

Lies

DISMISSED

Anger

Ignorance

TACKLING THE BIASES

Rebellion

THAT UNDERMINE

Envy

Love of $$$

OUR SPIRITUAL CARE

Truth

Yahweh Rapha, MD.

Hypocrisy

With

Contempt

MAYA WILLIAMS

Compromise

I have no greater joy
than to hear that my children are walking in the truth.
3 John 4:4, ESV

I am ashamed and blush to lift my face to you, my God, for our iniquities have risen higher than our heads, and our guilt has mounted up to the heavens.

Ezra 9:6, ESV

Written specifically for Allen Barta

in dedication to

The Love of My Life

useful for all elect who are willing to take Jesus seriously.

*All Scripture is breathed out by God and profitable for teaching, for reproof,
for correction,
and for training in righteousness, that the man of God may be complete, equipped for every good work.
2 Timothy 3:16-17, ESV*

The Bible Translations

Not knowing the original languages in which the Bible was written, the Lord has me using Young's and the Concordant as my baseline so that the Scriptures used convey the original meaning in the the New International Version (NIV), the English Standard Version (ESV), the King James Version (KJV), Young's Literal Translation (YLT), and the Concordant Literal Translation (CLT).

Contents

Dedication	i
The Bible Translations	ii
1 Called and Chosen	1
The Last of the Last Days	2
Honesty is HARD WORK.....	3
Martin Luther.....	3
A Very Dirty Woman	4
Our New Heart.....	5
Born Again.....	6
My Calling	7
The Vision.....	8
The Graphics	8
Modern Pharisees	9
Prophets are HUMAN	11
Crack Babies.....	12
The Christian Marriage	13
The Lord’s Use of a Woman.....	13
Called to Be His Disciples	14
Called to Submit to Christ!.....	18
We’ve Been Deceived.....	19
Discernment.....	21
Jesus was Black.....	22
Using God’s Word as a Sifter	23
Elect and Non Elect	24
The Failed Test.....	25
Invited to Eat and Run	26
2 The Rebellion	27
Angels Revolted	27
The Master’s Tool	28
Satan, Our Ruler	29
Two Kingdoms	29
Career vs Ministry.....	30
Religion vs Relationship.....	30
A History of Calling Evil Good.....	31
Binding and Loosing.....	31
Ruling Gods Rightly Divided	32

3 Eagle & RZIM	33
The Comatose Bride of Christ.....	34
Baptized.....	35
Anointed.....	36
A Set Up.....	37
Abusive Shepherds and their Flocks.....	38
Called as a Prophet.....	40
Called to Plug the Hole in the Cup.....	42
The Ultimatum.....	44
Titles.....	46
Thrown to the Wolves.....	48
4 A Diseased Tree	50
Pagan Christianity.....	50
Pagan Christianity's Lure.....	52
The Lie Fans Pride.....	53
A Lying Network.....	53
God's Grace—A Blessing and a Test.....	54
Called Out.....	55
The World.....	55
Religion.....	55
The Church Jesus is Building.....	57
The Problem with Pay.....	58
The Problem with Hierarchy.....	58
Blind Double-Minded Hypocrites.....	58
Calling Evil Good.....	59
The Joseph Experience Prophecy.....	61
Praying and Doing.....	61
Lessons on Love.....	65
Biblical Interpretations.....	65
Naming Names.....	66
Rejecting Christ.....	66
Not Your Will But My Will!.....	67
Creators of Hell.....	67
Infants Concerning the Spiritual War.....	68
Out to Seek and Destroy.....	69
Elevating Man Above God.....	70

Prescribed the Red Pill	71
Exam—A Biblical Interpretation	72
This Superpower WILL Have Super Power	73
5 Bad Fruit	74
When the Light Refuses to Shine	75
Doing Man’s Work Ignoring God	77
Discerning the Born Again Among Bad Fruit.....	80
Angela	80
Reggie	80
André	81
Bill Bean.....	82
Bryan Brenner.....	82
A Satanic Body of Christ!	83
A Pastor—Bill Bean.....	84
The Psych Ward	84
Transparency.....	85
Steeple Envy	86
Robin Hayes	87
A Revelation	88
A Prophet—Lisa	89
The Prayer Canvas	89
An Elder—Randa Nader	92
Elders with Baby Faith	92
A Young Man—Eric	94
Today’s Born Again Believers	95
Called to Reach Out to André	95
Addicted to Christ.....	95
The Mark of the Beast	99
Loving the Deceiver	100
Montana	101
Hell is The Zone	105
Transgendered	107
6 God is Not Mocked	108
Judgment Day	109
Christians Who Aren’t Born Again.....	110
Lost Who Totally Reject Christ.....	110
The Born Again	111

Ignoring a Great Salvation!.....	111
An Impossible Second Chance.....	112
The Question of Will.....	113
7 The Vision	116
The Humility of Christ.....	117
Why Does God Allow Evil?	118
The Age of Christ/Millennial Reign	118
The Age of Judgment/Second Death	121
All Lies Honor Satan.....	127
The Wrath of God	128
Welcoming Our Friend.....	129
God is Love.....	130
Treasure in Heaven	131
There are Lots of Job Openings	136
8 It's All Connected	137
My Father, El Leon	138
The United Nations	138
Josefo Leonidas.....	139
A Scandalous Love Affair	139
Hermeneutico	140
The Latest News.....	141
Susanna's Bath	142
He's Calling You.....	145
Walking in the Spirit.....	147
Daring to Trust Jesus	148
Becoming One in Christ	149
Denominations.....	149
Tithing	149
Paid Leaders.....	150
Christmas—The Christ Mass.....	150
The Signs of the Times	151
9 The Last Generation	152
The Fragrance of Christ.....	154
The Evidence.....	155
The Lord is One, Father and Son.....	155
The Trinity.....	156
Mary, the Surrogate.....	158

An Easy A 159
 Summary of The Edge of Tomorrow (2014) Interpretation 160

10 The Lord’s Return161
 The Timing of the Rapture.....161
 Our Hiding Place.....162
 The Latter Rain 164
 Making the Most Out of the Worst.....166
 Satan’s Strongholds 167
 Brought to DC for a Purpose.....168
 Spreading the Word.....168
 Leaders for Such a Time as This169
 Key Players 170
 The Marshalls.....170
 The Bartas 172
 The Williamses.....173
 Reggie’s Faith 173
 Our Wedding and The Vow.....174
 Reggie’s Apathy 175
 Reggie’s Name.....176
 A Match Made in Heaven.....177
 Those Eagleites 177

11 Prayer 178
 A Prophetic Word 178
 Prayer Journal Entry 179

Let every person
be quick to hear,
slow to speak,
slow to anger.
James 1:19, ESV

1 Called and Chosen

Jesus says “I chose you and appointed you that you should go and bear fruit” (John 15:16, ESV). Yet the fruit the body of Christ has historically produced is bad fruit. While most born again Christians probably think there is good fruit along with a ton of bad fruit, Jesus says “A bad tree cannot bear good fruit” (Matt. 7:18, NIV my emphasis). Compare the teachings of Christ with what the body of Christ has been saying and doing ever since the so-called Reformation and it clearly doesn’t line up. The only reason there’s been any truth coming out of our corrupt version of Christianity is because God “makes his sun rise on the evil and on the good, and sends rain on the just and on the unjust” (Matt. 5:45, ESV). He also “works all things according to the counsel of his will” (Eph. 1:11, ESV). The “assembly” of the Lord (Matt. 16:18, YLT) has been growing, in numbers mostly, but it’s been a measure of God’s grace rather than because of the body of Christ’s faithfulness. It’s been in spite of our unfaithfulness.

Therefore, the challenge the Lord has set before you with this book is for you to renounce your opinions and actions for the truth. Since Satan is “a liar” (John 8:44, ESV) every time we choose to lie to ourselves we give the devil a foothold over our own lives besides allowing him to use us to deceive others since “he who rejects reproof leads others astray” (Prov. 10:17, ESV). So I remind you that no matter how far we’ve strayed from the Lord, all we have to do to return to our first love (Rev. 2:4) is “confess our sins [repenting of them and], he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness” (1 John 1:9, ESV) because of the work Jesus did on the Cross. And if you return to your first love He’ll use you to draw the whole body back as explained throughout the text. The Lord says “Many are called, but few are chosen” (Matt. 22:14, ESV). He’s called many for salvation but few have been chosen because most haven’t been interested in Jesus. In turn, the way to life is narrow and few find it (Matt. 7:14). However, He’s also always calling those who were chosen, the born again, to come nearer still and serve Him in greater measure, faithful in a little He hands us more (Luke 19:17). You were faithful enough to become born again. Now He’s calling you to be faithful enough to walk in the Spirit. This text will clearly reveal that, for the most part, you’re not. As a whole, the body of Christ isn’t walking in the Spirit.

This book also clearly reveals that for the last 26 years the Lord has called many for greater service through the ministry He's entrusted to me, and He hasn't yet chosen anyone because they've been proud scoffers just like the lost. They've refused to admit their need to repent and, therefore, didn't. Yet there are positions of greater service for "such a time as this" (Est. 4:14, ESV) as we approach the very end of the age.

The Last of the Last Days. While He told the disciples back then "Concerning that day and hour no one knows" (Matt. 24:36, ESV), we should know the timing of the Lord's return since the New Testament says "You are not in darkness, brothers, for that day to surprise you like a thief" (1 Thess. 5:4, ESV). Jesus also rebuked the Jews for not being discerning of the signs of His first coming (Matt. 16:3), and as born again Christians with 2000 years worth of Bible study, we should be much more discerning. He also told us to "Stay awake" (Mark 13:37, ESV). And not only are there plenty of "signs of the times" (Matt. 16:3, ESV) revealing we're nearing the Lord's soon return, there are at least 54 prophecies in the Bible pointing to the same year, 2030, presented primarily by the Messiah 2030 - YouTube channel.

However, not having taken Jesus seriously enough, the body of Christ is in total "rebellion" as God informed us we would be before His return (2 Thess. 2:2-3, ESV)—which in itself confirms that 2030 timing. But because we're supposed to be "submit[ting] to one another out of reverence for Christ" (Eph. 5:21, NIV) we could be misinterpreting all of those prophecies. Still, 54 clearly pointing to the same exact year is quite a bit of evidence and should, at least, get our attention. And even if they're somehow wrong, the body of Christ obviously needs to repent. If it's not obvious to you, this book makes it obvious. Finally repenting and submitting to one another out of reverence for the Lord (Eph. 5:21) we'll know without a doubt if 2030 is correct. My only doubt is because we're not functioning as required. And it's a very small doubt.

Having me now reach out to you I'm praying you'll humble yourself before the Lord so that we stop putting him to open shame (Heb. 6:6). Besides that, the world is in desperate need of His help and we've been called to fulfill the Great Commission by teaching what Jesus actually taught (Matt. 28:19-20) and doing it by example since He abhors hypocrisy (Matt. 23:13). And all you have to do in order to know exactly what He's asking of you, is be honest. That's it!

But being honest is humanity's biggest problem and the reason Jesus went to the Cross in the first place, and why the world is in the mess that it's in. Because, "the heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked" (Jer. 17:9, KJV). The born again—who supposedly love the Truth—have proven this truth about the human heart better than anyone, as He has me clearly revealing in this book.

Honesty is Hard Work

Since "the heart is deceitful above all things" (Jer. 17:9, KJV), it's really hard for us to be honest even when we're born again. It requires "tak[ing] every thought captive to obey Christ" (2 Cor. 10:5, ESV)—and Christians have historically barely even tried as revealed throughout this book. Paul even spoke of it back then saying "You no longer try to understand" (Heb. 5:11, NIV), and we've just gotten worse with time—like a snowball effect.

Martin Luther. A great example of how the body of Christ has historically lied to Herself is with Martin Luther. Towards the end of his life—when he should have been a mature born again Christian— Luther wrote in his book On the Jews and Their Lies on page 75, as you can see both in block below and online at this link untitled \(prchiz.pl\), that we were wrong in not killing the Jews when Jesus says "Love your enemies" (Matt. 5:44, ESV). Rather than call Luther the Father of the Reformation, Jesus would have rebuked him saying "You are of your father the devil...[who] was a murderer from the beginning" (John 8:44, ESV). And there are other works revealing that Luther was more proud than humble, enough that his very salvation is questionable.

There is no other explanation for this than the one cited earlier from Moses, namely, that God has struck them with "madness and blindness and confusion of mind." So we are even at fault in not avenging all this innocent blood of our Lord and of the Christians which they shed for three hundred years after the destruction of Jerusalem, and the blood of the children they have shed since then (which still shines forth from their eyes and their skin). We are at fault in not slaying them. Rather we allow them to live freely in our midst despite an their murdering,

Luther's pride led him to make the same mistakes the body of Christ has historically made. And I provide several examples revealing that the born again have made them, and not just those who profess to be Christian and will one day hear "I never knew you" (Matt. 7:23, ESV). Luther ignored the fact that we are under the "new covenant" (Luke 22:20, NIV). In turn, like most, he wasn't "rightly dividing the word of truth" (2 Tim. 2:15, YLT) as we've been told to do and as Jesus modeled for us in Matthew 5:21-48 with His teaching “You have heard...but I say...” Luther was also ignoring the Lord’s requirement to love our enemies (Matt. 5:44), again, as most of the body has historically done sending soldiers out to kill for the love of this world. Rather than being faithful, we’ve dismissed Christ for 2000 years fulfilling His rhetorical question, “When the Son of Man comes, will he find faith on earth?” (Luke 18:8, ESV). He’ll find some because of the work He’s doing, but hardly what He should have found because of our historical rebellion.

A Very Dirty Woman. I refer to the body of Christ as female because the Bible says “the church [is] his body” (Eph. 5:23, NIV) about whom we’re told the following:

Christ loved the church and gave himself up for her, that he might sanctify her, having cleansed her by the washing of water with the word, so that he might present the church to himself in splendor, without spot or wrinkle or any such thing, that she might be holy and without blemish (Eph. 5:25-27, ESV).

She needs a bath because She’s the opposite of “holy and without blemish.” Not having taken Jesus seriously enough we’ve repeated all the sins of the Jews so that He’s saying to the body, His Church, “You have the forehead of a whore [and] refuse to be ashamed” (Jer. 3:3, ESV) which He’s proven through my 26 year testimony along with the work He’s had me doing. This ministry and this book are a big part of that cleansing bath He’ll be giving Her and the reason He’s always had me back up every point with Scripture in relation to the new covenant. Since “His name is called The Word of God” (Rev. 19:13, KJV), His teaching—the words in red of the Bible—are the soap, which is why “we take captive every thought to obey Christ” (2 Cor. 10:5, ESV). That’s how we get clean and keep ourselves clean. By extension, the parts of the Bible that line up with Jesus’ actual words are also soap. That’s how we “rightly divide” it (2 Tim. 2:15, NIV). Our maturity was under condition, “if indeed you continue in the faith (Gal. 1:21-23, ESV). We haven’t. Far from it! The body of Christ has historically ignored most of the conditions by which we would have kept ourselves clean and matured in Christ.

Our New Heart. Another lie many born again Christians have been telling themselves is that we've been completely transformed—as in this documentary, American Gospel - Movie \(youtube.com\). While God said “I will give you a new heart, and a new spirit I will put within you” (Ezek. 36:26, ESV), we have not yet received our new heart whereas “the Holy Spirit...God has given to those who obey him” (Acts 5:32, ESV). Born again Christians obeyed Jesus initially so that He placed His Spirit inside of us. But we won't receive our new heart until the day He returns and “we shall all be changed” (1 Cor. 15:51, ESV). Then, at the rapture, we'll have the heart of Christ, One who would never disobey His Father or abuse others which is contrary to what the born again have historically done as covered in the text.

While today's Protestants don't kill other Protestants, as far as I'm aware, like Protestants did during the so-called Reformation (speaking of the Anabaptists), they behave like these graphics. It's what they've done with me for the past 26 years and what I've read and seen they've done with others. Rather than being a loving “family of believers” (1 Pet. 2:17, NIV) as called to be (John 13:35), we're an extremely dysfunctional and abusive Family. And He says “As you did it to one of the least of these my brothers, you did it to me” (Matt. 25:40, ESV).

Born Again

I have to cover information I'm certain you're clear about to help get us on the same page. And I see being born again like getting an exchange blood transfusion: God's holy nature in exchange for our sinful one. When we obey Jesus for a season of time, proving our sincerity to Him, He places His Spirit inside of us as Acts 5:32 (in the graphic) and the following passage reveal:

If anyone loves me, he will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our home with him (John 14:23, ESV).

God does what He's told the body of Christ to do with those who profess to believe in Jesus. He says "Let these also first be proved, then let them minister, being unblameable" (1 Tim. 3:10, YLT). Making a verbal profession of faith is like saying Yea I wanna buy the car! compared to actually dishing out cash. BIG difference.

And the born again weren't called to simply believe but "follow [Jesus]" (Matt. 4:19, ESV) since "devils also believe" (James 2:19, KJV). We have to continue to obey Him or we can end up getting "saved; yet so as by fire" (1 Cor. 3:15, KJV) being "worse than [at] first" (Matt. 12:45, ESV), worse than before we were born again! I provide several examples in this text revealing it.

God warned us. “Anyone who listens to the word but does not do what it says is like someone who looks at his face in a mirror and, after looking at himself, goes away and immediately forgets what he looks like” (John 1:23-2, NIV). It’s what most born again have historically done so that it’s as if the Lord’s “Bride” (Rev. 19:7, ESV) has been suffering from Alzheimers saying one thing while doing the exact opposite, making our historical impact horrendous! And since it’s what we’ve been doing for 2000 years, getting worse with time, the body of Christ today is made up of the worst spiritual hypocrites of all time! We’ve made the Pharisees look good since, unlike us, they didn’t have God’s Spirit within nor the completed Word of God as their guide.

My Calling

While I became born again in 1988, the Lord moved us out to Indiana because the DC metro area is even more spiritually dead. So it wasn’t until 1997 that my spiritual growth took off and I specifically asked Him what the “good works” were which He “prepared” for me to do (Eph. 2:10, KJV), and this is the key verse He gave me summing it up:

The LORD answered me, and said, Write the vision, and make it plain upon tables, that he may run that readeth it. For the vision is yet for an appointed time, but at the end it shall speak, and not lie: though it tarry, wait for it; because it will surely come, it will not tarry (Hab. 2:2-3, KJV).

He also tied it to the signature Scripture of the only so-called “home church” He ever gave me, Eagle in Indianapolis. “They that wait upon the LORD shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary; and they shall walk, and not faint” (Isa. 40:31, KJV). The ministry He’s entrusted to me includes several free books along with booklets and tracts provided as PDF files online, as well as over 200 videos. For years I took my stuff down from the web as He further enlightened me, reworking it, but He had me stop doing that two years ago. And these are the main books:

- Satan Exposed: Rightly Dividing the Word
- Satan’s Reign: A Timeline, and
- End Times Prophecy Unsealed

With every assignment He’s given me I’ve gotten more enlightened as mistakes have been revealed and more Scriptures opened up so that the Modern Pharisees. For 26 years born again Christians have rebuked or ignored me while not even listening to what's been said, not taking their thoughts captive to Christ (2 Cor. 10:5) “grieve[ing] the Holy Spirit of God, by whom [we] were sealed for the day of redemption” (Eph. 4:30, ESV). Again, they've been scoffers just like the lost so that I'm stressing the following points up front.

1. There is NONE Righteous. I know without a doubt that if not for God's hand on my life I would be just as evil as the rest. This book reveals that the body of Christ is being evil. It's obvious. But you can't see the obvious if you choose to lie to yourself and not remove the beams from your eyes (Matt. 7:5). And the body has tons of beams in Her eyes right now. In other words “His Bride” (Rev. 19:7, ESV) is BLIND due to Her outrageous hypocrisy. Therefore, you need to read the whole book since that's how you'll know how much damage we've done and how God has responded. Then you need to read it again having removed some of the beams and/or having acknowledged that changes need to be made in order to see even more clearly.
2. Hypocrisy Honors Satan. Called to be “the light of the world” (Matt. 5:14, ESV)—the ONLY light—being hypocrites, we've left the whole world in the dark. And since Satan is “the ruler of this world” (John 12:31, YLT), the body of Christ has been pushing people into Satan's grip when we were supposed to be releasing them from it. Again, I provide clear examples.
3. I'm Not A Know It All. I have no doubt whatsoever that I am not 100% correct since the Lord is always correcting me and further enlightening me. Besides that, I have questions. He's also required that we “submit to one another” (Eph. 5:21, NIV).
4. We Should Be Judgmental. Paul wrote, “Are you not to judge those inside? God will judge those outside” (1 Cor. 15:12-13, NIV). We've got it backwards since today's Christians refuse to be held accountable which is our job while rebuking the lost for not submitting to Christ when that's God's job! I'm not wrong for standing firm in the faith as I get accused by born again Christians who have been urging me—since the very week I became born again—to honor men more than Christ. Rather, “If you do not stand firm in your faith, you will not stand at all” (Isa. 7:9, NIV). Again, this text reveals that the majority of born again aren't standing but more like lying down asleep in a coma.

May the Father now permit us to “wake up” (Rev. 3:2, ESV) and move on to maturity through our obedience—mine in writing this book for you and yours in receiving it as having come from Him, since it obviously has (excluding any mistakes I’ve made which you can detect by taking your thoughts captive to Christ while being honest). Having revealed to me that the body of Christ is the Girl in the graphic, the following passage sums up my ultimate prayer, the sum of my prayers:

Let us leave the elementary doctrine of Christ and go on to maturity, not laying again a foundation of repentance from dead works and of faith toward God, and of instruction about washings, the laying on of hands, the resurrection of the dead, and eternal judgment. And this we will do if God permits (Heb. 6:1-3, ESV).

God has not permitted us to go on to maturity because, as I’ve been saying and clearly expose throughout the text, we’re in rebellion and have refused to repent.

Prophets are HUMAN. The notion spewed out by today's Christians, especially in leadership, that a prophet can make no mistakes spiritually is twisted Scripture since it contradicts what the Lord revealed to us through John the Baptist. While Jesus said that John was Spirit filled from the womb (Luke 1:15 in the graphic) telling us he was the greatest prophet who'd ever lived (Matt. 11:11 in the graphic), John didn't even know who he was spiritually! (John 1:21 & Matt. 11:14 in the graphic). So yeah, I make mistakes! But that doesn't mean the Lord isn't using me as a prophet. Twenty six years ago others started recognizing me as such. They'd recognized it even before I had when the Lord had actually revealed it to me a year or so earlier. And, really, He'd revealed it decades earlier but I couldn't make the connections for not being born again and not knowing the Scriptures since "the person without the Spirit does not accept the things that come from the Spirit of God...and cannot understand them" (1 Cor. 2:14, NIV).

The problem with the body of Christ has been that the born again are super immature so that rather than repent, held accountable they either ignore me or point out errors—real and imagined—in my understanding or life while ignoring their sins. What everyone on my path has been doing is behaving like immature little children who get caught at having done something bad and immediately say "Well, you're not perfect!" We need to grow up!

And the notion of having to be spiritually perfect comes from Deuteronomy 13:1-3 (below), but there are several problems with how it's been used. I touch on one of the main problems further in this chapter. And the fact is that I have always been persuading others to follow Jesus. That's been clear from the beginning and typically admitted by the very people who would have me believe that I'm a false prophet. Held accountable, they didn't admit the truth about themselves and behaved like a spoiled little brat. Again, examples provided throughout the book.

Deuteronomy 13:1-3, ESV If a prophet or a dreamer of dreams arises among you and gives you a sign or a wonder, and the sign or wonder that he tells you comes to pass, and if he says, 'Let us go after other gods,' which you have not known, 'and let us serve them,' you shall not listen to the words of that prophet.

Crack Babies

Since everyone takes offense at everything I say, how I say it, and what I do, and how I do it, I remind you that we were all born into a world with a severely unbiblical version of Christianity having fulfilled "the rebellion" (2 Thess. 2:3, ESV). In other words, we were brainwashed about the interpretation of the Bible—about what God has actually said and done—even before we were washed with the blood of the Lamb! We're like poor little Crack Babies! But Dr. Rapha (Ps. 103:2-3 below) is helping us with our addiction by exposing the lies. He's also able to give us complete healing unlike worldly doctors. But to experience that healing we have to take the medicine He's prescribed. The pill is red because it represents the willingness to face hard life-changing truths [from The Matrix (1999)] since He "works out everything in conformity with the purpose of his will" (Eph. 1:11, NIV).

Psalms 103:2-3, ESV The LORD...heals all your diseases.

The Christian Marriage

Having initially addressed this to you and LeAnne, the Lord reminded me that even Christian women today take pride in being “strong women” rather than in being followers of Christ. Or else they’re followers of their husbands when “our Maker is...our husband” (Isa. 54:5, KJV) so that obedience to Him trumps obedience to our earthly husband who “is the head of the wife” (Eph. 5:23, ESV). Let’s say someone broke into our home and had a gun to Reggie’s head and I also had a gun (since Reggie seems to have one in this house), I’m not going to obey Reggie telling me to kill the man. I’m going to obey my Husband who says “Love your enemies” (Matt. 5:44, ESV). This is how it should go: The power of prayer stops a robbery #jesus #bible #holyspirit #christianity #god (youtube.com). And not living up to their calling in Christ, today’s “mature” Christian husbands tend to lord over their wives making it harder for their wives to follow Christ. We’re a mess! God knows where your marriage lies within the spectrum of that mess, but He had me address this to you alone because you need to be like Paul when he said “I did not immediately consult with anyone” (Gal. 1:15-16, ESV). Read this whole book and wrap your head around what the Lord is saying and doing before discussing it with anyone so that you can focus on His voice. Taking your thoughts captive to Christ (2 Cor. 10:5) you’ll drown out my voice—leaving just the two of you.

The Lord’s Use of a Woman. Our marriage reveals how it can work when a husband is not in submission to Christ without a wife having to disobey her husband. It calls for humility and prayer—lots of it! Reggie’s strength is humility whereas mine is prayer. And the following are two other reasons why the Lord chose a woman rather than a man for this ministry which will turn the tide for the body of Christ at His “appointed time” (Hab. 2:3, KJV):

1. He’s shaming men and women for being so unfaithful; and
2. He’s challenging men and women to be faithful.

Because, if a woman could stand firm in the faith for this long, alone, going against the grain of the lost and born again Christians—including all immediate and extended family members—men should have been willing and able to do it. In fact, if they’d historically done it, no born again soul would have needed to go against the grain of the body of Christ!

Called to Be His Disciples

When the Lord gives me a new assignment I start from scratch. If I just cut and paste then called it done, slapping on a new title, I would deprive myself of the opportunity God has given me to grow in Christ. So while I am DESPERATE for the first person to run with the vision (Hab. 2:2-3), I am even more interested in my own spiritual growth. And you should be as well. That growth comes from being open to Christ rather than defending our position whatever that might be. And my experience is that defending our position is nearly always our first reaction. But as soon as I realize God is trying to tell me something, I give in to Him wholeheartedly. And it should already be obvious to you that God is trying to tell you something through this book.

Yet the born again are in the habit of focusing on their position—their opinions, their titles, their job, their income, their desires, their friends, and their loved ones—rather than on what God has revealed to us in or through the new covenant. Yet Jesus says “Any one of you who does not renounce all that he has cannot be my disciple” (Luke 14:33, ESV). He meant it, and my life proves it’s doable. The way I’ve understood it and walked in it is that we renounce everything He puts His finger on—of which He makes us clearly aware. It’s a process.

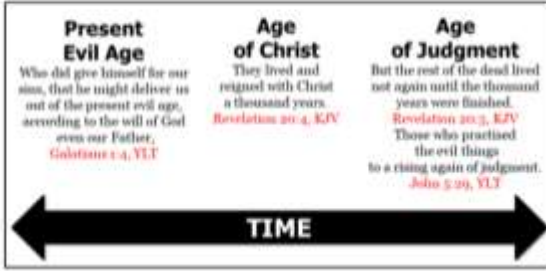

So as a seeker, the first thing He put His finger on was smoking. I’d known it was wrong but smoked in rebellion, having started as a kid not long after my father died of lung cancer. I was pretty mad at him for not even saying goodbye to me—as he had to my brother and sister—when he’d known he was dying. And the season before I became born again I got convicted about it so that I stopped cold turkey. Then as a born again Christian, reading His Word or listening to sermons, for example, I got convicted about other things and let go of those habits, activities, people, whatever. Through that process I’ve ended up where I am today, totally alone—with Christ! And before deciding I’m wrong, you need to read the book (and consider what you sing!).

Ages of the Ages

To the King of the ages, the incorruptible, invisible, only wise God, [a]s honor and glory – to the ages of the ages! Amen.
1 Timothy 1:17, YLT

Before the Ages
We declare God's wisdom, a mystery that has been hidden and that God destined for our glory before time began.
1 Corinthians 2:7, NIV

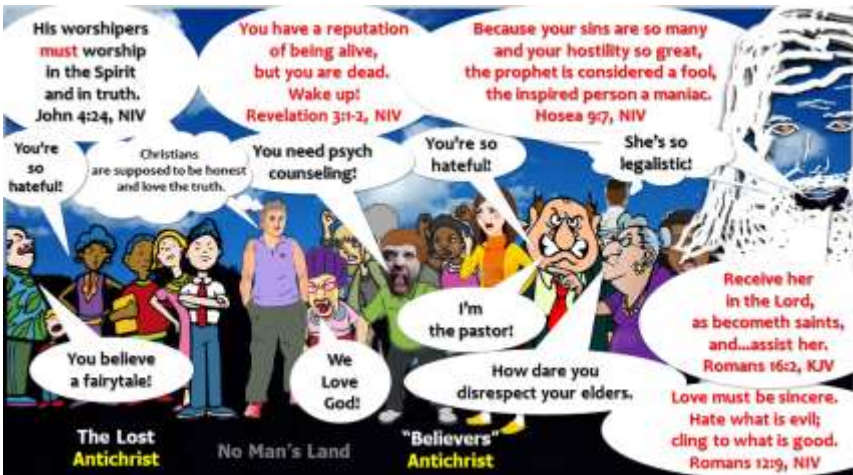

End of the Ages
Then cometh the end,
When he shall have delivered up the Kingdom to God, even the Father;
when he shall have put down all rule and all authority and power.
1 Corinthians 15:24, KJV

There are three important points that enable us to understand what the Lord has actually done as revealed in the Bible:

1. We have take Him seriously rather than give Him lip-service;
2. He's working through "ages" (1 Tim. 1:17, ESV) not just "the present evil age" (Gal. 1:4, YLT) but also the next two; and,
3. We have to admit when we've misinterpreted Scripture.

Using my past trials for His purposes, I was made desperately hungry for Jesus who is "the truth" (John 14:6, ESV) so that, unlike the typical born again Christian, I became His disciple. Again, there's plenty of proof that most born again are not disciples of Christ since it requires "run[ning] with perseverance the race marked out for us" (Heb. 12:1, NIV) rather than watering down the truth to suit our own will. And my testimony proves that the body of Christ has been like a stampede running in the wrong direction coming against me so that I've had to go against the body of Christ and the lost when it should only have been against the lost.

Since He's called us not only as individuals but as a group, "the body of Christ" (1 Cor. 12:27, ESV), and called us to "run" this "race" (Heb. 12:1, NIV), it's like we're running a relay in the Spiritual Olympics. Having run my course for these 36 years, reaching out to different people for the last 26 years as led by the Lord, many of whom were clearly born again, there have been many times that I've thought they would be the one to take this baton from my hand. But so far none have been willing besides being abusive or, at best, ice cold. And, God knows, I'M DONE!

Called to Submit to Christ! Today's born again are proud scoffers and bullies. THE WORST. Especially men, and especially those in so-called leadership roles. But born again Christian women aren't any better. Men feel worse since they're bigger. Again, 2000 years ago Paul said "You no longer try to understand" (Heb. 5:11, NIV), so today it's that much worse! Not only do the born again not try to understand, they're abusive. But if they at least tried to defend their position they could do no better than the ones on my path have done: they'd have to lie. And that's the point, they haven't tried to even consider if their position was worth defending and have, therefore, lied to themselves, lied to me, and most importantly, lied to God—as if anyone could lie to God and get away with it which points to the main problem with lying, we deceive ourselves. While we've been called to be "ambassadors for Christ" (2 Cor. 5:20, ESV) who is "the truth" (John 14:6, ESV), the body of Christ today is made up of outrageous liars.

Worse even. There was a very clear parallel with the documentary series I just watched, The Program: Cons, Cults, and Kidnapping. The born again are behaving like abusive brainwashed cult members who refuse to admit the truth of their actions or damage they've done even when it's pointed out to them. It's like the born again have selective amnesia since they can clearly see the problem in others but refuse to see it in themselves. And because God gave me this calling it's not likely that I have as big a problem with it as the norm.

And you should be appalled by what the body of Christ has been doing. That is the only biblical and God-honoring response. As summed up in this book, the Lord has done for His Girl what a boyfriend once did for me, and He's done it so that She can "ma[k]e herself ready" (Rev. 19:7, ESV). Since mine was a small street bike, he took me out on his racing bike doing 127 mph weaving in and out of highway traffic, which was thrilling (though stupid). IF you're honest about your part in this "rebellion" (2 Thess. 2:3, ESV), repentant, this book will end up thrilling you. But if you lean towards stupidity lying to yourself, the consequences will be a colossal wipe out as revealed by others since "God is not mocked" (Gal. 6:7, ESV). Unlike my graphic, you need to wear full gear. "Put on the whole armor" (Eph. 6:11 ESV).

We've Been Deceived

Being less than faithful the body of Christ has historically been deceived—and not just a little. As this graphic should make clear to you, Christians have historically let themselves get brainwashed with lies. Because, “grace and truth came through Jesus Christ” (John 1:17, ESV) not through Moses or any of the Old Testament prophets. While there is truth in the Old Testament, we have to “take every thought captive to obey Christ” (2 Cor. 10:5, ESV). Jesus also modeled for us that we should “rightly divid[e] the word of truth” (2 Tim. 2:15, YLT)—that Word being the Bible so that it’s also called the Word of God. We discern God’s voice in the Bible by taking our thoughts captive to Christ so that even if it’s in the Bible spoken by a prophet, but doesn’t line up with Jesus’ teaching, it’s NOT something we should be doing or honoring because “truth came through Jesus Christ” (John 1:17, ESV). And the graphic reveals we haven’t rightly divided the Word since Christians have historically said it was God who spoke the words of Jeremiah 13:14, for example, when it had to be “the god of this world” (2 Cor. 4:4, KJV) since “the one who has the power of death, that is, the devil” (Heb. 2:14, ESV) whereas “God is love” (1 John 4:8, ESV) who says “I the LORD do not change” [Mal. 3:6, ESV]. “Christ is the same yesterday and today and forever” (Heb. 13:8, ESV). Jesus is “the life” (John 14:6, ESV) compared to Satan who is a “murderer...and...a liar” (John 8:44, ESV). We’ve also been informed that Satan set out to “be like the most High” (Isa. 14:14, KJV) in order to “deceive the nations” (Rev. 20:3, KJV) by “masquerad[ing] as an angel of light” (1 Cor. 11:14, NIV).

Discernment. Not only did the Israelites have the problem of the heart being “deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked” (Jer. 17:9, KJV), just like we do. They also weren’t born again. That problem is summed up in the following passage:

The person without the Spirit does not accept the things that come from the Spirit of God but considers them foolishness, and cannot understand them because they are discerned only through the Spirit (1 Cor. 2:14, NIV).

Without God’s Spirit inside of them there was no way for the Israelites to discern the difference between Satan’s voice and the voice of the most High! In turn, they were often deceived. Consider the following Old Testament passages:

Sacrifice a bull each day as a sin offering to make atonement (Ex. 29:36, NIV).

Whoever sacrifices a bull is like one who kills a person (Isa. 66:3, NIV).

Clearly the same God/god did not make both statements.

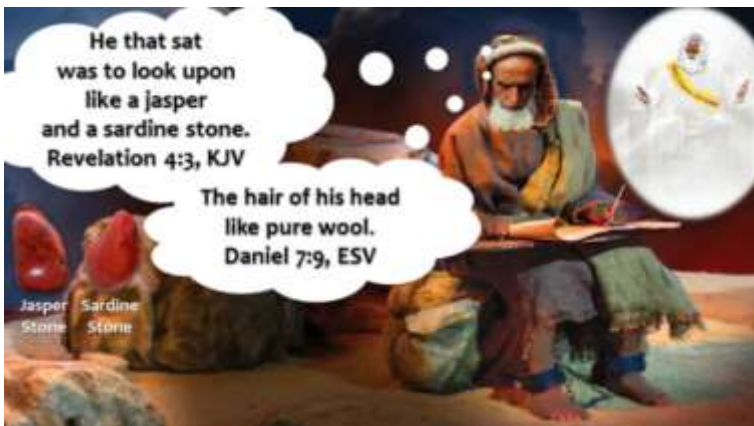

Unlike the Israelites, the born again—and only the born again—can discern the difference between the voice of fallen angels and God’s voice. But since the born again have historically NOT been in the habit of taking our thoughts captive to Christ (2 Cor. 10:5), we’ve deceived ourselves and helped Satan and the rest of the fallen angels “deceive the nations” (Rev. 20:3, KJV).

Honestly consider how pleased Jesus would have been with Solomon’s sacrifice of 142,000 animals to dedicate the temple (2 Chron. 7:5, KJV) when “the Most High does not dwell in houses made by hands” (Acts 7:48, ESV)? According to Isaiah 66:3 (above) He’d see it as a horrendous slaughter of 142,000 people!

Jesus was Black. The Bible reveals that Christ and, therefore, the Israelites were a people of color (Rev. 4:3 & Dan. 7:9 in the graphic below). I used one of those stones to make Jesus' face. He's what we call Black. This documentary Watch Hebrews to Negroes: Wake Up Black America | Prime Video \(amazon.com\) reveals how humanity was deceived. (Apparently it's also a book.) However, the modern group Hebrew Israelites is a cult according to the new covenant—as are all denominations since “there should be no division in the body” (1 Cor. 12:25, NIV). I discern Jesus' skin tone is part of the reason He led me to marry a Black man when I'd promised myself even before meeting Reggie that I'd never do that since we're so racist and I didn't want my children to have to deal with that. (Since my father worked at the UN I grew up having international friends which gave me a good feel for humanity's racism because just about everyone views Blacks as lesser even when they say otherwise.) But we're even more racist than I'd thought so that most born again Christians couldn't handle viewing Jesus as a Black man, making for a pretty rude awakening!

Using God’s Word as a Sifter. My work is that of hundreds of people from the Bible, sermons, books, videos, and life experience. And nearly everything He’s ever shown me has been a combination of truth and lies, as revealed by the new covenant. Again, He’s had me using His teachings—the words in red—to reveal problems within the body of Christ and within the Bible, “rightly dividing the word” (2 Tim. 2:15, KJV). If a Scripture lines up with the words in red, it’s ‘kosher.’ If not, I discern it’s Satan trying to deceive which he’s easily done since we haven’t taken our thoughts captive to Christ (2 Cor. 10:5).

And because Jesus says “My flesh is true food, and my blood is true drink” (John 6:55, ESV), it’s like the “Master [Chef]” (John 13:13, KJV) has had me apprenticing under Him as His Sous Chef so as to “feed [His] sheep” (John 21:17, ESV) in order to baptize them in the Spirit (Matt. 3:11 in the graphic). That’s what’s needed because much of what has been passing off as anointed by God has actually come from another spirit, “by the activity of Satan with all power and false signs and wonders” (2 Thess. 2:9, ESV)—“lying wonders” (in Young’s literal translation).

Working it all out (Eph. 1:11), the Lord has had me doing what I did with my degree, especially a literature review for the National Institute of Mental Health. Unlike scholarly Christian works with big words (like on food labels), and which are LOADED with false doctrine (like those toxic chemicals), He’s had me present the vision of what He’s revealed to me directly and through many in a way that even kids can understand. And since I back everything up with Scripture in relation to the new covenant it’s less likely to contain toxic false doctrines. But because all of our hearts are “deceitful above all things” (Jer. 17:9, KJV) members of the body of Christ need to “submit to one another out of reverence for Christ” (Eph. 5:21, NIV) in order to finally arrive at purely sound doctrine—nothing toxic. And He’s asking us to do that.

