying the Lord—the darkest of times—the Spirit of God was poured out on the faithful at Pentecost—the brightest of times to date. “When the day of Pentecost came...a violent wind came from heaven and...All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit” (Acts 2:1-4, NIV).

So what God is now doing/will be doing is what He's always done. Except this will be the greatest move of God—in His people—so far, since He tells us that the first and former rain was “moderate” in comparison to the latter rain. He says “Be glad then, ye children of Zion, and rejoice in the LORD your God: for he hath given you the former rain moderately, and he will cause to come down for you...the latter rain” (Joel 2:23, KJV).

And since Christianity's “official” leaders—who Jesus calls “hirelings” who don't care for the sheep (John 10:13, KJV)—have formally studied the Bible and the history of the church, they should understand these things better than anyone, but they don't because of their overwhelming pride and hypocrisy—many of whom aren't even elect and, again, purposely deceiving the people as part of the counter-reformation of the Catholic church which began in the Middle Ages. In turn, God is “destroy[ing] the wisdom of the wise [has destroyed it], and will bring to nothing the understanding of the prudent” (1 Cor. 1:19, KJV, my emphasis). In other words, God is revealing that the wisdom of the “great” men of Christianity, along with the “great” men of the world, is not all that great so that He calls it “nothing.” It has amounted to nothing when you place it against the backdrop of the Truth and being handed over to Satan (1 Cor. 5:5).

Moreover, He's using things like preschool books, as with Sheep on a Ship, a book He has had me interpret, doing it to teach His people what these proud PhDs haven't understood, so that “He who is sitting in the heavens doth laugh, The Lord doth mock at them” (Ps. 2:4, YLT). (Notice how the dumb sheep drool over the satanic Bonesman, their captain—totally oblivious that he's the “ruler of this world” (John 12:31, YLT) who's out to “deceive” (Rev. 20:3, KJV) and “murder” (John 8:44, KJV), even though his hat should give him away!) Again, that's another story.

As revealed through my material—for those who'll have eyes that see—God is using me like He used John the Baptist “to make ready a people prepared for the Lord” (Luke 1:17, NIV). The major difference is that God had John prepare the way for the Lord to come in the flesh whereas He has me preparing it for Him to come first in the Spirit—and then in the flesh. Like John who “grew and became strong in spirit... liv[ing] in the wilderness until he appeared publicly to Israel” (Luke 1:80, KJV), the Lord has kept me in a wilderness experience until His “appointed time” (Hab. 2:3, KJV) when He publicly opens up this ministry.

Angels Await

Since “God is not the God of the dead, but of the living” (Matt. 22:32, KJV), the Road is always moving. It’s like a moving walkway you might see at an airport. And we are headed towards the Airport since we’re going airborne “to meet the Lord in the air” (1 Thess. 4:16).

So while the way to get on the narrow way has always been the same, through Christ, during periods of revival and reformation, God makes it easier for His elect to ‘hop on.’ And He’s done that through the ministry He has given me having called me and enabled me to “write the vision, and make it plain upon tables, that he may run that readeth it...[in His] appointed time” (Hab. 2:2-3, KJV).

And we’re using military aircraft—the blue angels—because WE’RE AT WAR! “We wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against...spiritual wickedness in high places” (Eph. 6:12, KJV). And whenever God is doing something big He has a tendency to “send his angel before” (Gen. 24:7, KJV). And we need His angelic help because this war is against Satan and his demons and Satan has “great wrath...know[ing] that he hath but a short time [left]” (Rev. 12:12, KJV). If you think you can do this alone or that everything’s fine, you’re DECEIVED!

God’s Grace in Action

God has made it easier for His elect by having me write the books with all of the resources and examples (and pictures) He’s had me include, and then presenting it in video format (if He still has me do that), providing it all for free since that’s what Christians are supposed to do. Christianity is not for profit. God says “Freely ye have received, freely give” (Matt. 10:8, KJV). Yet the majority who are more enlightened still sell their books. They’re still focused on making a buck revealing they’re not as enlightened as they need to be considering the times in which we’re living!

Most importantly, being that “God is a...revealer of secrets” (Dan. 2:47, KJV), He has been revealing Satan’s secrets for years so that many are now enlightened to the lies we’ve believed about the world. And through this ministry He’s revealing His hidden secrets through the biblical interpretations of secular resources, making it super easy for His elect of these last days to get enlightened, get excited about Him, and get empowered by Him. Because, besides the biblical interpretations He’s given me, God has been enlightening many Christians to the false doctrines we’ve believed about Christianity and He’s had me include that information, especially in Satan’s Reign: A Timeline.

For example, you don’t have to go through everything I’ve had to go through to learn all the lessons I’ve had to learn. This is what makes a wise person wise, they can learn from other people. You can see this played out in the movie The Book of Daniel (2013). (While it has points that are off, you can easily catch those by “bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ” (2 Cor. 10:5, KJV)). Watching the movie I was enlightened to what God has again done for His elect. What I mean is that the prophet Daniel had to experience years of hardship and a lifetime with God to get to the point that King Cyrus was able to understand exactly what God expected of him, and to step into it quickly. Instead of having to spend years learning everything Daniel had learned, all he had to do was listen to Daniel’s testimony, believe God, and connect the dots in order to get enlightened and do the right thing, which was to fulfill God’s calling on his life. Listen, believe, and obey—that’s it. (It’s what God has said and modeled throughout the Bible!)

Reading what God has had me write along with the Bible, doing your homework, repenting as needed, you’ll get enlightened to what He has enlightened me to—and then further enlightened as you continue following Him. You’ll end up knowing God and His will for your life and for the world around you, in a fairly short time—if you put your heart into it.

In contrast, I’ve been at this since I was four years old and I’m now 56! I was four years old when I thought to myself (inspired by the Spirit) “I want to work for God when I grow up.” The point is that it takes FOREVER when Christians aren’t working together and working against you!

