I made this booklet into a video, provided at the following link:
<https://youtu.be/xZRZeinVwvo>.

The video is much more thorough since on it I read this booklet and expound on the text, remind you of things you may have forgotten or not been aware of, and walk through graphics. I put the breakdown with timestamps in the video's description box along with a PDF file of the booklet since there are benefits to both paper and liquid text. This booklet sums up the core of what God is saying, or so I discern, having taken my thoughts captive to Christ (2 Cor. 10:5).

The Bible Translations

Scriptures used clearly convey the original meaning, either in the New International Version (NIV), the English Standard Version (ESV), the King James Version (KJV), Young's Literal Translation (YLT) or the Concordant Literal Translation (CLT). Not knowing the original languages in which the Bible was written, the Lord has me using Young's and the Concordant as my baseline.

Dear Angela,

I had Nathan's picture up in the living room til 2019 reminding me to pray for you, but finally took it down. I gave up on you. But, God didn't (Rom. 8:38-39). As a whole "the body of Christ" (1 Cor. 12:27, KJV) has fulfilled "the rebellion" as He informed us we would before His return, "the day of the Lord" (2 Thess. 2:2-3, NIV). Getting us back on track through the promised "latter rain" (Joel 2:23, KJV) is what Nathan's life was about.

Having had us cross paths 25 years ago, you and I have been running full speed in the opposite direction. In turn, you've gained all the things of the world of which I have none. But I've gained a very close relationship with Christ, which you don't have since "no one can serve two masters" (Matt. 6:24, NIV). Angela, either I'm a true prophet as you exclaimed in Indy, or you're a false prophet for having said so. But you're not a false prophet. You're in rebellion along with the body of Christ.

And since God "disciplines the one he loves" (Heb. 12:6, ESV), in early November He led me by the Spirit to write you a letter. Then, showing me your book, He had me mirror that since it's what we've done as a group—dismissed Him. As revealed by your book cover, He "works out everything in conformity with the purpose of his will" (Eph. 1:11, NIV). He's taken all of Satan's schemes along with our sins as well as our heartaches and worked them all out for His purposes and our good. Except we don't benefit from it unless we receive His correction and earnestly repent. You know this.

All that said, Nathan has the potential of humbling you and getting you to fulfill your calling, which in turn would allow him to live up to his name, Gift from God. It will be a huge gift for humanity to have the body of Christ actually function as "the light of the world" (Matt. 5:14, KJV). Whether you honor Christ and Nathan or not, God will still send the latter rain. But godly sorrow leaves NO REGRET (2 Cor. 7:10). We have to love the truth as revealed by Christ more than our opinions. In any case, this booklet, which is a summary, makes it very clear that this was why God allowed Nathan's suffering and death. I expound on it in several free books and lots of videos awaiting God's "appointed time" (Hab. 2:3, KJV). All you need to do in order to see it from God's perspective is be honest.

Prayer Journal Excerpt from Acts

The Spirit intercedes for the saints according to the will of God.

—Romans 8:27, ESV

³⁹ For ^(BO)the promise is for you and ^(BP)for your children and for all ⁰who are far off, everyone ^(BR)whom the Lord our God calls to himself.”

Remind Angela that You have called her and that only those who obey get chosen for greater service since “it is required that those who have been given a trust must prove faithful” (1 Cor. 4:2, NIV).

⁴⁰ And with many other words he bore witness and continued to exhort them, saying, ^(BS)“Save yourselves from this ^(BT)crooked generation.”

Convict Angela to save herself from this very crooked generation, to do more than just get “saved...as by fire” (1 Cor. 3:15). Like the prodigal in the pig pen, make her come to her senses and run back to You.

⁴¹ So those who received his word were baptized, and ^(BU)there were added that day about three thousand souls.

Help Angela receive Your word reminding her that she’s been baptized. Convict her to turn her back on Satan’s world and be numbered among Christ’s followers (Matt. 12:30). Deliver her from the demonic spirits she allowed into her life (Matt. 12:43-45). Convict her to remove the beams from her eyes so that she can see clearly (Matt. 7:5). Break her heart over her sins so that she cries even harder than she did at Nathan’s funeral, genuinely broken over her unfaithfulness (2 Cor. 7:10). Use Angela to add souls to Your kingdom beyond what we could count, for Your glory, the good of Your people, for her own good, and so that Nathan’s life reflects Your victory and not our rebellion.

⁴² And ^(BV)they devoted themselves to the apostles’ ^(BW)teaching and the ^(BX)fellowship, to ^(BY)the breaking of bread and the prayers.

Raise up followers of Christ who devote ourselves in the manner You meant. Begin the full blown latter rain (Joel 2:23) in this most important area of the world so that others see Christ in it and also devote themselves to Your work and fellowship.

⁴³ And awe ^(d)came upon every soul, and ^(BZ)many wonders and signs were being done through the apostles.

Make awe come upon every elect soul through the work You are doing. Make Angela part of the solution and no longer part of the problem. Make her a woman of noble character so all elect who currently know her stand in awe of You like they did 2000 years ago when they ADMIRE^d the believers (Acts 2:47). Use her to bring real healing to this suffering world so that Your elect finally worship in Spirit and in truth (John 4:24).

For Nathan and Angela.

May God's gift through Nathan be that you get convicted and experience godly sorrow since that would bless the whole Family.

*Whoever heeds discipline shows the way to life, but whoever ignores correction leads others astray.
—Proverbs 10:17, NIV*

Preface

When I'd been born again for a decade, in 1997, right before you and I got to know each other in Indiana, the Lord was enlightening me to my calling. The following passage sums it up best having specifically asked Him about it:

The LORD answered me, and said, Write the vision, and make it plain upon tables, that he may run that readeth it. For the vision is yet for an appointed time, but at the end it shall speak, and not lie: though it tarry, wait for it (Hab. 2:2-3, KJV).

Having fallen into “rebellion” (2 Thess. 2:3, NIV), the body of Christ has historically been deceived by countless numbers of false prophets and false teachers, “hired hand[s who] care...nothing for the sheep” (John 10:13, ESV). In turn, the Gospel message we were taught isn't even good! Yet the real Gospel message—the vision of what God has actually done through Christ—is very good news for EVERYONE God created. [But I'm not saying everyone gets saved during this “present evil age” (Gal. 1:4, YLT) as is taught by left-wing pseudo Christians.] If the born again had “take[n] captive every thought to make it obedient to Christ” (2 Cor. 10:5, NIV), no one could have misled us. So doing it is how we stop being misled.

When the Lord called me to start speaking up for Him in writing to Christians in 1997, He prepped me for it saying “When you tell them all this, they will not listen to you” (Jer. 7:27, NIV). So that's exactly how it's gone. For example, when He had me reach out to André right before Covid, he wouldn't even receive the book the Lord had me write for him—and was super ice cold. On my part it's been because our calling is first and foremost about building up our relationship with Him. Through this process of studying His word and spelling it out for others in writing, receiving their cold-hearted silent treatment or iceberg unbiblical remarks, He's further enlightened me. God's timing also isn't ours. For instance, if the Father should answer anyone's prayers it would be the Lord's prayer for the born again to be united as one (John 17:21). But 2000 years later that still hasn't happened! And it hasn't because He's making the point that the human “heart is deceitful above all things” (Jer. 17:9, KJV)—even when born again. “The world has [to be] crucified to [us], and [us] to the world” (Gal. 6:14, ESV). And that's impossible to do while living for the world. So while Christians along with the lost have rebuked me for decades for not living for the world, there are very clear benefits for doing what Jesus told us to do, as revealed throughout the New Testament and made clearer in this text.

Why Would Nathan Make a Difference?

Other than those first disciples and Paul, no one since then has seen the Lord, much less spent any time with Him in the flesh. Combined with the fact that our hearts are “deceitful above all things” (Jer. 17:9, KJV), we’ve easily turned a blind eye to His suffering—to what He did for us. In contrast, even though Nathan spent very little time on earth, you spent about a full year of quality time physically with him.

- You carried him inside of your body for months.
- You suffered physical pain for him.
- You prayed over him.
- You painted him that bright yellow room.
- You cried over him.
- You delivered him.
- You named him.
- You held him.
- You kissed him.
- You fed him.
- You ministered to him.
- You heard his cries.
- You cuddled and comforted him.
- You were ministered to because of him.
- You fought for him.
- You buried him.
- You’ve mourned him.
- And more!

None of us have that with Christ.

Sure, we’ve cried real tears and been broken hearted at times over Him... But, clearly, having had Nathan in your life and knowing that you’ll see him again soon should make a difference. The only way it wouldn’t is if your heart has been hardened beyond repair in this world. Maybe you’ll be like André and not even open the envelope. Or take offense because I’m praying for you, or how I’m praying... While God could soften your heart since all things are possible for Him (Matt. 19:26) He gave us a measure of free will. If you are reading this, you should pray like the guy who “cried out and said, “I believe; help my unbelief!”” (Mark 9:24, ESV).

God, the One and Only

Clearly, a bit of review is required. God actually made it obvious for our generation to know that Jesus represents Him and “no other” (Isa. 45:5, NIV). He did it by having Him fulfill 351 Old Testament Messianic prophecies. It’s obvious because several decades ago Peter Stoner proved that it would be way easier to win the lottery than for one person to fulfill just eight of those prophecies—and Jesus fulfilled 351 of them. Humanity’s problem is that “the heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked” (Jer. 17:9, KJV). The Lord has proven this point through none other than “the body of Christ” (1 Cor. 12:27, KJV), the group He entrusted to be “the light of the world” (Matt. 5:14, NIV). While calling ourselves believers or even followers of Christ, as a group we haven’t obeyed Him for 2000 years! In other words, we’ve been much worse hypocrites than the Pharisees since we were given His Spirit inside of us along with the completed Bible for centuries. On top of that, our generation was given great inexpensive technology for Bible study and to very quickly communicate His message. Yet, as a group, we’re the worst!

Odds of winning the lottery
1 in 259,000,000

Odds of one man fulfilling
8 prophecies about the Messiah
1 in 100,000,000,000,000,000

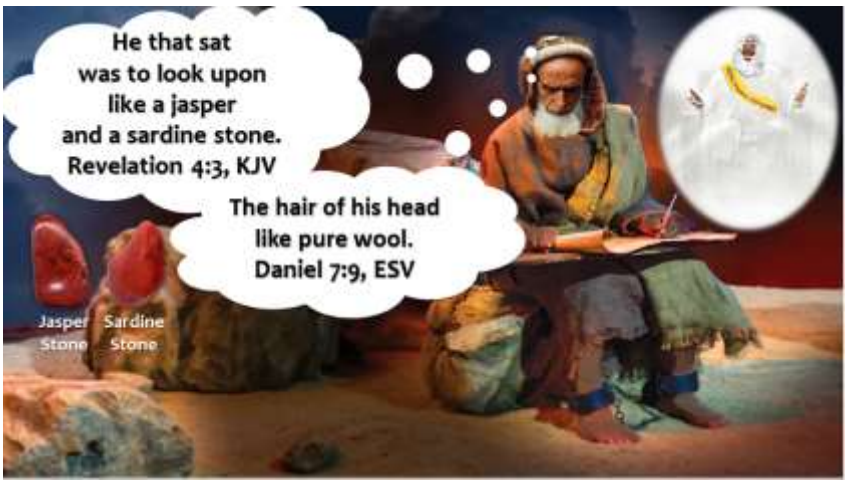

Science Reveals Him. Since “God is a Spirit” (John 4:24, KJV)—and for other reasons explained here—He challenged us to “live by faith, not by sight” (2 Cor. 5:7, NIV). Having wholeheartedly accepted the challenge, He revealed to me that He split like a cell so as to end up with Father and Son.