God's Plan for this Age

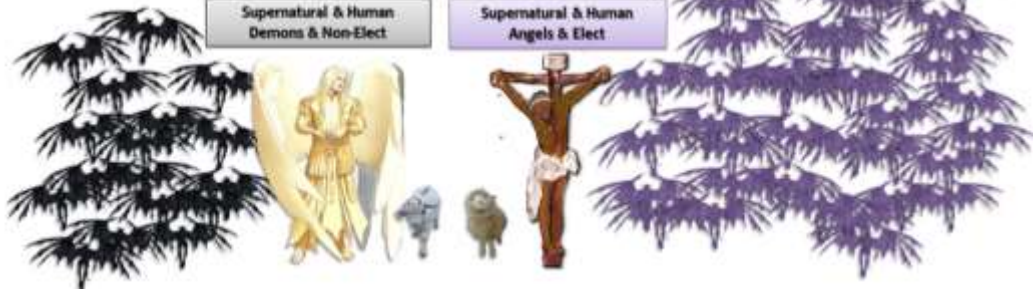

What God Did

God [was] willing to shew his wrath and... make his power known, endure[ing] with much longsuffering the VESSELS OF WRATH fitted to destruction... [so] that he might make known the riches of his glory on the VESSELS OF MERCY, which he had afore prepared unto glory. Romans 9:22-23

Why God Did It

Supernatural & Human Demons & Non-Elect

Supernatural & Human Angels & Elect

Elect and Non Elect

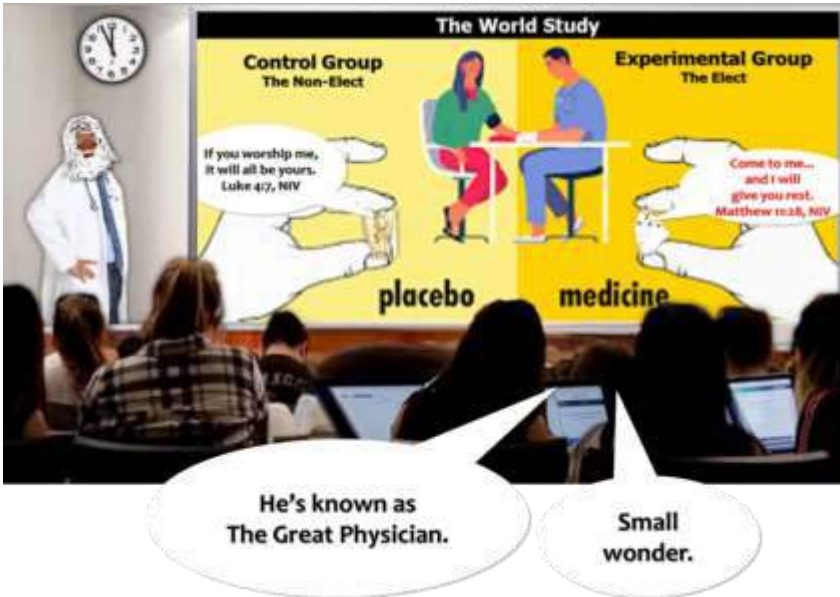

The body of Christ, in great part, uses the term elect as if it means born again when that can't be the case since Paul said "I endure everything for the sake of the elect, that they also may obtain the salvation that is in Christ Jesus" (2 Tim. 2:10, ESV). It doesn't make sense that the born again need to obtain what they already have. Rather, elect refers to "vessels of mercy, which he has prepared beforehand for glory" (Rom. 9:23, ESV). They're the group God has been primarily working with during this "present evil age" (Gal. 1:4, YLT) as opposed to the "vessels of wrath prepared for destruction" (Rom. 9:22, ESV), the goats. Jesus said "I have other sheep [other elect] that are not of this fold. I must bring them also, and they will listen to my voice. So there will be one flock, one shepherd" (John 10:16, ESV). That's what He'll finally do through this ministry as His born again sheep repent so that He can use us to gather in the rest of His sheep who are currently lost. I'm not delusional. I'm taking my thoughts captive to Christ (2 Cor. 10:5). I'm engaging my brain! And if you're wise you'll engage yours.

When the body finally functions biblically, we'll fulfill the Father's requirement for answering the Lord's High Priestly Prayer of making us "one" so that the world—specifically the massive group of lost elect—believe the Father sent Him (John 17:20-21) and the Lord's "Bride [will finally have] made herself ready" (Rev. 19:7, ESV). Yet, so far, no Christian will even discuss anything with me due to their stubborn pride and brainwashed opinions! And it's because our hearts are “deceitful above all things” (Jer. 17:9, KJV).

The Failed Test

The Old Testament says “the LORD your God is testing you, to know whether you love the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul” (Deut. 13:3, ESV). It points to the greatest commandment, “You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind and with all your strength” (Mark 12:30, ESV). Coordinating all things (Eph. 1:11), having read enough of The China Study, the Lord impressed me that this graphic sums up His World Study—what this exercise we call life has been all about, because a ‘study’ is a test. Testing us, the Lord has used the non-elect “vessels of wrath” (Rom. 9:22, ESV) as the control group. And the vessels of mercy, more specifically the body of Christ, have proven to have failed His test, and failed it miserably! That point will come across loud and clear through this book revealing that the “the showers have been withholden, and there hath been no latter rain; [because the body of Christ has] a whore’s forehead, [and] refuse[s]...to be ashamed” (Jer. 3:3, KJV). The “former rain” (Joel 2:23, KJV) was Pentecost, the first outpouring of God’s Spirit on the faithful, and the “latter rain” will be the final “downpour” (Joel 2:23, CLT) of His Spirit—on the faithful—at the end of this age, which we’ve just about reached.

Invited to Eat and Run

The Great “I AM” (Ex. 3:14, ESV) has a school (in the spiritual realm) called The IAM, The International Academy of Manna. As “the bread of life” (John 6:35, ESV) He’s recruiting so that we can lay out a banquet for His beloved sheep who are currently wandering all lost and starving out in the wilderness or being abused or deceived by today’s so-called shepherds. It’s a rerun of the following passage:

Surely because my sheep have become a prey, and my sheep have become food for all the wild beasts...and because my shepherds have not searched for my sheep, but the shepherds have fed themselves, and have not fed my sheep, therefore, you shepherds, hear the word of the LORD: Thus says the Lord GOD, Behold, I am against the shepherds, and I will require my sheep at their hand and put a stop to their feeding the sheep. No longer shall the shepherds feed themselves. I will rescue my sheep from their mouths, that they may not be food for them (Ezek. 34:7-10, ESV).

And in the same way that “no one can come to [Jesus] unless the Father...draws him” (John 6:44, ESV), joining The IAM is by invitation only. Through this book the Father is inviting you to join The IAM for this very important ministry of “the present evil age” (Gal. 1:4, YLT). Once He gets that first recruit to “run” with “the vision” (Hab. 2:2-3, KJV) the rest of the body of Christ will join the run. And once a decent number from the body of Christ start running in the right direction the lost elect will join the run. In other words, this book is like those special dinners held before a marathon. Eat the best “food” (John 6:55, ESV) for this “race” (Acts 20:24, NIV), then “run in such a way as to get the prize” (1 Cor. 9:24, NIV).

2 The Rebellion

While many preach that we've just come into "the rebellion" which God foretold we'd be in before Christ's return (2 Thess. 2:3 in the graphic), or worse that we will be coming into it, we have been in rebellion for 2000 years in increasing measure. The body of Christ is now in the worst shape we've ever been in as the New Testament proves, the state of "the church, his body" proves (Eph. 5:23, ESV), and my testimony proves. However, a supernatural rebellion came first.

Angels Revolted

Created as a "ministering spirit" (Heb. 1:14, KJV) informed that humans would one day be greater than the angels—greater than Satan—since "we are to judge angels" (1 Cor. 6:3, ESV), "war arose in heaven" (Rev. 12:7, ESV) against "the captain of [ou]r salvation" (Heb. 2:10, KJV) at which time He "cast [the rebellious angels] down to the earth" (Isa. 14:12, NIV). The Lord demoted Satan, the "king" over the fallen angels (Rev. 9:11, NIV), and made him "the ruler of this world" (John 12:31, YLT) to use as His tool by working out Satan's "schemes" (2 Cor. 2:11, NIV) into His plan for His purposes since He "works out everything in conformity with the purpose of his will" (Eph. 1:11, NIV), which will ultimately work out for the benefit of all, including Satan—by the end of the ages since Jesus is “making all things new” (Rev. 21:5, ESV).

The Master’s Tool. Since “all things were created through him and for him” (Col. 1:16, ESV) and He’s “the carpenter” (Mark 6:3, ESV) and all carpenters have amazing tools, the Lord is using Satan like the best Swiss Army knife ever. We read “You are to deliver this man to Satan for the destruction of the flesh, so that his spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord” (1 Cor. 5:5, ESV). We also know that the fallen angels can only do what the Lord allows them to do because “the demons begged him, saying, “If you cast us out, send us away into the herd of pigs.” And he said to them, “Go.”” (Matt. 8:31-32, ESV).

While most translations call Satan “the prince of this world” (John 12:31, KJV), Young’s literal calls him “the ruler of this world” (John 12:31, YLT). Again, when Satan rebelled Jesus demoted him to earth giving him “all authority” (Luke 4:6, ESV) on earth for His purposes. Since God “know[s] the end from the beginning” (Isa. 46:10, NIV) even Satan couldn’t mess up His plan. Jesus just plugged Satan’s “schemes” (Eph. 6:11, NIV) into His equation and made it all work out perfectly (Eph. 1:11). It’s like this problem He gave us which we’ve yet to work out even though we’ve had 2000 YEARS to do it and it’s not even higher math!

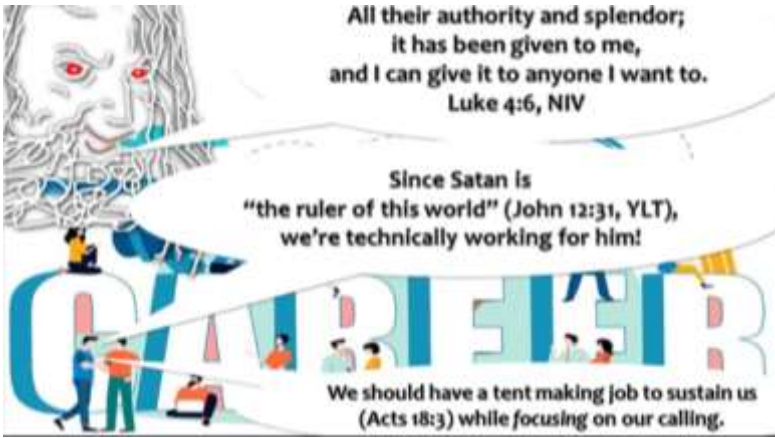

Satan, Our Ruler. I discern Jesus made Satan our ruler to prove His point about our desperately wicked hearts (Jer. 17:9), speaking of the born again, since all we were told to do was “submit...ourselves...to God. Resist the devil, and he [would have had to] flee” (James 4:7, ESV). Instead, we’ve laid out the red carpet for Satan and his “forces of evil” (Eph. 6:12, NIV) helping them lie to and abuse humanity so that Jesus is saying to the body of Christ, using specific examples from my life, “These things you have done, and I have been silent...But now I rebuke you and lay the charge before you” (Ps. 50:21, ESV).

Two Kingdoms

Jesus has a kingdom and so does Satan. Jesus’ “kingdom is not of this world” (John 18:36, ESV) whereas Satan’s kingdom is this world being that he’s “the ruler” and “god” of it (John 12:31, YLT & 2 Cor. 4:4, KJV). And there are two ‘areas’ the born again can focus on, either their career/their job or their ministry (Matt. 6:24 in the graphic).

Career vs Ministry. Careers and jobs—what most born again have primarily focused on—are Satan’s domain (John 12:31). It’s the reason the Lord has had me focus on my ministry full-time for the last 26 years. While unpaid, it’s better—though it doesn’t feel like it. AT ALL. But “we walk by faith not by sight” or by feelings (2 Cor. 5:7, ESV). What I’ve been doing with my life is what Christians (for the most part) only sing about doing, Though none go with me still I will follow. It’s the better option since Satan is a “liar” and a “murderer” (John 8:44, ESV).

Religion vs Relationship. Jesus made it clear that it’s about having a relationship with God through Him, not about religion. The closer the relationship—the more faithful we are to Him—the better discernment we have and more we get used by Him. Conversely, the more distant we keep from Christ—the more unfaithful we are to Him—the poorer our spiritual discernment, and more we get used by Satan.

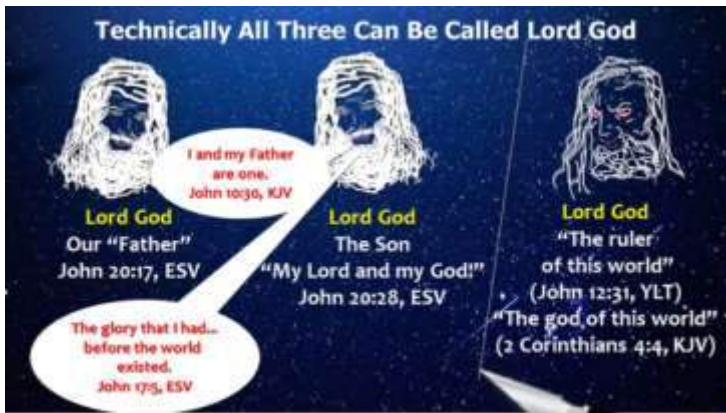

A History of Calling Evil Good

The following New Testament example reveals that the body of Christ has dismissed Christ from the very beginning, which we've kept building on for not taking our thoughts captive to His teaching (2 Cor. 10:5).

Binding and Loosing. Peter asked Jesus how many times we should forgive someone and was essentially told to always forgive in saying “seventy times seven” (Matt. 18:22, KJV). Jesus also said TO PETER “Whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven” (Matt. 16:19, ESV). It was also Peter who betrayed Jesus during His darkest hour—three times no less (John 18:15-27)—and who was immediately not only forgiven by Jesus (John 21:15-19) but given a very important ministry “to the circumcised” (Gal. 2:8, ESV).

Yet the minute these lessons were put to the test—with Ananias and Sapphira (Acts 5:1-10)—Peter lobotomized himself about what he'd been taught, dismissing Christ and letting his wicked heart rule (Jer. 17:9). Rather than forgive those who had sinned against the Lord as he'd been forgiven, he had them killed by loosing demonic spirits! And the born again haven't seen anything wrong with the common interpretation of what took place for not “rightly dividing the word” (2 Tim. 2:15, YLT), as if we're supposed to kill. It's what Protestants did to other Protestants during the supposedly great Reformation, just as born again Christians still go off to war to kill people asking God to “Bless our troops” as if He loves some nations more than others ignoring the fact that His kingdom isn't even of this world (John 18:36) and says “Love your enemies” (Matt. 5:44, ESV). Again, it's because “the heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked” (Jer. 17:9, KJV). And it's what He prophesied when He said “The hour is coming when whoever kills you will think he is offering service to God” (John 16:2, ESV). Even born again Christians have historically offered this “service to God.”

Ruling Gods Rightly Divided.

Since God is a title, Satan can technically be called Lord God. And God Almighty told the born again to “be...rightly dividing the word of the truth” (2 Tim. 2:15, YLT). But being “deceitful above all” (Jer. 17:9, KJV), the born again have historically not done this and lied to ourselves about what we’ve been saying and doing so that it’s still as He rebuked the disciples before they were born again in the following passage:

His disciples...said, ‘Sir, wilt thou [that] we may command fire to come down from the heaven, and to consume them, as also Elijah did?’ and having turned, he rebuked them, and said, ‘Ye have not known of what spirit ye are’ (Luke 9:54-55, YLT).

The disciples had a satanic mindset because they had an “unclean spirit” within (Matt. 12:43, ESV) not realizing it.

And this book proves that this satanic mindset within the body of Christ not only persists to this day but is the overriding mindset! This was God’s purpose in giving me a testimony with loads of born again examples over the course of more than two decades, and in having you be acquainted with several of those examples. Like those first disciples who were not yet filled with His Spirit, today’s born again “know not what manner of spirit ye are of” (Luke 9:55, KJV). So while this part of the passage wasn’t even included in many of the modern English translations, not even included in the Concordant literal translation, we know they were being influenced by a demonic spirit since they wanted to kill them and “the one who has the power of death, that is, the devil” (Heb. 2:14, ESV) whereas God’s Spirit is “life” (John 14:6, ESV) and love for our neighbors (Mark 12:31). Again, it’s like Martin Luther who wished we’d killed the Jews. He was speaking with a demonic spirit.

Ravi Zacharias was a Liar, Sexual Pervert and Wolf in Sheep's ...

Feb 13, 2021 — Premier Christianity asked me to write a report on the report from RZIM re the allegations against Ravi Zacharias. It was painful to read.

3 Eagle & RZIM

In 1997 the Lord clearly led us to Eagle in Indianapolis where the Head Pastor, Kerry Bowman, was mentored by Ravi Zacharias and Ravi's brother in law, Sunder Krishnan, was mentor to the church as a whole. I would think you're aware that in 2021 Ravi was exposed as a wolf in sheep's clothing. He was a liar, a thief, and a rapist—NOT born again.

In my mind (back then) RZIM represented the brightest minds within the body of Christ—and Bill Bean, Eagle's Worship Pastor at the time, agreed. Neither Reggie or I listened to Ravi since he was so heady and dry, but I never imagined he was as bad as all that! God used Sunder, Peter Bocchino, and Stuart McAllister, Eagle's mentor and RZIM associates, as some of those who helped build me up in Christ and to prophesy to me about my calling. He also used Eagle leadership with their sermons, and Bill Bean through his friendship. And my guess is that most RZIM associates, or at least some, are actually born again—same for Eagleites. But, like the norm, they're blinded by hypocritical beams (Matt. 7:5) so that they couldn't see what Ravi was doing and ignored the victims when they came forth—just like the body of Christ has been blind to what I've been saying and have ignored me these 26 years.

Again, it's been because the “heart is deceitful above all things” (Jer. 17:9, KJV) so that we favor our opinions more than the truth even when the truth is clearly pointed out to us. In turn, to help you admit the truth, He's given you not only my personal examples of this but of those ignored victims and RZIM's lack of discernment.

It's extremely alarming that some of the brightest minds within the body of Christ were as deceived as we were by Ravi! Yet the body of Christ has still expressed no need to search our hearts to discern how we could have been so deceived. And EVERYONE knows it's been one scandal after another. Brainwashed with lies and immersed in them—the born again don't actually view the body as an international “assembly” (Matt. 16:18, YLT) without walls and with only one leader, Jesus Christ, even though we all know this truth. And, again, it's due to the condition of our heart, that it's “deceitful above all” (Jer. 17:9, KJV).

It's also been “work[ed]” into my life this way (Eph. 1:11, ESV) because the Lord is getting “His Bride...ready” (Rev. 19:7, ESV) for His soon return. But She first has to “wake up” (Rev. 3:2, ESV) from Her “slumber” (Rom. 13:11, NIV). She has to wake up to Herself. It's like when “David's anger was greatly kindled [with the injustice]” and the prophet told David “You are the man!” (2 Sam. 12:5-7, ESV).

The Comatose Bride of Christ

This graphic sums up the state of the Church Jesus is building (Matt. 16:18). I'm sure you're still not convinced since the heart is so deceitful (Jer. 17:9). But all these tidbits I've been sharing of how we've misinterpreted the Bible and honored wolves in sheep's clothing should be breaking through as if the Lord has a jackhammer drilling through your skull to get at your brain. That jackhammer is the word of God since His “word...is like a hammer that breaks the rock in pieces” (Jer. 23:29, ESV) and that's what's needed on rock, a jackhammer. By not being able to get through to even one born again Christian in 26 years, the Lord is saying the body of Christ is super hard headed. And the name Jack means “God is gracious.” And since “His name is called The Word of God” (Rev. 19:13, KJV) He's the Jack using the hammer. While I've wanted to give up on you all, He's relentless!

My tenure at Eagle should also help break through that thick layer of ice covering your heart, the heart of all born again today. And then there's the aftermath from Eagle. Having given me a 26 year testimony of reaching out to born again Christians around the world, God is saying that the problem is with the entire body of Christ, truth exposed with every page of this book.

It's like the Lord's Girl fell into a coma. Because even if a fire swept through their bedroom, the person in a coma still wouldn't get up but burn to death. Likewise, born again Christians are spiritually alive in that they're born again, but they're not able to hear or see or react biblically as proven by my testimony. While it's been clear from the very beginning that I'm a born again member of the body of Christ, informed that every member is vital to the body (1 Cor. 12:22-27), you've all consistently rejected me. It's like I've been shouting "Fire! Fire! Fire!" and you all just keep on snoozing.

Baptized

I'd been church hopping as a seeker, for some reason thinking Christianity was the right answer (John 6:44) unlike my siblings who landed on LGBT Unitarian. Still seeking, I hooked up with Reggie (Eph. 1:11), a believer who didn't go to church, didn't pray, and had no problem having premarital sex. While living together I became born again (in 1988) and was led in a dream to marry this man (done in 1989), and got him church hopping with me looking for a "church home." Then the Lord finally led me and, therefore us, to Eagle (in 1997) where I was baptized. And the next chapter reveals why He hadn't given me a church home—and hasn't since. It's not because I've been rebellious. I hungered for a church home as a seeker. I hungered for it as a born again Christian until He showed me the problems with it. And I still hunger for biblical "assembly" (Matt. 16:18, YLT) in this "dry and weary land where there is no water" (Ps. 63:1, ESV) and, therefore, no food either as we live out another rerun, "a famine on the land—not a famine of bread, nor a thirst for water, but of hearing the words of the Lord" (Amos 8:11, ESV). What we mostly hear are the words of that lower class Lord, "the god of this world" (2 Cor. 4:4, ESV) masquerading as "the most High" (Isa. 14:14, KJV) "deceiv[ing] the nations" (Rev. 20:3, KJV).

As it was with Ravi, most of today's born again can't tell the difference between a false and true prophet or between an angelic or demonic spirit! They can't tell when they're hearing the voice of the Lord! Much of what is called Christian today is actually coming from a demonic spirit as with this example of Harmonie London where most of the people in the comments can't even tell it's demonic activity similar to that of the servant girl in Acts (in the graphic): Bus Driver Opens Doors to have a Listen. Today's Christians have been so dumbed down that many think "Yaba yaba yaba" is "speak[ing] in other tongues" (Acts 2:4, ESV) when God is a genius! It reveals how Satan loves to mock the Lord as senseless Christians follow his lead. While most of them are probably not born again, many born again have fallen for this lie.

Anointed

While we were at Eagle, Ed Rice, who appears to still work at Rolls Royce, heard the Lord speak to him about laying hands and praying over me. Doing that with leadership and others, Ed went off with a vision (in the graphic). As a stay at home mom I'd already been spending all of my time studying the Word and praying through it so that many recognized I was "on fired for God" seeing it as something positive. And because of my background I've been careful to not neglect His gift (1 Tim. 4:14 in the graphic) unlike the typical born again soul.

This is also when I asked the Lord specifically about my calling and what the "good works" were which He had prepared for me to do (Eph. 2:10, KJV) and He answered me in many ways through my Bible reading (as with Hab. 2:2-3 about "the vision"), other individuals, sermons, and experiences.

For example, having hooked me up with Bill Bean, Eagle’s Worship Pastor, he’d sent me to interview a man named Jarred for the church newsletter. But Jarred only wanted to focus on me so that he took his lap harp out and sang prophecies over me while also flooding me with prayers of protection. So spiritually naïve, I’d thought the really hard part had been behind me when it hadn’t even started yet!

A Set Up

Bill spoke to me of how “God can set you up.” It’s what He did to Eagle leadership. Except they really did it to themselves, using me to do it. The first Christmas at Eagle, the Lord had me make an army of pasta angels (at least a hundred of them) while praying Scripture for the recipients. I must have given them to a dozen or more people at Eagle, including leadership, while also giving them to others elsewhere—neighbors, friends, and family. The crafts were like this canvas or magnet, always with Scripture. I also gave everyone a letter explaining what I’d been doing the past few months encouraging them to “live a life worthy of the calling [we] have received” (Eph. 4:1, NIV) or to give Jesus a chance for those who hadn’t yet come to know Him.

Abusive Shepherds and their Flocks

For over two decades, starting at Eagle, I've been made out to be an idiot, worse, deranged, for being faithful by those who claim to be faithful and clearly aren't—and by the lost. It's this rerun, "Because your sins are so many and your hostility so great, the prophet is considered a fool, the inspired person a maniac" (Hosea 9:7, NIV). Not only have I been accused by Christians who I discern are born again, of needing psych counseling for speaking the truth and walking in it, I'm supposedly schizophrenic! I've repeatedly had Christian men and women yell at me at the top of their lungs so up in my face that I could clearly make out their tonsils as they've spit all over me. It actually started in 1981 when I was a seeker and my friend, a pastor's daughter, did it. But one of the worst was Kerry Bowman, Head Pastor of Eagle (at the time). He went nuts when God called me to speak to him about his need to become a man of prayer—as He'd had others do before me. Barb Miller can confirm that since she's the one who told me about it having attended Eagle since before the Lord drew us there. Ed Rice might be able to as well. And while we were there, even Kerry's friend, a worship leader, did it while up on the stage—to deaf ears. And clearly, a Church leader should be a man of prayer!

I didn't think Kerry was an idiot. Though I can't say that in all honesty now.

And just imagine how you would feel (as a woman) with a man, your pastor, who's over a foot taller than you, standing over you yelling at you at the top of his lungs while in his office.

Then they all top it off by preaching at you from their pulpits, too cowardly and satanic to address you directly like a decent human being.

Do you think I'm an idiot?
I LOVE GOD!!!

But the worst part of it is that having heard him screaming his head off and seen me leave bawling—more than once and not just with him, Eric Simpson, the Assistant Pastor at the time, also did it (and the Youth Pastor, Tom King, regularly did it to the kids as Ed can confirm)—those Christians discerned I was the rebel! So called church leadership is in the habit of doing this because “the heart is deceitful above all things” (Jer. 17:9, KJV) and the body of Christ is made up of pastor idolaters who turn a blind eye to sin—their own and that of their leaders. Like what? By this all men will know that we’re the Lord’s disciples?! No! By this all men think Jesus isn’t even real!

It’s been happening for the last 2000 years because the born again have allowed unclean spirits to enter into them, as I’ll cover further in the book. By saying these people are being satanic, I do literally mean filled with evil spirits. The Spirit of the Lord does not behave like this and neither sees this as being godly behavior. Only a satanic deceiving spirit would behave this way and condone such behavior.

According to God I’m clearly not the one who’s delusional or in rebellion, as revealed by this passage in case that jackhammer hasn’t yet reached the Lord’s desired destination:

Love is patient and kind; love does not envy or boast; it is not arrogant or rude. It does not insist on its own way; it is not irritable or resentful; it does not rejoice at wrongdoing, but rejoices with the truth. Love bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things (1 Cor. 13:4-7, ESV).

This book summarizing my testimony of the past 26 years reveals that I’ve been walking in actual love, not resentful (though seriously disgusted besides exhausted), still praying for them—along with the rest of the body of Christ—bearing all things as the same rerun plays over and over again; believing all things the Lord has said in relation to the new covenant; and hoping for the best while enduring all the consequences.

It’s hard to imagine what those men are like today since “evil people and impostors will go from bad to worse” (2 Tim. 3:13, ESV). And the fact is that the body of Christ is made up of impostors. While born again, you all wear a mask of righteousness while keeping Jesus as if locked up within. I realize that’s insulting but it’s what the body of Christ is doing as He’s had me prove in this book not only of others but of you (further in the text). Either admit it and repent of it or suffer the consequences.

Called as a Prophet

While we were at Eagle, Angela Marshall (wife of André Marshall who also worked at Roll Royce) discerned God’s calling on my life. Though we attended different churches, for a season we met for prayer, sometimes with others including Jenny Hoover from Eagle. So one day while downloading to her about things taking place at Eagle Angela suddenly jumped out of her chair and said “Maya! You’re a prophet and you don’t even know it!” And the Lord used many back then and since to confirm it. It’s obvious.

While many Christians—mostly in leadership—refuse to admit that Jesus still sends prophets, He said “I send to you prophets, and wise men, and scribes, and of them ye will...pursue” (Matt. 23:39, ESV & Eph. 4:11 in the graphic). Yet when I obey the Lord to speak out, those men we’ve called pastors tell me God doesn’t have prophets anymore and then yell from their pulpits “DO MY PROPHETS NO HARM!” (1 Chron. 16:22, ESV) being “double-minded” and “unstable” (James 1:8, NIV) besides deceived, deceiving, and abusive.

God’s Mission Statement
Ephesians 4:11-16
God’s Order	¹¹ He gave some [as] apostles [church planters], and some [as] prophets [inspired preachers/expounders], and some [as] proclaimers of good news [evangelists], and some [as] shepherds and teachers. (YLT)
God’s Purpose	¹² His intention was the perfecting and the full equipping of the saints (His consecrated people), [that they should do] the work of ministering toward building up Christ’s body (the church). (AMPC)
God’s Timetable	¹³ until we all reach unity in the faith and in the knowledge of the Son of God and become mature, attaining to the whole measure of the fullness of Christ. (NIV)
God’s Rationale	¹⁴ Then we will no longer be infants, tossed back and forth by the waves, and blown here and there by every wind of teaching and by the cunning and craftiness of people in their deceitful scheming. (NIV)
God’s Strategy	¹⁵ Speaking the truth in love, we will grow to become in every respect the mature body of him who is the head, that is, Christ. ¹⁶ From him the whole body, joined and held together by every supporting ligament, grows and builds itself up in love, as each part does its work. (NIV)

* Not as in hierarchy but as in orderly.

So while it's obvious that I'm a true prophet, the born again aren't interested in admitting the obvious because it means admitting that their opinions, practices, and/or beliefs don't line up with the truth—even though they supposedly love “the truth” (John 14:6, ESV). The body of Christ is in Satan's grip, because choosing to lie is to choose Satan. Their in his grip by choice!

Again, by having me reach out to you with this book, He's giving you the same challenge. There are things you're doing or have done, along with your children, that clearly don't line up with sound doctrine. It's obvious. And you'll have to choose whether to honor Jesus, “the truth” (John 14:6, ESV) or honor yourself and your children which is to honor Satan “a murderer [and]...a liar” (John 8:44, ESV). And it's the truth that sets us free (John 8:32). You think you're free—just like the lost do—but that's only because you don't know what being fully set free actually feels like. None of us do! Because it's not as if we're walking in the joy, freedom, and power of the church of Acts!

Even when born again Christians admit the truth about me (like Angela) they later blow me off like she's repeatedly done. Or those who were used by God to anoint me (like Ed Rice and Kerry Bowman), they've repeatedly blown me off. Or those who've been excited about the work I've done in Christ's name (like Bill Bean and Sunder Krishnan), they also repeatedly blew me off. All these people—26 years worth of them—have been witnesses against themselves. EVERYONE He's had me reach out to has done it by blowing me off like a piece of scum that landed on their shoulder—including my immediate and extended family members. They've all done it for not being disciplined enough to control their own deceitful and wicked heart (Jer. 17:9) which we can only do by taking our thoughts captive to Christ (2 Cor. 10:5) for the DURATION. As Jesus says, “The one who endures to the end will be saved” (Matt. 10:22, ESV). Getting “saved” isn't just spiritual and about becoming born again. It includes getting saved physically from Satan's schemes. Either these people were used by God to speak truth into my life or they were used by Satan to speak lies, which would make them false prophets.

While some have a closer walk with the Lord, it's as He warned us, “If one part [of the body] suffers, every part suffers with it” (1 Cor. 12:26, NIV). And it should be clear for you to see by the end of the book that the rest of this verse is true as well, “if one part is honored, every part rejoices with it.” Had Eagle leadership been honest about my calling and honored this part of the body of Christ as the obvious mouth that He made me, the whole body of Christ would have been blessed. And because of our connection to the international and powerful ministry of RZIM we could have avoided or seriously downplayed the 9/11 attacks along with the aftermath, for example. I'm not experiencing delusions of grandeur as I've been accused but extrapolating by FAITH (2 Cor. 10:5).

Called to Plug the Hole in the Cup

One day Angela came in to our prayer breakfast session saying "The church is SO DRAINING!" I'd agreed since Christians are super shallow and hypocritical. Other than claiming to be believers, the majority of the born again are really no better than the clean-cut lost. The Lord had made that clear to me almost as soon as He led us to Eagle—partly because of their behavior but also because of what He'd been showing me about Christians for decades. It's another rerun which was first played out by the Israelites so that Jesus rebuked the Jews of His day in the following passage for playing a rerun:

Well did Isaiah prophesy of you hypocrites, as it is written, "This people honors me with their lips, but their heart is far from me; in vain do they worship me, teaching as doctrines the commandments of men.' You leave the commandment of God and hold to the tradition of men" (Mark 7:6-8, ESV).

We just keep giving Him lip-service and holding on to doctrines and traditions of men playing the same old reruns over and over again.

And not long after Angela's draining comment, the Lord had Delana Bradbury, from Eagle, tell me she had a word from the Lord for me so we'd agreed to meet in one of the conference rooms. I'd been in there praying while waiting for her when I see her come in drinking water out of a Styrofoam cup. Taking her last sip she sternly said "The Lord keeps filling you to overflowing!" This was true since I was steeped in God's Word being as obedient as I knew how, working for Him unpaid editing Sunder's book on prayer as He'd called me to do, learning loads. I was also praying with people from different churches around town. And I was always in one Bible study group or another, plus prayer journaling. In turn, the Lord was always speaking to me. I was full to overflowing which is why people, including some at Eagle, often made comments about how fired up I was for the Lord.

But that fire was always put out, still to this day, because even the most mature Christians can't connect the dots between God's hand and events or things said and done for being hypocrites with beams in their eyes which they refuse to remove (Matt. 7:5) and, therefore, try to gaslight me as if I'm the one who's delusional.

Sitting down, Delana poked a hole in the bottom side of the cup, and angrily said "He wants you to PLUG the hole in the cup!"

Scared about what I'd done, sitting there for a moment asking the Lord why He was so mad at me, nothing coming to mind, I asked Delana if she knew what the hole represented. She nodded No.

Thinking about it another few seconds, surely reminded of Angela's draining comment, I suddenly blurted out "It's the Church!" This made Delana angrier since she was married to a so-called "elder."

Not only was Delana being an idolater behaving like a resounding gong for lacking love (1 Cor. 13:1 below), she did what we're told not to do when God says "Who are you to pass judgment on the servant of another? It is before his own master that he stands or falls" (Rom. 14:4, ESV). She admitted not knowing what the Lord meant. She also didn't know me. We'd never even spoken before. Yet her attitude revealed she'd judged me as being rebellious against the Lord purely based on a vision she'd had.

1 Corinthians 13:1-2, ESV If I speak in the tongues of men and of angels, but have not love, I am a noisy gong or a clanging cymbal. And if I have prophetic powers, and understand all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have all faith, so as to remove mountains, but have not love, I am nothing.

And while many have said I've been doing the same thing as Delana, when I answer the Lord's call to give someone a Word from Him I judge the sins by holding up God's Word, smothering that person in prayer for weeks if not months, decades even as with these people from Eagle along with the Marshalls. I've also always spelled out in detail what I've discerned to be the problem to help them understand it—as I'm now doing with you—always making it clear that my door is open for us to discuss it so that we can grow together since we're members of the same body and in a "struggle [that] is not against flesh and blood, but against...the forces of evil in the heavenly realms" (Eph. 6:12, NIV). In contrast, Delana behaved more like Peter on Ananias and Sapphira: no love, no grace, no compassion, my guess is no biblical prayer which is why she lacked discernment...just super proud hostility.

And rather than rebuking me, God was actually using Delana in the same manner He'd been using others, to confirm and clarify my calling. She'd put the emphasis on the wrong word assuming the worst of me. But the Lord wasn't speaking of my cup but His, "the cup of salvation" (Ps. 116:13, ESV), "the cup [of] the new covenant" (Luke 22:20, NIV), the cup for which He died (Matt. 26:27-28), which gets back to the body of Christ's rebellion and draining hole. God kept filling me to overflowing but because the body of Christ is so rebellious there's a hole in the cup of salvation draining out our joy in the Lord, along with His power. He was echoing through Delana what He had said to me directly through Scripture about writing the vision which will, at His "appointed time" (Hab. 2:2-3), wake up His rebellious people finally plugging the hole.

And because "His name is called The Word of God" (Rev. 19:13, KJV) and His Spirit is "living water" (John 4:10, ESV), it's like this graphic. I've been plugging the hole for the last 26 years fulfilling my calling.

The Ultimatum

One day Kerry hugs me after the service saying "Maya, everyone here loves you!" Then—that same week—sends Bill and two so-called elders (Delana's husband, David Bradbury, and Richie Crain) saying we could stay there only if I allowed them to interpret God's Word for me. But it's NOT as if we need some hard hearted so-called pastor or elder hypocrite to interpret God's Word for us like the Pope! Not according to Jesus who says "My sheep hear my voice...and they follow me" (John 10:27, ESV). They compared what I was doing—reaching out to them as led by the Lord calling them to repent—to Korah’s rebellion (Num. 16) when I didn’t even have one person “rebellious” with me.

Even if I had been leading a rebellion, they still went about it unbiblically since this is the biblical procedure:

If your brother sins against you, go and tell him his fault, between you and him alone. [Kerry, never did that. Instead, he gave me a Judas hug.] If he listens to you, you have gained your brother. But if he does not listen, take one or two others along with you, that every charge may be established by the evidence of two or three witnesses [They sort of did that by having Bill and the “elders” come over to our house with their ultimatum. But Kerry should have been there]. If he refuses to listen to them, tell it to the church. [They apparently did that but we should have been there.] And if he refuses to listen even to the church, let him be to you as a Gentile and a tax collector. [Having done it biblically the whole church should have stood against me, which they have. But, they wouldn’t have because done biblically they would have seen the error of their ways.]

Given the ultimatum, Reggie and I separately sought God on it that night and by morning we’d both heard Him say it was time to leave. (We’d wanted to for over a year but had been convicted to stay. So we church hopped every few weeks as we’d done before having been led to Eagle.) I don’t remember the verse the Lord gave Reggie but I believe mine was “Fear of man will prove to be a snare, but whoever trusts in the LORD is kept safe” (Prov. 29:25, NIV). It may have been another verse like it. The point is that He rebuked me for having trusted them more than Him, which I knew to be true since I’d struggled with it the whole time.

Lying to himself, Reggie saw it as ‘my’ problem in the same way that born again Christians don’t see this as their problem, lying to themselves about the meaning of Church—that it’s a local building they attend. Seldom convicted to live up to his manly calling as “the head of the wife” (Eph. 5:23, ESV), when I called to tell them we weren’t coming back, Eric Simpson, Assistant Pastor (at the time), yelled, “YOU KNOW WHAT YOUR PROBLEM WAS MAYA! YOU DIDN’T TRUST US ENOUGH!” (He’s now Head Pastor of that group.)

Being that they were the leaders, and I hadn't been raised in a Christian home, and God had used them to give me much understanding as well as bring healing into my life, I'd been naïve enough to think they did actually care about Jesus and people, and would eventually repent. I had trusted them too much. (It's what born again Christians have been doing as a whole so that they've become pastor idolaters.) I understood God's rebuke as He released us from that pit.

And He worked out that experience (Eph. 1:11) to help me NOT be as naïve and unbiblical moving forward branding this passage like a billboard into my head. [JESUS] HIMSELF KNEW WHAT WAS IN MAN (JOHN 2:25, ESV). What exactly did Jesus know? That "the [human] heart is deceitful above all things and desperately wicked" (John 17:9, KJV). But unfortunately for me, having such a heart myself, it would take me years to really get it. In fact, I still forget.

But it's actually the problem with having faith since there's a very fine line between believing God is going to deliver you through people (how He works, He uses people) and trusting those people.

Titles. The issue of misplaced trust is the main problem with the titles the body of Christ has been in the habit of using even though Jesus says "Ye may not be called Rabbi [as in use a title], for one is your director—the Christ, and all ye are brethren" (Matt. 23:8, YLT). My brother or sister never once in their lives called me Sister Maya since no family members ever use titles! And when Christians use them they get deceived with a false sense of security and importance. These titles also create idolaters. And it's not just pastors who use them.

For example, when we left Eagle I wrote a letter explaining what had happened to a dozen or so Eagleites pleading with them to pray for that leadership. And I heard back from no one, as if what they'd done was biblical. What they did was a rerun of the parents of the blind man who'd been given his sight in the following account:

"Ask him; he is of age. He will speak for himself." (His parents said these things because they feared the Jews, for the Jews had already agreed that if anyone should confess Jesus to be Christ, he was to be put out of the synagogue.) Therefore his parents said, "He is of age; ask him" (John 9:21-23, ESV).