And we're not even at the point of working together yet! The fact is that the baby in the picture is more interested in what I'm saying than anyone has been on my path so far! My experience has been that Christians today are only interested in Jesus until they realize they are being called to change, to repent, when that's the essence of what it means to actually be a Christian. Or else they're too proud and blind to think that God would raise up a prophet to prepare the way for His second coming, even though He did it for His first coming and this is actually even more important because it begins His reign on earth.

Genuine Christians are followers of Christ who “produce fruit in keeping with repentance” (Matt. 3:8, NIV, my emphasis). In other words, continually repenting as needed. A Christian who thinks they have nothing to repent about is BLIND because every day we have things to repent about since our THOUGHTS make us guilty as Jesus made clear having said “Anyone who looks at a woman lustfully has already committed adultery with her in his heart” (Matt. 5:28, NIV). We don't have to commit sin to be guilty before God. All we have to do is think of it! And even the most enlightened born again have TONS of beams in their eyes blinding them for being such hypocrites.

And it's only through humble submission to God, actually letting Jesus lord over us as individuals and as a group, that we'll be able to overcome Satan's schemes. This life has been a test, and we've all been failing for the most part, or at best scraping by, as this ministry reveals. But if you start taking God seriously now, repenting of everything He points out revealing that your life is not in sync with His will, changing both your mind and actions, you'll be able to “save yourselves from this corrupt generation” (Acts 2:40, NIV) and “obtain a better resurrection” (Heb. 11:35, KJV)—a better eternal outcome. Also, you'll be able to escape the full measure of Satan's wrath.

In contrast, don't get in step with the Lord and you risk losing everything including your soul. And “what shall it profit a man, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul?” (Mark 8:36, KJV). It won't profit you. The x (your life on earth) in God's View will just keep getting smaller and smaller in just a few years, the day you die since “the ages” last a really long time! In other words, repent and obey the Lord and you can “ris[e] again [to] life...[instead] of judgment” (John 5:29, YLT).

Views of Life

The Unbeliever's View

XX

“Let us eat and drink; for tomorrow we die.” — 1 Corinthians 15:32

Christianity Today's View

XX

“Carnal: for whereas there is among you envying, and strife, and divisions.”
— 1 Corinthians 3:3

God's View

x

“What things were gain to me, those I counted loss for Christ. Yea doubtless, and I count all things but loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord: for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and do count them but dung, that I may win Christ.” — Philippians 3:7-8

U.S. Upside Down!

Honoring Satan rather than Jesus (Rev. 13:3 & Phil. 2:21 below) has turned the world upside down. However, the Lord has had me focus on the U.S., and supernaturally revealed to me that we're upside down.

Revelation 13:3, KJV All the world wondered after the beast.

Philippians. 2:21, KJV For all seek their own, not the things which are Jesus Christ's.

The Narrow Way

If today's so-called best Christians, those institutional church leaders, were actually on the Road of Sound Doctrine as they think they are, they'd be so appalled by today's institutional church that they would have not only come out of her, they would have reacted like Zacchaeus who said "Behold, Lord, the half of my goods I give to the poor; and if I have taken any thing from any man by false accusation [as they have through their lie about tithing], I restore him fourfold" (Luke 19:8, KJV). They would also be zealously teaching about her and preaching against her, walking humbly before God. At the very least, they'd be in prayer for her—since that's how Jesus lived and we're called to be like Him.

For instance, when Jesus "found in the temple those that sold oxen and sheep and doves...he had made a scourge of small cords [and] drove them all out of the temple... [so that] his disciples remembered that it was written, The zeal of thine house hath eaten me up" (John 2:14-17, KJV). And "he that saith he abideth in him ought himself also so to walk, even as he walked" (1 John 2:6, KJV). Yet everyone the Lord has had me reach out to in the past 22 years has been SUPER proud and NOT zealous about what concerns Jesus—or else they've been ice cold, and not "contend[ed] for the faith" (Jude 1:3, KJV) as we're supposed to be doing. And if you attend a prayer meeting at any so-called Christian church, school or group, you see that less than a handful of people are there! And when you listen to their prayers, you see that they're very self rather than Christ centered.

God Still Speaks Volumes!

In the original book the Lord had me write, since I'd thought it was for publication, I'd referred to the last local pastor God had me reach out to, which was in 2012, as Ken, as in Barbie's boyfriend—great outward appearance but hollow (otherwise known as shallow). This man was Brian Mentzer from Riverdale Baptist in Largo, Maryland. He represents the best harlot Christianity has to offer even though God had me reach out to others I would consider much better (like Alistair Begg, for example)—and they've all had the same cold-blooded response. They are all the same. They're all “hireling[s who] careth not for the sheep” (John 10:13, KJV).

Rather than care about pleasing God and taking care of His sheep, hirelings care only about themselves and their worldly 'kingdoms.' They are carnal, also known as worldly, the pretty people. They're plastic—in a word, Ken. God says “Behold, I am against the shepherds; and I will require my flock at their hand, and cause them to cease from feeding the flock; neither shall the shepherds feed themselves any more; for I will deliver my flock from their mouth, that they may not be meat for them” (Ezek. 34:10, KJV).