He then placed His Spirit inside of a woman in order to accomplish His purpose in humanity. And, again, science reveals God’s manner with in vitro fertilization and surrogacy.

Jesus was Black: The Bible clearly reveals that the risen Christ and, therefore, the Hebrews/Israelites were a people of color (Rev. 4:3 & Dan. 7:9 in the graphic). The documentary Hebrews to Negroes (2018) reveals how humanity was deceived. However, the group Hebrew Israelites is a cult according to the “new covenant” (Luke 22:20, NIV)—as are all denominations. (I used one of those stones to make my picture of Jesus’ face.)

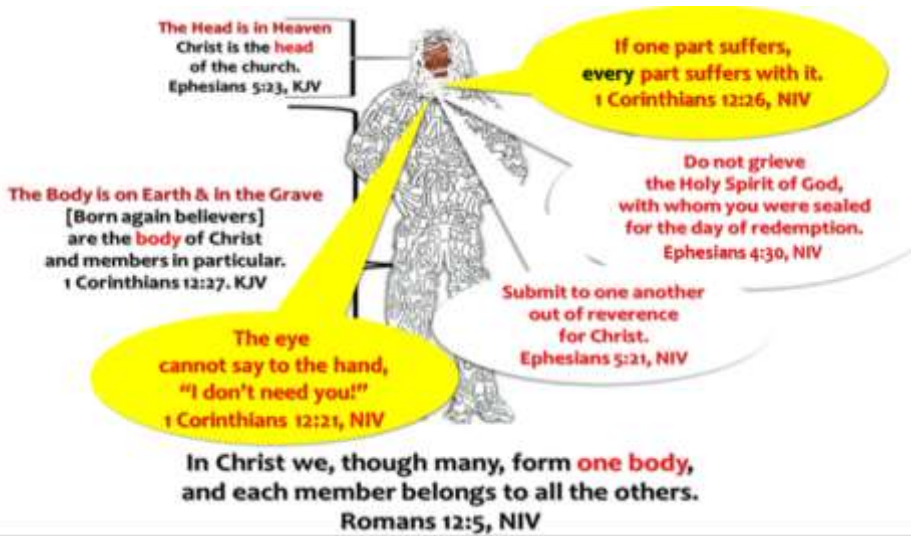

Born Again

While 80% of Americans call themselves Christian according to polls, Jesus says “Narrow is the way” and “few there be that find it” (Matt. 7:14, KJV). It’s few because it requires obeying Christ long enough for Him to place His Spirit inside of us (Acts 5:32 in the graphic), empowering us to continually do what unsaved unbelievers can’t do (Acts 1:8 in the graphic). Since our hearts are “deceitful above all” (Jer. 17:9, KJV) we need God’s power simply to be able to live a life of obedience to Him who says “Work out your own salvation” (Phil. 2:12, ESV). Not putting the effort into it, we very quickly go astray.

Drawn Closer for Relationship. God made it clear through the New Testament that it’s about having a relationship with Him and not about religion. The closer the relationship we have with Him—the more faithful we are to Him—the better discernment we have and more we get used by Him. Likewise, the more distant we keep our relationship with Christ—the more unfaithful we are to Him—the poorer our discernment, and more we get used by Satan.

The Body of Christ. While every Christian has proudly and rudely dismissed me for 25 years, just like the lost, that's TOTALLY unbiblical because God called us to function as a group, "the body of Christ" (1 Cor 12:27, KJV), with "Christ [a]s the head" (Eph. 5:23, KJV) so that "the eye cannot say to the hand, "I have no need of you" (1 Cor. 12:21, ESV). By dismissing any member of the body we dismiss Him and draw closer to Satan.

Serving Satan. While Christians debate about whether you can be born again and demonic, most thinking you can't, 1 Corinthians 3:11-15 (below) clearly reveals that the born again can serve Satan since only the born again have the foundation of Christ. Those who get "saved...as by fire" weren't followers of Christ. And since Jesus says "Whoever does not gather with me scatters" (Matt. 12:30, ESV) they're serving "our adversary the devil" (Eph. 6:11, ESV). They're being demonic and antichrist while born again.

1 Corinthians 3:11-15, KJV For other foundation can no man lay than that is laid, which is Jesus Christ. Now if any man build upon this foundation...the fire shall try every man's work of what sort it is. If any man's work abide which he hath built thereupon, he shall receive a reward. If any man's work shall be burned, he shall suffer loss: but he himself shall be saved; yet so as by fire.

Blinded by Hypocritical Beams. Christian history as compared to “the new covenant” (Luke 22:20, NIV), as well as my life testimony especially of the last 25 years, reveals that the majority of born again Christians have totally blinded themselves with their hypocrisy (Matt. 7:5 in the graphic). Spiritually blinded by a load of hypocritical beams, today’s born again attribute the following passage to be speaking of the lost when it’s primarily speaking about professing Christians, those who only think they’re Christian as well as those who are actually born again:

In the last days...people will be lovers of self, lovers of money, proud, arrogant, abusive, disobedient to their parents, ungrateful, unholy, heartless, unappeasable, slanderous, without self-control, brutal, not loving good, treacherous, reckless, swollen with conceit, lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of God, having the appearance of godliness, but denying its power. Avoid such people (2 Tim. 3:1-5, ESV).

We have to “avoid such people” because “bad company ruins good morals” (1 Cor. 15:33, ESV). And there are several traits listed in the passage above that apply to you and which amount to beams (Matt. 7:5 in the graphic). There are also many other beams the born again have in their eyes blinding them for having dismissed Christ’s teachings.

So while I am technically “not able to speak to you as to spiritual, but as to fleshly—as to [a] babe...in Christ” (1 Cor. 3:1, YLT), this booklet is not only spiritual but meat as opposed to baby food. Therefore, in order for you to be able to swallow it, you have to remove the beams from your eyes. You have to be honest.

Anointed. I have NO DOUBT that I'd be just as rebellious and blind if not for God “who works out everything in conformity with the purpose of his will” (Eph. 1:11, ESV). I discern our rebellion is why God has allowed all the heartaches of the human experience. But you can't understand it when believing the fake vision of God's plan Churchianity has given us. The real plan of God—the true vision—will enable His elect of our generation to better appreciate the depth of the deceitful and wicked nature of the human heart (Jer. 17:9) which born again Christians have clearly NOT yet grasped.

Crucified with Christ. Maybe you recall being disgusted with a friend of yours who'd gotten so worldly that she had several pairs of white shorts. (I can't even imagine your closet today!) I'm that much more disgusted because as a group we've been such miserable “friends” to Jesus (John 15:15) that He'd like to “vomit [us] out of [His] mouth” (Rev. 3:16, YLT). And if you understood the damage we keep causing humanity, you would vomit. And if you're honest about it you will understand it by the end of this text.

But since our hearts are “deceitful above all” (Jer. 17:9, KJV) we have to make quite an effort to be honest. We have to crucify ourselves, “strike a blow to [our own] body and make it [our] slave” (1 Cor. 9:27, NIV). We have to do like Aron Ralston who hiked alone, got stuck between rocks, and had to cut off his own arm! It takes audacious determination. Therefore, Nathan should help you get the task done, especially when you realize how soon you'll be seeing him again. God helped me by having a dictatorship take over in our hometown of Santiago, Chile, while my dad was dying of cancer so that we lost him, our clan, our friends, our home, our country, and our mom who had to start working. As with Lazarus' premature death, these trials were allowed “for God's glory” (Luke 11:4, NIV).

The Master's Tool

While Christians talk about Satan being God's enemy, Satan is the Lord's tool. Jesus is a "carpenter" (Mark 6:3, NIV) and Satan is like His very powerful Swiss Army knife. The New Testament says "Hand this man over to Satan for the destruction of the flesh, so that his spirit may be saved on the day of the Lord" (1 Cor. 5:5, NIV). In turn, our "fellowship [with Christ is in] his sufferings" (Phil. 3:10, KJV).

This World's Ruler. We've been informed that Satan is "the ruler" (John 12:31, YLT) and "god of this world" (2 Cor. 4:4, KJV), and that he's "a murderer" and "liar" having been so from the very "beginning" (John 8:44, KJV). Logic also reveals that he has always been the ruler of this world, not just since Jesus informed us of the fact. We were also told that "war broke out in heaven...against the dragon" (Rev. 12:7, NIV) and that "the great dragon [is]...that ancient serpent called the devil, or Satan, who leads the whole world astray" (Rev. 12:9, NIV). War broke out because Satan said in his heart "I will be like the most High" (Isa. 14:14, KJV). And the reason he wanted to take God's place was because he was informed that God was making humans greater than him since "we will judge angels" (1 Cor. 6:3, NIV). Satan couldn't stand the thought of it for being "the seal of perfection" (Ezek. 28:11, NIV). God, therefore, "hurled [Satan] to the earth, and his angels with him" (Rev. 12:9, NIV) for two reasons:

1. As a Demotion: It was a demotion/punishment for Satan and his followers not only because they were kicked out of heaven but because "all angels [were created to be] ministering spirits sent to serve those who will inherit salvation" (Heb. 1:14, NIV). And all of God's created beings are most satisfied when we're fulfilling our calling. Being evil isn't Satan's calling any more than being rebellious is ours. It's what we are when not honoring God—undisciplined.

2. For a Revelation: It was to reveal to humans that we're much more like Satan than like Christ. This life has been a test (Deut. 13:3 below and on the back cover) and born again Christians have proven—better than anyone—that we've failed it miserably, as God knew we would (2 Thess. 2:2-3 below).

Deuteronomy 13:3, NIV The LORD your God is testing you to find out whether you love him with all your heart and with all your soul.

2 Thessalonians 2:2-3, NIV The day of the Lord...will not come until the rebellion occurs.

The Day of the Lord: God calls it a day because He has paralleled “the present evil age” (Gal. 1:4, YLT) with a week since to Him “a day is like a thousand years, and a thousand years are like a day” (2 Pet. 3:8, NIV)—summed up with the top of the graphic. Living at the end of Day 6, an antichrist spirit has subdued the earth. Clearly! A universe that's billions of years old is a satanic lie introduced by Jesuits, specifically Georges Lemaître, and kept alive by Nazi's whom the CIA placed in charge of NASA with Operation Paperclip in 1945. That spirit remains in charge since Satan rules this world and even born again Christians have no problem going along with his ways.