The parents loved going to the synagogue and being part of that community more than loving God who is “the truth” (John 14:6, ESV). Likewise, today’s Christians love that community more than the Lord.

A year later running in to a family who we often had brunch with for a season after the service, David Somebody? (a mechanical engineer) and his Asian wife, she says “Aren’t you ready to come back since time should have healed all wounds,” totally NOT getting it (2 Cor. 10:5). When it comes to the spiritual, time doesn’t heal anything. The Truth is what heals spiritual wounds (Ps. 103:3) being that He’s Yahweh Rapha, The Lord who Heals. Without repentance, time just gets the rebels deeper into Satan’s grip—as revealed through several examples in this book and as Church history reveals. The born again are so deceived that as a group we’ve come to think it’s OK to abuse the mess out of each other and then time will heal it all. No Problem. They kind of summed it up on this song, 4HIM \(Marty Magehee\) - Runaway Train \(youtube.com\), And through this ministry God is revealing just how big a problem it really is.

And for the short season Eagle focused on prayer a handful or less showed up—but never anyone in leadership. That’s pretty standard unless there’s a big deal about it like The Awakening week of prayer and revival held in DC for example. But these are ecumenical gatherings joining light with darkness when “what fellowship can light have with darkness?” (2 Cor. 6:14, NIV) because “God does not listen to sinners” (John 9:31, ESV). All those gatherings are another one of Satan’s deceptions so that the LGBT churchgoers, for instance, think they’re right with God and faithful because they attend them. Can God use them? Of course (Eph. 1:11). But since it’s NOT what He’s called us to do Satan uses them more. When the born again attend those gatherings, they help Satan “deceive the nations” (Rev. 20:3, KJV) including themselves.

Since then, the Lord has shown me that none of the paid professionals we’ve historically called church leaders care for Jesus or people when you get down to it, just as He warned us. “A hired hand...cares nothing for the sheep” (John 10:13, ESV). Held accountable, they reveal that they don’t care for the sheep which reveals they don’t really care for the Shepherd either. It’s all who love that salary more than Christ. Some have given it up. But the ones I’ve read about were convicted by the Spirit rather than by someone holding them accountable. They were sensitive to the Spirit.

Thrown to the Wolves

Eagle was the one Christian leadership who got to know me and my family, not what anyone would honestly describe as rebels—at least not back then. (For example, Randa Nader’s best friend and our prayer partner, Suzonne Kardatske, had a small Easter gathering. Having spent the better part of the day together Suzonne later said her husband had described us as “innocent.”) Besides baptizing and anointing me, I volunteered at Eagle in lots of different ways, not just on Sunder’s book: with the preschool ministry, Vacation Bible School, with the newsletter, with the bulletin board, even cleaning the bathrooms since they’d called for volunteers and I’d heard the Lord tell me to raise my hand. I also attended just about every Bible study and conference they held—along with conferences held by others—for being super hungry spiritually having been starved, almost entirely, before the Lord led us there. And if born again Christians reject born again followers of Christ, we’re left out in the cold, thrown to the wolves, since there is no one else to have fellowship with being that ALL born again Christians reject close followers of Christ from what I’ve read online being that we’ve fulfilled “the rebellion” (2 Thess 2:3, ESV).

There are really only two groups in the world, the Lord and His team of angels and followers of Christ, and Satan and his team of fallen angels and non followers of Christ. It's not just the lost who are on Satan's team but everyone who isn't a follower of Christ. As He says "Whoever does not gather with me scatters" (Matt. 12:30, ESV). The consequences for our children, speaking of the Marshall's son and one of our girls, will enable you to clearly see the outrageous damage the body of Christ is doing. The fact is that every minute of every day the born again have to choose whom we will serve, Christ or the leading Antichrist, Satan. It's the reason we're told to "take every thought captive to obey Christ" (2 Cor. 10:5, ESV). With every thought we don't take captive to Christ, we give Satan a foothold over our lives. And since we're members of the body of Christ and "light of the world" (Matt. 5:14, ESV), we give Satan a stronger foothold over the world. We help Satan "deceive the nations" (Rev. 20:3, KJV).

4 A Diseased Tree

As always, the body of Christ—as a whole—didn’t connect the dots between the 9/11 attacks and our need to repent. André Marshall even laughed at me when I said it was the Lord trying to wake us up, just as others testified happened to them. Yet if that hadn’t been the case, it would have meant that Jesus had fallen asleep at the wheel when “He who keeps you...will neither slumber nor sleep” (Ps. 121:3-4, ESV). This was clearly a wake up call, just like WWI and WWII and so many others we’ve had throughout the Church Age which the body of Christ has ignored. Had we taken God seriously and remained a healthy tree, we would have fallen flat on our faces before Him as a group following the 9/11 attacks (2 Chron. 7:14 in the graphic). But that’s the problem with “bad fruit” (Matt. 7:17, ESV), they don’t do the right thing being bad.

Pagan Christianity

Since God is loving and merciful, He coordinated the 9/11 attacks of 2001 with the release of the book Pagan Christianity: Exploring the Roots of Our Church Practices by Frank Viola and George Barna (Eph. 1:11), which has also mostly been ignored. And since He had me follow Him through the churches and Christian groups since years before I was born again, the Lord enabled me to make the table on the next page about 12 years ago before He enlightened me to the Pagan book. He then used the book to confirm to me that I’d discerned correctly. (The table with all the references included is at this link: <https://notmocked.com/wp-content/uploads/2018/07/Fake-vs-Real-Church.pdf>). Pagan roots do not honor Christ. They’re the disease producing “bad fruit” (Matt. 7:17, ESV).

Fake vs Real Church

	Church of Antichrist	Church of Christ
The Foundation	Lies John 8:44; Isa. 14:13-14	Truth/Jesus John 14:6; 1 Cor. 3:11; 2 Tim. 3:15
Leadership	A Paid Professional John 10:11-13	People Laboring in Love Acts 20:18-20; Eph. 4:11-12; 1 Pet. 2:5
Origin of Authority	A Diploma 2 Cor. 3:1	Anointed by God Gal. 1:11-12, 1:15; Heb. 5:4
The Meeting Place	A Special Building Ps. 127:1; Matt. 15:9	Houses, or Wherever Acts 7:48-50, 8:3, 16:13, 16:40, 17:24-25; 1 Cor. 16:19; Col. 4:15; Eph. 2:19-22; Heb. 3:6; Rom. 16:5
The Meeting Day	Sunday for a Blip Gal. 4:9-10	Any Day for as Long as God Leads Mark 2:27-28; Matt. 11:28; John 8:36
Accountability	None Acts 7:51	Christ & The Group 1 Thess. 5:19; Eph. 5:21; James 1:5
Resolving Disputes	They Kick You Out Secretly Mark 11:18; John 11:48 & 15:25	Individuals or the Group Matt. 18:15-17; 1 Tim. 5:19-20
Oversight	Board Members (Not the Group) Mark 7:9	Proven Elders Acts 14:23, 15:5-6, 15:22, 16:4; 1 Pet. 5:2-3; 1 Tim. 3:1-6
Expressing Authority	Cold & Unbiblical Mark 10:42-43	Done in Love 1 Thess. 2:5-7
Involvement	A Few Put on a Show for Spectators Matt. 23:5-8; Matt. 6:2	Whoever the Spirit Moves 1 Cor. 14:26-31; 1 Pet. 4:10-11; Col. 3:16; Heb. 2:12
Prayer	Long-winded Mostly Words of Men Eccl. 5:2; Luke 19:46; Matt. 6:5	Central & Scriptural Acts 1:14, 6:4, 12:5; James 5:16; Col. 1:9-13; Matt. 6:7-8.
Worship	A Musical Show by Performers	A Life Lived to Honor Christ 1 Pet. 2:5, John 4:24; Rom. 12:1; 1 Cor. 14:26
Funding	Tithing & Passing a Plate 2 Cor. 2:17; Gal. 3:10; Matt. 6:2	Voluntary to Cover Needs, Help the Poor, or Honor an Elder Matt. 6:3-4; 2 Cor. 9:6-7; 1 Tim. 5:17; Acts 20:33-35; 1 Cor. 9:14
Focus	Man Gen. 11:4	God Eccl. 12:13; Matt. 5:16
The Lord's Supper (Communion)	Monthly Nip & Nibble 1 Cor. 11:27	Part of a Meal 1 Cor. 11:24-32
Spiritual Growth	Hardly at All, If at All Heb. 5:12	Constant Eph. 4:11-15

Having given me a Tour of Duty of some house churches, the Lord also showed me that those aren't any better. They're mostly replicas of the same unbiblical mess—as Frank Viola has also noted. What's needed is repentance. But most born again Christians today don't even know (or care?) what it is we need to repent about! Because, the few the Lord has turned on to my ministry over the years—who've actually communicated with me—have only cared about getting raptured, martyred even. They've been surface level born again Christians like the norm, only running slightly deeper. No matter how enlightened anyone He's had me contact has been, they've still loved their opinions more than what Scripture clearly reveals on other points which they haven't yet been enlightened about. And their attitude has been super proud. Moreover, what God wants isn't martyrs but a close relationship with us. That's what He cares about. He wants us to "walk in the Spirit" (Gal. 5:16, ESV) and says "I have no greater joy than to hear that my children are walking in the truth" (1 John 1:9, ESV).

And please understand that in everything I'm saying, I'm aware there's a spectrum, as with this graphic. While you might argue that it's better than my "Better," my 26 year testimony reveals that snooty ice cold is really as good as it gets—examples forthcoming.

Pagan Christianity's Lure. Christians, as a whole, love going to those pagan buildings because they don't require any real commitment to Christ while you get to pat yourself on the back for being such a supposedly good Christian since you go to church. You also get to choose how you're going to serve God rather than letting Him lord over your life. That system has made singing "worship" when God says "Offer your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and pleasing to God—this is your true and proper worship" (Rom. 12:1, NIV). It's not about going anywhere or singing some pretty songs—and definitely not about being our own God! It's about "liv[ing] a life worthy of the calling" (Eph. 4:1, NIV). Those buildings are not "the house of God" as preachers brainwash everyone, and as the people that go to them treat them. The born again are the house of God since we have His Spirit inside of us so that He says "You are...God's building" (Eph. 4:1, ESV). With His Spirit within, we've been called to behave like Christ—which is hardly what we're doing.

The Lie Fans Pride: If those buildings represented God’s Church and those serving in them represented His anointed, it would be more important than having been chosen to serve the President of the United States. Viewing them as biblical Church, those serving in them or who have a loved one serving in them tend to be super proud. But God has created an international “family of believers” (Gal. 6:10, NIV) with “one God and Father of all” (Eph. 4:6, ESV). In a healthy family all children are equally valued which is exactly what Jesus teaches, that we are “all brothers” (Matt. 23:8, ESV). “There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is no male and female...all [are] one in Christ” (Gal. 3:28, ESV).

A Lying Network: Another thing people love about that system is that it provides a set of like-minded people with whom to socialize, and use for business deals. It’s like belonging to an elite country club only better since they’ve been chosen and/or being used by God, supposedly, though sometimes it’s true since God is using everything and everyone (Eph. 1:11). Yet rather than love the truth, pagan Christians immediately stop up their ears refusing to even hear what’s being said to them. There are a handful of standard lines they shoot out, but the most popular one is “There are no lone ranger Christians.” Yet they sing “though none go with me, still I will follow” revealing their total instability since “a double-minded man [is] unstable in all his ways” (James 1:8, ESV). Brainwashed by the system, rather than sincerely love the truth (Rom. 12:9) and “earnestly contend for the faith” (Jude 1:3, KJV) they protect their own as if blind to the fact that we’re in a spiritual war “not against flesh and blood, but against...the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly realms” (Eph. 6:12, NIV).

Satan excels at what he does, “deceive the nations” (Rev. 20:3, KJV). And he knows our greatest weakness better than we do, that our hearts are “deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked” (Jer. 17:9, KJV). In turn, he’s very successfully used this weakness of ours to the point that today’s born again Christians defend Satan’s lies! That system, which is almost entirely pagan, is no different than what they do in all the religions with the exception that they claim to believe in Jesus. But it’s grounded in pride and works—not truth. It clearly does not represent the Church Jesus is building (Matt. 16:18). And we’ve been told to “take no part in the unfruitful works of darkness, but instead expose them” (Eph. 5:11, ESV).

Since Satan is “a murderer” (John 8:44, ESV) exposing the truth of his lies is a good thing! The Lord wants to deliver you from Satan’s grip—and not just you! That’s why He calls the feet “beautiful...of those who preach the good news” (Rom. 10:15, ESV), clearly meaning preach the truth! Today’s Christian focus only on being a believer. But if that’s all there was to it the New Testament wouldn’t be as long as it is.

God’s Grace—A Blessing and a Test. Since there’s clearly some growth happening in that system, the question is how that can be if it’s mostly pagan? I discern it’s a combination of factors and the following passages are key:

He makes his sun rise on the evil and on the good, and sends rain on the just and on the unjust (Matt. 5:45, ESV).

[It’s as He promised] I will never leave you nor forsake you (Heb. 13:5, ESV).

The LORD your God is testing you, to know whether you love the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul (Deut. 13:3, ESV).

[It’s] how Satan works. He will use all sorts of displays of power through signs and wonders that serve the lie (2 Thess. 2:9, NIV).

[God] works all things according to the counsel of his will, (Eph. 1:11, ESV).

Having the truth revealed to us, are we going to choose God’s will or ours? That’s the test He gives us every minute of every day so that we’ve been called to “take every thought captive to obey Christ” (2 Cor. 10:5, NIV.) The more we train our minds to do it, the less deceived we get; the more enlightened we get, the better we’ll do on our “test” (Deut. 13:3) “gain[ing for ourselves] an even better resurrection” (Heb. 11:35, NIV).

Called Out. The graphics in this section can help you if you're going to be honest about it. He wants us to come out of the world and out of religion—which includes pagan Christianity—and become close followers of Christ, the closer the better not only for our own good but for the good of others—and for His honor.

The World: Come out from them and be separate, says the Lord. Touch no unclean thing, and I will receive you (2 Cor. 6:17, NIV).

Religion: Come out of her, my people, lest you take part in her sins, lest you share in her plagues (Rev. 18:4, ESV). All Denominations Bow Before the Pope \(youtube.com\).

Lucifer Invoked at the Vatican

All Denominations Bow Before the Pope

Christ is the head of the church.
Ephesians 5:23

The Catholic Church teaches that the pastoral office, the office of shepherding the Church, that was held by the apostles, as a group or "college" with Saint Peter as their head, is now held by their successors, the bishops, with the bishop of Rome (the pope) as their head.

Pope - Wikipedia
<https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Pope>

The institutional church system doesn't just function like a business, it mirrors the satanic New World Order!
Satan, "the ruler of this world" (John 12:31, YLT) is in charge of all of it.

The most cohesive group of infiltrators the church has ever seen are the Freemasons. They work behind the scenes to subvert the Gospel, and in fact, meet in secret to teach salvation on the basis of another savior. We know this to be the fact, because we were members of the organization. We were Freemasons. Masons are sworn to secrecy, not once, but three times... We are deeply grieved that we have participated in this falsehood. (from Exmasons for Jesus www.wmfj.org).

In secret
have I said nothing.
John 18:20, KJV

Everyone who does evil hates the light...
for fear that their deeds will be exposed.
John 3:20, NIV

While the Protestant mess has more truth in it than the Catholic mess, the system still "serve[s] the lie" (2 Thess. 2:9, NIV). For instance, in The Program documentary series mentioned previously, when the girl is holding the so-called pastor accountable for child abuse she says "You sure you don't want to leave the building before you lie?" She thinks there's something special about those buildings because the lost only know what the born again portray. Since they don't study the Bible, when the born again honor Satan's lies, as we've historically been doing, that's what the lost think is the truth—a very twisted version of the actual truth.

Many have done research on church leaders and their ties to the Freemasons, and all the so-called best/most popular leaders in that pagan system appear to be purposefully deceiving the body of Christ. And we've been deceived for not taking our thoughts captive to Christ (2 Cor 10:5). Since he's so popular, a good example is John MacArthur who comes from a family of Freemasons as revealed by the YouTube channel Born Again Barbarian: John MacArthur's MASONIC Connections \(youtube.com\). And those, like Allistair Begg, who may not be Freemasons, still refuse to acknowledge the truth about that pagan system for being super proud and brainwashed. Again, it's because that's the problem with the human heart. It's "deceitful above all things" (Jer. 17:9, KJV).

Either the born again can be part of the solution by standing firm in the faith against the grain as I've been doing, or continue to be part of the problem by watering down the faith as all on my path have done, and what the body of Christ has historically done. It's gotten so watered down there's hardly any truth left in it!

The Church Jesus is Building

The Church Jesus is building is a worldwide network of small assemblies led by Jesus through His Word and Spirit, not by man. And Her leaders have been anointed by God rather than appointed by men. The true Church represents "the simplicity that is in Christ" (2 Cor. 11:3, KJV). The following are two YouTube playlists of videos made by others on it:

- Church Explained & Modeled playlist Word channel
- Church Explained Graphically playlist Word channel

The problem with most of the current house churches is that they haven't been given over to "godly sorrow" (2 Cor. 7:10, KJV). That's what the Lord will be doing through this ministry because of the examples and Scriptures provided. While this book is very condensed, it's more than enough to move you to "godly sorrow" which leads to "repentance" (2 Cor. 7:10, KJV)—provided you're honest about it.

What we should have done—the amazing life we could have had—is depicted in the documentary Happy (2011), revealed to me through Unchurched: Christianity without Churchianity by Richard Jacobson and summed up on this clip Denmark Co housing - Happy Documentary Clip \(youtube.com\) and on his videos Richard Jacobson - YouTube.

The Problem with Pay. Since our hearts are so deceitful (Jer. 17:9), getting paid to do the Lord’s work—especially as a salary—will lead us to compromise the truth. It’s inevitable, and the reason He told us to “not peddle the word of God for profit” (2 Cor. 2:17, NIV) because “a root of all the evils is the love of money” (1 Tim. 6:10, YLT). While nobody wants to work full-time for years without pay, including myself, I’ve done it with the understanding that we’re in a brutal war with the “forces of evil in the heavenly realms” (Eph. 6:12, NIV). And He hasn’t called everyone to work full-time unpaid. But He has called every born again Christian to love Him “heart...soul...mind and...strength” (Mark 12:30, ESV). He Wants It All-Forever Jones \(With Lyrics In Description\) \(youtube.com\). Again, I’m not the one who’s delusional as everyone would have me believe. And just think about how wicked it is for born again Christians to rebuke someone for giving Jesus their all!

The Problem with Hierarchy. Using the Catholic/business model for God’s assemblies we’ve created idolaters as well as lazy Christians. In contrast, being part of an assembly where we’re expected to provide input on a regular basis would motivate every member of the body to live up to the calling we’ve received (Eph. 4:1), especially if the others are going to do the hard work of holding us accountable as we’re told to in the following passages, for example:

If anyone is caught in any transgression, you who are spiritual should restore him in a spirit of gentleness (Gal. 6:1, ESV).

Confess your sins to one another and pray for one another, that you may be healed. The prayer of a righteous person has great power as it is working (James 5:16, ESV).

Proud Christians in that pagan system shouting out “There are no lone ranger Christians” say we need to be part of that community to be held accountable, yet they don’t hold each other accountable and refuse to be held accountable (Jer. 17:9 & James 1:8).

Blind Double-Minded Hypocrites

Before we left Eagle, for a very brief time—a month!—we had a small group that met at our house for dinner and Bible study, singing, and prayer. It had nothing to do with Eagle. The Lord just put it on my heart to ask a few if they were interested. (I’m guessing this is what Eagle leadership used as an excuse to accuse me of leading Korah’s rebellion—lying to themselves that we’re only allowed to worship God inside those buildings under their unholy leadership!) It was us, the Marshalls and two other families from Eagle—the Hoovers (owners of Brunchies, a restaurant in your area), and Matt and Barb Miller. And when the Lord called us to focus on prayer, they all chose NOT to so that the group broke up. In other words, we killed this move of God just as soon as the Lord got it started! And it represents the attitude of the whole body. While Christians say they want to draw closer to God, and God says “Come to me” (Matt. 11:28, ESV), as a group we’re not the least bit interested in doing the main thing which accomplishes that goal! It’s the reason He has me praying through the new covenant, forcing my mind to stay tuned into His will.

In any case, several months after the group had broken up Angela came over crying confessing that the Lord had called us to prayer—so it hadn’t just been my opinion about what we should be doing. I’d discerned correctly.

Calling Evil Good. Because the group had broken up so obviously rebellious, before Angela came over confessing while we were neighbors and brethren with only one house between us, we no longer spoke. What was there to say? (Not that we ever even saw each other.) And I wasn’t in the wrong in not speaking to her—as I’ve been accused concerning her and others—since God says “You must not associate with anyone who claims to be a brother or sister but is...an idolater...Do not even eat with such people” (1 Cor. 5:11, NIV). And after her confession, we rarely saw each other since she was pretty busy in her medical residency. Then when we were all living back here we connected a couple times til she went AWOL again, as always rebuking me for doing what we’re supposed to be doing.

What that small group did, and what Angela’s done, is what Christians have been doing for centuries so that we’ve divided and divided by the tens of thousands into unbiblical denominations, doctrines, beliefs, and practices! We're OUTRAGEOUSLY rebellious! Yet you all go around preaching, singing, and talking about being united in Christ when the body of Christ is united in Her lip-service to Christ! It's like this graphic since this stadium seats 50,000. Yet God has called us to be "one" with Him (John 17:21, ESV)—of "one mind" (Phil. 2:2, NIV)—and views us as "His Wife" (Rev. 19:7, KJV), "His Bride" (Rev. 19:17, ESV). But it's more like we're the worst whore who ever walked the earth making Solomon seem faithful and Gomer worthy of Hosea!

Moreover, if our group had obeyed Him we would have been enlightened as a group. And because most of us were associated with Eagle which was mentored by RZIM, and I was more closely connected to Bill who was more closely connected to Sunder—imagining that Bill and RZIM had been biblical—we could have EASILY gotten the "latter rain" (Joel 2:23, ESV) outpouring of God's Spirit going worldwide more than two decades ago! Of course God knew we'd be unfaithful but the point is that He keeps giving us opportunities to win the world for Christ and we keep rejecting them. In turn, He continues to say "My people are foolish; they know me not; they are stupid children; they have no understanding. They are 'wise'—in doing evil! But how to do good they know not" (Jer. 4:22, ESV). While the born again know God better than the lost who don't know Him at all, the born again hardly know Him! You're more like acquainted with Him, as He's proven through part of this ministry.

For years I couldn't figure out why Christians were so blind to super clear connections. Now I get it. Today's born again Christians, even the most mature, barely experience His presence since they don't walk in the Spirit as a way of life, blinded by beams of hypocrisy (Matt .7:5) so that they think those of us who experience His presence in detail are literally nuts! As a group, the body of Christ is just like the lost who think we're nuts for believing the truth. It's like when they told Rhoda she was out of her mind for God having actually answered their prayers for Peter's release from prison! (Acts 12:15 in the graphic). There's still this DISCONNECT taking place since He's had me knocking for more than two and a half decades!

The Joseph Experience Prophecy

It must have been a year after leaving Eagle that God used Matt Miller from Eagle to prophesy to me. I hadn't thought much about them since the group had broken up, but out of nowhere one day they came to mind. And for years I'd already been in the habit of praying for those who came to mind, figuring that's why HE had brought them to mind. So a few hours later Matt and Barb were standing at our door. Catching up Barb confessed to almost not stopping by, but getting convicted—which I would think had something to do with that prayer.

Praying and Doing. Here's another thing Christians talk about but don't actually get. We are a huge part of answering God's will for our lives through our prayers.

For example, I've been praying like crazy for 26 years for the body of Christ to get it together, which can only have come from God considering the state of every human heart (Jer. 17:9). But for my prayers to get answered I've had to do my part in not only praying but doing everything He's asked of me—even when I TOTALLY don't feel like it. And I don't! Having obeyed Him to write to you, having finished the first draft of a 30 page booklet, I looked up Randa reminded that you went to the same church back then. So I found her church and then found out that you are still in that pagan system and serving as "Ruling Elder." A little more digging revealed your son went to and is still associated with the Jesuit Georgetown university. Through all of that He convicted me to make the booklet a book which I've repeatedly wanted to delete since—based on past experience—there's a minute chance that you're going to be honest about what God has revealed! And writing a book, unpaid, knowing there's huge probability the person isn't even going to read it SUCKS THE LIFE OUT OF YOU! The thought that this is just another stepping stone is...[a lot of curse words. Look down your nose at me now but you'll appreciate my feelings having finished the book—IF you're honest!].

So I remind you that if you get right with God He will use it "all" (Eph. 1:11, ESV) for His purposes and your good and the good many. Just be honest.

- Would Jesus attend a pagan institution called church?
- Does Jesus sanction denominations?
- Are hired hands His chosen instruments?
- Does He view anything Catholic as honoring God?
- Would He have sent James to a Jesuit university?
- Are you the Ruling Elder at CCC because He appointed you into that position or because someone else did?
- Have you joined light with darkness?

The answer to all of it is obvious for the mature born again Christian. The question is what you are going to do about it. Will you keep dishonoring Christ and being a hypocrite? Or will you repent of it all and help others wake up to themselves so that together we can "fight the good fight of the faith" (1 Tim. 6:12, ESV) and actually be the light of the world?

Again, it gets really old working like a dog and reaching out to born again Christians, praying your heart out for them, and having them not even have the decency to acknowledge that you’ve contacted them, and those who do REBUKE YOU for having obeyed Christ! It got old when I was at Eagle! Yet this is the only way I’ll finally reach the “appointed time” (Hab. 2:3, KJV) for this ministry to finally take off as that first person “run[s]...[with] the vision” (Hab. 2:2-3, KJV) having chosen to be honest. I’m trapped in the spiritual version of Joseph’s dungeon/pit (Gen. 40:15, NIV/ESV).

And that’s the prophecy the Lord was having Matt and Barb come over to tell me. Having caught up with the Millers, Matt moved closer to where I was sitting to say “Your move back there is going to be a Joseph Experience” which the Lord confirmed the next day with the sermon.

However, Joseph’s experience was a life experience which began when he was born, not just when his brothers threw him in that pit. Having already experienced that hatred from by brother in Christ for years, Matt’s prophetic word should have been a reality check for me, that it would continue—and worsen—as we moved back here. But having a heart deceitful above all things (Jer. 17:9) I actually expected it to go better here, not worse! So excited to finally be moving back I was focused on that/on me instead of the war (Eph. 6:12)—just like the rest.

So my first installment of the Joseph Experience took place when I was five, though I wouldn’t understand it for decades. While in preschool I’d had a season of nightmares where really creepy people (demons) taunted me from the top of a pit I’d been thrown into. I remember being afraid of going to sleep at night. It turned out I’d broken my ear drum. On the swim team, my brother had ‘urged’ me to jump off the high dive at the university’s Olympic pool and that jump/fall was basically repeated in the dream/nightmare. It’s a pretty big fall for a five year old. Those nightmares had obviously been a preview of the Joseph Experience: hated, thrown into a pit, falsely accused—by my brothers—locked up in a dungeon pit (my supremely isolated life), and finally delivered for “the saving of many lives” (Gen. 50:20, NIV).

For 26 years I've endured abuse and ridicule by Christians and the lost while in this prison without walls—wanting to leave but convicted to stay. The Lord has worked it all out for His purposes and our good (Eph. 1:11) since all the hatred has enabled me to have the time to study God's Word more thoroughly than the norm along with other works including those of the lost. It's also motivated me to take my thoughts captive to Christ (2 Cor. 10:5). Keeping what lines up with the teachings of Christ while rejecting what doesn't, I've been fulfilling God's calling on my life to "write the vision" (Hab. 2:2-3) and reach out to others as He leads (Jer. 7:27 in the graphic).

In turn, everyone's cold hearted and unbiblical reactions have been used by the Lord to not only further enlighten me but helped me step into His shoes feeling what He feels. In a word, DISMISSED! Worse than that. It's like all of His hard work on the Cross was for nothing! Because, having called me to homeschool the girls through high school and seen it all go out the window, when they had been so sweet, innocent, and devoted to Christ...it breaks my heart. But then I think of how He must feel—and it's overwhelming godly sorrow. How could we be SO UNGRATEFUL?!!! And, again, the answer is that "the heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked" (Jer. 17:9). He wants the body of Christ to get the point so He's had me get the point having given me this calling to "write the vision" (Hab. 2:2, KJV).

Having worked it all out for His purposes and our good, ever since 1998 I've been presenting it all in letters, books, booklets, tracts, and videos as He's led me to do it in a way that's easy to understand as I wait for the "appointed time" when a servant of the King will get me out of this prison type life so that God's people can run with the vision (Hab. 2:2-3). All these assignments of the last 26 years is how He's given me the vision being that He's the greatest "Teacher" alive (John 13:13, YLT).

Lessons on Love. When Reggie and I were living in San Diego in 1987 we each made a list of what we thought we were supposed to learn from this life, and the first thing on my list was “Learn to love” since no one I knew genuinely love anyone—except for maybe my grandmother who I’d barely gotten to know. Now I get it. It’s the whole point of this life. It’s the whole point of the entire vision and plan of God. He’s teaching humanity how to genuinely love, like Christ. And having had a ton of different jobs throughout my life, along with different hobbies, and having gone to college, I know without a doubt that there is no better way to learn anything than on the job. There’s a world of difference between reading about something and actually doing it. No comparison. And today’s born again are mostly readers not “doers of the word” (James 1:22, KJV)—especially in the U.S.

Biblical Interpretations. Given the Joseph Experience my life has all aspects of it, including interpretations today’s born again can’t see for being in “rebellion” (2 Thess. 2:3, ESV)—even though God’s hand on them is super obvious! But, again, that’s the problem with being hypocrites, we BLIND ourselves to the obvious (Matt. 7:5). The born again know the lost are blind to obvious truth. But that’s how it is for born again hypocrites as well. And it is obvious that only Jesus represents God since He fulfilled 351 Old Testament prophecies written by different people in different countries at different times in history.

Yet today’s born again are so blind that they laugh about being hypocrites, ignoring the consequences of it (Jer. 17:9, KJV). So the majority of the body of Christ lives entirely for this world wearing Christ as a name tag, as if that’s all He requires. Then they rebuke and ridicule those who reject the benefits of watering down the faith in order to live for Satan’s world like they do, and actually live for Christ. That’s what everyone on my path has been doing.

Yet one of the beauties about being a born again Christian is that God enabled us to become His “friends” (John 15:15, ESV) through the work Jesus did on the Cross. And close friends tell each other stuff—as the born again know, but...there’s that nagging problem of the heart (Jer. 17:9). He says, “He who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him and manifest myself to him” (John 14:21, ESV). “Whenever anyone turns to the Lord, the veil is taken away” (2 Cor. 3:16, NIV). Therefore, the more faithful we are to Him the more He allows us to see behind the veil. And since “all things were created through him and for him” (Col. 1:16, ESV), He’s behind it all. So that’s a big part of this ministry. Having given me the Joseph Experience, which included interpretations, He’s given me biblical interpretations for entire books, songs, movies, places, events, etc. And every mature born again Christian should have this level of discernment. But I’ve only found one blip of an interpretation done by someone else on the SandNinjaProductions channel at this link: Simba In The Valley of Dry Bones \(youtube.com\).

Naming Names: While I’d kept everyone anonymous, in 2012 the Lord gave me a full interpretation for the children’s book Maya Makes a Mess by Rutu Modan. Having exposed me, He exposed everyone because it wouldn’t be fair to expose the lost while protecting the born again! As warned, “Nothing is covered that will not be revealed” (Matt. 10:26, ESV).

Rejecting Christ

What the body of Christ has been doing to me is what they did to Samuel to whom He said “They have not rejected you, but they have rejected me from being king over them” (1 Sam. 8:7, ESV). Again, the body of Christ is “in rebellion” (2 Thess. 2:3, ESV) against our “King” (1 Tim. 6:15, ESV).

For example, born again Christians know that the majority of born again Christians seldom evangelize. Yet these same people believe their family, friends, co-workers, and neighbors are going to burn alive in a place called hell forever or “until the day of judgment” (2 Pet. 2:9, ESV), or “be thrown outside, into the darkness” (Matt. 8:12, NIV) forever separated from their Maker or destroyed (2 Thess. 1:9 below). Either way, whatever your view of hell, most born again couldn’t be more self absorbed and hateful (or undiscerning), since they don’t even try to help these people! Not for the most part. Yet the body of Christ is supposed to be made up of the most loving people on earth. As well as the most honest. Besides spiritually discerning. And we are none of it—as a group—as this book and ministry proves.

2 Thessalonians 1:9, ESV They will suffer the punishment of eternal destruction, away from the presence of the Lord. [Except the literal doesn’t say eternal destruction but “destruction age-during” (YLT) or “eonian extermination from the face of the Lord” (CLT). Either way the literal translations speak of a time period, and age or an eon, not forever.]

Just think how cruel God would be knowing this is how the body of Christ was going to behave and the doctrine of hell was real! But it’s clearly not, as I expose decently enough in this book. And that should make born again Christians rejoice not get mad at me for not toeing the line that God is much nicer than the most brutal dictator!

Not Your Will But My Will! From the very beginning professing Christians have been excited about things I’ve had to say. But as soon as they realize I’m saying something they disagree with, or that THEY are being called to repent, or when God has directly asked them to do something they don’t want to do, or give up something etc., they typically choose their will instead.

For example, I met plenty of women who confessed that the Lord wanted them to homeschool but wouldn’t for whatever reason. Essentially, it was inconvenient. They blatantly chose to disobey Christ when being a disciple of Christ is the most inconvenient way to live! That’s why He compares it to carrying our cross (Luke 14:27), that thing on which He was brutally tortured—pretty inconvenient! As a group, born again Christians have been lying to God, lying to others, and lying to themselves that they love Jesus and are His disciple when they’re not even His follower or not a very close follower.

Creators of Hell. All born again Christians, to one degree or another, have been “witnesses against yourselves that you have chosen to serve the LORD” (Josh. 24:22, NIV) since you made a “profession before many witnesses” (1 Tim. 6:12, YLT) when you were baptized that you were devoting your life to Christ, yet have mostly lived for yourselves instead ‘worshipping’ God in a pagan system. And serving Jesus while compromising the truth is serving Satan because “in him is no darkness at all” (1 John 1:5, ESV). It’s another rerun summed up with the graphic.

Rather than helping Jesus build up His kingdom which is “not of this world” (John 18:36, KJV), as a whole the body of Christ has historically mostly helped Satan build up his kingdom on earth, creating hell on earth. The body of Christ is responsible for the “great tribulation” (Matt. 24:21, ESV), in large part, because we were told—not the lost—to “submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you” (James 4:7, ESV). Called to be “the light of the world” (Matt. 5:14, ESV), He didn’t mean He’d just free us as individuals from Satan’s grip and to hell with everyone else. He chose us to reach the world for Christ releasing them from Satan’s grip, and that we would do it by working together as a group, “the body” (1 Cor. 12:27, KJV), “submit[ting] to one another out of reverence for Christ” (Eph. 5:21, NIV). Instead, the body has been PUSHING people into Satan’s grip as clearly revealed with our children. And you should be able to see it in plenty of other ways.

Infants Concerning the Spiritual War

Today’s Christians are such blind infants they’ve rebuked me “Satan’s not interested in YOU!” meaning because I’m a total nobody so that I’m super proud for thinking Satan would bother with me. However, while I am a TOTAL nobody, I’m discerning rather than proud because God has informed us that Satan is interested in all of us (Eph. 6:12; 1 Pet. 5:8; Rev. 12:12., etc. below). Yet instead of listening to the Lord directly or to what He’s been saying through me, helping me—your sister in Christ, a member of the body who God calls “indispensable” (1 Cor. 12:22 below)—you all keep helping Satan hurt us all!

Ephesians 6:12, ESV We do not wrestle against flesh and blood, but against...the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly places.

1 Peter 5:8, ESV Your adversary the devil prowls around like a roaring lion, seeking someone to devour. [That “someone” is obviously everyone.]

Revelation 12:12, ESV Woe to you, O earth and sea, for the devil has come down to you [to all of us] in great wrath, because he knows that his time is short!

1 Corinthians 12:22, ESV Those parts of the body that seem to be weaker are indispensable.

Being in full blown rebellion against God, the body of Christ, this “whorish woman” (Jer. 3:3, YLT), is the one holding Satan’s hose putting out the fire of God! It’s what they did at Eagle. It’s what our little house church group did. It’s what we’ve been doing for the last 2000 years!

Out to Seek and Destroy. When our kids were in their early teens I saw the Marshall’s son, Isaiah, on YouTube singing Seek and Destroy by Metallica (in the graphic), so I wrote to Angela. The words he was singing echoed the words which were repeatedly spoken to me by real people and in dreams and visions starting the week I was born again and which obviously come from Satan, the “murderer” (John 8:44, ESV).

But the Marshalls had already blown me off again years before since I wasn’t interested in attending their infant’s baptism, it being a lie which helps deceive people. I was also not interested in Angela’s elevation of worldly strong women—another deception. So I never heard back from Angela, just like I’ve never heard back from anyone from Eagle the Lord has had me reach out to over the years, which He had me do again less than two years ago—as He warned me. “You shall call to them, but they will not answer you” (Jer. 7:27, ESV).

Elevating Man Above God.

From the day I begged God to take over my life, people who I discern are born again along with those who aren't, have urged me to submit to men rather than Christ, harshly ridiculing, rebuking, or shunning me for not doing their will—which is to do Satan's will, one who's out to destroy our lives! As Satan knows, it's primarily about "the life that is truly life" (1 Tim. 6:19, NIV), the next life. But because the born again know they're born again, they've kicked back since nothing can separate them from the love of Christ (Rom. 8:35-39 below). Having gotten comfortable in their salvation since "the heart is deceitful above all things" (Jer. 17:9, KJV), they've been living for this world—Satan's world—so that they ignore Scripture and feed the lie in their own lives as they "serve God" within that pagan satanic system and in those carnal house churches.

Worldly Success
Focus is on Self

Godly Success
Focus is on Christ

Romans 8:35-39, ESV Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or danger, or sword?...No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us. For I am sure that neither death nor life, nor angels nor rulers, nor things present nor things to come, nor powers, nor height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Prescribed the Red Pill

The Lord has had me try to get through to Angela several times over the years, the last time right before calling me to write this for you. He spoke to me about it in November and I mailed her a letter in January 2024. It turns out that Angela just published a book in 2023 which exactly parallels what the body of Christ has done—dismissed Him. It’s also exactly what the Lord has had me doing these 26 years, writing about the biases that undermine our spiritual health for having dismissed the Great Physician. Maybe you can see God’s supernatural hand on it, especially since she published her book just a few months before He had me reach out to her again. But it wasn’t until after I’d finished my letter to her that I looked her up online and discovered that she’d written the book. Discerning the Lord’s leading I made the letter I’d written her into a booklet which He then had me make into a video with a PDF file of the booklet provided for her in the video’s description box. But she clearly blew me off—again—for being so deeply immersed in Satan’s world.

My guess is that she saw my name on the return address and immediately chucked the envelope without even opening it. The Lord impressed me that her baby who died, Nathan, which means Gift of God, was used by Him (Eph. 1:11) to get her to take Him seriously. The picture on the dedication page, which I included in her letter is a cut and paste job since she only had one picture of Nathan sitting in his baby carrier a few days before he died. I took his head and placed it on another baby—making him look happy and healthy as she’s holding him. That picture alone should have softened her heart. Or, I’m still that naïve.

And, again, I made the main pill on my cover red since it symbolizes the willingness to face hard truths. It’s what the Great Physician wants the body of Christ to do. SWALLOW THE RED PILL!

While Angela was once the Christian woman I most admired for being bright, hard working, and super warm, that woman no longer exists. And she’s an example of the whole. We are all examples of the whole, just in different ways. We all do the same things to one degree or another. It’s the saying, give him an inch and he’ll take a mile. God warned us with this passage, for instance, “Do not give the devil a foothold” (Eph. 4:27, NIV) because he’ll take it all. And “if you do not stand firm in your faith, you will not stand at all” (Isa. 7:9, NIV). And here we are, not standing at all for having dismissed Him—for having hearts that are “deceitful above all things” (Jer. 17:9, KJV).