In fact, this local pastor (Ken) is a mirror image of Saul, and a mirror image of Ken, the doll, the leaders our wicked hearts go for—tall, dark, and handsome. It's what humans go for, the “outward appearance, [when] the Lord looketh on the heart” (1 Sam. 16:7). “Saul, [was] as handsome a young man as could be found anywhere in Israel, and he was a head taller than anyone else” (1 Sam. 9:2, NIV). Ooooooh Drool Drool. The people, the shallow Idiots, idolized him—just like the dimwits in Beauty and the Beast (1991), one of the movies the Lord has had me interpret since it's an exact parallel of what's taken and will be taking place. Professing Christians drool over these proud self-absorbed idiots even though God warned us both in the new Testament concerning the “hireling[s]” (John 10:13, KJV) and in the Old Testament through Samuel when he said the following:

Ye shall be his servants. And ye shall cry out in that day because of your king [or hireling] which ye shall have chosen you; and the LORD will not hear you in that day. Nevertheless the people refused to obey the voice of Samuel; and they said, Nay; but we will have a king over us (1 Sam. 8:17-19, KJV).

They wanted to be just like the people around them, people that didn't know the Lord God.

So hundreds of years later, when Jesus came, He said “I will have mercy, and not sacrifice: for I am not come to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance” (Matt. 9:13, KJV). And since the Greek translation for mercy is kindness or good will, God is saying He doesn't care for our attendance at a so-called church with expensive clothing and pretty flowers, and for us to deprive ourselves of an expensive lunch so that we can donate a few bucks to His cause earning us Brownie Points as we give Him lip-service while we, especially our leaders, look good, like plastic Ken dolls. Rather, He wants “kindness.” God has called all of us to put behind our carnal sinful plastic worldly hostile shallow ways and just be kind.

And if you really know the Lord, you will stop being like that person you were before you knew Him, OK with sinning and chasing after a worldly plastic life. Instead, you'll spend time with Him in His Word, obediently, so that you'll consistently be changing for the better, becoming increasingly more like Jesus—righteous, honest, and kind, God-centered rather than self-centered. Yet that's hardly Christianity today.

So to help everyone begin to take Him seriously so that we can stop being plastic and phony as a group and start being genuinely kind to one another, as a group (at least a remnant), He has provided a modern day graphic of a combination of the following:

- The IOWA map of the Old Testament,
- The lessons from 1 Samuel,
- The Narrow Way graphic, and,
- The summation of the Muck & Mire Church Tours the Lord took me on for nearly three decades as I followed Him.

In the same way that the Israelites wanted a king to lead them instead of Jesus—some pretty plastic person they could see—today’s Christians want, and therefore have, men like Ken leading them rather than the “KING OF KINGS” (Rev. 19:16, KJV), men who are hollow/shallow in comparison. Granted a measure of free will, the people made their choice. Therefore, God laid out the Red Carpet of Delusion, Deception, and Derision for all:

Because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved...for this cause God shall send them strong delusion, that they should believe a lie (1 Thess. 2:10-11, KJV).

He that sitteth in the heavens shall laugh: the LORD shall have them in derision (Ps. 2:4, KJV).

For the leaders of this people cause them to err; and they that are led of them are destroyed (Isa. 9:16, KJV).

And God did it to teach all a powerful lesson because Jesus made it clear that He has specific requirements for how we’re to worship God having said, “They that worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth” (John 4:24, KJV). In other words, the Spirit won’t come on you—or on His Church as a whole—if we’re not worshipping Him honestly. Like the first batch of Christians who were highly empowered by God as revealed in the book of Acts and summed up in the graphic. We have to worship Him “in spirit” (with His Spirit within) and “in truth” both as individuals and as a group, as the body of Christ.

That being the case, through this ministry, God is calling you, the reader, to exercise your free will by choosing who is actually on the Lord’s side—institutional Christians and their leaders or me and those who have come out of that system to worship Him more biblically. It’s the same thing God had Joshua put to his set of IOWA. He said “Choose you this day whom ye will serve...as for me and my house, we will serve the LORD” (Josh. 24:15). Except our generation is so far from God there isn’t even a me and my house, only me! While it sounds proud to the undiscerning, God has made it super clear that He’s using me like an Old Testament prophet. So it’s not as if the body of Christ can ignore me, much less treat me like garbage, and be right with God.

So, God began what I’ve called the Muck & Mire Church Tours very slowly when I was a child, had them pick up speed with my husband, then continued full force with our children so that the Lord had us go in and out of Ken’s congregation for several years while He gave us the Grand Tour of the area churches, after having given us the Grand Tour of Muck & Mire in Indianapolis for about eight years. Then God had us park it at Ken’s for several months during 2011-2012. He also had me give Ken a draft of the original book (a version of it) during the summer of 2012.

God also had me prophesy to Ken & Company (him and his worship pastor) that He wanted to use them to begin a reformation of the church through this nation, first in that local assembly and then worldwide through this nation, but first they needed to repent. It’s what God has had me saying since 1998, having begun with Kerry Bowman and Bill Bean, the senior and worship pastors at Eagle Church in Indianapolis.

And the whole time, since the very beginning, the Lord has had me writing to them with my words on the left and His Word supporting what I’ve been saying on the right margin. Essentially saying, this is what we’re doing but the Bible says that. Repent and God will use you to bless everyone. It’s only their careers! And considering the times we’re living in—the 9/11 attacks right at the beginning of this calling—you’d think they’d be seeking after God more seriously and, therefore, get enlightened. But they’re not, proving God’s point that He has handed everyone over to a powerful delusion—until His appointed time. Because while many have gotten further enlightened over the past two decades, every single person the Lord has had me reach out to has coldly blown me off without a Word. That’s NOT what Jesus modeled. At best, a few have responded but in a way that didn’t line up with the new covenant or which otherwise revealed they’re still blinded by beams. And they weren’t all that warm—when the body of Christ is supposed to be as warm as it gets Jesus having said “By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have love one to another” (John 13:35, KJV).

So, like the rest, Ken and his worship pastor received this information with iced-over hearts since Christianity as we know it is “dead” (Rev. 3:1, KJV). What’s happened is the same thing that happened when Jesus went through certain towns. “He did not many mighty works there because of their unbelief” (Matt. 13:58, KJV). And it’s been happening worldwide for the last two thousand years! (Mostly.)