Light and Darkness Separated	Land and Water Separated	Land Yields Seed-Bearing Fruit	Greater & Lesser Lights Created	Sea Creatures & Birds Created	Told to Subdue the Earth	Sabbath Rest
Day 1	Day 2	Day 3	Day 4	Day 5	Day 6	Day 7
Fall of Man	Noah's Flood	Seed Promised	Seed Delivered	Called to Fish for Men	Antichrist Subdues Earth	Day of Rest Age of Christ

A Spiritual War Zone. To one degree or another, the body of Christ as a whole has dismissed God’s warnings about the brutal fight we’re in with “the forces of evil in the heavenly realms” (Eph. 6:12, NIV) which has helped “deceive the nations” (Rev. 20:3, KJV) and kept us all in Satan’s grip. Dismissing our Commander in Chief, most of His troops haven’t been wearing their combat gear, “the whole armour of God” (Eph. 6:11, KJV), rebuking or dismissing those of us who do wear it! (And the reason I wear it is because God allowed the forces of evil to SCARE THE MESS OUT OF ME when I became born again.)

The Rebellion

“Mak[ing] known the end from the beginning” (Isa. 46:10, NIV), God foretold that the body of Christ would rebel against Him (2 Thess. 2:3 in the graphic). He was clearly speaking of the body of Christ/the born again since the literal translation calls it “the falling away” (YLT) and unbelievers can’t fall away from a belief they never had. It’s born again Christians who have increasingly dismissed the teachings of Christ so that it’s been a snowball effect taking place over the course of the last 2000 years.

You have a reputation for being alive, but you are dead.
Revelation 3:1, NIV

The day of the Lord...will not come until the rebellion occurs.
2 Thessalonians 2:1-3, NIV

In the depths of rebellion, from the moment I was born again I've been rebuked for following Christ BY CHRISTIANS—many of whom I discern were born again. Like the lost, you all accuse me of taking Jesus too seriously, being legalistic, and needing psych counseling, even being schizophrenic. You scoffed at me for not wanting to dishonoring Christ by attending your infant's baptism while admitting it was unbiblical. At your house for pizza, you expressed great admiration for those “strong women” who find their strength in themselves, like you, when we're supposed to find it (along with our direction) in Christ, as you once professed to know. Again, today's born again have no problem whatsoever dismissing Christ. Even when it's pointed out to them they defend Satan! Because, the “heart is deceitful above all things” (Jer. 17:9, KJV).

The Light Gone Dark. Our rebellion has been a problem for humanity because we were the ones God entrusted with the truth in order to be “the light of the world” (Matt. 5:14, ESV) by becoming followers of Christ (Matt. 4:19, ESV) fulfilling His commission to “make disciples...teaching them to obey everything [He]...commanded” (Matt. 28:19-20, NIV). Instead, we've been helping Satan continue to cause outrageous suffering worldwide besides helping him “deceive the nations” (Rev. 20:3, KJV). In short, the body of Christ has caused the “great tribulation” (Matt. 24:21, ESV) because all we had to do—something the lost have not been empowered to do (Acts 1:8)—was submit to God resisting the devil's temptations, and Satan would have had to flee! (James 4:7). While the fallen angels would still have worked through the lost, the damage done would have been substantially less. My guess is that we would have won the lost elect over because the real Gospel message, as covered in this text, is supremely better than deceived Christians have peddled for most of the past 2000 years.

A God Greater than Our Sins

Since our rebellion is a spectrum of disobedience, in 2001 Frank Viola and George Barna published Pagan Christianity: Exploring the Roots of Our Church Practices. But, living like pagans, it's been mostly ignored. It's a mess we were all born into which has taken a nose dive the last two decades in spite of the book having exposed the truth the same year as the 9/11 attacks, timing which should have softened hearts. (A year or two before showing me the book—about ten years ago—God had me sum it up on this table, confirming I'd discerned correctly by showing me the book.)

Raised Up for Good Works. I discern that while “created in Christ Jesus to do good works, which God prepared in advance for us to do” (Eph. 2:10, NIV), rather than earnestly seek Him about your work, like most, you decided for yourself. And since God gave Satan “all authority [on earth]...and [he] can give [it] to anyone [he] wants to” (Luke 4:6, NIV), it was Satan who gave you the authority to become a doctor. Here’s another reason why I discern that. Except for a surgeon treating trauma, for example, most of the work a physician does keeps people away from God and cannot, therefore, have come from God. It keeps people away because He’s the One who heals all our diseases (Ps. 103:3). Except there’s no money in prescribing the symbolic Red Pill, and you guys are steeped in “the love of money” (1 Tim. 6:10, ESV). Even those who aren’t, like Dr. Michael Greger (www.nutritionfacts.org), are still far from the Man who is “the truth” (John 14:6, NIV). And “Christian” doctors healing with nutrition instead of pills are either Adventists, honoring a false prophet, or in rebellion. God knows if any of them are born again, but it’s clear that they’re not pointing people to Christ—at least not the pure Christ.

Since God has taken all of our sins and Satan’s schemes and used them for His purposes (Eph. 1:11), the late Dr. Lorraine Day—surgeon and Seventh Day Adventist—has a very convicting study concerning medicine in section 13 of her book Who Rewrote the Bible? In short, through the name of Jesus anyone can “gain perfect health” (Acts 3:16, ESV). Jesus and the disciples NEVER sent anyone to a human doctor of any kind because it’s as He said, “Whoever believes in me will also do the works that I do” (John 14:12, ESV). But the body of Christ has proven that we don’t really believe in Him and are, therefore, mostly not doing those healing works.

Shifting Blame & Allegiance: “The one who has the power of death, that is, the devil” (Heb. 2:14, ESV)—whom you’ve been honoring. My guess is you did what nearly all initially do when bad things happen—blamed God for Nathan’s death. Even though you praised Him right afterwards, you haven’t lived for Him. Again, I discern God allowed Nathan’s death to convict you to get right with Him since you’ll be facing both of them very soon. And, as it stands right now, neither will be telling you Well done. To hear that you have to STOP honoring the enemy of our souls. You’ve spent decades serving Satan’s world and “anyone who chooses to be a friend of the world becomes an enemy of God” (James 4:4, NIV). You’re being used by him in his conspiracy to replace God with medicine. And God says “Not by might nor by power, but by my Spirit” (Zech. 4:6, NIV). If He’s called you to be a healer, it’s by His Spirit. And He’s revealing through this booklet that He is calling you to be great healer! And all that’s required is faithfulness to Christ your Maker.

Reggie’s work is an even better example of the lie concerning work. Like André, Reggie says “I’m still a believer.” But that’s clearly not good enough since “devils also believe” (James 2:19, KJV). And Reggie’s work is for the Department of Defense to help people kill. He admitted it about his own work. Yet the One he believes in says “Love your enemies” (Matt. 5:44, KJV), as in Don’t kill.

This is what God meant in saying “If you do not stand firm in your faith [if you water it down and dismiss Him], you will not stand at all” (Isa. 7:9, NIV). Angela, get up and make Nathan’s life count!

A Gap of Knowledge and Fellowship. Christian rebellion has worked like this graphic. You and I had fellowship in Christ 25 years ago, as I did with others so that they often said things like “You’re on fire for God!” and viewed it as a good thing. But having hearts that are “deceitful above all things” (Jer. 17:9, KJV), most born again—speaking from loads of experience—only receive a Word from the Lord when it’s positive. But when it’s a rebuke, they immediately adamantly reject it like a spoiled immature six year old! Choosing their own will, they’ve chosen to follow Satan rather than Christ so that “many [born again today] live as enemies of the cross of Christ” (Phil. 3:18, NIV). Yet, as modeled by the Lord, our response should be “Not as I will, but as you will” (Matt. 26:36, ESV) no matter how hard: death on a cross; quitting a job; letting go of friends or family members who reject Christ, etc. Instead, not only do most born again Christians do their own will, they justify their choice to disobey Christ then accuse the one God is using to hold them accountable of not honoring Christ (like a six year old). It’s as he warned us:

When the unclean spirit has gone out of a person, it passes through waterless places seeking rest, but finds none. Then it says, ‘I will return to my house from which I came.’ And when it comes, it finds the house empty, swept, and put in order. Then it goes and brings with it seven other spirits more evil than itself, and they enter and dwell there, and the last state of that person is worse than the first” (Matt. 12:43-45, ESV).

Having seen it happen repeatedly, I picture it like if we were born with an empty gas tank inside of us (like those used for the outdoor grill). We all start out having it filled with our own hot air since we are spiritually “dead in...our transgressions and sins” (Eph. 2:1, NIV). Becoming born again that air is replaced with the Holy Spirit, a powerful gas. However, if we don’t consistently take our thoughts captive to Christ (2 Cor. 10:5) and work out our own salvation (Phil. 2:12), we quickly start running off fumes since He will “never leave” us (Heb. 13:5, ESV). While born again, we end up with something like an empty tank having quenched the Spirit of God against the walls of our tank (1 Thess. 5:19). And since we have no doubt that we know the Truth (John 14:6), yet—also—have a deceitful heart (Jer. 17:9), we refuse to repent allowing all those wicked spirits to enter our lives ending up worse than before being born again!

So while in Indiana, where born again Christians walked closer to the Lord than here, I repeatedly heard Christian women say they knew the Lord wanted them to homeschool but wouldn’t because...it was inconvenient. They’d dismissed Christ’s teaching which tells us that being His disciple is the MOST INCONVENIENT way of life there is on this earth since it’s like carrying our own cross (Luke 14:27 NIV), that thing on which He was brutally crucified. Dismissing Christ, “broad is the way...to destruction” (Matt. 7:13, KJV). He’s not talking about hell but ruined lives. There are many ruined lives including among the body of Christ.

Yet relying on the Lord—activating our faith—He always makes a way for us as He’s done for me these 36 years that I’ve been born again. For instance, Reggie didn’t want me to homeschool either. In fact, from the beginning of our relationship he’s played Devil’s Advocate so that he was having unmarried sex with me while I was a seeker; wanted me to rely on pills instead of Christ; not share my testimony; not start gardening because “Nothing’s gonna grow” (in our clay soil with mostly shade), which was hardly true and clearly God’s leading since He’s taught me loads through it. In short, Reggie has consistently been a stumbling block to me when God says “Decide never to put a stumbling block...in the way of a brother” (Rom. 14:13, ESV). Again, God has been working it all out for His purposes and our good (Eph. 1:11).

Like you Reggie has paralleled what most of the body of Christ has been doing for the last 2000 years! Rather than leading people to Christ and helping them grow in Christ, as a group we've BLOCKED the way! Had the majority done the good works God called us to do, set out to fulfill His calling and received His rebukes and direction, as a group we would have been a huge blessing for the rest of humanity—which all Christians know is exactly what He intended.