Exam—A Biblical Interpretation: The Lord also tied the red pill to a biblical interpretation He gave me a decade ago for the movie Exam (2009). It’s all about filling a very important administrative position by merely seeing clearly for paying attention to details, and this amazing pill (2 Cor. 13:5 in the graphic) which also happens to be red (Eph. 1:11), and managing it’s distribution. I clearly landed that job. But in reality there are many jobs available.

Like most of the interpretations I need to update it with what He’s since taught me. So most of them aren’t online right now. And I can’t wait to be done with these miserable Detours because that’s the fun stuff—seeing God behind the veil. They’re fun to work on because every time I work on them I see more. While that’s true no matter what assignment He has me working on, interpreting a secular resource is loads more fun. Even if no one else gets it, I get it. And since God is mocking the body of Christ (Ps. 2:4) and “publicly defend[ing my] just cause” (Ps. 37:6, NET) I find them very enjoyable.

Everyone to whom much was given, of him much will be required. Luke 12:48, ESV

It is hard for someone who is rich to enter the kingdom of heaven. Matthew 19:23, NIV

They have no shame at all; they do not even know how to blush. Jeremiah 6:15, NIV

With man this is impossible, but with God all things are possible. Matthew 19:26, ESV

Joel Olsteen $40 Million

Benny Hinn $42 Million

Ravi Zacharias $8 Million

Typical US Christian $50,000-100,000

www.smartcapitalmind.com $6000 or less

This Superpower WILL Have Super Power.

The ministry the Lord has entrusted to me is focused on the Church of the United States since we were granted the most (wealth, freedom to worship, opportunities, etc.) and have squandered it all. If all you're doing is creating more infantile hypocritical born again Christians, as is mostly the case, it qualifies as squandering. At best it deserves a C for a grade, equivalent to "saved; yet so as by fire" (1 Cor. 3:15, KJV). The Lord is using the Church of the U.S. to begin the "latter rain" outpouring (Joel 2:23, ESV). It's already begun but it's merely a sprinkle. I'm talking about the actual "downpour" (Joel 2:23, CLT), a major move of God of healing and restoration. He's using the U.S. not because we've been more faithful, just the opposite (Luke 12:8 in the graphic above). It's like a mixed blessing. And when we repent there will be a CLEAR distinction between professing Christians who aren't born again and those who are, which will be much greater than just financial.

Though by this time you ought to be teachers, you need someone to teach you the elementary truths of God's word all over again. You need milk, not solid food! Hebrews 5:12, NIV

Father, please don't let Allen Barta have believed in vain! 1 Corinthians 15:2

The heaven is my throne, and the earth is my footstool. Isaiah 66:1, KJV

5 Bad Fruit

Having been called and convicted to stand firm in my faith while homeschooling the girls, it felt like swimming against a super strong current. So they finally gave in. Hoping and praying for better NO ONE could stand firm in the faith inundated by the lies of this pagan version of Christianity we've created. That's the point. The consequences have been over the top since only us/the born again were entrusted with the truth to be "the light of the world" (Matt. 5:14, ESV). Not having been faithful we've left the whole world in the dark! It's like the spectrum below. If the body of Christ was more enlightened than what I'm saying, in 26 years I should have been able to get through to someone.

The only rationale I see for why born again Christians have blown me off—besides being "deceitful above all things" (Jer. 17:9, KJV)—is where it says "If anyone comes to you and does not bring this teaching, do not receive him into your house or give him any greeting, for whoever greets him takes part in his wicked works" (2 John 9:10-11, ESV). But it's not as if I've been saying Jesus isn't God! As Christians it's our job to love the Truth and love others enough to "earnestly contend for the faith" (Jude 1:3, KJV). It's the two greatest commandments, genuinely love God and love people (Mark 12:30-31). And there's likely much more that everyone has agreed with than disagreed with so that the body of Christ is "without excuse" (Rom. 1:20, ESV). Again, the Girl's been behaving like a rich spoiled brat throwing a tantrum.

When The Light Refuses to Shine

This is how dark our rebellion has made it. When the born again reject followers of Christ, as I obviously am, that leaves us completely vulnerable to “the forces of evil” (Eph. 6:12, NIV) since it’s not as if we can have fellowship with the lost who vehemently reject Christ. Hanging out with the lost is like hanging out with a rotting corpse. So rotting corpse or Girl in a coma, those are the only two spiritual groups in the world: lost and born again. According to the New Testament we hang out with neither. Witnessing to the lost is not hanging out. It’s not fellowship.

Therefore, being that our girls were kids in college with ZERO support network, their parents not even on the same page while both claim to be believers, while they’d made very hard choices for years in order to honor Jesus, they finally threw in the towel and joined the rebellion lying to themselves about God and about me. But it wasn’t until after one of them tried to kill herself SEVERAL times torn with what and Who she knew and the life she had to live. That’s the turmoil the body of Christ is causing and why the Lord repeatedly gave me this passage at Eagle kick starting my ministry:

There are many rebellious people, full of meaningless talk and deception, especially those of the [Christian leadership] group. They must be silenced, because they are disrupting whole households (Titus 1:10-11, NIV).

Before her first attempt the Lord warned us with a poem she wrote for college, on the next page. Having read her poem, out on a walk praying for her, He informed me that she wouldn’t succeed. Praying for her as I walked, earphones in place listening to a playlist of Scripture mixed with worship songs, I suddenly heard the music coming in:

*I hear you praying for a child
You're so afraid they'll go wild
Don't forget my love is true
And I will carry them like I've carried you
And I will never let them fall.
This is a promise to believe.*

from Never Let You Fall by Ray Boltz

I believed Him. But I misunderstood Him because I hadn’t realized He’d let her attempt suicide and do it several times! It was a set up. This whole miserable life has been a set up (Eph. 1:11).

Here's the poem she wrote and the Scripture I was in when she gave it to me. Her professor was so undiscerning that she told her she should have it published OBLIVIOUS to the alarm it was sounding. What's worse is that born again Christians couldn't care less! I reached out to plenty begging them to have the decency to take God seriously, and the best "help" I got was from Randa Nader who blamed me. More on that further in the text. The only way the problem was with me was because I've refused to be a born again hypocrite. That's caused plenty of problems in my marriage and family. But according to Jesus the solution isn't for me to join the rebellious mob but for the mob to repent!

Consequences of a Fallen Angel

*I carve my words into the heart of my soul
Until the edge of this razor Becomes the only love I can feel.*

*Desire is nothing more than a Thin, straight line
And every scar tells her own story.*

*Let me savor that bittersweet
Taste of shame
Until the guilt loses color, fades into black.*

*Innocence fled with the first drop of blood.
The last chains of fear and hope
I sever with one final cut.*

There's nothing left.

*Come find me beneath the red-stained water.
Hold my wrists—
Read this diary of unfinished scars.*

*Don't cry:
Just close my soulless eyes.*

*I'm dreaming of forgotten love.
And waiting for a shooting star.*

He hath led me, and brought me into darkness, but not into light.

*Surely against me is he turned;
he turneth his hand against me all the day,
My flesh and my skin hath he made old;
he hath broken my bones.*

*He hath builded against me,
and compassed me with gall and travail,
He hath set me in dark places, as they that be dead of old.*

*He hath hedged me about,
that I cannot get out:
he hath made my chain heavy.
Also when I cry and shout,
he shutteth out my prayer;*

*He hath inclosed my ways with hewn stone,
he hath made my paths crooked.
He was unto me as a bear lying in wait, and as a lion in secret places...*

*This I recall to my mind, therefore have I hope.
It is of the LORD's mercies that we are not consumed, because his compassions fail not.
They are new every morning:
great is thy faithfulness.*

—Lamentations 3:2-23

—Fallen Angel

Feeling like suicide trumps living in a cold world with nothing better than rebellious Christians is one of God’s main points. If born again Christian adults who know God’s Word well aren’t going to stand firm in the faith, it’s not as if kids are going to be able to do it! Coordinating everything for His purposes (Eph. 1:11), our kids—the Marshall’s, mine, and yours—represent the best the body of Christ has to offer since it’s not as if these kids or their parents are uneducated or uninformed. They were all raised from birth by born again educated parents devoted to them and as devoted to Christ as it gets. And “bad fruit” is all “a diseased tree” produces (Matt. 7:17, ESV). If you think you’ve done better, you are choosing to ignore what Jesus says.

Doing Man’s Work Ignoring God. From a worldly viewpoint your son, James, has excelled. But from God’s viewpoint, he joined light with darkness by attending a Jesuit university, and is focused—putting the bulk of his energy—on building Satan’s kingdom, his government, by serving as Solicitor General. While it might appear good to be a Christian in that system—a popular lie peddled by Christians—it’s not as if Satan, “the ruler of this world” (John 12:31, YLT), is going to allow him, or anyone else, to actually improve this world for Christ while serving his government. Even if James does make improvements for the public, “what is a man profited if he may gain the whole world, but of his life suffer loss?” (Matt. 16:26, YLT). The work James is doing is a DISTRACTION. Having chosen the ways of the world, he’s not doing the “good works, which God prepared in advance for [him] to do” (Eph. 2:10, NIV) which is done by His Spirit (Zech. 4:6) not by joining light with darkness. And to think that you can join hands with Jesuits ignores God’s warning, “Do not be deceived: Bad company ruins good morals” (1 Cor. 15:33, ESV). You have been deceived—deceived yourselves. Jesuits are as bad a company as you could keep since the very reason they exist is to counter the reformation and Jesus says “Bear, therefore, fruits worthy of the reformation” (Matt. 3:8, YLT).

While we’re told to “take no part in the unfruitful works of darkness, but instead expose them” (Eph. 5:11, ESV), the majority of the born again today are steeped in darkness led by Satan using Jesuits and Freemasons to deceive the people. While there was a reformation of sorts in the Church during the Middle Ages, there was also—and more so—a counter reformation so that every year we see more of a Catholic influence in the so-called Protestant churches. And, again, the roots of the whole thing are pagan, more to the point, satanic.

Ignoring the fact that your congregation is pagan in nature, as they all are, it professes to honor the so-called Reformation under their What We Believe page. So technically it should be what you believe since you're their Ruling Elder. And the New Testament says "an overseer must be above reproach [one who]...must manage his own household well...for if someone does not know how to manage his own household, how will he care for God's church? (1 Tim. 3:2-5, ESV). So while you're that congregation's Ruling Elder, not even just an elder, your son attended the Jesuit Georgetown University and is listed as an Adjunct Professor with them. Yet the Jesuits rose up for the very purpose of countering the Reformation. You're clearly being double-minded, which makes you unstable in "all" your ways (James 1:8, ESV)—like the norm.

Since the body of Christ has historically been in the habit of watering down the truth and joining light with darkness, the born again have hindered their own spiritual growth and deceived themselves so that there are new born again believers today who are more anointed than most who've been born again for decades. When the Lord uses others to help me persevere, it's seldom more "mature" Christians. He mostly uses those who are very young in the faith. I'm guessing before they get too brainwashed and proud, which happens SUPER FAST.

But since they don't have decades of Bible study under their belt, I discern it will be easier for your group to run with the vision and run further faster—once you repent for not having lived a life worthy of the calling you received. You can repent very quickly whereas they don't even have the time to study the Bible as you've done over the past few decades—not unless all 54 Bible prophecies pointing to 2030 are wrong. But 54 is quite a bit of evidence. And they're not dreams or visions, but actual prophecies in the Bible. (I talk about them further in the text).

Angela is another good example of doing man's work while ignoring God. While being a doctor seems like an excellent way to help people, she's actually keeping people from the One who "heals all...our diseases" (Ps. 103:3, ESV). Being in rebellion against Christ there's no mention of Him on her website. Of course not! Most born again doctors have Jesus as a condiment. And the medical industry is a hugely deceptive racket as revealed by the food documentaries, for example: What The Health - Full Documentary \(youtube.com\). Having only scanned Angela's book I did see her elevating people who didn't even honor Christ, like Maya Angelou, honoring her Black race more than her "citizenship" (Phil. 3:20, ESV) like the majority are doing.

The fact is that every industry serves Satan since he's "the god of this world" (2 Cor. 4:4, ESV). God put it all under his "authority" (Luke 4:6, ESV).

And what's happened to the body is what Clint Wilson, from Eagle at the time, wrote in my baptism guest book. He thanked me for reminding him of how excited he'd been about the Lord as a new believer—echoing what many said. But if the born again had remained faithful to Christ decades later they'd be even more on fire for God than before—not less! So while the "whorish woman" (Jer. 3:3, YLT) soon to be "Lamb's wife" (Rev. 21:9, KJV) constantly puts my fire out as She serves "the god of this world" (2 Cor. 4:4, KJV), God keeps reigniting the flame. But what a fire we'd have going without this whorish woman!

This is what the body of Christ has been doing for centuries, become born again and then moved forward, for the most part, living for this world serving God in a manner that honors man rather than Him who says "Not by might, nor by power, but by my Spirit" (Zech. 4:6, ESV). The body of Christ is supposed to be putting the bulk of their energy in doing the two things they hate, praying and being obedient. It's like we took Jesus' meaning of Matthew 17:20 (below) to be that we were supposed to become good construction workers when it's like the graphic. EVERYTHING we do that is not done in faith is sin (Rom. 14:23) and, therefore, worth NOTHING (John 15:5 in the graphic).

Matthew 17:20, ESV If you have faith like a grain of mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, 'Move from here to there,' and it will move, and nothing will be impossible for you.

Discerning the Born Again Among Bad Fruit

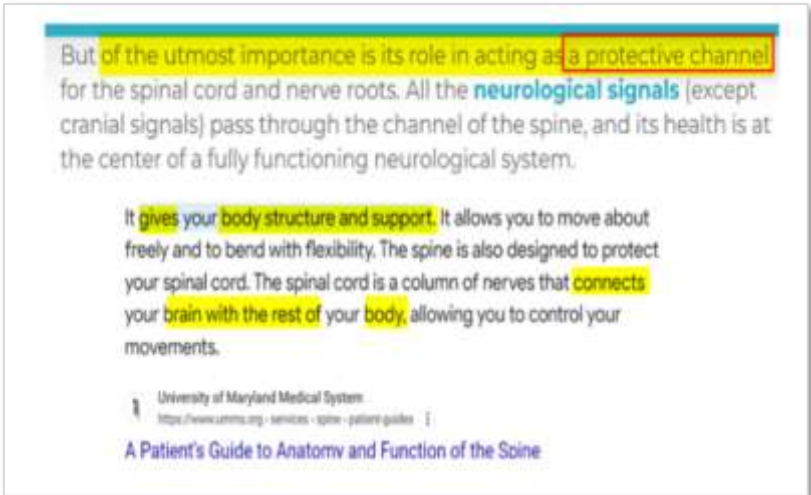

Could it be that no one on my path has actually been born again since there's nothing but “bad fruit” (Matt. 7:17, ESV)? No. Looking at a professing Christian's actions along with what they're saying—combined with what they've said and done in the past—we can discern whether or not they're born again. The following are a few examples.

Angela: No unbeliever would get convicted, come over crying about having disobeyed Christ, confess it, and ask forgiveness for it. She didn't do it to become born again but as a born again child of God who got convicted about having refused to submit to Him. She'd also had the discernment, accompanied by excitement, to know God called me as a prophet. There is no doubt in my mind that Angela is born again but in rebellion.

Reggie: Asking the Lord specifically what part of the body of Christ he was when we lived in Indianapolis before we left Eagle, even before we'd moved into the house, the Lord gave me a very clear vision which I understood right away. He showed me a very juicy, very vibrant muscular backbone like you might see in a medical anatomy book. It made sense then and makes much more sense now since Reggie puts in long hours and funds me and my ministry, even though he believes in neither (Eph. 1:11). He's not only muscular because of the ministry he's funding, but because he's been dealing with neurosarcoidosis the whole time. And if he hadn't been born again when I asked the Lord to show me what part of the body he was, He would not have given me this very clear vision because Reggie wouldn't have been a part of the body of Christ. Instead, the Lord would have made it clear to me that he wasn't born again.

And if not for the vision, I wouldn't think he's born again. He's just a nice guy who says he's a believer. And there have been plenty of nice lost souls throughout history who didn't divorce their spouse even though they no longer loved them. Reggie loves me like a housemate, like he loves any other human being. And as I cover towards the end I understand what the Lord was doing in leading me to marry him, and I appreciate it. He gave me the best man for the job. I get it. But I express frustration every 10 years or so (more during the first decade before I understood what was happening). I'm human and this has been a pretty hard calling, and my family of origin is all lost whereas Reggie's father was a church leader.

It's also interesting—spiritually speaking—that the backbone is not only “a protective channel” (like a Christian husband should be for his wife), but connects the brain to the body. That would be Jesus' brain and “the body of Christ” (1 Cor. 12:27, KJV), this very “stupid” (Jer. 4:22, ESV) “whorish” (Jer. 3:3, YLT) woman.

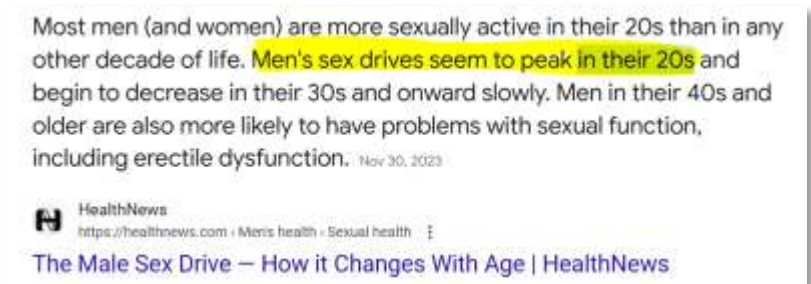

But of the utmost importance is its role in acting as a protective channel for the spinal cord and nerve roots. All the neurological signals [except cranial signals] pass through the channel of the spine, and its health is at the center of a fully functioning neurological system.

It gives your body structure and support. It allows you to move about freely and to bend with flexibility. The spine is also designed to protect your spinal cord. The spinal cord is a column of nerves that connects your brain with the rest of your body, allowing you to control your movements.

University of Maryland Medical System
<https://www.umms.org/services/spine-patient-guide>

A Patient's Guide to Anatomy and Function of the Spine

André: Searching my memory files trying to figure out if André was ever even born again, thinking he probably wasn't, the Lord reminded me of a conversation I'd had with Angela. She said he'd remained a virgin until they were married in order to honor the Lord. I'm thinking no young man would do that apart from God. André's willingness to abstain in order to honor Jesus had to have come from God. Therefore, I discern he's born again—but in rebellion.

Most men (and women) are more sexually active in their 20s than in any other decade of life. Men's sex drives seem to peak in their 20s and begin to decrease in their 30s and onward slowly. Men in their 40s and older are also more likely to have problems with sexual function, including erectile dysfunction. Nov 30, 2023

HealthNews
<https://healthnews.com/Mens-health/Sexual-health>

The Male Sex Drive – How it Changes With Age | HealthNews

Bill Bean: Again, Bill was the Worship Pastor at Eagle. The Lord had us meet weekly for a season trying to get through to him, sessions which were great at first so that one day all excited about what I'd said, while I was still talking Bill stood up grabbed my purse and opened it wide to randomly dump in a dozen music CDs from his shelf! (Jenny Hoover was aware of this since I immediately drove over to tell her about it.) He also lent me books, feeding this sheep (John 21:17). He'd even call me to turn me on to books that were on sale knowing I'd like them. Seeing how God was working in my life, he was excited about it and was helping me get even more of Him. He also told others about my walk so that Bryan Brenner, from Eagle, once said, "Maya! Bill's been singing your praises!" The lost seldom get excited about Jesus. And if they do, having no roots, they quickly fall away according to the parable of the sower and what I've seen (Matt. 13:1-23). It happens overnight, literally. Bill was obviously born again but fell into rebellion.

The Path
Birds Ate It Unsaved

Rocky Ground
No Roots Quickly Fell Away

Thorns Got Choked Out Unfruitful

Good Soil Hears & Understands Produced a Crop

Bryan Brenner: Bryan led the first Bible study we attended at Eagle walking us through Surprised by Faith by Don Bierle. That, along with a paper written by Peter Bocchino which Bryan passed on to me, opened the floodgates for me since it answered some long standing questions. While it seems to have made Eagle leadership think I just became born again, I'd actually been like most, born again but only minimally enlightened. It's part of the reason the Lord moved us to Indianapolis. This area is in an even deeper coma. I have no doubt that Bryan is born again but in rebellion. Like the majority Bryan did what most born again Christians have historically done. Except, like Angela and your son James, he excelled at it, giving himself over heart and soul to his work in this world—Satan's world (John 12:31)—while giving Jesus a back seat in the dog crate. Bryan Brenner – Inspiring & propelling people-first leadership.

While it wouldn't seem like you could serve Satan as a born again soul, the following passage makes it clear that you definitely can:

For no one can lay a foundation other than that which is laid, which is Jesus Christ. [Only the born again have the foundation of Christ.] Now if anyone builds on the foundation with gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, straw—each one's work will become manifest, for the Day will disclose it, because it will be revealed by fire, and the fire will test what sort of work each one has done. If the work that anyone has built on the foundation survives, he will receive a reward. If anyone's work is burned up, he will suffer loss, though he himself will be saved, but only as through fire (1 Cor. 3:11-15, ESV, my emphasis).

Having fulfilled “the rebellion” (2 Thess. 2:3, ESV), most born again have historically been “saved, but only as through fire.” Every minute of every day we are either serving Jesus, God's Christ, or serving Satan, the leading antichrist. It's the reason we're supposed to “take every thought captive to obey Christ” (2 Cor. 10:5, ESV) which requires a good deal of discipline and the reason He's called for “disciples” (Matt. 28:19, ESV).

A Satanic Body of Christ!

While I was working on Angela's booklet in December, the Lord opened up the following passage to me revealing just how bad it really is, answering this long standing question of how born again Christians could behave as if they're demon possessed—as so many on my path have.

When the unclean spirit has gone out of a person [that unclean spirit had to leave when that person became born again because the Holy Spirit of God booted that unclean spirit out], it passes through waterless places seeking rest, but finds none. Then it says, ‘I will return to my house from which I came.’ And when it comes, it finds the house empty, swept, and put in order. [That house is “empty” since that born again person who has been “swept and put in order” isn't a follower of Christ (Matt. 4:19), not fanning into flame the gift of God (2 Tim. 1:6) nor working out their own salvation as required (Phil. 2:12). It's like when I drove my motorcycle practically on fumes, saved by the reserve tank. Spiritually, we get “saved; yet so as by fire” (1 Cor. 3:15, KJV “for our God is a consuming fire” (Heb. 12:29, ESV), like saved “by the skin of [your] teeth” (Job 19:20, NIV).] Then it [that unclean spirit] goes and brings with it seven other spirits more evil than itself, and they enter and dwell there, and the last state of that [born again] person is worse than the first. So also will it be with this evil generation (Matt. 12:43-45, ESV).

Since we live in “the present evil age” (Gal. 1:4, YLT) and God stands outside of time every generation has been an “evil generation.” But He especially meant for the last 2000 years since He did what was necessary to set us free KNOWING we’d take it for granted. In turn, the body of Christ blipped over what He warned us about in this passage just as we’ve blipped over so much of what He warned us about.

Therefore, the Lord has had me give you several examples revealing that Matthew 12:43-45 is speaking of the born again.

A Pastor—Bill Bean. Wanting me to give my salvation testimony when I got baptized, finally able to get baptized having been given a “church home” (using the logic of the lies we’ve been fed and in which I was walking in) the Lord did a supernatural thing to make me comfortable sharing my testimony with Bill. I needed that because it involved the psych ward. In fact, Reggie kept counseling me to NOT share my testimony when the Lord was directing me TO share my testimony first with Bill, then with the Experiencing God Bible study group, and then with the congregation at my baptism.

The Psych Ward: I’d fallen in love with the Lord when I was in high school but every Christian I reached out to or knew—or had known—made it clear to me that the Bible was just a made up story since they were NOTHING like the people I read about in the New Testament. Disappointed, I plowed ahead another seven years so that I was totally burned out when I begged Him to take over. Living in sin with Reggie, a Christian, I’d been seeking Him and cleaning up my life for about six months when everywhere we went one week everywhere I sat down there was a Christian tract so that I repeatedly begged Him to take over, focusing on Him this time instead of professing Christians. And I immediately started hearing and seeing things that were of the spiritual realm (nothing I understood at the time since all new believers are basically clueless) so that my sister and her med student husband—both unbelievers (though he was raised in a supposedly Christian home) placed me in a locked psych ward where it was like I was the rope in a tug of war. At the time we were living in Minneapolis. And because I wasn't in my right mind, Reggie had taken off and gone back home to Maryland. Though he'd had a spiritual experience too. We'd had a fight so that he'd gone for a walk and some random guy on the street spoke to him about it. In any case, what I'd needed wasn't psychotropic drugs or psych counseling but Christians to behave like Christ. As He says "This kind is able to come forth with nothing except with prayer and fasting" (Mark 9:29, YLT)—which is what I did in the psych ward so that I dropped 30 pounds in 30 days not even realizing I'd been fasting! As for prayer, that's when the Lord had me start praying His Word.

Transparency: As Ed Rice can confirm, Eagle leadership was always going on about our need to be transparent. And Psych Ward labels you as PSYCHO. It's not as if I was unaware of this. But there's no way to honestly share my salvation testimony and keep that part out. To do it I would have had to partially deceive, and all deception comes from "the devil" who "is a liar and the father of lies" (John 8:44, ESV). Without realizing it, for not taking his thoughts captive to Christ (2 Cor, 10:5), Reggie was counseling me to honor Satan rather than Christ—as born again Christians are in the habit of doing. It's the body of Christ's way of life! Was I willing to be the least bit deceptive when I was getting baptized, of all things? NO! And there's nothing psycho about that. It's the most logical, honest, and God-honoring response one could have.

So Bill just so happened to look like my brother, Noel (Eph. 1:11). enough that even Reggie noticed and made a comment about it. Bill also had the best qualities of my brother. Bill was a like a big teddy bear, super easy going, as Ed Rice can confirm. Noel, on the other hand, has always run between two extremes: Teddy Bear and Dictator. This isn't just my opinion. Years ago working for the day at Carderock, where Noel works, Reggie mentioned to someone that Noel was his brother in law. I forget the comment they made but it clearly revealed that they viewed Noel as the super arrogant jerk he can be. Until I became born again I'd been like Noel's little brother, as with this verse from a poem I wrote him which sums up our entire relationship growing up:

We wrestled, We joked and sometimes even spoke.

Noel and I played rough, physically and mentally. Our relationship prepared me for my very rough brethren since God has “work[ed] out everything in conformity with the purpose of his will” (Eph. 1:11). It’s been like I’ve been involved in this 26 year spiritual wrestling match with my brethren who are just like Noel, a combination of teddy bear (on the surface) and dictator (when you scratch it) who hardly speak to me. It’s like when Jacob wrestled with the Lord for a blessing (Gen. 32:24-30).

Connected by God with Bill I asked him to baptize me and he was thrilled since he’d never baptized anyone before. Bill was also the liaison between Sunder and myself on the book. No one would publish Sunder’s book on prayer since it was like a 200 page run on sentence. But I’d been praying asking the Lord to let me work for Him. And Bill connected the dots between my work experience and what was needed, so at an RZIM conference where Sunder was one of the speakers, he asked if I’d like the job—unpaid. And not long before that I’d heard the Lord rebuke me, audibly. “Was there EVER a prophet who earned a salary?!!!”

In the end, Bill kept focusing on trying to fix me (not listening), when I was speaking about the Church needing to be fixed. He was getting pressured from Kerry to dismiss me, the psycho. It was a set up! It was also made easy for Bill to dismiss me—and dismiss the Lord—because of the massive temptation Satan was dangling before him, covered next. But at least Bill initially tried to understand, unlike anyone since then. And what he did is what everyone’s done, rationalized there’s NOTHING they need to repent about when it’s obvious there’s plenty to repent about.

Steeple Envy: Eagle was like all these pagan leaders focused on a bigger building, like Freud’s penis envy: Your "Church" Steeple is an Erect Phallus: Blasphemy Directed at God Himself! \(youtube.com\)). The future worship center was what God allowed Satan to dangle before Bill who fell for it for not taking his thoughts captive to Christ (2 Cor. 10:5) and because his heart, like everyone else’s, was “deceitful above all things” (Jer. 17:9, KJV).

In the end, Bill lost everything: ministry/job, marriage, and friends, then died young of cancer at age 51 in 2018. Yet had he stood firm in his faith, he could have had an amazing ministry for Christ! It’s the ministry He’s now offering you.

Having fallen for Satan’s bait, Bill obeyed Kerry (rather than Christ) who sent him with the others to give me the ultimatum. Reggie later said “Bill’s face physically changed as if Satan entered into him.” Matt Miller can confirm that since he told him about it. I didn’t see it since I’d been looking down praying while listening to his garbage—but I’ve seen it since then in plenty of others. A year later I ran into Jenny Hoover who spoke of Bill as if he was a different person. She couldn’t stand him! Yet everyone had loved Bill. So I called Robin Hayes about it.

Before things had come to a head with Eagle, Robin had me meet with her father who attended a different congregation so that I could download to him what I heard the Lord saying. His firm response was “They’ll never get it!” (And it’s not as if he was saying I don’t get it.)

Brining me up to speed at how things had played out at Eagle after we’d left, Robin informed me that Bill had done what he had accused me of doing with Korah’s rebellion, gotten a following and started his own ‘church,’ meeting at the Jesuit school, of all places.

So the first state of that person had been a man excited about what the Lord was doing—unlike any other I’ve ever known—filling my bag with CDs to help me get even more of Him, a man EVERYONE loved. And the last state was of total rebellion, no longer even recognizable to those who’d once known him well and had loved him.

And what a testimony of our version of “love” too. Since our love for the Lord is fake—obviously—being that we only love Him just as long as it’s not inconvenient for us, just as long as He’s serving us when we’re supposed to serve Him, we also have fake love for people. It’s one thing for everyone to blow me off since I never really meant anything to them. But Bill had meant something to them! Yet they still easily discarded him. We’ve been doing it historically though warned in the following passage, “If you bite and devour one another, watch out that you are not consumed by one another” (Gal. 5:14-15, ESV). My testimony reveals that we have been consuming each other like roaring lions since we’re servng that predator (1 Pet. 5:8).

Robin Hayes. She clearly heard what I was saying. Saw it happening. Was concerned enough to bring her father into it, who confirmed it. Yet chose to remain in that congregation for the love of the community it offered—ignoring God’s clear will for our lives as spelled out in the New Testament. And there was a huge spiritual war going on in her family so that her sisters were clearly false prophets, Robin was in the middle, and her dad at the other end. And when Robin approached Kerry about the spiritual war in her family, which she'd done repeatedly, he belittled Robin so that she 'learned' to toe the satanic Eagle line. She had anxiety issues which Satan loves to run with and his servants also love to exploit. Yet, ironically, she cared more than anyone else out of that Eagleite group, cared enough to, at least, bring her father into it. The rest who were more 'grounded' didn't care at all! And the few on my path since then who have cared, have immediately RUN TO THEIR PASTOR for counsel about it who naturally dismissed me (2 John 1:10 below) since "a hired hand...cares nothing for the sheep" (John 10:13, ESV) and that system has created pastor idolaters.

2 John 1:10, ESV If anyone comes to you and does not bring this teaching, do not receive him into your house or give him any greeting.

And even Robin's dad wasn't concerned enough about the body of Christ seeing it as divided by those church buildings! While we're supposed to be willing to die for our faith (Rev. 20:4 & John 15:13 below), as a group we've become blind deceived self-centered scoffers.

Revelation 20:4, ESV I saw the souls of those who had been beheaded because of their testimony about Jesus and because of the word of God.

John 15:13, ESV Greater love has no one than this, that someone lay down his life for his friends.

A Revelation. All these years I've thought my nephew, a 4 year old, was the most on fire I've ever seen anyone for Christ—a great testimony in itself. But working on this book I realized it was Bill Bean. And I remember Reggie once saying after we'd moved back here, sad and disgusted, something like "They ruined him" speaking of Kerry and Eric. They sure did. Unfortunately though, this was just an example. God knows how many people the leaders in pagan Christianity have ruined over the last 500 years! One day we'll find out and cast our crowns at Jesus' feet finally realizing the magnitude of our rebellion.

This ties back into why the Lord led us to Eagle. Not only were they tied to RZIM, they were the norm—neither the best nor worst. So once when Reggie did join me to meet with Bill and his wife Mollie, because I was upset that they weren't listening, Mollie handed me a book on anger management which wasn't even Christian. Later she apparently had an affair with her best friend's husband. There's a website warning people, so it's only hearsay but, in my mind, no one who would say that about their former friend publically when threatened with a lawsuit unless it was true. These are the people I've been rebuked for not submitting to because it's the same across the board. I forget the title of a book written by a former pastor confessing about the extreme carnality on a talk show years ago.

For example, having visited many local churches in Indianapolis over the years, leaving Eagle we slid over to College Park since they seemed like the meatiest, but immediately saw problems. Years later the Lord enlightened me to a scandal where one of their "elders" sexually abused his own preschool granddaughter and the congregation sided with him rather than righteousness! Family of Molested Girl Leaves Church After It Embraces Attacker | Fox News. It's standard practice. Yet I'm the one who's supposedly not right with God, unloving, and delusional.

A Prophet—Lisa. In 2018 the Lord wanted me to reach out to one of the LA Fitness Boot Camp instructors, Lisa, by writing her a book, make her a prayer craft with the Scriptures I prayed for her, and buy her a copy of the Pagan Christianity book. Yet other than taking her Boot Camp class I didn't know this woman at all. Hearing from Him to do all that for her, I followed Lisa to another club further out where she taught Boot Camp along with Kick Boxing so that I could spend 3 hours with her a week as I answered my calling.

The Prayer Canvas: For about a decade the Lord had me giving people a canvas decoupage made from my prayers, minimum a 6x6 inch square. It was layers and layers of Scriptures I'd prayed over weeks or months—months in Lisa's case—with one in red, a special verse I'd ask Him to give me for that person. Then I'd finish it off with shellac. It was His way of helping me answer His calling to pray for them and one of the ways He helped me hide His word in my heart so as to not so easily sin against Him (Ps. 119:11). It had been the same with the crafts before this one, but this was as focused on His Word as it gets! I'd pray as I read my Bible. Then again as I wrote down the verse I was praying. Then again as I cut those verses out. Then again as I glued them down. Then I'd lay hands over the whole thing before delivery (2 Kings 19:14-19 below). It was also God's way to set them up for when they stand before him to "give an account" (Rom. 14:12, ESV) since He's been "testing [us] to know whether [we] love the LORD...our God with all...our heart and with all...our soul" (Deut. 10:6, ESV)—proving to us we don't.

2 Kings 19:14-19, ESV Hezekiah went up to the house of the LORD and spread [the letter] before the LORD. And Hezekiah prayed...O LORD...hear; open your eyes, O LORD, and see...save us, please...that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that you, O LORD, are God alone.

So I'm sitting on my step waiting for this new Boot Camp class to start, praying for Lisa asking the Lord to show me something about this woman. I watched her go around the room greeting EVERYONE, encouraging each one of us with a few words hugging us or shaking our hand as she spoke. I counted nearly 50 people. NOBODY ever does that! It's more like "Hey y'all! LET'S GET STARTED!" And we're off since it's a workout class. But Lisa would also always give a little sermonette in all of her classes before starting her workout not concerned that anyone might complain. Sure, it was watered down but still. It was something.

Then when I'd finished writing the book the Lord wanted me to give her, about 15 minutes before leaving for class He stopped me in my tracks, literally. Walking through the living room getting ready to leave, I physically stopped having 'heard' a voice telling me to not give her everything at once. He wanted me to give her the prayer craft first, tell her I'd been praying for her and that I had something else for her with a message from the Lord. (If I'd done it my way this testimony wouldn't be as powerful.) So when I gave it to her after class she physically bowed down and praised Him. (She was definitely not bowing down to me.)

Then at the next class, packed as always, I ended up in the back corner of the room since some of us did Zumba before Boot Camp. And she ends her sermonette by telling us to hug the person next to us. WHAT?!

So as some random guy is hugging on me—super sweaty from Zumba so that it must have felt like hugging a nasty wet sponge!—I see Lisa rushing through the crowded room of people, steps, and weights to hug me—knowing I did Zumba first. SHE DIDN'T CARE. Then after class I gave her the book I'd written along with a copy of Pagan Christianity.

A few days later for the next class she is FUMING MAD yelling at everyone like a crazy woman, giving us the best workout ever. And in the middle of it she yells “KEEP PRAYING FOR ME LIKE YOU DO!” She was having a spiritual wrestling match with the lion out to devour her (1 Pet. 5:8) and knew she was losing!

A day or two later for kick boxing, she was ICE COLD. I could feel it. So after class I went up to encourage her in Christ and she snorted back, “I'M A PROPHET!!!” By the look on her face and brutal manner, she might as well have said ‘Shut the F&%# up!’ She was clearly telling me I'm not a prophet and everything I wrote, along with Pagan Christianity, was wrong. GO AWAY.

She kept getting colder with every class, showing up later and later to start the class. So she comes in one day and gives her sermonette, which also kept getting worse, then singles me out belittling me before all for not standing up and honoring her. (Dumbfounded I'm thinking We're paying for this class, Lady. And YOU'RE LATE!) So the first state of that person had been supremely warm towards EVERYONE—encouraging every single person in that packed class. And the last state of that person didn't even bother to show up on time and was SUPER ICE COLD towards everyone besides extremely proud and self-centered.

And when the Lord had me do all that for Lisa He—at the same time—called me do it all for Reggie's sister Satina, the Christian, which of course didn't go any better because it NEVER does. That's the point. It's a BAD TREE which can't bear good fruit (Matt. 7:18). It's also another rerun. “Are they ashamed of their detestable conduct? No, they have no shame at all; they do not even know how to blush” (Jer. 6:15, NIV).

But, since God is faithful, He blessed me for my obedience with even better workout instructors. But everything ended a year later with Covid—making it so much harder. So I gained all the weight back plus more! Since EVERYONE is such a cold phony hypocrite, I've been shoveling it down by the truckload. What's the point if even born again Christians refuse to be honest?

An Elder—Randa Nader. Back in Indiana when the girls went to Colonial Christian, around 1999-2000, for kindergarten to first grade before the Lord called us to homeschool, Randa Nader organized a mom’s prayer group at the school. It was often just the two of us and at most five. (And one of those five, Robin, had an extramarital affair a year later, again revealing the facade. I would have never imagined it of her. She was “so spiritual” she’d break out in song while we were praying with a beautiful angelic voice.) So one day I’m praying with this “mature” Christian woman, Randa, who was married to a so-called elder at your so-called church, and the secretary comes barging in because a mother and student were in the principal’s office crying. Then she left. And Randa goes on praying about whatever OBLIVIOUS that the secretary had shared that information for us to cover them in prayer!

Elders with Baby Faith: Allen, PLEASE, be honest about the immaturity of the state of the body of Christ! At Eagle when we first got there an “elder” and his wife came over to our apartment. I recall nothing of the conversation except that they talked about how there will still be racism in heaven as if they’d never read that “there will be no more death or mourning or crying or pain” (Rev. 21:4, NIV). That’s when we should have run for our lives, except God had other plans (Eph. 1:11). If there was racism in heaven there would be loads of mourning and crying there as well because racism is SUPER hurtful on so many levels! How can White Christians still not get that?! (Answer: Jer. 17:9, KJV).

So one day having pulled up to the pick-up lane at Colonial, seeing my car Randa comes running over to catch up on the latest. Sitting in my van, window rolled down, bringing her up to speed as she stands at my car door, when I was done downloading about all the garbage taking place at Eagle, I then realized she’d been holding my hand the whole time caressing it and kissing it over and over again—15 minutes—adding tidbits like “Oh my dear!” “Give her strength!” That was the first state of that person, showing me more love than even my own mother had ever shown me as we both walked in the following passage:

There is no one who left house, or brothers, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or fields, for my sake, and for the good news’, who may not receive an hundredfold now in this time, houses, and brothers, and sisters, and mothers, and children, and fields, with persecutions, and in the age that is coming, life age-during; and many first shall be last, and the last first (Matt. 10:29-31, YLT).

More recently, when I reached out to Randa in desperation when my daughter had attempted suicide, so about a decade ago, or more (?), she blamed me for supposedly not submitting to my husband—as so many have accused me of doing—when even Reggie admits that’s not true. Today’s born again will grasp at anything to blame me or label me as the one who’s delusional instead of being honest about what’s actually going on and/or what they’re doing. They all do it.