Released by God from Ken’s deadbeat congregation, a few weeks following our last attendance there, I’d been tweaking the Narrow Way diagram which I’d created in 2009, three years before, tweaking it for the book I thought the Lord was having write for publication (self publishing). And while I was working on that, I was also hanging out in different parts of our metro area so that it was dawning on me that all the time I’ve lived in this state, though that time has been broken by lapses in other states, out of the 13 different places where I’ve lived here, except for once, I’ve always lived near the same exact road though on different parts of it.

Huh.

In fact, the parking lot of Ken’s congregation, Riverdale Baptist Church in Largo, Maryland, feeds into the beginning of this road. Interesting.

The road also has different names at different places just like the Narrow Way graphic I was tweaking for the book. So—walking in the Spirit—I logged onto MapQuest with the prayer, “Guide me in your truth and teach me” (Ps. 25:5, NIV). I wanted to follow my road from Ken’s to see where exactly it would lead me since I was getting pretty curious. And in so doing, God CRANKED UP up the light!

These are the parts of the road on the Narrow Way graphic: Dirt Road, Paved Road, Wilderness Road, and Road of Sound Doctrine. Parts of the same road have different names representing the phases of spiritual growth which lead us to our heavenly mansion. Jesus said “In my Father’s house are many mansions” (John 14:2, KJV). “Follow me” (Matt. 8:22, KJV). So that’s what I did. I followed His leading.

While we’re on the Road we grow in knowledge and wisdom as we move up the Road getting ever closer to our Destination while suffering persecution of one sort or another since “all that will live godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution” (2 Tim. 3:12, KJV) and God has “chosen [us] in the furnace of affliction” (Isa. 48:10, KJV) so that we are supposed to “work out...our own salvation in fear and trembling” (Phil. 2:12, KJV). And, apparently, the road I’ve lived near for half of my life parallels the same thing, also ending at a certain important mansion.

Therefore, I provide you with the names of the real road which also represent the phases of our spiritual growth, which also just so happen to represent parts of my personal life (Rom. 8:28 below)—because God’s funny like that in a supernaturally convicting way for those who have eyes that see and hearts that aren’t iced-over (Matt. 11:15 & 1 Cor. 14:22 below).

Romans 8:28, KJV All things work together for good to them that love God.

Matthew 11:15, KJV He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

1 Corinthians 14:22, NIV Prophecy...is not for unbelievers but for believers.

Leaving Ken’s plastic congregation heading north this is how it goes.

Watkins Park Drive.

This is how life feels for most of us when we’re in preschool, like it’s a walk in the park. But it’s gotten increasingly and drastically less innocent for children, every year all the more. Still, for most, the world revolves around us at this stage of life. That pretty much sums it up for all those Ken doll hirelings, as someone online demonstrated with this graphic.

And there's a park on the road near Riverdale Baptist where my girls and I spent time when they were younger. It has a campground tying into what Christians have done, having camped out on the Paved Road; a train that goes around in circles like IOWA (Idiots Out Wandering Around); and a farm where a huge HUGE pig wallows in muck and mire—like a postcard from the disgusting Church Tours I've been on. The body of Christ is like the rebellious son who “longed to fill his stomach with the pods that the pigs were eating” (Luke 15:16-17, NIV). Except God's Girl hasn't even yet realized how malnourished She actually is, how prodigal.

Suddenly, the road's name changes.

Enterprise Road.

As we grow up focus which had been on me, myself, and I, enlarges to envision how we—me, myself, and I—will get rich and famous one day. We quickly start thinking about our enterprise. We're carnal since “there is none righteous, no, not one” (Rom. 3:10, KJV).

So Bryan Brenner, originally from Eagle Church, testimony shared in Welcome! models for everyone what the majority of the body of Christ has done. On his website blog I read that he had initially thought of being a missionary but instead built his little empire in Indianapolis focused on health insurance. However, Scripture says God's “gifts and his call are irrevocable” (Rom. 11:29, KJV). And the only reason anyone would even think of becoming a missionary is because “God...worketh in you both to will and to do of his good pleasure” (Phil. 2:13, KJV). Lord willing, God will be waking Bryan up from his slumber at some point soon and using him and all those gifts He's given him to turn coat on Satan and start honoring the Lord his Maker.

In any case, the word carnal comes from Latin and it's the root for the Spanish word carne—which means meat. It's the stuff IOWA craved while spinning their wheels in self-centered rebellious circles as they did their thing while ignoring God's Thing, complaining “If only we had meat to eat!” (Num. 11:4, NIV). And, again, Lord Satan, as always, was right in the middle of that mess.

Again, the road quickly changes name.

Glenn Dale Boulevard

A dale is a broad valley, also known as the pits. It's where we land ourselves in pursuit of our own enterprise. Therefore, it's the place from where God delivers us. Scripture says “He brought me up also out of an horrible pit, out of the miry clay, and set my feet upon a rock, and established my goings” (Ps. 40:2, KJV). This dale, this pit, represents the muck and mire in which the lost son had landed himself with the pigs and where the BRAT has landed herself for having rejected Her King since “all seek their own, not the things which are Jesus Christ's” (Phil. 2:21, KJV). As God made clear through Saul, partial obedience equals disobedience. Samuel, God's prophet, said “To obey is better than sacrifice...For rebellion is as the sin of witchcraft, and stubbornness is as iniquity and idolatry” (1 Sam. 15:22-23, KJV). And “those who practice magic arts, the idolaters and all liars—they will be consigned to the fiery lake of burning sulfur” (Rev. 21:8, NIV). But that's not speaking of Hell but of God's fiery judgment, the refiner's fire. Hell is a pagan concept. The word isn't even used in the literal translations. I walk through it in God's Plan: A Vision for the Body and it's spoken of in these passage, for instance, "He is like a refiner's fire, and like fullers' soap" (Mal. 3:2, KJV)

This part of the road is actually fairly short, as in how it should be. It's how it could have been for all of the elect had the body of Christ historically taken God more seriously. Only we didn't, as God knew would be the case since he "declar[es] the end from the beginning, and from ancient times the things that are not yet done" (Isa. 46:10, KJV). And, therefore, prophesied of the "falling away" (2 Thess. 2:3, KJV).