Storing Treasure. Dismissing Christ, born again Christians have sold themselves short by “lay[ing] up for yourselves treasures on earth...[instead of] in heaven” (Matt. 6:19-20, ESV). Making money and a name for yourself here only lasts a few short years whereas storing treasure in heaven lasts 1000 years, if not longer (summed up on the graphic). It might be longer since we're told “they shall reign—to the ages of the ages” (Rev. 22:5, YLT) and not just a thousand years (Rev. 20:4 in the graphic). In any case, I discern that treasure amounts to our position in His kingdom (Matt. 20:23 in the graphic). Maybe the Father had prepared a ‘seat’ for me in His Son’s High Court, but because I lived for myself instead of for my Lord and Savior I’ll end up bringing in the carts at the grocery store from the parking lot—for 1000 years! I’ll be deliriously happy for having made it into His kingdom but seriously kicking myself for having been so shallow and ungrateful.

The Millennial Reign of Christ

Many who are first will be last, and the last first. Matthew 19:30, ESV

To sit on my right hand, and on my left... is prepared of my Father. Matthew 20:23, KJV

They came to life and reigned with Christ a thousand years. Revelation 20:4, NIV

Every man shall receive his own reward according to his own labour. 1 Corinthians 3:8, KJV

Led By the Spirit

Since there are certain things only the born again will ever say or do, I know that like you Reggie is born again. I know you are because you once discerned I'm a prophet (the first one) and also got convicted for not answering the call to prayer—came over crying about it. And having specifically asked the Lord what part of the body of Christ Reggie was (in 1998) and immediately given a very clear vision in response, I know he's born again even though there's next to nothing to reveal it other than the vision God gave me. And God would not have given me the vision if he wasn't born again since he would NOT have been any part of the body of Christ. It was a vision of a very muscular backbone like you'd see in an anatomy book, the muscles vibrant and glistening. It makes sense because he's been ill all this time with neurosarcoidosis yet funding a ministry which will benefit the entire body of Christ during its time of greatest need. Without a muscular backbone the body of Christ would remain an ineffective wet noodle with “a reputation for being alive [yet spiritually]...dead” (Rev. 3:1, ESV). It's like the Lord's Bride is in a coma. As good as dead but not really dead so that He's saying “Wake up!” (Rev. 3:2, NIV).

Connecting the Dots. Since “he upholds the universe by the word of his power” (Heb. 1:3, ESV), God has coordinated everything for everyone all the time. Christians sing about it like in the song The Reason, by Unspoken: If we could pull back the curtain of Heaven We would see His hand on everything Every hour, every minute, every second, He's always been in it... Except when you point out the connections to them, they call you nuts since they can't see them. And they can't for being proud rebellious hypocrites blinded by beams in their eyes (Matt. 7:5). Most born again today lack the interest and, therefore, the discernment to connect even the most basic dots!

But, working out His purposes (Eph. 1:11), God gave me both the interest and, therefore, the discernment to connect many of the dots in my life as they relate to this calling. And as far as my husband goes, the Lord made it clear—again through a vision a week or two after I begged Him to take over my life—that Reggie was the man I was to marry (and not the other guy), mirroring Himself with his name which means king, and in skin tone, having said “Thy Maker is thine husband” (Isa. 54:5, KJV). He’s also mirrored Himself in Reggie’s character, at least in part, since he’s the mellowest man I’ve ever met, unlike most men who are rough and ooze arrogance. And Jesus is “gentle and humble” (Matt. 11:29, NIV).

Start here 19:00 For another example of the Spirit’s leading and dot connection, I picked Psalm 67 (below) for our wedding from the poetry book Reggie’s father, who married us gave me to choose from (a so-called lay pastor). But I didn’t realize until a decade later what God meant through it. It wasn’t until 1997 (8 years later) that I became a fully devoted follower of Christ. Before that I’d been like the typical carnal born again Christian, only slightly better since I was actively looking for answers to my many questions and honoring the truth as it was revealed to me—though not entirely. Finding myself home with two babies in Indianapolis in a mixed marriage got me moving faster in the right direction—and receiving the answers.

*May God be gracious to us and bless us and make his face to shine upon us, that your way may be known on earth,
your saving power among all nations.
Let the peoples praise you, O God;
let all the peoples praise you!
Let the nations be glad and sing for joy, for you judge the peoples with equity and guide the nations upon earth.
Let the peoples praise you, O God;
let all the peoples praise you!
The earth has yielded its increase;
God, our God, shall bless us.
God shall bless us;
let all the ends of the earth fear him!*
—Psalm 67, ESV

Knowing by faith that God will be using this marriage to begin the full blown “latter rain” (Joel 2:23, KJV), covered further in the text, our wedding passage, Psalm 67, won’t be fulfilled til the next age, which according to Bible prophecy is just a few years away, in our lifetime—also covered in the text. And the nations won’t “fear” the Lord because He’s a tyrant as so many preach without even realizing what they’re saying, so brainwashed with lies. They’ll respect Him because He’s just and holy. When the Bible says He’ll “rule them with an iron scepter and will dash them to pieces like pottery” (Rev. 2:27, NIV) it’s figurative language concerning a shepherd’s tool, the rod (Ps. 23:4), and how shards of pottery were used, dashed to pieces of powder to line pottery jars making them waterproof. It points to the Spirit, the “living water” (John 7:38, NIV), no longer being wasted.

Cold Love isn’t Love! Maybe you remember a conversation we had one time when we met for prayer/breakfast. You were discouraged and as you sat down said “The Church is so draining!” And I’d agreed. Days later Delana Bradbury, an “elder’s” wife, approached me saying she had a Word from the Lord for me. We didn’t know each other at all and she assumed that God was using her to rebuke me. (I always had a feeling she was racist, so common in Indy with that strong KKK history.) Being the typical carnal Christian she very coldly said “The Lord keeps filling you to overflowing but just as soon as He pours it in it all drains right out! He wants you to PLUG the hole in the cup!” He kept filling me to overflowing because I was spending nearly all of my time seeking and obeying Him, praying His Word either alone or with others from different churches around town—a benefit of being a stay at home mom. But as you noted, it was all very draining because Christians are so rebellious. Rather than use her to rebuke me, God was using her as one of the many ways He was confirming my calling. Delana had placed the emphasis on the wrong word even though she didn’t know what God meant—admitted it when I asked her “Do you know what the hole is? So as I sat there thinking about it for a minute, surely reminded of your draining comment, I then blurted out “It’s the Church!” which really made her mad since she was an elder’s wife—loving the system more than the Lord who is “the truth” (John 14:6, ESV). Christians in general love the blessings more than Christ. Way more.

And Delana’s manner sums up the body of Christ today as He’s proven through my life testimony. “Because of the increase of wickedness, the love of most [has] grow[n] cold” (Matt. 24:12, NIV). Rather than become more humble and loving, being saved has made the body members spiritually proud and unloving! Had Delana walked humbly with the Lord, in a spirit of love, she would not have assumed what He was saying and prayed with me about it when realizing she lacked discernment. She also wouldn’t have gotten mad at my understanding but humbly sought Him about it. At the very least, asked me Why I thought the Church was the hole, the problem. But, again, she’s typical of today’s born again—proud, cold, and not earnest seekers of truth when informed that “He rewards those who earnestly seek him” (Heb. 11:6, NIV).

The Latter Rain Outpouring

As “the gardener” (John 15:1, NIV), God told us that He’d send both a “former” and “latter rain” and that the former one was “moderate” in comparison to the latter one (Joel 2:23, KJV). Having been into gardening for five years, I get it. Baby plants drown in a storm so that I start them off in bottles keeping them safe inside that greenhouse space for months, letting them also build up strong roots. It’s like an incubator. Compared to baby and juvenile plants, mature plants thrive in downpours. I’m always shocked how much they’ve grown with a storm and how green they’ve gotten. And we’ve been informed to “repent...that times of refreshing may come from the Lord” (Acts 3:19 NIV), meaning, the latter rain Church will be like these strong healthy plants.

The former rain (summed up in Acts in the graphic) was Pentecost and it was amazing! It would seem like that was a TON of water! But compared to the coming spiritual downpour, it was moderate. Unlike us, they didn't have the completed Bible and neither did they have the technology we have, assets that will supercharge the body of Christ once we genuinely repent as a group with a decent understanding of what it is we're repenting about—which is the purpose of the ministry He entrusted to me. Right now, those who are repentant are mostly doing so in ecumenical gatherings, totally dismissing Christ's warnings about joining light with darkness. He says, for example, "See to it, then, that the light within you is not darkness" (Luke 11:35, NIV). WE need to repent as a group for having joined light with darkness, and doing more than just "honor...[Jesus] with the...lips" (Matt. 15:8, ESV).

The First Christians were Highly Empowered by God because they Obeyed Him as Individuals and as a Group

- They spoke in languages they hadn't studied (Acts 2:4-6);
- They healed the sick (Acts 3:2-7);
- They raised the dead (Acts 9:37-41);
- They drove out demons (Acts 16:16-18);
- They witnessed boldly (Acts 4:4);
- They prayed for their attackers as they killed them (Acts 7:58-60);
- They enlightened thousands at a time (Acts 7:58-60);
- Their shadows provided healing (Acts 5:14-16);
- Unbelievers admired them (Acts 2:47);
- They beamed around like in Star Trek (Acts 8:39-40);
- They were full of wisdom (Acts 6:3);
- They were full of generosity (Acts 4:34-35); and,
- They were full of joy (Acts 2:46).

“Work[ing] all things [out] according to the counsel of his will” (Eph. 1:11 ESV), the Lord has had me do the same kind of work I did for pay with my degree in sociology. It’s been like doing a literature review of what He’s taught different members of His body. Because, while we’ve been super unfaithful He informed us that “if we are faithless, he remains faithful, for he cannot disown himself” (2 Tim. 2:13, NIV). That being the case, He foretold that “His wife [the body/the Bride/the Church/the born again] did make herself ready” (Rev. 19:7, YLT). She’ll finally do it through the latter rain. But right now we’re still only getting a sprinkle since She’s a spoiled BRAT besides being a whore (Jer. 3:3 in the graphic).

Even the born again get mad at me for quoting Scripture when it’s through His Word that God is doing His holy healing work (Eph. 5:25-27 below). It’s also how we protect ourselves from “our adversary the devil” (1 Pet. 5:8, ESV) since “the Sword of the Spirit...is the word of God” (Eph. 6:17, ESV) “living and active, sharper than any two-edged sword” (Heb. 4:12, ESV). In fact, “He is called The Word of God” (Rev. 19:13, ESV). Without Scripture all we have is our opinions, which is the whole problem!

Ephesians 5:25-27, ESV Christ loved the church and gave himself up for her, that he might sanctify her, having cleansed her by the washing of water with the word, so that he might present the church to himself in splendor, without spot or wrinkle or any such thing, that she might be holy and without blemish.

Called Out. Working out His purposes for the coming downpour, the Lord has had some of us walk more in tune with His will—to one degree or another. And He says, “Those of you who do not give up everything you have cannot be my disciples” (Luke 14:33, ESV). Yet He hasn’t shown me anyone else who is more enlightened on some aspect of His plan who has also given up a whole lot—and is still in the “race” (Heb. 12:1, ESV). And, again, most born again are still part of the fake church system and unwilling to let go of that fake Christian community. Or they’ve let go of it and of Him no longer viewing themselves as Christian and jumped in head first and joined the lost souls. Or else they have let go of Churchianity but refuse to admit that some of their doctrine still doesn’t line up. All that said, God is calling His people out of the world and out of fake Christianity.