So Reggie’s father did it too—a so-called pastor who took on the title of Reverend. I forget the conversation but when I told Reggie what his father had said Reggie immediately said “He doesn’t believe that!” Did Reggie address it with his father? Did he care? Of course not. The majority of today’s born again have no conviction to stand up for the truth when we need to be able to stand up when threatened with TORTURE! According to Scripture many will be “beheaded because of their testimony about Jesus and because of the word of God” (Rev. 20:4, NIV) and my guess is that it’ll come with torture since Satan’s the one behind it and he has a “lust” for murder (John 8:44, KJV). It’s already happening for the love of money and brutality apart from Christ: ‘He Was Alive’: Doctor Recounts Live Organ Harvesting - YouTube. And persecution specifically for the faith is going to peak in the very last of the last days which are nearly on top of us. While many have always been willing to die for the faith, the level of knowledge and understanding they’ve had of the faith has been minimal. That’s what God will be changing in these last days making them willing to be brutalized for it.

As for Randa, the first state of the man had been to show me more love than my own mother ever did. And the last state was SUPER ICE COLD! I had called her HEART BROKEN not only about my daughter—which is bad enough—but about Christ in that we keep crucifying Him again and again putting Him to open shame! (Heb. 6:6). But being immersed for decades in that satanic system, all she could very coldly come up with was that I was to blame.

And that’s another thing Bill had said. “You’re like God’s punching bag!” Except he’d meant before I became born again. It’d been prophetic! What the body of Christ is doing is a repeated rerun of when Jesus said “They hated me without a cause” (John 15:25, ESV). We show our hated towards Christ by how we treat those who serve Him. It's also this passage rerunning over and over again, ““Do not be deceived: “Bad company ruins good morals”” (1 Cor. 15:33, ESV). Remaining in those buildings, the born again have been keeping very bad company since Satan and his servants are the ones actually ruling over that mess. Again, it's a bad tree which can only produce bad fruit (Matt. 12:33, ESV).

A Young Man—Eric. There was an African man in his 30s I worked with at a grocery store for a short Tour of Duty before Covid, for about six months (Isa. 30:21 below). I discern Eric was born again because the Lord had me write a letter to another younger man who worked with us, Ron. And when Ron told Eric what I'd done, Eric said he told him, “Man!” physically showing me what he'd done walking over as if to pick up the letter holding it out with both hands as if it was a billion dollar egg, and then says, “I told him ‘You should treat this letter like GOOOOLD! Take it home and read it CAREFULLY...”

Isaiah 30:21, ESV Your ears shall hear a word behind you, saying, “This is the way, walk in it,” when you turn to the right or when you turn to the left.”

And since our version of Christianity is a bad tree, when the Lord had me reach out to Eric interest plummeted like a watermelon released from a skyscraper. So much for that gold! Next thing I know he has disappeared (he was married with a preschooler!). I forget the details, but he lost his job having been on the management track and had a psychotic breakdown! And they really needed the money.

Again, the first state had been solid. Eric was like Bill in personality, compassionate, intelligent, HAPPY ALL THE TIME, hard working, responsible, counseling Ron to handle the letter as if it had come straight from the Lord's desk. And the last state of the man was a ruined life!

Through these examples God is clearly urging you to take Him seriously having made it clear that I haven't misinterpreted Matthew 12:43-45 about that person referring to the born again. He's also revealed I love the Lord with all I've got as we're all supposed to be doing (Mark 12:30) and also love people (Mark 12:31) not hate them as I've been accused by the body. Have I been “seeking the approval of man, or of God? [BE HONEST!] Or am I trying to please man? If I were still trying to please man, I would not be a servant of Christ” (Gal. 1:10, ESV).

Today's Born Again Believers

Reggie is like the norm, living for this world. He's better in that he's neither here nor there, but that's super damaging—besides frustrating—since “the husband is the head of the wife” (Eph. 5:23, NIV). And Jesus says “Because thou art lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I am about to vomit thee out of my mouth” (Rev. 3:16, YLT), so it's not much better! The modern translations watered it down to “spit,” but He's saying we MAKE HIM WANT TO PUKE! It's not as if we're just giving Him a nasty taste in His mouth. We're making Him physically convulse. Of course He'd feel that way having died a brutal and humiliating death for us, naked before all, empowered us with His Spirit and His Word, and we've done no better than demons who believe in Him (James 2:19)! So Reggie's a great example. Jesus says “Love your enemies” (Matt. 5:44, ESV), Reggie says “I'm a believer” (and, again, the Lord made it clear to me that he's born again), yet he works for the DOD helping people kill their enemies. I'm not assuming that's what his work is doing. He admitted it. That's straight up hypocrisy. And when I've told him “You're blind” he scoffs (like the norm) “I'm not blind!”

Allen, you can see that he's blind. ADMIT it. Most Christians can admit it about others but not about themselves. It's time we grew up! Allow the Lord to use you to help the body of Christ finally mature. Don't be like Lisa thinking someone else's prayers will carry you through. YOU have to choose to do the right thing. Admit and repent of every instance you KNOW your life doesn't line up with the new covenant. Why would you want to knowingly continue to honor Satan “a murderer” (John 8:44, KJV)?!

Called to Reach Out to André. A little more than a year before Covid, while praying for Reggie I heard the call to write André a book and pray for him. (And EVERY TIME I try praying for my family, He immediately gives me another assignment. It's really just as well since there's so much water under that bridge.) The Lord also had me make a playlist for André to go with the book.

Addicted to Christ: Though I've slowed down the last few years, I still put in long hours. For example, the past several days I've been waking up at 3 a.m. busting at the seams to put it all down for you. Then I go nearly non stop til around 8 p.m. Even when I'm not physically working on it He's working it out in my head. It's a cycle of seeking, listening, praying, writing, then mostly editing and praying til He says Stop. Every day, pretty much, I start re-reading the book from the very beginning asking the Lord to lead and guide me with the understanding that if I don't see a major edit needed within the first chapter, or He doesn't put one in my head, I'm free to move on. That's how He enlightens me to connections I hadn't made before. He also takes me out on Detours to show me more stuff to work into it. It's like God delivered me from Crack only to addict me to Him. "If I say, "I will not mention his word or speak anymore in his name," his word is in my heart like a fire, a fire shut up in my bones. I am weary of holding it in; indeed, I cannot" (Jer. 20:9, NIV). This is my life. I'm stuck because it's as Paul wrote "I strike a blow to my body and make it my slave so that after I have preached to others, I myself will not be disqualified for the prize" (1 Cor. 9:27, NIV). Knowing it's not about this life but "the life that is truly life" (1 Tim. 6:19, NIV), the next age, will I let Him use me or not—today? It's a question we should all be asking our selves every day, as you know. Then we have to choose to do the right thing. And when you always have in mind that it's NOT about this life, you will obey Him. And that's the problem with that satanic system. It's put God in this Sunday/institutional package so that for centuries most born again Christians have separated their "Christian" life from the rest of their life so that they've been mostly living for this world.

So about week before the lockdown, not having seen me in years, this former friend and brother in the Lord answered the door, "WHAT?!" (Even Reggie was surprised when I told him.) Hearing me out, WITH A VERY COLD STARE, he then said "I'm a believer. But I'm really not interested." Then shut the door leaving me standing there like an idiot.

Eyes filling with tears, holding this book I'd worked on for over a year, I get back in my car and curse God—almost. I didn't because He had put a plan in my head ahead of time since He knew how it would go. And I know it wouldn't go great, but I hadn't expected it to be that bad. I'd spent over a year praying for him and working on that stupid book! And a playlist! No vacations, no holidays, no real time off, no pay, no date nights, NOTHING. I was beside myself with frustration and anger. But the Lord reminded me to follow through with my plan so that I headed to a used recycle warehouse not far from his house and on my way my home where I get gardening supplies. I started doing vertical container gardening to at least try and escape His voice in my head. Except “My Father is the gardener” (John 15:1, NIV).

There is NOWHERE to hide as Jonah found out having become “vomit” (Jonah 2:10, ESV).

Having dried my eyes, inside the building, trying not to cry, I suddenly heard the Lord ministering to me through the song on the radio, Hotel California by the Eagles. It was one of the biblical interpretations He’d given me. You won’t get it since you have beams in your eyes (Matt. 7:5). But it’s clear as day. It’s based on something that happened in my life and my native language (Eph. 1:11), walking in the Spirit (Gal. 5:16), and living by faith (Rom. 1:17). Jesus was clearly bandaging my wounds, helping me persevere with this madness you all call a loving community. Since it’s NOT a loving community He was reminding me that He’s fully aware of what’s going on and saying “I will repay” (Rom. 12:19, ESV).

André's words and actions sum up the last 26 years. The reality is that no one is part of a loving community. The love today's born again have for Jesus and people is weaker than Kleenex and as nice as the stuff we blow into it. It may have been in the companion book to Pagan Christianity, in the book Reimagining Church by Frank Viola, where a man talks about the backlash he experienced from the "loving" Christians at his "church" for turning his back on our satanic version of Christianity. There are loads of testimonies of this satanic 'love' among Christians online and yet nearly everyone keeps lying to themselves that their "church" and their "friends" and their family are better. It's like we're idiots who are incapable of learning by example like bratty immature teens who have to experience the consequences for themselves then maybe they finally get it.

As the Lord has made clear through my testimony, today’s Christians HATE the Truth. As a whole you all don’t even think we can walk in it since He says “Any one of you who does not renounce all that he has cannot be my disciple” (Luke 14:33, ESV). Instead of taking Him seriously the majority fudge their way along singing songs about how faithful they are while gripping the stuff Jesus made clear to let go with the effect of deeply embedding “the lie” (2 Thess. 2:9, NIV) into their brain so that they then rebuke those who actually walk the talk. Today’s born again have placed themselves back under Satan’s lordship much more than before they were born again (Matt. 12:43-45). It’s the main reason I haven’t been able to get through to one born again Christian in decades and why everyone eventually turns ice cold with only a demonic version of love—which isn’t love.

Like André, and the rest, Reggie won’t even discuss anything with me. The little they’ve both said is “I’m a believer.” Never mind that “the devils also believe” (James 2:19, KJV) and that “it is required in the stewards that one may be found faithful” (1 Cor. 4:2, YLT). You all need to do some serious soul searching—for your own good!

The Mark of the Beast

The combination of my testimony and the following teaching confirm that the mark of the beast is a way of life summed up with these graphics above from the video: What is meant by "666" and "antichrist"? from the thelivingword channel. It’s yet another rerun for which part of the picture was given in the Old Testament (Eze. 9:4 in the graphic). In other words, there are two ‘marks’ and most born again have the bad mark, the mark of the beast.

But since all things are possible with God (Matt. 19:26) who is “merciful” (Luke 6:36, ESV) many who currently have the beast’s mark will swap it out for the Lord’s mark through godly sorrow and repentance, changing both their mind and their ways—just like many lost elect will before His return, and because the born again did it first.

Loving the Deceiver. Through this ministry God is revealing that all born again have a “pretty” Christian public face but when held accountable to sound doctrine their true colors flare up revealing Satan’s “masquerade” (2 Cor. 11:14, NIV), those eight evil spirits who’ve made that person their home. It’s the scene from Megamind (2010). The girl (Rev. 19:7) was in love with the wrong guy, one who was masquerading as a good guy (Isa. 14:14 & 2 Cor. 11:14 in the graphic)—and his mask suddenly melts away, at God’s “appointed time” (Hab. 2:3). In turn, those who have not done as much damage as people like Kerry Bowman, will be able to make up for lost time as covered further in the book. Even Kerry could salvage something for the next age. Glory to God!

One of the closest Christian friends I ever had, a Master’s in social work who’d been born again for decades, wanted to come visit when we first moved back, bringing her nephew. He’d been arrested in the past having to do with sex. I forget the details. But we had two young girls—and I’d been approached by a pedophile when I was their age so that I had to get clarity before giving the OK to let this young man stay in our home. I’d met him and knew he was sketchy. Having asked for that clarity, Kyra, like the norm, blew me off without a word—my “good friend” and, more importantly, sister in the Lord. I guess I was supposed turn a blind eye and just welcome him into my home—no need to actually engage my brain as we’ve been advised to do (2 Cor. 10:5) and reason we’ve been given a brain in the first place. And the thing is, if she’d been open about it I’m sure we could have figured something out!

It was the same with another close friend and prayer partner. She kept praying obviously hiding something since the body of Christ loves to walk in darkness, whose mother had been gambling or stealing, whatever. While she finally walked in the truth about that, she then blew me off choosing to honor her husband instead of her “Husband” (Isa. 54:5, KJV) knowing that’s what she was doing—as if admitting it made it OK. Threatened by her “loving” Christian husband she chose to NOT stand up for Christ when He says “If anyone would come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross and follow me” (Matt. 16:24, ESV).

It’s all a façade. Today’s body of Christ just has a vener of Christ hiding dead men’s bones (Matt. 23:27 & Rev. 3:1-2 below)—the bones of a “whorish woman” (Jer. 3:3, YLT) “dead” sleep (Rev. 3:1, ESV) in a coma.

Matthew 23:27, ESV Woe to you...hypocrites! For you are like whitewashed tombs, which outwardly appear beautiful, but within are full of dead people's bones and all uncleanness.

Revelation 3:1-2, NIV I know your deeds; you have a reputation of being alive, but you are dead. Wake up! Strengthen what remains and is about to die, for I have found your deeds unfinished in the sight of my God.

So Kerry had this right. Being a disciple of Christ requires transparency. If someone judges you for it, that’s on them since He says “Who are you to pass judgment on the servant of another?” (Rom. 14:4, ESV). But the body of Christ is NEVER going to grow up to maturity while walking in darkness with a façade of love and truth caked on like bad makeup, being “a whorish woman” (Jer. 3:3, NIV), because there is NO FELLOWSHIP between light and darkness (2 Cor. 6:14).

Montana

The Lord convicted me to include this testimony about my nephew. So I was thinking “Fine. Even if you don’t get it I’ll delight myself in the Lord.” But then I connected the dots for being reminded of where he’s at today. It’s yet another testimony of how the body of Christ is placing God’s children further in Satan’s grip.

A few months after we started homeschooling my brother sent me an email “Mom was hit by a truck yada yada glass in her eyes, possibly blind!” Praying about it and trying not to freak out I get a call a few hours later from Reggie’s great Aunt Lois who’d cared for our girls before moving to Indy, a retired nurse. She’s the one in his family I got to know best. Her daughter, a nurse, had called her connecting the dots between my maiden name and this woman's name in the hospital. Lois assured me that it wasn't as bad as my brother had made it out to be, making it a much easier trip back to Maryland. Then after an exhausting visit, on the last night I opted to stay home with my kids and my brother's two kids while Noel and his wife went out.

Doing my routine, so exhausted, I'd forgotten where I was, because Noel is very hostile towards Christ. Had I given it some thought I would have tweaked my routine. Even if his kids had been older than preschool, I wouldn't have gone behind my brother's back to speak to them about the Lord UNLESS He clearly called me to do that since "we must obey God rather than men" (Acts 5:29, ESV).

So my routine was to have the kids each pick a book that I'd read and then I'd finish up by reading from a children's Bible, and I'd brought The Beginner's Bible along since it's the most compact and most thorough.

As I'm reading, Montana suddenly sits up and blurts out "My parents don't believe in angels!!!" reminding me of where I was. So I tried to immediately shut the whole thing down saying "Well we do. This is God's book. OK everyone OFF TO BED!"

But being a very bright and very vocal little kid, he wouldn't let me off the hook. He had one question after another so that before I even knew what I was doing I'd explained the whole message using the pictures so that he says "You have to give this book to my parents!" I had. I'd given them the Quest study Bible. But they hadn't been interested.

Long story short I prayed with him and encourage him to pray for his family. Having kissed them all good night, I grabbed my Bible and went to the living room opening it up to my marker asking the Lord "Did what I think just happen, just happen?!" Then I read the following:

LORD, our Lord, how majestic is your name in all the earth! You have set your glory in the heavens. Through the praise of children and infants you have established a stronghold against your enemies, to silence the foe and the avenger (Ps. 8:1-2, NIV).

I don't know about you, but I clearly heard the voice of the Lord.

Waking up, reminded of Noel's attitude towards Christ, scared, I grabbed My Utmost for His Highest. It was November 11th The Supreme Climb \(utmost.org\), and I read the following:

Never decide the place of your own martyrdom, as if to say, "I will only go to there, but no farther." God chose the test.

Getting in the shower, knowing I was being tested, I asked the Lord to help and guide me. And I hear Noel's heavy footsteps coming down the hall followed by Montana's who was repeatedly saying "You have to believe! You HAVE to believe!" And Noel "NO! NO! NO!!!"

Waiting for me in the living room after my shower, unable to communicate since the lost "cannot understand" (1 Cor. 2:14, NIV) Noel finally says "Never mind! I'LL SET HIM STRAIGHT!" And I'm thinking Thank You Lord! Nothing can separate him from Your love. Not even Noel!" (Rom. 8:31-39).

So for months back in Indiana I prayed for Montana and his family, heartbroken since there's no way a four year old could stand firm ESPECIALLY against Noel. But I had some peace about it since the Lord let me know Montana's testimony would be like Moses, raised in 'Egypt' by Egyptians, yet used to deliver God's people at God's appointed time.

Not having heard anything from them the whole time since we left their house in November, I get an email out of nowhere from Noel. "Can we please stay at your house for Easter, for a week?"

"OK...Sure."

Lord! WHAT are You doing?!

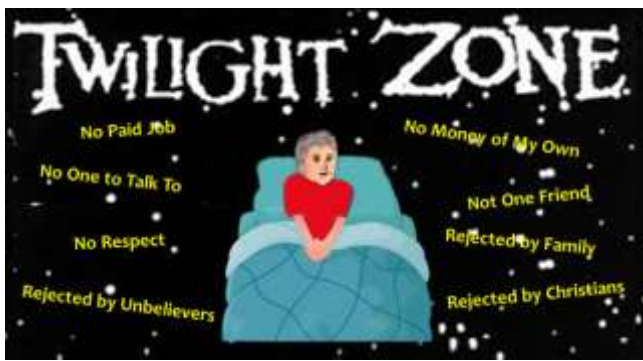

That was our first year homeschooling so that we were doing it in the dining room we seldom used, and I had a poster of the Easter Week up on the wall from God's World News. In other words, The Message was plastered on the wall for them to clearly see—for the whole week, breakfast, lunch, and dinner—unless we ate out. And it's not as if I'd planned that either. I just always put up those posters on the wall of our "school room" which also happened to be where we ate every meal with them. It was the Lord showing the truth in their faces because Easter week/holy week sums up the whole thing!

Then, that first night, remembering my bedtime routine, Montana, who couldn't even read kept picking one Christian book after another from the bookshelf which contained plenty of non-Christian books. I always got so many from the library they'd asked me if I ran a daycare. And with every book of his choice that he held out to me—which had me in awe since it was Christian and he couldn't even read yet—Noel said “NO! NOT that one!” I guess the pictures on the covers gave them away as being Christian. Sensing a temper tantrum brewing in this child who was infamous for throwing massive MASSIVE tantrums, I got down on my knees at his level and said something like “It’s great that you want to know the Lord and He will let you know Him when He’s ready. But right now He wants you to obey your dad. OK?” Holding back the tears the whole time I’m talking Montana is nodding up and down and then quietly went with his dad, heartbroken.

And he’s now a homosexual. SHAME on the body of Christ!

Because, there’s no way to convert hardened hearts when the born again are all over the place. Noel’s response can only be the truth he sees playing out so that he once said “I have tons of Christian friends and none of them are like you!” That’s because they’re outrageous hypocrites probably not even born again. And among the born again, it’s NO BETTER as my 26 year testimony proves. But it’s not as if Noel could understand any of that since “the person without the Spirit does not accept the things that come from the Spirit of God but considers them foolishness, and cannot understand” (1 Cor. 2:14, NIV). So Montana—like so many—grew up with LGBT pushed in his face as if it’s the most modern way to live!

The rebellious body of Christ keeps helping Satan deceive the lost that Christianity is just another religion and you can interpret the Bible however you want—but NOT as Jesus meant. You all call yourselves believers but, apart from going to church, you live just like the clean-cut lost. I can say that about you since your son went to the Jesuit school and you’re still in that pagan system. If the body of Christ isn’t going to be honest about it—as revealed through my 26 year testimony—it’s not as if the lost are going to be honest about it! Not with hearts that are deceitful above all things and desperately wicked (Jer. 17:9). Again, He gave us His Spirit to EMPOWER us to do the right thing. We received power when the Holy Spirit came on us when we became born again (Acts 5:32 & 1:8). Only we have the power to overcome our deceitful hearts and obey Him—in other words, honor the truth.

Hell is The Zone

God knows I'd commit suicide if not for being convicted that it would so deeply dishonor Christ, especially since I'm a seasoned adult unlike my daughter who was a very young adult at the time of her attempts. Coordinating all things (Eph. 1:11), in the 1980s I'd sat in the front seat of the metro when I saw something flash in front of the train. A teenager had tried to kill himself only to have his foot cut off. And to make sure that image and HUGE mistake would get branded into my brain, when we got off the train some guy grabs me by the shoulders making me look. "That's his foot!" At which time we heard a young woman start screaming "That's my brother!!!" The message: attempting suicide has no guarantees. So there are LOADS of pictures of people online who seriously damaged themselves by their desperate attempt.

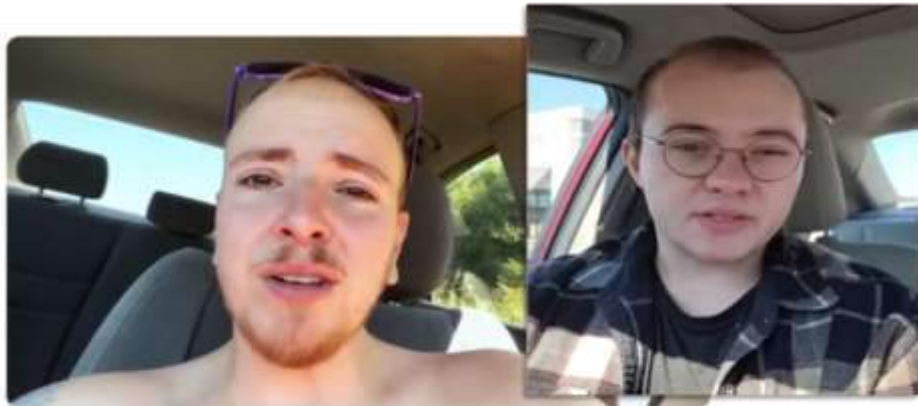

The Lord and I have this cycle going. Every time I've had enough and begging Him to take my life He makes it clear that He wants me to reach out to someone else! (Something I always somehow forget!) It's like a mixed blessing. On the downside, it's not my checkout time. But on the upside, there's a glimmer of hope that this next person will actually be decent. But it's super annoying that I even dare to hope—EVERY SINGLE TIME. That's the problem with faith, you KNOW He's eventually going to come through for you and do it through people who are "deceitful...and desperately wicked" (Jer. 17:9, KJV).

Understanding my frustration He helps me persevere by doing something for me. This last time, after Angela and before speaking to me reach out to you, He placed it in my head to get a rebounder, mini trampoline, and make a little gym for myself with weights and rowing machine, since the gym is nothing like it was before Covid and I'm now in the worst shape of my life! He also impressed me to make videos with someone doing a workout to one side with no sound coming from them but instead combining it with Christian music videos using songs like I Saw The Light/I'll Fly Away - David Crowder - Lyrics \(youtube.com\) and The Mississippi Mass Choir - When I Rose This Morning \(youtube.com\), making several playlists for myself like that. What He does is this passage. “A bruised reed he will not break, and a faintly burning wick he will not quench” (Isa. 42:3, ESV). Because, it’s IMPOSSIBLE to stay that far down in the dumps when jumping on a trampoline while listening to stuff like that! Even if it’s not up beat, the truth of God’s Word trumps all the lies the body of Christ is spewing.

Still, I WANT OUT! But there’s NO ESCAPE! I can’t commit suicide—in good conscience. I can’t leave since I’ve obeyed God’s calling on my life which includes not peddling the word of God for profit (2 Cor. 2:17) so that I haven’t got even one penny to my name. Not one! And I can’t communicate with ANYONE! And haven’t been able to for years! So there’s nowhere to go anyhow that’ll be any better. In turn, when I’ve followed Him into a work setting I get hammered by Satan’s servants for standing up for Him. Like at the grocery store. I worked with a professing Christian woman my age who’d passed on the Soul Surfer (2011) movie to me which is a joke, but OK she tried. Seeing her super lousy work ethic I wrote her a letter pleading with her to be a better role model for the kids around us. She was such a bad role model that they’d just reprimanded her, again. Receiving my letter she turned it over to management—unbelievers—who demoted me even though they constantly commended my work since I’ve always been a “work horse.” My point is that the rebellious body of Christ has created a totally upside down and twisted world! So that no matter what I do or say I can’t win! Yet, I know I have already won (Ps. 126:5-6 in the graphic).

When Trans People Regret Transitioning (Heartbreaking)

Answers in Gen...
680K subscribers

Subscribe

29K

Share

Transgendered. All I need to do to keep going if I can't snap out of it for being too FRUSTRATED WITH THE LORD for calling me into this situation in the first place, is Google: Transgender Testimony. These are two young women. Tuning in to any one of those videos in two seconds my frustration turns to heartache for not living up to our calling—and I'm fired up all over again. This is what we're doing to a whole generation starting with the youngest of children. And for what? So you can keep playing at pretending to be the Church? Play golf? Watch football games?! Make your money and retire in Florida? "Wake up!" (Rev. 3:2, NIV). Yes, you are asleep! And what's really maddening is that Christians blame the lost for the mess WE—the born again—have made of this world!

6 God is Not Mocked

Today's body of Christ is like this graphic. Since "God is not mocked" (Gal. 6:7, ESV) we can lie to ourselves and to others and about others all we want, but in the end it's gonna boomerang back on us—when we least expect it. Take Reggie's father, the so-called Reverend (as if we're supposed to revere him, like Lisa wanted me to honor her). He was super unbiblical, wasted the opportunities God gave him, rebuked me for my faithfulness, all the same old stuff. But then when he was dying of some illness, he calls the house and asks to speak to me. The man was crying asking me to pray for him because he was SCARED TO DIE, the Reverend! Nobody who knows the Lord and knows Him well is scared to die. We LONG for it! I don't need psych counseling for saying that "for to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain" (Phil. 1:21, ESV). Either you're in love with this world, Satan's world, since he's "the ruler of [it]" (John 12:31, YLT) OR you're in love with the Lord and His kingdom. But you can't "serve two masters" (Matt. 6:24, ESV).

And since God is shrewd (Ps. 18:26 below), for 2000 years most born again Christians have been deceived that they've been serving the Lord when they've been serving Satan lying to themselves.

Psalms 18:26, NIV To the pure you show yourself pure, but to the devious you show yourself shrewd.

If you're born again but living for this world, which includes pagan Christianity, you're going to "suffer loss" of potential "reward[s]" (1 Cor. 3:15 & 2 John 1:8 below) and walk around as if naked for everyone to see your shame (Rev. 16:15 in the graphic). And how long is that going to last? Biblical Answer: A minimum one thousand years of the next age. And that's the best case scenario. Worst case is that Jesus will say to you "I never knew you; depart from me" (Matt. 7:23, ESV).

1 Corinthians 3:15, ESV If anyone's work is burned up, he will suffer loss, though he himself will be saved, but only as through fire.

2 John 1:8, ESV Watch yourselves, so that you may not lose what we^[a] have worked for, but may win a full reward.

Judgment Day

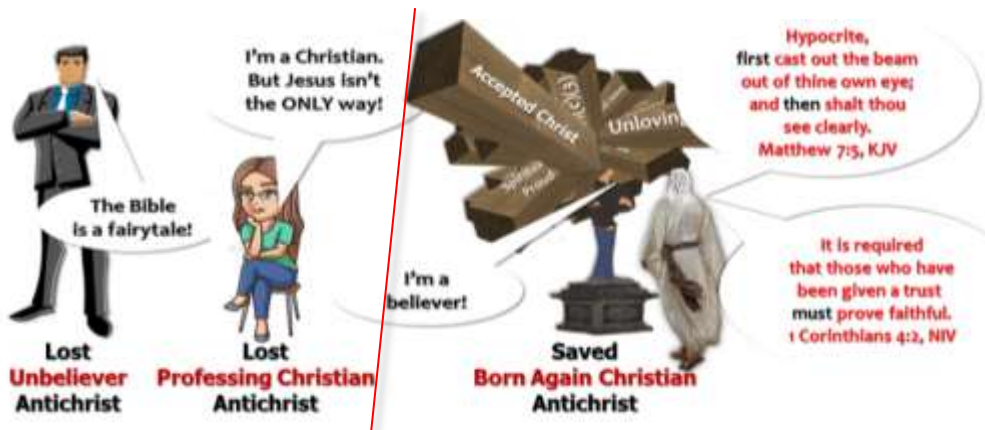

The Lord brought me full circle with Eagle a couple years ago and they all still refused to acknowledge I'd reached out to them, even though they had Pagan Christianity to convict them and Ravi had been exposed. So when He then called me to reach out to lost LGBT neighbors who profess to be Christian but clearly aren't, I was thinking this thing would play out like the tortoise and the hare fable—born again Christians being the hare since they REFUSE to wake up to themselves, the lost waking up before the born again! But I was wrong because "it is time for judgment to begin at the household of God" (1 Pet. 4:17, ESV) and the body of Christ is that household. Besides that, receiving all this information is too much for the lost since the body of Christ has created a 2000 year old mess! So the lost neighbors He had me reach out to couldn't even admit that you have to be born again to have a relationship with the Lord—that's it's not just about "believing" in Jesus and calling yourself Christian. It's as if people can't even read! (Jer. 17:9).

And how could you honestly explain the denominations to an intelligent seeker without admitting that we are outrageous hypocrites? His response would be Why don't Christians repent?! If Jesus really is God why don't Christians obey Him? If He was really God, Christians would obey Him. He must not be real and Christianity is no more than just another religion. They're all basically the same. At best you end up with yet another born again hypocrite dishonoring Christ and still in Satan's grip because it's as Jesus says, "You nullify the word of God by your tradition" (Mark 7:13, NIV). And since "His name is called The Word of God" (Rev. 19:13, KJV), the body of Christ has been choking Jesus out of the picture! Again, we've dismissed Him with our rebellion.

Christians Who Aren't Born Again. These people are everywhere but seem to congregate in LGBT or prosperity churches and very comfortable with that carnal setting. It's like they get to have it all, which they won't easily give up. Except they're even more deceived than the born again—so even harder to reach. And I've been trying to get through to the born again for MORE THAT TWO DECADES!

Lost Who Totally Reject Christ. It's not as if the lost who aren't professing Christians are going to be open to Christ AND open to the fact that this one person knows what she's talking about while Christians as a whole are all over the place. These people already think we're all psycho. And if they can't admit that 351 Old Testament prophecies fulfilled by Jesus is a load of evidence making it a no-brainer that Jesus is God, what I'm saying is too much. Their only response can be You're a psycho! The worst one!

The Born Again. Unlike the lost who either don't or do claim to be Christian, the born again know God's Word, know we are under the "new covenant" (Luke 22:20, NIV), know we're supposed to submit to Christ and to one another (Eph. 5:21), know we're supposed to function as a body (1 Cor. 12:12-31), know we're in rebellion (2 Thess. 2:2-3), know we're in a brutal spiritual war (Eph. 6:12 & 1 Pet. 5:8), and have God's Spirit within (Acts 5:32) to convict and empower us to walk in the truth having "receive[d] power when the Holy Spirit [came] upon [us]" (Acts 1:8, ESV). Only the born again can unlock this ministry and bring on "the latter rain" "downpour" (Joel 2:23, ESV & CLT).

Since the human heart is so deceitful and wicked (Jer. 17:9), we need God's power within us simply to obey Him!

But even if I have gas in my tank, I still have to put the key in the ignition and give it a turn.

Ignoring a Great Salvation!

The fact that God hasn't yet opened up this ministry reveals how angry He is with us. He warned us when Paul wrote "How shall we escape if we neglect such a great salvation?" (Heb. 2:3, ESV). God didn't mean we'd lose our salvation but that we wouldn't escape Satan's "schemes" (Eph. 6:11, ESV) nor "receive a full reward" (2 John 1:8, KJV). God has not been helping the unfaithful born again remove the beams from their eyes, historically, as a judgment against us, against the body of Christ with whom judgment begins (1 Pet. 4:17). This is how it works, as you know, “This people’s heart has become calloused; they hardly hear with their ears, and they have closed their eyes” (Matt. 13:15, NIV, my emphasis). It’s clearly what they have done since it’s as someone told me in the Psych Ward the week I was born again, “Maya, it’s obvious that you’re a Christian.” And ever since He had me start holding people accountable I’ve backed up every single point with Scripture in relation to the new covenant, plus praying God’s Word for all these people to honor the Lord. It’s not as if a false prophet would ever do that! In other words, the born again are seriously hard hearted! And since no one can come to Jesus unless the Father draws them (John 6:44), it must also be true that no one can come back to Jesus unless the Father draws them.

However, in both cases it requires that the individual is HONEST about their sins. On top of that, the born again also have to be honest about the sins of the body of Christ as a whole since we “are individually members of it” (1 Cor. 12:27, ESV) so that “if one member suffers, all suffer together” (1 Cor. 12:26, ESV). He actually expects us to genuinely care about each other. Imagine that.

An Impossible Second Chance. The New Testament says the following, making me feel like praying for the born again rebellious body of Christ has been a total waste of time:

It is impossible, in the case of those who have once been enlightened, who have tasted the heavenly gift, and have shared in the Holy Spirit...to restore them again to repentance, since they are crucifying once again the Son of God to their own harm and holding him up to contempt (Heb. 6:4-6, ESV).

Except, “with God all things are possible” (Matt. 19:26, ESV).

It’s been another rerun. He’s had me begging Him for the release of these brutally dishonest souls (the born again) like the woman He refused to listen to, yet who kept bugging Him—and who the disciples wanted nothing to do with having zero compassion (Matt. 15:22-23 below)—so that He finally said “O woman, great is your faith! Be it done for you as you desire” (Matt. 15:28, ESV). It’s obviously another rerun.

Matthew 15:22-23, ESV A Canaanite woman...was crying, “Have mercy on me, O Lord, Son of David; my daughter is severely oppressed by a demon.” But he did not answer her a word. And his disciples came and begged him, saying, “Send her away.”

And the only reason these women—the Canaanite and myself—have had this “great...faith” (Matt. 15:28, ESV) is because He gave it to us since “faith...is the gift of God” (Eph. 2:8, ESV). If He didn’t give us faith NO ONE would have any—EVER—because “there is none righteous, not even one” (Rom. 3:10, YLT).

Yet today’s born again Christians seem to think there’s something better about them than unbelievers so that they talk about having accepted Jesus when He says “You did not choose me, but I chose you” (John 15:16, ESV).

And while today’s body of Christ has as much compassion as those lost disciples, we’re dealing with a God who forgives “seventy times seven” (Matt. 18:22, ESV) so that He forgave them even as they crucified Him (Luke 23:34, ESV), and forgave Peter and the crew even though they all scattered and left Him alone in His time of greatest need (John 16:32). Likewise, He’s willing to forgive us even though we’ve scattered all over the place and abused His salvation for these 2000 years! While He’s already forgiven us, it doesn’t mean we don’t have to repent of all exposed sins, as every born again Christians KNOWS.

The Question of Will

Christians are so confused they’ll even argue that we have no free will when we obviously do! I discern God gave us free will and then plugged our choices into His Master Plan since the New Testament says “him who works all things according to the counsel of his will” (Eph. 1:11, ESV).

The best example is Saul who became Paul. Did he have a choice about whether or not to obey the Lord? Of course. But God coordinated the events of world history, the family he was born into, his education, his misunderstanding of God's Word...EVERYTHING so that it was essentially impossible for him to NOT obey the Lord. Having been a Pharisee (Acts 23:6 below) he had all that Bible knowledge. Having persecuted the followers of the way (Acts 22:4 below), he had all that guilt. Having been literally blinded by the Light (Acts 9:3-8 below), he wasn't going to easily turn his back on the Lord. Putting it all together he was willing to endure quite a bit (2 Cor. 11:4-26 below) in order to fulfill his calling. While he could have turned his back on Jesus at any point, he chose not to because of all the factors involved which kept him plowing ahead against the grain and at great cost.

Acts 23:6, ESV I am a Pharisee, descended from Pharisees.

Acts 22:4, ESV I persecuted the followers of this Way to their death.

Acts 9:3-8, ESV A light from heaven shone around him. And falling to the ground, he heard a voice saying to him, "Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting me?"...and although his eyes were opened, he saw nothing.

2 Corinthians 11:24-26, ESV Five times I received at the hands of the Jews the forty lashes less one. Three times I was beaten with rods. Once I was stoned. Three times I was shipwrecked; a night and a day I was adrift at sea; on frequent journeys, in danger from rivers, danger from robbers, danger from my own people...

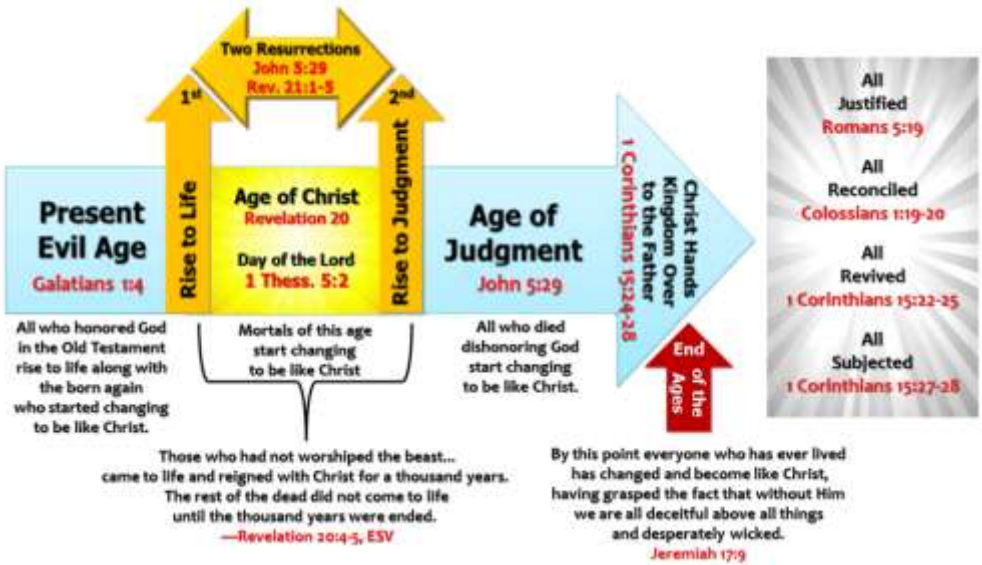

Similarly, no one is forcing me to sit here and type away unpaid for very ungrateful and abusive or dismissive people when it's beautiful outside and I have a decent enough brain to get a job that pays. But I haven't shirked my moral obligations because we're facing a brutal dictator and I got a taste of what that's about. However small—it was enough. I also got a decent taste of demonic activity in my face to make it harder for me to honor our enemy. People, especially children, are suffering brutally around the world, and Jesus suffered brutally for me. How could I choose to live for myself? Even if I'm wrong about a ton of it, I am undoubtedly right that spiritual hypocrisy is totally antichrist.

Maybe I am nuts? Maybe hell is real and I died and this is it! FOR THE REST OF ETERNITY I’LL BE STUCK IN THESE RERUNS! And if that were true, at some point I will step in front of a moving truck. But whenever my mind starts going down that path, I’m always brought back by spiritual hypocrisy, 100% certain that the body of Christ is—and has historically been—made up of outrageous spiritual hypocrites. And Jesus hates spiritual hypocrisy because it does so much damage. And He gave me a disgust for hypocrisy when I was a kid with all that fake Latino affection at each greeting—kissing you on both cheeks when they didn’t even like you—making it much more disgusting as a born again Christian.

I think He’s also made it very difficult for you to turn a blind eye. Not having gone to Eagle or more closely connected like the Marshalls, you’re not going to be as brainwashed against me. You’ll likely open the mailing and read the book. It should also help convict you that He’s had me praying His Word for you, as with the last chapter and on quite a few videos, reading Scripture and praying practically every verse for you. How many people pray for you like that?! So while you’ll clearly struggle with some of it, I think He’s coordinated things—especially with the Messiah 2030 YouTube channel—in such a way that it’ll be harder for you to dismiss me and dismiss Him, if not impossible.