Again, the road changes name.

Greenbelt Road

Having been brought out of the pits by God, enlightened to the truth, the born again are spiritually green like a "tender plant" (Isa. 53:2, KJV), not mature like a "tree" (Ps. 92:12 below). Therefore, being green, most think "I accepted Jesus" even though Jesus says "I have chosen you, and ordained you, that ye should go and bring forth fruit" (John 15:16, KJV). But in order to "bring forth fruit," self-absorbed brats MUST grow up.

Psalm 92:12 The righteous shall flourish like the palm tree: he shall grow like a cedar in Lebanon.

And as you can see with the picture, palm trees have tons of roots in order to survive those tropical storms, representing the spiritual war we're in. And it's what the Lord has done with me, given me a very broad understanding of Christianity and her apostate ways, along with an understanding of His church, the assembly Jesus is actually building, and His ways, by having had me follow Him through tons of churches and Christian groups for three decades, and having reached out to Christians for nearly four decades. Studiousguy.com says "Since Palm Trees have long trunks and large fronds, their roots have a major role in keeping these structures moist and provide them with a certain amount of nutrition." That's pretty much how the Lord is using me, to "feed [His] sheep" (John 21:17, KJV).

In fact, this is where I lived—right off Greenbelt Road—while I was on my First College Tour (before being born again, and after being born again (though further down the road), living in the super liberal town called Greenbelt). Being 'green' I was as immature and green as green gets! Crayola should add it to their collection. It's neon green it's so vain and idiotic, with gobs of dark goo because "we are all as an unclean thing, and all our righteousnesses are as filthy rags" (Isa. 64:6, KJV). Just because we've become born again doesn't mean we're suddenly entirely pure, as Christians seem to preach! Jesus did His part on the Cross for us so that God sees us as pure enough to be part of His Kingdom but He's clearly informed us saying "Work out your own salvation with fear and trembling" (Phil. 2:12, KJV). In other words, we still have to do our part.

Yet, because everyone who becomes born again is an elect "vessel...of mercy afore appointed to glory" (Rom. 9:23, KJV), "elect according to the foreknowledge of the Father" (1 Pet. 1:2, KJV), there are hints of bright yellow in our lives before having become born again. It's like we're a pretty little bird caught in an oil spill since we were born into a world where Satan is the "ruler" (John 12:31, YLT) and "god" (2 Cor. 4:4, KJV). And the Lord says to those birds "Live" (Ezek. 16:6, KJV). Therefore, Dawn really is the best thing for the job being that Jesus is "the root and the offspring of David, and the bright and morning star" (Rev. 22:16, KJV). It's like those people washing the bird represent angels since Scripture says "Are not all angels ministering spirits sent to serve those who will inherit salvation?" (Heb. 1:14, NIV).

Again, the road changes name.

University Boulevard

The Lord has to wash us off by educating us in His ways. It's what He's longing to do to His Church, His girl, the body of Christ, wash her off since He "gave himself for it; That he might sanctify and cleanse it with the washing of water by the word" (Eph. 5:25-26, KJV). And He says "They shall be all taught of God" (John 6:45, KJV). "Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall find rest unto your souls" (Matt. 11:29, KJV).

So while we're desperately spoiled brats being that "the heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked" (Jer. 17:9, KJV) and "all our righteousnesses are as filth" (Isa. 64:6, KJV), our loving Father still covered tuition. "For God did so love the world, that His Son...He gave, that every one who is believing in him may not perish, but may have life age-during" (John 3:16, YLT). Therefore, "While we were yet sinners, Christ died for us" (Rom. 5:8, KJV). But it's up to us to "study to shew [our self] approved unto God [and become] a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth" (2 Tim. 2:15, KJV).

In fact, it's only when we earnestly study God's Word that we realize we're terribly poor though we'd thought we were rich, like the lost bratty son with Daddy's bucks in his pocket who said to his father, "Give me my share of the estate" (Luke 15:12, NIV) so that the father "divided his property between them...[and the boy] squandered his wealth in wild living" (Luke 15:12-13, NIV).

Though this young man had loads of money he was spiritually bankrupt, which eventually made him poor in every other way as well. It's the track the U.S. has been on. It's also how so-called pastors think they're rich for having gone to seminary, earned their degrees, and have their positions and ministries to go with their wealth and prestige—only most of them aren't even elect, therefore, not born again! And those that are born again will one day see that they've actually landed themselves in the pig pen and are covered in mud worse than everyone else! Therefore, God says "I counsel you to buy from me gold refined in the fire, so you can become rich; and white clothes to wear, so you can cover your shameful nakedness; and salve to put on your eyes, so you can see" (Rev. 3:1, NIV).

'Coincidentally,' this is where I went to school., the University of Maryland at College Park, right off University Boulevard. And since I was lost on my First College Tour, with zero direction or biblical role models, which is when I turned 18 and received my father's pension money, I squandered my inheritance and landed myself in the pig pen, desperately deep in the mud. Then back for my Second College Tour, somewhat enlightened, God used this secular university to open my eyes to many problems within Christianity since professing Christians weren't doing it, and for the most part still aren't! As God says, "If we believe not, yet he abideth faithful: [because] he cannot deny himself" (2 Tim. 2:13). So I share details of my life in my testimony books, details God has tied in to what He's saying to His assembly, the body of Christ.