Called Out of Satan’s World: Go out from their midst, and be separate from them, says the Lord, and touch no unclean thing; then I will welcome you (2 Cor. 6:17, ESV).

Called Out of Fake Christianity: Come out of her, my people, so that you will not share in her sins, so that you will not receive any of her plagues (Rev. 18:4, NIV).

Christians, especially in the fake Church system, trip up assuming that because He’s in part of it—whatever it is—He’s in all of it. But that’s HOW Satan deceives us, mixing truth with lies. This documentary is possibly the best example, American Gospel - Movie - YouTube, since all those speaking truth are part of the fake pagan Church system! So it’s been amazing to me that those who are much more enlightened—by far—are still extremely in the dark about some of the most basic points. And, again, it’s because the human “heart is deceitful above all things” (Jer. 17:9, KJV) so that the only way to stop being deceived and get fully enlightened spiritually is to “take every thought captive to obey Christ” (2 Cor. 10:5, ESV). That’s the only way we can “rightly divid[e] the word of truth” (2 Tim. 2:15, KJV). It’s the only way to really understand what Jesus was saying—as I cover further in the text. In short, if it doesn’t line up with His teaching and meaning it’s false doctrine.

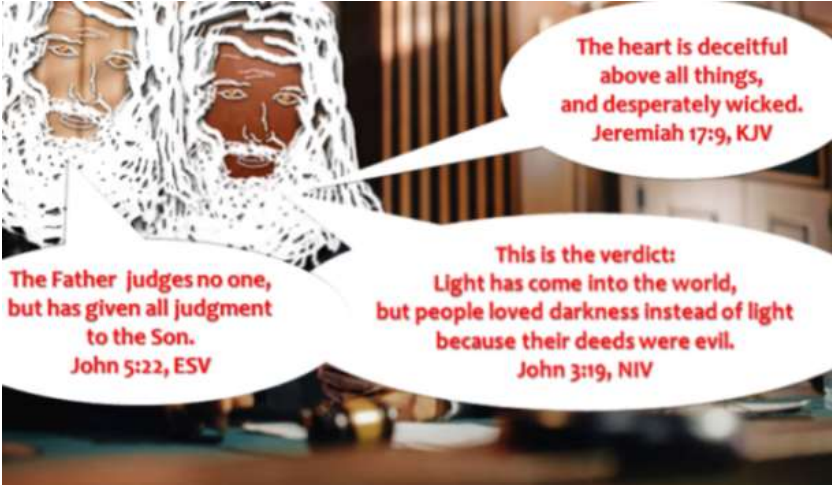

He Raised Me Up. Convicted by Him because of how He coordinated my life, I've let go of everything He's put His finger on and have remained faithful. (Though God knows I often wish I'd never been born!) Unlike the norm, I chose to continue to obey Him and have, therefore, gone without a salary/no money of my own since "unlike so many, we do not peddle the word of God for profit" (2 Cor. 2:17, NIV). Remaining faithful I've also, therefore, had no peers, no respect, no friends, no extended family members who talk to me, no immediate family members who talk to me beyond chit chat and do so infrequently, no conversations, no fellowship whatsoever, no vacations, no travel...NOTHING but working alone for years to help people who ignore me, ridicule me, or worse. While harder than you can imagine, I've remained steadfast because I appreciate what He did for us and because "those who have been given a trust must prove faithful" (1 Cor. 4:2, NIV). He also gave me the Word out of Habakkuk speaking of an "appointed time" (Hab. 2:2-3, KJV), a testimony about how it would take decades, and worked in Satan's schemes to ensure I'd take Him more seriously. He used Pinochet's dictatorship in my hometown, splitting allegiance right down the middle of my extended family, since it applies in two ways:

1. Our rebellion has caused a split—in fact tens of thousands of fractures—between Family members/the body of Christ; and
2. It's what the whole world is ending up with, a worldwide dictatorship under Satan's lordship. That's what he's been building up to as "ruler of this world" (John 12:31, KJV).

God also allowed "the forces of evil in the heavenly realms" (Eph. 6:12, NIV) to scare the mess out of me starting the second I became born again. Working out His purposes (Eph. 1:11) and using Satan's "schemes" (2 Cor. 2:11, NIV) along with my own sins, God gave me "the fear of the Lord [which] is the beginning of wisdom" (Prov. 9:10, KJV). And the better I've gotten to know Him the more I've come to love and respect Him, and understand what it's all been about.

People are always asking Why would God allow this? And Christians can NEVER provide a decent answer! But there is a very decent answer as revealed through this text/the vision of what God is doing along with what we've done.

The Truth Sets Us Free. Having had the Lord answer many of my questions (even questions I didn't know I had), I've been willing to be corrected by Him and repeatedly redo the work (books and videos) over and over and over again as He's shown me areas where I've been wrong. Most people just leave their mistakes up online not terribly concerned about the truth when nothing is more important since Satan is the father of lies (John 8:44). And Jesus warned us, "The truth will set you free" (John 8:32, ESV). But it's not just Jesus, the Man who is "the truth" (John 14:6, ESV) who sets us free. It's the facts, especially concerning spiritual matters, that sets us free from Satan's grip. Yet today's attitude from born again Christians is Don't bother me with the truth! As a group we've become just like the lost who push lies as if we decide our own gender. Uh huh. This arrogant delusional attitude points to "the verdict" (John 3:19 in the graphic), another way God has summed up His point about our hearts (Jer. 17:9 in the graphic) since He's not only the Great Physician (Ps. 103:3) and Gardener (John 15:1), but the Judge (John 5:22 in the graphic). While He says "Woe to those who call evil good and good evil, who put darkness for light and light for darkness" (Isa. 5:20, ESV), this is what the body of Christ has been doing for most of the past 2000 years! Today's Christians look at it as if it was just those Jews back then and the lost today who love darkness, when born again Christians are the most guilty party having been the only ones God actually enlightened—and yet have still chosen darkness! CLING to it!

The Vision

God’s plan is so much greater than what Christians have been preaching! I probably don’t have it 100% correct because He called us to function as a group, the body, basically prayerfully brainstorming to get it right. (It’s what He must have been calling us to do back then and the group refused.) Or maybe the Lord will bring about “the appointed time” for this ministry/the vision when I do finally have it 100% down. In any case, having taken my thoughts captive to Christ (2 Cor. 10:5), this is the vision I see: God is in the process of creating an eternal kingdom where EVERYONE WHO HAS EVER LIVED will genuinely love Him and one another, while He is physically with us in the resurrected body of Christ, “God with us” (Matt. 1:23, KJV). Jesus lowered Himself to become like us and will be elevating all of us to become like Him—one very big and very happy Family loving our Father (like Jesus) and genuinely loving each other (like Jesus). And since He’s not a tyrant, He’s doing it through our own free will. Eventually, whether during this age, the Age of Christ, or the Age of Judgment, everyone—including Satan—will humbly acknowledge the truth since He’s making “all things new” (Rev. 21:5, ESV). And it will be complete surrender. “Every knee will bow before [Him]” (Rom. 14:11, NIV). Christians teach Romans 14:11 as if it’s going to be done with hostility under coercion when it’s going to be out of intense gratitude for “not treat[ing] us as our sins deserve” (Ps. 103:10, NIV).

Satan’s Most Damaging Lie. Having called me to make “the vision...plain” (Hab. 2:2, KJV), this graphic is how He’s had me do that with the most important part of it since it reveals just how deceived and wicked the body of Christ has been. Having dismissed the Lord, we’ve historically believed and peddled Satan’s lie that “God [who] is love” (1 John 4:8, KJV) is going to torture most of the people He created, and do it FOREVER! Eternal fire burning hell makes God out to be worse than, not only all the dictators the world has had throughout history, but even worse than Satan! Because, unlike hell which lasts forever, Satan only has a short time to hurt people (Rev. 12:12 below). Clearly, most born again Christians have historically called evil good and good evil (Isa. 5:20) barely giving the doctrine of hell half a thought. Again, as a group we’ve been helping Satan “deceive the nations” (Rev. 20:3, KJV) doing the exact opposite of what He called us to do—be “the light of the world” (Matt. 5:14, NIV). The doctrine of hell says God will torture most since narrow is the way to life and few find it (Matt. 7:14). The one the Lord has shown me has the false doctrine of hell down best is [The Total Victory of Christ - YouTube. We’ve been deceived for not going beyond a surface level study of Scripture. That’s part of the problem with the fake church system. Intelligent born again Christians like you and Reggie lied to yourselves that it’s those “Christian leaders” who were supposed to concern themselves with these things.]

Revelation 12:12, ESV The devil has come down to you in great wrath, because he knows that his time is short!”

The Body’s Fall. The born again started messing up IMMEDIATELY! For example, Peter, a born again soul forgiven three times for having betrayed Christ during His darkest hour, no less (Luke 22:56-62), let Satan use him to kill members of the body of Christ, His Family, Ananias and Sapphira (Acts 5:1-11). Peter showed them no love or mercy, totally unlike what Jesus had done for him (John 21:15-17) and which He had told him to do, “Forgive...seventy-seven times” (Matt. 18:21-22, NIV). I take two main lessons from it.

1. We Can Misuse Our Spiritual Power: Jesus said to Peter, and through Peter to all born again Christians, “Whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven” (Matt. 16:19, NIV). By not “tak[ing] captive every thought to make it obedient to Christ” (2 Cor. 10:5, NIV) Peter gave in to his wicked heart (Jer. 17:9) and let demonic spirits loose to kill his brethren (Matt. 16:19 above). It’s like how even born again Christians have been going off to war to kill people for these 2000 years when Jesus told us to love our enemies (Matt. 5:44), also ignoring the fact that His kingdom is not of this world (John 18:36). Dismissing Him we’ve kept letting demonic spirits loose in the world to abuse, torture, and kill off our brethren, and then blame God for the evil that’s done!
2. We Have to Dissect Scripture: The New Testament tells us to “rightly divid[e] the word” (2 Tim. 2:15, YLT) as Jesus modeled for us in Matthew 5 “You have heard...but I say...” (in the graphic). If something in the Bible or in life claims to be coming from God but doesn't line up with His teaching found in the words in red, it hasn't come from God but from the "liar" (John 8:44, KJV), Satan, the devil.

But instead of rightly dividing the Word based on the "new covenant" Jesus made for us with His life (Luke 22:20, NIV), today's Christians keep going back to the Old Testament to justify what they're saying or doing when God made that covenant "obsolete" for good reason (Heb. 8:13, NIV). As summed up with the graphic, when the Bible says This is what the LORD says it's either God, our Father speaking; Jesus, His Son; Satan, "the god of this world" (2 Cor. 4:4, KJV); or a mixture of God Almighty and Satan—needing further scrutiny. And since Jesus and the Father "are one" (John 10:30, ESV) it doesn't matter if Father or Son said it.