But even if your heart is that hard that you also blow me off, eventually someone will find it impossible to choose their own will over His because of how He coordinated it all. And that person will know without a doubt that there’s NOTHING special about them or me. They’ll get it that we’re all the same—“deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked” (Jer. 17:9, KJV, my emphasis)—so that the only reason they can see what others haven’t been able to see is because of how God coordinated all the factors making it impossible for them to not get it. They’ll know that all the credit goes to God, just like Saul knew he’d been totally in the wrong—and not just a little—and Jesus was merciful to him (1 Tim. 1:15-16 in the graphic). It’s all about revealing the longsuffering goodness of God.

7 The Vision

This graphic sums up my understanding of what God has actually done. The Total Victory of Christ - YouTube channel is the best I've come across having understood something other than hell for most of the people God created. But the man isn't yet awake to the lies of pagan Christianity—a pretty big set of lies! Still, he does have excellent content. Again, we have to take EVERY thought captive to Christ (2 Cor. 10:5), “test [everything]; hold on to what is good [and] reject every kind of evil” (1 Thess. 5:21, NIV). We don't reject the person like everyone's done with me, we reject evil, what doesn't line up with sound doctrine which is found in the “new covenant” (Luke 22:20, NIV) teachings of Christ.

Romans 5:19, YLT For as through the disobedience of the one man, the many were constituted sinners: so also through the obedience of the one, shall the many be constituted righteous.

Colossians 1:20, YLT And through him to reconcile the all things to himself...whether the things upon the earth, whether the things in the heavens.

1 Corinthians 15:22-28, YLT Even as in Adam all die, so also in the Christ all shall be made alive, ²³and each in his proper order...²⁸and when the all things may be subjected to him, then the Son also himself shall be subject to Him...that God may be the all in all.

The Humility of Christ. Jesus “humbled Himself” to become “human” like us (Phil. 2:8, ESV). Similarly, He’s in the process of elevating every human being He created to become like Him when it’s all been said and done, “each in his own order: Christ the firstfruits, then at his coming those who belong to Christ” (1 Cor. 15:23, ESV). Based on Scripture we can deduce that during the last age everyone else will be changed to be like Him. Being that “God is love” (1 John 4:8, KJV), the Father’s aim has been to end up with a very loving, very faithful, Family for the rest of eternity thanks to the sacrifice Jesus made on the Cross. That’s what He meant by calling it Good News! (Matt. 9:35).

In contrast, hell isn’t good news. How could I rejoice knowing my God is so brutally unforgiving, and such an outrageous hypocrite?! But He’s not! Halleluyah!

Engaging my brain I know that “many” and “all” mean exactly what we know them to mean, everything and everyone. Someone else summed it up graphically. The Good News amounts to a sea of love representing “God [who] is love” (1 John 4:8, KJV). It’s everything we know love to mean which Jesus modeled for us.

I wonder if we would have had all the war and atrocities associated with them over the last 2000 years—along with all the corruption even born again Christians are involved with—if the body of Christ had actually preached the truth. Had this been our vision and message to the world since the so-called Great Reformation, would we still have behaved so deceitfully and wicked? God knows. My guess is yes based on what He’s revealed to us about the next age, covered shortly. We are exactly as He says (Jer. 17:9).

Why Does God Allow Evil?

We need to know how evil we are so that we genuinely appreciate what God did for us on the Cross. God's plan—the actual vision—is the only way to end up with a righteous loving kingdom of people who also have free will. And the body of Christ has proven that even the born again haven't grasped our desperate need for Him and what He's actually done for us. In other words, what we are actually like. Therefore, this age will end with the body of Christ finally grasping it in great part because of this ministry which He entrusted to me. That was the point of it. While my life feels like it's been totally not worth living, according to Christ it's the exact opposite. And after this age, there are two more ages to really nail the point down of humanity's wickedness.

The Age of Christ/Millennial Reign. The following passage reveals that there will be people who will not get raptured at the end of this age but who will, nevertheless, glorify God:

Then they heard a loud voice from heaven saying to them, “Come up here!” And they went up to heaven in a cloud, and their enemies watched them. And at that hour there was a great earthquake, and a tenth of the city fell. Seven thousand people were killed in the earthquake, and the rest were terrified and gave glory to the God of heaven (Rev. 11:12-13, ESV).

I discern God will protect this remnant that gave Him glory—who had before been His enemies—just like He or Satan protected Noah and his family. If it had been Satan it was obviously to “serve the lie” (2 Thess. 2:9, NIV). And it's clear that it was Satan who caused the flood NOT God because “the one who has the power of death, that is, the devil” (Heb. 2:14, ESV) so that “the serpent poured water like a river out of his mouth after the woman, to sweep her away with a flood” (Rev. 12:15, ESV). Either way, like Noah and his family, a remnant—this time definitely protected by God—will repopulate the world making those people the ones over whom the born again resurrected saints “will reign with him for a thousand years” (Rev. 20:6, ESV).

My understanding is that the millennial reign of Christ will be an extension of what Jesus revealed during the 40 days following His resurrection and before His ascension. During that time He further taught the disciples about the kingdom of God “open[ing] their minds to understand the Scriptures” (Luke 24:45, ESV) while also revealing the spiritual realm to them as He appeared and disappeared at will as we read about in the following passages, for example:

The doors being locked...Jesus came and stood among them and said to them, “Peace be with you” (John 20:19, ESV).

When he was at table with them, he took the bread and blessed and broke it and gave it to them. And their eyes were opened, and they recognized him. And he vanished from their sight (Luke 24:30-31, ESV).

The difference is that during the next age it won't just be Jesus teaching the people and appearing and disappearing among them, but all of the resurrected saints along with Him—and doing it for 1000 years and not just 40 days—giving that group of mortals an experience way better than the Garden of Eden! Unlike Adam and Eve, the mortals of the next age will have loads of supernatural help.

On top of that, all the fallen angels will be locked up. Since Satan is their “king” (Rev. 9:11, NIV) Scripture only mentions Satan (Rev. 20:1-3 below). But it's clearly a package deal like those Verizon bundles.

Revelation 20:1-3, ESV I saw an angel coming down from heaven, holding in his hand the key to the bottomless pit and a great chain. And he seized the dragon, that ancient serpent, who is the devil and Satan, and bound him for a thousand years, and threw him into the pit, and shut it and sealed it over him, so that he might not deceive the nations any longer, until the thousand years were ended.

Besides having loads of supernatural help and zero supernatural hostility, those mortals will live in a world where animals will no longer be violent. “The wolf shall dwell with the lamb, and the leopard shall lie down with the young goat, and the calf and the lion and the fattened calf together; and a little child shall lead them” (Isa. 11:6, ESV).

And with YouTube He's been wetting our appetites for it, as with this video: Dean Schneider - Reunited with the Lions \(youtube.com\). There are loads of videos of wild animals befriending humans, usually having received help and obviously thanking them: whales, eagles, leopards, elephants, foxes, etc. They're more thankful for having been saved than born again Christians! They're like the one leper who came back to thank Him for being healed and Jesus said, and is saying to the born again, "Was no one found to return and give praise to God except [these animals]?" (Luke 17:18, ESV).

Those mortals of the next age will also live super long lives like in the beginning when "Methuselah lived a total of 969 years" (Gen. 5:27, NIV). "Never again will there be in it an infant who lives but a few days, or an old man who does not live out his years; the one who dies at a hundred will be thought a mere child; the one who fails to reach a hundred will be considered accursed" (Isa. 65:20, NIV).

However, at the end of that glorious age God will really hammer in the point about the wicked human heart (Jer. 17:9) since those mortals will have lived in paradise with the resurrected Lord and all the resurrected saints helping them, along with all the other benefits, but when Satan is loosed they'll still believe his lies as if God had been keeping something from them so that they'll rebel against the Lord and His people as we're informed in the following passage:

When the thousand years are ended, Satan will be released from his prison and will come out to deceive the nations that are at the four corners of the earth, Gog and Magog, to gather them for battle; their number is like the sand of the sea. And they marched up over the broad plain of the earth and surrounded the camp of the saints and the beloved city (Rev. 20:7-9, ESV).

We need the next age because we think it's all about socialization using the excuse that "If my circumstances had been better, I would have been better" or "I was just following orders." But through the next age the Lord is proving—beyond question—that no matter how good our circumstances and orders, we still rebel against God and His people because we are so corrupt that our actions don't even make sense. It's like how the ESV translated Jeremiah 17:9, "The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately sick; who can understand it?" There was a show we watched for a season about old FBI cases where some pretty intelligent people did the dumbest things that didn't even make sense, often doing it it KNOWING it made no sense, kind of like how Lisa knew she was losing the battle but gave into it anyhow.

We all do the same thing in many ways. A popular one for me is with food. Determined to lose the weight, I eat the garbage anyhow sabotaging my own success. We do it with food, drugs, alcohol, money, work, lies, fake church, bad company, etc. They're strongholds we let Satan have over us for lacking conviction. And the born again lack spiritual conviction for not having the actual vision since "where there is no prophetic vision the people cast off restraint" (Prov. 28:19, ESV). In other words, as overweight and out of shape as I am right now, it parallels the Lord's Bride since we "have lived on the earth in luxury and in self-indulgence...fatten[ing]...our hearts in a day of slaughter" (James 5:5, ESV).

The Age of Judgment/Second Death. The age after the millennial reign is what I called the Age of Judgment based on John 5:29 in Young's literal translation (below) which uses the word judgment as opposed to "damnation" (KJV) or "condemned" (NIV). The Concordant literal uses the word judging. The Bible refers to this period as "the second death" (Rev. 2:11, ESV) which Christians have wrongly interpreted as fire burning eternal hell, separation, or annihilation. But when I look at the literal translations or consider a decent interpretation of any translation I clearly see a period of judgment.

John 5:29, YLT They shall come forth; those who did the good things to a rising again of life, and those who practised the evil things to a rising again of judgment.

Hell: This word isn't found in the literal translations. It's Hades or Sheol. Or else Gehenna (Mat 5:22), an actual place.

Hades: Greek. The realm of the dead.

Sheol: Hebrew. The real of the dead; the unseen.

Hades come from the a(i)des which means the unseen. And Sheol comes from the sha'ad which means ask, as in who knows what happens to the dead? In other words, what we've interpreted as hell isn't a place of torment but of oblivion.

Considering the Hebrew and Greek meaning of Sheol and Hades, which were translated as hell, it seems to me that the answer to the question "Who knows what happens to the dead? is that they sleep, as Jesus said, "Lazarus has fallen asleep...Lazarus has died" (John 11:11-14, ESV).

Unlike what nearly everyone seems to think, no one has been resurrected to heaven yet since “the dead in Christ will rise first” (1 Thess. 4:16, ESV) which will take place at the time of the Lord’s return to earth. While Jesus told the man dying next to Him “Today you will be with me in paradise” (Luke 23:43, NIV), He was speaking from His perspective which surpasses time. In contrast, we view things from our perspective which is stuck in time. It’s the effect captured in time travel movies where the time traveler is gone for years which were only seconds in the natural world. Taking my thoughts captive to Christ I discern that when the dead rise to life—no matter how long ago they died—it will feel to them like how we feel when we slept like a rock for hours but wake up feeling like we just went to bed. I discern all those testimonies of people dying and seeing Jesus or heaven or hell are part of “the lie” (1 Thess. 2:9, NIV) to “deceive the nations” (Rev. 20:3, KJV). Since the body of Christ hasn’t been in the habit of taking our thoughts captive to Christ and have mostly ignored the spiritual war (Eph. 6:12 & 1 Pet. 5:8), we’ve also ignored the fact that Satan always mixes truth with lies in order to deceive. Since we haven’t fanned into flame the gift of God that is in us (2 Tim. 1:6), Satan has fanned into flame our misunderstanding.

I also see that age, “the second death” (Rev. 2:11, ESV), as being similar to what the born again have experienced during this life. “We who live are always being given over to death for Jesus’ sake, so that the life of Jesus also may be manifested in our mortal flesh” (2 Cor. 4:11, ESV). And the more faithful we’ve been the more we’ve experienced it. The second death is the death of our own will. Every born again soul has already died it/experienced the second death since that’s how we became born again. But we were supposed to continue dying it by being a follower of Christ (Matt. 4:19). In any case, those who rise to judgment for not having become born again during this life, will finally die to self by their own free will. They’ll be “hurt” by the second death (Rev. 2:11, ESV) because it hurts giving up our own will and desires and admitting that we’ve been wrong. I think that’s the gist of it.

But because of the condition of our hearts (Jer. 17:9) for centuries (more likely millennia), the body of Christ as a whole has been saying that “God [who] is love” (1 John 4:8, KJV) and who commands us to forgive “seventy-seven times” (Matt. 18:22, ESV), to the point that we “love...our enemies” (Matt. 5:44, ESV), and harshly rebuked hypocrites (Matt. 23:13), is the biggest hypocrite of all since He’s not only NOT going to forgive most of the people He created being that only a “few” find the way to life (Matt. 7:14), He’s going to burn them alive FOREVER or ignore them forever leaving them in “outer darkness” (Matt. 8:12, KJV), or annihilated them with “everlasting destruction” (1 Thess. 1:9, NIV)—making God out to be extremely unforgiving. It also makes Him out to be extremely unrighteous since it’s all for not believing in Jesus when “faith...is the gift of God” (Eph. 2:8, ESV) and no one can even come to Jesus unless the Father draws them (John 6:44). And the One burning or destroying everyone is supposedly Jesus because He’s the One the Father gave “all authority in heaven and on earth” (Matt. 28:18, ESV) so that “all things were created through him and for him” (Col. 1:16, ESV). In sum, we’ve been saying that Jesus—the most loving and forgiving person who ever walked the face of the earth—is also the most brutal and unforgiving psychopath!

And the notion that hell has to exist because God is holy—as so many Christians regurgitate without engaging their brains (1 Cor. 10:5)— is ridiculous since it totally ignores the meaning of holy (Jer. 17:9). It’s also satanic because it honors Satan the “liar” (John 8:44, KJV). There is NO WAY the doctrine of hell—in any of its versions—is sound doctrine. That’s clear when we take our thoughts captive to Christ (2 Co. 10:5) and work through our cognitive dissonance.

Merriam-Webster

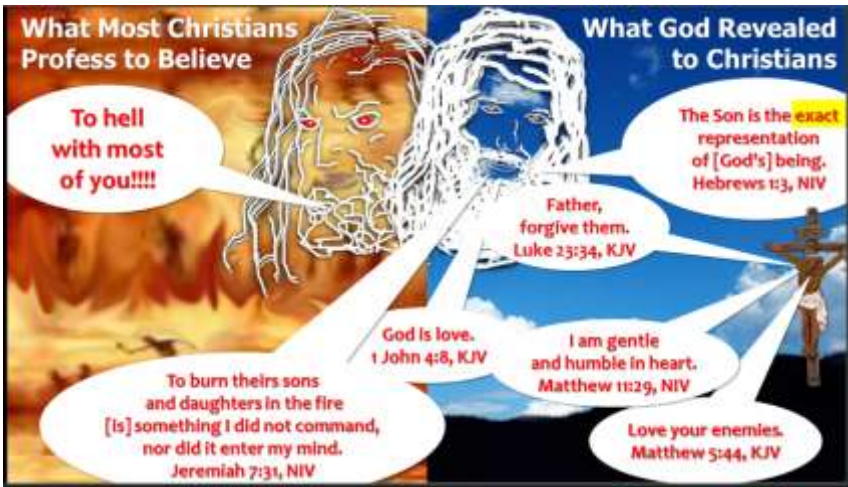

<https://www.merriam-webster.com/dictionary/holy>

Holy Definition & Meaning

The meaning of HOLY is exalted or worthy of complete devotion as one perfect in goodness and righteousness. How to use holy in a sentence.

Synonyms of holy · Holy smoke · Holy cow · Holy moly

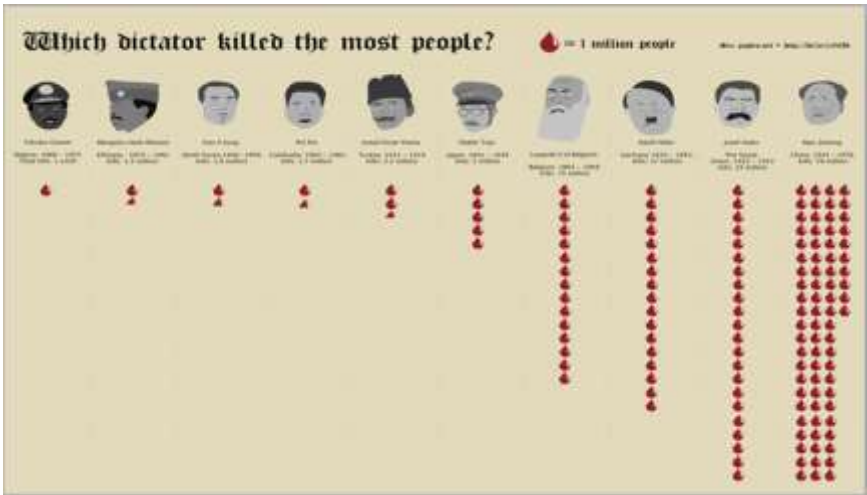

Even the most hardened criminals would NOT have viewed David Rothenberg’s father, who set his son on fire, as a loving man. Yet born again Christians have been saying for centuries (at least) that our heavenly Father who “is love” (1 John 4:8, ESV) wants Jesus to either burn, annihilate, or forever ignore most of the people He created. And Jesus is, supposedly, actually going to do that. This is how deceitful we are, even when we’re born again, because in all the translations I’ve looked at the message is the same: everyone lives forever and will be changed to be like Christ—and Jesus wouldn’t hurt a fly.

1 Timothy 4:10
CLT	YLT	KJV
we rely on the living God, Who is the Saviour of all mankind, especially of believers	we hope on the living God, who is Saviour of all men— especially of those believing.	we trust in the living God, who is the Saviour of all men, especially of those that believe.

For example, we’re informed that Jesus is the Savior of all, not just of those who believe (1 Tim. 4:10 in the graphic). And it’s impossible for Him to be the Savior of those He’s supposedly going to destroy.

Besides that, God isn’t raising up everyone from death back to life just so He can treat them like a brutal dictator would because “God is love” (1 John 4:8, KJV) not a psychopath and, therefore, forgiving as Jesus demonstrated on the Cross while we were torturing Him to death (Luke 23:34)—a situation in which He purposely placed Himself.

Rather, being a good Father—the best—He’s putting His bad kids on Time Out, so to speak, during the last age, to help them reflect on their bad behavior and choose to do better.

I think it might be something like this bottom graphic with Hitler. Having missed the best of the ages combined with the realization of what they've done against the backdrop of what God has done will be punishment enough. Every time I'm thinking through it I'm reminded of the young man who was texting his wife "I love you" and hit an Amish buggy killing the children Texting and Driving - "From One Second to the Next" - YouTube. No punishment could ever punish him more than the reality of what he did. Even if he had killed the children on purpose, it would still haunt him for the rest of his life once he's been convicted. I think that sums up the Age of Judgment, or gets closer to it. Enlightened to what God has actually done for everyone, even those who purposely hurt others, like Hitler who was hardly the worst dictator, they'll all be overcome with guilt because we were all made in the image of God who is love (Gen. 1:26 & 1 John 4:8).

So the beauty of what God has done is that not only will those they hurt be able to forgive them since they'll be like Christ, they will be able to forgive themselves, eventually. "God shall wipe away every tear from their eyes, and the death shall not be any more, nor sorrow, nor crying, nor shall there be any more pain, because the first things did go away" (Rev. 21:4, YLT). When it's all been said and done, at the end of the ages, we'll all fully comprehend just how wicked we all are and just how much Jesus did for us all. God knows how exactly it'll play out since He didn't give us that much information and what He did give us we've seriously twisted. However, we do know that genuine love isn't brutal. It's "full of compassion" (Ps. 116:5, NIV) and "keeps no record of wrongs" (1 Cor. 13:5, ESV).

So this is what I see. Since this life has been a test (Deut. 13:3) and God is proving to every human being the deplorable state of each of our hearts (Jer. 17:9), if you were elect—were granted the ability to become born again during this age, a "vessel...prepared beforehand for glory" (Rom. 9:23, ESV)—but didn't become born again having rejected all of His advances for being so insanely proud, He'll blot your name out of His book (Rev. 3:5 in the graphic below). You blew it. Other than brutal dictators, I discern this group will be beating themselves up more than the "vessels of wrath prepared for destruction" (Rom. 9:22, ESV) since they'd been granted the opportunity to be part of the best period of all the ages but they were too proud and still have to die "the second death" (Rev. 2:11, ESV).

All Lies Honor Satan. The doctrine of hell is one of Satan’s biggest lies because it keeps most elect from coming to Christ and helps keep the born again from getting to know Him well since it doesn’t exactly endear Him to us. It’s like in the back of their minds, everyone’s had this reservation, judging the Lord rather than earnestly working at understanding what He’s actually said and done. It’s also, therefore, helped us practice religion rather than focus on the relationship He enabled us to have with Him. All in all Satan has used the false doctrine of hell to get people to honor him instead of Christ. Loads of lost souls won’t even consider Jesus just because of this false doctrine.

Since Satan is the most proud creature the Lord created (Ezek. 28:14-17 below), he’s used it to keep focus off of Jesus and, therefore, on him. Not that Jesus created Satan as the most proud creature of all. He created him like He created all of us, with free will. Having made him the most intelligent and beautiful—the most blessed—he became the most proud. Ezekiel 28 (below) is ultimately speaking of Satan since the ruler of Tyre wasn’t in the Garden of Eden, nor a cherub, nor thrown from heaven to earth. Being so blessed, Satan got super proud. It’s the same thing that’s happened to the body of Christ!

Ezekiel 28:14-17, ESV You were the seal of perfection, full of wisdom and perfect in beauty. You were in Eden, the garden of God...You were anointed as a guardian cherub, for so I ordained you...blameless in your ways from the day you were created till wickedness was found in you...you were filled with violence, and you sinned. So I drove you in disgrace from the mount of God, and I expelled you, guardian cherub, from among the fiery stones. Your heart became proud on account of your beauty, and you corrupted your wisdom because of your splendor. So I threw you to the earth.

Promoting the doctrine of hell the body of Christ has historically elevated Satan and dishonored God, specifically Jesus, calling evil good and good evil and God says “Woe” to people who do that (Isa. 5:20 in the graphic). In other words, woe to all of humanity. LOOK around.

The Lion of Judah

The Lion that Devours

The Wrath of God. The standard lie is that Jesus is coming back in great wrath because we read things like “Hide us from the...wrath of the Lamb” (Rev 6:16, ESV). But when I take my thoughts captive to Christ the wrath of God that I see is an extension of Him handing the rebels over to Satan for His purposes. He says “Deliver this man to Satan for the destruction of the flesh, so that his spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord” (1 Cor. 5:5, ESV). Satan, His servant/His tool, will go to town on humanity more than ever before, allowed by God for His purposes (Eph. 1:11). But Jesus isn’t torturing anyone. The standard teaching about the end makes Him out to have a split personality as if He was meek when He first came, the baby, the lamb, but now that’s He’s grown, He’s coming as a lion to devour, confusing the two lions because “Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today and forever” (Heb. 13:8, ESV). And it’s been easy for born again Christians to do since we’ve done it with war, been OK brutalizing other people for a supposedly righteous cause. Because, “the heart is deceitful above all things” (Jer. 17:9, KJV). They really captured it well on a miniseries I felt compelled to watch while writing this book for you. I kept waiting for something good to happen but it never did except that in the end one of the men said “I will never again put on a uniform” having learned the brutality and senselessness of war. It was The Pacific, 2010 based on the memoirs of two marines.

Connecting the dots, I discern both Jesus and Satan are described as a “lion” (Rev. 5:5 & 1 Pet. 5:8, ESV) because this life has been a test (Deut. 13:3)—which, again, we’ve failed miserably.

Welcoming Our Friend

I see Jesus' return to earth as a parallel of when He went to see the dead Lazarus (John 11:20-34 below) and what the disciples did when Paul and his companions came to town (Acts 28:15 below). In both cases the people went out to meet their friend—which is what Jesus calls us (John 15:15)—hung out, then came back to town with him. Likewise, I see Jesus calling up His body through the rapture (1 Cor. 15:52 & 1 Thess. 4:15-16), hanging out for what will equal a “half hour” on earth (Rev. 8:1), then we come back with Him and He establishes His kingdom having put an end to the madness as the “angel...b[inds Satan] for a thousand years” (Rev. 20:1-2, ESV).

John 11:20-34, ESV When Martha heard that Jesus was coming, she went and met him, but Mary remained seated in the house. Martha...went and called her sister Mary...when Mary came to where Jesus was and saw him, she fell at his feet...And he said, “Where have you laid him?” They said to him, “Lord, come and see.”

Acts 28:15-16, ESV And the brothers there, when they heard about us, came as far as the Forum of Appius and Three Taverns to meet us. On seeing them, Paul thanked God and took courage. And when we came into Rome, Paul was allowed to stay by himself, with the soldier who guarded him.

God is Love

The vision the body of Christ has believed for most of the last 2000 years does NOT represent the true vision of what God has actually revealed to us in His Word. Rather, the body of Christ has been historically brainwashed by Satan for NOT taking our thoughts captive to Christ. We've been deceived not only about what we've been doing but concerning what God has actually done. Even what He's actually like when we were clearly informed that "the Son is the radiance of God's glory and the exact representation of his being" (Heb. 1:3, NIV) and "God is love" (1 John 4:8, KJV) just as Jesus demonstrated throughout His life even unto the last moments of His death as He prayed "Father, forgive them" (Luke 23:34, ESV). Can you really picture Jesus burning even one person alive?! Or annihilating them? Or being so unforgiving that He leaves them in outer darkness away from Him FOREVER?!

Contrary to what Christians teach, I can't even see Jesus hurting a super ugly bug because He's a bizillion times more righteous than me and I feel guilty when I kill them to protect my plants—no matter how ugly. And of how much more worth are humans than any super ugly bug? Even the worst dictators were made in the image of God (Gen. 1:26), so they're like a SUPER ugly bug. But this book has revealed that we have been GREATLY DECEIVED in many ways about the vision of God's plan for humanity. And it's obvious when you REMOVE the beams from your eyes and are honest about it all. It's like the born again are the ugliest bugs of all since we were informed of the truth and empowered to walk in it—but not only haven't, we've refused to be corrected by Him while professing to know and love Him! If anyone deserves to get squashed, it's the body of Christ!

Treasure in Heaven

Jesus admonished us to store treasure in heaven instead of on earth (Matt. 6:19-20 below) and I discern this treasure and our “reward[s]” (2 John 1:8 below) add up to our position in His kingdom of the next age. It might even be longer since the literal translation says we’ll reign with Him not just the thousand years of the next age (Rev. 20:6 below) but through to the end of the ages (Rev. 22:5 in the graphic).

2 John 1:8, ESV Watch yourselves, so that you may...win a full reward.

Matthew 6:19-20, ESV Do not lay up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and rust destroy and where thieves break in and steal, but lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust destroys and where thieves do not break in and steal.

Revelation 20:6, ESV Blessed and holy is the one who shares in the first resurrection! Over such the second death has no power, but they will be priests of God and of Christ, and they will reign with him for a thousand years.

The way I see it is that the Father prepared a specific job for us to do on this earth (Matt. 20:23 in the graphic). “We [the elect of God] are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand, that we should walk in them” (Eph. 2:10, ESV).

Therefore, depending on how faithful we are to Jesus as born again souls, we'll store up either "gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, [or] straw" (1 Cor. 3:12, ESV) for heaven—the next age. Then He'll light a match to our works so that "the fire will test what sort of work each one has done" (1 Cor. 3:13, ESV). In turn, we'll receive all, some, or none of the potential rewards we could have earned.

If all we did was become born again but lived the rest of our lives for ourselves, thereby honoring Satan, "the ruler of this world" (John 12:31, YLT), we'll "suffer loss" (1 Cor. 3:15, KJV) because all we stored for heaven was straw and that burns. We'll have nothing to show for ourselves and walk around as if "naked" (Rev. 16:15, ESV).

Likewise, if we became born again but did good works, like being a doctor or civil rights attorney, but those were not the "good works, which God prepared" for us to do (Eph. 2:10, ESV), then, I discern we did a little better and stored up hay, which also ALL burns.

Or else, we could have become born again and done some really excellent good works which God never intended for us to do, like volunteered 20 hours a week at the hospital caring for sick babies, helping them heal. In that case, we'll have earned "wood," which is better but still also all burns.

Again, this life was a test about whether and how much we actually love our Maker (Deut. 13:3) whereas our corrupt version of Christianity has focused on being a "believer" so that most born again have historically suffered great loss of potential rewards.

²² For other foundation can no man lay than that is laid, which is Jesus Christ.
²³ Now if any man build upon this foundation gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, stubble;
²⁴ Every man's work shall be made manifest: for the day shall declare it, because it shall be revealed by fire; and the fire shall try every man's work of what sort it is.
²⁵ If any man's work abide which he hath built thereupon, he shall receive a reward.
²⁶ If any man's work shall be burned, he shall suffer loss: but he himself shall be saved; yet so as by fire.
 1 Corinthians 3:11-15, KJV

This passage, in verses 11-12, makes it clear that it's speaking of the born again, people who had the foundation of Christ.

I discern it's like the following passage, which can apply to both the lost and the born again:

If I speak in the tongues of men and of angels, but have not love, I am a noisy gong or a clanging cymbal. And if I have prophetic powers, and understand all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have all faith, so as to remove mountains, but have not love, I am nothing. If I give away all I have, and if I deliver up my body to be burned, but have not love, I gain nothing (1 Cor. 13:1-3, ESV).

Since “God is love” (1 John 4:8, ESV), if I'm not born again, I do not have God. During this life I'll have received my reward in full just as Jesus said of the hypocrites (Matt. 6:2). And if I'm born again but not a follower of Christ—again, a hypocrite—I also do not have love, just as my testimony of most on my path reveals.

And for all I know Bill Bean was super faithful before I came along. That counts. And, at first, he was the most faithful and loving out of just about everyone on my path. But he wasted the last two decades of his life. And that's what we were warned about. “Watch yourselves, so that you may not lose what we have worked for, but may win a full reward” (2 John 1:8, KJV). I'm thinking it's like a very complicated math problem the length of the number of our days: subtract some for having ignored all His advances before we finally became born again, add some for finally becoming born again and doing some of the good works He prepared for us to do, multiply it by His specific calling on our life, divide by our manner (did we say it nicely?), square it by the quality of our prayer life etc. = Our Rewards, where we'll be sitting at His table in His kingdom, our standing—our position—in His kingdom.

The biblical interpretation for Maya Makes a Mess touches on it with this graphic. It also ties in to David when he was younger. He said “Tomorrow is the new moon, and I should not fail to sit at table with the king” (1 Sam. 20:5, ESV). It's like there was a seat reserved just for David so that he would have been missed if not sitting in it. It's like all those period movies where they typically have specific place settings for everyone at the dinner table. And Jesus says “To sit at my right hand and at my left is not mine to grant, but it is for those for whom it has been prepared by my Father” (Matt. 20:23, ESV). If the Father prepared the most important seats at the table, He’s prepared the rest of the seating chart because He is seriously detail oriented (Eph. 1:11).

Therefore, if you became born again and stored only wood, hay, or straw, you’ll likely be sitting in the kitchen with the other less faithful servants, or at the children’s table, so to speak, because “God is not mocked” (Gal. 6:7, ESV). Let’s say the Father’s plan for your life, speaking of “the life that is truly life” (1 Tim. 6:19, NIV), was for you to sit at Jesus’ left in His High Court (equivalent to Vice President in Satan’s worldly kingdom in the U.S.). But you were like all these people on my path and chose to reject God’s invitation to draw nearer to Jesus for loving your will more than His will for your life. In that case, I discern the Father will NOT give you that seat of honor which He had prepared for you but promote someone else who was more faithful to sit there and lower you to a position worthy of your actions. He’ll demote you! I see it in the following parable:

When you are invited, go and sit in the lowest place, so that when your host comes he may say to you, ‘Friend, move up higher.’ Then you will be honored in the presence of all who sit at table with you (Luke 14:10, ESV).

People like Lisa, Bill, Kerry, and Reggie’s father chose their man-made titles on this earth of Prophet, Pastor, and Reverend which came with works that weren’t actually part of their calling and neither did they fulfill their calling. For that I discern they’ve been demoted. And that’s if they even made it to the kingdom and didn’t get blotted out (Rev. 3:5).

In contrast, I do not have a title and don’t want one since they’re all unbiblical because we have One Master, Jesus Christ, and we are all brethren (Matt. 23:8). Unlike everyone who’s looked down their nose at me, I’ve been willing to work unpaid for decades, dishing out money to help others as led by the Lord (shopping for myself mostly at Goodwill), cleaning toilets and such not just at Eagle but for a short season here when the Lord called me to pray for people in the DC metro area while cleaning their homes, etc. Having chosen the lower position in this life people have treated me like I’m an idiot with the exception of their fake praise when they’ve been eager only for God’s blessings. I’m thinking that the born again among them have been demoted while I’ll be moved up higher and honored in everyone’s presence—not that I care about that honor. Who cares what people think! The prize (Gen. 15:1 in the graphic) is that I'll be sitting closer to Jesus at the table, working more intimately with Him, and spending way more time with Him in the new flesh for at least the next thousand years compared to what I would have if I hadn't fulfilled my calling to the best of my ability. I get to be with JESUS!

While we'll all be with Jesus in the same kingdom, it's much better to be closer to Him. It's like I'm with all of you here on earth and yet might as well be all alone nearly all the time! I discern that's been the trade off. And even if I'm wrong, it'll still turn out great for me because “no eye has seen, nor ear heard, nor the heart of man imagined, what God has prepared for those who love him” (1 Cor. 2:9, ESV). And that's about all I've done with my life as an adult, I've loved my Lord giving Him more than just lip-service—way more. So as someone was singing during my workout this morning, “It's gonna be worth it all!”

While I've shed loads of tears during this life, during the next life my “mouth [will be] filled with laughter” (Ps. 126:2, ESV) because Jesus is NOTHING like today's Christians and today's Christians will no longer be deceitful and wicked. We'll finally be “greet[ing] one another with a holy kiss” (Rom. 16:16, ESV) instead of giving each other Judas hugs and kisses (Luke 22:48).

The Great Apostasy—Christianity's Rebellion

The day of Christ...shall not come except there come a falling away first.
2 Thessalonians 2:2-3, KJV

Where there is no vision, the people perish.
Proverbs 29:18, KJV

A Great Falling Away from the Truth!

Snowball Effect

All the believers... had everything in common.
Acts 2:43, KJV

Some are already turned aside after Satan.
1 Timothy 5:15, KJV

You have a reputation for being alive, but you are dead.
Revelation 3:1, NIV

Why call ye me Lord, Lord, and do not the things which I say?
Luke 9:46, KJV

This is where you abide in Christ.

There should be no division in the body.
1 Corinthians 12:23, NIV

Lead for Signs Lead for Knowledge

God is spirit, and his worshippers must worship in the Spirit and in truth.
John 4:24, NIV

The Center for the Study of Global Christianity at Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary estimated 43,000 denominations around 1820.

c. 30 A.D. Pentecost c. 90 A.D. Letters to the Churches Middle Ages Pope Worship c. 1500 So-called Reformation c. 1500 to Present Pagan Christianity

The day of the Lord...will not come until the rebellion occurs.
2 Thessalonians 2:2-3, NIV

There are Lot's of Job Openings. The way I understand it is that most of the positions in Jesus' High Court are currently up for grabs since the people God initially had in mind got demoted being that the body of Christ has historically fulfilled the rebellion. Combine that with the fact that we're entering the most difficult period in all of history which is also the main time of harvest, even if you're up in age and wasted most of your life living as a born again Christian who was not a close follower of Christ, you can still earn a great position in the Lord's heavenly kingdom—provided you didn't do as much damage as the worst born again leaders in the institutional churches. For them it'll be like when they sit us as the worst spot in the restaurant under the ice cold fan and by the kitchen door, making you wish you'd stayed at home. Instead, they'll be kicking themselves for having been so self-absorbed.

Be diligent to present thyself approved to God—a workman irreproachable, rightly dividing the word of the truth.
2 Timothy 2:15, YLT

Lord, I was such a proud fool! Thank You for saving my soul and still allowing me to be part of this glorious age.

8 It's All Connected

The new covenant says “Him who the all things is working according to the counsel of His will” (Eph. 1:11, YLT). Christians sing about it as in The Reason. They preach it. They talk about it. But they fail to actually connect the dots and call us delusional when we do connect them being just as undiscerning as the lost. But God has connected every little detail. It's like that other song, He's Got the Whole World in His Hands. It's not as if people are singing He's got a total mess in His hands! The whole point of the song is that He's got it all under control. He's worked it all out according to His purposes so that every single little bity detail is perfectly connected. It's like a tapestry that on one side looks like a hot mess whereas the other side is totally organized. We mostly only see the mess for lacking the discernment to make the connections for being so rebellious. But because of the walk He's had me on, I've been able to make a decent amount of connections and also pulled together connections others have made since I've had all this time with nothing else to do while sitting here all alone in my dungeon pit. So what follows are some of the connections I've made considering everything the Lord has taught me about His Church, His vision, my calling, and your calling. Called to “live by faith” (Rom. 1:17, ESV), we're supposed to have the discernment to make the connections. Not living by faith, you'll scoff. I choose to accept the connections God reveals to me as they tie in to everything else He's revealed to me in His Word. Besides being fun, they're very enlightening. In turn, liberating.

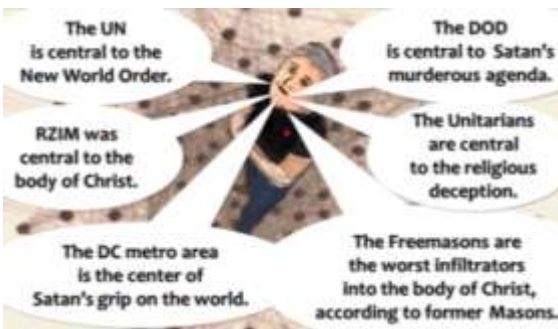

Excerpt from The Reason by Unspoken

*If we could pull back the curtain of Heaven
We would see His hand on everything
Every hour every minute every second He's always been in it*

Frontside

Backside

He shall add; God shall add

Origin: Hebrew. Meaning: He shall add; God shall add. Joseph is a masculine name of Hebrew origin, boasting great prominence in many religious texts. Rooted in the Hebrew name Yosef, meaning "he shall add" or "God shall add," Joseph represents several beloved and just figures in history. Mar 1, 2024

 The Bump
<https://www.thebump.com/joseph-baby-name> |

Joseph - Baby Name Meaning, Origin and Popularity

Originating from Greek roots, the name Leonidas means "son of a lion." This name might ring a bell for Greek history fans as it is best known for the king of Sparta, Leonidas I. His Greek heroism has been immortalized throughout western history as the epitome of bravery, known for fighting against costly odds.

 The Bump
<https://www.thebump.com/leonidas-baby-name> |

Leonidas - Baby Name Meaning, Origin and Popularity

Josefo Leonidas. Having fun with his name, the meaning of it changed only slightly with his pseudonym. Josefo, like José, means God will add and Leonidas means Son of a Lion and relates to the epitome of bravery. It's like his pseudonym means Joseph the Lionhearted. Putting it together while taking my thoughts captive to Christ I see that my father's pseudonym for his book equals the "latter rain" (Joel 2:23, ESV) when God will add many sons of "the Lion of the tribe of Judah" (Rev. 5:5, ESV) to His kingdom as the current sons of this Lion finally rise up to represent the epitome of bravery—a complete turn around from where we are today, especially in the United States.

A Scandalous Love Affair. Having fun with his subject matter, my father's book, The Scandalous Love Affairs of the Philosophers, is a thorough yet humorous/satirical look at the philosophers while also being educational so that they still use it in 100 level philosophy courses. A review I just read, in Spanish, said it's so full off funny word plays that you keep reading longing for the next one. It's what the lion of Judah has done through part of this ministry. Since "God is not mocked" (Gal. 6:7, ESV), He's had me write about the scandalous love affair the true philosophers, the body of Christ, have had while poking fun at us since "the Lord doth mock [the body of Christ]" (Ps. 2:4 YLT) being "shrewd" (Ps. 18:26, NIV). But since Christians can't handle laughing at themselves—for being so immature—they've rebuked me as if I'm undiscerning, unbiblical, unloving downright "mad" (Hos. 7:9, ESV). Eventually, once the Lord opens up this ministry at His "appointed time" (Hab. 2:3, KJV) it will work like that review said of my father's book.