Having been spiritually educated, we understand that we're rich beyond our wildest dreams, granted eternal life in Paradise, no less, and all because of what God has done for us through Jesus:

For [w]e have not received the spirit of bondage again to fear; but...the Spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, Abba, Father. The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit [if we're born again], that we are the children of God: And if children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ; if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together (Rom. 8:15-17, KJV).

Enlightened by God, we realize we owe Him a debt of gratitude, like Paul realized so that he said the following:

Whatever were gains to me I now consider loss for the sake of Christ. What is more, I consider everything a loss because of the surpassing worth of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord, for whose sake I have lost all things. I consider them garbage, that I may gain Christ and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, but that which is through faith in Christ—the righteousness that comes from God on the basis of faith. I want to know Christ—yes, to know the power of his resurrection and participation in his sufferings, becoming like him in his death, and so, somehow, attaining to the resurrection from the dead (Phil. 3:7-11, NIV).

This time it's quite a while before the road's name changes to its final and most honorable state. It represents the 2000 years it's taken Christianity to get to this point—except we're not even actually there yet!

Connecticut Avenue

Having disciplined ourselves for a spiritual PhD, rich in wisdom and understanding “for the LORD giveth wisdom: out of his mouth cometh knowledge and understanding” (Prov. 2:6, KJV), we fully grasp the fact that Jesus with His “blood [He] purchased for God persons from every tribe and language and people and nation” (Rev. 5:9, NIV). And Connecticut Avenue just so happens to be near Embassy Row (Massachusetts Avenue) where many embassies are located (Acts 10:34-35 below)—and many of them are located on Connecticut Avenue as well.

Acts 10:34-35, KJV God is no respecter of persons: But in every nation he that feareth him, and worketh righteousness, is accepted with him.

And unlike what a worldly education does for you, if we've been a good student of God's Word, faithful in applying it to our lives, we're no longer unbiblical, proud, racist, ethnocentric, self-centered, idolaters, sexist, or cold—which is hardly the body of Christ today, the BRAT. Yet the New Testament says “There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither...male nor female: for ye are all one in Christ Jesus” (Gal. 3:28, KJV). “All ye are brethren” (Matt. 23:8, KJV). Right now we're about the most dysfunctional Family there is!

And since one of the benefits of getting a spiritual education—of taking advantage of the election our Father has provided for us—is greater wealth for the coming ages. So this is a wealthy area representing the truth that “no good thing will he withhold from them that walk uprightly” (Ps. 84:11, KJV).

This part of the road also happens to be where I held my first job out of college, and where God opened up this verse to me and made it a permanent wall hanging for my attic. He says “My little children, let us not love in word, neither in tongue; but in deed and in truth” (1 John 3:18, KJV), which is exactly what the body of Christ does NOT do and, therefore, what God is getting at through this ministry. I worked for a homelessness clearinghouse on Connecticut Avenue near Dupont Circle, because there's this thing that goes on in a land of wicked sinners. Though some are filthy rich, many are desperately poor, and most couldn't care less, including so-called Christians. At best they write a check now and then since they can write it off.

However, patting yourself on the back for doing a good turn giving of your excess doesn't reflect actual caring. Jesus says “When you give to the needy, do not announce it with trumpets, as the hypocrites do...to be honored by others. Truly I tell you, they have received their reward in full. But when you give to the needy, do not let your left hand know what your right hand is doing” (Matt. 6:2-3, NIV). Don't do it as a write off. He also made it clear in the following passage that giving of our excess doesn't actually count:

Jesus sat over against the treasury, and beheld how the people cast money into the treasury: and many that were rich cast in much. And there came a certain poor widow, and she threw in two mites, which make a farthing. And he called unto him his disciples, and saith unto them, Verily I say unto you, That this poor widow hath cast more in, than all they which have cast into the treasury: For all they did cast in of their abundance; but she of her want did cast in all that she had, even all her living (Mark 12:41-44, KJV).

Sure enough, the road from the church led by Ken (at the time) which represents the Church, the body of Christ, the BRAT, ends here—at Lafayette Square. Originally named President's Park, it was once a slave market—naturally, since our hearts are “desperately wicked” (Jer. 17:9, KJV). It's also where Americans protest nearly everything so that no place in America better represents America. And it's right in front of the front lawn of the White House. And the White House is home to this nation's Commander in Chief, representing the seat of government for the United States, and one of Satan's biggest stronghold, the weakest link. It's where American Christianity's journey should have landed her.

And it's what God had me prophesy to Ken & Co., and to the rest of the companies that call themselves churches, having begun with Eagle, that He wanted to use them to begin a cleansing work in the world starting with the United States. It's what God has had me saying to pastors since 1998, for over two decades, making the message clearer and clearer each time, not only with His Word, but with word pictures, examples, graphics, videos, prophetic interpretations, actual events...but no matter how clear, it's always gone entirely into DEAF ears!

Because, it's as Jesus says "Why do ye not understand my speech?...because ye...are of your father the devil" (John 8:42-44, KJV). By revealing the many occult so-called Protestant Christian leaders (more than 90 at last count) God has proven what He has had me saying all along. He's also proven it with what's been happening around the world. No one has understood what I've been saying because "ye are of your father the devil" (John 8:44, KJV). The fact is that we were all born as children of the devil since he's the "god of this world" (2 Cor. 4:4, KJV) and "God has bound everyone over to disobedience so that he may have mercy on them all" (Rom. 11:32, NIV)—which is not what the body of Christ has been preaching for most of Christian history with the doctrine of Hell. And if you're a professing Christian you were supposed to have abandoned your allegiance to Satan—only the body of Christ as a whole hasn't. So we're under God's judgment (1 Pet. 4:17 below). That a big part of the reason "the vision" has been for "an appointed time" (Hab. 2:2-3, KJV).