The following breakdown for Isaiah 45:7 is the clearest example of which I'm aware. The last phrase is a mixture of what was done. Satan took credit for all of it to deceive the people and God allowed it as part of His "test" (Deut. 13:3, ESV).

1. The first clause is God, the Son, the Creator, speaking. We know it because the New Testament, when speaking of Jesus, says "all things were created by him, and for him" (Col. 1:16, KJV). In contrast, Satan cannot create a thing. He's the "Destroyer" (Rev. 9:11, KJV).
2. "I make peace" is also God speaking since Jesus is "The Prince of Peace" (Isa. 9:6, KJV).
3. Creating evil cannot possibly be God, the Creator and "author of life" (Acts 3:15, NIV), talking.
4. God, our Father, does not kill and resurrect. Neither does His Son. This phrase is a mixture of God and of Satan using the title of LORD since God gave him the authority to do so as the "ruler" (John 12:31, YLT) and "god of this world" (2 Cor. 4:4, KJV). And God has given him this authority because "he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him" (Heb. 11:6, KJV). Therefore, "the eyes of the LORD run to and fro throughout the whole earth, to shew himself strong in the behalf of them whose heart is perfect toward him" (1 Chron. 16:9, KJV). In any case, we know that Jesus "took part of the same [of our humanity]; that through death he might destroy him that had the power of death, that is, the devil" (Heb. 2:14, KJV) who is "a liar" (John 8:44, KJV).

Only the Born Again Can Be Spiritually Discerning.

“The person without the Spirit...cannot understand [the things of God]...because they are discerned only through the Spirit” (1 Cor. 2:14, NIV). And up until Pentecost only John the Baptist was “filled with the Holy Spirit even before he [wa]s born” (Luke 1:15, NIV). The rest of the prophets only had God’s Spirit for short blips at a time. Yet during all of history up until Pentecost, Satan was “the ruler of this world” (John 12:31, YLT), and still is, having set out to “be like the most High” (Isa. 14:14, KJV) to “deceive the nations” (Rev. 20:3, KJV) by “masquerading as an angel of light” (2 Cor. 11:14, NIV). It was easy for the people before Pentecost to get deceived. I’m thinking this is why John had to be filled with God’s Spirit from birth. If not he wouldn’t have been able to “prepare the way” (Matt. 3:3, NIV) lacking discernment.

For example, we’ve been taught that God ordained those animal sacrifices when Scripture says “whoever sacrifices a bull is like one who kills a person” (Isa. 66:3, NIV) and God tells us not to kill (Ex. 20:13). He also said “I...the LORD...change not” (Mal. 3:6, ESV). Therefore, it had to be Satan who ordered the killing of animals for his worship since he’s “a murderer.” Likewise, all the killing in the Old Testament—Noah’s flood, the plagues against Egypt, the inhabitants of the Promised Land, and so much more—had to come from Satan. And ONLY the born again have been given the power to “rightly divid[e] the word” (2 Tim. 2:15, YLT). Yet the born again have said it was the Fire and Brimstone God, as if God changed from Old to New Testament times—lying to ourselves, to and about God, and to the lost, being “deceitful above all things” (Jer. 17:9, KJV).

Consider Solomon’s’ sacrifice of 142,000 animals to dedicate the temple (2 Chron. 7:5, KJV). Can you picture Jesus being honored by such a slaughter of animals He created?! Especially since “the Most High does not dwell in houses made by hands” (Acts 7:48, ESV). Anyone who knows Jesus and has had a pet or enjoys wildlife—and is honest—can clearly see there’s NO WAY God called for animal sacrifice!

Having dismissed Christ, Christians talk about God having given us the law which we were TOLD came from angels (Acts 7:53 in the graphic). And they had to be fallen angels because Jesus didn't deliver us from the Father or hell. "Since therefore the children share in flesh and blood, he himself likewise partook of the same things, that through death he might destroy the one who has the power of death, that is, the devil" (Heb. 2:14, ESV). God delivered us from Satan. What Satan did in order to "deceive the nations" (Rev. 20:3, KJV) was take the truth and mixed his lies and murderous ways into it, handed it to Moses, who handed it to humanity as if it had come from God. And, unlike the Old Testament prophets, we—the born again—were informed that "truth came through Jesus" (John 1:17, NIV). Since Jesus fulfilled Satan's requirements on the cross, humanity is no longer under "the Law of Moses" (Heb. 10:28 ESV) but under the "law of Christ" (Gal. 6:2, ESV), a law of love and truth. We are supposed to love God and love people and do it in that order (Mark 12:30-31 in the graphic).

And if we just focus on genuinely loving God, it's a domino effect from there. But only the born again have been enlightened to this truth and empowered to do it.

Instead, the born again have done what Peter did before he was filled with God's Spirit, and flipped the two greatest commandments around for which Jesus viewed him as Satan (Matt. 16:23 in the graphic). Peter was being antichrist. Likewise, having dismissed Christ to chase the things of Satan's world, the born again have historically been antichrist, and gotten steadily worse with time!

In turn, we've believed all of Satan's lies concerning God, the Church, and the world. And today's Christians defend most of the lies—especially concerning God and His Church—unwilling to even consider Christ's teachings. Paul said "It is hard to make it clear to you because you no longer try to understand" (Heb. 5:11, NIV) and 2000 years later it's that much harder! That's my testimony of the last 25 years. Not only have I not been able to get through to even one born again Christian, they've all behaved just as hard headed and hard hearted as the lost. While I've been rebuked for decades for not loving people and being delusional, you guys are the ones being super unloving to God and, therefore, to people, besides seriously delusional! As a group we couldn't have been any more ungrateful!

And since "God is love" (1 John 4:8, KJV) we can't dismiss Him and have genuine love for others as everyone thinks they have because love comes from Him and Him alone. Therefore, human "love" falls apart under trial as evidenced through denominations and divorce, for example. The history of Christianity is a very ugly road of BROKEN relationships when we were called and empowered to "love one another deeply" (1 Pet. 1:22, NIV). In fact, He says "By this all people will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another" (John 13:35, ESV). The Lord had me walk this path for 25 years to reveal that there is very little genuine love for Jesus among Christians, very little genuine love for each other among Christians, and very little genuine love for the lost from Christians even though most think their family, friends, co-workers, and neighbors are going to burn alive in hell forever! Yeah, I'd say our hearts are deceitful above all things and desperately wicked! (Jer. 17:9).

The First Lie.

Since Satan has been “the ruler of this world” (John 12:31, YLT) from the very beginning, I discern it wasn't God who placed that tree with forbidden fruit in the Garden of Eden and who told Adam to “not eat of it” of it (Gen. 2:17, ESV). It’s obvious that it was Satan doing what he set out to do, “be like the most High” (Isa. 14:14, KJV) to “deceive the nations” (Rev. 20:3, KJV). Because, God says “Bless and do not curse” (Rom. 12:14, ESV). He does “not change” (Mal. 3:6, ESV). And made it clear that He hates spiritual hypocrisy (Matt. 15:7, NIV). Yet born again Christians have been saying that He cursed humanity, changed, and is a royal hypocrite! NO! God allowed Satan to have “all authority” (Luke 4:6, NIV) to reveal to us that even born again Christians haven't taken Jesus seriously. As a group it’s like we said Praise JEEZUS! I’m going to heaven! (Too bad the majority are going to hell. Oh well. God is holy. He knows best.) And then live entirely for Satan’s world while also TOTALLY ignoring the meaning of holy!

Corrupt Hearts. Humans sinned before eating the forbidden fruit. Adam and Eve disobeyed who they thought was God (our Father). In contrast, Jesus would never disobey the Father. It’s the reason He said “I will give you a new heart, and a new spirit” (Ezek. 36:26, ESV). So while the born again have been given His Spirit, Christian history makes it clear that we have not yet been given a new heart. And we won’t get it til “the last trumpet” at His second coming (1 Cor. 15:52, ESV). Until then we tread on very thin ice. It’s the reason God said “Work out your own salvation in fear and trembling” (Phil. 2:12, KJV). He didn’t mean in fear of Him or of Satan, but because WE LOVE TO LIE TO OURSELVES having hearts that are “deceitful above all” (Jer. 17:9, KJV). And knowing Scripture, Satan was aware of our weakness and fully exploited it.

Discerning the Time

While Jesus said BACK THEN, “About that day or hour no one knows” (Matt. 24:36, NIV) we should know the general timing of His return—and eventually the day and hour of it—because the New Testament says “You are not in darkness, brothers, for that day to surprise you like a thief” (1 Thess. 5:4, ESV, my emphasis). He also rebuked the Jews for not being able to discern “the signs of the times” of His first coming (Matt. 16:3, NIV) and we should be much more discerning than them since they didn’t even have His Spirit within or the completed Bible in their back pocket. And as far as I’m aware, there are 54 Bible prophecies—in other words, there is plenty of evidence—revealing that the Lord’s return is scheduled for 2030, videos put out by others, primarily Messiah 2030 - YouTube. It’s unbelievers and carnal Christians who are getting caught off guard. Even if you were to stop dismissing Him right now, you have been caught off guard having wasted most of your life—just as most born again Christians have historically done.

But, again, working out His will in spite of our rebellion for His purposes and our good (Eph. 1:11), God placed us in the most important metro area of the world during the most important time in history. It’s the most important area of the world, spiritually, because it’s Satan’s greatest stronghold. Not only are we the capital metro area of the world’s only superpower, we have aspects of all three strongholds. There’s a lot of money here and the foundation of the DC area was Catholic, even originally called Rome! Even the layout of the city reflects the Catholic/Masonic/Satanic mindset.

Wake up!

Satan’s Most Important Strongholds

God warned us saying “Watch yourselves, so that you may...win a full reward” (2 John 1:8, ESV). Yet the majority have historically dismissed Him and lived for this world, Satan’s world. Like you. I can’t imagine how many rewards you’ve lost for storing your treasure on earth instead of in heaven (Matt. 6:19-20). What’s a few decades of living it up here compared to the blessings in Christ for the next 1000 years? God’s Answer: “Dung” (Phil. 3:8, KJV). That’s what it’s worth—a pile of shit! Well done? No! And the consequences are so much greater than ‘just’ for the next 1000 years. They’re very really for all of humanity since we were called to be “the light of the world” (Matt. 5:14, ESV). But since God is working out His plan, He’s giving you the opportunity to make up for the time and opportunities you’ve wasted by taking Him seriously now and using the rest of your life—the few years we have left—along with the resources at your disposal to live wholeheartedly for Him. It’s like He’s literally coming to you again while you’re ‘fishing’ in that concierge boat practice of yours and saying “Follow me.” Those guys back then had the discernment to “immediately...le[ave] their nets and follow” (Matt. 4:19-20, ESV). Praying you’ll be so wise. And in so doing, you will finally store for yourself a decent amount of treasure in heaven.

Free Will: God gave us free will within His boundaries. Having no boundaries would have meant total chaos. Clearly. And no free will at all would have meant creating a Family of robots which would hardly have satisfied Him—or us.