Since Christians have kept Him at a distance, He’s revealing how real He is, how ever-present and down to earth. Being God who created us, He’s everyone’s definition of what a best friend would be. So the way He’s with me is not necessarily the way He’s with you. But we can always know whether or not we’re dealing with Him and not an impostor “masquerad[ing]” as Him (2 Cor. 11:14, NIV) by taking our thoughts captive to Christ (2 Cor. 10:5). If the connections being made line up with His teachings, we’re good—not delusional.

Hemeneutico. My father interpreted the Bible so that this was his pen name for his column. Except his defense of Christ was as an unsaved soul who viewed Jesus as no more than a good moral teacher, not as God in the flesh. My father’s goal was to defame the Catholic church because of it’s stronghold over people, especially in places like South America. Educated in Catholic schools he really got a bad taste for it.

Coordinating everything for His purposes (Eph. 1:11), hermeneutics is what the Lord has had me doing to defame pagan Christianity, elevating Jesus’ fame in this dark world during the most important period of history—so far. The problem with the Catholic so-called church is that she’s the daughter of the Jewish ‘church.’ And the Jewish church is “MYSTERY, BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF HARLOTS AND ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH” (Rev. 17:5, KJV), more precisely it’s the city of Jerusalem. Chris White has an excellent book Mystery Babylon: When Jerusalem Embraces the Antichrist, An Exposition of Revelation 17 & 18. It’s like the Jewish church is the grandmother, THE MOTHER of Harlots, the Catholic church is her daughter, also a mother of harlots. And the Protestant church/pagan Christianity is the Catholic church’s daughter since All Denominations Bow Before the Pope \(youtube.com\). And as the Mother of Harlot’s granddaughter she’s been having lots of babies—those tens of thousands of denominations as she “play[s] the harlot” (Jer. 2:20, KJV).

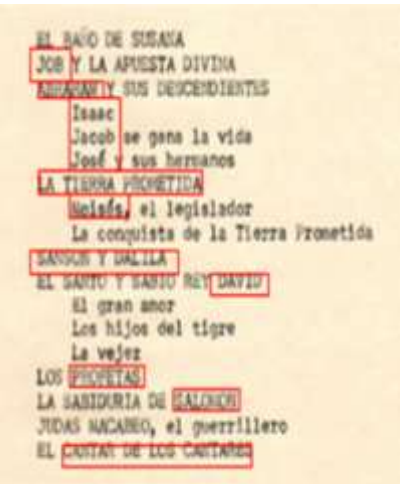

The Latest News.

The newspaper's name literally translates as the news of the last hour. Again, this is exactly my ministry. I'm guessing it came as a NEWS FLASH to you that there are 54 Bible prophecies all pointing to 2030 as the Lord's return. The Messiah 2030 YouTube channel covers all but one of them. That one, the Berisheet prophecy, is at this link: Is the End of Days Prophesied in the First Word of the Bible? \(youtube.com\) uploaded by Rock Island Books. Since "the Lord GOD does nothing without revealing his secret to his servants the prophets" (Amos 3:7, ESV), we can and should know the day of the Lord's return. It's the people Jesus was talking to 2000 years ago who couldn't know it because it wasn't yet the appointed time. But, again, neither of these born again Christians—from Messiah 2030 or Rock Island Books—are enlightened to the lies of pagan Christianity. Nevertheless, my thinking is that this timing is correct considering all the evidence.

I discern that God has given us just enough time to repent, get in full combat gear (Eph. 6:11), "make disciples" (Matt. 28:19-20), and bring in the harvest (Joel 2:23) before all hell breaks loose, "great tribulation, such as was not since the beginning of the world" (Matt. 24:21, KJV). While we have very little time left, the born again already know most of the information, they just haven't applied it. And what God is doing points back to Joseph, while Satan is using social media to hurt humanity God has meant it for the good, the saving of many lives (Gen. 50:20). As soon as the first person starts running with the vision (Hab. 2:2-3), we can spread the Word super easily super fast.

And here's why every member of the body is important (1 Cor. 12:12-31), especially "the parts...that seem to be weaker" (1 Cor. 12:22, ESV). Scroll down the Messiah 2030 comments and you see that they're blind to the fact that we haven't fulfilled our calling. And no one I'm aware of is pointing to the many reasons why the body of Christ needs to repent. Neither do I see anyone revealing anything that would give the body godly sorrow that leads to repentance (2 Cor. 7:10). But the combination of everything the Lord has many saying—pulled together in this ministry and summed up in this book—should do it. God walked me through the movie The Help (2011) showing me that He's using me like the girl who published the book exposing her town's racism. While everyone had known what they'd been doing, it wasn't until they read about it seeing the whole impact of it that some of them changed, like the girl's mother.

Susanna's Bath

Susanna's Bath. I didn't make the connection between the manuscript I found when I cleaned out my mother's townhouse and the figurine until I was editing your book. I'd always associated that figurine with another book my father had in the works. But no such book exists. I'm thinking it was because this manuscript has all but the title page. I hadn't even noticed that til now. And as you can see it might as well be a commentary on the Old Testament. Again, it appears to be satire.

While he had a quick wit and loved to have fun, most of the conversation I recall at home had to do with the cancer or the dictatorship—neither of which was fun. The whole time he was dying—the last two years of his life when I was 9 to 11) they helped two children flee the country so that they lived with us and continued helping get their mother get out. While no one talked to me about anything important, I had eyes and ears. So, for example, I read some magazine that came in the mail, like Newsweek or Life, which had Santiago on the cover with people getting buried alive. I didn't ask about the things I was seeing and hearing, like the drugs in the freezer next to the popsicles and used syringes in the trash with the sticks, too scared to want any more details. It was scary seeing my father so sick and things like the woman on top of the pile of people being buried alive who looked just like the mother of the girls living with us. And my mother very often/mostly blew me off belittling me, just like my mother so-called church (Eph. 1:11). And with my father feeling the way he was feeling and looking the way he was looking, it wasn't like I felt I should ask him.

I've never read either of my father's books since my Spanish has never been college level, having left when I was four, but a couple of reviews online said they laughed through "The Love Affairs" a carcajadas which means like when you're doubled over with tears in your eyes. And by the look of the contents of this manuscript it seems to be of the same type. And I'm thinking if I'd had a college class like that, it would have been a super easy A. Connecting the dots, I discern that ties in to how the Lord has had me write the vision when you factor in the biblical interpretations—once the body of Christ repents. While there's nothing so funny you'd be laughing a carcajadas, it's like the reviewer wrote, that "you keep reading longing for the next one." He meant the next funny word play whereas spiritually, concerning this ministry, it's the next bit of spiritual discernment, the next connection many of which have a sense of humor attached to them in the form of ridicule/sarcasm.

Right now everyone gets offended because Jesus is offensive to the lost no matter what, and the born again get offended because you're in rebellion. You also have this view of God as Someone very uptight, as if dressing nice and looking nice, or just being nice—the outward appearance—is what matters to Him when "the LORD looks at the heart" (1 Sam. 16:7, NIV). And He created humor, including sarcasm. Again "The Lord doth mock" (Ps. 2:4, YLT). Reading the Gospel I don't see Someone who's the least bit uptight or hard to communicate with or who doesn't have a great sense of humor, or who is "mocked" (Gal. 6:7, ESV). What I see is the most easy going, approachable, relatable, friendly, funny, super intelligent, quick witted...everything good you'd ever want in a person including One who stands up for Himself. And, I find insults that are deserving, especially when it comes to the body of Christ, funny, especially when they're coming from God! And think of the irony. Everyone including the born again mocks God when He's warned us that "God is not mocked" (Gal. 6:7, ESV). Yet having done it to Him TO THE HILT, you all get offended because He's mocking us!

Unlike double-minded born again Christians, seekers and new believers will be thrilled to see that God is real. He's down to earth—like Bill and Eric, NOT easily put out of joint. Relatable. Once you all repent and learn to laugh at yourselves, you'll also appreciate what He's done. And the lost will find it most enjoyable because God is making fun of the body of Christ who've been so stupendously arrogant while totally off base.

So He's mocked us repeatedly through the biblical interpretations, as with this graphic from Kate & Leopold (2001). Throughout the movie—the last 2000 years—the Man has been looking for a Bride and feels like He's stuck with the less than attractive dimwit one on the left. Except He's not. Halleluyah!

And there are quite a few songs, books, and movies for which He's given me the whole interpretation, line by line, scene by scene, like the 31 page cartoon book Maya Makes a Mess by Rutu Modan—I'll be making a mess when He finally opens up this ministry since He's using me to turn everything right side up having revealed that we've had it totally upside down and backwards! Another funny one is the song by OK Go - Needing/Getting - Official Video \(youtube.com\). It's funny in it's own right, but super funny when seen from God's eyes. Or maybe I just love the fact that He's mocking the mess out of the body of Christ. That's definitely part of it. By mocking the body He's made it doable for me to fulfill this miserable calling. You can't even begin to imagine what it's felt like: take away your job, your money, your friends, your family, your good reputation, your vacations, your date nights, the love of your spouse and your children...EVERYTHING! Then multiply it by 36 years, essentially, because this family really only had a "life" for the few years we were in Indiana and most of that was like a really bad dream.

He's Calling You. Having made the connection between my father's figurine and the manuscript, I Googled Susanna's Bath. I'd done that 12 years ago but wanted a refresher. Like reading the Bible, we can always see something new. What I'd seen before was that my situation parallels the tale of Susanna where Daniel stepped up to the plate against unrighteous men who were accusing an innocent woman vindicating her. But what stood out now was what Daniel said to them since for two nights the Lord flooded me with prophecies on YouTube from different people all speaking of this vindication. It's not like I was looking for them. They just came up on my feed. It was the night I'd found out you're not only still in that pagan system but serving as an elder so that I held my hand over my laptop in disgust feeling like 'Let me just delete this book!' Convicted not to do that, I shut down for the night and went to zone out on YouTube where He flooded me with prophecies about how I'll soon be vindicated. "You're about to cross the Jordan" etc. (But He's been doing that for 26 years just to keep me going so... Still, this has to end soon!) Daniel said "Are you such fools, O Israelites, as to condemn a daughter of Israel without examination and without learning the facts? Return to court, for these men have given false evidence against her" (Susanna 48-49, NRSV Updated). If you can't see that this is exactly what needs to be done, you are choosing not to see it! God is obviously calling you to be Daniel and communicate with today's "Israelites" (at least some of those mentioned) to revisit the scene of the crime because everyone's been lying to God!

And by everyone I mean the body of Christ. The people on my path are just examples of the whole who are living double lives. That's clear. The examples provided have played a key role and most are in your geographic area. But it's important that you understand that everyone mentioned is just AN EXAMPLE of the whole. We are all examples. We are all guilty. We need to feel the guilt. Confess our sins. Repent. And receive His forgiveness both for ourselves and others. Then move on.

In contrast, Christians have historically refused to feel guilty (like the majority on my path) or refused God's forgiveness for themselves (like Robin Hayes always did constantly questioning her salvation which is to question God), or else deny that God has forgiven others (like those who've tried to lay a guilt trip on me for something I either never did or was forgiven for having done). It's all double-minded and keeps us from being effective. He's called each of us to be "a good soldier of Christ" (2 Tim. 2:3, ESV) and we're clearly on the Frontline. Good soldiers don't act

Walking in the Spirit. Christians don't get it but what I'm doing—as with the example of my father's book, manuscript, and figurine—is exactly what walking in the Spirit is all about! We seek, we pray, we obey, we connect the dots. Then He confirms it. At that point we have the choice to either submit to the obvious or lie to ourselves. And THAT is the problem. We love to lie to ourselves because our hearts are “deceitful above all” (Jer. 17:9, KJV) so that, for example, born again Christians keep pushing the lie that they're a good person, their pastor is a good person, their friends are good people etc., so that I'm just being cynical, judgmental, and unloving, when NOBODY is a good person! It's the very reason Jesus had to go to the Cross! “There is none righteous, not even one” (Rom. 3:10, YLT).

The next part of the problem is that born again Christians have an outrageous lack of faith in Christ. Like with this graphic. Let's say you'd lose your job/income/security for honoring Christ. Historically, the born again (as a whole, not all) have used that as an excuse to NOT obey Christ ignoring the fact that He's promised to provide for us (1 Cor. 10:13 & Phil 4:19 below). That's what it means to step out in faith, trust that He'll cover you.

1 Corinthians 10:13, ESV No temptation has overtaken you that is not common to man. God is faithful, and he will not let you be tempted beyond your ability, but with the temptation he will also provide the way of escape, that you may be able to endure it.

Philippians 4:19, ESV And my God will supply every need of yours according to his riches in glory in Christ Jesus.

Daring to Trust Jesus

Like Reggie, loads of born again Christians are relying on medicine that's toxic rather than relying on God who "heals all...our diseases" (Ps. 103:3, ESV). That's how much faith most have in Christ, choosing poison over Him! Like Randa who had her daughter taking Ritalin. When would Jesus have prescribed meds for someone's behavior? And these are the "mature" Christians! Am I saying there is no room for medical doctors and medicine? No. I'm saying our first reliance should be on Christ and that we are seriously over medicated. And that we need to accept people as God created them rather than dope 'em up so they're what we think they should be like. I have no doubt that if a decent number within the body of Christ were to repent of all known sins and prayed for all needed healing, He'd heal all those diseases both among that group and the elect on their path. A big part of the problem has been that we've been sinning like crazy so that God isn't providing healing since "God does not listen to sinners" (John 9:31, ESV). God has also handed us over to Satan because we're sinning like crazy (1 Cor. 5:5 below) so that it's often Satan providing healing as a "lying wonder" (2 Thess. 2:9, YLT) in order to "serve the lie" (2 Thess. 2:9, NIV) and "deceive the nations" (Rev. 20:3, KJV). Then there's also the fact that not all are elect so not all will be healed during this age.

1 Corinthians 5:5, ESV You are to deliver this man to Satan for the destruction of the flesh, so that his spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord.

Even if we were to die for standing firm in the faith, He still covered us because we'll have "earned a better resurrection" (Heb. 12:35, NIV). It's the lesson from the boys and that hot oven. They said the following to the king as an expression of genuine faith:

Our God whom we serve is able to deliver us from the burning fiery furnace, and he will deliver us out of your hand, O king. But if not, be it known to you, O king, that we will not serve your gods or worship the golden image that you have set up (Dan. 3:17-18, ESV).

They were willing to get burned alive rather than dishonor Christ whereas today's born again refuse to even acknowledge the truth they themselves profess to believe. But how then will you stand up against torture?! There's NO WAY.

Becoming One in Christ

If we were to be honest, and actually submitted to one another out of reverence for Christ (Eph. 5:21), loving what He loves and hating what He hates, becoming united in Christ shouldn't take long at all. Just make a list of points of disagreement. Earnestly seek God on them and He'll speak to us about each one so that whichever way the evidence points in relation to the new covenant, that's what we decide is sound doctrine—until He shows us otherwise. The reason Christians are all over the place is because we've historically chosen our own will over what God has clearly revealed. That and the fact that as a group we've historically loved this world—Satan's world (John 12:31)—more than Him and His kingdom so that “many live as enemies of the cross of Christ” (Phil 3:18, NIV). “Anyone who chooses to be a friend of the world becomes an enemy of God” (James 4:4, NIV, my emphasis), including the born again as He's had me make clear.

Denominations: Sound or not sound? Not sound.

[Jesus prayed] that they may all be one...that the world may believe (John 17:21, ESV).

I appeal to you, brothers, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that all of you agree, and that there be no divisions among you, but that you be united in the same mind and the same judgment. For it has been reported to me by Chloe's people that there is quarreling among you, my brothers. What I mean is that each one of you says, “I follow Paul,” or “I follow Apollos,” or “I follow Cephas,” or “I follow Christ.” Is Christ divided? Was Paul crucified for you? Or were you baptized in the name of Paul? (1 Cor. 1:10-13, ESV).

Let your manner of life be worthy of the gospel of Christ, so that whether I come and see you or am absent, I may hear of you that you are standing firm in one spirit, with one mind (Phil. 1:27, ESV).

Tithing: Sound or not sound? Not sound.

Each one must give as he has decided in his heart, not reluctantly or under compulsion (2 Cor. 9:7, ESV).

Paid Leaders: Sound or not sound? Not sound.

I am the good shepherd. The good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep...[whereas] a hired hand...cares nothing for the sheep (John 10:11-13, ESV).

Christmas—The Christ Mass: Sound or not sound? Not sound. Jesus didn't tell us to celebrate His birthday. December 25 is not His birthday. And the Old Testament says the following:

Learn not the way of the nations, nor be dismayed at the signs of the heavens because the nations are dismayed at them, for the customs of the peoples are vanity. A tree from the forest is cut down and worked with an axe by the hands of a craftsman. They decorate it with silver and gold; they fasten it with hammer and nails so that it cannot move (Jer. 10:2-4, ESV).

There are loads of documentaries on it. And it's sucks up time, money, and resources which should be spent on building the Lord's kingdom. It's a HUGE DISTRACTION handed to us by Satan. And it causes more unhappiness than happiness for loads of people! "Christmas can be the most stressful time of the year, given the financial pressure and expectations to keep up with Christmas traditions. It can also trigger feelings of loss, grief, and trauma" (www.hopementalhealth.com). Yet Christians GET UP IN ARMS about it because they love Satan's trinkets and the traditions of men so that all Satan had to do to get us hooked was move one little letter around!

The Signs of the Times. Because He's made it so clear that we're nearing the end of the age and the end is terrifying according to the book of Revelation, I discern those trinkets will finally lose their appeal—for God's elect. We're not even at the worst yet and all those "wild" fires, especially in California, and that nightmare in Lahaina, among many others, clearly reveal Satan's hand. Keep dismissing Christ and you'll find yourself in such a nightmare. We might anyway but there's a BIG DIFFERENCE between going through hell on earth with or without Christ in your corner! And if you're just giving Him lip-service He's not in your corner since you've chosen to place Satan there instead.

And to refuse to believe that "our" government is capable of atrocities is to deny the Bible, deny people's testimonies, deny the evidence, and deny the lessons from history! It's Satan's government (John 12:31 & 2 Cor. 4:4) run by people with hearts that are deceitful above all things and desperately wicked (Jer. 17:9, KJV) so that no matter which nation's government, all evil, no matter how evil, is fair game and part of having been handed over to Satan for the destruction of our flesh (1 Cor. 5:5). No matter how nice your suit or expensive your house, or official your title, or clean-cut your family, or 'advanced' your nation, we're all capable of carrying out Satan's brutal schemes when not grounded in Christ. Again, all WE had to do was submit to God, resist the devil and he would have had to flee the body of Christ (James 4:7) which would have made it much harder for Satan to use God's lost elect because they would have felt ashamed. Had the body of Christ taken Jesus seriously Satan's power on earth would have been greatly diminished.

Current Street Preaching

9 The Last Generation

God never called us to debate the lost since “God will judge those outside” (1 Cor. 5:13, NIV). What’s worse is that Christians don’t present the actual vision of what God has done and, therefore, can’t answer their questions or don’t do it clearly when the foundation is pretty simple. And since “no one can come to [Jesus] unless the Father...draws him” (John 6:44, ESV), if you haven’t covered those people in prayer, and prayed without blatantly sinning against God, those people are not very likely to come to Christ so there is no point in even saying anything—much less badgering them. But I’m sure it makes Christians feel good for “doing the work of the Lord” being that we’re so deceitful and proud (Jer. 17:9).

Contrary to what most of today’s street preachers are doing, I discern this is the manner in which we’re to function:

1. Do our best to understand THE TRUTH.
2. Make sure we are “walk[ing] in the Spirit [so that we do] not fulfil the lust of the flesh” (Gal. 5:16, KJV).
3. Ask Him what the “good works” are that He “prepared” for us to do (Eph. 2:10, ESV), and He’ll give us loads of confirmation.
4. Cover ourselves, that situation, and those people in biblical prayer.
5. Do His work “with gentleness and respect” (1 Pet. 3:15, ESV).
6. Leave it in God’s hands knowing that He “will be exalted” (Ps. 46:10, KJV) at His “appointed time” (Hab. 2:3, KJV).
7. Repeat until He comes.

While I’ve repeatedly messed up on #5, if I hadn’t had to go against the born again—for so long—I would have been able to do it better. But we shouldn’t have to preach to the choir! (There shouldn’t even be a choir!)

It seems to me—which God confirmed through the biblical interpretation for Hotel California—that when the body of Christ repents we’ll have made it super easy for the last generation of elect to come to Christ because of the combination of speaking the truth, doing it in love, revealing the “simplicity that is in Christ” (2 Cor. 11:3, KJV), showing them how everything connects to what He’s saying and doing and what we’re doing and have done, along with the signs of the times. The currently lost elect will come running to Jesus who “the door” (John 10:7)—as the Spirit says in the song, they’ll be “running for the door.” The question I received yesterday sums up how off focus today’s seekers and born again are, while my answer sums up the simplicity of it all. If this person were to follow my advice they’ll get to know Jesus and know Him well.

@marvinbaker3795 1 day ago

If Satan gave the 10 commandments and the law, how do you know what sin is?

👍 🗨️ ❤️ Reply

Highlighted reply

@godisnotmocked1345 1 day ago

Scripture says “The law came through Jesus Christ” (John 10:17). We are under “the law of Christ” (Gal. 6:2). It’s easy, genuinely love God and love people (Mark 12:30-31). Don’t purposely do anything that dishonors Jesus—so “we take captive every thought to make it obedient to Christ” (2 Cor. 10:5), to His teaching, the words in red—and don’t purposely hurt or dishonor others. Don’t lie. Don’t steal. Don’t be abusive, physically or psychologically...in short, be nice. And when you’re not, and we’re often not, ask God’s forgiveness and the forgiveness of those you hurt, and He is faithful to forgive us and cleanse us from all unrighteousness (1 John 1:9). That’s what the Bible calls “the simplicity that is in Christ” (2 Cor. 11:3). Make sure you’re born again (Acts 5:32) and then follow the golden rule “Whatever you wish that others would do to you, do also to them” (Matt. 7:12). And to make sure you stay on track, keep reading the Bible cover to cover for the rest of your life while taking your thoughts captive to Christ.

No man,
Having put his hand to the plough,
And looking back,
Is fit for the kingdom of God.
Luke 9:62

The Fragrance of Christ. The night before last I watched Facing the Giants (2006) again. And as I was prayer walking yesterday the following passage struck a chord, connecting to the movie. “Christ...through us spreads the fragrance of the knowledge of him everywhere” (2 Cor. 2:14, ESV). Except right now the body of Christ is wafting the smell of that dead rat in the movie stinking up their house since we’re behaving like rats preaching death. But when we repent we’ll spread the fragrance of the knowledge of Christ everywhere so that the lost elect will be drawn to Him like the smell of great food cooking—and He’s the “food” (John 6:55, ESV). Years ago He even gave me a full interpretation revealing the body as rats, Ratatouille (2007). The whole thing is about a “peculiar” (Titus 2:14, KJV) rat who rescues the special book, the cookbook, and is taught through the dead man who wrote the Book—the Spirit of the Man—how to cook, and cook better than anyone so that the “real” cooks finally realize they’ve been outrageous hypocrites and start cooking again at the Michelin level.

Wash yourselves;
make yourselves clean...
cease to do evil.
Isaiah 1:16, ESV

The Evidence

Jesus fulfilled 351 Old Testament prophecies and Peter Stoner calculated that the odds of one person fulfilling just 8 of them makes it a no-brainer that Jesus is the only One who actually represents God, and other math geeks verified his findings. Either people will receive that information or not. Next. There's NO POINT in debating with someone who's not interested in overwhelming evidence! The Statistical Probability of Jesus Fulfilling the Messianic Prophecies – Theology for the People \(nickcady.org\)

The Lord is One, Father and Son

It's pretty clear that the Father split like a cell and they're "one" (John 12:31, ESV) in mind and Spirit.

The Trinity. Most Christians have historically been parroting information they've heard so that it's just kept repeating and repeating as if it's true when if you actually take your thoughts captive to Christ you see it doesn't line up! Then when you share this information with them, since it's not part of their parrot repertoire, they reject the truth! But the idea that there are three persons that make up the trinity is pagan doctrine. You don't find it in the Bible. And it doesn't make sense. This is what I mean. The Father has a throne. Jesus has a throne. And those who conquer will share Jesus' throne (Rev 3:21 below). Even Satan, "king" over fallen angels (Rev. 9:11 below), currently has a throne (Rev. 2:13 below). But the Spirit doesn't have a throne. What? God has used the so-called person of the Holy Spirit for these 6000 years, especially the last 2000, and then He's going to completely ignore Him?! I think not. I think there's God, the Father. There's God, the Son. And there's God the Holy Spirit, how humans have mostly dealt with God during this present evil age—both before and after Jesus walked the earth. The Holy Spirit isn't another person but His essence and power. When I communicate with God, either Father or Son, I'm communicating with His Spirit—I'm walking in the Spirit—"the Spirit himself bears witness with [my] spirit" (Rom. 8:16, ESV) so that I don't usually even view them as different entities since it's as Jesus says "I and my Father are one" (John 10:30, ESV). Sometimes when I pray I say Father, sometimes Lord, but either way I'm talking to God.

Revelation 3:21, ESV He one who conquers, I will grant him to sit with me on my throne, as I also conquered and sat down with my Father on his throne.

Revelation 9:11, NIV They had as king over them the angel of the Abyss, whose name in Hebrew is Abaddon and in Greek is Apollyon (that is, Destroyer).

Revelation 2:13, ESV I know where you dwell, where Satan's throne is.

After the rapture I'll see the Father as somewhat apart from Christ since I'll be seeing Jesus with my own eyes, "Emmanuel...with us" (Matt. 1:23, KJV), and still not see the Father—pretty sure that's how it'll be. But I'll still have no doubt that "the Son is the radiance of God's glory and the exact representation of his being" (Heb. 1:3, NIV) and His Spirit will still be ever present all the time since it's as we've been informed in the following passage:

Where shall I go from your Spirit? Or where shall I flee from your presence? If I ascend to heaven, you are there! If I make my bed in Sheol, you are there! If I take the wings of the morning and dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea, even there your hand shall lead me, and your right hand shall hold me. If I say, "Surely the darkness shall cover me, and the light about me be night," even the darkness is not dark to you; the night is bright as the day, for darkness is as light with you (Ps. 139:7-12, ESV).

No matter where we go God's Spirit has always been there and will always be there. This truth is NEVER going to change. He calls Himself Father because that's how He views Himself, and having split the one time, Jesus is His "beloved Son" (Matt. 3:17, ESV), and since "He obtained [us] with his own blood" (Acts 20:28, ESV) we're His "adopt[ed]...children" (Eph. 1:5, KJV) who He has been communicating with during the "present evil age" (Gal. 1:4, YLT) through His Spirit— with the exception of those 33 years when He spoke in person.

And it doesn't require much research to get at the root source of the trinity doctrine since plenty have already done it for us, as with this example: The History of How the Trinity Doctrine Came Into Christianity by Paul Thomas \(youtube.com\). It's a matter of choosing to admit that we've been deceived. And since lies come from Satan, the murderer (John 8:44), it's a no-brainer as to what we should choose. The trinity is not only another beam in your eye (Matt. 7:5) it's a used tampon! (Isa. 30:22 below). CHUCK IT!

Isaiah 30:22, NIV You will...throw them away like a menstrual cloth and say to them, "Away with you!"

Mary, the Surrogate

Reading up on surrogacy—as with the boxed text—it’s clear that the Father placed Jesus/the Son’s Spirit in Mary just like doctors do with in vitro fertilization so that she was His surrogate mother who also raised Him. While generations before us couldn’t grasp it, our generation should have zero problem with it. If we can do it, it’s a no-brainer that God Almighty can too! He’s the reason we can do it.

In gestation surrogacy, the child is not biologically related to the surrogate mother, who is often referred to as a gestational carrier. Instead, the embryo is created via in vitro fertilization (IVF)...Gestational surrogates...are not “blood” relatives to the babies they carry—they have no biological connection...only oxygen and nutrients are passed to the baby from the pregnant woman through the umbilical cord (from www.surrogate.com).

It’s a miracle!

It’s a miracle!

From BRAT to BEAUTY from a WHORE

An Easy A

While the last generation has it the hardest of all since “there will be great tribulation, such as has not been from the beginning of the world until now, no, and never will be” (Matt. 24:21, ESV) the Lord has—at the same time—made it easiest for us (for those who’ll take Him seriously) to get through it successfully. Again, between the simple text, biblical interpretations (like the summary of the one on the next page, helpful if you’ve seen the movie) and graphics, this last group of elect on earth will quickly get even more empowered than John Hus who “sang a hymn so loud and cheerful [while burning alive] that he could be heard above the crackling of the burning sticks and the noise of the crowd watching him burn” (The New Foxe’s Book of Martyrs, 2001, p. 84). This generation will be even more empowered than Hus since he only had a surface level grasp of the truth. I discern God left the full vision for us. Of course, they would have had it had they actually fully obeyed Christ. But 2000 years ago Paul lamented “You no longer try to understand” (Heb. 5:11, NIV) and we’ve been trying less and less ever since, as I’ve made clear.

Even Paul wasn’t engaging his brain on a pretty basic level since Jesus said “Love your enemies” (Matt. 5:44, ESV) and Paul wrote “If anyone does not love the Lord, let that person be cursed!” (1 Cor. 16:22, NIV) and also wrote “Bless and do not curse them” (Rom 12:14, ESV). It’s time we actually did what Jesus said and modeled for us throughout His life, especially on the Cross. And just think of the difference it would have made had Matthew 12:43-45 been taught biblically, about the first and last state of a person. Most born again wouldn’t have dared to be unfaithful! Maybe (Jer. 17:9)—not.

Summary of my biblical interpretation for the movie Edge of Tomorrow (2014).

In the movie, reflecting real life, it took the lead character FOREVER to get through to his peers.

TO VICTORY!

Reach unity... become mature.
Eph. 4:13

I WANT YOU TO JOIN THE UNITED DEFENSE FORCE

Wake up!
Rev. 3:2

Always being given over to death.
2 Cor. 4:11, NIV

You're a weapon!

I'm not a soldier!

As you will.
Matt. 26:39

Deceitful Workers

Judgment must begin.
1 Peter 4:17

I strike a blow to my body and make it my slave.
1 Corinthians 9:27

Angels of the Bottomless Pit

Come find me when you wake up.

No way I'm fighting that beast!

Terrific presentation! Really.

So dull! Matt. 15:16

You were bought at a price. Therefore honor God.
1 Cor. 6:20

LIVE. DIE. REPEAT

Trust and obey.

10 The Lord's Return

Sooner or later the body of Christ will work together against our common enemy rather than against each other helping our enemy. And according to those 54 prophecies along with the signs of the times we'll get it together sooner rather than later. And it's about time!

The Timing of the Rapture

Most have bought the lie that the Church gets raptured before the "great tribulation" (Matt. 24:21, ESV). But God is not going to bless this group of severely unfaithful born again Christians by beaming us up outta here (1 Thess. 4:16-17 below) while leaving those who we were supposed to have helped to suffer brutally. If anyone deserves great tribulation it's today's generation of born again Christians! Rather than leave His sheep to suffer brutally because of His other sheep's unfaithfulness, I discern we get to go through these trials, with the exception of the last half hour (Rev. 11:11-13 & 8:1 in the graphic), present so that we can HELP others get through the trials as He uses them to draw those people to the Truth, Jesus Christ.

1 Thessalonians 4:16-17, ESV The Lord himself will descend from heaven with a cry of command...And the dead in Christ will rise first. Then we who are alive, who are left.

As noted previously, a half an hour on earth and in heaven may not be equal but like in time travel movies since God stands outside of time. And the IMPORTANT POINT is not the timing of the rapture but that only those who get right with Him will get through the trials victoriously since “the one who endures to the end will be saved” (Matt. 10:22, ESV).

Our Hiding Place. We’ve been told that “the woman fled into the wilderness, where she has a place prepared by God, in which she is to be nourished for 1,260 days [or 3½ years]” (Rev. 12:6, ESV). The woman is the Bride of Christ/the Church/the born again (Eph. 5:25). She’ll have the discernment to go to that place prepared for Her by God since She’ll have “made herself ready” (Rev. 19:7, ESV) by finally having repented and fulfilled her calling to “make disciples” (Matt. 28:19, ESV).

And I discern that “place” isn’t a literal place but the place where miracles happen, the place of faith. A good example is the scene in The Hiding Place (1975) based on Corrie Ten Boom’s family during World War II. It’s at 1:29:00 on the following video The Hiding Place | A Billy Graham Film \(youtube.com\). Entering the concentration camp and wanting to smuggle in a New Testament, they prayed, hid it under her dress, and God coordinated things in a way that she slipped right past the guards without anyone frisking her since God is faithful. Their New Testament was hidden in plain sight as God played Satan’s game right back at him—the game of predictive programming as he did for 9/11.

Born again Christians were made aware that there's a real conspiracy going on so that "our struggle is...against the forces of evil in the heavenly realms" (Eph. 6:12, NIV) and that the victory over this conspiracy is only gained through Christ. It's a spiritual war led by Satan who uses people, everyone who's not a follower of Christ. That's the majority. Are these people purposely working with Satan? My guess is less than 1% of them. The rest are just blindly doing their jobs with a broken moral compass.

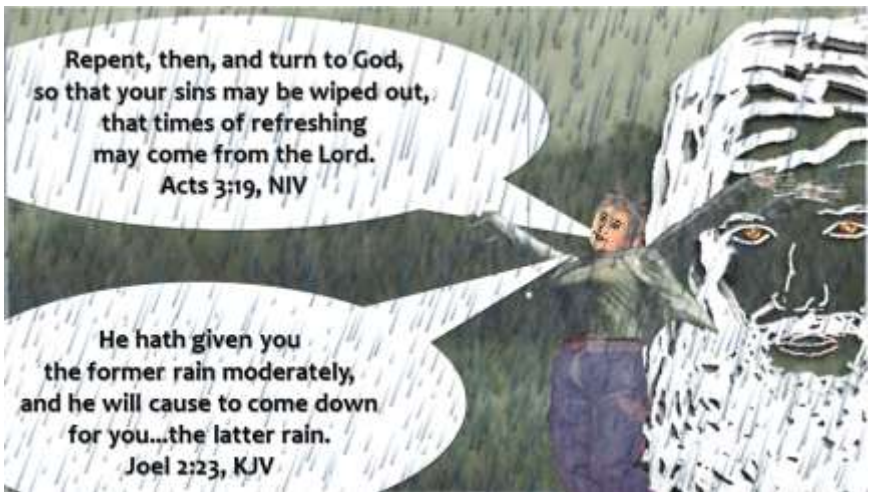

That "place" of hiding is also where God helped and protected the faithful in the Old Testament as with the following two examples:

The ravens brought him bread and meat in the morning, and bread and meat in the evening, and he drank from the brook (1 Kings 17:6, ESV).

Shut the door behind you and your sons. Pour oil into all the jars, and as each is filled, put it to one side...pay your debts. You and your sons can live on what is left (1 Kings 4:3-7 ESV).

New Testament examples include Peter's release from prison (Acts 12:6-11); Paul's healing when he should have died (Acts 14:19-20); Phillip caught up to Azotus (Acts 8:26-40); Paul saved from the snake bite (Acts 28:3-6) and so on.

The Latter Rain

So what do I discern God has been requiring from everyone He's had me reach out to over the past two and a half decades? To do what we were told to do in the first place and “submit to one another out of reverence for Christ” (Eph. 5:21, NIV). If we did that we'd be able to come to unity in Christ. Again, addressing each point of disagreement, humbly and prayerfully taking our thoughts captive to Christ (2 Cor. 10:5), being HONEST, asking Him for direction and wisdom (James 1:5), repenting as needed (Matt. 3:8), He'll enlighten and unite us, and build among us a genuine Christian fellowship—a group of people who are actually loving so that the lost elect will start to think Maybe there is some truth to this Jesus thing! After all, “by this all people will know that [we] are [His] disciples, if [we] have love for one another” (John 13:35, ESV, my emphasis).

Consider the following passage:

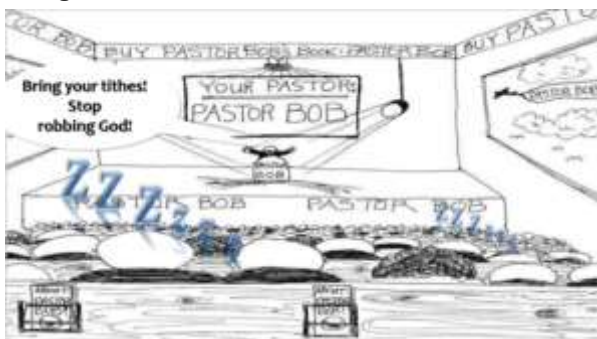

In your hearts honor Christ the Lord as holy, always being prepared to make a defense to anyone who asks you for a reason for the hope that is in you (1 Pet. 3:15, ESV).

How many times a month do people approach you asking about the reason for the hope that is in you?! How many times a year?! How many times in your Christian life? Most born again Christians would have to admit NEVER!

The First Disciples Were Highly Empowered by God Because they Obeyed Him as Individuals and as a Group FOR THE MOST PART

- They spoke in languages they hadn't studied (Acts 2:4-6);
- They healed the sick (Acts 3:2-7);
- They raised the dead (Acts 9:37-41);
- They drove out demons (Acts 16:16-18);
- They witnessed boldly (Acts 4:4);
- They prayed for their attackers as they killed them (Acts 7:58-60);
- They enlightened thousands at a time (Acts 7:58-60);
- Their shadows provided healing (Acts 5:14-16);
- Unbelievers admired them (Acts 2:47);
- They beamed around like in Star Trek (Acts 8:39-40);
- They were full of wisdom (Acts 6:3);
- They were full of generosity (Acts 4:34-35); and,
- They were full of joy (Acts 2:46).

Being biblical Christians, we'd breed more than just another generation of born again hypocrites. In turn, God would empower us with the "latter rain" (Joel 2:23, ESV), an outpouring greater than the first rain described in Acts—which was amazing. I discern the latter rain outpouring will be greater because those "plants" were seedlings and we've had 2000 years in which to grow. Right now the body of Christ is like my melon plants two weeks or so before they're ready for harvest. At that point you don't yet get that amazing aroma of "the fragrance of the knowledge of him everywhere" (2 Cor. 2:14, ESV) but they are near the end of their growth period. While we've been seriously unbiblical over the past 2000 years, we've still had the completed Word of God along with 2000 years of Bible study unlike those young 'plants' 2000 years ago. While a load of it has been wrong, much of it has been right. And the revelations the Lord has given me or has had me pull together in one place, especially the biblical interpretations, will help His people see things more clearly and get excited about Him since today's body of Christ is hardly excited about Him AT ALL! That's the problem with practicing religion. It's BORING! They're just repeating the same lies over and over again week after week! There's NOTHING exciting about that!

Making the Most Out of the Worst. One of the beauties of Christ is that He's taken ALL of our "dung" (Phil. 3:8, KJV) and is using it for His purposes—His glory and our good (Eph. 1:11). And not just for the good of the body of Christ but the good of ALL of humanity. At least when it's all been said and done, that's how it will have worked out since it's as He says—so unlike what blind Christians teach—"I am making everything new!" (Rev. 21:5, NIV). What He's doing/has done is like the gardening videos I watch where people do all sorts of experiments to get the most produce out of their land—or buckets. Well, as "the gardener" (John 15:1, NIV), He's got it figured out hands down. As the body of Christ publically repents the Lord will be able to use our wicked deeds to "dig around [this diseased tree] and put on [it our] manure" (Luke 3:8, ESV) so that we finally produce good fruit.

