I READ THE KING JAMES " ONLY "

This graphic someone else made sums up the mindset of many "conservative" Christians.

However, the Bible wasn't written in English but in Hebrew, Aramaic, and Greek.

In 1604, England's King James I authorized a new translation of the Bible aimed at settling some thorny religious differences in his kingdom—and solidifying his own power. Mar 22, 2019

Why the King James Bible of 1611 Remains the Most Popular ...

<https://www.history.com/news/king-james-bible-most-popular>

James convened the Hampton Court Conference, where a new English version was conceived in response to the problems of the earlier translations perceived by the Puritans,^[6] a faction of the Church of England.^[7]

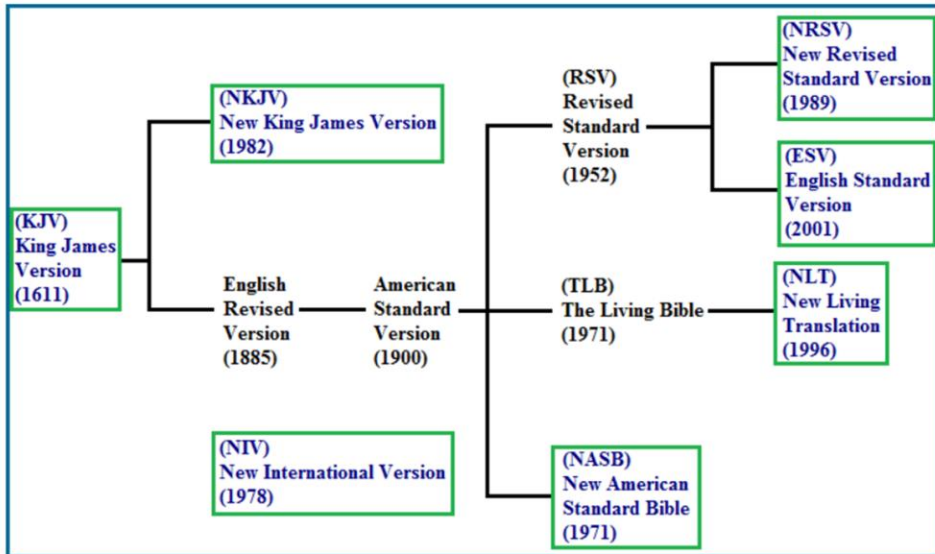

James gave the translators instructions intended to ensure that the new version would conform to the ecclesiology of, and reflect the episcopal structure of, the Church of England and its belief in an ordained clergy.^[8]

The translation was done by 47 scholars, all of whom were members of the Church of England.^[9] In common with most other translations of the period, the New Testament was translated from Greek, the Old Testament from Hebrew and Aramaic, and the Apocrypha from Greek and Latin. In the Book of Common Prayer (1662), the text of the Authorized Version replaced the text of the Great Bible for Epistle and Gospel readings (but not for the Psalter, which substantially retained Coverdale's Great Bible version), and as such was authorised by Act of Parliament.^[10]

And there are some very serious problems with the King James Bible translation summed up in the blurbs from the web. The fact is that the translators weren't submitting to King Jesus/Yeshua but King James, a mere—and quite sinful mortal, apparently. It seems he may have been a Freemason and homosexual. And the fact that the Bible wasn't written in English is enough for the genuine Christian to NOT view any translation as if it's the authoritative Word of God.

Bible Translation Revisions

The following illustration shows how these direct and indirect English bible translations originated:

And most, if not all, English translations have come from the King James version.

Since I know none of the original languages of the Bible and the Lord gave me this ministry, He's had me use many translations over the past three decades since I was born again in 1988, and He's had me use two literal translations as my litmus test—the Concordant (CLT) and Young's (YLT).

John 4:24

Translation	Wording	Translation	Wording
NIV	must worship in spirit and in truth	ERV	must worship in spirit and truth
NLT	must worship in spirit and in truth	Good News	only by the power of his Spirit can people worship him as he really is

Contemporary	must be led by the Spirit to worship him according to the truth	Smith Literal	must worship in spirit and truth

And, the thing is, that most the translations make it clear that we MUST worship God in Spirit and in truth (John 4:24).

And its not what born again Christians have historically done—nor what we're doing today. Rather, today's born again Christians are the worst hypocrites the world has ever known!

How to Become Born Again—A Genuine Christian

If we do this

God does this

- 1 Jesus...said...If a man love me, he will keep my words:
- 2 and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him,
- 3 and make our abode with him.
John 14:23, KJV

The Holy Spirit...
God has given
to those who obey him.

John 10:30, KJV

Matthew 4:19, NIV

You will receive power
when the Holy Spirit
comes on you.
Acts 1:8, NIV

To worship God in Spirit means that we “must be born again” (John 3:7, KJV). I go over this in another tract/video called Born Again.

The person without the Spirit does not accept the things that come from the Spirit of God
but considers them foolishness,
and cannot understand them
because they are discerned
only through the Spirit.
1 Corinthians 2:14, NIV

One of the reasons we “must” be born again is because if we’re not, we’ll totally miss what God is saying, or that He’s even speaking.

And to worship God in “truth” means that what we’ve heard—the way we’re interpreting what we think God is saying—lines up with the new covenant Christ made with His life (Luke 22:20, NIV) since it’s the covenant all of humanity is under.

But it's not what "the body of Christ" (1 Cor. 12:27, KJV) has historically done nor what we're doing today—both to our shame and with pretty serious consequences for all. Just look around.

WORD

A person dressed as Santa Claus, wearing a red hat and a white beard, is riding a motorcycle. The motorcycle is on a road that appears to be on fire or has a fiery glow. In the background, there are dark, jagged rock formations under a dramatic, cloudy sky. A speech bubble is positioned in the foreground, containing a prayer.

Holy Father,
convict the born again—
the body of Christ today—
to acknowledge and repent
of our lack of faithfulness.