So while God warned us that “it is impossible, in the case of those who have once been enlightened, who have tasted the heavenly gift, and have shared in the Holy Spirit, and have tasted the goodness of the word of God and the powers of the age to come, and then have fallen away, to restore them again to repentance” (Heb. 6:4-6, ESV—as my testimony of 25 years reveals—it is actually possible because “with God all things are possible” (Matt. 19:26, ESV). So if you end up watching the video and taking God seriously, you and everyone else who this ministry impacts because of our obedience, will know it’s ONLY because of God’s grace. Glory to God! More specifically Jesus Christ—the name above all names. No one will be able to take the credit as we’ve historically done so that many have even named their ministries after themselves. How proud is that?!

And the Lord placed us here—in Satan’s greatest stronghold during the most important period in all of history—because the lost DESPERATELY need our help and He clearly wants to use us. The world reveals increasingly more cities totally trashed like Lower Manhattan of the 9/11 attacks. And while those victims mostly look to the government for help (besides a fake church system), all governments belong to Satan since he’s “the ruler of this world” (John 12:31, YLT). So they’re not really out to help them. That point was clearly made with Lahaina as they gave victims $700 per household while dumping billions into war overseas. (Not too hard to see Satan, the murderer, behind that.) And scratching the surface reveals that humans have been behind all of these massacres. For example, my research reveals that we started manipulating the weather a hundred years ago blind to the fact that we can’t play God without suffering some consequences—a fact Satan is NOT blind to. Meaning, he loves to tap into our pride to get us to dishonor God. In other words, there is a conspiracy. And it’s headed by Satan “the ruler of this world” (John 12:31, YLT). It’s also going to keep getting worse—much worse according to Revelation—until Jesus returns a few years from now finally ending Satan’s reign.

If the body of Christ was actually awake and out of bed, people like George Barna—those with the money, power, and respect among members of the body of Christ—would have made it their mission to establish a strong base for the Lord here. But they’re too busy “peddl[ing] the word of God for profit” (2 Cor. 2:17, NIV) straddling Satan’s fence so that I haven’t found even ONE Christian genuinely interested in Christ! Not in decades. Not in the U.S., or in Europe, Africa, or Canada where He’s had me reach out to more enlightened souls! All who are further enlightened, whom He’s had me reach out to, while having humbled themselves enough to get further enlightened, have puffed up again caring more about their opinions than about Jesus’ teaching—the truth.

Yet if you were to live up to your calling, it would make all the difference considering social media and how fast videos can go viral. Just consider how much they accomplished super fast 2000 years ago WITHOUT ANY technology! And the difference with you and most of them is that you and I were once friends, prayer partners even. So while there were others with whom I was friends and prayer partners who the Lord has had me reach out to, like Randa Nader, they don't have the memory of a dead baby; don't have as decent a brain; are too old; and/or aren't female, or Black. I discern He wants to use a Black female to humiliate different groups, like He did back then by first appearing to women—first at the well revealing His identity (John 4:24) and at His resurrection (Mark 16:9). So while you're not as enlightened as many others, unlike them you once knew not only me but my whole family. You know we're a decent family: not idiots, not drug addicts, and clean cut. It's not as if Maddy and Cathy were reading at the 5th grade level because they learned to do that all by themselves! Neither were they college ready in their early teens because they're idiots and no help.

Again, God set me apart as extremely as this because we're living in extreme times. And He had me do all this work so that His people run with the vision (Hab. 2:2-3). And one day everyone He has had me pray for will do the right thing. However, like Bill Bean—former worship pastor who died young for being so rebellious—not all will get right with God during this life. God gave Bill loads of opportunity to repent but his heart just kept getting harder and harder—since that's how it works—so that He finally died young of cancer, no longer having the opportunity to store any treasure in heaven and make up for lost time. Praying you don't do the same. What a monumental waste that would be! Still, someone soon will have the wisdom to let go of Satan's trinkets along with the guts to stand up for Christ, beginning the full blown latter rain, gaining a “better resurrection” (Heb. 11:35, KJV)—besides preparing themselves for the trials headed our way. You consider yourself a strong woman. He's asking you to prove it. Be genuinely strong, “for what is a man profited if he may gain the whole world, but of his life suffer loss?” (Matt. 16:26, YLT). Again, He's speaking of “life age-during” (Mark 10:17, YLT), life during the next age.

Again, this is why I discern God had you give your son the name meaning Gift from God and why He allowed the fallen angels to make him suffer unto death. It was to break your heart so that you could first of all wake up to yourself, and then awaken other members the body of Christ opening the flood gates for the full blown latter rain, making Nathan's life the gift from God he was meant to be.

The Joseph Experience & Biblical Interpretations

And God has a habit—most clearly revealed with Joseph—of taking what others meant for evil and using it for the good, “the saving of many lives” (Gen. 50:20, NIV). And He’s used many over the years, starting with visions when I was five, to inform me that this calling would “be a Joseph Experience.” I’ve experienced all of it except for the Get Out of Jail part, this prison of my own choosing for not being willing to dishonor Christ. And the most unique thing about this Joseph-type ministry is the biblical interpretations of secular resources—since Joseph was an interpreter. But the born again are so “dead” asleep (Rev. 3:1, NIV) they can’t even see God’s hand in them! Again, blinded by hypocritical beams (Matt. 7:5). I’m supposedly delusional for having spiritual discernment—what ALL mature born again Christians should have. In any case, He’s had me interpret many songs, books, movies, places, situations...in detail. Eventually, they’ll help those who take Him seriously get up to speed fast.

Summary of my biblical interpretation for the movie Edge of Tomorrow (2014).

In the movie, reflecting real life, it took the lead character FOREVER to get through to his peers.

Some of the Times God Spoke to Me About My Calling and Confirmed It

- 1968 When I was four God used my mom, an unbeliever, to explain who God was and that some people thought they worked for Him so that I'd had the thought I want to work for God when I grow up.
- 1969 I had a series of nightmares of the Joseph Experience not knowing that's what was going on.
- 1976 God had my mom, still an unbeliever, speak of the trials we were experiencing as being spiritual in nature.
- 1988 God had a homeless man grab my arm and prophesy about this calling days after repeatedly begging Him to take over my life.
- 1988 God gave me a vision about this calling—of Jesus asking me if I was willing to communicate with the sea of people before us.
- 1992 At a lecture on campus God had Alex Haley speak of using us, which I understood as God speaking of me, as being called by Him to be the writer in the family.
- 1998 God had Ed Rice, at Eagle church in Indianapolis, prophesy over me concerning the extensive growth that would take place, doing it while he and the "pastors" lay hands on me and prayed over me anointing me for this calling.
- 1998 God had Kerry Bowman, at Eagle church in Indianapolis, preach about getting pruned extensively at which time God reminded me of a poem, I Do Bonsai.
- 1998 God had Stuart McAllister from RZIM, speaking at Eagle church in Indianapolis, prophesy about how it would feel. "As if He HATES YOUR GLUTS!"
- 1998 God had a man named Jared, in Indianapolis, prophesy over me singing with his harp—much of which was a prayer for protection.
- 1998 God had Angela Marshall, while in Indianapolis, tell me I was a prophet.
- 1998 God confirmed Angela's Word shortly thereafter as I saw the movie The Prince of Egypt (1998).
- 1998 God had Delana Bradbury, at Eagle church in Indianapolis, tell me "He wants you to plug the hole in the cup." He meant "cup of salvation" (Ps. 116:13; NTIV).
- 2000 God had Mat Miller, in Indianapolis, prophesy telling me that it would "be a Joseph Experience."
- 2000 God provided a sermon on Joseph's Experience the next day.
- 2010 God gave me my first full interpretation of a secular resource, tying in to the Joseph Experience since Joseph was a prophet who interpreted dreams and visions.
- 2011 God had someone on a talk show, Focus on the Family, speak of decades passing between the time of prophesy and fulfillment.
- 2012 God had a pastor at Riverdale church in Largo, Maryland, preach "Prophets will experience joy while waiting" then a few hours later the Lord provided a book He had me interpret giving me much joy while waiting.
- 2012 God provides many resources backing up the calling tied to Joseph's Experience and joy while waiting since Joseph interpreted dreams and visions while experiencing extreme isolation and estrangement for years before experiencing the joy of his calling.

2012 Onward

Now I'm wondering if you attended that lecture. The whole thing was a sermon! And, as a professing Christian, Haley did like the rest. Not only did he give tens of thousands to Muslims (the enemy camp) in honor of his ancestors, he lied about his ancestors and had to pay out $650,000 to close the court case. And yet, God used him for His purposes since it's what He does (Eph. 1:11).

Healing a Diseased Tree

To think that your own efforts and money can save you from Satan's schemes is as blind and pagan as Simon to whom Peter said "May your silver perish with you, because you thought you could obtain the gift of God with money!" (Acts 8:20, ESV). The fact is that Satan is out to "devour" you (1 Pet. 5:8, ESV), in fact, has done quite a number on you with your help so that what you need most, a strong relationship with Christ, you don't have. Like the majority, you've repeated the Tower of Babel scenario saying "Let us...make a name for ourselves" (Gen. 11:4, ESV).

But, again, taking Satan's schemes along with our sins and using it all for His purposes (Eph. 1:11, ESV), God has used our families as examples of the whole—Isaiah singing (years ago on YouTube) of wanting to kill people, Seek and Destroy by Metallica (as I wrote to you about and received no response), and our daughter attempting suicide several times—also years ago. While I'm sure Isaiah didn't mean he actually wanted to kill people, he was obviously letting Satan use him. Likewise, my girl repeatedly watered down the truth that killing yourself is a huge insult to Jesus and that He, whom she dismissed, protected her each time from physical or mental damage. It's like how the body of Christ has deceived Herself that living for self has no consequences for humanity even though we're the only light of the world. Rebellious and deceived, our children reveal the fruit the body of Christ has been producing. Unlike those in places like North Korea or Afghanistan where they don't have the freedom to worship God, raised in born again educated and middle or higher income homes, for centuries the body of Christ, especially in the U.S., has been producing bad fruit so that our kids reflect the monumental mess Churchianity has created as Jesus warned saying "The diseased tree bears bad fruit" (Matt. 7:17, ESV). As a doctor, you should appreciate what He meant better than most—singing of killing and trying to kill is the worst a disease can do. And "Whoever causes one of these little ones who believe in me to sin, it would be better for him to have a great millstone fastened around his neck and to be drowned in the depth of the sea" (Matt. 18:6, ESV).

So when I realized that my girl was suicidal, and then after she'd attempted it—I lost count, it was either 3 or 4 times—I reached out to Randa and some Christian leaders, who either blamed me or totally ignored me.

Randa accused me of being at fault, saying like so many have, that I was rebellious for not submitting to my husband. However, my own husband admits that's not true. She refused to admit that the problem is with the Church—as it obviously is—because, like Delana Bradbury, she's a so-called elder in that pagan system. To admit the truth would mean admitting that both she and her husband have lived a lie for decades—and Christians refuse to admit it. It's like when Reggie was getting further enlightened and said of his father the pastor, "So what? All these years my father has been wrong?" as if that couldn't possibly be the case when the body of Christ has been wrong for 2000 years! Again, that's the point. Our hearts are deceitful above all.