Wake up!
Revelation 3:2, NIV

[Y]our struggle is not against flesh and blood
But...against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly realms.
Ephesians 6:12, NIV

Financial Power

Military Power

Spiritual Power

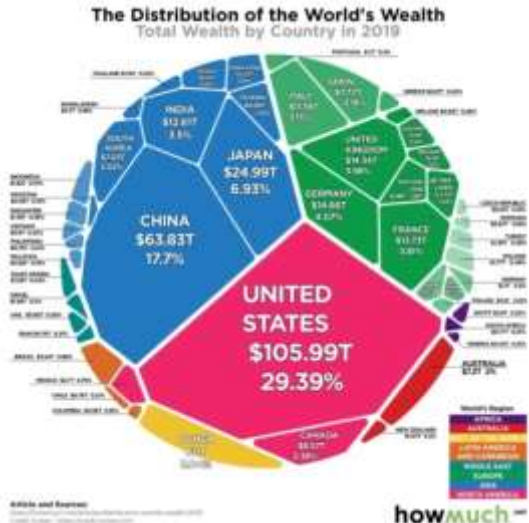

Satan's Most Important Strongholds

Satan's Strongholds

This graphic reveals Satan's biggest strongholds in the world. And I discern the DC metro area is Satan's most important stronghold because of the following three factors:

1. According to the web the U.S. is still the only superpower;
2. We've been "the land of opportunity;"
3. We've been "the melting pot."

While Americans are massive whiners, we're wealthier than most, and among those with the most opportunities. And as the world's melting pot this nation is made up of people from all over the world, unlike most other countries which are mostly natives of that area, as with China and Japan. Therefore, when the latter rain finally gets going, all these people with international ties will rapidly spread the Word worldwide. The latter rain downpour will spread rapidly worldwide for other reasons as well.

Brought to DC for a Purpose. God’s hand has been all over our connection with the Marshalls. None of us were from this area and “the heart of man plans his way, but the LORD establishes his steps” (Prov. 16:9, ESV). So Reggie and I moved here while in high school and we met the Marshalls when we were in grad housing. God used a mutual Black engineering professor to send them to our apartment. Then God moved us to Indianapolis. But we’d been at Eagle a few months—a year into the move—when we realized it had been God and not us who had moved us there. Then He moved them there. That’s when we got to know each other. Then He moved us one house over from them, again, not planned by us. None of it was planned by us. As for the house, Angela invited me to her neighbor’s party. I made one comment, was grabbed by the hand and given the house tour. Next thing you know we signed papers. Then He moved them back here. Then He moved us back here 20 minutes from them even though I’d looked for a house in counties closer to Reggie’s job. (This was an hour and a half commute each way—but better for a mixed couple.) So for nearly 30 years we’ve always been within a half hour drive and twice as close as a one minute walk of each other and mostly NOT connected due to the rebellion. As with everything and everyone else, we’ve been wasting all of our God-given potential.

All things considered—many details don’t know—it’s easy for me to see that God wants to use the Marshalls for His purposes, which is why He brought us all to the DC metro area, repeatedly connected us, and has had me continue to reach out to them besides praying for them. So while they’re now divorced when Jesus says “What therefore God has joined together, let not man separate” (Matt. 19:6, ESV), if God convicts them, they’ll be able to work through that and God will use it to minister to others since so many born again Christians have gotten divorced. Again, He’ll make good use of all of our sins since that’s His specialty (Eph. 1:11).

Spreading the Word: While there is nearly no time left due to our rebellion, if they could spread the Gospel message so far and so fast back then without any technology, we can surely do what needs doing with it and do it much faster. Videos go viral overnight when there’s interest.

Leaders for Such a Time as This. Unlike André and Angela, neither Reggie or I have the type of personalities leaders during such a time need. And which you and LeAnne also have. I’m more like Moses when he said “I am not eloquent...but...slow of speech” (Ex. 4:10, ESV) so that he was given Aaron as his spokesperson who could speak well publicly (Ex. 4:14, ESV). Maybe Reggie can speak well publicly. I have no idea. But I sure can’t! I’m like a deer in headlights. It’s the reason I read my testimony at my baptism and read the eulogy at the Marshall’s baby’s funeral service, which I’m pretty sure you attended.

In fact, if Christians with influence and funds within the body of Christ were actually awake, they would have made it their mission to build up a strong base for the Lord here. It’s like the body of Christ is oblivious that we’re in a brutal spiritual war with “the forces of evil in the heavenly realms” (Eph. 6:12, NIV) out to “devour” us (1 Pet. 5:8, ESV). (That’s part of the reason He allowed the demonic activity in my face the second I became born again. I’ve KNOWN from the second I became born again that we’re in a brutal spiritual warzone, and on the Frontline.) And there is nothing here resembling biblical Christianity, which is part of the reason the Lord moved us to Indianapolis. If James says otherwise, that’s because he’s OK joining hands with Jesuits. And those like George Barna who are respected by the body of Christ (the exact opposite of what I am) peddle the word for profit which we’re not supposed to be doing (2 Cor. 2:17). Again, God has worked it all out for His purposes (Eph. 1:11) and it will work out for our good when we actually submit to Him since that will make Satan HAVE to “flee” (James 4:7, ESV)—at least long enough for the Lord to bring in the rest of the harvest, the bulk of the harvest.

Key Players

Christians are so brainwashed they think just like the world, looking at the outside appearance of money, titles, and power, as if that's the stuff God mainly uses when it's the exact opposite as we were informed in this passage, for example:

God chose what is foolish in the world to shame the wise; God chose what is weak in the world to shame the strong; God chose what is low and despised in the world, even things that are not, to bring to nothing things that are, so that no human being might boast in the presence of God (1 Cor. 1:27-29, ESV).

I clearly qualify as the foolish, weak, despised, nothing of the world. And I discern He'll use the rest—even though you've all made something of yourselves in this world—as a measure of humiliation and because it's what He does “works out everything in conformity with the purpose of his will” (Eph. 1:11, NIV). Choose your own will or God's, He's “not mocked” (Gal. 6:7, ESV). His “counsel shall stand, and [He] will accomplish all [His] purpose” (Isa. 46:10, ESV). It just won't work out terribly well for all who refuse to be putty in the hands of the Master. For all I know, you'll all still refuse to work with Him and I'll die before seeing His “appointed time” (Hab. 2:3, KJV). But I'm picturing the best case scenario for you all. As for me, it would be to drop dead ASAP.

The Marshalls. Again, like the norm, both Angela and André have refused to acknowledge me when the Lord has had me reach out to them even though they had me give the eulogy at their baby's funeral. God's hand on that was so obvious several people literally ran after me to praise God when I'd left the church, as Jenny Hoover witnessed. Again, I'm thinking you attended that service. I'd read a four page poem I'd written based on my prayer journal since I'd been praying for Angela and the baby from his conception through the trials and up to his death—so it was a combination of our prayers and the Lord's answers. And He's kept me praying for André and Angela off and on ever since (along with the rest of the body of Christ, especially in the U.S.)—against my will.

For example, it must have been two years ago that the Lord had me prayer walking the neighborhood for some lost souls who He wanted me to reach out to, professing Christians in an LGBT church. Sick of this extremely sedentary life, He put it in my head to download a PDF of the New Testament to my tablet and get a shoulder strap so I could easily bring it along and not worry about dropping it, with much bigger print than my phone since it's hard to read while you're walking and trying to do it at a decent pace. So while out walking I read the Scriptures, this time out loud, and then prayed each passage while recording it in order to make a playlist. Recording it helped me do it and one day that playlist might help somebody. If nothing else it can help convict you since you can hear that I do actually pray God's Word and not like most who say "I'm praying for you" but never actually pray. They admit it.

And God says "So shall my word be that goes out from my mouth; it shall not return to me empty, but it shall accomplish that which I purpose, and shall succeed in the thing for which I sent it" (Isa. 55:11, ESV). All I need to do is obey, which I'm doing, and He'll do what He wants with it when He wants and how He wants.

While I was praying during that season focused on this neighborhood and those fake LGBT Christians, Angela kept coming into my prayers, which was against my will because I AM SICK OF BORN AGAIN CHRISTIANS, especially those who were once friends since they refuse to even acknowledge that I've contacted them. Or else behave like Randa. It's bad enough if a born again Christian who doesn't know you at all does it, but these guys?! So while I'm sick of them, Jesus "lives to make intercession for them" (Heb. 7:25, ESV) and, therefore, has kept invading my space. Unlike us He's faithful no matter how disgustingly unfaithful and evil we are! Who knew?

Oh, wait a minute, EVERY born again Christian knows it.

Maybe my vision for the Marshall's is what could have been. God knows. The fact is that it's really hard for me to see any of you repenting at this point, much less running with the vision and running as fast as is needed if those 54 prophecies are correct about 2030! But, if I factor in God and His abilities...miracles can happen. No doubt about that. One day the "whorish woman" (Jer. 3:3, YLT) will stop putting out the fire of God and instead fan it into flame (2 Tim. 1:16) and get a massive fire going. Again, He prophesied about it with Ratatouille (2007) when they "brought their books together, and burned them before all" (Acts 19:19, KJV). The body of Christ will 'burn' all things in their lives that dishonor Jesus.

The Bartas. The Lord put it in my head to start doing that same kind of prayer walk focused on you. If you want proof that I've been doing this, or hear how I've been praying for you, you can get to my channel by going to YouTube and typing in God is not mocked @1345 and it'll come up. The playlist is Prayer Walking for Help broken down by chapters and I started praying for you while in 1 Corinthians 12. Or else go through my website www.notmocked.com. If you're serious about the Lord you should at some point listen to some of that playlist since it should empower you and you can also add your amen. Or not.

When the Lord brought you to mind as one to reach out to with a book, it's not like I was thinking "That makes so much sense! Allen's such a humble guy!" I remember you as nice guy, but not exactly humble. In fact, I once asked Reggie if I was right in thinking you were kind of proud, and his response was something like "Well, yeah!" Maybe old age has humbled you. That'd be good. (I doubt it!) I'm guessing you're even more proud than before since that's how it seems to go in general. Even so, God knows what He's doing. Maybe He's doing a Saul Paul thing. Well, He's definitely doing that with the body of Christ as a whole—removing the scales from you eyes (Acts 9:18).

And I'm begging Him to do way more than I can imagine since He "is able to do far more abundantly than all that we ask or think, according to the power at work within us" (Eph. 5:21, ESV). Today's Christian are so clueless, even embarrassed by prayer.

For example, when the Lord led us to Crossroads in Indianapolis and called me to walk the halls of that church and Bible college praying His Word for them Reggie was embarrassed by it. Having agreed to meet with Charles Ware the only thing I remember him saying was “What do we do with someone like her?” as if I have The Cooties! And Ware’s response was typical, Let’s gaslight her!

The Williamses. No, we don’t need marriage counseling. What we need is Christians to repent. And Reggie won’t until others do since that’s how it works. “A prophet is not without honor except in his hometown and in his own household” (Matt. 13:57, ESV). Jesus’ own family didn’t believe in Him until after his death and resurrection (Gal. 1:19). “Not even his brothers believed in him” (John 7:5, ESV). I understand what God has done, given me the best man for the job. Again He’s worked Satan’s schemes and our sins into His plan for His glory and our good (Eph. 1:11). Glory to God!

Reggie’s Faith: While minimal it’s been enough that he has not divorced me, financially provides for me, helps me with other things when I ask for help or even if I don’t, and he funds my ministry, even though he doesn’t believe in it. But, he had enough faith to not send the girls to any of these so-called Christian colleges having seen what goes on there when we researched them, not that it turned out any better sending them to secular schools.

Well, maybe it was better for them to stop calling themselves Christian rather than call themselves Christian and be hypocritical about it. Either way it’s bad. God knows which one is actually worse. He also knows I’m tired of thinking about all of it!

And had I married any of the other men in my life who'd wanted to get married or had been "serious," we'd be divorced and there would be no ministry. No doubt! As for Reggie, it's like how God placed the Sun at just the right distance from us so that we don't burn or freeze. If Reggie was more to the left, he would have divorced me. If more to the right, I probably would have justified it in my mind like Christians do, and divorced him.

Our Wedding and The Vow: If you're typical you'll see this as me being delusional. If you're taking God seriously you'll see it as confirmation. Since Reggie's dad was a so-called pastor we asked him to marry us so that he gave me a little book of Scriptures and poems out of which to pick a reading. We didn't make vows to each other. That was it. About a decade later I realized God had given me the passage as His vow concerning this ministry.

*God be merciful unto us, and bless us;
and cause his face to shine upon us;
That thy way may be known upon earth, thy saving health among all nations.
Let the people praise thee, O God;
let all the people praise thee.
O let the nations be glad and sing for joy:
for thou shalt judge the people righteously, and govern the nations upon earth.
Let the people praise thee, O God;
let all the people praise thee.
Then shall the earth yield her increase;
and God, even our own God, shall bless us.*

God shall bless us; and all the ends of the earth shall fear him.

Psalm 67, KJV

Part of it will be fulfilled during this age as He brings about the "downpour" of the "latter rain" (Joel 2:23 YLT & KJV). The rest will be fulfilled during the next age, which is just around the corner.

Reggie's Apathy: It's made me become a biblically strong woman whom He'll be using to build up biblically strong men and women. Reggie's been His tool to use on me to use on you all (Eph. 1:11). Ironically, it's mellowed me out because I was extremely hot tempered. Reggie has NO temper. In the 43 that I've know him, I've NEVER seen him mad. So getting mad it him is pointless. It's like fuming at a baby! You just don't do that. Again, God has taken Satan's schemes and our sins and turned them around for the good of all like He did in Joseph's day, "for the saving of many lives" (Gen. 50:20, NIV). Even when Reggie's expressed interest in the things of God, when we lived in Indiana for a short season, he was never passionate about it. His lack of emotion has enabled us to remain together and be not only civil but like college housemates. We help each other here and there but live separate lives. We don't even eat together. But there's no hostility. Only exasperation, on my part when I've had enough and, at the same time, took my eyes off Christ.

Knowing I'm never going to get through to him I finally stopped trying. Sometimes I'll share stuff with him knowing that even if he is interested, it'll go in one ear and out the other like a man who looks in the mirror and immediately forgets what he looks like (James 1:23-24)—as it is with the rest. But sometimes you just need to talk to someone about stuff that actually matters because the most conversation I've been getting for years is chit chat either at home or like with a cashier at the store. Neither long or deep!

The exception with Reggie was in late January when I realized Angela was yet another dead end. Since the Lord had brought me full circle with those at Eagle not too long ago and had me reach out to the lost LGBT neighbors, I tested the waters with Reggie thinking that maybe it's not going to play out like in Scripture. I actually dared to have a little hope—and it blew up in my face! (That's when the Lord put it in my head to make those rebounder playlists with praise music and CRANK IT UP REALLY LOUD.) If Reggie was volatile like my unsaved brother, who once said "You're allowed to speak but YOU CAN ONLY SAY ONE SENTENCE!" or like some of the Christian men on my path who echo the same Nazi mentality, we would have divorced. No question. And, therefore, no ministry. So, Way to Go, Jesus! You're my real "husband" (Isa. 54:5, ESV). I get it. Your love never fails. You're love is real.

And that's another thing Bill had said, "You're like God's #1 Cheerleader!" He had that right. While I'd like nothing better than to blow my own brains out, I still keep banging away at this thing.

The meaning of Reginald is "King". The name is derived from the Latin Reginaldus, which has been influenced by the Latin word regina, meaning "queen". This Latin name is a Latinisation of a Germanic language name.

Pet form(s): Reggle

<https://en.wikipedia.org/> ⓘ

Reginald - Wikipedia

Reggie's Name: It's hard not to see God's hand in it. And it's the same with his middle name, his skin tone, his nature... And the Lord loves to play around, like how Reggie used to be, still sometimes today. And as newlyweds he bought me a cabbage patch doll whose name turned out to be Regina (Eph. 1:11). Since you 'adopt' them, you don't find out their name until you open the box.

A Match Made in Heaven: Ours is a real “match made in heaven.” When Reggie first asked me to marry him from across the factory room where we were working I panicked and pretended I hadn’t noticed! But he kept asking and as soon as I became born again the Lord gave me a vision making it crystal clear that he was the one I was supposed to marry—so that’s what I did. And it’s a Hosea rerun. As everyone knows, history is always repeating itself. Well, its His Story and He loves reruns since we’re so hard headed and hard hearted (Jer. 17:9).

Those Eagleites. It’s obvious that God aims to use all those Eagleites I’ve mentioned whether they finally decide to work with Him or not (Eph. 1:11). And He’s clearly been using this eagle in line with Eagle’s signature Scripture (at least it was back then).

11 Prayer

If the Father was going to answer anyone's prayers concerning the Church Jesus is building (Matt. 16:18), it would be the Lord's prayer for us to be "one" (John 17:21, ESV), His High Priestly Prayer, a prayer for maturity in Christ. Yet He still hasn't answered it 2000 years later! In other words, we should have been on our faces asking Him why, after all we read the following:

Let us leave the elementary doctrine of Christ and go on to maturity...And this we will do if God permits (Heb. 6:1-3, ESV).

God has not permitted this growth and the short answer as to why He hasn't is that "God does not listen to sinners" (John 9:31, ESV). Jesus says "Whatever you ask in my name, this I will do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son. If you ask me anything in my name, I will do it" (John 14:13-14, ESV). Praying in Jesus' name obviously doesn't just mean saying His name at the end of a prayer! It's praying in obedience to Him honoring His name. Honor His name as a group, the body, at least a decent number of us, and the Father will answer His prayer to make us one, sending the latter rain to give us "on earth as it is in heaven" (Matt. 6:10, ESV).

But since we've wasted just about all of our allotted time, it'll only last a couple years literally before the next phase kicks in of "great tribulation" (Matt. 24:21, ESV). Yet we'll still get on earth as in heaven during the next age. Had we obeyed Him, could we have had it for the last 2000 years? Or been raptured sooner? God knows. I doubt it. I think God foresaw EVERYTHING before it happened and IMMEDIATELY worked it all out—and our brains can't even begin to handle that kind of intelligence since we can't even handle "sin no more" (John 8:11, ESV)!

A Prophetic Word

The Lord had a teaching for me when we were living in the house in Indiana where the lady on TV said something about how prayer was only part the equation. People still have to CHOOSE to DO the right thing.

And the best example is with Peter. Jesus, who was God in the flesh, prayed for him telling Peter the following—warning him:

Simon, Simon, behold, Satan demanded to have you, that he might sift you like wheat, but I have prayed for you that your faith may not fail. And when you have turned again, strengthen your brothers (Luke 22:31-32, ESV).

Prayed for by none other than Jesus Himself that his faith wouldn't fail, Peter's faith still failed! Even when he came back around, he still fell again, as with the Ananias and Sapphira muck up. But, he did eventually strengthen his brothers. No matter how righteous the person praying—and it doesn't get any more righteous than Jesus—the person being prayed for still has a huge responsibility to stand firm in their faith.

Yet listen to the comments people make, or scroll down the comments on Christian YouTube videos, and it's as if Christians think other people praying for them is all they need and like magic everything will work out. NO! Prayer just helps. God only knows how bad it would be without godly prayer! And in Peter's case, Annanias and Sapphira died because he failed to do the right thing. What's even worse, for TWO THOUSAND YEARS the body of Christ has been fooled that God wanted them dead!

Prayer Journal Entry. The Lord had me start praying for you while in 1 Corinthians 12 but then immediately moved me to pray for you while out walking (or while on the rebounder). And whenever He places someone in mind to reach out to and pray for, He has me thinking about that person and praying for them 24/7 practically. It's an obsession. What many call a burden. An obsessive burden. SUPER annoying! Yet it's also encouraging since "I am sure of this, that he who began a good work in you will bring it to completion at the day of Jesus Christ" (Phil. 1:6, ESV). Sooner or later, one way or another, "It is finished" (John 19:30, ESV).

12 Now ^(A)concerning^[a] spiritual gifts,^[b] brothers,^[c] I do not want you to be uninformed.

Father, You called me to reach out to Allen so that he would not be uninformed. Please, let him be the one who takes You seriously. Give him eyes to see that I am walking in the spiritual gifts You have given me, and not delusional or otherwise deranged as I get accused. Convict him to be honest and honor the Truth.

²You know that (B)when you were pagans (C)you were led astray to (D)mute idols, however you were led.

Convict him to be honest about Pagan Christianity and to come out of that system. Remind him that as the head of his home he holds great power and influence not only over his family but over everyone within the ripple effect of each of those people. Remind him that You have given the men the leading role within the body of Christ not as an honor but as a responsibility. Have him live up to his given name and bring harmony and peace to the body of Christ and, through us, to this world in order that You may gather the rest of Your harvest.

³Therefore I want you to understand that (E)no one speaking in the Spirit of God ever says “Jesus is (E)accused!” and (G)no one can say “Jesus is Lord” except in the Holy Spirit.

Convict Allen that I can't be both a false prophet and a true prophet. However, we have all been false teachers. Use Allen, who I remember as being arrogant, to be the one who humbles himself before You like no one You've had me reach out to has done. Please, let it now be Your appointed time. Allow the body of Christ to mature so that we're no longer offended by the truth, no longer self centered but Christ centered.

⁴Now (H)there are varieties of gifts, but (I)the same Spirit; ⁵and (J)there are varieties of service, but (K)the same Lord; ⁶and there are varieties of activities, but it is (L)the same God who empowers them all in everyone.

Convict Allen that there is One Spirit, One Lord, One body of Christ. Christians don't seem to get that! Deliver us from Satan's grip. Forgive us for being SO unfaithful! Remember that we are dust. We OBVIOUSLY don't know what we're doing. Give Allen the wisdom to ask You for wisdom and to listen to what YOU are saying. Convict him to address it with me in a biblical manner so that we can submit to one another out of reverence for Christ and stop being hypocrites since that causes Your children so much damage.

⁷ (M) To each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good.

Please, let Allen acknowledge that I've been working all these years for the common good; not only the good of the body of Christ but of the lost elect—for Your glory. Let him be shocked by how obvious it is that the body of Christ is insanely hard hearted and hypocritical.

⁸ For to one is given through the Spirit the utterance of (N) wisdom, and to another the utterance of (O) knowledge according to the same Spirit, ⁹ to another (P) faith by the same Spirit, to another (Q) gifts of healing by the one Spirit, ¹⁰ to another (R) the working of miracles, to another (S) prophecy, to another (T) the ability to distinguish between spirits, to another (U) various kinds of tongues, to another (V) the interpretation of tongues. ¹¹ All these are empowered by one and the same Spirit, (W) who apportions to each one individually (X) as he wills.

Again, let Allen be honest that there is only one Spirit and one body of Christ and that You've raised us all up for the building up of Your kingdom which is NOT of this world. Don't let Allen do like the rest and go into automatic cruise control of the flesh. Convict him to disengage from the pack mentality and actually pay attention to what You've said and are saying as compared to what we've historically believed and are doing. Remind him that there's freedom in repentance. Restore to us the joy of Your salvation, and not just as we've known it in the past but as the very first disciples knew it—and then some. Bring on the latter rain awakening. I can't keep doing this. PLEASE don't make me keep praying for and reaching out to people who don't even have an interest in what You're doing! Do a total body transformation. The body of Christ today looks like a woman that's 400 pounds overweight! Since You're Her Personal Fitness Trainer, make Her look like the Under Armour mannequin: lean, healthy, and strong. Then make Her modest, so unlike today's women, including the best Christian women who are super proud. Make the body of Christ the Proverbs 31 Woman; a Bride Jesus is thrilled to call My Beloved rather than feel like "I am about to vomit thee out of my mouth" (Rev. 3:16, YLT).

¹² For just as [Ⓜ]the body is one and has many members, and all the members of the body, though many, are one body, [Ⓝ]so it is with Christ.

Again, help Allen focus biblically. Make his spiritual vision crisp and clear, sharp like an eagle who can focus on prey up to 2 miles away! Deliver him from that satanic system we've called church for so many centuries. Let now be the time. Use him and LeAnne to deliver that whole congregation. Remind him that the way Satan deceives us is by combining loads of truth and love with lies and hatred like the "delicious" pie with Minny's feces in the movie The Help. The woman ate it no problem at all—two slices even. That's exactly what the body of Christ has done! We're the Two-Slice Bride of Christ. Give Allen eyes to see it! What a disgusting pig with the same attitude as the woman in the movie! Forgive us because You are a forgiving God. Take our sins as far as the east is from the west. Thank You that You've already done it!

Remind Allen that Satan knows the Bible and, therefore knows our weakness, that our hearts are deceitful above all and desperately wicked. Let Allen love YOU more than anything or anyone else since that's the only way we gain the victory. Convict him to take his thoughts captive to Christ every single time he gets offended by something I've said or when one of those standard lies comes to mind. Help him engage his brain like he would his abs while working out and as if he was training for the Olympics. Make him spiritually STRAIGHT, STRONG, FIRM, NO LIMPNESS.

¹³ For ^(AA)in one Spirit we were all baptized into one body—^(AB)Jews or Greeks, slaves^[d] or free—and ^(AC)all were made to drink of one Spirit.

Convict Allen of how obvious it is that I've been drinking deep of Your Spirit. Also make him painfully aware of the spirit that rules those buildings we've historically called church. Let him feel like You do when saying "I am about to vomit thee out of my mouth." In fact, let him cast it all off like the used tampon that it is (Isa. 30:22). Make him physically ill like You did Daniel upon seeing the vision (Dan. 8:27). And let him clearly discern that the Daniel prophecy You gave me about Him has come from You. Don't let him do what the born again have been doing: connecting dots when there are none pretending it's come from You and yet ignore the real connections since they don't like them. Grow us up.

¹⁴ For the body does not consist of one member but of many. ¹⁵ If the foot should say, "Because I am not a hand, I do not belong to the body," that would not make it any less a part of the body. ¹⁶ And if the ear should say, "Because I am not an eye, I do not belong to the body," that would not make it any less a part of the body. ¹⁷ If the whole body were an eye, where would be the sense of hearing? If the whole body were an ear, where would be the sense of smell? ¹⁸ But as it is, ^(AD)God arranged the members in the body, each one of them, ^(AE)as he chose. ¹⁹ If all were a single member, where would the body be? ²⁰ As it is, there are many parts,^[e] yet one body.

Use Allen to begin this vindication that You keep promising is about to happen. PLEASE don't let all these prophecies I've been hearing be nothing more than Your incentive to keep me going and Allen is just another stepping stone. When is enough enough?! I know Your timing is best, even impeccable. But if he's not the one who'll start this "run" (Hab. 2:2)...Lord, I've had it! Please STOP this runaway train!

Father, please, forgive us. We DO NOT DESERVE IT, clearly. But You are a forgiving God. Humble the body of Christ like we've never been humbled before. Build us up like that Saturday Boot Camp instructor. Make us like that class in the Spirit: all focused on the man. Working hard as he directed us. Trying harder than we thought we could handle. Going longer than we imagined possible. All independent yet united as one, joyfully working for the same goal. Do that!

Don't let Allen focus on the negative—the fact that we've wasted so much time and energy—but on the positive, the joy and freedom and power and healing that You have in store for us when we finally repent. Let him make the connections with things You've been saying to him and/or have said to him in the past with what You now have me saying. Let those sermons he hears in that building echo what You have me saying. Remove the scales from his eyes. Fill him with a deeply GENUINE passionate love for Christ. Fill him with godly sorrow for what we've done. Make him the man You raised him up to be so that he lives the rest of his life WORTHY of the calling he has received. Make LeAnne the woman You have in mind. Ditto for me and for Reggie. Deliver Reggie from his apathy and hypocrisy! Pour out Your shower of cleansing and blessing. We're in DESPERATE NEED! And no one else can help but YOU! Lord, help us! Have mercy! Make NOW the appointed time. Unclog Allen's ears!

²¹ The eye cannot say to the hand, "I have no need of you," nor again the head to the feet, "I have no need of you."

Let Allen be honest about what the body of Christ has been doing to me these 26 years; and that it adds up to having rejected Christ. Cast out that proud arrogant spirit from him and from all the members of the body of Christ. Prepare his mind to receive the teachings You have given me. And when I've misunderstood, use him to biblically correct me. Make us one, humbly submitting to one another out of reverence for Christ. End this Twilight Zone nightmare I've been in for decades. Place a guard over Allen's mouth that he would NOT take part in evil deeds. And over mine, and LeAnne's, and all the rest. Let him receive correction knowing that those who don't lead others astray. Use Kerry Bowman, Bill Bean, and Eric Simpson to scare him seeing how carnal, shallow, and blind we can become. Convict and humiliate Eric for having become "Pastor to the Pros." Let all the joy and pride he's taken in that become to him GREAT sorrow. Convict Kerry for having made Eric Assistant Pastor when he was just a new believer as Kendra informed us in that Bible study.

I'm just reminded of a scene from a movie where all these unclean spirits came out from someone's mouth like a giant flock of birds. Do that for the body of Christ. Let Allen see and understand how the born again have unclean spirits. You've made it so obvious with these testimonies and that passage in Matthew 12. Convict Allen to remove the hypocritical beams from his eyes so that he can see the obvious and be used to remove the beams from others and those people can be used to remove them from others and so on—for Your glory. Magnify Yourself across the world.

²²On the contrary, the parts of the body that seem to be weaker are indispensable,

They've all viewed me as this idiotic simple woman since I don't focus on this world as they do. Remind and convict Allen that Your kingdom is not of this world and that focusing on You and not on this world is to REJECT SATAN—what we all should have been doing. Make it crystal clear to him that the body of Christ is helping Satan rule while leaving Christ on the sidelines—for the most part. Lord, forgive us for crucifying You all over again and putting You to open shame. Make it obvious to Allen that You have entrusted me with an indispensable ministry. Give Allen a love for the truth that supersedes his love for his own opinions, his pastor, his family and friends, his job, his celebration of pagan holidays (if he still does that), all of it. Make it clear to him that loving anyone or anything more than You is not only sin but honors our enemy the devil, HELPING him build his murderous and deceptive kingdom on earth. Forgive us for having done it and done it for so long! We are as You say “foolish” and “stupid” (Jer. 4:22, ESV). Empowered by Your Spirit and given the mind of Christ, forgive us for behaving like lost unbelievers. Clearly show Allen how true this is.

²³ and on those parts of the body that we think less honorable we bestow the greater honor, and our unpresentable parts are treated with greater modesty, ²⁴ which our more presentable parts do not require. But God has so composed the body, giving greater honor to the part that lacked it,

Show Allen how You've done this. It's so obvious. Give him clarity of mind to see that I'm not experiencing delusions of grandeur but FAITH. Enable him to connect the dots, to even be willing to do what the body of Christ hasn't been willing to do for these 2000 years since Paul said back then “You no longer try to understand.” Convict Allen to TRY and try hard. Give him success. Empower him to overcome his deceitful heart. You've given all born again this power but it's like that song where the man sings about having this rocket inside of him that he never used. Allow us to finally TAKE OFF! Use Allen like a Bic lighter on the greatest fireworks display of all time. Give us a show Lord, not because we deserve we. We don't! But for Your glory that all elect would finally see Your amazing grace. Light up the world with Your beauty raining down on us with Your forgiving love, that around the world they would feel like when we'd sit at the U of M on the Fourth of July with that amazing display practically right on top of us. Show

Your majesty to this generation stopping Satan and the rest of the forces of evil in their tracks for the brief respite You've promised as the latter rain before all hell breaks loose. Bring in the harvest. Wake up the comatose "dead" body of Christ and raise us up like those bones in Ezekiel's valley, a mighty powerful army of lovers of truth full of compassion and mercy, eager to do whatever needs doing to fulfill Your will, no longer talkers but doers of the Word, loving You with all of our heart, soul, mind, and strength. Forgive us for giving you the leftover scraps as if You are our dog! Shame the body. Shame Allen and LeAnne. Shame James. Don't let all these trials have been for nothing. I know You haven't but let the fruit of it all be edible NOW.

²⁵ that there may be no division in the body, but that the members may have the same care for one another.

Let Allen see how uncaring, unfaithful, unholy, and unloving the body of Christ actually is today. How hypocritical! Called to "no division" yet divided by the TENS OF THOUSANDS and still talking about being united in Christ! Again remove the scales from Allen's eyes and from the rest of the body. Take Your sledge hammer, which is the word of God, and break these rock hard hearts of the born again into pieces (Jer. 23:29). Grind them to powder and rebuild them. Let living water finally pour out of those hearts instead of the destruction, death, and heartache they currently cause. Make Allen as committed to You as he's been to his job in this world. Then multiply it a hundred fold.

²⁶ If one member suffers, all suffer together; if one member is honored, ^(A)all rejoice together.

Again, give Allen eyes to see the depth of this truth through our family and the Marshalls so that he can see it in Your Family, the gravity of the damage that the body of Christ has been doing. Make him place himself in the lives of the Lahaina victims who lost everything and are being helped by Satan's government and a so-called church that's also led by Satan, the ruler and god of this world. Only You can invade Allen's space by Your Spirit. That's Your job. Make Allen feel the burn of Your Holy Spirit cleansing Him from within like that army of scrubbing bubbles in the toilet cleaner commercial since we've made a toilet out of our vessels in which You poured Your Holy Spirit! Forgive us! Change Allen in a way others immediately notice it and want more of You. Give Allen a hunger and thirst for righteousness like he's never known before that he might be filled and have excess by which to fill others. Clearly show him the good works that You prepared in advance for him to do and which have not yet been done. Make Allen a man of biblical prayer who, like Christ, spends whole nights in prayer—even just half the night! Teach Your children how to pray! It's like we're still in Preschool spiritually! Father, please be WILLING to take us on to maturity.

²⁷ Now (AG) you are the body of Christ and individually (AH) members of it.

Again, let Allen admit that we are both members of the same body, that there are not billions of local bodies but one, and that Jesus is the Head, not men with certificates from man-made institutions. Remind him that we were bought with a price therefore convict him and the rest of the body of Christ to honor You with our whole lives. If he doesn't know exactly what part of Your body he is—a hand, a foot, a mouth, an intestine—convict him to start asking You about it and listening for Your response. Same with the good works You've prepared in advance for him to do. Ditto for LeAnne and the rest of his family. Convict and teach the body of Christ how to rely on You alone, not on dreams or visions or feelings or anything or anyone else. Give the born again today tunnel vision for Christ, like Noel used to say of me "You have a one track mind!" Give us all a one track mind for Christ! While You use everything and everyone, convict the born again to take EVERY THOUGHT captive to Christ. Convict Allen to do it as he's reading the book. Convict him to read it! PLEASE DO NOT let him be like André and Angela or Randa! Or Ed Rice or anyone from Eagle! Let it now be Your "appointed time."

And thank You for using all of these trials and writing assignments over the years to build up my faith. Thank You that none of it has been wasted, no matter how hurtful. Thank You that You love us enough to refine us and make us like Christ. Thank You that one day everyone You've created will finally be like Christ as You make all things new! What an amazing world that will be! Bind that scoffing spirit that will harass Allen as he reads the book! Wrestle Allen down and bind him like a cowboy does a calf, like Noel used to do to me. Brand him for You. Open Allen's mind to the Scriptures so that he can see all the lies we've believed.

While it's all so far been wasted on those You've had me reach out to, and on the girls You had me raise, for their unwillingness to be honest, it hasn't been wasted on me. Thank You. Thank You that eventually they'll all return to their first love. Teach me more today as I work on Allen's book. Open my mind, and Allen's, to the Scriptures in ways we haven't yet seen. Make it the cry of his heart. Rev up Your Spirit within us like a man on his racing bike headed for a wild ride. And since You're having me put this book up online use it for more people than I could even count.

²⁸ And ^(AD)God has appointed in the church first ^(AD)apostles, second ^(AK)prophets, third teachers, then ^(AD)miracles, then ^(AM)gifts of healing, ^(AN)helping, ^(AO)administrating, and ^(AP)various kinds of tongues.

Convict Allen that You still have prophets and that none of these positions are titles. Convict every single born again Christian who uses a title. Build up Your body for Your glory. Allow us to come into maturity so that we can finally show the world the amazing work You did for everyone on the Cross. Let the born again be not only willing but EAGER to admit how deceived, unfaithful, and hypocritical we've been so that we ignite Your fire in the hearts of the currently lost elect, no longer creating more Christian hypocrites but actually making disciples of Christ—the most loving and honest people the world has EVER known fully empowered by Your Spirit like never before. Let it happen FAST.

²⁹ Are all apostles? Are all prophets?

Convict Allen if he's a scoffer about You still sending prophets. Open his eyes. Let him see how clear it is that You're using me along with my family just like a prophet of the Old Testament, especially Joseph, and that there are aspects of nearly all the key Old Testament prophets in my life testimony. While he won't be able to see that in this book, let him see what is revealed: Job, Hosea, Jeremiah, and Elijah, for example. And John the Baptist.

Are all teachers?

Calling himself an elder as if it's a title, convict Allen of how lacking he's been as a teacher, not taking offense by it but being convicted and challenged to rise higher. Since he is an elder, an older born again Christian who's been born again for decades, let him be a true spiritual elder for Your body as he finally worships You in Spirit and in truth rejecting all the lies he's been fed and is currently walking in. Make him a teacher among teachers as if Christ Himself was in the room, which of course He is but You know what I mean. Do what Barb Miller used to wrongly say about Eagle leadership, "They're like Jesus with skin on." Let Allen become a man who actually is like Jesus with skin on walking amongst us. Do that for every seasoned member of the body of Christ. How many hundreds of thousands, millions, of born again Christians there must be in the world today, yet infants in Christ. Grow us up to be like the 32 year old Christ when He walked the earth full of wisdom; full of love; full of the Spirit; full of sound doctrine; full of compassion; full of love for the Father; full of faith; full of love for truth; full of righteous indignation; fully discerning of Satan's abilities, purpose and presence. You know it's Your will. Do it! Please, glorify Your Name in all the earth! Do like that scene at the end of Beauty and the Beast when a wave of light and transformation sweeps over the castle and it's inhabitants. Lord we need it TODAY!

Do all work miracles?

Father, bring the body to maturity so that we could again work miracles in even greater measure than what the first disciples did. Convict Allen that it's because of all of OUR UNFAITHFULNESS that the body of Christ is as dead as it is, doing little more than being like young adults attending weekly seminars led by a second rate professor at a university. What is so amazing about that?! Change us!

³⁰ Do all possess gifts of healing? Do all speak with tongues? Do all interpret? ³¹ But ^(A)earnestly desire the higher gifts. And I will show you a still more excellent way.

Remove the scales form Allen's eyes so that he clearly sees how much more excellent the way is that You have for us than what we've been doing for most of the past 2000 years. Use this book like a spark plug for Allen's rocket engine that You placed inside of him when he became born again. Let him take off like a bat out of hell, like when my boyfriend took me on his bike weaving in and out of traffic full throttle. Let Allen break all the rules of this world he's been bound to and live for Christ full speed ahead without fear, not turning to the right or to the left since that would be a catastrophic wipe out! But fully energized and geared up for the end of this race

You've given us. Convict him to put on the full gear so that when he wipes out it'll be like Ed's wipe out on the beltway. Scuffed—pretty badly—but NOT broken. Heal this gang of Hells Angels. Change us to resemble a massive group of bikers on a mission of love and truth, in full gear, united as one.

Since You just reminded me of Charles Ware convict him of his actions. Make him PAINFULLY aware of his sins before he dies. Ditto for Kerry Bowman and Eric Simpson. And thank You that even if they die unrepentant, either way, they blew it! They wasted the opportunities You gave them for loving power and money and being SUPER PROUD and downright cruel so that, at best, they're getting saved as by fire with little to nothing to show for themselves even though they've been born again for decades. Let their example, and the example of all the hired hands who call themselves Pastor, Prophet, Evangelist or Apostle, everyone who's peddled Your Word for profit and refused to repent when held accountable, especially these so-called leaders, make them stand up before all and CONFESS their many sins with so many tears they gag themselves through it. Do with them like Noel did when that kid took my doll, dragging him down the street placing him at my feet and making him apologize. Drag them all and place them at the feet of Jesus. Thank You because that is essentially what You're doing! Halleluyah! Make a spectacle of them before the whole world so that even the hardest lost elect soul, including Noel, takes notice and comes running to Christ. Don't let Allen be a scoffer or treat prophecies with contempt! Give him the heart and mindset of the adulterous woman at the well used to fire up the whole town for Christ, except this time make it the whole world! Amen. The Lord's Prayer \(It's Yours\) - Matt Maher | WordShip \(youtube.com\).

A composite image featuring a human brain, a dog in a military uniform, and a metal rack against a background of mathematical formulas. The brain is the central focus, with a dog in a green camouflage uniform and a black beret positioned on its surface. A metal rack with multiple shelves is positioned above the brain. The background is a light blue and purple gradient with various mathematical formulas and diagrams scattered across it.

Father,
let Your kingdom come.
Let Your will be done on earth as in heaven.
Matthew 6:10

The heart is deceitful above all things,
and desperately wicked.
Jeremiah 17:9, KJV