1 Peter 4:17, KJV For the time is come that judgment must begin at the house of God: and if it first begin at us, what shall the end be of them that obey not the gospel of God?

Since the born again have so far refused to fully obey Jesus, they've made us—the U.S. (along with the rest of the world)—take the long way Home rather than what we could have taken, the short cut—just like it was for the Israelites during Moses' day, having been delivered from bondage. Because, just as with the old covenant route from Egypt to the Promised Land which was only about a two week journey, there is a very direct way from Riverdale Baptist to the White House. Instead of going straight out of Ken's pseudo church heading north, you simply take a left and head west. And the modern IOWA route actually looks like a stubby map of the U.S. on MapQuest, upside down. God did what He said He would do. "The way of the wicked he turneth upside down" (Ps. 146:9, KJV). Just look around!

But since we've been wicked by not obeying Him, we're actually the ones who did it, we professing Christians including the born again. God says "Woe unto them that call evil good, and good evil; that put darkness for light, and light for darkness; that put bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter!" (Isa. 5:20, KJV). "Surely your turning of things upside down shall be esteemed as the potter's clay" (Isa. 29:16, KJV)—clay that's getting reworked for His purposes. "God formed man of the dust of the ground" (Gen. 2:7). dust, dirt, mud, clay—it's all the same. Thank God! We're recyclable! In other words, God is working us over, us the body of Christ, since "judgment must begin at the house of God" (1 Pet. 4:17, KJV) and under the new covenant the body of Christ "like living stones, are being built into a spiritual house to be a holy priesthood, offering spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ" (1 Pet. 2:5, NIV).

And since faithless Christians will still want to think I'm imagining things and making connections that aren't actually there, God coordinated this revelation with a little event.

While I was writing about the names of the parts of the road and making the map of Modern Day IOWA to show you what it looks like, I heard the news coming in from the other room and had a feeling something was going on. But since I was engrossed in what the Lord had shown me to show you, I didn't budge until I was done. The map reveals the long way to the White House from the church we had just stopped attending which represents the Church, just like Eagle, the first church where God had me address leadership, represents the Church—the body of Christ—covering this ordeal of more than two decades (so far) and the short way we could have taken if there had been just one truly humble and discerning follower of Christ! But there hasn't been! So that God says "I speak to your shame. Is it so, that there is not a wise man among you?" (1 Cor. 6:5, KJV). And the answer He's revealed is that, yeah, it is just so. There's not a decent Christian around!

So while my husband looked at what I'd printed up (still somewhat interested in Christ at the time), I watched the news and God gave me the complete revelation in His impeccable timing, because impeccable actually means incapable of sinning, and He's the only One who qualifies since "there is none righteous, no, not one" (Rom. 3:10, KJV). And since faithless proud people are full of doubt, I give you Merriam-Webster.

As it turned out, it was the day of the Newtown school massacre. God's timing couldn't be more perfect! He provided the map from the church with the long way to the White House and coordinated it with the massacre/false flag/hoax and the writing of this book (the original) for such a time as this, a verse from the Old Testament book of Esther. She was an Israelite placed in her position as queen at God's impeccable timing since the villain had orchestrated a king's order to annihilate God's people being that Satan "was a murderer from the beginning" (John 8:44, KJV), and therefore so are his ministers.

However, because God is the One who is actually in control and not Satan, she, this queen, was able to save the day, meaning, the people.

Likewise, the Church is the Queen since "[our] Maker is [our] husband" (Isa. 54:5, KJV). We're the soon to be Bride of Christ, bride to the "KING OF KINGS" (Rev. 19:16, KJV), therefore the Queen of queens. She's a woman made up of many queens, the children of the King since "we are God's children...and co-heirs with Christ, if indeed we share in his sufferings" (Rom. 8:16-17, NIV). Therefore, like Esther I am a queen, and something of a queen of queens as God reveals through my personal testimony—for those with eyes that see well enough to connect the dots.

Anyhow, because all elect have disobeyed the Lord, the King has sent out the order for his servant (Satan) to annihilate the people since we've refused to repent. God says the following:

I will send him [Satan] against an hypocritical nation, and against the people of my wrath will I give him a charge, to take the spoil, and to take the prey, and to tread them down like the mire of the streets (Isa. 10:6, KJV).

At what instant I shall speak concerning a nation, and concerning a kingdom, to pluck up, and to pull down, and to destroy it; If that nation, against whom I have pronounced, turn from their evil, I will repent of the evil that I thought to do unto them (Jer. 18:7-8, KJV).

“Instant” does not mean centuries or even decades!

So just as Mordecai said to Esther, the queen, God now says to the BRAT, the Queen, “If you remain silent at this time, Relief and deliverance for the [people] Will arise from another place, but you...will perish...you have come to your royal position for such a time as this” (Esth. 4:14, KJV). “Consider therefore the kindness and sternness of God: sternness to those who fell, but kindness to you, provided that you continue in his kindness. Otherwise, you also will be cut off” (Rom. 11:22, NIV, my emphasis). In other words, repent.

And since the Lord had me give the original book to several institutional church leaders including RZIM and Allistair Begg, who are comatose dead asleep, to prove to you that this is the state of the entire institutional church, “dead” (Rev. 3:1, KJV), God is providing deliverance for His people through others—through those who’ll take Him seriously—while their lives are getting destroyed. These harlot church leaders, these hirelings, are either not elect or they’re going to be suffering some serious damage by having their eternal rewards destroyed entering life “as by fire” (1 Cor. 3:11 & 15 below). (That’s a no-brainer!)

And since I wrote this original book, God revealed to me the truth about Ravi Zacharias. He wasn’t elect. He was a great deceiver.