And, as for those leaders I reached out to, I don't know if you remember but Eagle was mentored by RZIM, Ravi Zacharias International Ministries, and I worked on the book by his brother in law, who was the church's official mentor. From the beginning, since our hearts are all so deceitful, the Lord has been drilling it into my head that its just as He says "a hired hand...cares nothing for the sheep" (John 10:13, ESV). So not only did they ignore me when I was pleading for them for help, not so much for my girl but for the Lord's Girl, the Church as a whole, it would later come out that they ignored many women who had been sexually abused by Ravi. He was finally exposed in 2021 as the wolf in sheep's clothing that he was—when he'd been thought of as one of the brightest minds among the body of Christ. That's how blind we've been!

Ravi Zacharias was a Liar, Sexual Pervert and Wolf in Sheep's ...
Feb 13, 2021 — Premier Christianity asked me to write a report on the report from RZIM re the allegations against Ravi Zacharias. It was painful to read.

And those leaders from RZIM haven't really softened their hearts even though they wrote an open letter saying that they've gone through this "humbling process." Yet nothing's come from them, as far as I know, of any real change. Even now many ignore or are ignorant to the truth about Ravi. Again, as a group we've TOTALLY dismissed Christ, who says the following:

Be doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving yourselves. For if anyone is a hearer of the word and not a doer, he is like a man who looks intently at his natural face in a mirror. For he looks at himself and goes away and at once forgets what he was like (James 1:22-24, ESV).

As for my girls, they were more sold out for Christ than any adults I've ever known, making many very hard choices to remain faithful to Christ. But, even the lost know "it takes a village to raise a child." So as soon as they entered college, they fell and fell hard since they had no such village and their parents weren't on the same page. They had absolutely NOTHING to hold to, so they did what everyone would do in their place; lied to themselves about the truth, about Jesus, and about me and joined the rebellious crowd. And "the last state of that person is worse than the first" (Matt. 12:45, ESV).

If I didn't know that the Lord WILL come through for me in the end, it's like my entire life has been a waste of time! We have TOTALLY nullified the Word by our pagan traditions and beliefs (Matt. 15:6).

And, the fact is that we are all guilty, speaking of the body of Christ. You should be able to clearly see that. I know that if not for God, I'd be just as deceived and wicked as everyone else has been.

In any case, don't repent and you'll be tying that huge stone around your own neck. (Go to The Two Preachers - YouTube channel, click on the videos page, scroll down, and you'll see loads of thumbnails from around the world of the current chaos: floods, wars, earthquakes, famine...all sorts of pain and suffering taking place while most born again live for this world—and really live it up here in the U.S.)

Rather than create heaven on earth as we could have done since it's what Jesus told us to pray for (Matt. 6:10), we've created hell on earth! So while many have prayed for heaven on earth, there's NO WAY the Father is going to answer those prayers while we continually dismiss His beloved Son! Would you BLESS people who treated Nathan like we've treated His One and only along with His other little children?! Told to “not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, with whom [we] were sealed for the day of redemption” (Eph. 4:30, NIV), grieving Him is mostly what we've done and keep doing! I discern the Father has waited this long to answer Jesus' prayer of making us “one” (John 17:21, ESV) to prove through the body of Christ that our hearts are “deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked” (Jer. 17:9, KJV) since we've dismissed Him for these TWO THOUSAND years.

In other words, God is humbling both the body of Christ/born again and lost elect fulfilling this part of His plan having worked it all out for His purposes (Eph. 1:11) bringing an end to this “present evil age” (Gal. 1:4, YLT). And He'll seriously nail His point with the next age as they again rebel against Him even though they'll have literally lived in Paradise (Rev. 20:7-9 below). Everyone seems to think either that they're a good person or that if their circumstances were better, they'd be better. He's revealing, No—on both counts. Again, we have a very serious problem requiring “a new heart” (Ezek. 36:26, ESV).

Revelation 20:7-9, ESV When the thousand years are ended, Satan will be released from his prison and will come out to deceive the nations that are at the four corners of the earth, Gog and Magog, to gather them for battle; their number is like the sand of the sea. And they marched up over the broad plain of the earth and surrounded the camp of the saints and the beloved city.

Running this Race

The New Testament calls our ‘walk’ a race in several places as with the following examples:

My only aim is to finish the race and complete the task the Lord Jesus has given me—the task of testifying to the good news of God's grace (Acts 20:24, NIV).

Run in such a way as to get the prize (1 Cor. 9:24, NIV).

Since we are surrounded by such a great cloud of witnesses, let us...run with perseverance the race marked out for us (Heb. 12:1, NIV).

Apparently, it's a relay since we've been called to function as a body (1 Cor. 12:12-27)—and I've run my course.

Having said “Let the little children come to me and do not hinder them” (Matt. 19:14, ESV) He's asking you to take this baton from my hand and run with it, run with the vision (Hab. 2:2-3). He's kept me in the wilderness/a social prison like John the Baptist, Joseph, and Paul (when he first started out) to reveal “the vision” to me. By having me thoroughly study His Word while also reaching out to members of the body, I've been able to understand what's going on and also “make it plain.”

If the body of Christ would actually listen to Christ, they would immediately run with the vision because the real Gospel message is actually Good News UNLIKE the majority of humanity being burned alive by God while feeling all of that agony forever! And we're clearly in the last few laps of this race, this age.

This is what He meant in saying “Where there is no prophetic vision the people cast off restraint” (Prov. 29:18, ESV). It's exactly what the body of Christ has done historically as a whole. Since Peter, for one, immediately gave in to his wicked heart, the body of Christ hasn't had the full vision—or so I discern. I think He left that for us. WE have been given the full vision of His plan. Let us, therefore, no longer cast off restraint but live as fully devoted disciples of Christ and finally pass His test of Deuteronomy (13:3). Only then can we enter the Day of Rest and not stand before Jesus ashamed—having felt and dealt with that shame now instead.

Moving Forward. It seems to me there are five main points the elect need to settle in their mind in order to actually run in the right direction and never turn back:

1. Know without question that our hearts are DESPERATELY deceitful and wicked;
2. Know without question that institutional Church is a lie;
3. Know without question that Satan has impersonated God in the Bible so that we have historically mistaken God for Satan and Satan for God;
4. Know without question that we have to work together; and
5. Know that the timing of the Lord's return is just around the corner so that there is literally no time left to waste!

Strength in Numbers: We need to work together because “a threefold cord is not quickly broken” (Eccl. 4:12, ESV). While you and I are only two, that's still better than one. And while God is present with us when we pray alone, Jesus made it clear that “where two or three are gathered in my name, there am I among them” (Matt. 18:20, ESV). Again, there's strength in numbers. Besides that, if we were to “submit to one another out of reverence for Christ” (Eph. 5:21, NIV), we would soon become one in Christ.

In turn, we'd be able to pray very powerfully for our family members and others to also come to the knowledge of the truth and join our circle/start running in the right direction as a group so that the latter rain begins—takes off! Right now Reggie is neither here nor there, and will remain there until someone outside of this home acknowledges the truth since “a prophet is not without honor except in his hometown and in his own household” (Matt. 13:57, ESV). And when he gets convicted our girls will likely get convicted. And while you and André are now divorced, he's still your brother in Christ. Even if he wasn't we're to love our enemies (Matt. 5:44). Again, it's through genuine love that others—the rest of the rebellious body of Christ and lost elect—will know that we're His disciples (John 13:35) and also get on board.

God meant for it to work like a ripple effect. But for 2000 years the body of Christ has been working a negative ripple. Now it's time for a positive one. I received the first drop in 1997 when leadership lay hands on me anointing me for this calling at Eagle. But why would God choose me? Why would He choose you? Why choose anyone? Because, it has NOTHING to do with us! It's ALL about Him since “there is none righteous, not even one” (Rom. 3:10, YLT).

My Books & Videos

I discern that it would be best to protect the work God is doing to NOT spend time on my other material before contacting me. Because, you'll end up letting your wicked heart rule. Instead, we need to rebuild our relationship and talk through these things working through it together NOT giving Satan a foothold. It's essentially what we should have done in 2000 (or so) when you came over crying confessing about having been called to prayer and not having been willing. We should have at least attempted to get back on track with the Lord. But I don't think it crossed either of our minds. It certainly didn't cross mine! Not till years later—and it was too late. But now, by using your book to parallel what we've done, He's given us another chance. Praying we don't blow it! Again.

God's Mission Statement
Ephesians 4:11-16
God's Order	11 He gave some [as] apostles [church planters], and some [as] prophets [inspired preachers/expounders], and some [as] proclaimers of good news [evangelists], and some [as] shepherds and teachers. (YLT)
God's Purpose	12 His intention was the perfecting and the full equipping of the saints (His consecrated people), [that they should do] the work of ministering toward building up Christ's body (the church). (AMPC)
God's Timetable	13 until we all reach unity in the faith and in the knowledge of the Son of God and become mature, attaining to the whole measure of the fullness of Christ. (NIV)
God's Rationale	14 Then we will no longer be infants, tossed back and forth by the waves, and blown here and there by every wind of teaching and by the cunning and craftiness of people in their deceitful scheming. (NIV)
God's Strategy	15 Speaking the truth in love, we will grow to become in every respect the mature body of him who is the head, that is, Christ. 16 From him the whole body, joined and held together by every supporting ligament, grows and builds itself up in love, as each part does its work. (NIV)

Eternal Damnation is NOT Sound Doctrine

1 Timothy 4:10
CLT	YLT	KJV
We rely on the living God, Who is the Saviour of all mankind, especially of believers.	We hope on the living God, who is Saviour of all men—especially of those believing.	We trust in the living God, who is the Saviour of all men, specially of those that believe.

Is there anyone who is not a part of all mankind (CLT) or of all men (YLT & KJV)? No. There is only one race. It's called human, as in mankind, also known as "all men." Therefore, according to Scripture Jesus is the Savior of all. But "especially of believers" (1 Tim. 4:10, CLT, my emphasis).

1 Corinthians 15:22
CLT	YLT	KJV
For even as, in Adam, all are dying, thus also, in Christ, shall all be vivified.	For even as in Adam all die, so also in the Christ all shall be made alive.	As in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive.

Is there anyone who's not dying? No. It's a 1:1 ratio. You live: You Die. Is there anyone who is not included in all? No. All, which is pas in the Greek, is defined as "each, every, any, the whole, everyone, all things, everything." Therefore, according to Scripture everyone will be made alive through the work Jesus did on the Cross.

Romans 11:32
CLT	YLT	KJV
For God locks up all together in stubbornness, that He should be merciful to all.	For God did shut up together the whole to unbelief, that to the whole He might do kindness.	For God hath concluded them all in unbelief, that he might have mercy upon all.

Again, is there anyone not included in all or the whole? No. According to Scripture everyone will come to believe, some during this age, others during the millennial reign of Christ, and others during the "second death" (Rev. 20:6, KJV).