Moreover, since the body of Christ today is such a wreck, instead of humbling ourselves, we topped off the massacre of children with focus on changing laws rather than changing hearts so that Jesus again says to His disciples “Are ye also yet without understanding?” (Matt. 15:16). “Are you still so dull?” (Matt. 15:16, NIV). Even if Sandy Hook had been a total hoax—which it appears to have been—that too reveals how upside down we are!

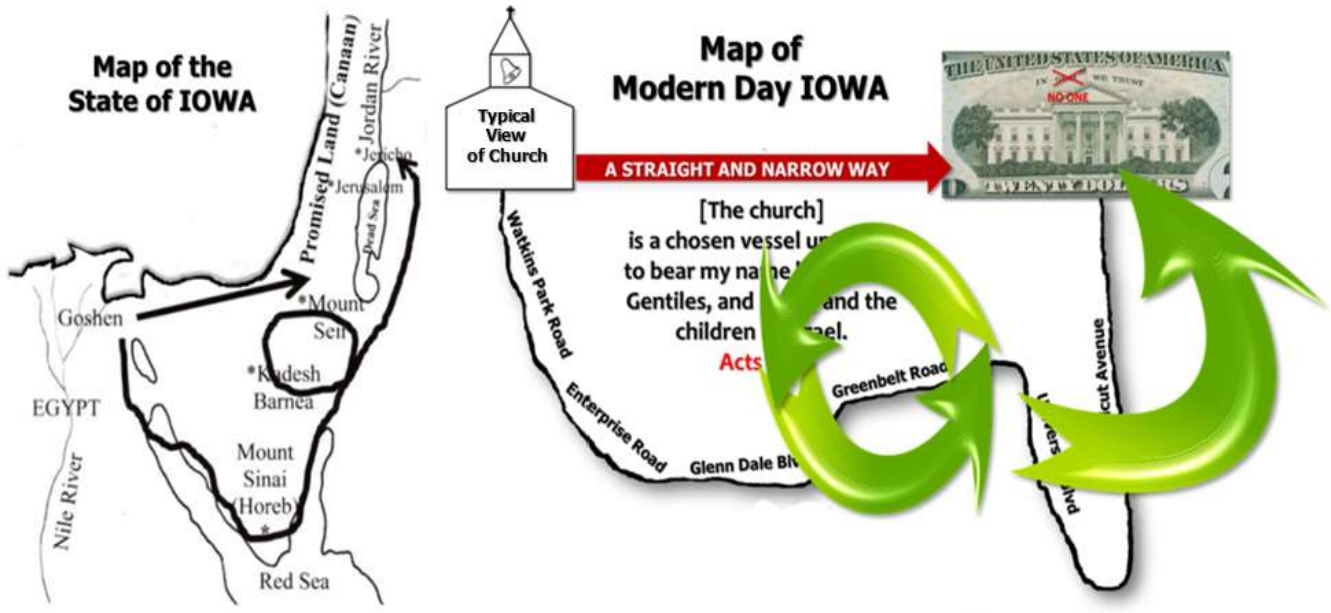

Since born again Christians have been granted the truth and know about God’s promises, good and bad, and about the spiritual war, “for we are not unaware of [Satan’s] schemes” (2 Cor. 2:11, KJV), and since so-called pastors have taken on the job of (supposedly) understanding the Bible best of all—clearly presenting themselves that way—born again harlot leaders are the most responsible for all of the garbage going on in the world today! As God says “The leaders of this people cause them to err; and they that are led of them are destroyed” (Isa. 9:16, KJV). And He’s obviously referring to spiritual leaders since “the person without the Spirit does not accept the things that come from the Spirit of God but considers them foolishness, and cannot understand them because they are discerned only through the Spirit” (1 Cor. 2:14, NIV). Genuine wisdom comes from God “a Spirit” (John 4:24, NIV).

At the same time, Americans as a whole are highly responsible because we have been extremely blessed by God since “every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father” (James 1:17, KJV). This nation has lived in luxury compared to most. And all have a duty to both God and man, because even the worst suffering in this nation still hardly compares to much of what’s been taking place around the world for generations. And a good portion of that suffering has been directly related to our American lifestyle.

And Christianity today hangs around Glenn Dale and Greenbelt—the pits and where we’re idiotically immature. It’s a re-run. The Old Testament IOWA map looks something like the U.S. version even at the point of entry into the Promised Land. It’s no coincidence, because history is always repeating itself and God is making His point. The Old Testament Idiots honored Satan because they didn’t have the ability to discern the difference between this creature who “masquerades as an angel of light” (2 Cor. 11:14, NIV) and God most High. Yet while the born again today have that ability, we’ve still honored Satan, lacked discernment, because we’ve allowed “the deceitfulness of riches [to] choke the word [so that it’s] become...unfruitful” (Matt. 13:22, KJV).

As genuine Christians know, coincidences do not exist according to the Bible, and we are a bunch of Idiots! (Read the New Testament.) God made it so easy for us and would have blessed us like crazy had we been faithful. But instead we threw it all away and caused outrageous suffering for millions.

May YOU stop hardening your heart and listen to the One who’s loved you like no other. He has the power to hand you over to Satan who can squash you like a bug! Jesus says “Do not fear those who are killing the body, yet are not able to kill the soul. Yet be fearing Him, rather, Who is able to destroy the soul as well as the body in Gehenna” (Matt. 10:28, CLT). He wasn’t talking about fearing Him or hell as the non literal translation say. He was speaking of fearing Satan and a place on earth, what Satan can do to you on this earth. We are to fear God enough that we obey Him for a better outcome both on earth and then in the afterlife. “Godliness is profitable unto all things, having promise of the life that now is, and of that which is to come” (1 Tim. 4:8, KJV). We earn “a better resurrection” (Heb. 11:35, KJV) by honoring Christ. On the other hand, don’t take God seriously and you’ll get brutally destroyed on earth and suffer the full measure of Satan’s wrath. I’d give it some serious thought.

